

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

HOME MISSIONS.

NINETY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Home Missions begs leave respectfully to submit to the General Assembly the Ninety-sixth Annual Report of its work.

We record the goodness of God manifest to us in many ways during the year now closed. It appears in the devotion and self-sacrifice of our missionaries and teachers. In a time of great financial stress and the burdens inevitable thereto they have stood to their work with signal patience and fortitude. They have in many cases evinced a cheerfulness under trials worthy of all praise. They have not allowed hard times to turn them aside from the service of Christ.

We make grateful mention also of special tokens of divine goodness in the fruits of missionary labors. It has not been a year of general revival, but from many fields there come to us notes of rejoicing because of harvests gathered. In some of the hardest places there have been cheering times of refreshing, and where there have been no special seasons of quickening, there has been a steady gain in souls gathered into the Kingdom and in the life and strength of the churches.

The Board also bears thankful testimony to the favor of God in the measure of support that has come to its work. Gratifying responses have been made to the appeals that have been necessary, and both sympathy for and co-operation with the Board have not failed in the Presbyteries and churches. So while the review of the year is in some respects a painful one because of a depleted treasury, the lack of opportunity to advance and the many anxieties inseparable from hard times, the Board does not lose sight of the truth that our covenant God has been with us—His light has not failed us in the darkness, nor the shadow of His gracious cloud in the heat of the day. So while we count our debt and our distresses, we do not forget that the mercies of the Lord are without number.

Especially do we look back over well-nigh a century of the history of this work and find in its steady progress and its deep entrenchment in the heart of our Church abundant "comfort of hope" that in the years to come the Lord of Hosts will be with us and the God of Jacob continue to be our refuge.

The past year has in many respects been memorable in the history of this Board. The last General Assembly directed it so to reorganize its methods of administration that the executive work should be placed in charge of one secretary with whatever assistants might be necessary; and that he be accountable to the Board for its faithful and efficient management.

After prolonged and earnest deliberation the Board made this reorganization and the Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D., pastor of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church of New York City and for nearly nine years a member of the Board, was elected sole secretary and entered upon his work the first of March. The retiring secretaries have the grateful appreciation of the Board for the ability and devotion with which through years of great financial stress they conducted this work. They will not fail to receive the gratitude of the entire Church.

The past year has also witnessed several important changes in the personnel of the Board. Mr. John Crosby Brown, for several years a highly valued member and serving on some of its most important committees, was obliged on account of the pressure of other business to retire from our service. Mr. Robert C. Ogden has been elected to fill the vacancy. The Board was further bereft in December by the sudden death of the Hon. Charles E. Green, whose counsels were of the highest value to the Board and who at the time of his death was Chairman of the Committee on Reorganization. His place has been filled by the election of the Hon. James A. Beaver, of Bellefonte, Pa.

A few months ago the Rev. Thomas S. Hastings, D.D., LL.D., offered his resignation, which was accepted most reluctantly and with profound regret. Dr. Hastings' services covered a long period in the history of the Board and were always conspicuous. He was a member of the New School Committee of Home Missions from 1861, and since the Reunion a member of this Board. His place has been filled by the election of Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., of St. Louis.

The Rev. Charles Wood, D.D., of Philadelphia, has been chosen to fill the vacancy created by the election of the present secretary.

During the past year the following missionaries of the Board have gone to their rest and their reward. Let their names be inscribed in the history of the Church, to whose missionary service they gave their lives.

Rev. Frank F. Barrett, Prairie du Sac, Wisconsin.

OUR FIELD.

It may be best to begin our résumé of the work in different parts of the country by alluding to characteristic features of that form of Home Mission work toward which there is marked tendency, and which is represented in several of our strongest Synods.

SYNODICAL SUSTENTATION.

The following Synods are caring, in whole or in part, for the work in their own bounds—named in the order in which they have assumed this, respectively, viz., Kentucky, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Baltimore, Indiana, Illinois and Ohio.

The plans, however, vary according to the needs and conditions of localities. Kentucky does what it can toward its own support, taking special collections, and any deficiency in this Synodical Fund is supplemented by the Board.

Pennsylvania has made steady progress in its Synodical Plan since 1883 until now it draws very little from the general treasury. New Jersey likewise carries on its own work entirely, increasing also in its contributions to the Board.

New York's collections for Sustentation have not wholly supported it, due doubtless to the large amount of mission work done by churches in large cities through various plans of church extension. During the past year, however, the Empire State has determined to take entire charge of its work, purposing to continue its usual offerings to the Board.

The Synod of Baltimore has substantially the same plan as Pennsylvania and is making good progress under efficient management. They are not quite self-supporting, but will soon become so.

Indiana and Illinois assume entire responsibility for their own work, having their own treasurers, to whom all moneys are paid.

Digitized by GOOGIC

Whatever can be spared from their own fields (and they propose this shall be some definite proportion) shall come to the Board for the cause at large. They believe by this method they will more quickly develop their own fields and will do more for the general work than ever before.

The plan adopted in 1896 by Ohio differs but little from that in use in Indiana and Illinois. It encourages the local churches to give directly to the treasury of the Home Board. An amount equal to 25% of a thirty-five cent apportionment upon the church membership of the entire Synod shall be guaranteed by the Synod to the Board of Home Missions, which sum shall include all offerings made directly to the Board by the churches of the Synod.

These various plans are experimental, their distinguishing features determined by local conditions, and all of them administered in a spirit of loyalty to the Home Board and to the cause of Home Missions. Whatever adjustment they may require will in time become manifest, and then the spirit in which they originated and are conducted may be trusted to secure the proper modifications.

Meantime a Committee of Fifteen, appointed by the General Assembly, has been considering how these Synodical schemes may best be brought into useful and harmonious relations with the Board and the cause. The Church looks for their report in the confidence that their conclusions will strengthen Home Mission work everywhere.

NEW ENGLAND.

Of the forty-three Presbyterian churches in New England, twentythree are self-supporting, and by their growth, their influence and their benevolence have made good their early promise and justified the appropriations of former years in their aid. Only twenty of the churches received aid from the Board during the past year, and the average amount granted-$275-being so small a part of the salary, evinces a struggle toward self-support and a sacrifice that is not surpassed in any section of our country. In addition to their contributions toward self-support, heroic efforts have been made to provide houses of worship. These people, be it remembered, are largely from the old countries and the Provinces. have been attracted by the hundreds of thousands into New England manufacturing cities and towns, and while their affiliations are decidedly Presbyterian, their means are limited to very moderate incomes. As our work is largely restricted to manufacturing Digitized by GOOSIG and commercial centres, real estate is costly and the character of the building needed is expensive. These burdens test the faith and courage of the most resolute. And yet, all but four of our churches have houses of worship. And these four, Hyde Park, Haverhill, Waltham and Brockton, have begun to accumulate funds for the purpose. These churches have passed successfully through the recent years of financial depression, in many cases with reduced wages and enforced idleness. The accessions last year averaged about seventy to each church. The additions to the Presbyterian churches of New England during the period under review have been over 100% larger than those to any other denomination. That these struggling churches have so grown in numbers and strength is an encouraging feature of the work, an interesting commentary on their self-denial and splendid management, and evidence of earnest effort and the Divine sanction and blessing.

"The ministers and officers, as well as the membership generally," says Dr. Dewing, "have met the great reduction in appropriation with a brave and uncomplaining spirit. It has been a delicate and often painful duty to inform pastors, already perplexed to see how to make ends meet, that a reduced grant was imperative on account of the multiplied burdens that have embarrassed the Board of Home Missions, especially during the past three years. It is earnestly hoped that an era of financial prosperity may dawn that may dissipate the threatening clouds that have darkened the horizon, and an advance movement on a strictly economical basis may be possible. On behalf of the section of the work that I represent as Presbyterial Missionary, I pledge the utmost endeavor to carry forward the work at the minimum of aid from the treasury of the Board, that will protect our churches against disaster and ultimate extinction."

THE SOUTH has a much smaller foreign element in its population than any other section of our country. A comparative statement in this regard is startling. While 14% of the population of our country, taken as a whole, is foreign-born, the Southern States average but 2%. New York has 26%; North Dakota nearly 45%; Texas, having the largest number of foreigners of the Southern States, has less than 7%; Florida comes next with less than 6%. The foreigners in Texas are chiefly Mexicans, and those of Florida are Cubans or Spanish. Kentucky follows next with but 3%; while Tennessee and Arkansas have but 1% each; Alabama less than 1%, and Mississippi and Georgia about one-half of 1%. These facts would indicate a population of remarkable homogeneity. But racial differences enter into the account; varied social conditions follow, and corresponding methods of mission work become necessary. The 7,000,000 citizens of African descent must look for aid in the supply of spiritual things to the Boards especially provided for them.

Perils.—Different and very distinct conditions exist among the white citizens of these States. The multitudes among the mountains, who have been passed by in the march of progress and the growth of churches and schools, are exposed to the perils of ignorance, immorality, intemperance and the wily Mormon missionary, who appeals with too much success to their susceptible religious nature. The misguided and misleading emissaries of that strange system are deployed among the States of the South as well as those of the North and West.

Opportunities.—The inflow of population from the North into certain portions of the South overtaxes the resources of the churches in the South and makes it imperative that we should bear our portion of the burden. To such regions we confine our Home Missionary operations. No attempt has been made to enter Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi or Louisiana, where the southern branch of our Church seems able to do the work.

But in many communities in Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Florida and Texas, where the churches were unable to support the means of grace unaided, and where the demands upon the treasury of our Southern brethren was far greater than they could possibly meet, we were invited and urged to enter. We have never been either hasty or over-zealous to respond to this call, but with the same spirit with which we have tried to give the Gospel to the neglected communities in the West, in New England, and in every part of our common country, we have entered the States lying toward the South, always observing strictly the principles of denominational comity.

The South calls imperatively for additional help in providing the means of grace. Its resources and developments speak volumes in behalf of an aggressive policy in our church life. She possesses 183,000,000 acres of unbroken forests. Her mineral resources are just now coming to light. Enormous stores of granite, sandstone, limestone and phosphate rock, and in some places coal, iron-ore and limestone are close together in the same range, a condition found nowhere else in the world.

A new era has dawned in agricultural development. Last year the cotton crop was four-fifths of the whole world's product. Within two years the South's addition of cotton-spindles was 39%, while New England's was only $5\frac{1}{3}$ %. Manufactured articles doubled in value between 1880 and 1890, while the wages of factory hands nearly tripled as also did the capital involved in cotton manufacturing. The capital has nearly doubled since 1890, being about \$120,000,000 now to \$61,000,000 then. In 1880 the cotton-seed oil capital was \$3,500,000 and now it is over \$30,000,000. In 1880 the South made 397,000 tons of pig-iron, but in 1895 she made 1,702,000 tons. In 1890 its coal output was 6,000,000 tons, but now mining is being done at the rate of 30,000,000 tons per annum.

But the increase of Southern export commerce is still more significant.

All the ports of our country gained in business a little over 19%. The Southern ports gained over 34%.

And the Gulf ports increased over 37%.

The increase in the shipment of grain from four of the largest Southern ports was 65% against 25% at four of the largest Northern ports.

Glance at the meaning of these statistics in relation to the work of our Church in the South which we now give by Synods.

KENTUCKY.

This Synod has maintained a steady growth through another trying year, but it has required well directed energy and wise financiering to do it. Its gain in church membership was less than in the previous year. It added but one church to its roll and lost two ministers, but it received less aid from the Board, contributed more money to the Board, raised more for the support of its churches and missions and advanced 15% in its contributions the benevolent causes of the Church. It is the earnest purpose of this Synod to relieve the Board of the support of its weak churches and missions, and in pursuance of this purpose two vears ago it appointed an Executive Committee of Synodical Home Missions whose duty it is to raise funds, to keep the work before the churches in the most effective manner by sermons, addresses, conferences, conventions and by whatever other methods may seem to them best and to use the funds in aid of the feeble churches in accordance with the Synod's instruction.

The Synod has enacted that "A collection shall be taken in each of our churches for this cause of Synodical Missions every year," and "The annual Home Missionary collection shall be taken as usual in each church and forwarded to the Home Board in New York." The Synodical Fund last year amounted to $3,178.16.

Presbyterianism in Kentucky is an aggressive force and moves on with a well-defined purpose which is born of faith and guided by the wisdom of a ripe experience.

There are entire counties in this State where we have no church, and there are 300,000 mountaineers who have yet to be provided with the stated means of grace.

"Our mountain work," writes the Rev. Dr. McDonald, "hitherto so discouraging, is now the most promising in the Synod. Thirty-one persons have been added to our church at Hyden, Leslie County, within six months. We are eagerly looking forward to the time when we shall be permitted to enter many promising and needy fields, from which we are now barred for want of funds. Half a dozen men of grit and grace could be placed in as many fields needing to be occupied if the funds were forthcoming. That God may send the funds and the men is my earnest prayer."

THE SYNOD OF TENNESSEE.

This Synod includes all the churches in our connection in the three States of Alabama, North Carolina and Tennessee. Its western boundary follows the Cumberland Mountains, and so does not reach middle Tennessee, and could not without encroaching upon territory already sufficiently covered by our sister Church of the South. For the same reason it does not extend into Alabama beyond the northern tier of counties nor eastward beyond the mountains of western North Carolina. It covers the region where the mountaineers dwell who, possessing little money and no slaves, confined themselves to the lands which the wealthy planters could not use to advantage. With the inspiring memories and sturdy faith which are their heritage, it is not wonderful that the people of this region should give promise of a vigorous church life and require an able ministry.

Dr. Duncan says:—"The distinctive work of this Synod is its schools among the mountain people. Counting out the pupils in our colleges, we have in actual attendance upon our boarding and day schools 1,500 pupils—500 of these boarding pupils. As reported to the last General Assembly, there were added to our Home Mission churches 357 by profession and 165 by letter—522 in all; and our Home Mission churches gave $1,278 to the Home Board.

"Five new churches and four new schools have been organized, and at Huntsville, Tenn., a dormitory and teachers' home secured for the school.

"In the course of the year we hope to have two new buildings in Tennessee and two in North Carolina. We now have thirty-three candidates for the gospel ministry.

The lack of money is greatly hindering aggressive work. Two more men are a most urgent need, but we have not a cent to support them. We are constantly having to say 'No' to calls for new schools, although they come eagerly from many points in North Carolina and Tennessee. The church invariably follows the school. In the course of the year we will probably organize churches in neighborhoods where we have had schools."

Part of Holston Presbytery is in North Carolina, west of the Blue Ridge, where our work has been growing to such a degree that North Carolina may soon be set off into a new Presbytery.

FLORIDA.

This State has not yet fully recovered from the destructive frosts which a few years ago brought disastrous and disheartening calamity, but a new period of prosperity has dawned. The resources of the State are better understood, a variety of industries are being developed, the soil and climate are favorable to a diversity of crops so that the State is not again to be at the mercy of a single frost, or even a succession of frosts. The facilities for the shipment of perishable vegetables and fruits to the great cities of the country are so far perfected that its harvests and markets are perennial.

The church life is beginning to feel a new impulse. At least four important mission groups give promise of early reaching self-support. New work opens to us as the inflow of population pushes southward. The Rev. S. T. Thompson, of Tarpon Springs, observes "that ever from all sections north of Tampa, Polk and Brevard counties, southward the course of settlers takes its way. While other parts of Florida are losing, all this part is gaining in population. The diversified products, the exemption from frost and the thrifty character of the new comers give assurance of steady and probably rapid growth."

An interesting and very hopeful feature of church life in Florida is the cordial co-operation of the Northern and Southern Branches of the Presbyterian Church. By mutual understanding, they arrange their work in different sections, and where these sections approach they group across the line in a truly fraternal fashion. Thus the most careful economy of men and money is practiced.

The only advance into new territory that has been effected has been accomplished by the wider grouping of the churches and missions under the missionaries. This reduces the effectiveness of the missionary and at the same time increases his burdens, but it saves the Board's money. The cry for more men is importunate.

The Chairman of the Home Mission Committee, South Florida Presbytery, asks: "Has the Board before it from all its wide field a more urgent need? Can any other Church so well supply this need? Can the Board, with all its wise counsel, effectual prayer, and heavenly guidance do aught but say, 'This clarion call must be heeded, this field must be supplied.""

On the subject of comity the Rev. Henry Keigwin says: "At the spring meetings it has become the custom of the Presbytery of St. John (of the Southern Church) and the Presbytery of South Florida (of our church) alternately to invite each other to become their guests. These union meetings have been delightful, the Christian fellowship has been cordial, and I am convinced that there is not a brother in either Presbytery but would hail the day when the organic union of the two Assemblies would give them opportunity to mingle permanently in unity and enable them to work unitedly for one common cause in Florida."

TEXAS.

This continental State reaches from Arkansas to Mexico and from Colorado to the Gulf; from the cattle ranges at the very spurs of the Rocky Mountains it extends to the orange orchards and palmetto swamps of the tropics. With its vast variety of soil and climate, of minerals and of natural growths, of grazing lands and of crops, its populations and occupations, it has within itself the diversified resources of an empire. It attracts all nationalities and all conditions of people. It has railroads for them to travel over and cities for them to dwell in.

Its history is remarkable even for an American State. It has existed under seven different national flags—a fact that is an index to the varied character of the mission work needed within its bounds. Our missionaries are preaching in six different languages and peoples of nine other languages are waiting for the Gospel. At a recent mass meeting held in the city of Dallas in the interest of the American Bible Society and presided over by the Rev. Dr. W. B. Rankin, the Society's general agent, the Bible was read in fifteen different languages.

Texas is the great western frontier of the Southern States. But the Southern Branch of our Church finds its resources of men and money entirely inadequate to meet the demand. The churches which we early established in Austin and Dallas, and some smaller cities and towns, have grown strong and extended their influence in radiant lines till it has been long felt all over the State. And yet we have been tardy in entering the greater cities on the coast; Galveston and Houston have long invited us to come over and help, but not until the year just closed have we responded. Churches of bright promise have been organized in each of these cities. They are struggling heroically with the problem of church building and self-support on slender resources. A large amount of help extended to these promising fields, and others that are ready to be occupied in Texas, would doubtless give early and liberal returns.

Says Dr. Little: "Even a novice in Home Missions can see the drift of affairs in Texas. The whole land has uttered a Macedonian cry for help, but the South, and especially the South on the Gulf, has lifted up such a cry as was never heard on the round globe. And this cry is intensified by the fact that a very large portion of those coming in to the Gulf region are from the northwest. They are our own people and are in sympathy with our methods and activities. And our possibilities are emphasized by our marked successes, as in Houston and Galveston. There is an open door in Texas if only the Board was financially conditioned to sustain us in new work. Towns are springing up on multiplied The Gulf counties are attracting multitudes, the western counties give the finest climate in America to great numbers. Our eyes are not open to the facts, because it seemed best to stop exploring and devote our energies to the development of what is in hand. Six men are wanted for places that are now being neglected. Twice as many more will be urging their claims upon us if there shall ever come permission to push our work. There is a disadvantage in stirring up a community unless we really mean to be permanent in our occupation, and hence so little has been done to develop our work. The vast undertakings in business in the South, and especially on the Gulf, have been presented to your attention that it might be evident that a much larger future is before you than is now apparent. Such developments in business make the enforced delay in pushing our work doubly disastrous; we lose our present opportunities, and in doing so we close the door to many coming opportunities."

The strength of our Church in the Southern States is exhibited by the statistics hereto appended. The few churches in Arkansas connected with our branch belong to the Synods of Missouri and Indian Territory and are so reported.

	Presbyteries.	Ministers.	Churches.	Add on Ex.	Add on Cer.	Total Mems.	S. S. Enrol.	Gifts to all Causes.	A verage per Member,	Average per Member of Whole Church.

The average contribution per member in Kentucky is far above the average for the other Synods in the South. It is not only true that the people have a mind to give, but there are in this Synod a number of strong churches, lifting the average ability beyond that of any other of our Southern Synods.

The average in Tennessee is the lowest because such a large percentage of our churches in that Synod is in the mountain districts, where the ability to give does not exist. Florida is low in the scale of contributions because of the recent and almost total destruction of its chief industry—orange growing. Texas has all the disadvantages of the frontier, where wealth is not found in its churches and where the elements which constitute our congregations are largely of the incoming population, whose possessions are in recently established business. They are showing the rising tide of prosperity by the steady increase of their contributions.

MICHIGAN.

The Synod of Michigan has exemplified during the past year the possibilities of united and persistent effort in the face of difficulties. The wisely directed labors of the Synodical Committee and the Presbyterial Committees in connection with those of the Synodical Missionary have resulted in helping aid-receiving churches toward self-support, grouping churches to the utmost limit so as to reduce the number of ministers required and increasing the amount of their support from the field, and laying responsibility more heavily upon the hearts of the stronger churches for increased contributions. The good results are in part seen in the diminished aid required and the increased receipts of the Board from that Synod.

The new rules governing the appropriations of the Board adopted by the General Assembly of 1896 have in this Synod, as in all others, worked to the advantage of both the churches and the Board's treasury. In some cases the rearrangement of aid-receiving churches made necessary by retrenchment has increased the size of the fields and thus added to the labors of the ministers. But the new plan of apportionment has prevented the material reduction of salaries. The efforts of Home Mission churches to assume self-support have been commendable, and in many cases heroic. Progress has been made all along the line, and the Synod is now quite fully supplied with ministers.

Rev. David Howell, the Synodical Missionary, says: "The plan of Presbyterial administration of mission funds, adopted by the Board two years ago, has become fully established in all our Presbyteries and is working quite satisfactorily. With but few exceptions our churches are grouped as closely as efficiency of work will permit. The grants to some churches may be and will be reduced as they advance toward self-support.

"During the past two years salaries have declined a little. The average for the Synod is a little lower. This operates somewhat against supplying the weaker fields permanently. Church Extension has been practically suspended during the past few years and as yet shows but little activity.

"The Synod of Michigan has but two aims: First, the extension and establishment of Christ's Kingdom in the hearts of men, and, secondly, the support of such churches as are necessary to accomplish this end. The chief obstacle to our advancement is the evasion by churches of the responsibility of supporting the work. There is a slight improvement, however, in this direction. A number of churches have adopted the plan of advance pledges for the support of the benevolent Boards with most pleasing results. Detroit Presbytery has recommended the plan to her churches. I think it will gradually extend to most of the Synod. Strong efforts are being made to induce churches to adopt it.

"With the disappearance of the financial depression through which we have passed there comes a perceptible decrease of pastoral discontent. This is certainly most gratifying."

WISCONSIN.

Partial recovery from financial depression has given the churches and missionaries of Wisconsin new courage. Many opportunities invite aggressive work in this State, and the brethren of the Synod have been restive under the restraint which our empty treasury has imposed. Being without a Synodical Missionary the greater part of the year, the care of vacant churches devolved upon the Home Mission Committees, for whose expenses no provision could be made. They nevertheless gave much time and attention at their own individual cost, but were quite ready to welcome the help of the new Synodical Missionary, the Rev. L. C. Smith, who was elected by the Synod in October.

Wisconsin is still a young State with new towns springing up and older ones growing into cities, with a large foreign element of various nationalities, with lumber camps and mining communities, with all the push and growth which accompany the rapid development of great natural resources. But her large lumber interests, mining properties and extensive stone quarries are either owned or operated by Eastern or foreign capitalists, into whose hands flow the proceeds. Thus, with productive industries enriching other coffers than her own, Wisconsin needs help in establishing and maintaining churches. By the progress of many churches toward self-support, by a vigorous canvass in all the fields for the purpose of developing their giving power, and by reducing the salaries to the lowest point, the increasing demand for missionaries in Wisconsin has been partially met; 63 missionaries have been in the field as against 59 last year. If the State is to be saved our missionary forces must be speedily increased and aggressive work, which has been so long suspended, must be vigorously pushed. The churches gained in contributions 25% last year over the year before, in the face of trying financial conditions. The Rev. L. C. Smith has given attention first to existing missions and weak churches, rallying them and developing their strength and resources, rather than to aggressive work, so earnestly demanded in the untried fields.

He says: "For the past two years there has been no Synodical Missionary for Wisconsin, and upon my assuming the duties of the office it was determined by the Synod that I should engage largely in evangelistic work among the weak churches. This plan has been faithfully carried out and good results attained. Such work in all our weak churches would pay a hundredfold for the time and expense.

"I worked ten days in West Merrill Church, clearing off a debt that had long been a burden to them. A number professed Christ and the church is greatly strengthened. I gave ten days to the Bethel Church of Ashland. The people had been discouraged and half minded to close the church, but before the meetings were over a different spirit prevailed and some forty decided to become Christians. At Bangor forty professed conversion and the church was crowded nightly. February was spent with the churches of Cottage Grove, Vilas and Oregon, in the Presbytery of Madison. In the first two churches the work was a glorious success. Houses crowded and great interest. Between forty and fifty took a stand for Christ, and the work was greatly strengthened. Very inspiring meetings were held at Carroll College, in which twenty-two students professed Christ.

"Just such work ought to be done in all the Presbyteries. Our weak churches need revivals, and nothing helps to open pocket-books and to open hearts like a work of grace. But I surely cannot do all that ought to be done in this line in the great State of Wisconsin. The Synodical Missionary is needed for the whole field.

"More ought to be realized from weak churches receiving aid. Our pastors must be made to see the condition of the Board and to realize their responsibility in the taking of offerings. If they can be set on fire the problem can be solved very quickly. There is scarcely a church in the whole Western country that is not in debt to the Board of Home Missions. Without the help of the Board in the past none of these churches would have existed. The debt the strong churches owe the Board can never be repaid, no matter what the munificence of their offerings."

MINNESOTA.

The past year has been one of steady progress. The agencies employed have been efficient and the principles of administration followed by the Synod have proved wise. One Presbytery in its report bears strong testimony to the value of the Synodical Missionary as an indispensable agency and most important factor in the results attained. Another adds important testimony to the value of the pastor-at-large. The money spent for his support accomplishes more than if spent on separate charges. This is the only method of taking care of the feeble work.

The Synod's Committee emphasizes the duty of self-support and brings the heaviest pressure to bear upon aid-receiving churches not only for the purpose of saving Home Mission money, but for the higher aim of inculcating the resolute lesson of self-help.

The Committee in its report to the Synod says:—"A most important feature in practical Home Missionary operations is the matter of autonomy, subject, of course, to Presbyterial oversight. We use the term in its broad sense. It is the same as teaching a son rising toward manhood self-reliance and self-support.

"Our missions should be organized early and taught to conduct their own affairs and be distinctly shown their organic relation to the other congregations, the Presbytery, and the whole Church. Perhaps the most vital question before the Church to-day relating to our portion of the Home Mission work is that of local selfsupport."

The Synod urges upon the churches: "The liberal use in all our congregations of the leaflets furnished free by the Board. each pastor preach at least one sermon, before or in connection with the taking of a collection for the Board on the subject of the relation of the Board to our Country's Evangelization. That the Board be not only remembered in the ordinary way by the ordinary collection, but that in connection therewith, through the agencies of elders, deacons, women's societies, children's bands or Sabbath-schools the negligent or careless be sought out and their contributions, in many cases long overdue, obtained to swell the sum to be given by the congregations to this cause. That every means be used to bring up our mission fields to self-dependence in government as most highly contributing to the development of those qualities of intellectual and spiritual life which we seek to promote. That the Presbyteries which have not already done so commend to and require of their churches, about to apply to the Board, the use of such plans of subscription paper as that called the Michigan Plan, coupled with the envelope system or some similar one, in order to bring about the rapid and permanent advance toward the much desired and highly satisfactory goal. that of financial self-support."

The results of such wise oversight are summarized by Dr. Adams as follows: "There have been completed and dedicated free of debt, within the Assembly's year, twenty-five church buildings and there are now in process of erection eight additional churches.

"Our spiritual growth has been very encouraging. Evangelistic efforts in our Synod, conducted by our pastors and our pastors-at-large, have brought forth fruit in large measure during the past year. One thousand members have been added to our aid-receiving churches on profession of faith, and ten churches organized. We have greatly increased the number of pastors and correspondingly decreased the number of stated supplies, and so we report within the year twenty-three installations.

IOWA.

With conscientious fidelity this Synod has striven to reach self-support. By rigid economy, cutting down applications for aid to the limit of possible endurance, by most resolute efforts at self-help, by grouping the aid-receiving churches to the verge of ruin and by resisting appeals from neglected communities for new work, the point of self-support was almost reached.

Iowa is an agricultural State with no large commercial city or manufacturing interests, and while it is exempt from those evils which are peculiar to large cities, it has not the advantage of large churches and wealthy individual givers. The financial achievement of this Synod is therefore the aggregate of moderate sums and the result of faithful work.

Respecting our growth, Dr. Bailey says: "We have organized ten churches in the past year, but not one of them lays an additional dollar of burden upon the treasury of the Board. We could have organized nearly as many more with profit if we could have supported men on them. A large number of blessed ingatherings on our Home Missionary fields tells of the fidelity of our missionaries and of the blessing of God upon their efforts. To keep our work going has required a great deal of self-denial on the part of our missionaries and the people, too.

"I will mention two instances that are full of encouragement. At Paralta, where no services had been held for a long time, through the efforts of one of our Sunday-School Missionaries more than a hundred were gathered into the fold and a new house of worship erected and paid for. The second-an instance of a dead church brought into life—is at Albion, in Waterloo Presbytery, which has been without any services at all for two years. I sent a voung man from the seminary there for the summer, and he lived without aid from the Board because he could not get it. Now we have a minister on the field, and as the result of a series of meetings, in which he was assisted by one of our Sunday-School Missionaries, there was an ingathering of about sixty, and the church promises to become very nearly, if not quite, self-supporting, at once. Now, if we had means to send the men, cases like this could have been duplicated over the State. Digitized by Google

"I have in my hand to-day an appeal for new work at Ottosen, a little town just starting with fine promise, but with no church. The people are appealing to us to organize, and we are simply trembling lest if we do it we shall not be able to get the money to support a minister, and yet in this case I think we shall take the responsibility and trust in the Lord. Another place, George, in Lyon County, is appealing with such force as to make a man's heart break. There is no English-speaking church in the town, of perhaps 600 people."

Our ninety-nine missionaries have preached the Gospel in four different languages to 146 different churches, besides sixty stations, where as yet churches have not been organized. There have been added to these missionary churches by profession of faith a full thousand, and by certificate nearly five hundred, making a total of fifteen hundred. They have in their churches a total membership of 8,200, and their Sabbath-School enrollment is 10,700. About half the missionaries are settled pastors and about half are stated supplies. In addition to these men, who have been under appointment of the Board, we have used thirteen students, or undergraduates from the seminaries, for periods ranging from one to four months. The work of all these put together makes an aggregate of ninety years of labor by our missionaries and these student helpers. The student work has been exceptionally profitable during the year, and, though under the care of the Home Mission Committee, has not cost the Board one cent.

During the year two churches have been disbanded, both of them old organizations, now deserted because of changing centres of population. Neither had any property, and each represented a very small membership.

During the year eight churches, either singly or in groups, have come to self-support, saving the Board an aggregate of $525. There have been eight new church buildings erected at a total cost of $21,800—not all of these, of course, on missionary fields—and nine manses at a total cost of $10,800, increasing our church property by the sum of $32,600, which is not bad for this hard year. Nine new churches have been organized.

MISSOURI.

This State stands fifth in the Union as to population. Lying in the middle of the continent, between the great markets of the East and the productive West, with extensive agricultural and mineral resources, Missouri has grown great. Home Mission work in this State is just now in a most interesting period of its development. The Presbyterian Church has been among its most important constructive forces from the first. Its missions and educational institutions were early established in many parts. But great, unoccupied regions now call for more men and more means than during any other year in the history of the Synod.

"There are over forty counties in the State," says Dr. Niccolls, in which our Church has no organization, and there are also the mining regions, with their large population, in which we have scarcely a missionary."

The problem of the cities and the needs of the agricultural districts have retarded the progress of the Synod toward self-support; but decided advancement has been made by churches and young people's societies in their contributions to the Board, while the aid-receiving churches have been steadily reducing their requisitions for help. Increasing gifts of the churches to the Board, and the diminishing amounts of aid required are rapidly approaching, so that this Synod will reach the point of self-support at an early day.

As the Synod was without the services of a Synodical Missionary during the year, there has been no united work among the several Presbyteries either in supplying destitute fields or in holding missionary conventions, but the Synod strenuously urges upon the churches the importance of extending the work of Home Missions within its bounds and calls upon them to increase the amounts of their gifts during the coming year, so that the average per member shall be at least sixty-five cents.

NORTH DAKOTA.

The progress of our work in this Synod during the past year has not differed in any marked degree from that of former years. There has been a gratifying gain in the contributions to the Board and diminution in the amount of aid required. Conditions are favorable for rapid advancement along all lines of church work.

This State has a larger proportion of foreigners in its population than any other in the Union. But the elements are largely of the kinds which are most readily Americanized and assimilated. In promoting the various interests of this rapidly developing State the Church has been a potent factor. Few changes have occurred among our missionaries. Those who have left have been compelled to do so because of inadequate support. The churches are generally small and weak and the distances between them so great as to make grouping impracticable. But the missionaries, with fidelity to their sacred trust, have wrought with good results. Evangelistic services have been held in many parts of the State, notably at Grafton, where forty conversions were reported.

The Synod saw fit to discontinue the office of Synodical Missionary last year and to commit the duties which usually devolve upon it to the Standing Committee of Home Missions. The experiment is of too short duration to determine its effect.

Rev. E. J. Lindsey and his native helpers are meeting with marked success in their work among the Indians. About forty have recently expressed a desire to live as Christians.

A correspondent writes:—"In visiting with the missionary I was glad to mark the difference between the homes of the Christian Indian and the homes of those who are still heathen. I shared the hospitality of the former and in cooking and cleanliness found them in advance of some of the white people whom I have visited."

SOUTH DAKOTA.

South Dakota reports this year a larger increase of church membership and larger contributions to the benevolent causes of the Church than in any previous year in the history of the Synod.

- "Material conditions," says Dr. Carson, "are greatly improved and immigration has set in afresh with the prospect of larger demands for the extension of church and mission work. Material industries have become much better adjusted to the character of soil and climate, and both mining and agricultural interests are more remunerative. The Black Hills gold industry alone now yields over nine millions of dollars a year and is steadily increasing.
- "While the Lord has sanctified straitened finances to the good of not a few of our churches, yet for lack of help from Home Mission funds in four houses of worship we have not been able to maintain any services for over two years and have lost ground in half a dozen other fields formerly occupied. We have also been compelled to decline invitations and desirable opportunities in many other places—among them a town of over five thousand people, the second in importance in the State, and having no Presbyterian church.
- "We still have difficulty to induce suitable ministers to settle in rural parishes; consequently our country population is largely neglected."

This Synod needs 20% more Home Mission money for the coming church year than was apportioned for the year just closing.

South Dakota felt keenly the cut in appropriations which the Board was compelled to make. In consequence of this cut the Synod lost three ministers, and reports fewer licentiates and candidates for the ministry. The contributions to the Boards of the Church have fallen off in consequence of the increased burden of self-support. But there is a gain in the number of churches, the church membership, houses of worship, manses, the value of church property in the aggregate, and in contributions toward congregational expenses.

NEBRASKA.

Retrenchment has not been an unmixed evil in this State. While our Church has been restrained from entering many inviting and promising fields, the employment of evangelists among churches that otherwise would have been neglected has resulted in strengthening them and adding large numbers to their membership. One church that seemed to be dying has been revived and now reports 57 accssions on profession. Another church has just reported 30 members received.

The ministers of this State, inured to hardship and self-denial through recent years of drought, have wrought valiantly and without complaint under the pressure which was laid upon the dependent churches, and seven have struggled up to self-support. But the evils of our straitened circumstances have been painfully manifest. "In one case," says Dr Sexton, "an appropriation of fifty dollars would have kept a faithful minister on a field where three country churches were grouped together and served by him with great regularity and with acceptance to the people. Another church served by an ordained minister is about to lose him, when an appropriation of $150 would have kept him on the field serving two churches, conveniently grouped."

Only four churches within the bounds of as many Presbyteries have been organized during the year. But church buildings have been erected and debts of several churches paid.

There are fifty-one vacant churches, only three of which are self-supporting. The forty-eight Home Mission churches can be advantageously grouped under twenty-three ministers. The ministers are available, but the money is lacking. These churches raise in the aggregate toward self-support $7,825 and need help from the Board to the amount of $7,875. Twenty-six theological students have rendered valuable service in this State at comparatively little expense to the Board.

KANSAS.

The high character which Kansas has maintained ever since its settlement on a great moral issue is at once a help and a hindrance to the progress of the Church. It affords happy exemptions from certain great evils characteristic of many of our States, but it begets a complacency in these exemptions as supplying all needful help in morals and religion without the agency of the Gospel.

The work in Kansas has always given fair returns for appropriations made in its behalf, but during the past year an exciting political campaign was unfavorable to aggressive work, and this Synod reached the lowest mark of the decade in the number of conversions. This State has felt keenly the loss of 100,000 estimable citizens, who have been attracted to Oklahoma since that Territory was thrown open to settlement. Many of its churches which might otherwise have reached self-support have suffered much from the consequent decimation in their membership.

While this change of population has weakened the churches in Kansas, it has helped organize as many new ones in Oklahoma, thus doubling the number of churches for the Board to help.

Under the management of Dr. Fleming and the Presbyterial Committees much money has been saved. Churches that were by removals rendered too weak to justify their existence have been dissolved, and a wise system of grouping has saved men and money.

Dr. Fleming says: "Owing to the hard times incident to repeated crop failures in Kansas and the general financial depression in the whole country, as well as to the straitened circumstances of the Board of Home Missions, we have been compelled to enlarge our grouping of churches almost to the point of disaster.

"Besides, a general reduction of salaries has resulted in driving from us the strong men who are ever needed to build upon the mission field of the Church. It is false economy to waste mission money on weak men, however good they may be. It is the general consensus of opinion that the time has come when we must concentrate our efforts in maintaining stronger men, even if it does cost a little more, if we are to achieve desirable results. To do this our grants from the Home Board will have to be increased, for a time at least, in our more promising fields.

"We need to enlarge our work very materially by sending true and orthodox preachers all through the rural regions. The battle has been to hold our own in the last ten years. The coming decade ought to teem with victories for 'Christ and the Church.' We shall need ten men for our work this spring, but I have at least two score now applying for work. If we had the money to command them I could within a month supply every vacancy in the Synod."

The spirit of the Synod of Kansas found expression in the following recommendation of its Standing Committee on Home Missions: "That we ask our hard pressed missionaries to fight on, trusting in the Lord for special help when mission Boards fail, and that we all promise one another to divide and subdivide of our means for this cause rather than retreat a second time. That the Presbyteries be urged to hold missionary conferences this fall, as recommended by the last Assembly."

INDIAN TERRITORY AND OKLAHOMA.

This frontier Synod already has four churches that are self-supporting and others advancing with firm and steady steps in that direction. The year has been marked with decided progress. No aggressive work has been attempted, not from lack of opportunity, but from lack of financial aid. Only two churches have been organized; one of these is composed of twelve full blood Seminoles.

Ten revivals are reported which resulted in more than 100 accessions on profession of faith to the churches in which the meetings were held. The entire Synod has received over 600 members, of which 359 were on profession. The advance in benevolent contributions has been marked. The amount raised for all purposes was $22,226, an average of $6.50 per communicant, an advance in the aggregate of $9,000 in three years. The careful, systematic work which brought this about is further manifested in the fact that only eleven churches in the Synod failed to contribute to all the Boards, two of which churches were among the full blood Seminoles. Two years ago there were forty non-contributing churches. In order to a fair appreciation of these good results it is necessary to bear in mind that the population of these two Territories is most heterogeneous. Besides the six Indian nations there are freedmen from the South; Negroes, formerly slaves of the Indian nations; nomadic whites of the Cracker element; the mixed nationalities that compose the usual frontier population, and the very best of our enterprising American people.

The Rev. F. W. Hawley, the young Synodical Missionary, says in his report: "We have been able to hold the work we have organized, but not to finish it as it ought to be finished. Some of our men are compelled to minister to four, five, or even six churches, and with such a scattered field services are necessarily more or less irregular, and results not what we might hope for. Our men have borne the burden of the work nobly without complaint.

"But we have reached a point now where we can no longer be satisfied with simply holding on to what work we have. Crops were unusually good last year, and the indications this Spring are encouraging for another good year. Many people are looking toward these two Territories, and many are coming; the towns are filling up, the farms are all occupied (in the better part of Oklahoma), new railroads are being built, towns are springing up along the roads; almost every week a new railroad is projected and charter granted. Farms that were cotton or corn fields a few weeks ago are now converted into town lots, and thriving towns are building. The same will be repeated on every new line of railroad, and we confidently believe that many new towns will spring into existence during the next twelve months. Into these towns we must send our men. Aside from this, we ought not longer to lend a deaf ear to the plea which comes to us from country neighbor-These communities are in need of the Gospel, and many such places are calling loudly for a Presbyterian church.

"We have done some country work, but far less than we might do. There are great numbers of young people growing up in those communities who ought to be reached now by our Church. And we could organize hopeful churches in a dozen such places, if we had men to take charge of the work and the money to support them.

"There are a few things that we are trying hard to do in this Synod: First, to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ in no biased, sectarian way, but to recognize and encourage the work of any man or church that preaches Salvation by the blood of Christ. Second, to observe rules of comity as much as possible. Third, to hold strategic points and branch out from these as we are able.

Fourth, to lay solid foundations by our schools and churches for the future State.

"For this work we need more men and more money—we cannot do the work alone."

MONTANA.

This Synod has suffered a great loss in the retirement of Rev. A. K. Baird, D. D., the Synodical Missionary, from the work, on account of ill-health. His place, however, has been ably filled by the Rev. F. H. Gwynne, D. D., pastor of the First Church of Great Falls.

This young State has vast resources in its mineral mountains, its extensive agricultural valleys and its practically unlimited cattle ranges. New communities are forming all over these regions. There may be rough ungodly men who fear not God nor regard man, but they welcome the missionary, hear him gladly and contribute toward his support.

The larger cities of the State are requiring second and third churches. This is notably true in Butte, where we have two fine flourishing churches. A third has been formed under most favorable conditions. An edifice seating 200 has been erected and is free from debt. There are 19 enrolled members, a Sabbath School of 80 and a Young People's Society of 40. This flock is without a shepherd. They have been waiting for more than a year for the Board to send them a minister and are ready to pay one-half his salary.

Dr. Gwynne says: "The short time I have been in the work in this State I have been grieved with the spiritual destitution I have witnessed. Ten places that would respond readily to us are now waiting for our entry.

"There has been a favorable growth in the membership of the churches, but no large ingathering except at Great Falls, where, following a series of union meetings, the First Church at one communion service received—nearly all on confession—100 members.

"Three church buildings have been erected during the year. Two of these were in the City of Butte. The First Church has dedicated a beautiful structure at a cost of about $25,000, including a fine pipe organ, which cost $3,000. The Immanuel Church is a neat building, costing $4,000—not yet dedicated, as there remains a debt of $700. The little church at Basin, in the Butte Presbytery, cost about $1,500, and was paid for at dedication, This is a revived mining camp, just building up, with a wide-awake little church.

"Five churches that were vacant have been supplied during the year. Other places are calling for our services, such as Belt, a coal mining camp, with a population of 4,000, with many relapsed Presbyterians; Sand Coulee, with 1,200 population, and three other openings equally promising, which we cannot enter, not for want of men, for they are waiting a call, but because we have no means, and the Board cannot help us. Would that the Churchat-large could hear the appeal of so many throughout this State to the Father of Mercies, saying: 'No man careth for our souls.' Montana will grow. The wool bringing a good price, gold being discovered in several places in paying quantities, silver being in somewhat better demand, Montana must grow at a more rapid rate this year. Yet unless by the removal of the debt on your Board you will be able to render us more generous assistance, we can not even hold what we now possess, much less enter the many doors now opening."

COLORADO.

Results in Colorado have always justified the effort and money expended within its bounds, and never more than during the year just closed. Situated among the great mineral mountains that were earliest to yield their rich treasures to the frontiersmen, and most continuous in the annually increasing amounts of the precious metals, this State has attracted capital in large sums and men of the very best type. Its vast mining, manufacturing and commercial interests have built great cities and quickened the pulse of smaller communities. The Home Missionary is found in the mining camps and new villages giving character to social and religious life in their formative period. But the growth of our Church in this State has been held in check by the Board's limited power to help.

Dr. Kirkwood says: "We have ample work for fifteen more men than are now employed. If the Board could only assist us fully this year I am certain it could be made the most prosperous year in our history as a Synod.

"For three years we have been reaching out from every available centre and adding to the burdens of every willing pastor by organizing adjacent fields and placing them in hands that were already full. We have been obliged to forego other fields that were more important because no one lived near enough to care for the infant church. Some of these fields have been lost to us, but others remain and still others are opening up. We are yet hoping the Board may be able to come to our rescue. This is our situation. We have come as far as we can on this tide; we are waiting for the next wave to carry us farther; you will grant, I think, that we are but 'idly waiting.'"

NEW MEXICO AND ARIZONA.

There has been a net gain in church membership of 150 during the past year. In a community in Arizona where there was neither church nor ordained minister a remarkable revival occurred as the result of the labors of a devout young evangelist. Nearly one hundred conversions are reported and a church of ninety members was organized.

The year has presented glorious opportunities, and the desire to go in and possess the land has been hardly restrained. The Synod consists of three Presbyteries, with fifty-four churches, enrolling 2,216 members. Under existing conditions it is greatly to their credit that their contributions for all church purposes amounted to $13,915—an average of $6.27 per member.

The Synod at its last meeting recommended: "That the church officers should meet near the beginning of each church year and confer as to the standing of their congregations with regard to the support of the ministry in their midst and the progress of the Church by the due support of all the work in which Christ is calling us to engage and the measures which should be adopted for the most effective service for Christ in and by our work."

A suitable successor to the late Rev. James A. Menaul has been found in the Rev. R. M. Craig, who was elected to the office of Synodical Missionary last fall.

Twelve evangelists have been employed during the year in the Mexican work, for which the Board could not provide a sufficient number of ordained ministers. The crying need of this field is indicated by an incident related by Mr. Craig: "I preached at Los Lentes one evening; there were about 175 persons in the building and about fifty outside. After a service of an hour and a quarter I dismissed the congregation, but the people would not go away until Mr. Perea had preached and Mr. Chavez, who was with us, had preached and I had again addressed them. So great was their desire to hear the story of Salvation."

Mr. Craig says in his report: "I am constantly hearing of settlements that have no religious services. Clifton and Morenci, in Arizona, with a population of between 4,500 and 5,000 people, I found with no church or minister of any denomination. I was told that the priest goes once a month—on payday—but that is all they see of him. In this rich and interesting camp I found a goodly number of Americans and Scotchmen. I held a number of services, stayed over Sabbath and preached in both places, and on Monday saw the superintendents of the companies, who freely granted me $600 a year for the support of a missionary. The people will easily raise the rest. Already we have a missionary on the field, and although we have asked the Board for help, it is only for six months, and I expect at the end of that time to see a self-supporting congregation at this point."

UTAH.

The promises of right living and fair dealing made by the Mormon hierarchy as a condition of admittance into the Union have not been fulfilled. That peculiar government sits defiantly entrenched in the very heart of our nation, perpetuating an Oriental system of marriage and thus striking at the family, exercising arbitrary power over its own subjects and restricting the rights of others by obstructing the free exercise of religion in Utah. Present conditions emphasize the need of the Gospel as the only corrective,—and yet no new work has been attempted in Utah since the beginning of the times of depression.

This Synod is composed of the Presbyteries of Boise and Kendall, covering all the State of Idaho (except the "Panhandle") and the Presbytery of Utah.

The Presbytery of Boise embraces the western half of Idaho, in which the capital is located. There are eight churches all dependent upon the Board except the first church of Boise City. With one exception they are located in three small counties, while the counties of Washington, Owyhee, Lincoln, Blaine, Custer and Elmore, comprising half of the State, are untouched, except by a single organization in Blaine County. Idaho City, Central City, and Placerville, in a mining region, are without a single Protestant church. A Romish priest visits the Catholics occasionally. Our Sunday-school missionary has done good work there. The people have been begging for a missionary for years. Considerable support, perhaps one-third or one-half, could be secured for an energetic young man. The churches of Lower Boise and St. Anthony have been organized, but without additional expense to the Board.

Roswell, in the western part of Canyon County, has a good congregation gathered awaiting organization, and a few miles away is a school-house full of people.

We have not added to our missionary force in this Presbytery for years. The only other denomination in any of these fields is a small Episcopal church in Owyhee County and a small M. E. Church in Lincoln County.

The Presbytery of Utah embraces that whole State and a small portion of Wyoming. The First Church of Salt Lake City is the only self-supporting church in this Presbytery. The First Church in Ogden once reached that point, but the financial breakdown of the country almost disrupted our work there and crippled it so that it has been receiving from one-third to one-fourth of its support from the Board. In this Presbytery the mission school is the right arm of our mission work. We have seven properties equipped for school work the doors of which have been closed. In one of these, Spanish Fork, where the children of our Christian families have been saved from the Mormon schools by the strenuous efforts of the minister, school has been carried on this year by private enterprise, outside of aid from the Board. The public schools at this place are in the hands of Mormon trustees and teachers.

THE PRESBYTERY OF KENDALL covers the southeastern part of the State of Idaho, and extends into Wyoming, including the western fourth of that State, also the Yellowstone Park. This territory is immense, and settlements with a large Mormon element are rapidly forming all over it. The County of Fremont, in the northeastern part, the finest agricultural county in the State, is 125 by 80 miles, with a population of from 12,000 to 15,000 people. A little over a year ago a Presbyterian church was organized in St. Anthony, the county seat, and supplied for eight months by Dr. Wishard, the Synodical Missionary, who made a journey each time of about 500 miles.

This Synop cries out almost in despair for fourteen new men. The Idaho part of it must have nine men for work which could well employ twice the number. Utah modestly appeals for five. But three more are needed to replace men who have retired.

Dr. Wishard says—"We are in the vortex of the Home Mission battle. The Church has pushed out over Nebraska into Wyoming and Colorado on the east, and has swung around us and taken strong hold on the coast, and is moving the lines of battle up from all sides toward this field of conflict. East, west, north and south the Church is moving slowly in the direction of Utah, where Satan's seat is. Here the battle must be successfully fought, or the Mormon propaganda will plant ten or twelve Senators in the Congress of the United States. Mormonism practically holds the balance of power in four States and is pushing for the same result in two Territories.

"Let me only add that our converts are financially boycotted in Utah, so that many of them must seek homes in other States. Hence we build slowly. Yet last year, in proportion to membership, our Synod stood seventh in the thirty two Synods in the number of additions by profession and tenth in contributions to Home Missions."

CALIFORNIA.

This great State constantly surprises the world with its growth, its enterprises and its developments. Its varied and abundant material resources continue to attract capital in vast amounts and enterprising people in great numbers. The equable climate continues to invite multitudes, among whom are many excellent ministers whose influence and professional services materially aid the Church in overtaking its long neglected work. The State in its growth had run away from the Church in the early decades of its history and communities in their formative period had grown worldly and forgotten the Sabbath. Material prosperity and social customs greatly aggravated the discouragements which confronted the Church. But recent years have marked a gradual strengthening of the relative power of the Church. This is manifest in the progress of the Synod toward self-support. Two years ago the contributions of the churches, Sabbath schools and societies to Home Missions amounted to two-thirds as much as the Synod received They amounted last year to four-fifths, an from the Board. encouraging advance in face of the financial depression which California felt in common with all the States of the Union. further means of relieving the Board a Synodical Fund has been created which, though not yet large, is growing in favor among The Presbyteries of Los Angeles, Oakland and the churches. San Francisco report large accessions to church membership.

OREGON.

No Synod has been more zealous for the spiritual interests of the State which it covers than this. The aggressive spirit has animated its Home Mission Committees, and with a most conservative demand upon the treasury of the Board and a most proressive effort to overtake long neglected work, they have succeeded in employing fifty-one missionaries, an increase of five over the preceding year. The strong churches have helped the weak, besides contributing to the Board in increasing amounts. Its cities are crowing, with outlying suburbs which require additional churches. Its seacoast towns, though not large, have long suffered for adequate means of grace. Its larger interior towns require second and third churches, but unaided they are unable to provide them. Its eastern counties, which were long the frontier of the returning tide of population from the Pacific coast, have been but partially explored by missionary agencies, extensive areas being without resident ministers of any denomination. The spirit, ability and self-denying efforts of the churches of this Synod merit more generous supply of men and means. It will not be strange if these neglected communities fall an easy prey to the emissaries of Mormonism and other un-American and anti-Christian sects. the wise management and co-operation of the Synod's Committee with the retiring Synodical Missionary, the Rev. W. O. Forbes, all the aid-receiving churches in the Synod for which the Board was able to make appropriations have been supplied fully or in part.

The conditions in Oregon are now favorable for the most conomical and successful mission work if the Board can extend a rasonable amount of additional aid. Revivals have occurred in many parts of the State and churches have reported large accessions.

One missionary writes: "It seemed to me at times as though find just put His hand into His bosom and refused to vindicate His own cause. Though I prophesied as I was commanded, I did it often with a heavy heart and then stood still to see the salvation of the Lord. Yet even these trials of faith are exceedingly precious to me, for they have taught me to trust my Master when I cannot trace Him. The clouds which hung along the horizon where heaven and earth are meeting have begun to disappear and the future of our Church is unusually bright and hopeful. Last Sabbath we received thirteen into the fellowship of the people of find. Twelve of these were on profession of faith and one by letter.

All were adults but one, seven being heads of families; five adults received the ordinance of baptism and three children were also baptized. The high social standing of those received makes this the most encouraging accession the Church has had for years. We expect to receive a number of others during the coming month."

"The State has hardly been touched in its extent by our work," says Mr. Forbes. "There are nine counties, some of them from five to nine thousand square miles in area, in which Presbyterianism has not yet been planted. In at least one county through which I passed, with a population of 6,000, there is no clergyman of any denomination, and the little the people get of the Gospel is by occasional preachers—for the most part irresponsible. In one county of 10,000 square miles area we have two churches under one missionary, the only ordained minister in the county, whose field covers a region fifty miles long and twenty or twenty-five miles wide. In one sea-coast section four ministers are preaching regularly at seventeen different places, and vet not beginning to meet the requirements. In one of these towns. a county seat, the most vigorous and successful work done was by a man calling himself a 'fallen angel' and his church 'The Redeemed of Israel.' Another town in this section, a mining town of 400 population, had no Sunday school when I visited it, and no church and no church service by any minister, except a monthly week-night service by our missionary. One of these four missionaries preaches at five points, twenty miles up and down a river, and then eighteen miles off in the woods. The meetings along the river he makes with boat, and the appointments go with the tide; and then he tramps thirteen miles to the first church and five miles on to the next, and vet says he has no hardships in his field."

WASHINGTON.

This State, with its fabulous resources of soil, of forests, of mineral mountains, of fishing streams, and a climate varied from the warm. humid coast to the arid plains and snow-capped mountains, has attracted multitudes of the most intelligent and enterprising elements of our American population. Villages have come into being and developed into cities with amazing rapidity. The close employment of all available capital in the new and rapidly developing industries left the people illy prepared for the financial depression which, spreading all over our country, fell heavily here. Consequently a very large number of its churches were dependent upon the Board. Strenuous efforts to reduce the demands upon the Board's treasury to the lowest possible amount were made by the wise and conscientious men who constituted the Committees on Home Missions, aided by the experience and wisdom of the Synodical Missionary, in the rigid application of the rules of comity, the wise grouping of the churches and the closest cutting of salaries. Fifty-eight churches were served by twenty-four ministers. In some cases one minister served as many as five churches. The 117 churches of the Synod were served by seventy-six ministers. The Presbytery of Spokane grouped all but four of its twenty-nine churches. Walla Walla Presbytery reports its churches too far distant from one another for grouping. The Presbytery of Puget Sound reports grouping perilous to the existence of its churches.

Though finances were uncertain, in no previous year has so much been raised on the field. To Home Missions the Synod gave last year $2,263, 26½ cents per member. Of this amount the Presbytery of Spokane gave $205, or 16 cents per member; Olympia, $706, or 34½ cents per member; Puget Sound, $827, or 47½ cents per member; and Walla Walla $521, or 48½ cents per member.

The excitement in regard to the Alaska gold fields has materially affected the interests of Washington both favorably and unfavorably. Dr. Gunn writes: "Tacoma and Seattle are reaping a rich harvest, but it will be many months before the quickening will be general. In most of the smaller places the depression of the present is even greater than heretofore. The effect on our churches will be an increased strain for months. Everyone is hoping that with the opening of summer the output of the Yukon mines will make money abundant; but these hopes may end in disappointment. These violent changes have precipitated upon us a variety of trials which we could not foresee, and consequently for which we could not fully prepare. The announcement of the construction of a new railway to transect the western part of the State of Washington for over 300 miles awakens the expectation of large demands upon us for new work, as it passes through the most populous region, and will doubtless create many new centres.

"The salaries of our missionaries have been reduced to the lowest point. The work has been reduced to great compactness by grouping; and the missionaries have all done more for less pay than heretofore. I have heard no murmuring among them. The people have uniformly appreciated their self-sacrifice. Only one or two very small churches have been dissolved in the last three years. One has been temporarily suspended by mountain floods. During the year six new churches have been added to our rolls and four new church buildings have been acquired. We look upon this year as the crisis and hope thereafter for much more rapid development. There are vast regions, however, which we have not yet touched, especially on the inlands of Puget Sound and the western peninsula. These will make demands upon us for years to come."

Dr. Mackey, Chairman of the Synod's Committee, says in his report: "The past year has been a fruitful one as to additions by profession of faith. Especially is this true of the Presbytery of Walla Walla, where large additions are reported in six churches, one of them, Moscow, receiving forty-seven."

From all parts of our field come calls for enlargement of work, which cannot be heeded because of insufficient funds at our disposal. Spokane Presbytery should have twice the amount the Board agrees to furnish, and Puget Sound Presbytery mentions the imperative need of five additional missionaries to hold and build up outposts.

Now is the critical time, the time to mold religiously those forming communities. A few years hence the opportunity will be ours no longer.

ALASKA.

The far away Presbytery of Alaska, with but nine ministers on its roll, has furnished the General Assembly a Moderator, and the great Territory a Governor. The eight churches have an enrollment of nearly 1,000 members. The smallest two are composed of white members, the one at Sitka and the other at Juneau. The six churches of natives are situated at Sitka, Juneau, Wrangel, Jackson, Chilcat and Hoonah, and are the direct outgrowth of the school work so ably and successfully carried on by our mission teachers. The ministers in charge of these congregations enjoy the esteem and confidence of the natives to an almost unlimited extent.

A single paragraph from a recent report of the Rev. A. E. Austin tells the story of progress: "Peter Simpson and family are staying in Sitka this Winter. He and his wife are both graduates of our school. They have three beautiful children, The youngest two were baptised at our last communion, and as Grandfather and Grandmother Sloan came forward to take the children by the hand at the close of the service, their faces beaming with joy, I thought of the time when I first met them, both of them poor heathen drunkards. The contrast sent a thrill of joy through my soul that nothing this side of heaven can equal. All the gold of Klondyke cannot purchase it. What a comfort to think that such Christian homes are springing up in dark Alaska."

The Klondyke excitement is a mixture of good and evil in its effect upon our missions. It has brought a season of material prosperity to the natives who obtain high wages for packing over the passes. Some of the young men receive still higher wages as carpenters, blacksmiths, etc. But many return to their old homes, if they return at all, much demoralized by reason of contact with vicious whites.

Mr. L. M. Stevenson, who opened the mission among the Eskimos at Point Barrow in 1890, was relieved last Summer by Dr. and Mrs. Marsh. Mr. Stevenson returned to his family at Versailles, Ohio, having accomplished a great work. Dr. Marsh wrote by the returning steamer that after three weeks' careful inspection of the mission he found 160 natives in regular attendance at the preaching service, 140 at week-day prayer-meeting and Sabbath school, and that he had found 114 ready to be organized as a Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor. The most remarkable thing about it all was the degree of intelligence attained by these natives in so short a time. The school-house in which the congregation of 160 were crowded was intended to accommodate fifty persons. Desiring to erect a church building exclusively for divine service, the natives have subscribed whalebone, ivory and bear skins—in the absence of money—sufficient to pay for it. They ask no help except that the lumber and other materials be purchased and sent up at their expense and that a builder be sent to erect the house. quite possible that they may support the work entirely next year, paying in the products of sea and land hunting.

THE KLONDYKE.—The First Church of Auburn, New York, and the Third Church of Pittsburg, Pa., by special gifts enabled the Board to send two missionaries to the Klondyke regions. It was desired that one of the missionaries should be a physician. The Rev. S. Hall Young, of Wooster, Ohio, and the Rev. Geo. A. McEwen, M.D., of Farmington, Mo., offered their services, and were promptly sent. They sailed from Tacoma August 22, 1897, and reached Dawson City the 8th of October. They were cordially received by the miners, and began their work at once. Generous contributions of the miners and the willing co-operation of many of the citizens gave promise, at last accounts, of a profitable work among the miners during the winter.

The multitudes that have collected at Dyea, Skagway and Cooks Inlet call for missionaries. Our Board being unable to respond to the call, the Canadian Presbyterian Church has sent to Skagway a most estimable minister, who has begun a good work. There is a great demand for more ministers for these crowded communities, and men are ready to go, but means for their support are lacking.

THE INDIANS.

We have had a good year in our work among the Indians. No new missions have been attempted, but all those already established have grown stronger. Our organized work may be briefly summarized.

We have churches among eighteen different tribes in ten States and three Territories.

In addition to the Indian ministers enumerated, there are many Indian helpers and evangelists who preach under the direction of the missionaries. Many of the Indian churches are still under the care of white ministers. The difference between the number of churches and the number of Sabbath schools, also between the number of church members and the Sabbath school enrollment, may be partially explained by the fact that the children of the church members are largely in the boarding schools, where they are enumerated in the membership of the white churches. Besides the figures given for the Indian Territory, there are scores, possibly hundreds, of Indian members in the white churches of which no account is here made.

Our churches among the Nez Perces, the Umatillas and the Spokanes rest on a basis of sixty years of faithful labor, the fruitfulness of which is attested by the eight churches with 656 members and the eight Sabbath Schools with an enrollment of 537 scholars. A recent revival in the Lapwai church, under the Indian pastor, Rev. James Hines, resulted in seventy accessions. The foundations of this work were laid by the Rev. Samuel Parker, Dr. Marcus Whitman and Rev. H. H. Spaulding, and cemented by the blood of that martyr band who were massacred at Waiailatpu on that historic November day in 1847.

It is gratifying to report that the Board has been able, by the special help of the Third Church of Pittsburg, Pa., to maintain a missionary on this field who is specially qualified to train the Indian missionaries and to guide and help them in their work. Though God in His providence has seen fit to remove by death the Rev. Lowrie W. Sibbett, who had begun the work with great promise, his place has been supplied by the Rev. C. M. McClain, and the work goes on.

"One of the most pathetic calls for help," writes Rev. W. O. Forbes, of Oregon, "comes from the poor Umatilla Indians in East Oregon. Cash-Cash, the former chief, now an elder in our Church, pleads with tears in his eyes that I send a minister to lead his people in the ways of righteousness. And yet for years they have been utterly neglected because of want of funds."

Rev. Chas. H. Cook, M.D., our venerable missionary who has given more than a quarter of a century to the work among the Pimas and Papagoes, rejoices in the abundant fruits of his labors. "During the past year," he writes, "we were able to erect two new churches, which gives us five churches among the Pima Indians, with a total church membership of 350."

CITY EVANGELIZATION.

We have laid frequent stress on the necessity of special effort for the salvation of our cities. Many motives plead for it: the value of souls, the progress of the Kingdom (for cities are always strategic centres), the prosperity and safety of the cities themselves and of the entire country. There great populations become congested, and that which should impel healthful currents of life-throughout the nation becomes a centre of disease and death. The power of assimilation of foreign elements into the body politic finds its severest test in our cities. Mixed elements are not necessarily hostile to national purity and strength. But only the Gospel can prevent their becoming so. A tremendous responsibility rests on the Christian Church. It may be said, indeed, the strong churches of strong cities must assume this responsibility. Self-preservation pleads for their missionary zeal. And this is true. And nobly are the churches of our older cities meeting these obligations. They are themselves small Boards of Missions. They are doing grand service through chapels and missions and various benevolent institutions. They are spending immense sums for the salvation of the city that are never reported in church statistics.

But there are many large cities that have sprung up so rapidly as to preclude their present ability to overtake all their pressing religious needs. Their churches are new; in some cases scarce beyond their own struggle for self-support; in other cases not yet trained to ideas and habits of missionary work. Around them new and mixed multitudes are surging, and they cannot fill up the measure of the moral needs of the community. The Board of Home Missions comes in as their ally in their fight to cast the new life into molds of Christian thought and service.

Nowhere are the elements of life so speedily precipitated into crystals of changeless character as in our cities. What is done for them must be done quickly. A generation may be lost to Christian opportunity by the delay of half a decade. A score of cities west of the Mississippi are taking shape. If the Church of Christ wants a hand in determining that shape she has not a day to lose. In less than a century we have built over four hundred cities—many of them great cities—and the older and larger ones have been rebuilt again and again. At the beginning of this century only three per cent. of our population was urban—now about thirty per cent. This tendency toward cities will not be less in the future than in the past. It is going to be more. The Church must arise and adapt her work to these new conditions.

OUR FORCES.

Our Church has reason to thank God for the character of the men and the women in her missionary service. They have been true to their place in times that have called for sacrifice. In labors they have been more abundant.

Synodical Missionaries.—They are charged with the work of supplying destitute places with the means of grace, stimulating dependent churches toward self-support, and supplying information to the Board and the Church at large of the needs and progress of the work on mission fields. The work of our Synodical Missionaries may be fitly represented by one of them, who writes: "The year has been exacting and manifold in duties and details of work as any in the past. Into these I may not enter. Suffice it to say, I have preached and presented the cause of Home Missions two hundred and twenty-five times. I have ceased to number private interviews and consultations. I have written and dictated over two thousand letters; have introduced new men and re-adjusted men on the ground to new relations to the number of sixty; and have traveled by day and by night, by rail, stage coach and private conveyance 29,000 miles. It is needless to say that this has been done with much weariness of the flesh, and yet with cheerfulness."

Consider the amount of labor thus performed by our nineteen Synodical missionaries! Only eternity can measure the results.

Our Missionaries.—They have not only carried on their work cheerfully under many hindrances, but in many cases out of their poverty they have contributed with splendid generosity. Thus a poor missionary sends $47 from his field for our cause, all but $3 of it given by himself and his wife.

Scarce a word of complaint comes to us on account of the necessity for decreased appropriations; but very many cheerful and encouraging words from those who are bearing the heaviest burdens. They are the advance guard of the army of our Church, and prepare the way for all our victories.

THE TOTAL NUMBER OF MISSIONARIES UNDER AGREEMENT WITH THE BOARD DURING THE YEAR ENDING MARCH3 1, 1898, is 1,393, and they are Distributed as Follows:

Pastors-at-Large.—There are in many Presbyteries pastors-atlarge, appointed by their Presbyteries and commissioned by the Board to supply vacant churches for which no permanent provision can be made. They are charged with the pastoral oversight of these churches and the supply of destitute fields.

Mission Teachers.—In our Church education and the Gospel belong together, as is shown more fully in another part of this report. The teachers in our mission schools lay the foundations for our churches. Their labors during the past year have been greatly blessed. They have not only taught day schools thoroughly imbued with Christian truth, but in Sunday schools, chapel services and personal visitation have heralded the missionary and prepared for the church. The following statistics give but an inadequate idea of the scope, strength and promise of this great and growing arm of our service.

^{*}The two missionaries in New Jersey are specially provided for by the "Phineas M. Barber Fund," in addition to the Home Mission work of the Synod, which is cared for by its Synodical Fund.

WOMAN'S BOARD.

We have called frequent attention to the splendid work being done by the women of our Church. This year has witnessed the change of title of the "Woman's Executive Committee" to the briefer and more definite name of "The Woman's Board."

It is a department of the general work of the Board. It has a separate treasury, the funds of which are gathered by the women and children of the Church and administered by the Assembly's Board. They are applied to the special work of evangelization which the Board could not otherwise prosecute under its charter.

Its fundamental work is that of education among what are called "the exceptional populations", although that phrase fails to characterize the full extent of this arm of our service. It is carried on among Alaskans, Indians, Mexicans, Mormons, and the mountaineers of the South. The children and youth are the promising material on which to work among these people. To the old Indians we may give a gospel hope as they slip away from us; but the Indian boys and girls can be trained for Christian citizenship.

The mature Mormons are entrenched in their strange superstition. There is little hope that we shall reach them. But our schools win and hold the children and face them toward a future at once Christian and patriotic.

The mountaineers in the "mountain back-yards" of Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky welcome a gospel message because it is in line with their history, though their struggle for bare existence keeps them out of the full inheritance of Christian truth; but their children, with often splendid inherited qualities, readily respond to the chance which a Christian school gives them. Abraham Lincoln came from one of those mountain cabins. Other Lincolns may be there waiting the hand of a Christian teacher to open to them the door of opportunity. And among the adults of those scattered and lonely cabins the missionary teacher receives a welcome for the children's sake which would not be extended to a minister. For those people have a traditional hunger for knowledge and seek it for their children when conscious it is too late for themselves.

Among the Mexicans the school work is also essential. They will receive the Gospel only by way of the school-house. Jesuit teaching has barred the door to the preacher. The school that welcomes the children gets the ear of the parents.

This work leads, however, to the establishment of churches. It does it by the noble indirection of uplifting the life of the family, organizing the Sabbath school and Christian Endeavor society—those advance agents of the Church of Christ. More than seventy churches have already been established as the direct result of the school work. It is therefore a misconception to think of this part of our Home Mission service as in any sense secular. The missionary school is in effect a daily Sabbath school. The Bible is a daily text-book and Christian influence is inwrought with the entire work. The teachers are missionaries, preaching often in the most effective and economic way.

Furthermore, the Woman's Board accepts the responsibility to which the advance of its work leads by supporting pastors and evangelists when the school rises into a mission church.

The Woman's Board raises all the money for the buildings necessary for the work of the Board of Home Missions—not only for its own schools and teachers' homes but also for chapels and manses on mission fields where the people cannot meet the conditions of the Board of Church Erection. Property to the amount of $750,000 has thus accrued to the Presbyterian Church and is held by the Board in trust for the Woman's Board, or has been turned over to the several Presbyteries covering the bounds of the field.

The organization of the Board is most thorough, so accounting in large measure for the steady and generous streams which flow into its treasury.

It is represented in every Presbytery by a strictly defined scope and policy and is subject in all its appropriations and operations to the Assembly's Board. While it attends to all the details of its system of mission schools, it does so under the direction of and in perfect harmony with the Board of Home Missions, which holds all the titles of its property and administers all its funds.

The last General Assembly recommended the enlargement of the evangelistic work of the Woman's Board. In this connection it is gratifying to state that during the past year it has carried, in whole or in part, the support of missionaries and evangelists at a cost of $8,580, and proposes in the coming year to care for all the Alaskan work at a cost of $11,000 additional. But the evangelistic phase of the service need not and must not curtail the educational department, the peculiar glory of the woman's work and the essential condition of its permanence. The demand for schools increases all the way from the Tennessee mountains to Alaska. That line of patriotic and Christian service must be kept full and advancing. We cannot better illustrate its value than by giving a few extracts from the reports of workers in these fields.

Rev. F. W. Hawley, Synodical Missionary of Oklahoma and Indian Territory, says:

"The one thing needed is a personal supervision and training of the children by some consecrated, competent teacher. The value of such a school and teacher can not be estimated. A great many such could be placed in the Indian Territory with great advantage to the work of evangelizing the Indian. Give us a Presbyterian school with a devoted teacher in every full-blood neighborhood and we would soon have a band of young Indians who would be an honor to any community."

Rev. W. R. King, President of Henry Kendall College, writes of the Indian work:

"From whatever side you consider the Indian problem there can be but one true solution—Christianization. . . . Am I asked how this evangelization of the Indian can best be carried on? I answer, by means of Christian schools and colleges. The older Indians may be saved as it were by fire, but the great hope for the Indian race is in the young men and women who are being trained in the Christian schools and influenced by consecrated mission.

aries. Indian industrial education is good, but Indian Christian education is better. I know of no place in which the consecrated money of the Church is doing greater good and bringing in nobler results than in the school work."

Rev. S. E. Wishard, D.D., Utah, says: "This religious instruction given by our teachers is a daily work. It is not reserved for the Sunday service, but begins Monday morning and continues day after day the week through, and is then emphasized by the Sunday school on the Lord's Day. It is the missionary work in close contact with those whose lives are otherwise most likely to be uninfluenced by the Gospel. If there is any Home Mission work carried on in our country it is in our mission school work, under the auspices of the Woman's Home Mission Board."

Dr. Kirkwood, so long an observer of this work in Colorado, writes as follows: "The work of the Christian teacher has for its object the enlargement of the field for the Word of God, the unfolding of the wider vision of the blessing that comes to faith and the molding of the plastic mind into Christ-like forms. It has the advantage of constant repetition, intensified by limited audiences. It has the direction of eanest, faithful, though youthful, discipleship in that evangelization that springs from comradeship. It is not confined in its efforts to the children, for the Shepherd who carries the lambs in His bosom is followed by the sheep of His care. It enters and blesses the home life, by precept and example, instructing the old and training the young. There is none like it. We long for more of it."

Rev. Robert M. Craig writes thus from New Mexico: "If the work were simply 'school work,' as conducted in many public schools, there might be a question; but ours are mission schools, and our teachers, every one of them, are missionaries; whilst our young people are taught the common school branches they are taught at the same time the Word of Life. The Bible is studied and the catechism is drilled into the young minds until the knowledge of the Bible story shown by many of them would put to shame many of the young men in our theological seminaries. And I am further convinced that, let these children go where they will, they will never forget the religious instruction and life of our mission schools, and it is only through these schools that many of the older people can ever be reached by the Gospel. A report has just come to me from one of our schools, and in it this statement is made: 'Seven of our boys have this year professed conversion." Digitized by Google

Rev. Donald McDonald writes thus concerning work among the mountaineers: "The old people are settled in their habits and prejudices and cannot be depended upon as factors in this work of reform, and so the school must always be an important and essential adjunct to the church. We are reaching more of the young men, the future legislators, merchants, judges and teachers, through our school than we could in any other way. Several county seats are giving us charge of their county schools because we secure to them better teachers and better influences than they could secure themselves. When we shall have put a chapel school house in every county seat we shall be masters of the situation."

Rev. C. A. Duncan also gives valuable testimony: "To a very large degree the family in our mountain regions has failed in its divine mission of giving the children a Christian nurture. And I know no possible way by which this failure can in any sense be corrected except through the school, taught by thoroughly Christian teachers whose primal aim it is to live Christ and teach Christ. This is the great work to be done by our schools among the mountaineers."

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT.

In 1892 the Board of Home Missions and the Woman's Board of Home Missions found pressing upon them the needs of the various young people's organizations in the Church; these societies were multiplying rapidly and demanded more time than could be given by the officers in charge of home mission work. If they were to be kept in line, the young people must be educated to the specific work of their own denomination. Recognizing this need each Board created a Young People's Department, and elected a Secretary of Young People's Work; that under the Board being actively begun in January, 1893, while that under the Woman's Board was begun in April of the same year.

The results of this movement fully justified it; receipts increased rapidly, and year by year hundreds of young people's organizations were brought into line. The educative side of the plan was prosecuted with vigor, and intelligent enthusiasm for the cause of Home Missions was aroused.

After three years it was found that a disproportionate amount of the total receipts from the young people's societies of Christian Endeavor was specifically sent for the educational work of Home Missions; that is, for the work under the Woman's Board. This was owing in great measure to the thorough organization of the auxiliaries of the Woman's Board in the synods, presbyteries and local churches, and to the aggressive and systematic service of the synodical and presbyterial officers especially elected in the women's societies to care for the education of the young people in these societies in the home mission work done under the Woman's Board.

But a broader, more comprehensive grasp of the great cause of Home Missions was desired for those who would in a few years take the front places in pushing this cause, a grasp that would embrace the evangelistic as well as the educational work of the Board. While the young people were not in any way to be withdrawn from the counsel, supervision and guidance of their pastors, yet the women of the Church were asked in 1896 to undertake a larger work than that they had hitherto prosecuted—the guidance of the instruction of the young people, not only in one department of home mission work, but in both: they were asked to present the two-fold work of Home Missions impartially. Thus were the educative and carefully organized forces of the women's synodical and presbyterial officers turned toward the whole field, securing the larger outlook over the field which was desired for the young people, and also a more equitable adjustment of receipts, as these were to be equally divided between the two Boards. Because of this arrangement it seemed desirable to the General Assembly of 1896 that the two Young People's Departments, that of the Board of Home Missions and that of the Woman's Board of Home Missions, should be consolidated, and one secretary be given charge of the correspondence from headquarters, the expense of the department being borne by the two Boards; the secretary of the department being necessarily a woman, as she is obliged to work through the synodical and presbyterial women's organizations.

After two years the consolidated department shows a larger number of societies contributing than ever before, and attributes this result to the faithfulness of the synodical and presbyterial secretaries of young people's work, as in those districts where persistent, intelligent and methodical efforts have been made by these officers is the improvement the most marked.

Most of these young people are enthusiastic Christian Endeavorers, but they are also loyal Presbyterians; they need systematic study in their own church history and doctrines; they need to have their enthusiasm guided, their gifts properly directed, their growth in holy service fostered. In short, they need the hearty co-operation of pastors thoroughly acquainted with the organizations through which the young people are asked to work and heartly in sympathy with them in all their efforts.

LITERATURE.

One of the essential features of the office is the literature room where our correspondence concerning printed matter is carried on and from which there went last year to churches all over the land about 350,000 leaflets published by the Board. In most cases collection evelopes have gone with them. The special Sabbath School programs and their accompanying envelopes issued by the Board and the Woman's Board for the Sundays preceding Thanksgiving and Washington's Birthday are also in charge of this department.

Most of the leaflets of the Woman's Board are sold at a nominal price, while the special programs are sent out free. So also are the leaflets of the Board. It is believed that the information they convey and the interest they arouse among the churches more than repay the cost of their publication and delivery.

The Home Board has a share in the pages of the Assembly Herald and the Church at Home and Abroad, and to these each month it contributes articles from some of its leading workers and the latest news from all parts of the field.

The Woman's Board, in connection with the Woman's foreign missionary organization, publishes Over Sea and Land, an attractive illustrated monthly for junior workers; besides this it has entire control of The Home Mission Monthly, also illustrated, well edited and indispensable to an intelligent comprehension of efforts for the evangelization of our land.

Each number of all these magazines contains fresh letters from the front and abundant information on the special topic suggested for prayer and consideration during that month.

We desire to make grateful mention of the help which has been given to us by the religious press. It has always been ready to give the Church the information necessary to intelligent interest in our work and to second our appeals.

OTHER BOARDS.

The two Boards most closely allied to our own—the Board of Publication and Sunday School Work and the Board of Church Erection—have given us indirect but most valuable help. The Sunday School missionary by his labors in organizing Sunday schools and circulating Christian literature prepares the way for the Church and the minister. Many new churches each year owe their existence to the preparatory work thus done.

The Board of Church Erection helps to shelter the new flock and so gives permanence to labors which might otherwise be transient.

But all of our Boards are related to our work. The Board of Education helps prepare the men for our service. The Board of College Aid solidifies the educational work which is always a part of Presbyterian Home Missions. The Board of Ministerial Relief takes the worn out soldier who in our service had often had too scant support and protects him in the years of declining health and strength, and on his going Home shelters his widow and children; while the Boards of Foreign Missions and of Freedmen are in close and interlacing relations with us in the far West and in the South.

The Bible Society has been prompt and generous in its contribution of Bibles to communities that otherwise would not have been so well supplied, and so has ministered to that Bible knowledge without which the ministry of the evangelist is but as the voice of one crying in the wilderness.

So boundaries disappear and the unity of the Kingdom co-ordinates and harmonizes all the agencies of the Church in those combinations which in grace as in nature are the condition of strength and fruit.

INTERDENOMINATIONAL COMITY.

The Board records with satisfaction the efforts which have been made on the field by churches and Home Mission Committees to further the interests of Christian fraternity and economize the funds of Home Mission Boards and Societies, by regarding the principles and rules of interdenominational comity and by grouping churches, in some cases across denominational lines.

OUR FINANCES.

BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

The financial burdens of the year have been unusually severe. Returning prosperity has been heralded from month to month, but it has come with unequal steps. Many of the western States have rejoiced in great harvests and in other signs of better times, but the eastern States from which the larger receipts are to be expected have not been so favored. The revival of industries has not been so great nor so steady as was hoped. Then when the effects of slow recovery from the long depression were just beginning to be felt came our national complications with Spain, deepening for months toward more gravity and peril until business felt the alarm and large givers to benevolent work waited to see what the issue should be. At the end of our financial year when usually the gifts flow to our treasury in large volume the whole country was in a ferment of unrest, business became sensitive and conservative, and all treasuries shared more or less in the results.

Considering all these circumstances the financial year has been a good one.

We began the year with a cash debt of $147,276.96. it with a cash debt of $167,839.03, an increase of $20,562.07. considering this increase it should be said that, in the change from quarterly to monthly payment of the salaries of our missionaries, we have been obliged during this fiscal year to take care of quarterages lapping over from last year into this, in addition to paying full twelve months' salaries. These overlapping quarterages have amounted in round figures to $35,000.00, so that, considering the business of the year alone, we have really come through with an excess of receipts over expenditures.

As compared with last fiscal year, the gross receipts show a decrease of $93,464.39, the total last year standing at $792,404.76, this year at $698,940.37 (in both cases omitting New York Synodical Aid). Of this decrease the churches are charged with $69,360.84, the Woman's Board $14,371.63 and individuals and miscellaneous receipts $11,276,77. Legacies show an increase of The falling off in receipts from churches and individuals is accounted for to some extent by the fact that during the year ending March 31st, 1897, special and extraordinary appeals were made for the reason that missionaries and teachers were suffering through non-payment of salaries, and special contributions on this account were very large. This year no such exigency has arisen and receipts have fallen back and somewhat below nominal figures.

Miscellaneous and office expenses show a gratifying decrease as compared with those of last year, the reduction along these lines amounting to $7,515.93. The working space in one of the departments has been reduced to a business basis, and the office room thus saved has been rented at good figures. More compression of the working force will be made during the coming year, and it is hoped considerable income will be derived from the offices thus made free for rental.

MONTHLY PAYMENT OF SALARIES.

The change from quarterly to monthly payment of missionary salaries was inaugurated April 1st, 1897. Many of our people have given expression to their appreciation of this change, considering it of great help that their allowances from the Board, though small, have come at shorter intervals.

It was feared that the change would necessitate additional clerical help in the Treasurer's office—the issuing of twelve or fourteen hundred salary checks each month instead of once each quarter, together with the additional bookkeeping attendant thereon, being no small addition to the work. Careful systematizing of all the work in the office, however, and the introduction of some new methods have made it possible to carry through the new system without increasing the cost of the work in the Treasurer's office. In order to accomplish this it has been necessary to request the brethren on the field to send their church collections direct to the office instead of retaining them, as heretofore, and having them charged on salary account. This may have caused inconvenience in some cases; but, in the main, has been cheerfully acquiesced in.

COST OF INSURANCE REDUCED.

More favorable arrangements have been made for the carrying of the insurance upon the chapel and schoolhouse properties of the Board, scattered throughout the mission fields and upon the buildings in New York. A saving of some thousands per year has been accomplished thereby.

Expenditures along all lines have been carefully watched and plans have been made which it is expected will result in still further reductions in the years to come.

THE DEBT.

The Board is determined to spare no efforts to secure the extinction of the debt. We hope it may be done without further retrenchment. We trust the Church will so clearly see the need of special efforts in this direction and will act so promptly and generously, that the debt may be steadily and rapidly lowered till nothing of it shall remain, while the work goes on without further pressure on salaries or hindrance of any sort. But we must move conservatively even at the painful cost of reducing appropriations and passing by inviting fields, till the church shall give its sufficient response.

Meantime the courage and self-denial manifested by our missionaries and teachers during the trying ordeals of the past years, give us comforting assurance that they will stand to their lot without faltering. Their spirit of self-denial is beyond praise.

The debt once paid it will be the purpose of the Board so to compass its work that, under ordinary conditions, no debt will accumulate again. We hope to do this by steady and persistent endeavors to induce the churches to adopt some plan of systematic and proportionate giving. It is the one clear road to sufficient treasuries in all departments of mission work.

But for the removal of the present burden one special and united effort is necessary. We suggest that it be made by all churches, societies and individual givers during the month of November next, the time usually allotted to Home Mission contributions. One great effort at that time will set us free. Shall it not be made to the honor of our Church and the praise of God?

APPROPRIATIONS TO THE PRESBYTERIES.

The General Assembly of 1896, adopted the following minute: "Resolved, That the Board, at the beginning of the fiscal year, require of each Presbytery through its Home Mission Committee a careful, conscientious and conservative estimate of the least total amount necessary to aid the Home Mission churches within its bounds. This estimate shall give in detail the amount required for each Church, answering all other questions required by the Board. The Board shall then communicate to the Presbyterial Committee the maximum total amount it is able to grant the churches of the Presbytery, and the Presbyterial Committee shall then make final apportionment among the churches, not exceeding in aggregate the amount designated by the Board, and this distribution shall be recognized as final by the Board."

This new plan of making appropriations to the Presbyteries has promoted economy, emphasized Presbyterial responsibility, equalized grants and materially aided the Committees in affording them at the beginning of the year an absolute knowledge of their resources for the year. The question has naturally arisen under its practical operation as to the equable apportionment of funds to the various Presbyteries. This matter is easily adjusted by those Synodical Committees that have been appointed in accordance with the recommendation of the Assembly of 1883, (see Minutes of that year, p. 644, par. 6), to which the attention of Synods and Presbyteries is respectfully called.

OUR FUTURE.

There are four prime necessities:

- 1. More Men. They are the conductors of God's power for people. He has ordained that His Gospel shall flow along the channels of human lives and words. The cry comes from every part of the field, "We must have more men." The new northwest, the old northwest, the central west, the southwest—all are calling. And there are men with the spirit of Christ upon them ready to go. Not indeed in such numbers as the vast field requires, but more than we can send. Therefore,
- 2. More Money. Our church is rich. Her money presumably is the Lord's. But He is not getting it in sums sufficient to do His work. The tithes must come into the storehouse if we would have the windows of Heaven opened. "There is that withholdeth more than is meet, and it tendeth to poverty." Why should the Lord's treasury suffer and His cause be held back so long as there is lavish expenditure by God's own people for all personal comforts and luxuries? Let us face the truth: our country is in moral and spiritual peril for lack of Christian privileges, and God's people, purchased with love divine, have not given the means to save us from our perils. Is it lack of will or somewhat lack of right opportunity? Therefore,
- 3. More Method. The gospel motive is steady. The gospel principle is systematic giving. It is not the sudden, heavy rain that does the most good, but the persistent showers that reach to the roots of nature. It is not the sudden impulse of an emotion that best quickens the desert into life, but the continuous supply whose head is in high motives, whose channels are stated opportunities and whose measure is "as the Lord has prospered." When we come to systematic and proportionate giving every treasury will be full.

In order to all this,

4. More Faith in God. The men and women are His—by a blood-sealed covenant. Their possessions are likewise His. He will inspire the best ways to bring tithes into the storehouse. Nothing can stay his hand. We need to know beyond doubting that all things are possible to the soul and the church that believes.

We need the increase of men and money, but in the philosophy of the Kingdom it is all comprised in the disciples' prayer, "Lord, increase our faith."

THE INVESTED FUNDS

HELD BY THE BOARD FALL UNDER THREE HEADS.

First.—Money or securities received by the Board as gifts or as legacies to be invested or held by the Board, the income alone to be used, either for the general work of the Board or for some specific portion of that work. In some instances the gifts or legacies are to be designated by special name. In the case of one fund, that known as "The John C. Green Fund" for $100,000, the Board is empowered to use one-half of the securities constituting the fund, as collateral for temporary loans, especially to help the Board over the summer months, when collections from churches are light. These permanent funds amount in the aggregate to $225,291.27, and are as follows:

General Permanent Fund	$74,475	01
Chas. R. Otis Missionary Fund	5,000	00
Carson W. Adams Fund	7,116	26
Cornelia B. Strong Fund	10,000	00

APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions respectfully presents the following report:

The last General Assembly directed the Board to reorganize its methods of administration, so that the executive work shall be placed in charge of one Secretary, with whatever assistants may be necessary.

The Board has found the discharge of this duty a most difficult one. After long and careful consideration, it decided to appoint Dr. Charles L. Thompson the Secretary of the Board. In the retirement of Dr. W. C. Roberts and Dr. D. J. McMillan from the office of Secretary, the Board has paid them a fitting tribute, but it is the duty also of the General Assembly to place on record its high appreciation of the valuable services these brethren have rendered to the cause of Home Missions.

The new Secretary takes up the work at a critical period in the history of the Board. He deserves and should receive the unqualified support of the whole Church. The needed money to carry on the work should be promptly and unhesitatingly given, thus providing the opportunity and the means for accomplishing a large work. He should be held to strict accountability. It is not doubted but that, the word of cheer being spoken and the proper support being given by the Church, Dr. Thompson will vindicate the wisdom of his selection for this great work.

The statistics show that during the year, 1393 missionaries have been commissioned by the Board. This includes two in the Synod of New Jersey who are paid out of the Barber fund, which is specially set apart for colored missers. The goodly number of 7,995 have been added to the mission churches on confession of faith and 4,198 on certificate. The membership of the Sunday schools connected with these churches is 123,622 and 250 new Sunday schools have been organized.

The Treasurer, Mr. Harvey C. Olin, has submitted detailed statements of receipts and expenditures of the permanent and trust funds, and also of the operating account of the mission building, which leaves nothing to be desired. They are so full, clear and satisfactory as to deserve special commendation. He reports the total receipts from all sources as $702,403.37. The expenditures were $722,965.44, which exceeded the receipts by $20,562.07. This is more than accounted for by the change from quarterly to monthly payments in the settlement of the salaries of missionaries, for in many instances the quarterages lapped over from last year into this, and as a result there has been paid this year for work done last year, a sum nearly equal to $35,000. It will thus appear that the actual work of the year was more than $14,000 within the receipts.

The debt now amounts to $167,839.03 which belongs wholly to the Board, the Woman's Board having succeeded in wiping out the deficiency chargeable to their part of the work. The miscellaneous and office expenses show a gratifying decrease as compared with last year of $7,515.93. The change from quarterly to monthly payments to the missionaries has been a most welcome one to those most interested, and it is pleasant to record that it has been accomplished without adding anything to the expenses of administration. The interest account is, however, a serious matter. During the past three years there has been paid out for interest on funds borrowed to carry on the work of the Board the large sum of $33,654.53. That is to say in

1895–6 th 1896–7 1897–8	ere wa	s paid o	out	$13,604.57 13,212.72 6,837.24
То	tal		-	$33,654,52

We are gratified at the marked decrease during the past year. If it be too much to expect that the churches will so contribute that there shall be no interest to pay, yet the amount would be largely reduced if Sessions would only see to it that the money contributed by the people was promptly forwarded by the Treasurer and not held back until the closing days of March.

The report of the Woman's Board brings us special encouragement. Besides meeting all their expenses and paying their debt, they have a surplus of over $8,000. This sum they propose to spend during the coming year upon the Mexican or Indian field and, in addition, to relieve the Board of all work in Alaska. The receipts of the Woman's Board from its auxiliaries and the Young People's Societies, amount to $278,702.38 and, including the funds raised for the Freedmen's Board, aggregate $324,348.25. This is an increase over last year for the work among the Freedmen of $4,691.42, but a decrease for the home work of $13,243.50. They have sent out 501 boxes for the missionaries of the Board, 489 boxes for the mission schools of the Woman's Board and 372 boxes for the Freedmen's work. They have sustained during the year 23 boarding schools and 90 day schools. These 113 schools are located as follows:

17 among the Indians.

24 Mexicans.

.. Mormons.

44 3ž Mountaineers of the South.

Foreign-speaking population.

In these schools have been gathered 8,339 pupils under 329 teachers. Among these schools 460 conversions are reported as part of the year's work. The societies have also contributed to the support of 32 schools and 59 teachers under the care of the Freedmen's Board and 10 Bible readers have been commissioned for the mountaineers of the South.

The prolonged absence from her home and land, for needed rest, of the President of the Woman's Board, Mrs. Darwin F. James, has occasioned regret. The more lengthened absence of the Recording Secretary, Mrs. S. B. Brownell, has compelled the Board very reluctantly to accept her resignation.

When now we turn our eyes to the future, it is clear that the Church should enter upon the work, forgetting the things which are behind, and press forward with such confidence and courage as by the blessing of God will bring her to the next Assembly with a record which shall have in every part abundant reason for gratitude and an increasing stimulus to go forward. Let the past years of criticism, controversy and change suffice. If these have not wrought all the good which was sought, only harm and loss will accrue by their continuance. Now is the time for confidence, increased offerings and more earnest prayer, and if these are given to the Board and its work, who can doubt but that, through the favor of God, greater things will be accomplished than the Church has ever attempted for the great cause of Home Missions.

Your Committee would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

I. The minutes of the Board meetings are found to be carefully engrossed, while the minutes of the Executive Sessions seem to be only partially recorded. However, as three members of the Board present in the Assembly assure your Committee that the partial records fairly and fully manifest the action taken in Executive Sessions, it is recommended that the minutes be approved.

2. In view of the fact that tens of thousands of people are pushing their way into the gold fields of Alaska, large numbers of whom are Presbyterians, it is recommended that the Board of Home Missions be advised to appoint at least five additional male missionaries at an early date for work in that Territory, and make the appointments a new ground of appeal to the Church.

- 3. In view of the greater activity of Mormonism since Utah was admitted to State hood, and in view of the large number of youths trained, in institutions under its control, in entiments averse to Christianity and to American ideas, the reduction of our church and school work in Utah is to be specially deplored; and it is urged upon our churches that increased attention should be given to the calls of the Home Board and the Woman's Board, and abundant means be furnished for instruction from the pulpit, in the Sabbath schools, and in all grades of Christian week day schools, from the lowest to the highest.
 - 4. That on Sabbath, July 3, a special offering be made for the work of Home Missions.

That an earnest effort be made to secure from all sources at least $867,000, so then will the debt be paid and the work planned for the year be adequately provided for.

6. That the following members of the Board, whose term of office expires at this time, be reappointed, viz.: Ministers, James S. Ramsay, D.D., Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., and Charles Wood, D.D.; Elders, Walter M. Aikman, Robert Henderson, Wm. H. Corbin and Robert C. Ogden; and that the Hon. James A. Beaver be elected to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Charles E. Green, deceased.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN DIXON, Chairman.

NINETEENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S BOARD TO THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

GENTLEMEN:

In making its Nineteenth Annual Report the Woman's Board is happy to announce that while changing its name it has also changed its condition and can write across its year's record the cheerful legend "No debt." This paralyzing incubus has been lifted not because of unusual, stimulated activity—for the year's figures show a decrease in Home Mission receipts, exclusive of the Freedmen's, of more than $13,000 over last year's high pressure contributionsbut by reason of the continued, steady, purposeful, onward movement of the thousands of Home Mission Societies under normal conditions, and more particularly in the pursuance of the policy adopted during the last three lamentable years, of contracting and reducing the work to meet a reduced income. Last year the Lord wrought for us a mighty deliverance from calamity, and in the deliverance He as plainly indicated that we were to work out our own salvation with good business sense. His guiding hand has manifestly been upon the work on the field, in the society and at the office, and we give Him joyful praise. The first impulse of thanksgiving is to offer to the Board of Home Missions, of which we are a department, such a measure of relief for the general work as our modest surplus will warrant. While the burden still presses so heavily upon the Assembly's Board, the thought even of our closed mission schools and the waiting pupils, does not deter us from assuming evangelistic work to this amount, on the fields where our school work must be and has been followed up by the preacher. Hence, on the day when our closed books showed the balance on the right side of the ledger the Woman's Board took action to relieve the Board of all the work m Alaska and as much more on the Mexican or Indian field as would reach the sum correspond. ing to the excess of this year's receipts over expenditures and obligations, which is over $8,000. ing to the excess of this year's receipts over expenditures and obligations, which is over so, combile this continues the embargo caused by persistent retrenchment, it fulfills the promise of the Woman's Board to carry out more fully the recommendation of General Assembly as to the evangelistic work when its debt should be removed. The fields on which our mission schools are established, are those where the church can hardly expect to come to even a measure of self-support; the teaching and the preaching are so closely allied that the work is practically one; hence the support of the preaching missionary on those fields (where the involves, necessarily, the greatest expense to the Board) is the most legitimate expansion of the work of the Woman's Board, and is in further compliance with the continued utterances of General Assembly. In view, therefore, of the Home Board's great responsibilities and out General Assembly. In view, therefore, of the Home Board's great responsibilities and our present opportunity, we look for the cheerful undertaking and loyal prosecution of this work by the whole great army of Presbyterian Home Mission women.

THE FIELD WORK.

The resultant church work which the Woman's Board is thus enabled to assume, only emphosizes the evangelizing value of the mission school work among the exceptional peoples, which is the first and specific business of our organization. The need of it called us into being; its wonderful success only demonstrates its efficiency—and the further need of it. It is not a merely philanthropic work; it does not establish orphan asylums or rescue homes, though it aims to protect and save. Much less is it a secular educational enterprise. It is the agency that the Presbyterian Church uses to carry on the work of evangelization on fields where the mission school must necessarily be the forerunner of the church and the preacher. The reports of our missionary teachers from Alaska to New Mexico tell the year's story with thanksgiving for saved souls. That is always the key note of their accountings; the awakening of the mind, the new sense of civilized living, the promise of proficiency in the home industries, the farm, the class room—these are all secondary when the teacher writes of what the school impress has been upon the pupils. "Seven of our Mexican boys have confessed Christ;" "Five of our Indian girls joined the church at the last communion;" "There is a healthy spiritual tone in the school;" "We can see the workings of the Spirit among the pupils this winter;" such statements overbalance all the careful school statistics and business renderings, while they show the sure foundation and the permanence of this agency of the Church for the evangelization of our benighted populations. Four hundred and sixty conversions are thus reported as this year's record in the schools, while hundreds who had already been won to Christ have been trained and nourished in the Christian life by our missionary teachers. They are potent forces, these 23 boarding schools and 90 day schools and they are thus distributed:

Our societies have also contributed to the support of 32 schools and 59 teachers under the care of the Freedmen's Board.

In addition to our regular teaching force commissions have been issued to ten Bible readers in the mountains of the South. This is in accordance with the deliverance of the General Assembly of 1895, but it has been effected only through the efforts of Dr. Humble of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, who becomes responsible for the support of such workers, and because of the most harmonious co-operation of the two Boards.

While our debt restrictions have been rigidly adhered to and no appropriations for new work allowed from our current receipts, the report of our Superintendent of Schools will show how upon some fields—notably in the mountains of the South—the generosity of individual contributors has made possible some new buildings and consequently broader work. The sapel will overflow, bank it up as we may! Our enterprising superintendents and teachers have compassed much on the field that was not "nominated in the bond." But it is not often that work is thus happily forced upon us, and every field waits for needed re-enforcement in workers and equipment.

THE ORGANIZATION.

Down through twenty-nine synodical societies and two hundred presbyterial societies to the church auxiliaries, which number more than four thousand, and the various contributing young people's societies and Sunday schools, the work has been systematically apportioned, spread out and defined by the loyal, earnest workers in every synod and presbytery of our church. No extraordinary methods have been adopted to increase gifts to our treasury, the one special appeal made being in behalf of the Board of Home Missions, when our organization was enlisted during a week of humiliation and prayer to stimulate a great church uprising for the wiping out of the debt of that Board. The receipts from our regular auxiliaries and young people's societies (the general C. E. contributions being shared equally with the Home Board as agreed upon) amount to $278,702.38, and, including the funds forwarded by our societies for the work of the Freedmen's Board, aggregate $324,348.25 as against $333,899.20 last year. This is an increase for the work among the Freedmen of $4,691.42 and a decrease for the Home work of $13.242.50.

the Home work of $13,243.50.

The boxes prepared by church societies for the Board's Missionaries number 501, while those sent to the mission schools of the Woman's Board amount to 489. For the Freedmen's work 372 are reported.

But the figures that indicate the new societies are more significant and inspiring. Hundreds of these new contributing organizations are the fresh forces that make for righteousness and the spread of the kingdom in the destitute corners of our land. We praise God for every one of such "Women's Clubs of National Interest."

The organization has not been without its losses this year both in Synodical and Presbyterial ranks. Devoted workers have gained the Heavenly rest. Where they have stood for the formative period of this work, as did the strong and valiant Mrs. Kate Plumer Bryan, the sense of loss is deeply accented, but after such service she and they sleep well, and their Lord prepares their successors in His own way and time.

THE ADMINISTRATION.

The year's work at headquarters has missed the direct touch of our honored and beloved President, Mrs. Darwin R. James, whose stay abroad has been thus prolonged, but her influence is too distinct and abiding not to be felt even in her absence. She will come back in her invigorated strength to take up the lines unentangled, just as she dropped them into other hands for her needed rest. The more lengthened absence abroad of our Recording Secretary, Mrs. S. B. Brownell, has compelled us to yield a reluctant acceptance of her resignation, which she presses upon us in her anxiety for the work whose exacting detail she knows from a long, untiring service. No tribute that her associates can pay would be worthy of her faithfulness and efficiency. Happily they will not be lost to the work though we must still miss her.

In the conduct of our system of schools, many of which involve all the complexities of industrial training; in the management of the large properties acquired for these purposes on the various mission fields; in all the great detail of a work, directed entirely from headquarters and on isolated fields and among ignorant or bigoted peoples, we acknowledge with gratitude the assistance of Synodical Missionaries on the field, and especially of the School Committee and executive officers of the Board of Home Missions whose counsel and approval are, at once, our help and our authority. The office force has been hard pressed at times by the demands of the field and the organization, but the effective work of the standing committees, whose freely given time and talent make so large an element of strength at headquarters, is most gratefully recognized.

CONSOLIDATED DEPARTMENTS.

Through the medium of the Young People's Department the joint work of the Board and the Woman's Board has been vigorously prosecuted down the lines of the women's organizations. The sum of 16,513.65 from C. E. Societies, and of $17,888.19 from Sunday schools summarize the results in figures. The prerogatives of the women's organization are to bring to bear upon the young people such educational influences as will make them intelligent contributors to the work of Home Missions in both its departments, as becomes truly patriotic Presbyterian Americans.

The Leaflet Department, also a consolidated adjunct of the work of the Board and the Woman's Board, has been most active in its operations, and becomes an increasingly important factor in prosecuting Home Mission work. That is a commentary on the more intelligent workings of societies and the consequent demand for definite information concerning the Home Mission enterprise. Receipts from this department amount to $2,099.78, against $1,597.21 last year.

THE MAGAZINE.

The Home Mission Monthly also reports a steady increase in its subscription list, paying not only all its own expenses, as it has always done, but turning into the general treasury the sum of $500 toward the office pay roll, thus in the last four years contributing $2,300 for such a purpose. Not what it earns, however, but what it gives is the "point of sight" in our brief report of it. It is the lips and tongue of missionsarie—and the Wise Man said, "The lips of the righteous feed many; the tongue of the just is as choice silver."

SUMMARY.

The "round up" of the year's work shows a steadily increasing battalion of Presbyterian women more intelligently and systematically encompassing the benighted peoples of our country; making a conscientious commissariat for the company of missionaries that they have sent to the front; cancelling the debt that has so hampered this vanguard; offering some reenforcement to the general army still retarded by financial burdens; polishing up their weapons to meet the foe of ignorance and indifference, and trusting in the Lord. "The children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids, but the Syrians filled the country. Thus saith the Lord, Because the Syrians have said the Lord is God of the hills but He is not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thy hand and ye shall know that I am the Lord." Respectfully submitted,

(Mrs. Fred'k H.) EMELINE G. PIERSON, Corresponding Secretary.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

AT WINONA LAKE, INDIANA, MAY, 1898.

THE sixty-first Annual Report of the Board of Foreign Missions and the manuscript volume of its Minutes for the year ending April 30, 1898, were presented to the General Assembly in session at Winona Lake, Indiana, May, 1898, and were referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions. The Committee consisted of—Ministers: George F. Pentecost, D.D., J. C. R. Ewing, D.D., Henry V. Noyes, D.D., Lewis R. Foote, D.D., John A. Marquis, John P. Williamson, D.D., George W. Tomson, William S. Davis, D.D., Robert P. Boyd, Milton L. Cook, Charles A. Campbell.

Elders: W. H. Cole, Edwin F. Glenn, Callender I. Leiper, Hon. W. T. Lyon, John Webb, Frank B. Sheldon, F. L. Dubach, John Cavanaugh, C. T. Jamieson, David Moore.

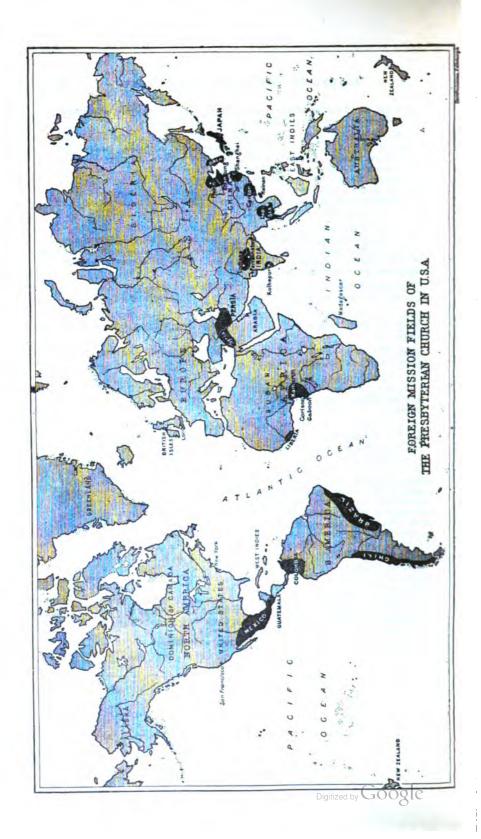

On Wednesday, May 25th, the Committee reported to the General Assembly, and on its recommendation it was resolved that:

- 1. That the recommendation of former Assemblies be reaffirmed, that no church should make less than two offerings during the year for the cause of Foreign Missions, and that one of these should be made in April, the last month of the fiscal year of the Board, and that the occasion of this offering may well be made a season of special thanksgiving and humiliation.
- 2. That the following members of the Board be re-elected to serve for three years: the Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., LL.D., the Rev. John D. Wells, D.D., the Rev. David Gregg, D.D., Mr. Alexander Maitland, Mr. John Stewart and William E. Stiger, Esq., and that the Rev. John F. Patterson be elected to fill the vacancy in the class of 1896-1899, and Mr. Scott Foster to fill the vacancy in the class of 1897-1900.
- 3. That the Assembly earnestly recommend the development of missionary interest in the Sabbath-schools, and that to this end the work of Foreign Missions should be given a regular place in the instruction of the schools, missionary books should be introduced into the Sabbath-school libraries, systematic giving should be encouraged, and Sunday, December the 25th should be observed as a Missionary Sunday, with special Foreign Missionary exercises, and with special gifts to Christ for this great work.
- 4. That in view of the great success and blessing of the Foreign Missionary Conference held by the Assembly's authority just before the meeting of this Assembly, it is recommended to the Board that a similar Conference be held preceding the next Assembly.

- 5. That the Records of the Board which we have carefully examined, and find clearly, accurately and neatly kept, be approved.
- 6. In order to meet the appropriations already made for the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1898, together with inevitable additions which for providential reasons will be required during the year, an advance of at least twenty (20) per cent. on the income of last year from living sources is indispensable, and must be made if another debt is to be avoided, to say nothing of the restoration of the work cut out last year because of retrenchment, or of an expansion to which God by His providence and Spirit is so urgently calling us.
- 7. There being no adequate provision in the present system of examining candidates for appointment as missionaries, by which the religious views of laymen and women can be fully ascertained, it is recommended that the Board of Foreign Missions be authorized to propound to such candidates the following questions:
- (1.) Do you believe the scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice?
- (2.) Do you sincerely receive and adopt the Confession of Faith in this Church as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures?
- (3.) Do you approve of the Government and Discipline of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America?
- (4.) Have you any views at varience with these doctrines, or any views of Church Government which would prevent your cordial co-operation with the Missionaries of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America?
- 8. The General Assembly has learned with deep interest and satisfaction that the Protestant Foreign Missionary Societies of Great Britain, the Continent of Europe and America, have resolved to hold an Ecumenical Foreign Missionary Conference in the city of New York, in the month of April, 1900, similar in character and aim to the World's Missionary Conference held in London in 1888. The opening of the new century would seem to be a fitting time to trace the development of the great foreign missionary enterprise which now circles the globe; to note the finger of God in the marvelous unfoldings of His providence and grace in connection with it; to recount the splendid conquests already made among unevangelized nations, and the agencies so signally blessed of the Holy Spirit by which they have been achieved; but above all, to catch the significance of the trumpet call which summons the Church to a wider occupancy of the field, and to still grander conquests for Christ, by means of the mighty forces already within her reach. It is eminently a time for wise counsel and concerted action. The General Assembly, therefore, warmly commends the contemplated Ecumenical Missionary Conference, and heartily approves the action of the Board of Foreign Missions in joining in the undertaking, looking to the Church for such co-operation and support as may be found necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. PENTECOST, Chairman.

INTRODUCTION

TO

SIXTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Board of Foreign Missions, with devout gratitude to God for marked tokens of divine favor, presents to the General Assembly its Sixty-first annual report, together with the volume of its Minutes covering the fiscal year 1897-98.

Of the gentlemen elected to membership in the Board by the last Assembly, Mr. John Stewart, William E. Stiger, Esq., and Mr. William P. Stevenson accepted the appointment, and by their faithful attendance and wise counsel, have added greatly to the strength of the Board. We deeply regret that the Hon. H. B. Silliman, LL.D., owing to pressure of duty in other directions, felt constrained to decline the appointment. The term of the following gentlemen, constituting the Class of 1895-98, expires with the current fiscal year, and the Assembly is respectfully requested to re-elect them: Rev. John D. Wells, D.D., Rev. William M. Paxton, D.D., LL.D., Rev. John Balcom Shaw, D.D., Rev. David Gregg, D.D., Mr. Alexander Maitland, Mr. John Stewart, and William E. Stiger, Esq. The Rev. Joseph R. Kerr, D.D., after seven years of membership in the Board, having tendered his resignation because of inability longer to devote the necessary time to the responsible duties of the position, his resignation was accepted with regret, and the Rev. John F. Patterson, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church of Orange, N. J., is hereby nominated to fill his unexpired term in the Class of 1896-99. Mr. Scott Foster, a ruling elder in Rutgers Riverside Presbyteterian Church of New York city, is also nominated to fill the vacancy caused by declinature of the Hon. H. B. Silliman, LL.D.

Charles W. Hand, Esq., who was elected treasurer of the Board to succeed William Dulles Jr., Esq., entered upon the duties of his office on May 17, 1897. Mr. Hand is a ruling elder in the Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn, and is well qualified by legal and business training for the responsible position to which he has been chosen and in which he is giving great satisfaction.

Secretary Speer, after an absence of fourteen months, during which, accompanied by Mrs. Speer in most instances, he visited the Missions in Persia, China, Japan and Korea, returned to the office Oct. 30, 1897. Able and comprehensive reports of his visit, prepared with great care, and dealing with some of the large problems of Mission policy and methods, were subsequently submitted to the Board. These are now under consideration, and cannot fail to yield important results in dealing with Mission questions. Although the Board recognizes that the expense of such tours of visitation and supervision is a proper and wise charge against the cost of Mission administration, it is pleasant to be able to say that in the present instance the long journey was without cost to its treasury, Mr. Speer and a friend meeting the entire expense. Mr. William Henry Grant, so long connected with the Mission Rooms in an honorary capacity, and who, some years ago, made an extended tour of the Mission fields, accompanied Mr. Speer in his visits to China, Korea and Japan, rendering effective and valuable service.

The Library in the Mission Rooms is becoming increasingly useful as a distributing centre of information The Library. on Foreign Missions. Books are multiplying, and the Library is more and more frequented by persons interested, while the number of volumes loaned is steadily increasing. Under the direction of Mr. Grant, well-executed maps of our Mission fields have been issued, photographs in great variety have been procured, some of which have been reproduced in our magazines, and lantern slides illustrating a wide range of Mission subjects have been multiplied, and either sold or rented at a mere nominal figure to large numbers of churches and societies.

With profound satisfaction the Board reports all obligations met to date, including the debt of $97,454.47 carried Finances. over from last year. In view of the financial situation in the country, and with an earnest desire to wipe out the debt as well as to meet the obligations of the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1897, the Board appropriated for that year about $100,000 less than for the year preceding. A special appeal for the debt was also issued and pressed upon the Church, the members of the Board, its officers and clerical force, and many of the missionaries joining in the effort. By the missionaries alone the handsome sum of $10,533.80 was given. In accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly, many of the churches increased their regular gifts with a view to helping with the debt.

Boards have as usual contributed most handsomely, the gifts through these channels being in advance of those of last year. The Board takes pleasure in recording anew its high estimate of the service rendered to Foreign Missions by these noble organizations and their auxiliaries, not only in furnishing such a large proportion of the funds—about 32 per cent.—for the prosecution of the work, but by means of their effective methods deepening and widening the interest at home, as well as supporting and encouraging their sisters on the field.

At the urgent request of several of the Women's Boards, and after full correspondence with all, it was Young People's deemed best by the Assembly's Board that, Societies. "as far as agreeable, all the Young People's Societies should send their gifts through the Women's Societies, and that the Assembly's Board should take direct charge of all foreign missionary work among the Sabbath-schools." In communicating this proposition to all concerned, the Board took pains to say: "The above proposition, of course, is advisory, and is made with the necessary reservation involved in the authority of the Synods and Presbyteries to take such action as they may deem wise, and also of the right of the Young People's Societies and Sabbath-schools to determine for themselves, subject to the advice and consent of their respective church sessions, the channels through which their foreign missionary offerings shall be sent to the Treasurer of the Assembly's Board. Wherever the proper church courts take other action, the Young People's Societies will, of course, recognize their paramount jurisdiction. But the plan is recommended in the earnest hope that it may be accepted as the wisest and most practicable solution of an important problem."

The missionary force was increased during the year by the addition of twenty-eight missionaries, of whom six were ordained ministers, three medical men, five medical women, seven other single women, one industrial missionary, and six wives of missionaries. About two-thirds of this number were sent to the field by funds specially provided for the purpose. On the other hand, the force was depleted by ten deaths and twenty resignations. The deaths were:

East Shantung Mission—Mrs. Charles Lewis, May 31, 1897; Mrs. Calvin W. Mateer, Feb. 18, 1898.

Lodiana Mission—Mrs. Charles B. Newton, June 20, 1897; Mrs. W. J. P. Morrison, Jan. 1, 1898.

Siam Mission—Rev. F. I. Lyman, July 17, 1897; James B. Thompson, M.D., March 30, 1898.

Chinese in California—Miss Margaret Culbertson, Aug. 1, 1897.

Hainan Mission-Rev. J. C. Melrose, Sept. 16, 1897.

West Shantung Mission—Anna M. Larson, M.D., Dec. 25, 1897.

Western Persia—Mrs. Benjamin Labaree, April 15, 1898.

More extended reference to these servants of God will be found in connection with their respective Missions. The resignations were from nine Missions, and were largely because of ill health. The names will be found in the text of the report.

In some of our fields, the year has been marked by unusual upheaval and disturbance. Revolution in Guatemala; war, famine, plague and earthquake in India; excitement in China because of the aggressions of certain European powers, and alarm in Persia because of assertions of ecclesiastical power and weakness and oppressions of the civil authority, necessarily reacted somewhat on our Mission work. The unprecedented cut also, made necessary by diminished receipts, told somewhat severely, although by throwing the native churches more on their own resources the retrenchment has not been without some compensations. Our twenty-four Missions, however, with their 110 Stations, have had a year of substantial growth. Korea has been especially rich in fruitage, the record being little less than phenomenal when the limited force and the comparatively recent planting of the Mission are remembered. The adult baptisms were 347, while successful efforts at self-support and church building indicate an active spiritual life. Most of the Missions in China give evidence of decided advance, especially those working extensively in the villages, such as West Shantung, which reports 265 adult baptisms; Canton 240, and Central China 167. The ingatherings in India from among the low-caste people continue, especially in the Punjab, while the Missions in the Northwest Provinces and Western India are also beginning to reap richer harvests than formerly. Among the nearly 600 baptisms reported are a number of high-caste Hindus and Mohammedans. In Japan the drift away from Bible truth is in part arrested, and a strong reaction is setting in in favor of evangelical Christianity. Western Persia reports the unusually large addition of 415 on confession of faith, while Eastern Persia has not been unblessed. Suria still proves a difficult field to cultivate, nowithstanding the fidelity of a large and efficient missionary force. The church membership is 2,300, of whom 95 were received last year. Frequent health changes among the missionaries in Africa, necessitated mostly by climatic conditions, have been unfavorable to uninterrupted work at some of the stations, but the year has been one of quiet and steady growth, and 52 adults were baptized. Most of the Missions in the Roman Catholic Countries on this continent find it no easy matter to make a deep and lasting impression. progress, however, is being made in Mexico, Guatemala, Colombia and Brazil, the aggregate of adult baptisms reported for the vear being 285.

Making allowance for the incomplete returns from some Missions because of delayed mails and other possible causes, the additions on confession for the year in all our Missions have been most encouraging. To this result all branches of the work have contributed. The retrenchment, however, told heavily against the schools, a number having to be closed and others greatly reduced. The medical work has held its own in its divine mission of healing and evangelizing, 351,298 patients having been treated and brought more or less into touch with the Gospel.

After long and patient consideration, the Board determined to abandon Mosul as a Mission Station, its remoteness, Mosul. isolation, unhealthfulness, the impossibility of building suitable missionary residences because of government opposition, and the difficulty of carrying on from that point the work among the Mountain Nestorians for which the station was originally established, rendering its further continuance inexpedient.

Important modifications of the work among the Chinese and Japanese in the United States have also been made, looking to the gradual withdrawal from it by the Board, save in San Francisco, the great centre of Chinese population in this country. A fuller statement of the matter will be found in the text of the report.

In addition to the work of the field secretary, Rev. Thomas Marshall, D.D., which, as usual, has been prose-Forward cuted with vigor, the Board, under what seemed to Movement. be the clear leadings of Providence, has undertaken an experiment in the direction of a "Forward Movement." For some years past, a gentleman in the Middle West had been paying through the Board the salaries of two missionaries on the field, besides making an annual gift for the general work. course had been such a blessing to himself, and he was so profoundly convinced that others might be found willing to do likewise, that he urged the Board to undertake a "Forward Movement" in this direction, promising to meet all the expense connected with it for one year, or two, if it succeeded, including the salary of the representative to be engaged, clerk hire and traveling expenses. Believing that the finger of God was in it, the Board accepted the proposition, but not until January, 1898. was it able to secure a suitable man to undertake so important and delicate a work. At that time Mr. Luther D. Wishard, a Princeton graduate, and for many years connected with the College branch of the Y. M. C. A., in whose interests he had spent several years visiting foreign mission fields, was induced to undertake it. It is hoped that through this agency not a few men and women of wealth may see it to be their duty and count it a joy to have their representatives on the foreign field, and that congregations also, following the example of a number already enrolled, may see their way clear to support a missionary over and above their present gifts to Foreign Missions. The primary aim of the "Forward Movement," however, is to enlist individuals.

With a view to the more thorough equipment of new missionaries before their departure for the field, and of giving the Board and its officers a better oppor-Missionaries. tunity of meeting them face to face than heretofore, it has been arranged to hold a ten days' conference with them in the Mission Rooms in June. Lectures on practical topics will be given by members and officers of the Board and by others, including medical men and workers in city Missions. Opportunities will also be afforded of visiting some of the Mission work in New York city. It is believed that such even brief practical instruction in Mission policy and methods and personal contact with the Board and its officers will be of great advantage to the new missionaries and through them to the missions, while the Board will profit by the establishing of closer personal relations with the missionaries.

The outlook on the foreign side of the work is full of hope. In most of our Mission fields the door of access stands wide open. Missionaries are not only tolerated, but Outlook. in many instances even welcomed by the people. The Holy Spirit is setting his seal on the work more generally than ever before in the history of our Missions. Everything points to wider occupancy as the immediate duty of the Church. Delay is hazardous. The tide must be taken at the flood. must keep step with the providence and grace of God, or lag behind in the mighty conquest. The present reduced rate of expenditure in the Missions, made necessary by the utter inadequacy of the Board's receipts, can only be continued at the peril of much of the work already in hand, to say nothing of the urgent demand from most of our Missions for immediate reinforcements and a steady forward step. Crippled work on the field waits to be restored; missionaries who have been bearing almost intolerable burdens rather than see the work sacrificed ought to be relieved; and the well-equipped men and women who, at the Lord's call, have dedicated themselves to the foreign work should not be kept longer waiting for means with which to send ١ them forth. Only the Church under God can meet the exigency. She is able to do it. Will she do it?

The Board gratefully acknowledges its indebtedness to the American Bible Society for printing several books of the Old Testament in Benga as revised by Dr. Nassau of West Africa, and for the continuance of its generous help in furnishing copies of the Scriptures to our missionaries in other fields for sale or free distribution, and in supporting colporteur and Bible agents. Grateful mention is also made of the uniform kindness of the American Tract Society in liberally helping our Missions to produce and disseminate a pure religious literature.

It is a privilege in this connection to report the generosity of the British and Foreign Bible Society in assuming one-half the salary and part of the other expenses of Rev. S. H. Kellogg, D.D., of our Furrukhabad Mission, who, with representatives of other Boards, is engaged in revising the Hindi Old Testament.

MISSIONS IN AFRICA.

GABOON AND CORISCO MISSIONS.

BARAKA: on the Gaboon River, near the equator, 10 miles from the sea; occupied as a station, 1842; transferred from American Board, 1870; missionaries—Rev. Robert H. Nassau, M.D., Mr. E. A. Ford, Mrs. T. S. Ogden; outstation, Corisco on Corisco Island; Rev. Ibia f' Ikenje.

ANGOM: above Nengenenge, on the Como River; occupied as a station, 1881; missionaries—Dr. C. F. Friend and Mrs. Friend, Mrs. Arthur W. Marling, Rev. Smith G. Dunning.

BENITO: 92 miles north of Gaboon; occupied as a station, 1864; missionaries—Rev. F. D. P. Hickman, Mrs. Louise Reutlinger, Mrs. C. De Heer, Miss Hulda Christensen, French teacher, Mons. Emmanuel Presset, Rev. Frank S. Myongo, and Rev. Etiyani Nyenya; 10 outstations.

BATANGA: 170 miles north of Gaboon; occupied as a station, 1885; missionaries—Rev. W. C. Gault and Mrs. Gault, Rev. H. E. Schnatz and Mrs. Schnatz, Herman H. D. Cox, M.D., and Mrs. Cox, Rev. F. G. Knauer, Miss Isabella A. Nassau, Miss Louise A. Babe, and Capt. Peter Menkel, Rev. Itongolo ja Ivina; 3 outstations.

EFULEN: about 70 miles southeast of Batanga behind the coast belt; occupied, 1893; missionaries—Dr. Silas F. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson, and Rev. W. C. Johnston and Mrs. Johnston.

ELAT: about 75 miles east of Efulen; missionaries—Rev. Melvin. Fraser, Rev. C. W. McCleary, Mr. M. H. Kerr, and Albert L. Bennett, M.D.

MAC LEAN MEMORIAL STATION.—At Lolodorf, headquarters of the German government in the Ngumba country, 90 miles northeast of Batanga; occupied as a station in 1897; missionaries, Mr. Oscar Roberts and Rev. Richard Lange.

*In this Country: Rev. H. E. Schnatz and Mrs. Schnatz, Mr. M. H. Kerr, Mr. Oscar Roberts.

The salient features of this Mission for the year touch both the workers and the work. Several changes have taken place in the missionary force. Mr. and Mrs. Bannerman, after protracted absence from the field because of the ill health of the latter, finally resigned, severing their connection with the Mission with great reluctance, and to the deep regret of the Mission and the Board. Mr. and Mrs. Gault, Mr. Ford and Miss Babe rejoined the Mission after furlough, while Mr. Kerr, Mr. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Schnatz returned to the United States for rest and recuperation—Mr. Schnatz especially having been very seriously ill. Mrs. Marling also, after the death of her husband, came as far as England to spend some time with her children. The Mission was reinforced by the appointment of C. F.

Friend, M. D., and Mrs. Friend, who were assigned to Angom, the Rev. F. G. Knauer, who has taken charge of the Boys' School at Batanga, and the Rev. Richard Lange, who was appointed with special reference to the work among the Dwarfs.

The ingathering for the year has not been large when compared with that of some recent years, the total number received on confession of faith being 52. The work of character-building, however, has not been neglected, and the missionaries write in a hopeful spirit. In the older Stations the need of reinforcements is urgent, especially to undertake the work of itinerating among the towns along the rivers and in the bush. The pressing of the Fang tribe—the most powerful in West Central Africa—to the coast at several points calls for redoubled efforts, especially at Angom and Benito, while the ripeness of the field on the Gaboon and along the northern coast demands wider and more vigorous itineration. Unhappily, in the older parts of the field, Romanism has been more than usually aggressive; annoving our missionaries with petty persecutions, and seeking in many ways to hamper them in their work. Aside from the darkness and superstition of heathenism, the most potent enemy in the interior has been intertribal wars. These, however, have not affected the personal safety of our missionaries, although they have very seriously interfered with their work.

The establishment of the Mac Lean Memorial Station at Lolodorf, hinted at last year as in contemplation, is now in a measure an accomplished fact. The name has been chosen in honor of a brother of Miss Margaret Mac Lean of Scotland, through whose generosity the opening of this Station, because of its proximity to the Dwarfs, has been made possible. Lolodorf is about 90 miles northeast of Batanga, and is the headquarters of the German government in the Ngumba country. Temporary buildings had been erected with the assistance of Mr. Kerr, and Mission work begun by Mr. Roberts, before he left for the United States. It is for the present in the hands of trusted native Christians. It is expected that work for the Dwarfs will be prosecuted somewhat vigorously from this centre, as a wide range of itinerating will enable the Mission to reach a goodly number of these degraded people.

BARAKA STATION.

The inadequacy of the force at this Station has made it impossible to do more than maintain the usual routine work at the centre. In addition to the multiplied secular cares of the Station, Dr. Nassau has acted as stated supply of the church. It is deeply to be regretted that, after more than half a century of Christian effort, this church must still look to foreign missionaries for its preaching instead of being a strong, self-supporting church with its own African pastor. On different occasions native ministers have been in charge, and others are now coming to the front; but a well-trained native ministry is one of the pressing needs of the entire Mission.

The Church at Baraka, which numbers 75 adult members, received six on confession of faith, while on the other hand one was excommunicated. Owing to the absence of a competent French teacher, the boarding-school was not opened during the year, but a day-school, attended by the children of both Protestants and Roman Catholics from adjacent villages, was in operation. The attendance was irregular, running as low as five in a day and rising as high as 40. No food or clothing, nor gifts of any kind to the parents to induce them to send their children, were given. The report expresses surprise that, in face of the admirably equipped Roman Catholic schools at Baraka, any children were found willing to attend. An effort was made, in a small way, to establish an industrial department; but it was not a conspicuous success, there being no appropriate equipment or oversight. A French-speaking teacher here is indispensable.

EVANGELISTIC WORK was maintained by two or three native agents, one at Ovendo, a point across the bay from Gaboon, where there is also a small day-school taught in French.

The work for women has been kept up by Mrs. Ogden, in addition to the heavy responsibility of looking after the domestic arrangements of the mission-house, and entertaining mission-aries as they pass to and fro. In her missionary work she was aided by some of the Christian women in Baraka, who took turns in visiting the larger villages, reading the Bible, and conducting prayer-meetings. Mrs. Ogden writes:

Some of our Gaboon women are strong Christians, enduring hardnessas good soldiers of Jesus Christ. On one occasion, a woman, very ill indeed, unable even to support her head, was taken from her bed, carried outdoors and held in a chair, while heathen incantations were practiced around her. A few hours after, when some of the Christian women went.
in to see her, she, in great exhaustion, recounted what had been forced upon her, and added: "Don't fear the curses that are heaped upon you by my family; come to see me while I stay. Nothing can come between me and my Saviour." Just before her death, she was permitted most precious experiences. In almost more joy than she could bear, she exclaimed: "Oh, I see myself brought nearer, made purer and purer. I see Jesus—my Jesus."

The women of the Church maintain a Foreign Missionary Society, which meets once a month and is well attended, each giving her ten cents cheerfully. An earnest plea is again made for a woman medical missionary to undertake village visitation, and medical work among the native women and children.

Mr. Ibia, in charge of the outstation of Corisco Island, reports but little encouragement. Six women were added to the Church on confession, while two men were excommunicated and two suspended. This tells the story of the difficulty of maintaining a church in the midst of heathen surroundings.

Evangelistic work has been done at various points on the island, and also on the mainland. The most serious obstacle, apparently, is the persistent opposition of the Roman Catholic priests, who seem to be bent on the destruction of all Protestant institutions on the island, not hesitating to call to their aid gifts of rum to the poor natives.

A school of 25 children, two-thirds of them boys, was maintained at the main station, while four girls were taught at Mbanque.

The native minister seems to be thoroughly in sympathy with the purpose of the Mission and the Board to plant self-supporting and self-propagating Christian institutions, whether church or school; but the difficulties in the way are neither few nor small.

ANGOM STATION.

Through a succession of unlooked-for events, this station was left with but one ordained missionary, the Rev. Smith G. Dunning, who had just joined the Mission, and of course was a stranger to the language and the people. Through the agency of native assistants, however, the various parts of the work were fairly well sustained—something all the less difficult because of the faithful work of Mr. and Mrs. Marling in other years.

The Church, which now numbers 29 communicants, had an addition of three on confession, with an average attendance of 60 at the Sabbath services. A number of earnest inquirers are reported, and the increasing attendance at the Sabbath-school is noted as full of encouragement. But little was possible in visiting the towns around Angom, all of which are open to the Gospel. Mention is made of the voluntary work of a Christian native, who had gone repeatedly into the interior towns telling the story of God's love.

A combined day and boarding school was maintained most of the year, although with an unsatisfactory attendance. The present location is not well adapted for a school, as, in going to the river to secure water for cooking purposes and also to bathe, the boys must pass through the midst of the town people, who seek every opportunity for making trouble. In addition to this, the Roman Catholics have been exceedingly active in their efforts, giving large gifts in order to secure the children for their schools; not hesitating to carry even a jug of rum with which to influence the parents.

Mr. Dunning urges a wider occupation of this field because of the access it gives to large parts of the Fang tribe, which is the strongest tribe on the West Coast, and is rapidly pushing its way to the sea. The advantage of river communication also makes it a comparatively easy field to work. It combines the ease of access of a coast station with splendid opportunities for frontier work. The church cannot fulfill its obligation to West Africa without a more adequate manning of this station.

BENITO STATION.

The year has not been marked by such ingatherings at this Station as have characterized other years; and yet the work has not been without the seal of Divine approval, four having been added to the Benito Church, and six to that at Hanje, some 15 miles to the south. There are 600 adherents connected with the former, and 200 with the latter, with an average attendance respectively of 250 and 80. Growth in Christian character is noted with gratitude on the part of the missionaries.

The Sabbath-school at Benito has an enrolment of 300, and that at Hanje of 50. The services connected with the latter are conducted by one of the elders, save as Mr. Myongo, the pastor in charge at Benito, is able to visit it. Three other outstations, under care of native elders, are also visited regularly by the native pastor. The death of one of the oldest members made a deep impression. After many years of faithful witnessing, he said, as he lay upon his deathbed: "Why should you mourn that I am leaving this world of sin? I hold it but as filthy rags in comparison with the country to which I am going." What a contrast with another death which occurred about the same time, the friends declaring that the man had been bewitched, and, on opening his body, insisted that they had found proof that he had been killed by witchcraft! His friends pulled down the house in which he had died and destroyed the garden.

SCHOOLS.—The boarding-schools for boys and girls have had a successful year, 120 children being enrolled, with an average attendance of 48, mostly Kombe, there being only a few from each of the surrounding tribes. Twenty-four learned to read during the year; the Benga being taught first, and, to the more advanced, the French, in order to meet the requirements of the government. Special attention has been given to industrial work. Of this Mr. Presset writes:

The boys have done a good deal of work on the Station that otherwise would have been done by paid workmen. They have also procured most of the material for building a house intended for a kitchen, but used for a dormitory, as the former building used for that purpose fell during the year. They have also cleared about 20 acres of forest on Mission premises, cutting and hauling from it lumber for a dormitory for themselves, which has been built during the year under Mr. Menkel's care. The land thus cleared is now occupied by a plantation of plantains and corn, the former producing now about half of the daily amount of food for the boarding scholars. I have given that part of the work special attention, with the view of helping by it the cause of self-support, and also of training the boys under my instruction to habits of work.

The girls have also been trained in industrial work, the older ones being taught to sew, the product of their needles being given by them towards the fund for a church building. They also "cultivate their small gardens with a good degree of diligence, and employ the proceeds to help clothe themselves, and also to procure the Benga books for which they are so anxious." Several of the girls are members of the inquiry class, and it is hoped that they will soon be received into the church on confession of their faith.

EVANGELISTIC.—In addition to the visiting of the outstations, Mr. Myongo and his assistants have made frequent itinerations to the surrounding towns, while the ladies of the Mission have visited the towns lying along the Benito river. There are now three tribes living on the Benito coast who were formerly called interior people—the Balingi, Boheba and Fang. Quite a number of Balingi are in the church, but the Boheba and Fang are still difficult of access. Itinerations among such people are far from being holiday experiences. Referring to the murder of one of the Fang tribe, Mrs. Reutlinger writes:

Only a few days before the Fang thus murdered four of the Coast-people, Miss Christensen and myself, with a crew of four men, had visited the same town. A crowd of fierce-looking men were then gathered, talking the war palaver, and thirsting for blood. We have since heard that there were those in the crowd who advised an attack upon our boat. Their little girls were still at that time under our care. Had it been otherwise, we shudder to think what we might have been called upon to witness. Our own lives would, perhaps, have been spared; but the poor men composing our crew might have been butchered before our eyes, and we have been helpless to prevent the deed. We praised the Lord for His protecting mercy, and realized that He had indeed been with us, and preserved us from threatened harm.

Mrs. Reutlinger and Miss Christensen have continued their labor of love in the dispensing of medicines, according to their ability, the patients meeting the expense of the drugs in whole or in part.

BATANGA STATION.

Year by year Batanga becomes increasingly important as a centre of missionary work, and the gateway to the interior. All ordinary departments of work carried on in Mission-fields are in operation here.

The Church located at the central Station, and which was organized but a few years ago, has become the mother of four others located north and south of Batanga. As through some oversight, the statistics of all these churches are given in gross, under the name of the mother church, it is impossible to refer to them in detail. The entire membership of the five churches is 730, of whom 27 were received on confession during the year, and is partly owing to the fact that it has been found necessary to raise the standard for admission to the church. It may also be partly owing to the fact that the old church building at Batanga was destroyed during the year, and the people who for several years had been collecting funds for a new edifice were disappointed because Mr. Menkel could not at once undertake the building of it. The work to the north of Batanga has been especially encouraging, and it is believed that the church at Kribi, some eight or ten miles from the centre, might be made a strong church were the right man found to be put in charge.

EVANGELISTIC. — Mr. Hickman visited regularly the towns north of the Lobi river, while the elders of the church and members of the Theological Class rendered good service along the coast and in the bush behind Batanga. Mr. Roberts made two journeys to Lolodorf, the site of the Mac Lean Memorial Station, besides spending a large amount of time among the Mabeya, within a few miles of Batanga. During these journeys he kept in view the Board's purpose of reaching the Dwarfs wherever possible, and of planning to secure for them Gospel privileges in connection with the Stations. He found them however, rather difficult of access, although by kind treatment he soon won their confidence. With a few exceptions, they persisted in refusing to send their children to school at any of the centres; but it is believed that this reluctance will be overcome in time, so that some of the boys, and possibly some of the girls, may be trained at one or more of our stations, and sent back to carry the Gospel to their people. A school was carried on in their midst for some time by Mabeya men, the young men working in the morning and receiving Bible instruction and instruction in the rudiments of education in the afternoon.

SCHOOLS.—The Theological Class, numbering six men, is still under the instruction of Miss Nassau, who devotes a large amount of time and labor to this important work, the course of instruction being that prescribed by the Presbytery.

The Boys' School at Batanga was seriously interrupted by the illness and subsequent withdrawal of Mr. Schnatz. It continued in session, however, under charge of native teachers until the arrival of Miss Babe, who at once resumed instruction in German, this being counted a very important matter in view of our relation to the German government.

Some 40 names of the Mabeya tribe were enrolled as boarding pupils, while 20 day pupils attended from the adjacent towns.

The Girls' School at Bongaheli, the lower part of Batanga, was taught by a native teacher under the supervision of Miss Nassau. For lack of more adequate accommodation, it has been conducted in one of the rooms of Miss Nassau's house. The entire number enrolled was 85, while the average attendance was but 35; the irregularity growing out of various conditions of life, including the indifference of parents.

Day-schools were also conducted at the outstations, some of them with a good deal of encouragement. It is worthy of note that, although the Roman Catholics offered inducements for the attendance of children in the form of food and clothing, the community have come so far to understand the difference between their work and ours that some even of the Roman Catholics are sending their children to our schools.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Cox has had a busy year in dispensary and hospital, and in looking after the health of our missionaries and of foreign traders in and around Batanga. Of course, in treating foreigners, a fee is charged, which is turned into the Mission treasury. The entire number of treatments reported is 12,380, including 12 cases in minor surgery and three major Religious services were daily conducted in what by operations. courtesy is called a hospital—a very temporary structure, which barely affords shelter for the patients. The Mission has united in an urgent request for the erection of a small and inexpensive hospital for work at Batanga, and the time has certainly come when something a little more permanent and adequate in this direction ought to be furnished. Grateful mention is made in the annual report of the value of the medical work in giving the Mission standing in the community and with the government.

Captain Peter Menkel has devoted a large amount of time to building operations, including extensive repairs at several of the Stations, and has also continued to act as captain of the cutter "Nassau." Owing to the increased facilities of transportation by steam vessels, the Board has decided to dispose of the cutter, but has not yet succeeded in doing so.

EFULEN STATION.

Work at this Station is gradually taking on a more permanent character. The presence of the missionaries, with all that it involves, is no longer a novelty. People have come to know that the preaching of the Gospel is not a mere entertainment. The salvation that is proclaimed is salvation from sin and not in sin; and people by nature have no taste for that which searches, tries and condemns them. A goodly number, who formerly climbed Efulen Hill to attend the religious services, find it now the "Hill Difficulty." Intertribal wars have also reduced the number of those attending the services. The report says:

A quarrel with the Ntum people, a tribe about 30 or 40 miles southeast of Efulen, has closed the way to this country, and hence debarred these people from hearing the Gospel here. The Ntum people, although using a slightly different dialect, have no difficulty in understanding the Bulu as used about Efulen. Formerly they came to Efulen by the score, on Sabbath as well as during the week; but their present quarrel has stopped all intercourse. But not only have their palavers closed this road, but for a time it seemed that the people about Efulen, by their petty quarrels, were shutting themselves in on every side. Then they came nearer home, and got into a palaver among themselves, until on one Sabbath all paths to Efulen Hill were closed to the Bulu.

An average attendance of 70, however, on the Sabbath service may be regarded as quite encouraging, especially as there is a marked increase in the earnestness of the attention given to the truth. The preaching service is immediately preceded by a Sabbath-school, where the women and girls are especially reached. There are 23 enrolled in the inquiry class, of whom two or three are believed to be ready for baptism. More, perhaps, might be considered qualified, but they are quite young, and the temptations which beset them are neither few nor small.

EVANGELISTIC.—The work at Nyabitandi, a town three miles from Efulen, has been sustained by the missionaries, four of the schoolboys from Efulen also taking part. The average attendance has been about 100, including quite a number of people from the interior, who had come to trade. Another clan of the Bulu tribe, about three miles east of Efulen, have asked for a Sabbath-afternoon service, such as that held at Nyabitandi; but it is difficult of access, as it requires wading in water a good part of the year. The missionaries have made nine itinerating trips during the year, two of them between Efulen and Elat; another, of four days, among the people to the north of Efulen, during which some were reached with the Gospel for the first time. The missionaries seem to appreciate the importance of this kind of work, and also to give it a prominent place in their methods.

A mid-week meeting for women, conducted by the missionary ladies, has been full of encouragement. This meeting was at first held on Efulen Hill; but, as the older women found it difficult to attend after working all morning in their gardens, the place of meeting was changed to the towns.

SCHOOL.—The school opened in February with a roll of 59, the largest atendance in the history of the Station. Several things operated, however, to reduce the number materially, among them the intertribal wars already referred to, and the fact that no more clothing was given either for attendance or fidelity in study. It is gratifying, however, to learn that there are now 44 boys in the towns about Efulen who have copies of the Gospel in Bulu, and are able to read them. It seems impossible to secure girls for the school, only two having attended during even part of the year.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Johnson has found but little demand for his professional services; the Efulen region being comparatively healthy, and the people being unwilling to pay even a trifle for medicines, although many are well able to do so. All reasonable opportunities, however, have been taken advantage of; but the physician has spent the greater part of his time in instructing the boys in the school, helping to conduct the religious services, and in itinerating.

ELAT STATION.

The second year at this outpost station closed with abundant cause for thanksgiving. The work in a measure is the counterpart of that at Efulen, being conducted among the same class of people and by substantially the same methods. It has the advantage over Efulen, however, of being planted in the midst of a more densely populated region, many being within easy access of the Mission premises. Like its sister station, Efulen, it encountered difficulties in the shape of tribal wars, no less than 19 lives having been sacrificed in the region by these bloody It is to be mentioned with gratitude, however, that the missionaries or Mission property have never been molested during these conflicts. On the material side of the work, the school house has been removed and enlarged by the addition of another room, the building answering the purpose of church as well as Eight acres of land, including a fine spring of schoolhouse. water, have been bought, so that the Mission premises now include 16 acres, the land costing but a trifle over $1.00 per acre.

The people attend the Sabbath services in increasing numbers. and with commendable diligence. The average attendance at the Sabbath-school, which precedes the preaching service, is about 90, including men, women and children. The attendance "The people have at the preaching service averages about 100. sometimes been noisy enough, but have been as attentive to the Word as could be expected, and have even behaved with a decorum, and at least outward form of appreciation, which would be creditable to a civilized congregation." Daily worship at the station at 6:15 A. M. has been attended not only by the schoolboys and the missionaries, but frequently by people from the towns near by. A good deal of itinerating among the neighboring towns has been done, with now and then a more extended Both here and at Efulen, the missionaries find a cordial welcome wherever they go.

SCHOOL.—The school for day and boarding pupils reached a total enrolment of 117, although the largest attendance on any single day was but 44. Of these 20 were able to read the Gospels in Bulu during the year. The ambition of many of them is to be able to purchase a copy of the Gospels, and to read it. As with Efulen, deep regret is expressed that so few girls attend the school.

This is accounted for in part, at least, by the fact that the parents or the husbands (for the girls are often betrothed before they are ten years old) keep them in town for menial services, and do not seem to think that they need to know anything.

A good deal of attention has been given to training the boys in industrial work, especially in cutting the grass and cultivating the grounds of the Mission premises, with some rude carpentry.

These resident scholars have lived on the self-supporting plan. Every boy, while well, has been required to pay in labor for all he has received in the way of food and clothing. The service of two and a half hours each afternoon is allowed to pay for the boys' food and salt (costing two and a half cents each day). Additional work has paid for the meagre clothes necessary. This plan of self-support has been strictly observed, and it is thought has worked well, serving to cultivate habits of industry and a spirit of manly independence among the boys, as well as operating in the interest of economy. The boys have generally fallen in with the application of this plan as gracefully as could be expected from those born and bred not over-fond of work, and to get all they can without paying for it. But long ago, the boys began to learn that nothing in the way of food and clothes could be had for nothing. So, with the needful oversight, they go to work and earn their way as a matter of course. The boys generally are a happy lot, and like to stay at the Station, and it is a joy to see the moral and other improvement in most of those who remain long enough to receive the impress of Christian civilization.

MEDICAL.—The arrival of Dr. Bennett, the first medical missionary to Elat, was a great joy to the three noble men who had for almost two years been several days from the nearest physician. Dr. Bennett began at once to grapple with the language, and at the same time to make provision for the dispensing of medicine. A temporary arrangement was made for a small hospital and dispensary, and very soon the people from the immediate towns and from those at a distance, came for treatment. About 100 different patients have been treated. The outlook for this form of work seems to be encouraging. Much more would have been accomplished had it not been necessary for Dr. Bennett to make a journey to the coast. He went via Lolodorf, where, in the good providence of God, he arrived in time to save the life of Mr. Roberts, who had been taken seriously ill.

MAC LEAN MEMORIAL STATION.

The opening of this Station at Lolodorf by Mr. Roberts and Mr. Kerr, the committee appointed by the Mission for the purpose, is one of the marked features of the year. This location was selected by the Committee because of the comparative size of the population, its proximity to the Dwarfs, its accessibility by government road, the abundance of timber for building at hand, the presence of a running stream of good water, the productiveness of the soil, and the fact that the government officials are close by, and assure the missionaries of a very cordial welcome. Among other things the committee report:

We spent five days at Lolodorf, and we can, after a careful search, report that we failed to find a place anywhere which has so many things in its favor for the building of a Mission Station. When we undertook this trip, we tried to keep in mind the fact that this was to be as far as possible a station for the Dwarfs. From the nature of these people it is impossible to build a station in their towns, as they are ever moving and may be here to-day and gone to-morrow. As the Ngumba or Mabeya seem to be the only people to whom the Dwarfs attach themselves, we deem it best to recommend the building of a station in the Ngumba country. We also recommend that the station be in the centre of a large population, and that we seek to have the Dwarfs send their children to the ever-changing towns of their people.

LIBERIA MISSION.

CAREYSBURG: Rev. R. A. M. Deputie.

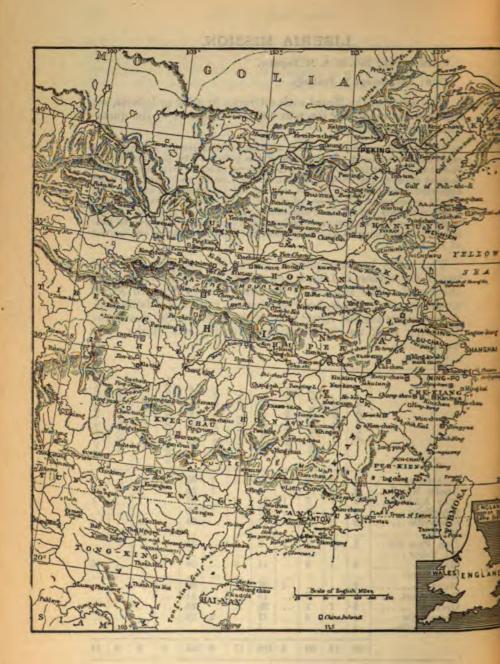

DON: Rev. George B. Peabody.

The policy of the Board with reference to work in Liberia, set forth in the report for the year 1894, is indicated by the quotation from its Minutes:

The council would report that, with the Committee on Africa, it has repeatedly considered the question of the policy to be pursued by the Board in its work in Liberia, that there seems to be no little strength and carnest effort in the Presbyterian Church in Liberia, and that there is no apparent reason why it should not be led to larger self-support. It would recommend, therefore, that the Board continue its aid for a while with this end in view, diminishing from year to year the amount of its appropriations, and encouraging the West Africa Presbytery to look forward to assuming as soon as possible the complete support and control of its work.

This policy has been pursued during the past year, and only two of the workers in Liberia now receive any financial help from the Board. The Minutes of the Presbytery of Western Africa would seem to indicate, however, that the work is not falling off. According to the last report that has been sent to the Board, the following work was in operation under the care of the Presbytery:

The Canton Mission, like all others in China, has felt in various ways the great diplomatic and political movements which have characterized the year 1897. The conflicting interests of the great European powers, as seen in their efforts to secure concessions at prominent points on the coast, have done much to arouse government and people from the slumber of the ages. Conservatism still holds the government in a strong grasp, but a desire for something other than Confucian classics has revolutionized popular ideas of education. There will be need of wisdom, lest the highest aims of education, as seen from the missionary standpoint, shall be sacrificed to that mere commercial knowledge which Chinese youths are anxious to obtain for business purposes.

One of the most noticeable facts in the present situation is the tribute which government officers are paying to the missionary service. In the bewilderment caused by the diplomatic rivalries of the European powers, these officers have in various instances shown their confidence by selecting missionaries as confidential advisers. The full reports of the Canton Mission speak with satisfaction of the quiet and freedom from mob violence with which the year has been characterized.

In the main, the health of the Mission has been good. Exceptions to this have appeared in the severe illness of Mrs. Lingle and her child at Lien Chow; also, in the serious indisposition of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly of the same Station, which required a change for a time at Macao. Dr. Henry suffered for many weeks with iritis, from which he has fortunately recovered. Mrs. C. W.

Swan also suffered from illness, but has been restored.

Rev. E. P. Fisher, who had been absent from his Mission field for more than a year, a part of which was spent in Japan, has been constrained to resign his relation to the Board, and his resignation has been reluctantly accepted on the ground of continued ill health. There is much hope that eventually he will regain his wonted strength.

During the year W. H. Dobson, M. D., has been added to the Yeung Kong Station. Miss H. Lewis has returned to her field, and Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Noyes have returned to the United States on furlough; also Miss Mary W. Niles, M. D., accompany, ing her father in extreme illness.

Never has there been a year so marked with cheering indications and abundant positive fruits as that now closing. The nineteen churches of the Mission present an aggregate of 1,877, 240 additions having been reported during the year. As, however, the beginning of the Mission year was set back from January to October, the Mission report covers but nine months. The entire year would present a much larger total of additions.

The Second Church in Canton, and the San Ning Church, are now self-supporting, and the Sam Kong and Third Church pay one-half of the pastor's salary, while all the churches contribute more or less to their expenses. Self-support is being pushed vigorously.

The most successful mode of evangelization has been found in the labors of native preachers under charge of particular missionaries. It is thus that the latter multiply their own influence. The plan is far better and more fruitful than that which places a missionary at full expense and with inevitable limitations in the pastoral care of a small local work.

Rev. A. A. Fulton, who vies with Dr. Henry in evangelization, has charge of five churches, Dr. Henry having seven. They have been permitted to receive over a hundred members each.

The Yeoung Kong Church has been transferred from the oversight of Rev. Andrew Beattie to that of Rev. G. W. Marshall.

The Shui Tung Church was organized in October, with 30 members under the care of Rev. Andrew Beattie.

The Kang Hau Church, with 11 members, has been under the direction of Rev. C. W. Swan.

The Fa Ti Church, connected intimately with the Christian College in China, has been shepherded by Rev. E. W. Thwing.

CANTON STATION.

The Second Church in Canton has contributed to various forms of work several hundred dollars. Its Christian Endeavor Societies have been kept up. During nine months of the year 55 new members were received. Work among the women has been accomplished in connection with the Canton Girls' School.

In the Third Church one liberally disposed elder has assumed the support of a native preacher who has done excellent service. A larger number of converts would have been received but for the persistent opposition of their friends.

At Shek Lung personal lay service by members of the Church and without compensation has been a noticeable feature. There is hardly any one element more worthy of cultivation than this.

At Liu Po the congregation have purchased a lot for a new chapel. The membership was diminished seriously by the transfer of 82 members to form the Church of Yeung Mui, which was organized in March, 1897.

At Lung Tam a professional fortune-teller experienced a remarkable conversion, after which he set to work zealously in the cause of the Master.

In the Canton First Church, under the care of Rev. A. A. Fulton, the medical and dispensary work of Dr. Mary Fulton has added an important element to the general success.

At San Ui the members of the Church fitted up at their own expense rooms for Bible study. The number of inquirers is large and increasing. A movement has been commenced for a new church building.

At San Ning a new church edifice has been completed, at a cost; of about $6,000 (silver). The debt of $1,000, which remained after building the structure, has been paid, and the church is now not only meeting its own expenses, but is carrying on a mission work in an adjacent town. Nine hundred and twenty dollars (silver) was recently received from Chinese Christians in California, to be placed in the bank as a permanent fund toward; the salary of the preacher of this church. The attendance at the last communion nearly filled the chapel.

At No Foo $100 has been subscribed to purchase a lot for a

The Church at Liu Po has enjoyed a good degree of prosperity. Additions to the membership have been larger than in any previous year.

SCHOOLS.—The Canton Christian College, which is under the direct management of a Board of Trustees in New York, with a Board of Directors in Canton, has numbered in its faculty Rev. H. V. Noyes, D. D., who, during the year, returned to the United States on furlough, Rev. J. J. Boggs and Rev. E. W. Thwing. These have been assisted by Chinese teachers in different departments. The total enrolment of students has been 79. Six are of a higher department; 30 in the intermediate and 43 in the primary department. The Board of Trustees had arranged for a department in English, and appointed Rev. J. E. Gardner, of Vancouver, as a professor in charge of this special work. He has been prevented from undertaking it only by the illness of his wife, which has rendered it impracticable for him to remove to China. Plans have recently been entered upon for the erection of new buildings for better accommodations for the College, for vigorous prosecution of an English department, a higher department in science, and also a department in medicine.

The Boarding-school for Girls has completed 25 years of interesting and successful history. It is still in charge of its founder, Miss Hattie Noves, assisted by Misses Butler and Lewis with eight well-educated Chinese teachers. The first half of the year 150 pupils were in attendance. At its anniversary, nearly 600 women and girls were present at the service held in the Second Congratulatory addresses were made by missionaries of different stations. During the 25 years more than 1,000 girls have been received as pupils. Two hundred and seventy-two have been received into the Church. This does not give the full number of Christians who have been connected with the Seminary, as some were Christians when they came, and some have united with other churches. One hundred and eighty-two pupils have been employed by our own or other Missions: As teachers, 85; Bible-readers, 58; medical assistants, 9. Nine other girls have been graduated from the Medical College, and five are now in their course of study. Of the 150 pupils, 82 are Christians, 24 were received into the Church in June, and three in September last. This is a noble record, truly.

The day-schools show the sad result of retrenchment. Of the seven boys' day-schools, which are scattered over a wide district and under the care of Dr. Henry, five had to be One of these had been maintained closed for lack of funds. continuously for twenty years; another was held in a house provided by the native Christians; a third, which had generally a good attendance; a fourth had been opened at the urgent request of the people, who provided a house; a fifth where a building had been provided rent free. The teachers in charge of these schools had to be discharged. This is a mournful history. There is scarcely any form of educational work which can be maintained so cheaply, and which yields greater results in proportion to the outlay, than that of small day-schools under native teachers, and especially when the houses are provided by the people. Four schools have been maintained under the direction of Mr. Fulton.

Of the day-schools for girls, eight have been in charge of Miss Hattie Noyes, with an enrolment of 203.

A promising girls' school was opened during the year in the city of San Ui with an enrolment of 23 pupils, but after few months it was closed for lack of funds.

The school at San-Tso, with 22 pupils, was closed in July, owing to the retrenchment.

At Yan-Sai Tai Kai the girls' school has been the means of winning the confidence and friendliness of the people in the vicinity who have hitherto been hostile.

In the School for the Blind, with 30 pupils, five were supported by missionaries in the Berlin Foundling House; there are now 25 pupils. The ladies of the foreign community living on Shameen have furnished the new building now occupied by the blind with desks, tables and other furniture.

In the school at Sai Lung Li under the care of Miss Julia Henry, religious services are held weekly in connection with the labors of a faithful Bible-woman.

Eight of the Bible-women hitherto employed by the Mission had to be dismissed for want of funds, and they have been employed by other missions.

GENERAL EVANGELIZATION.—When the sad tidings were received from the Board in New York that a disastrous retrenchment had been made in the appropriations; and that, after all specific reductions, there was still required a certain per cent. of reduction to be made and assigned by the Mission, those in charge of the evangelistic work were specially filled with dismay, and rather than see this vital part of their work mutilated and destroyed they drew largely upon their own resources, in order to keep as many as possible of their most faithful preachers in the field.

Readers of this report will not wonder at the disappointment which was felt when they consider that, during the first six months after Dr. Henry's return to his field from furlough, he was permitted to receive to church membership in Canton and in the outstations 104 converts. It is doubtless by means of the large contributions made from the private resources of the missionaries that the work has been so far maintained as to present the largest number of accessions ever known in the history of the Canton Mission.

It is to be remembered that, in connection with this work at the outstations, of which Dr. Henry has charge of 14 and Mr. Fulton of 19, around each of these 33 centres there are clusters of small villages, in which the native preachers present the Gospel to small companies of hearers.

Many little incidents are recorded in the Mission report for which space cannot here be given—such as efforts to build chapels or accomplish other laudable purposes, without dependence upon the Mission treasury; varieties of experience in preaching at market-towns; the generous gifts of wealthy Christians (for instance, one in which a wealthy Chinaman in Australia promises $1,000 silver toward a new building); the accession of men old and young to the Church; the putting forth of lay effort by the church-members in outlying districts; successful street-preaching; beginnings of special work among women; the work of the medical boat, with its equipments of medicine and force of native doctors, etc. Specially interesting is the experience of the native preacher at Shun Kok, who, since his conversion, and during his labors on market-days and in the villages, has seen the conversion of his wife and six children; also of his mother and brother, and several of his relatives.

LIEN CHOW STATION.

The little church at Lien Chow is under the care of Rev. Kwan Loi, as are also that of Sam Kong, whose contributions have amounted to $79.33, and that of Lam Mo, over the border of Hunan. Rev. W. H. Lingle has been chiefly instrumental in the organization of the latter.

The evangelistic work of the Lien Chow Station has embraced the instruction of a class of inquirers, six in number, of whom three united with the Church. A request has been received from Lam Mo for the formation of a small class. Mr. Lingle's assistants spent a month visiting and instructing the inquirers around Lam Mo. At the next communion, Mr. Lingle baptized several persons. A literary graduate of the first degree, and an earnest Christian of three years' standing, has been employed to labor in the neighborhood. A zealous but erratic native is laboring without compensation as a lay preacher in the mountain districts and among the Iu people. He reports a number of persons desiring baptism.

At Kan Wo, where some of the members of the Lam Mo Church reside, an effort is in progress to raise funds for a little chapel. They have appealed to the native churches in Kwong Tung for what might be called home missionary assistance.

An earnest invitation was received at Lien Chow from Heng Chau, signed by more than a dozen men, for a preacher and instructor; others, also, were anxious to hear the Gospel. Two assistants who responded to this call were delighted to meet with Christians who had been baptized in March previous by Dr. Griffith John, of Hankow, and at least a dozen more were awaiting baptism. "Never before," says the Mission report, "was the outlook more encouraging in Hunan." Sixtyseven persons there have been received into the Church this year, and others are waiting for baptism.

Mr. Lingle and two helpers, while itinerating northward from Lien Chow, were spontaneously and cordially invited by the citizens to preach in an open court, where the people assembled in large numbers to listen to the truth.

The Boys' School at Sam Kong has had 11 young men and boys enrolled during the year—one-half from Hunan, the rest from Sam Kong and Lien Chow. Thorough religious training is given to these youth, in the hope that they may be not only converted but prepared for Christian work. Mrs. Lingle, who is familiar with the Mandarin language, has had particular charge of the school.

Miss Johnston has not opened her school during the year, but has spent her time in other missionary work.

The Girls' Boarding-school at Sam Kong began the year with 15 attendants, and four have been added during the year. Three members of the first class have been received into the Church. Mrs. Machle, who had charge of the school, transferred it to

Mrs. Lingle upon her removal to Lien Chow.

Five day-schools have been conducted by the missionaries of Lien Chow, mostly in adjacent villages. Mrs. Machle has taught a Sunday-school for women at Sam Kong. One Bible-woman has been employed under her care. A Wednesday afternoon prayermeeting has been maintained, and a class for Bible-study met three times a week.

YEUNG KONG STATION.

At the Yeung Kong Station evangelistic work, both local and among the outlying villages, continued during the year under the direction of Mr. Beattie; Mr. Marshall at first giving most of his time to language study, has taken most of the work under his care.

Seven preaching Stations have been maintained in connection with Yeung Kong. For the first time since the establishment of the Station, women have professed their faith.

At Ping Kong, 15 miles southeast from Yeung Kong, five men have been baptized, and three others will be received after fuller instruction.

At Chik Ling, 15 miles southwest from Yeung Kong, three are many indications of religious feeling among the people, all of whom seem friendly.

At Chik Ling, 15 miles southwest from Yeung Kong, there persons have been baptized, and there are several applicants. In October the Christians of this outstation and those of Mui Luk were organized into a Church. In no part of the field are Christians more enthusiastic and warm-hearted in the work. It is rare that any one is absent from the Sunday service, women carrying little children six miles to church. In September a typhoon drove the waves of the sea upon this town, destroying nearly 100 houses. Eleven lives were lost, among whom was the daughter has been totally destroyed by the salt water.

Mui Luk is 100 miles southwest from Yeung Kong, far down the peninsula toward Hainan. This place has been infested by robbers, once or twice disastrously. This year the work was almost stopped for two months by these depredations, or at least the fear of them, and hundreds of the more wealthy left the place.

A school was opened in Chik Lun, connected with the Yeung Kong Station, and another has been maintained at Pak Kwan. The Mission report takes notice of the fact that this work in Yeung Kong has for several years been maintained by the Men and Boys' Society of South Street Presbyterian Church, of Morristown, N. J.

Owing to various causes—such as mobs, pestilences, fear of robbery, loss of health of missionary families, etc—many discouragements have been encountered; but the outcome as here reported must be gratifying to those who have born the chief expense of the work at this Station.

KANG HAU STATION.

Dr. and Mrs. Reid, who reached this field the previous year, have given their time chiefly to language study, though the undertaking of some medical work seemed inevitable.

Mr. Swan's work has been divided between study, evangelistic labor, interpreting in the Dispensary, building operations, etc. The Boys' School at this Station has enrolled 24 pupils. The Station has met with peculiar discouragement in the loss of two helpers, and has since been unable to supply the vacancy.

While it is hoped that increased attention will be given by the Mission to the thorough and protracted training of native preachers, and that the College, with its enlarged plans, will aid in the same direction, it will be seen that a wide field is open for the employment of a class of well-chosen adults, who, with a shorter course of study in the normal department at Fa Ti, may be prepared for simple but earnest evangelistic work in the widespread fields of the Canton Province.

MEDICAL WORK.

The Canton Hospital has been continued under the joint care of Drs. Kerr and Swan. The female department was under the direction of Dr. Niles until she returned home on furlough in June, 1897. Since that time Dr. Fulton has taken her work. The statistics for nine months are as follows:

Number	of	visits from o	outpatients	 	.25,236
Number	of	visits from	inpatients	 	. 1,226
Number	of	operations.		 	. 1,318

That Western medicine and surgery are becoming more and more popular, is evidenced by the numerous professional calls demanded by the higher classes.

Dr. Kerr was absent from the Hospital three months, in response to a call to give professional treatment to the United States Minister. In the Hospital morning prayers have been maintained for inpatients by Dr. Henry and the native helpers.

Dr. Swan, in addition to almost constant professional work, has also rendered good service in the evangelistic labors of the Hospital. The medical class has been held as usual.

Dr. Fulton, besides giving medical instruction for women, has prepared two books upon Diseases of Children and Nursing in Abdominal Surgery. She has also maintained four dispensaries. Sometimes the attendance in one of these has been over 100 daily. She pays a high tribute to her efficient Chinese associates, especially Dr. Mui A Kwei, who for twelve years has added greatly to the extent and effectiveness of her work.

In connection with the medical work, it will be a matter of universal regret that the operations of the medical boat, under care of Mr. Fulton, have been greatly limited, owing to the retrenchment ordered by the Board.

The members of the Lien Chow Station rejoice that their medical work has received a great encouragement in the erection of a Hospital, for which they had waited patiently for years. The formal opening of the institution occurred on September 30th. It was soon full and bark sheds had to be erected to accommodate the overflow of patients. The building is two stories high, with two apartments on each floor. The upper floor, which has two large rooms for paying patients, is occupied by Dr. Machle and family for want of a suitable residence. The lower floor is composed of a ward, preaching-hall, dispensary and operating-room.

There is an obvious disadvantage in being compelled to reside in a building directly over the wards and the operating-room of a hospital. The communication of disease, the close contact with the suffering, whose cries of distress it is impossible to ignore, and the general strain upon the nerves and sympathies of the family—all point to the obvious necessity of a separate residence. When this shall be accomplished, the room now occupied by the missionary's family may be given as enlarged accommodation for the patients.

The statistics of the medical work, some of which is still continued in the old building at Sam Kong (also partially a residence), are as follows:

	Sam Kong.	Lien Chow.
Outpatients	3,258	2,069
Inpatients	. 74	67
Seen while itinerating	. 601
Visits at home	. 260	18
Eye patients	. 288	_
Teeth extracted	. 45	_
Surgical operations	. 57	38
Total		6,347

Of these 324 were women specially attended, who were visited during the absence of Dr. E. C. Chesnut, who is in charge of the Sam Kong Hospital for Women. In this hospital over fifty different villages have been represented by patients who have sought its blessings. Some of these were women of the Ius, coming for treatment from their mountain homes. Many have received, as it is hoped, saving impressions of the Gospel. The statistics of the Woman's Hospital are as follows:

Dispensary patients	 .2,666
Inpatients	 . 28
Outside calls	 . 78
Seen during itineration	 . 650
Teeth extracted
Surgical operations	 . 35
Obstretical cases	 . 12

At the Dispensary at Yeung Kong, which, previous to the arrival of Dr. Dobson, was under the care of native physicians, 4,622 men and 2,548 women have been treated.

At Kang Hau medical work has been jointly conducted by Dr. Reed and Mrs. C. W. Swan, M.D. Dr. Reed, whose chief work has been language study, having been compelled to the oversight of the work during the illness of Mrs. Swan. There have been 1,000 attendances at the Dispensary, and a number of minor surgical operations have been performed. A large number of patients have been turned away for lack of suitable quarters in which to care for them.

CENTRAL CHINA MISSION.

NINGPO: on the Ningpo River, 12 miles from the sea; occupied as a mission station, 1845; missionaries—Rev. J. N. B. Smith, D.D., and Mrs. Smith, Rev. J. E. Shoemaker and Mrs. Shoemaker, Miss Annie R. Morton, Miss Edwina Cunningham, Miss Lavinia M. Rollestone; 8 ordained preachers, 6 licentiates, 14 teachers and helpers.

SHANGHAI: on the Woosong River, 14 miles from the sea; occupied as a mission station, 1850; missionaries—Rev. J. M. W. Farnham, D.D., and Mrs. Farnham, Rev. J. A. Silsby and Mrs. Silsby, Rev. George E. Partch and Mrs. Partch, Rev. G. F. Fitch and Mrs. Fitch, Mr. Gilbert McIntosh and Mrs. McIntosh, Mr. C. M. Douglass and Mrs. Douglass, Miss Mary Posey, Miss Mary E. Cogdal, Miss E. A. Lindholm, Miss Emma Silver; 3 ordained preachers, 2 licentiates, 23 teachers and helpers.

HANGCHOW: the provincial capital of Chekiang province, 150 miles northwest of Ningpo; occupied as a mission station, 1859; missionaries—Rev. J. H. Judson and Mrs. Judson, Rev. J. C. Garritt and Mrs. Garritt, Rev. E. L. Mattox and Mrs. Mattox, Mrs. L. J. Doolittle, Rev. H. G. C. Hallock; 7 ordained preachers, 3 licentiates, 15 teachers and helpers.

SOOCHOW: 70 miles from Shanghai; occupied as a mission station, 1871; missionaries—Rev. J. N. Hayes and Mrs. Hayes, Rev. D. N. Lyon and Mrs. Lyon, Rev. Joseph Bailie and Mrs. Bailie, M.D., Miss Mary A. Ayer, M.D., Miss Frances F. Cattell, M.D.; 3 licentiates, 13 teachers and other helpers.

NANKING: on the Yank-tse-Kiang, 90 miles from its mouth; occupied as a mission station, 1876; missionaries—Rev. Charles Leaman and Mrs. Leaman, Rev. W. J. Drummond and Mrs. Drummond, Rev. T. W. Louston and Mrs. Houston, Rev. W. N. Crozier and Mrs. Crozier, Mrs. L. S. Abbey, Miss Mary Lattimore, Miss E. E. Dresser, Miss A. L. Howe; 23 teachers and other helpers.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Mrs. D. N. Lyon, Miss Mary Lattimore, Mrs. W. J. Drummond, Rev. J. C. Garritt and Mrs. Garritt, Rev. J. A. Silsby and Mrs. Silsby, Miss Mary E. Cogdal, Miss Annie R. Morton, Mrs. G. F. Fitch.

Two hundred and three men and women have been added to the twenty churches of the Central China Mission during the year. The total number of communicants is now 1,505, who gave, during the past year, $1,758.28 to the support of their churches and church-work, and $995.02 toward the support of their schools.

There are now three presbyteries in the field of this Mission, the Ningpo Presbytery having been divided by the last General Assembly. Of the old undivided Presbytery, Mr. Garritt wrote:

Almost without exception the churches of the Ningpo Presbytery are far on the road toward self-support. No church which has a pastor gives less than four months' salary toward his support. Some give six or more months, and two—Ningpo and Hangchow—are entirely self-supporting.

This record is better than any other presbytery's in China. As the report for Ningpo Station shows, the conditions are even better now than when Mr. Garritt wrote.

The only two missionaries added during the year have been Dr. Mary A. Ayer and Dr. Frances F. Cattell, who have been assigned to the Soochow Station, in connection with the Tooker Memorial Hospital.

NINGPO STATION.

CHURCHES.—Twenty-one were admitted to the Ningpo Church, the largest number during its history of fifty-two years. Of these, nine were from the boarding-schools. In June the Zong-yu Church decided to become self-supporting, increasing its annual gifts by $88.00. This was wholly spontaneous on their part, and was announced by their pastor in a conference held during the visit of Mr. Speer and Mr. Grant. After service on Sabbath afternoons, it is the practice of the members of this Church to scatter over the city in little groups-men, old and young, women and girls—to tell the story of the Cross. Thirty-three were added to the Zong-yu Church during the year, the largest number added during one year to any church in this field since the Ningpo work began. At Tong-kwaen some men have been added to the Church through the influence of their wives, and in several market-towns the work has been very encouraging. The Siao-lu-deo Church has dispensed with its church building rented at Mission expense. The Christian Endeavor Convention, held at Yu-yiao in March, was larger than the previous year, attended by 200 delegates, who preached the Gospel as they went and came along the canals and on the highways.

ITINERATING.—All the stations have been visited, Mr. Shoemaker, Miss Cunningham and Miss Rollestone having quite thoroughly covered the field, while the evangelists and native helpers have gone out two by two into entirely new territory.

WOMEN'S WORK.—The native Bible-women have continued their house-to-house visiting when they were not itinerating. Two of them spent some weeks preaching the Gospel to the women patients who came to the outstations to consult a native medical helper, reaching in this way between nine hundred and a thousand patients. The class for Bible-women during the month of July was taught by Miss Cunningham in the Gospel of John and the Epistle to the Philippians. Bible-meetings for women, and especially one for twenty-five mothers, have been kept up monthly.

EDUCATIONAL.—The year closed with three boys' dayschools in session, all held in chapels under the supervision of the pastor. Five girls' day-schools were in session at the beginning of the year, but were closed on account of the "cut," although one teacher continued her school without salary. The Presbyterial Academy secured an English-speaking graduate from the Hangchow College to teach English and Arithmetic, with the result of drawing a great number of new pupils, who paid $18.00 a year tuition; while the new teacher, an earnest young man, exerted a strong Christian influence over them. The Presbyterial Academy is almost wholly supported by the people; nearly all of its scholars are children of Christians, who are recommended by some pastor or well-known member of the Forty-five scholars have been enrolled in the girls' boarding-schools during the year, nine of whom have applied for admission into the Church. An old graduate of the school, who has made herself a good scholar, assists Miss Rollestone and Mrs. Shoemaker, who have charge during Miss Morton's At Tsiu-ong, a country boarding-school was conducted for the children of church-members who can study only during the leisure months of the year. Twelve were in attendance during the year at the men's training-class; and sixteen, whose ages range from seventeen to sixty-nine years, at the training-class for women. Six of the latter united with the Church.

The Station has been troubled somewhat during the year by the frequent requests of native Christians for assistance in education. To reinforce the Station, the Mission adopted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, we believe that it is not to the best interest of the native Christians to have the foreign missionary take any part in carrying their cases into the Yamens; therefore,—

Resolved,—1. That we deprecate all interference in cases which are not clearly and unmistakably infractions of the treaties in virtue of which we are permitted to reside and carry on work in this country.

Resolved,—2. That we decline to interfere in all cases in which financial interests only are involved.

At the very close of the year, Mr. Kennedy was obliged to return home on account of his health. He had been living alone in the heart of the city with none but Chinese companions and neighbors, and had endeavored, on some country itinerating trips, to live as nearly as possible after the fashion of the people, and the strain proved too great.

SHANGHAI STATION.

In March, Dr. and Mrs. Farnham completed their thirty-seventh year of service in Shanghai. Mrs. Fitch was obliged to return home on account of failing health; and, during Mr. Fitch's absence with her, Dr. Smith removed from Ningpo to assist at the Press. During the year, Mr. and Mrs. Silsby and Miss Cogdal came home on furlough, the former having stayed nearly two years beyond the regular term of service, in order to give Mr. Partch time for the study of the language.

CHURGHES.—Of the pastors of the three churches in Shanghai, only one received even partial salary from the Mission. Next year none will. The membership of the South Gate Church was 133. During the year the men of the Church have organized a society, the object of which is to deepen their spiritual life, and to develop the men in actual service by enlisting them in personal effort for one another, and in proclaiming the Gospel among their associates and the heathen. The busy men composing the Press Church have contributed $433.31 during the year, aside from their Christian Endeavor collections, which has more than met the expense of their Church, and have maintained a day-school. Their Endeavor Society meets on Thursday evening, at the close of working hours, and has 56 members. Eighteen joined the Hongkew Church during the year, including one old woman, of whom the report says:

For years she never took any interest in the religion of Jesus, and on one occasion, when she was induced to attend church, was subsequently attacked by disease which she attributed to the effects of attending church, and for years could not be persuaded to go again, until within a year or so, when her attendance became quite regular. A few months ago she made a profession of her faith in Christ, and her two sons, who have long prayed for her conversion, had the joy of seeing her received into the Church.

Street chapel-preaching has been kept up daily during the year, with the exception of one month, though it is hard work preaching to a swift-flowing stream.

OUTSTATIONS.—The South Gate missionaries have visited the Station at Soong-kaung, 30 miles from Shanghai, where there is a day-school, and Tseu-p'oo, 12 miles from Shanghai, where there are two day-schools and a licentiate, and Tsihpau, where the chapel was crowded on each visit. The report speaks warmly of the Tseu-p'oo licentiate:

Even more hearty words of praise can be spoken of his earnest, enthusiastic little wife, who, aside from her other duties, has taken the school, which had become demoralized by the former occupant of the place, and has made it a model of good order; the teaching of the catechism is now a strong feature in the daily work.

WOMEN'S WORK.—Of the South Gate women, the report says:

An eager desire to preach Christ is manifested by our women in making opportunities to urge their relatives and neighbors to believe in Jesus. Our aim is to develop the women of our church rather than to hire a bible-woman. Our pastor's wife is a model of devotion and consistent, consecrated living, while many of our younger women are earnest and active. Each one present takes part in every meeting.

A women's monthly prayer-meeting has been kept up at the Press.

EDUCATIONAL.—The thirty-seventh annual report of the Lowrie High School contains these encouragements:

Last year we reported progress in the line of self-support. Though not having yet attained our ideal in this respect, the year in review has seen farther development along the same line. At Chinese New Year an advance was made in the price of tuition for new pupils, both for the sons of Christians and outsiders—retaining, as before, the distinction between these two classes. Instead, as might be expected, of depleting the number of applicants, more came than could be accommodated, and several were turned away for lack of room.

It is worthy of note that the Chinese themselves are becoming interested in the school. An incident in point was their recent generous subscription toward a new building. Their attention was directed toward this object by Mr. Silsby, through his personal teacher, the former having suggested that this would be a more acceptable way of expressing their appreciation of him than by the customary gifts that had already begun to pour in. Before his departure, more than $600.00 had been subscribed by students—old students and members of the Church.

In the Girls' School, 29 pupils were enrolled during the year. Four girls were graduated, all of whom were active Christians. Miss Cogdal has developed the school substantially, especially in the direction of Christian character, thoroughness and self-reliance.

The pupils taken in during the last two years have been children of Christians, and, in most instances, children of former pupils. The difference in disposition and aptitude at study shown by these little people, compared with those whose childhood has known nothing of Christian influence, is strong proof of the elevating power of the religion of the Bible above even the best of man-devised systems. As the parents begin to appreciate the value of education for girls, they are willing to pay something for it. Now those who enter provide their own clothing, and pay fifty cents a month toward their board. This may seem far from self-support, but to them it is a great step in advance of having everything provided by the school.

Five day-schools in connection with the Sunday-school work have enrolled 119 boys and 30 girls. The aim in these schools is, "to do all we can to give the children a knowledge of their own classics and a practical grasp of the fundamentals in arithmetic, geography and physiology, with a thorough impregnation of the Gospel story and the plan of salvation. The picture-cards sent from America were a great help as rewards of merit. In July a social was held on our grounds, at which 61 of the mothers were met with the Gospel. At this time they promised hereafter to pay tuition as they would if their children were in heathen schools."

At the Mission Press new pupils in the day-school are expected to pay three dollars a year toward the support of the school. In connection with the Hongkew Church, Mrs. Farnham superintends two day-schools, containing 22 boys and 21 girls.

LITERARY.—The Chinese Tract Society, of which Dr. Farnham is Secretary, during the year printed 636,390 copies of Chinese tracts, etc., equal to about six million pages, the work being done at the Press. Dr. and Mrs. Farnham have been associated in preparing a Dictionary of the Shanghai dialect, and Mr. Silsby has issued a fine Syllabary of Shanghai Colloquial.

SOOCHOW STATION.

CHURCHES.—The church in the city has erected its own building during the year—a very simple building, in native style, almost all the money for which was given by the native members themselves. One old woman, a widow of one of the former elders, who had in all a fortune of $100.00 (silver), gave $80.00 to the Church, laying aside the remaining twenty for her funeral expenses. The whole cost of the building, which has only an earth floor, was about $450.00 (Mex.). That the Church life is not without difficulties, Mr. Hayes' report frankly states:

There is a lack of brotherly love; when we look for peace and harmony, we often find quite the reverse. The woman who gave so liberally for the Church, and who ought to be a pattern for the younger women, makes it very difficult for them to live with her. Some of the members are nearly always in hot water, and it is generally over some trifling. One man beat his wife, and then allowed some of his family to chain her up all night. When I tried to have the man brought before the session, they seemed to think very likely she deserved the treatment she received, and so the matter was allowed to drop. I was then informed that there were very few of the men who had not been trained in the boarding-schools but what would whip their wives if they had any provocation or the necessary strength.

The Lion Mountain Church numbers nine members. Mr. Lyon and Mr. Bailie have worked through the country, and Luther Hayes, eldest son of Mr. Hayes, accompanying Mr. Lyon, as well as a boy could, has done faithful work in other ways.

EDUCATIONAL.—Twenty pupils have attended the Lion Mountain day-school, and there have been 57 pupils in the other day-schools. Forty boys have been in the Soochow High School, five of whom have expressed their desire to study for the ministry, and have kept up the weekly prayer-meeting. Not a little has been done to teach the boys self-reliance.

Most of the student class in China nave an idea that manual abor is degrading for people of their position. It was partly with an idea to combat this false conception of life, and partly that I believed a little hard work would be good for the boys physically, that led me to ask them if they would help build a church. Nearly all the boys seemed to enjoy the work. They dug out the foundation for the building, removing all the rubbish that had accumulated during the Tai-ping rebellion and dug up all the stones that were used in the foundation and many more. This work was sandwiched in with their study, a half a day for each. There was some talk from outsiders against it, but I think it did the boys a great deal of good. The cook remarked one day that they are more than formerly. The health of the school has been excellent. The new quarters may partly account for this, and the few weeks' work they did may perhaps rightly come in for a share of the credit. Owing to the "cut," we extended our winter vacation about a month. Some boys were sent away, to make expenses suit the appropriations.

A number have been engaged in distributing books and tracts and street-preaching. The assistant cook is as zealous as ever; he usually spends two hours every afternoon selling books and preaching.

The boys have made commendable progress in their studies. They are mostly from poor families, and so very little can be done in the way of self-nipport. During the summer vacation three of the larger boys went out to work as servants.

MEDICAL.—During the year, by means of the generous gift of Mr. Nathaniel G. Tooker, of New York city, in memory of his wife, a new hospital has been erected, and with it a residence for Drs. Ayer and Cattell. The hospital is erected on a busy street, just outside one of the most used gates, and it is earnestly hoped it may contribute toward breaking up the hard hearts of the Soochow people, who have long resisted the Gospel.

NANKING STATION.

Work in this old capital city has moved forward steadily during the year, with the help of faithful native workers, of whom the report says:

One, our first Bible-woman, Mrs. Peng, a faithful and earnest worker, has been taken away by death. For the past year she had been wasting away with consumption, but labored for the Lord as long as she had breath to speak, and won her mother over to the Christian faith on her dying-bed. Elder Hsu, although seventy years of age, has continued at his post, with the exception of six weeks spent in his old home in the Chehkiang province. For over twenty years he has continued to bear witness daily in one or the other of the street chapels. Though no longer active and aggressive, he continues faithful at his post, ready to receive all who may come to inquire the "Way." The other elders and helpers have been faithfully witnessing for Christ in city and country.

CHURCHES.—A second Presbyterian Church has been organized during the year, under the name of Grace Church. The number of the members of the First Church is 99, nearly onefifth of whom live in the country. Grace Church started out with 28 members, and 28 adults have been added during the year on profession of faith. Two street chapels are open every day, and in three other chapels Sabbath services are held. Dayschools form the nucleus of the congregations in these. four outstations, within a day's distance of the city, are other centres of work.

At Tong-dsing, the oldest of these outstations, where there are over twenty Christians, the family of Yong Sih-ji have started a brick kiln. According to their own words, the purpose was to demonstrate to their heathen neighbors that Christians could open a kiln and turn out good brick, without burning incense to the idols. They also hoped to bring the laborers under the influence of the Gospel, and give work to those who wished to keep the Sabbath. The kiln was opened with a service of prayer and song.

ITINERATION.—Mr. Drummond has made tours to the south and east of Nanking, of which the report states:

They were the most interesting and profitable he has ever taken. All the tracts and Bible portions taken were sold, and there was a larger demand for New Testaments and large tracts than formerly. On one first trip he remained up until midnight, preaching to eager listeners on four different occasions. On the last trip he found the officials of Gao-shun-hien especially friendly, buying books and exhorting the people not to be afraid of us, as our purpose was sincere and religion good.

Mr. Crozier, who removed from Soochow for the purpose, has spent a good part of his time traveling, in all, over one thousand miles in the northern end of Anhui province, making Hwai-yuen-hien the objective point of his tours.

He did not enter the city immediately, as anti-Catholic riots in a city beyond had excited the people, and when he did go, with Mr. Stephenson and the native helpers, they were well pelted with stones, and had to take refuge in a yamen. Returning down the Hwai river and the Hong-tse Lake, he had a good view of the grand and needy field, embracing many towns and cities and great numbers of villages. On the second visit to Hwai-yuen there was some excitement, but by spending considerable time on the street he succeeded in allaying it somewhat.

Mrs. Abbey also has done a great deal of itinerating in the country around Nanking.

Crowds gather around, but the women bring out benches and offer tea and listen attentively. There has been no insult or anything to be afraid of. Only on one occasion they went to an inn for the night. It was one that Mr. Drummond and the helpers have often been to, and the family was much interested. Mrs. Abbey was kept busy talking and answering questions till after eleven. About ten o'clock she made a move to retire; but the inn keep er's wife, who had been drinking in every word, after her duties as hostess were finished, said: "Why, Mr. Drummond always talks with us till the third watch (midnight)." After wards she said to the Bible-women: "I like what I hear of the doctrine very much, but I am a little afraid. Is it true that they take out eyes and hearts?" Stopping at the houses of Christians or inquirers is very profitable to both parties. The women can be met on a more intimate footing, advice is more readily given and received, and we have an opportunity to see their lives.

The civil-service examinations, held every three years in the provincial capital, brought 26,000 students to the city in September, and there the opportunity was at once seized of reaching as many of these students as possible. Over nineteen thousand packages of literature were distributed to the students as they came out of the Examination Hall after the final examinations. Very few students refused to receive them, and many accepted them with thanks.

Among the 26,000 students who thronged the city at that time were a number from Hwai-yuen. The Christian helper who had opened up our work there was in Nanking at the time, and received a number of these at his own home, and brought them to see the missionaries. The discussions of Christian truth and of Western science were quite frank, and they expressed themselves as willing to assist our work in Hwai-yuen in any way. Some of these represented powerful and wealthy families, and we are rejoiced to believe that this will be for the furtherance of the cause at that point.

WOMEN'S WORK.—

Two distinctively women's meetings are held every week—a tea-meeting at Mrs. Houston's on Friday, where either Mrs. Abbey or Miss Dresser conduct an informal service, and a number of women from the first Church assist; the other is at Ban-bien-ying—in a room built for the purpose with funds given by the missionary children of Turkey. A day-school has been opened in this room on the street, and it acts as a sieve to let the women through and keep back all the men.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Five boys' day-schools, with 108 pupils, and two girls' day-schools with 30 pupils, have been conducted during the year.

A step toward self-support has been taken in the boys' school, by requiring the pupils to furnish pens and copy-tooks. No more furniture or stationery will be furnished, or any books but Christian books.

The Girls' Boarding-school has been carried on for thirteen years. There are 28 girls in the school, and it is now organized to provide two courses of study.

One giving an elementary education, with Bible-study for girls who come in at sixteen or seventeen years of age, and for those who have not the mental ability for a more extended education; and the other for selected pupils, who give promise of usefulness to the Church in after years. Those who have taken the shorter course can go out to learn a trade. Four girls have gone out in this way during the year. They are apprenticed to heathen masters, but with the condition that they can have their Sabbaths free, and they attend all the Church services; one expects to return after learning her trade, and to complete the advanced course of study.

Thirty-three boys have been enrolled in the Boys' Boarding-school, in which a Y. M. C.A. was organized, but dwindled almost away.

Mr. Houston then organized a Junior Society, over which he retained a directing influence, and which has been a force for good. The older boys sulked, and their association has not flourished. One cause of the trouble has been the steady approach to self-support. There has been an impression that, because they had consented to attend the school for several years, they should have special privileges. When they found that they were expected to share the responsibilities and burdens while the pecuniary benefits were being diminished, they began to realize that the school was considered an actual benefit to them, not their presence a benefit to the school. The school has passed through a stage in its development. It is more clearly understood that the school does not need the pupils as much as the pupils need the school.

In the Woman's Training-school, 13 women have been instructed in Christian books and the Bible.

This women's school has been a great boon to the Church. Over twenty women have learned to read, and some have made remarkable progress, considering their age and opportunities. Four or five are capable of acting as lible women, and all are able and willing to engage ir evangelistic work as they find opportunities, and are able to give a reason for the faith that is in them.

The outlook for the ensuing year in all branches of the work is encouraging. The prospects for evangelistic work have never been brighter, and we have never had such efficient helpers, and though the schools have passed through some trials, yet they have also proved their usefulness and importance. Doors are open everywhere. Only the financial outlook is gloomy. What shall we do? We who see and realize our opportunities, are compelled to strain every nerve and put every dollar we can into the work. Would that the Churches at home could see and realize what we see, and do the same.

HANGCHOW STATION.

The new Hangchow Presbytery held its first meeting in the Hangchow Church in September, and comprises the three Churches of Hangchow, Sin-z and Tong-yang, and has eleven members. The first meeting was characterized by a fine spirit of love and consecration.

CHURCHES.—There have been ten additions to the Hangchow Church during the year.

One most interesting case is that of Mrs. Nyi, a woman of some influence, who, though not of a wealthy family herself, has access to a great many of the better class of people. She was brought, humanly speaking, to a knowledge of the truth through the teaching her little girl received in the Girls' Day-school. She has been an earnest and attentive inquirer, and whatever she has learned she has diligently imparted to others. Her husband was inclined to persecute her at first, but recently has let her have her own way. She has been coming to Church regularly for a year, and was admitted at the September communion. Another interesting case is that of quite an elderly lady, the mother of one of our servants. She seems such a lovely character, the love of Jesus beaming in her very countenance; and yet it is less than two years since she gave up her certificate of merit, paper charms, idols, mock-money, etc. There has been the usual number of conversions from the students in the college with a number of inquirers. A young carpenter was brought into the Church through the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor. His heathen mother said he had always been a good son, but now he had gone to the bad, and it would be better if he had never been born.

ITINERATING.—Mr. Garritt gave considerable time during the year to itinerating trips. The report says:

These were interfered with in the Spring by a severe attack of inflammation in the legs, which disabled him from walking or hard work.

In one busy market-town, Zen-men-un, is a single Christian, a member of our Hangchow Church, who has opened a drug shop. He should be remembered in our prayers as the only Christian in a dense population of not less than 60,000 souls. The five towns—Zzang-an, Yun-hwa, Zehmen, Zeh-wen-un and Tse-dzien, and the country tributary to them, comprise a population of at least 300,000, and we are the only workers among them.

WOMEN'S WORK .-

Mrs. Mattox and Mrs. Garritt have also been going to the upper city once a week, to dispense simple remedies. They would see the sick in an inner room, while the crowds that came were preached to in the front room, either by Mr. Garritt or some of the helpers.

Mrs. Doolittle reports:

During the year, with my Bible-woman and the pastor, several country trips have been made and several hundreds of men and women have been told of Jesus. Twenty-three cities and villages have been visited and many isolated homes, where previously the feet of the lover of Jesus had never carried the Word of Christ. All this has been done without any direct results, but not without encouragement. As we view the work from day to day and week by week, we feel it is very slow; but as I look back to the days of 1866, thirty years ago, a wonderful progress has been made. Let us hope and pray and labor on, for the day-star is shining for us and for the heathen.

EDUCATIONAL.—Three day-schools for boys have enrolled 50 pupils, and one for girls 14 pupils. At the Chinese New Year, a class of three was graduated from the Hangchow College, which has enrolled 54 pupils during the year. Of an interesting movement in Government education, the report gives the following facts:

The Chinese government has organized a College of Liberal Arts in Hangchow this year. The Governor of the province has put the control in the hands of the Hangchow prefect. The latter came to our Couege and insisted that some foreigner from our number should take the presidency of the new school. Of course we could not spare a man, even if it had seemed a wise thing to do; but at their earnest importunity (the prefect came in person two or three times to urge us to help them), the Station, after prayerful consideration, decided to give what help we could in the way of organizing the school and helping there till the end of the present year. Accordingly, Mr. Mattox has spent some little time in making out a five years curriculum, making a list of necessary apparatus, books, etc., and purchasing many of the same. He also gave two hours a day for a time to the organizing of classes, overseeing the teachers, etc. So far about $3,000.00 (Mex.) has been spent on books and maps and physical and chemical apparatus. By our influence a Christian teacher has been engaged; the school is dismissed on Sundays, and some religious in-struction has been given. This is a most interesting and helpful work, as it strikes at the very bone and sinew of the Chinese nation; we earnestly hope that a Christian man, with a slight knowledge of Chinese, can be found, who can take up this work and give his whole time to it. They constantly insist on some of our Mission taking up the work; the prefect not only being interested in things foreign, but also in our religion, and anxious for an evangelist to take charge of the school.

THEOLOGICAL CLASS.—Five young men from Ningpo, one from Nanking and two from Hangchow, were taught in Hangchow by Mr. Garritt, assisted by Mr. Hudson, of the Southern Presbyterian Mission. Five of the students have been licensed by the Ningpo Presbytery.

SHANGHAI PRESS.

The accompanying table gives particulars of the output of work during the year:

	COPIES.	PAGES.

rice, I dilipitices, ricepted Dialines, coc.,	586,072	50,550,953

The above total, being four million pages larger than that of the previous year, is accounted for by the large supplies of books required for distribution at the triennial examinations.

As in former years, we have supplied type and other requisites to Mission presses in Foochow, Peking, Seoul (Korea) and elsewhere. A good deal of time was spent, and pains taken, in supplying type, etc., to small Mission presses starting operations in the distant provinces of Shensi and Szchuen.

A notable feature of the past year, and characteristic of the growing desire for light and the native endeavor to get some financial benefit from it, has been the reproduction, by the photo-lithographic process, of a number of educational works originally printed at the Press. While there is no copyright in China, successful attempts have been made to restrain this unauthorized reproduction. This has been done from no desire to limit the issue of good books; but to make it impossible for books to be issued from native presses containing a large part of Western learning with the application left out. In some reproduced books the essential part is omitted.

Fully 120 men are employed in the Press (not including outside native binders, for whom we have no room on the premises). Of these 46 are members of Christian churches. Every morning at 7:30 prayers are conducted in the Press chapel.

HAINAN MISSION.

HAINAN: an island on the southeast coast; occupied 1885; established as a Mission 1893.

KIUNG CHOW: missionaries—Rev. F. P. Gilman and Mrs. Gilman, H. M. McCandliss, M.D., and Mrs. McCandliss, Rev. C. H. Newton and Mrs. Newton, Miss Etta Montgomery and Miss Kate L. Schaeffer.

Nodoa: Missionaries—Rev. P. W. McClintock and Mrs. McClintock, Mrs. M. R. Melrose, Rev. William J. Leverett, E. D. Vanderburg, M.D., and Mrs. Vanderburg.

The Hainan Mission has experienced important changes during the year. The death of Rev. J. C. Melrose, who died at Nodoa, September 16th, brought heavy sorrow on the Mission circle and upon the native Christians. The loss, humanly speaking, seems irreparable. The circumstances of his death were peculiarly sad. He had been watching over the lingering illness of a little daughter for some weeks, when he was himself prostrated by disease. The little one passed away two weeks in advance of his own departure. He had labored indefatigably while his strength remained, undertaking, as the senior member of the Station, all kinds of labor. A half-finished sermon was left upon his desk, when he laid down his pen—a sermon upon which already the realities of the heavenly world seemed impressed. The witness of all his missionary associates attests his fidelity and his rare merits as a missionary of the Cross.

Mrs. Melrose, deeply afflicted, and having yet two little ones to care for, courageously maintains her purpose to continue her missionary work.

Rev. and Mrs. P. W. McClintock, hitherto connected with the Kiung Chow Station, have been transferred to Nodoa, and to the very home whence Mr. Melrose was removed to his heavenly rest. The loss of their own little child, their only one, but a short time before, coupled with the solemnizing influences of the place just now their home, seems to have brought a new baptism for the great work which the destitute and benighted masses of neglected Hainan set before them.

Duing the year Rev. Alfred E. Street resigned his connection as member of the Hainan Mission, his health having been seriously impaired for more than a year, most of which time he had spent in Japan. Mr. Street's labors in Hainan had been highly appreciated by the Mission and by the Board.

Mr. C. C. Jeremiassen, who had for about two years been disconnected with the Mission, though still laboring under the Board, became disconnected from the Board, and for the past few months has been at work in th southern part of Hainan as an independent missionary. Mr. Jeremiassen was the honored pioneer of the Hainan Mission.

No new missionaries were added to the force in Hainan during the year.

In September, 1897, the new hospital which had been projected at Hoihow, the port of Kiung Chow, three miles distant from that city, was completed and occupied by Dr. and Mrs. H. M. McCandliss, who are now residing in the house connected with the Hospital.

This year Hainan has had a remarkable experience of Asiatic typhoons, three of which occurred during the Autumn. One in September brought great destruction. The wall surrounding the Hospital grounds was partly damaged, and for a time the lives of missionaries residing at the open port seemed in peril. A night of fearful anxiety was passed, but, with the blessing of God, all the missionaries were preserved in safety. "The damage to Mission property," says a letter of January 6th, "was nothing compared to the destruction of Chinese life and property." Although there were many lives lost September 17th (among whom were seven hospital patients, who were in a junk returning to their homes), the typhoon of November 17th was far worse. The whole Hainan coast is lined with fishing-villages, and the boats were all out fishing. The French Consul estimates the number of lives lost at 27,000, though his figures are probably high; but we know that in one village, three miles from Hoihow, the whole male population of 300 was carried away, and there were only women and children left. All along the coast it was much the same, and especially on the south coast.

Besides typhoons, Hainan has suffered from a cholera epidemic. This was so increased after the first typhoon that the hospital was closed for a time for fear of infection and an increase of pestilence.

Notwithstanding the trials of the Mission and of the country, the past year has been one of greater encouragement than any previous year. Both in the local work of the Mission Stations and in the experience of missionaries in itineration, there has seemed a greater readiness on the part of the people to listen to the truth; and although it is yet a day of small things, there have been some precious souls gathered to the fold.

There have been rumors of the occupation of the Island of Hainan by the French, but the latest reliable accounts give no indication of such a movement.

KIUNG CHOW STATION.

A redistribution of force has been made during the year. Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Newton and Misses Montgomery and Schaeffer have removed from Hoihow to Kiung Chow, where they have met with very great encouragement in their work. Rev. and Mrs. McClintock, as above stated, have removed to Nodoa; and Rev. F. P. Gilman, released from the care of superintending buildings, which had occupied him during the previous year, has pushed vigorously the work of itineration, both on the island and on the peninsula of the mainland opposite Hoihow. The field is everywhere ready for the harvest; but there is a great deficiency in the number of missionaries, and in the force of native helpers and laborers. The Mission has not yet reached that stage in which it can give efficient training to the men who are needed and are everywhere welcomed in outstation work.

All the thirteen districts of the island have been visited except three, and two of the three districts of the peninsula have received some attention.

Regular services have been maintained at Kiung Chow, an audience of 80 persons sometimes being present.

Mrs. Gilman has labored as she was able among the women connected with the Hospital; and Mrs. McClintock, before leaving for Nodoa, also held general services for the women.

The loss of their only child, by Mr. and Mrs. McClintock in the Spring of 1897, for a time impaired the health of the sorrowing mother, necessitating a visit to Hong Kong for recuperation.

There has been considerable sickness also in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Gilman. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiassen also suffered from illness.

Mr. Newton has made commendable progress in the acquisition of the language, and although scarcely more than a year upon the field, he is already beginning to conduct religious services. He accompanied Mr. Gilman on an extended tour of visitation through various districts of the island. One tour was continued for over six weeks.

Misses Montgomery and Schaeffer, though engaged in teaching, have from the first been efficient evangelists, laboring from house to house among the women. Of late the numbers calling upon them at their home, which serves for residence, chapel, school-room, etc., is so great that extended visitation is precluded. Two short itineration tours had already been made in the surrounding villages. Their faithful instructions and appeals are making deep impression upon the hearts of the poor, degraded women, who come to them for light and comfort.

The Girls' School, which has been removed to Kiung Chow, reports 22 pupils on the roll. Something of an industrial element has been introduced.

Mr. Gilman, in his various itinerations, has walked 500 miles, and traveled 400 miles in small boats.

The medical report of Dr. McCandliss is full of interest. Removing from the old Hospital building in Kiung Chow upon the completion of the new one at Hoihow, he was able at once slowly to enlarge his work. In the course of the year he has had 273 inpatients, in spite of the typhoons and the cholera epidemic, during which, for a time, the wards were closed.

In the Dispensary there have been 5,444 applicants, and there have been several hundred minor operations, including 62 hospital operations, some of which were for cancer and stone in the bladder.

The Hospital, with its airy rooms for women, seems to revolutionize the ideas of the people in regard to pure air, cleanliness, etc. "In their own homes," says the report, "they occasionally sweep the floors, but never wash them, and, as for washing the beds, chairs and tables, once a year will do for that. 'Why should they be washed so frequently? Why should the missionaries put on that queer-smelling medicine (carbolic)?"

The Hospital is very convenient for the surrounding villages, as it opens upon all the lines of travel. The proof of the appreciation shown by the public toward the work of the Hospital is found in the fact that, when the wards had to be closed to prevent the spread of cholera, foreign residents came forward and subscribed $800 silver for the erection of an isolation ward and morgue. This building has been completed, and will prove a great addition to the Mission Hospital, meeting the emergencies of cholera, smallpox, or other infectious diseases without necessitating closing of the wards.

NODOA STATION.

Mr. and Mrs. McClintock have found the state of feeling among the native Christians susceptible and tender, and ready for the reception of the truth. The care of the school, which is the most important educational institution in the Island of Hainan, will devolve largely upon Mr. McClintock, and both he and his associates are striving to secure better accommodations than those which have been provided thus far. "Owing to the lack of room," says the Station report, in the present schoolhouse, the boys have been sleeping in the printing-room, servants' quarters, assistants' house, and a part of the time in a chicken-house, so that discipline has been difficult."

Such a condition of things as this is not creditable to the Mission, the Board, or the Church which is supposed to support the work. The institution thus described is all that we have for the education of boys and young men in the Island of Hainan. Yet, in other respects, this school is worthy of great commendation, as these simple facts will show:

Twenty-four pupils pay for a part of their board, 7 board at home, 4 are earning more than their board by teaching or working, 4 are aided by missionaries personally, and 6 receive help from the Board in full. To none are books or clothing furnished. All the boys who are old enough to think for themselves have acknowledged Christ as their Saviour, 9 having been baptized—5 this year.

A weekly prayer-meeting has been conducted throughout the year by Christian boys, and has been attended more or less by others. The three ladies of the Station have taken turns in preaching short "sermons" on Sunday evening. The older boys have received thorough instruction in the Bible and in homiletics from Mr. Melrose until he was laid aside. The school has been taught by others, and all have had at least three hours daily in Bible-work. Surely, this thrifty but impoverished school is worthy of better accommodations!

A Girls' School of nine pupils has also been conducted at Nodoa in the Hakka language. This school has been under the faithful care of Mrs. Melrose. Most of the girls pay all or a part of their board, and all furnish their own books and clothes.

Dr. Vanderburgh and Mr. Leverett are still compelled to give much time to the study of the language. In the regular religious services held at Nodoa, it has been found necessary to preach a sermon both in Hakka and in Hainanese; the former being given by a Chinese helper, the latter by Mr. Melrose. The congregations remained full, and even crowded, through the hottest weather of the Summer, until Mr. Melrose was removed by death. The only room in which these services can be held "does duty for a boarding-school as well as for a cha-During the Sunday service, fully one-fourth of the floorspace is taken up by pupils' beds in one end, and study-tables piled high against the wall. On Sunday afternoons, "all within our gates," together with the Christians and interested people from the market (Sunday is market-day), gather for Sunday-The Christians and schoolboys generally study the International Sunday-school lessons. The carpenters and masons engaged on the Hospital each form a class in the rudiments of the Gospel; the latter taught in Mandarin, and the former conducted by Dr. Vanderburgh in Hainanese. The three Confucianist personal teachers have been put through a course of Romans by Mr. Melrose. Every night in the week, for the most of the year, all the heathen servants in any way connected with us have been brought together for religious instruction and prayer. Two of them have asked for baptism. Two young men have been living on the compound, one entirely at his own expense, for instruction in the Christian religion, of which they wished to gain a clearer knowledge." Nine persons have benn added to the Church. The applications of several others are pending.

In the medical work, Dr. Vanderburgh reports:

Visits from outpatients5,	229
Inpatients	64
Surgical operations	12
Visits from surrounding villages (not including market-places)	20

From the first, medical work at Nodoa has suffered for want of suitable accommodations. The present building, poorly built (the thatch of grass, and having only mud walls and floor), has furnished such excellent harbor for germs, and has been so damp, that even the more intelligent Chinese have refused to patronize it. During the year, through the gifts of the women of the Princeton Church of Philadelphia, a small hospital building has been commenced and carried far toward completion. Evangelistic work in connection with the Hospital has been faithfully maintained. An addition of $150 has been made by friends of Dr. Vanderburg.

In outstation work, particularly at Nam Fong, 12 miles south of Nodoa, and on the edge of the Loi country, a native helper and his family have lived in the little structure used as a chapel, where members preach on Sunday in the Hakka language to a small congregation. Conversations have been held there in Hainanese with the Lois who were disposed to listen.

Mr. Leverett, for a part of the year, spent his Sundays and Saturdays at this place. Medical work has been conducted by Dr. Vanderburgh at Nam Fong, though to a limited extent, owing to the present work at Nodoa.

PEKING MISSION.

PEKING: the capital of China; occupied in 1863; missionaries—Rev. John Wherry, D.D., and Mrs. Wherry, Rev. J. L. Whiting and Mrs. Whiting, Rev. A. M. Cunningham and Mrs. Cunningham, Rev. C. H. Fenn and Mrs. Fenn, Dr. Robert Coltman, Jr., and Mrs. Coltman, Miss Eliza E. Leonard, M.D., Miss Grace Newton, Miss Bessie McCoy, Miss Jennie McKillican.

PAOTINGFU: occupied 1893; missionaries—Rev. J. W. Lowrie, Rev. J. A. Miller and Mrs. Miller, Rev. F. E. Simcox and Mrs. Simcox, Dr. G. Yardley Taylor, Mrs. A. P. Lowrie, Dr. B. C. Atterbury and Mrs. Atterbury.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Mrs. Wherry, Dr. B. C. Atterbury, and Mrs. Atterbury.

PEKING MISSION.

In Peking, the missionaries are at the seat of Chinese political power, civilization and learning. Here the "Son of Heaven" has his throne, and heaven, earth and moon their temples, while the gods of the hearth, kitchen, wealth, war, famine and pestilence have their shrines without number. Here, where Buddhistic and Confucian religious worship is so largely ceremony, and the national characteristic (pride) is so manifest, preaching "Christ and Him crucified," to the Chinese both "a stumbling-block and foolishness," is no easy task. Still, by the blessing of God, there has been steady progress. The mass of humanity is being leavened by the Gospel, and a few hungering souls are finding the Saviour who alone can satisfy.

It is gratifying to note at both Stations a more definite policy in the various lines of work. Plans are being made for selfsupport, and the offerings of the people are increasing. situation is clearly different from what it was several years ago. The knowledge of Christianity is deepening and is spreading more and more widely. Fewer come from curiosity. conversation is had aside from the formal addresses to the audiences, it is found that there is a better understanding of Christian truth. It is evident, also, that fewer come with the hope of securing pecuniary advantage. The uniform disappointment of those who have sought riches by joining the Church must necessarily discourage the crowd which is ever-ready to make gain of godliness. Church members, too, are being led into more active Christian effort. The country work has been much more thoroughly supervised, and an unusually large amount of work is being done in Station classes. Large companies of the unevangelized have been gathered into Sabbath-schools. An industrial class for women, in Peking, has been self-supporting. Freer access has been secured to the homes and confidence of men in official circles. In all this there is much ground for encouragement, while the ordinary work in chapels, schools, translation and dispensaries has been well maintained.

PEKING STATION.

MISSIONARY FORCE.—The Station has been saddened by the loss of Mr. and Mrs. Gill, who were obliged to resign on account of the ill health of Mrs. Gill, while all have mourned with Mr. and Mrs. Whiting and Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham over the death of their little children. Dr. Wherry returned from America in September, and at once began to assist in evangelistic work in connection with the Second Church and the Anting Hospital, and to resume his part in the revision of the Bible in the higher Chinese style.

CHURCH.—The Church has had a year of steady progress. It now has a committee on charity, so that all cases come first before the Chinese themselves, who assume the responsibility for the relief granted. The total offerings have been enough to keep a helper in the field, pay the incidental church expenses and a foreign contribution to school and church. There have been eight adults and two infants received into church membership, which is now 108. In the Chinese first month, a class of inquirers was conducted, and made good progress. One man has been since baptized, while three others are catechumens. The expense of the class was borne by the Second Church.

The reasons for keeping the church pure in Christian lands are even more cogent in heathen lands, where Christianity is so little understood. The missionaries this year have had the sad but important duty of disciplining a number of members and excommunicating one.

STREET PREACHING.—Street-preaching and the sale of books have been carried on for a part of the year on Sabbaths by squads of large boys from the school. February 21st, a number of rowdies made an attack upon them. The matter was taken to the police station, and finally to the Yamen (high court), where it was settled in a most satisfactory manner. One young man, who "endured hardness" in chains for nearly twenty-four hours, rejoicing that he was able "to preach Christ in prison also."

A special Sabbath-school for outsiders was an encouraging feature of our work this year. At times more than a hundred heathen crowded into the little chapel to sing songs and hear Scripture truth. With a good force of young men from the school, and with other members, excellent attention was secured, and much good done.

ITINERATING.—Mr. Fenn has characterized his first full year of missionary service after final language examinations, with energetic evangelistic and itinerating work. He was kindly received, and found much to encourage him.

The country work at Huai Jon Hsien is carried on by Elder Lee, who is supported by the Second Church. This work has grown gradually for two years. There are now three persons baptized, and a few others inquiring the way of life. A sentiment in favor of Christianity is being formed in the districts round about by God's blessing on the godly life of Mr. Lee. At Tu Kon, where a number of catechumens live, there is also a promising work. They have service among themselves when they cannot get a preacher. Mr. Teng, Mr. Yang and Mr. Lee often stop there in their journeys to the regions beyond.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Girls' Boarding-school has had a diminished attendance on account of the new rules to admit only children of Christian parents, to take no one under eleven years of age, and to require each pupil to pay a semi-annual fee of $1.20. As no other girls' school in Peking had ever suggested the payment of any fee, Miss Newton wisely called a meeting of the parents, carefully explained the need of money and why they should do what they could, and asked for a frank expression of views. To her gratification, all present cordially voted to pay the fee. Thus an important step toward self-support has been taken.

In addition to their Bible-study and prayer-services in the school, taking notes of the Sabbath sermons and teaching classes in the Sabbath-school, the pupils have made the sacrifice of going without a part of their daily luncheon, in order to save money to help the poor and in response to an appeal in the church. They would have given up the remainder and gone without a luncheon at all if Miss Newton had not restrained In January, weekly Sabbath meetings were begun in heathen homes, the Misses Newton and McCoy, the native teachers and eight or nine of the older girls going out by twos or threes to the various places where the services could be held. In this way the Gospel was preached from January to July to about 1,500 people. The visible results included the happy conversion of a dying man, the rescue of a bright girl of fourteen from a life of shame, and the bringing of a considerable number of heathen children within the sphere of missionary influence. The school is thus definitely working in harmony with the policy of training Christian workers. Miss McCoy already gives valuable assistance, and the native teachers are faithful and earnest.

The Girls' Day-school at Erh Tiao had an average attendance of 12 the first half of the year. The latter half, the school was closed so often, on account of smallpox, that the attendance was much reduced.

One hopeful sign of the work is an increased desire, on the part of church-members and others, to have the foreigners visit in their homes, many more visits having been made this year than last.

The year in the Boys' Boarding-school has been successful in the amount and quality of the work done, but the number of pupils has been greatly reduced by the cut. A Y. M. C. A. was organized last Autumn, and now reports a total membership of 32. The Y. M. P. S. C. E reports 29 observing the "morning watch." The average school attendance for the year was 40, and about $35 were received from the Chinese for tuition and board. A number of the larger boys did colporteur work in the country during the Summer vacation. The reports from and of them are very good.

WOMAN'S WORK.—This has been far more satisfactory this year than last. The Friday afternon prayer-meeting has been regularly held and well attended. In December a class of 10 women studied daily for three weeks. The effort brought about two things greatly desired—study at home, and the passing on to others of what they had learned; the latter was all the more important, as there was no Bible-woman to help with the work. The women who were farthest advanced, and who helped in instructing others, came for instruction themselves on other days.

MIDICAL.—The year has seen the usual large attendance at the dispensary—18,451 having applied for treatment. In addition to these, 303 were seen in the country, making a total of 18,754 patients prescribed for. Six country trips were made by helper Li; but as the attendance has been small and the expense great, it has been deemed wise to drop this work for the Four hundred and eight surgical operations have been performed—78 patients have been cared for in the wards, with but one death. Daily morning and evening prayers have been held in the Hospital. The patients always seem pleased that Divine aid is invoked for them. Three of the medical students are Christians, one of whom has been Dr. Coltman's companion for nine years. A steady growth in the spirituality of these young men has been observed. There is reason to hope that, in the near future, two others who have not yet confessed Christ will do so. One patient who had been treated at the Dispensary, and who is a well-to-do proprietor of a grain-shop, has united with the Church, and is a warm-hearted Christian. Many patients have professed to believe the Gospel; but, for one reason or another, would not unite with the Church. While doubtless some of these were not sincere, yet a good number were convinced of the truth. Dr. Coltman writes:

During the year I have had many opportunities of conversing with young mandarins about Jesus, and although most of them heard me respectfully, only a few have manifested enough interest to read the books I have loaned them—a notable exception, however, being the son-in-law of Prince Ting. I have urged on the Viceroy, Li Hung Chang, his acceptance of Christianity, but although he admits that the "doctrine is good," he has never, so far, said he believed Jesus Christ was the Saviour of the world. I know he reflects about it, from remarks he sometimes makes, and I earnestly pray that this truly great old man may learn to trust in the Saviour.

Working among the Mandarins is harder than among the poor; but it is plain that their prejudices are being broken down. This is certainly the first step toward winning them. Contact with Christian foreigners shows the haughty Mandarin that a man educated far beyond his ken is willing to meet him, teach him, treat him—yea, and love him—for what? He must at last realize that it is for Jesus' sake.

Mrs. Coltman talks daily in the woman's waiting-room to the assembled patients, and Mr. Ch'en, the Hospital evangelist, although a man of limited education, has ready sympathy with the sick, and great influence over them. Altogether, the work is decidedly encouraging.

THE WOMAN'S DISPENSARY was opened by Dr. Leonard on the 4th of January, and from that time until the 1st of July three afternoons a week were devoted to dispensary work. The number of consultations was 1,817, and of in-patients, 11. The latter was purposely kept low, in order to reserve time for the study of the language. Since January 1st, 57 visits were made to homes. In these homes, and to all the in-patients and dispensary patients, the Gospel has been faithfully preached by Miss McKillican or Mrs. Fenn. Some have shown interest, but as yet there has been no proof of lasting good. But "God's Word shall not return unto Him void."

PAOTINGFU STATION.

The members of this Station have enjoyed a year of good health, quiet but earnest work, and friendly protection of life and property by the local officials. It is one of the youngest of the China Stations, but its field is great and promising and its work is being carefully planned.

EVANGELISTIC.—The Street Chapel, under the care of Mr. Lowrie, assisted by a graduate of Tungchow College, has been open every day in the week; and, in addition to city attendants, a goodly number of country people on their way in and out of town drop in. Some of them are already past the stage of transient hearers. The seed is thus being widely sown. Chapel attendance is regularly larger on Dispensary days, showing one way in which the medical work aids in disseminating the truth-

There were no accessions during the year, and Mr. Lowrie gives as the chief reasons:

1. God's Spirit was not with us in power.

Caution in admitting those whose experience is doubtful.
 Announcement that all members must support themselves.
 Opposition of influential members of the Christian community.

There are, however, seven applicants for baptism, while the Sabbath-school, ably superintended by Dr. Taylor, has been a great benefit.

Inquirers' classes have probably been the most fruitful work carried on by the Station. Five were held for ten days each.

Ninety persons, representing 30 villages and four districts, were gathered into these classes. Each member, after his first attendance of ten days, was required to contribute something toward his food. The Catechism, the Gospel by Matthew and New Testament history were taught. Commendable progress was made.

Other smaller classes were conducted during the year, with very gratifying results. Considerable itinerating has been done by Dr. Atterbury and Messrs. Lowrie and Simcox. Many villages were visited, medicines dispensed, fairs attended, books sold and the Gospel preached. The misionaries were well received and report prosperous journeys.

During the year seven men and two women were baptized by Mr. Simcox at Mon Cheng and Chia Chwang, the men all being of maturity and influence.

WOMAN'S WORK.—Of woman's evangelistic work, Mrs. Lowrie has done the chief portion, though the other ladies have also labored as opportunity permitted. A woman's class of ten days resulted in two accessions to the church at the country outstation. Mrs. Lowrie became interested in an old woman in the north suburb, who is regarded by the Chinese as a devout person. She had spent her all, said to have been a thousand taels, upon false religions. She heard the truth, loved it, and has received it in a most earnest and encouraging way.

There is an exceptionally wide and inviting field in and about Paotingfu for evangelistic work for women. The temporary transfer of Miss McKillican from Peking has brought most welcome assistance, but a permanent reinforcement is greatly needed.

EDUCATIONAL.—Mrs. Lowrie has opened a day-school for girls. Seventeen have come daily and made good progress, Mrs. Simcox teaching them the Gospel on the Sabbath, and Mrs. Miller reviewing them each Saturday and instructing them in sewing. Apart from this, but one school was maintained throughout the year, and that the one in which English was taught.

The number of pupils remained unchanged—only two. The school would have prospered numerically, if opening prayers and Christian teaching had been omitted; but the missionaries very wisely refused to leave Christ out. Accordingly, the school has been discontinued.

MEDICAL.—The Dispensary connected with the street-chapel has been open only on even days of the Chinese calendar, the number in attendance varying from five to 129.

A dispensary at the western end of the residence compound in the country was opened in February, and has been continued since with clinics on the odd days of the Chinese calendar. From November to April, Dr. Atterbury conducted a dispensary at each of the two outstations twice a month. He also carried medicines with him on a number of book-selling tours to neighboring market-towns and villages. As a rule, patients were numerous, though unfortunately the statistics were mislaid at the time of Dr. Atterbury's return to America.

The appended summary indicates approximately what has

EAST SHANTUNG MISSION.

Tungchow: on the coast. 55 miles northwest of Chefoo; occupied 1861; missionaries—Rev. C. W. Mateer, D.D.; Rev. W. M. Hayes and Mrs. Hayes, W. F. Seymour, M.D., and Mrs. Seymour, Rev. J. P. Irwin and Mrs. Irwin, Rev. H. W. Luce and Mrs. Luce, Miss M. A. Snodgrass, Miss Rebecca Y. Miller.

CHEFOO: the chief foreign port of Shantung; occupied 1862; mission-aries—Rev. Hunter Corbett, D.D., and Mrs. Corbett, Rev. Paul D. Bergen and Mrs. Bergen, Rev. George Cornwell and Mrs. Cornwell, Rev. W. O. Elterich and Mrs. Elterich, Mrs. John L. Nevius, Mrs. A. T. Mills.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Rev. W. O. Elterich and Mrs. Elterich.

The close of the year saw the storm centre of political agitation transferred from Turkey to China. As the murder of the two German Catholic missionaries in November occurred in the territory of the West Shantung Mission, and as Kiao-chau Bay, the point seized by the German government, is in the territory of the East Shantung Mission, both Missions have felt the disturbing effect. For a time we were quite anxious lest both missionary life and property might be endangered by mob violence, as we well knew that the natives were greatly excited, and that demonstrations against foreigners might be expected. in the good providence of God, none of our missionaries were molested, nor has any of our property been destroyed. daily press has kept the public so well informed regarding the political aspects of the situation that they need not be discussed here. Suffice it to state that our experience in Africa has taught us that the German government is not unfriendly to American Protestant missionary effort, while the projected railroad and telegraph lines from Kiao-chau will, of course, render the various parts of the province more accessible, shorten the now tedious journey inland, and lessen the loneliness and isolation of the interior Stations.

That an important centre will develop at Kiao-Chan is highly probable. Whether its development will be at the expense of Chefoo, and whether it will be desirable later to open a Station at Kaiao-chau, remains to be seen. The region about Kiao-Chau Bay is a part of Dr. Hunter Corbett's itinerating field, and contains a number of Christians.

CHEFOO STATION.

MISSIONARY FORCE. — Mr. and Mrs. Elterich have been permanently transferred to this Station, though they are now in America on furlough. In September, Dr. and Mrs. Corbett returned from a furlough, which was supposed to be for rest. but which was really characterized by indefatigable labors among the home Churches. He spoke with apostolic zeal and power to hundreds of congregations and missionary gatherings, and in every place he gave a mighty impetus to the cause.

EVANGELISTIC WORK IN THE COUNTRY.—The eastern part of the field seemed for many years to be impervious to the truth, and the faithful work done there to be almost without result. But there is now a most encouraging development, and during the year 72 persons have been added to the Church. There are also many hopeful inquirers. New day-schools have been planted, places of worship opened, and the people roused to a deeper sense of their duty in giving for the support of the Gospel. Mr. Cornwell writes: "I have baptized more persons this year than in the combined five years of my previous ministry."

In the western part of the field, the additions were not so large as during last year. Still, 20 were received on confession of faith. The evangelist in charge, Mr. Li Shih Ho, has done much faithful work in exhorting and persuading Christians to renew their vows.

DISCIPLINE.—The missionaries have been at great pains to induce a better understanding among certain of the native brethren, whose spiritual growth had been somewhat blighted by feuds. This work has been followed with good results. Particular attention has been paid to discipline, mostly of a persuasive and reformatory character—by which, at one time or another, quite a number of Christians have been brought individually before the session and affectionately admonished and prayed for. In one instance, an entire family, suspended from the Church for a grievous offense, was restored to communion, having manifested a spirit of sincere repentance.

INQUIRERS' CLASSES.—These are among the most efficient means of evangelization, and 12 have been conducted during the year, some of them having as many as 40 members. Inquirers, with a certain percentage of mature Christians, came together for a month, under a competent teacher. They make a quiet and regular study of the elements of Christianity, receive daily instruction in the Christian life, and gain a general conception of the nature and aims of the Church. The expense of such a class is very small, only about two cents a man each day.

The total time spent in itineration this year, by members of the Station, was 368 days. After a tour of 66 days and 1,000 miles, Dr. Corbett writes:

"It has made glad my heart, and strengthened my faith in the power of the Gospel, to meet hundreds of Christian converts who, in the midst of persecution and unfavorable surroundings, are holding fast their profession."

EVANGELISTIC WORK IN CHEFOO.—Two street chapels have been in constant use, and in them large numbers of people from widely separated provinces have heard the Gospel. Comparatively few additions to the Church result from such services. There have been some, it is true, and occasionally a flourishing work in some country district has had its origin from some man who first became interested by hearing the message in the street chapel. But, apart from direct results, the work is valuable in affording a place where the missionaries may vindicate their object to the people and fulfill the last command of the Master. Undoubtedly such preaching exerts a vast, even though quite untabulated, influence, which in due time will be made manifest.

Services have been maintained in the Temple Hill Church, as usual. The congregations literally pack the building. It is, therefore, proposed to hold services simultaneously in two other centres. Weekly prayer-meetings, one for men and one for women, have been conducted throughout the year.

Mr. Cornwell's work, begun among the 700 employees of the silk factory, has steadily developed during the year. There are now 60 apprentices who keep the Sabbath, eight of whom are church-members, and 10 more are expecting soon to make a confession of their faith. A night-school has been maintained a part of the year. The buildings put up by Mr. Cornwell are already inadequate for the growing work, but a native member of the Chefoo Church has temporarily loaned other property. The bath is well patronized, and is a means of interesting many. The gymnastic apparatus in the yard is much enjoyed by the factory hands. A reading-room is about ready for opening, and will contain a circulating library in addition to papers and magazines. On the Sabbath three services are held on the place, with an average attendance of 70. Native gentlemen have made such generous gifts that the work is practically self-supporting.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Day-schools in Chefoo have been in session as usual. A large proportion of the pupils come from non-Christian homes ,which are often reached through the children. All the pupils receive Christian instruction, attend the Church services, and are taught by Christian teachers. The conditions of admission are guarded with increasing care.

The Boarding-schools in Chefoo comprise the Boys' School and the Normal School. Last Spring they had about 50 boarders; but the heavy cut forced their suspension for an indefinite period. In October the missionaries decided that, while the country boarding-schools could not be resumed, they would take 15 picked boys from the whole field as boarders in Chefoo, and 10 men from the Normal. There are, accordingly, at this time

25 boarders in the two schools.

The English School was opened tentatively in the Autumn. There are 31 boys in attendance, and without cost to the Board. Of these boys, 12 are boarders, paying their own expenses, and 19 are day-pupils. The boys all attend morning prayers and Scripture study. Mr. Bergen writes:

This department was opened-lst, because of the increasing demand for English on the part of the Chinese, and the fact that it is taught by missionaries in every port in China; 2d, because of the strong desire felt to have a self-supporting school; 3d, and chiefly, because we can so reach a hitherto untouched constituency, and bring both boys and parents more or less under Christian influences.

COUNTRY SCHOOLS. — The boarding-schools have been practically closed, though there are still a few boarders, who are supported half by the Mission and half by their friends.

None of the country day-schools have been suspended on account of the cut. These schools are of value, not only for the intrinsic importance of the education furnished the pupils, but also for their moral effect on outsiders, and as furnishing a local rallying centre for the Christians, where they can meet for services on Sabbaths, or at other times. In nearly all cases, the schoolhouses are rented by the villagers, without expense to the Board.

LITERARY WORK.—Mrs. Nevius has revised the memoir of Dr. Nevius in both the Wenli and Mandarin versions, and they are now in the press. She also has two other books under way, and has written a number of articles for the Natural Foot Society, which was organized last Spring, and, as a member of the Committee, has given a good deal of attention to the reform. Gratifying progress is being made.

The Station Secretary adds:

We cannot close this report without referring to Miss Bainbridge, who, though not a member of the Station, and without salary, has yet been abundant in labors in connection with the schools. Miss Downing been abundant in labors in connection with the schools. Miss Downing has also given valuable assistance in various ways.

We were greatly pleased by the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Speer and Mr. Grant. In August we had a large class of preachers and teachers assembled for conference and study, and the class was concluded with the meetings held by Mr. Speer. We indorse thoroughly the policy of the Board in sending a Secretary to visit the field personally. Such a journey, with its repeated opportunities for public and private conference, infallibly leads to a better mutual understanding. We would particularly upon that enough time be given the Secretary to enable him to larly urge that enough time be given the Secretary to enable him to visit all the interior stations of the Mission.

TUNGCHOW STATION.

Here also the work has been aggressive and encouraging. The natives have been friendly, and there has been no serious opposition or persecution. What little trouble did occur was chiefly due to the anti-foreign Governor, who has now been promoted to another province. The indifference, so long manifested in the city, is slowly wearing away. There are a few students and inquirers from the higher classes, and a friendly social felation with several families of influence. The interest in and desire for the western science still increases.

MISSIONARY FORCE.—The missionary circle has experienced both joy and sorrow. The health of Dr. Seymour, who was ill so much of last year, has greatly improved. The arrival of Dr. and Mrs. Chas. Lewis, full of life and plans for their prospective work, was a joyful advent. They were greatly loved by both natives and foreigners. Later, Mr. Wells came to open a civil engineering department in the college. Then Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Luce were gladly welcomed, and quickly won a large place in all hearts. Miss Grier, though like Mr. Wells, not a member of the Station, has continued to helpfully co-operate.

But the last of March, a messenger from God silently bore away the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hayes, and on the 31st of May the death angel came again for the beloved wife of Dr. Lewis. She died, after a brief illness, of virulent smallpox. Her death is deeply mourned, for she was unusually wellfitted for her work, efficient in herself, and an inspiration to others. As these pages go to press, tidings come of the final blow in the death of Mrs. Calvin W. Mateer, after a long and painful illness. She was one of the most remarkable women of this generation, and during her 36 years of missionary service she exerted an extraordinary influence. Tungchow College could never have been what it is without her, and every one of its gradnates has been molded by her. Multitudes, both at home and abroad, loved and honored that wise, strong, noble-hearted woman, and our sense of irreparable loss is mingled with tearful gratitude to God for her life of wonderful usefulness and power.

By invitation from the West Shantung Mission, Dr. Chas. Lewis has been transferred to Chinanfu, in order that he may take up the medical work there on Dr. Neal's return to the United States next year.

CHURCH.—The growth of the city Church this year compares very favorably with other years. Sixteen new members were received during the year. The Church raised about $130 (Mex.) for the work, kept an evangelist in the field, and also defrayed some general Church expenses. The total membership is now 212. The Sabbath-school has had an attendance of over 200.

An interesting feature is the juvenile department of children from the street. The average attendance is 132, and the interest is growing.

EVANGELISTIC.—Considerable work of this kind has been done in and about the city. A native helper stays at the Church a part of each day, to distribute tracts and talk to any who come. Preaching services have been held at the Dispensary and the Hospital. The College Volunteer Band sends out four young men nearly every Sabbath to preach in the city and neighboring villages. The Bible-women have been kept busy, and three or four weekly prayer-meetings for women have been conducted by the ladies of the Station. Some of the latter have visited the natives in their homes, and also received and taught them in their own houses.

The evangelistic work in the country has been most encourag-In both the Lai Chowfu and Ping-tu districts, the Holy Spirit has manifestly been at work. Special meetings were held in the former, with very satisfactory results. Mr. Irwin was greatly assisted in this work by a native helper and two theological students. Moreover, he enlisted the elders, deacons and others, and so had a good working force, which he divided into four or five parties for systematic tours. Twenty or more villages were thus reached, and often over a thousand willing listeners a day. Preaching and prayer-services of several days' duration led up to the communion seasons at each Station. quirers' classes were held and made good progress. The work among the women in these fields has been particularly gratify-Special mention is due Mrs. Mills for her work in the Lai Chaofu district. Five of the class taught by her and her Biblewomen were received into the Church. At Lai Chaofu 50 were received during the year on confession of faith, almost doubling the membership, and in the Ping-tu district 29, making with the 16 received at Tunchow, a total of 95 received on confession during the year, and a total membership for the Station of 511.

EDUCATIONAL.—The educational work has been making progress along all lines.

COLLEGE.—The College has had an average attendance of 111, while not a few have been turned away for lack of room. The young men have been required to do hard work in order to complete the year's course in less than the usual time, the terms being shortened for want of funds. Yet they have done their work faithfully and cheerfully. The spiritual life of the college is good. The Y. M. C. A., organized last year, has proved a great blessing to the young men, and now has an active membership of 66. There is a marked missionary spirit among them, over 80 being active members of the Missionary Society and doing active Christian work. Ninety out of the 107 are professing Christians, ten having united with the church during the year. Three have a Chinese degree. Year by year the lesson of self-support is being taught, and there is a gradual trimming off of all extras formerly provided by the college. This year still less is furnished them than last year, and the students are hereafter to defray their own traveling expenses to and from their homes. This enables the faculty to increase the number of students with the same outlay of funds.

The Board feels that this college merits the special interest and prayers of the Church. It is satisfactorily working out sound principles of education on the Mission field. Its training is thorough, Chinese and Christian. It is one of the very best Mission Colleges in the world, and its graduates do not flock to America, or become petty clerks or household servants of Europeans in seaport towns, or mere dependents of the Misson, to be fed and clothed and employed for life; but they become men of independent influence for Christ among their own countrymen. All of its 150 graduates have been Christians—a truly remarkable record.

GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL. — The Girls' High School is also doing good work. It admitted this year 12 new scholars, making the total number 42—33 of whom have natural feet. All but 10 are professing Christians, three having united with the church during the year. There has been a marked advance in the spiritual life of the school. The girls who showed little signs of improvement and interest in study have been weeded out, and those who remain give promise of much usefulness. All those who return home at the close of school paid their own traveling expenses, while most of the others paid for their board, which shows that there is an increased desire on the part of the Chinese to have their daughters educated.

COUNTRY BOARDING-SCHOOL.—It is not the policy of the Station to support country boarding-schools, and consequently there are none for boys, and only one for girls, and that one superintended by the wife of the native pastor in Ping-tu. It has 27 scholars, only 16 of whom are boarders. Here many girls in that district have the opportunity to fit themselves for entering the Girls' School in Tungchow at a comparatively small expense. There are two small country day-schools for girls with 11 scholars, and two city schools for both boys and girls, with about 35 pupils, all supported on the field.

THE BOYS' DAY-SCHOOLS.—These schools have proved to be a good evangelistic agency, furnishing a preacher and teacher, a means of holding the Christians together, and of keeping up regular Sabbath services, and also a centre of influence in non-Christian villages. From these schools 10 have been received into the church during the year, and many homes have been reached through them. There are 11 schools, with a total of 154 pupils. Two of these schools are supported on the field, while all are required to pay from one-fifth to one-quarter of their expenses.

LITERARY WORK.—Dr. Mateer has spent much time on Bible translation, as a member of the Revision Committee: He has also prepared a new edition of his Mandarin Lessons, and revised some college text-books. Mr. Hayes has also been actively engaged in literary work. Besides the bi-weekly issue of "The Shantung Times," which bears good witness to truth and reform, he has spent not a little labor in the preparation and revision of college text-books.

MEDICAL.—The attendance at the dispensary has been less than last year, on account of the charge now made for medicines, except in charity cases. Still the dispensary reports a total of 7,786 visits, of which 5,761 were new cases. Of these, 1,250 were female and 6.536 male. Ninety-five patients were seen in their homes and 1,140 in the country, while the Hospital patients numbered 62—a considerable increase. The grand total is 9,083. Surgical cases have been much more numerous than formerly. Dr. Seymour was greatly assisted by Dr. Lewis during his stay in Tungchow, particularly in the Hospital. The receipts were about $180 (Mex.). In addition to his city work, Dr. Seymour visited 29 villages in the course of the year. In each place he treated the sick and injured, preached the Gospel, and distributed tracts. The important medical work at this Station is conducted with marked economy.

WEST SHANTUNG MISSION.

CHINANEU: capital of the Shantung Province, 300 miles south of Peking; occupied in 1872; missionaries—Rev. W. B. Hamilton and Mrs. Hamilton, Rev. L. J. Davies and Mrs. Davies, J. B. Neal, M.D., and Mrs. Neal, Rev. V. F. Rartch and Mrs. Partch, Dr. Charles Lewis, Dr. Mary L. Burnham.

WEI HIEN: 150 miles southwest of Tungchow; occupied 1882; missionaries—Rev. R. M. Mateer and Mrs. Mateer, Rev. F. H. Chalfant and Mrs. Chalfant, Rev. J. A. Fitch and Mrs. Fitch, W. R. Faries, M.D., and Mrs. Faries, Miss Emma F. Boughton, Miss Mary Brown, M.D., Mrs. M. M. Crossette, Miss Charlotte E. Hawes.

ICHOWFU: 150 miles southeast of Chefoo; occupied 1891; missionaries—Rev. W. P. Chalfant and Mrs. Chalfant, Rev. C. A. Killie and Mrs. Killie, C. F. Johnson, M.D., and Mrs. Johnson, Rev. W. S. Faris and Mrs. Faris.

CHINING CHOW: 150 miles southwest of Chinanfu; occupied 1892; missionaries—Rev. J. H. Laughlin and Mrs. Laughlin, J. L. Van Schoick, M.D., and Mrs. Van Schoick, Rev. R. H. Bent and Mrs. Bent, Rev. John Murray and Mrs. Murray, Miss M. J. Hill, M. D.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Rev. C. A. Killie and Mrs. Killie, Dr. C. F. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson, Dr. W. R. Faries and Mrs. Faries, Rev. W. B. Hamilton and Mrs. Hamilton.

The West Shantung Mission has completed the second year of its separate existence. It covers about three-fourths of the Province of Shantung, including the populous valley of the lower Yellow river and the no less populous course of the Middle Grand Canal.

CHINANFU STATION.

Chinanfu, the capital of the province, is a city of 200,000 people, lying five miles south of the Yellow river. As a Station it was opened in 1871 by the Rev. J.S. McIlvaine.

The year has brought much encouragement. With one exception, there has been progress all along the line. The increase in membership by confession of faith was 58. This is more by 25 than were received last year, and a gain of nearly 22 per cent. in the total membership. The native contributions were $136.92. The sale of books during the latter half of the year greatly increased.

CHINAN CHURCH.—The Chinese Christians have continued to pay half the salary of an evangelist. There were three additions by confession during the year. The Sabbath-school has increased 20 per cent. The regular services in city and suburb have been maintained, four of the Chinese brethren taking turns in conducting the city service. There has been a gratifying increase of the congregations since the new chapel was occupied. The prayer-meetings have been well attended. The church contributions have been 153,000 c. c. ($88), nearly twice as much as last year. Mr. Lin, a deacon, has opened a girls' school in his house, with seven pupils. He himself is teacher, and no Mission funds have been asked.

WOMAN'S WORK.—One class for country women was held for eight weeks, with 13 in attendance. The woman's prayer-meeting has an average attendance of 18. This meeting is held at the Women's Dispensary, where the out-patients as well as the in-patients from the Hospital are made welcome.

BOYS' SCHOOL.—The number of scholars is 37. This is larger than any previous year, though the course of study has been advanced. A number of the scholars have applied for baptism, of whom two have been recently received into full membership, and six will be received at the next communion.

The total amount of fees was $126 (Mex.), which is more than twice what was received last year. There are five scholars, who board themselves, and it is hoped this number will be increased next year.

MEDICAL WORK.—The number of Hospital patients has continued to steadily increase, the Hospital being filled to its fullest capacity during the Autumn and the Spring.

There has been a marked increase in the number of eye cases, 95 operations of this character alone having been performed. The class of five medical students has continued its studies. Its members are now ready to take positions as assistants in our various hospitals—no one receiving a medical certificate until he has spent from two to four years as an assistant after completing his didactic course. An evangelist has talked regularly to the daily patients while waiting for treatment, and has spent a good deal of time teaching the Hospital patients.

The statistics of the medical work for the year are as follows:

McIlvaine Hospital:— Dispensary cases	259
Woman's Dispensary Patients seen in country and in their homes.

COUNTRY WORK.—Fifty-five persons have been received since the last report. There is a marked forward movement in almost all parts of the field. New centres are opening, and the Christians are showing increased zeal. One man baptized here this year was a Taoist priest. He introduced himself to our evangelist about three years ago by ordering him to stop preaching one day at a market, threatening him with physical violence if he continued. He was drunk at the time; but he has given up the drinking habit, and before he was baptized was instructing three inquirers in his village. His wife, who is not yet a Christian, bears testimony to the radical change in his life. One of the women baptized was led to Christ by her son, a pupil in our boarding-school. She also brought two new inquirers with her to the service at which she was baptized.

At another centre 10 inquirers were enrolled. They regularly observe the Sabbath, and one of the men has broken the opium habit.

An instance of clear faith was given, before baptism, by one of the women. She is a widow and poor. She has some land, but no animals to work it. The poorer people usually borrow the animal of some more prosperous neighbor, providing food, but giving no money. Thus, Mrs. Liu had year by year cultivated her land; but last Spring, when it came time to plow, her neighbors refused to help her, saying that if she was a member of the Jesus Society she might look to the foreign devils to plow her land. She and the only other Christian woman of the village prayed about the matter, and were afterward able to hire a man from another village. Her daughter-in-law joined her heathen neighbors in trying to persuade her to give up the new religion, but to no purpose. Some years ago this woman's son, who is now away from home, became much interested in the Truth, but was dissuaded from professing by his mother. She is now praying that he may return home and join with her in worshiping the true God. Sixteen men and four women were baptized as the first-fruits of the new work near Lin-i.

From the beginning of the present Chinese year, no money has been paid for support of boys in country schools. This has made it impossible for a few deserving boys to attend, but has not 'closed any of the schools.

On account of dissensions between the native helper and teacher and of insubordination on the part of the pupils, the Girls' Boarding-school at Wan-tei has been closed till circumstances make it possible to re-establish it under the constant supervision of a missionary.

ICHOWFU STATION.

Ichowfu is a prefectural city, 210 miles southeast of Chinanfu, and 330 miles southwest of Chefoo. Evangelistic work was begun in 1875 by Drs. Nevius and Corbett, but it was not until 1890 that it was occupied as a Station.

During the past year the Station had the pleasure of welcoming the Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Faris, but since its close all have been shocked and inexpressibly grieved by the sudden death of Dr. Anna Larsen from typhoid fever. The sad details have already been fully reported to the Church through the religious press and the monthly magazines; but time does not lessen our sense of sore bereavement over the loss to the work of that gifted, devoted and consecrated woman and physician.

EVANGELISTIC.—Including the seven places where there are organized churches, there are 12 outstations which are regularly visited, and perhaps ten others where there is sufficient interest to warrant the hope that outstations can be soon established. In the absence of Mr. and Mrs Killie on furlough, Mr. Murray of Chining-chow, was given valuable assistance in supervising this work. He reports "a wide and open field for the preaching of the Gospel, and not a little sincere inquiry."

A striking case is that of a Mr. Yu, a native physician. widely known and respected, and the fact that he has purchased a number of books and boldly advocates the Gospel, is commending the truth to many who otherwise would not listen to it.

In the latter part of December, a class of 40 inquirers and Christians from the outstations spent a month in study under Mr. Chalfant and the native evangelists. Mr. Murray taught a similar class of 20 in the summer. One member of the latter class, a barrow-man named Yen, who has been anxious to enter the church for over a year, has been baptized. His case is interesting, not only because of his importunity, but because he is the first convert from the region west of the city to receive baptism.

In the city and suburbs there is considerable interest. ers are not so numerous as formerly, but those who do come are less apt to be brought by mere curiosity. A young teacher has applied for baptism.

WOMAN'S WORK.—The work among the women is very encourging. The Wednesday afternoon prayer-meeting and the Sabbath after-service meetings have been well attended throughout the year, and special classes of women have been taught. From these classes two women were admitted to the Church in the course of the year.

EDUCATIONAL.—The educational work at Ichowfu is still in an embryonic state. There is a primary day-school on the Mission premises, and nine small day-schools at various out-The usual Mission grant toward the support of these schools is about $23 (Mex.) per year. At one Station, where the number of pupils seemed to be too large for one teacher to manage properly, the Christians themselves opened a primary school at an expense of about $20 (Mex.). There is a growing demand for higher education. Until a boarding-school can be established, a few picked boys will be sent to the Chinanfu School. A few of the more intelligent young men are anxious to learn English, and have been taught by Mrs. Chalfant and Mrs. Johnson.

MEDICAL.—In the Medical Department the year has been an unusually prosperous one. The aggregate number of cases treated was no less than 20,000! Calls for the services of the medical Missionaries continue to come from the city and surrounding country, and that their efforts are appreciated is shown by profuse thanks and conventional presents. Recently two memorial boards were presented by grateful patients residing 70 or 80 miles southeast of Ichowfu.

Daily preaching to the patients in the waiting-rooms has been caried on, as usual, by missionaries or native Christians. Many of these patients take back tracts and more or less distinct impressions of Gospel truth to their widely scattered homes.

WEI-HIEN STATION.

The local Mission plant consists of a walled compound, one. mile southeast of the city, and inclosing seven and a half acres, within which are grouped five missionary houses, chapel, Boys' Academy, Girls' High School, Primary Day-school for Boys, Men's Hospital, Women's Hospital, book-room, separate rooms for native men and women visitors, etc. But the principal work. of the Station lies far beyond the compound, and comprises country and church work scattered over an area of about 6,600 squaremiles—considerably larger than Connecticut and Rhode Island! Within this area the Mission has the spiritual and,. to a degree, the temporal oversight of 120 outstations, whose total membership is 2,681, besides hundreds of inquirers and Of these outstations 83 are divided into groups, and thus constitute 17 church organizations. Four of these, churches have had their own native pastors during the year, and while nominally self-supporting, fully one-fourth of the two pastors' salaries has been paid by the missionaries. No part of the expense has been met by the Mission. The remaining outstations are divided into convenient groups, and are under the personal supervision of the missionaries as unorganized work,

There are 38 country primary day-schools for boys, and eight country boarding-schools for girls; 18 native assistants, 7 Biblewomen and 54 school-teachers comprise the native working force employed by the Station.

The city work is centered around the street chapel, which is equipped with books and apparatus for the entertainment of callers, and provides a daily prayer-meeting in charge of a native evangelist. One new outstation has been opened and one abandoned during the year, and two new chapels have been erected by the natives.

Health absences somewhat seriously diminished the missionary force for a part of the year; but, with the exception of one family, all the workers are now at their posts, while the appointment of Miss C. E. Hawes has happily added to the missionary circle.

EVANGELISTIC.—The aggregate number of days spent in country work by the missionaries was smaller than usual, being only 280. This was due to the absence of several members of the Station on furlough, and the usual demand upon the time in teaching the Theological Class, and in superintending local institutions. Most of the classes for Bible-study have been conducted at the outstations; eight of these being taught by the theological students and four by missionaries.

An interesting convention was held last winter, attended by about 80 elders, deacons and country-school teachers, for the purpose of discussing subjects vitally connected with the interests of the native church and its spiritual growth.

EDUCATIONAL.—In the native support of Christian schools, Weihien has much to report of an encouraging nature. The 39 day-schools for boys are now all paying one-third of their teachers' salaries, besides providing schoolhouses and all their incidental expenses. The number of these day-schools has been largely reduced, not on account of this policy, but because they had proved inefficient. The new charge system has already increased the feeling of responsibility on the part of the patrons.

The eight country boarding-schools for girls are all flourishing. No uniform system of charges has yet been adopted for these schools, but most of the pupils are paying something toward their board. The Mission allows a fixed amount per month—about 45 cents per pupil; and where the actual cost overruns this, the girls must pay the difference. In at least one school the girls have had to pay $1.50 (Mex.) each to supplement the allowance; and this was in addition to their travel, clothing and incidentals.

The Boys' Academy has 48 students. This year they, too, have been paying an appreciable part of their boarding. This is virtually a preparatory school for Tung-chow College.

The Girls' High School has started on its third year. From the start this school has been upon the partial-pay basis. Last year the 30 girls paid into the school-treasury $100 (Mex.). The new school-year has just opened with 37 pupils enrolled.

The girls have pledged themselves this year to pay an average of 6,400 small cash ($3.80 Mex.) per pupil.

The Theological Class has been located here since last May. Mr. R. M. Mateer, Mr. W. P. Chalfant and Dr. C. W. Mateer have constituted the faculty. The 10 students promise some good material for the ministry, all being bright, consecrated young men. Some of them are to be licensed at the next meeting of the Presbytery. Most of them acted as helpers during their vacation.

MEDICAL WORK.—In the Men's Dispensary, 6,400 patients have been treated, and in the Hospital 150 surgical operations have been performed. In the absence of Dr. Mary Brown, the Women's Hospital and Dispensary have been largely under the care of two trained native assistants. Dr. Faries and Mrs. Mateer, M.D., have acted as the foreign medical staff. Frequent calls have been answered in the city and surrounding country. One hundred such visits have been made by those in charge of the Women's Hospital, and 1,764 patients treated at the Dispensary. There were 100 surgical cases.

The un-Christian-like policy of the Romish Church has been an embarrassment to us. The priests have been systematically visiting our chapels with a view to proselyting. To some of our Christians they have offered bribes,—in one case as high as $300 (Mex.),—and have planted schools in some of our outstations to allure the covetous away by promise of free board and tuition. One whole outstation went over to their care. It had been in a weakly condition for years. The reasons for this change, as given by the deserters themselves, were as follows: Indulgences for non-observance of Sabbath. Toleration of gambling and opium. Exemption from Church contributions. Protection in the civil courts.

With such worldly advantages offered them, no wonder these weak brethren were ensnared! We cannot believe that these methods are indorsed by the Romish hierarchy; but we have ample proof that such things are being done in the name of that ecclesiastic body.

CHINING-CHOW STATION.

Chining-Chow is a city of about 200,000 inhabitants. The first regular missionary work done was by the Rev. J. S. McIlvaine, from Chinanfu. Fifteen years later, permanent occupation was made, in 1890-91, by the Revs. S. A. Hunter and W. Lane. Mob violence caused its failure. The litigation which followed resulted in the official concession of the foreigners' right to own and occupy property which was purchased and peaceably occupied in 1892. The Station has been ably reinforced this year by the reappointment of the Rev. John Murray, who had previously spent a score of years in missionary service in Chinanfu.

THE CHURCH.—Two services have been held every Sabbath. The attendance has averaged 96. A weekly prayer-meeting has been held, and preparatory to each quarterly communion a week of special services. Daily morning and evening prayers have been held in the chapel. Twenty-eight new members have been received on confession of faith, and two by letter The present membership is 67.

EVANGELISTIC. — Itinerating by missionaries and native assistants has been carried on as usual, and with encouraging results. Seven new members have been received, making the entire membership which is not yet organized into churches 25.

Of inquirers' classes, there have been three—two for men and one for women. About 70 individuals received from 20 to 30 days' instruction in the fundamental truths of the Christian religion. Besides these, two classes for native assistants have been held.

EDUCATIONAL. — There are no boarding-schools at this Station; but seven day-schools, containing 42 boys and nine girls, have been in operation. Two of the boys united with the Church.

WOMEN'S WORK .- Mrs. Laughlin writes:

The rumors that the foreigners were stealing children stopped our visitors entirely for two months this summer, and held us in a sort of moral quarantine. We seem to be out of it now, and visitors are coming again. The days of "crowds of women" are over, but there is more satisfaction with those who do come. In spite of two months' isolation, our visitors have increased about one thousand; the total number this year being 4,000.

This is largely due to the museum. It is yet only in the chrysalis stage: but it foreshadows good results; having already brought us a charming circle of acquaintances, some among the better-class women, whom we could not have reached in any other way. I have visited, during the year, about 52 villages. There are now, apparently open, two or three villages where there is much interest, and which we hope may turn out Divine openings. I expect to send two old women together to spend some time at these places. We employ our women by the month, and send them as places open. There have been 15 women here at different times during the year studying. Four of them have been baptised. I hear of five or six more who are willing to come, and hope to have them this autumn.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Van Schoick has had to contend at times with ill-health, and Dr. Jennie Hill has, of course, spent much time in the study of the language; but other members of the Station have helped with the evangelistic part of the work. A daily morning service for the patients has been held, and then the missionaries have individually talked and prayed with them in the wards, while those who were able to walk were invited to the homes of the missionaries.

Very few of the women are anxious to hear the Word, or are interested in study; but when we have gained their friendship the way is opened up, and they will receive the itinerator more kindly. And thus we work together in spreading the Gospel in China.

The statistics are as follows:

Rose Bachman Dispensary In-patients				•••••	14,688
Total Hunter Memo	rial Hosp	ital (W	omen's)		15,059
Dispensary In-patients					2,295 292
Total					2,587

The largest number of men treated in an afternoon was 198; women, 59. The total number of patients was less than last year.

Several causes for this might be given, chief among them being the rumors of child-stealing, so that many of the people were afraid to come to us, even for medicine. Another cause was the failure of the crops in some of the districts to the south of us, causing a decided falling off in the number of patients coming from that region. On the other hand, while there has been a falling off in the number of patients, they have been coming from greater distances; a few coming from 900 li to the west of us.

Many serious operations have been performed, which have opened doors for the entrance of the Gospel into hearts and homes and villages, and there are several patients who have manifested a desire to learn the Way of Life, and to walk therein.

MISSION IN GUATEMALA.

GUATEMALA CITY: Sixty miles from the seaport of San Jose; occupied 1882; missionaries—Rev. E. M. Haymaker and Mrs. Haymaker and Rev. W. F. Gates and Mrs. Gates. Outstations: San Augustin and Quezaltenango.

Guatemala has been passing through one of those periodic revolutions so characteristic of the Central American republics, which, although finally suppressed, virtually led up to the assassination of President Barrios. This upheaval seriously crippled all departments of Mission work. Our Mission thus far has had to do largely with the poor, and it is to this class the government looks for its soldiers. These soldiers are procured not by voluntary enlistment, but largely by press-gangs, from which multitudes flee to places of refuge. The report says:

This, in addition to the excitement, hopes, fears, rumors of outrages that fill the air from morning till night, even far off from where the fighting is, made our work almost useless for some months. After the revolution was put down, the government adopted measures of considerable military severity—especially in those districts where public sympathy was known to favor any of the revolutionary candidates, all of which irritated the people, and left them in a frame of mind but little disposed toward religion. I am glad to be able to state that now the severity is relaxing, people are hunting work, and from a war standpoint things look brighter.

Serious financial trouble has also added to the complication. Being apprehensive of a crisis, the government passed a decree that the banks should not be compelled to redeem their bills in specie until Jan. 1, 1898, and later that the resumption of specie payments should be gradual, certain denominations of bills becoming due each month, beginning with the smallest. "The result has been that the banks are holding all the small bills they can get, and now it is almost impossible to make small purchases, as there is no way of making change. Brokers and others get already from four to six per cent for changing hundred dollar bills." It is a matter for devout thanksgiving that during the turmoil our missionaries were mercifully preserved, although Mr. Gates was shut up in Quezaltenango with the revolutionists for a number of weeks, Mrs. Gates meanwhile being in Guatemala City, unable to hear from her husband. By medical advice and with Mission consent she finally came to the United States for a season of rest, being nervously worn, where she was joined a little later by her husband on regular furlough. Mr. and Mrs. Haymaker passed safely through the severe strain, and are still at their post.

Notwithstanding these serious drawbacks, however, the work of the Mission has not been without the seal of divine favor. Our missionaries have been greatly aided by the presence of two agents, respectively, of the American Bible Society and the British and Foreign Bible Society, whose efforts in the distribution of the Scriptures have been painstaking and unremitting.

The Church in the capital has scarcely held its own, although three persons of influence have been added to its roll. It reports 40 communicants. The Sabbath-school has shown more vitality, partly owing to the novel methods of grouping the children in battalions, and sending them under proper leadership from house to house to gather up the members of the school and to secure new recruits.

The Boys' School, with a roll of 26, reports an average year in attendance and work. The government, being nearly bankrupt, has suspended the public schools until May 1, 1898, so that the school has recently been filling up rapidly, and the efficient Spanish teacher is preparing to give the students "a good, solid course of Blakeslie's 'Life of Christ' and Bible-reading."

San Augustin.—This is a small town of some 5,000 inhabitants, situated on a new railroad, 75 miles northeast of Guatemala City. As it was one of the active centres of revolution, the Mission work felt very keenly the upheaval. The Church, however, continued its worship during most of the year, although its efforts at self-support, as elsewhere in the republic, were necessarily crippled by the upheaval. It numbers 29 members and 150 adherents, and has been well trained by the native evangelist. During his frequent absences on evangelistic tours, the services are steadily maintained by the brethren themselves. Six persons united with the church on confession of faith during the year. The field is an inviting one, and in normal conditions would be encouraging for evangelistic work.

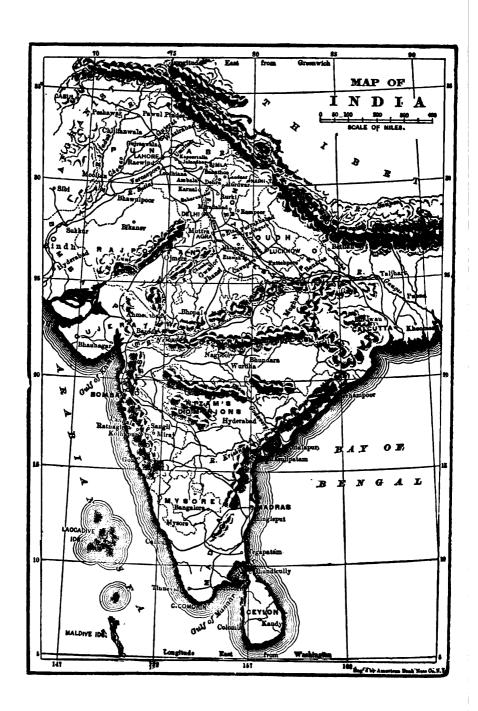

Quezaltenango.—This is a city of about 40,000 inhabitants, 125 miles northwest of the capital. As it was the great stronghold of the revolution, and was held for some time against the government, Mission work was completely paralyzed for a time. It was expected that a church would be organized during the year, but untoward events rendered this impracticable. Special mention is made of the possible work among the Indians in connection with this outstation. It is strongly advocated-first, because the Indians are so numerous and can never be reached through the Spanish work; and, second, because they have more character than the mixed race. They are more thoroughgoing Catholics now, and will be more thoroughgoing Protestants when converted. If the conversion of the republic to the Gospel is our aim, it will much sooner be accomplished by the Indians converting the Ladinos than by the Ladinos converting the Indians. Important preparation for beginning this work has been made in the translation of the Gospel of Mark into the Quiche, or Indian dialect, by Mr. Castelle, the agent of the British and Foreign Bible Society.

Notwithstanding the drawbacks of the past year, the outlook is regarded as hopeful, and an earnest plea is made for the occupation of other centres, such as Coban, Salama, Jalapa, etc. The report says:

Working out from these different points, we would have a large part of the republic covered. Since we have undertaken to save this republic, we ought to have a resident preacher in each of the above-named centres, if we count on having the ground even approximately covered. Our experience here seems to demonstrate that what we should do is to work outwards from, rather than spend too much time trying to multiply within centres. But for the most successful working out, the missionary needs to have a centre where he can return to recuperate and stock up his traveling supply and start in another direction. A Caucasian cannot for many years keep up long journeys through these countries, sleeping on the ground often with fleas and pigs, living on lard and beans, and sometimes sour bread for variety. The hardiest of us have to come face to face with ruined digestion by and by.

MISSIONS IN INDIA.

The year covered by this report has been one of great disquietude in India, where war, famine, earthquake and plague with their attendant horrors have devastated the land. The uprising of independent tribes on the northern frontier taxed the military resources of the government, and drew heavily on an already depleted treasury. The failure of the government to put down the uprising promptly, notwithstanding the heroic efforts of a well-equipped force, tended to diminish the prestige of the British arms, and to give aid and comfort to the disaffected elements. The strain on the government was increased by the persistent determination of the multitudes in the plague-stricken districts to resist sanitary measures which were deemed essential to the stamping out of the pestilence; the resistance issuing in the murder of British officers in several instances. this irritation is added the suffering of starving millions, and the tremendous pressure on government and benevolent enterprises to relieve distress and preserve life, it is easy to see that the situation must have rendered Mission work more than usually difficult. Through a kind Providence, the lives of our missionaries were mercifully preserved during the ravages of plague and famine. The detailed reports will show that they took a very active part in famine-relief work as the almoners of the Christian people of America, a large amount of money received from the "Christian Herald" and other sources having been forwarded by our treasurer for this purpose. While these causes operated in some measure against missionary effort, they also opened the way for a wider dissemination of the Gospel; and it is believed that, as in China many years ago, the spirit of Christian beneficence which came to the relief of perishing millions has paved the way for the cordial reception of the Gospel on the part of many.

Although retrenchment fell heavily on some parts of the Mission work, the self-sacrificing efforts of the missionaries preserved much that would otherwise have suffered, while an enforced and severe economy led to the dropping of work and workers which gave but slight promise of success. The established forms of effort at the stations have been maintained, but more than usual time has been spent in the districts preaching to the multitudes in the villages. Here, so far as numbers are concerned, the richest harvest has been reaped, although there were not wanting among those baptized persons of high caste, and also Mohammedans. These ingatherings have been largely in the Punjab, although the same methods have been pursued and the same fidelity manifested in the Northwest Provinces. It is to be noted with special gratitude that Western India, hitherto a hard and unproductive field, has shared in the blessing—33 having been baptized at the outstation of Kodoli. Aseason of rich spiritual refreshing was enjoyed in connection with the meeting of the Synod of India, and the joint sessions of the two northern Missions at Lodiana. A conference of missionaries and native workers was especially profitable. Although there remaineth much land to be possessed in the mighty empire, there are encouraging evidences of awakening, and intimations that the day of India's redemption draweth nigh.

LODIANA MISSION.

AMBALA: 55 miles southeast of Lodiana; station begun 1848; missionaries—Rev. Reese Thackwell, D.D., and Mrs. Thackwell, Rev. Howard Fisher, M.D., and Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. William Calderwood, Mrs. E. H. Braddock, Miss J. R. Carleton, M.D., and Miss Mary E. Pratt, Rev. Masik Charan, Rev. Jati Ram; outstation at Ani in the hills, Rev. Marcus M. Carleton and Mrs. Carleton.

DEHRA: 47 miles east of Saharanpur; station begun 1853; missionaries—Rev. W. J. P. Morrison, Mrs. John Newton, Jr., Miss Elma Donaldson, Miss Jennie L. Colman and Mrs. Abbie M. Stebbins.

FEROZEPORE: 50 miles southwest of Lodiana; station begun 1882; missionaries—Rev. F. J. Newton, M.D., and Mrs. Newton, Miss Helen R. Newton, M.D., and Rev. J. N. Hyde.

HOSHYARPORE; 45 miles north of Lodiana; station begun 1867; laborers—Rev. K. C. Chatterjee and Mrs. Chatterjee, and Rev. Muhammed Shah, Rev. Nizam ud Din.

JULLUNDUR: 120 miles east of Lahore, 30 miles west of Lodiana; station begun 1846; missionaries—Rev. C. B. Newton, D.D., Rev. F. O. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson, Miss Caroline C. Downs, and Miss Margaret C. Given, Rev. Henry Goloknath, Rev. Abdullah.

LAHORE: the political capital of the Punjab, 1,225 miles no thwest of Calcutta; station begun 1849; missionaries—Rev. J. C. Rhea Ewing, D.D., and Mrs. Ewing, Rev. J. Harris Orbison, M.D., and Mrs. Orbison, Rev. Henry C. Velte and Mrs. Velte, Rev. H. D. Griswold and Mrs. Griswold. Rev. Robert Morrison and Mrs. Morrison, Prof. J. G. Gilbertson and Mrs. Gilbertson, Rev. E. D. Martin and Mrs. Martin, Mrs. C. W. Forman and Miss Emily Marston, M.D., Rev. Isa Charan and Rev. R. C. Das; outstation at Waga, Miss Clara Thiede.

LODIANA: near the river Sutlej, 1,100 miles northwest of Calcutta; station begun 1834; missionaries—Rev. Edward P. Newton and Mrs. Newton, Rev. Arthur H. Ewing and Mrs. Ewing, Rev. Walter J. Clark and Mrs. Clark, Rev. U. S. G. Jones and Mrs. Jones, Miss Sarah M. Wherry, Miss M. Maud Allen, M.D., Miss Carrie Clark and Miss C. B. Herron, Rev. John B. Dales, Rev. Ahmed Shah, Rev. Jaimal Singhe, Rev. P. C. Uppal, and Rev. Matthias.

SABATHU: in the lower Himalaya Mountains, 110 miles east of Lodiana; station begun 1836; missionaries—M. B. Carleton, M.D., and Mrs. Carleton, Rev. Puran Lal.

SAHARANPUR: 130 miles southeast of Lodiana; Station begun 1836; missionaries—Rev. Alexander P. Kelso and Mrs. Kelso, Rev. C. W. Forman, M.D., and Mrs. Forman, Miss Jessie Dunlap, Rev. Kaunar Sain.

WOODSTOCK: in Landour, 15 miles east of Dehra; School begun 1874; missionaries—Rev. J. W. McComb and Mrs. McComb, Miss Alice Mitchell, M.D., and Miss Emma Morris.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Rev. J. C. R. Ewing, D.D., and Mrs. Ewing, Rev. J. H. Orbison, M.D., and Mrs. Orbison, Miss Elma Donaldson, Miss Jessie Dunlap, Miss C. C. Downs, Mrs. C. W. Forman, Miss M. C. Given.

MISSIONARY FORCE.—The force was depleted during the year by the death of Mrs. C. B. Newton and Mrs. W. J. P. Morrison, and the resignation of Miss Harriet A. Savage, Miss Margaret C. Davis and Miss Clara C. Giddings. The death of Mrs. Newton occurred on June 20, 1897, after a service of 27 years in the Mission. Mrs. Newton was a devout Christian and a devoted missionary, co-operating efficiently in various branches of the work, notwithstanding the multiplied cares of a large family. Mrs. Morrison died on Jan. 1, 1898, after a brief illness. She had been connected with the Mission since 1882, and was a woman of fine Christian character and earnest missionary purpose, with an exceptionally good knowledge of the language and a genuine love for the people to whom she had given her The resignations mentioned were partly on account of health and partly because of providential circumstances. J. C. R. Ewing and Dr. J. H. Orbison and family returned home on furlough, while Prof. J. G. Gilbertson and Mrs. Gilbertson, Rev. U. S. G. Jones and family, and Miss Emily Marston, M.D., rejoined the Mission after furlough. The Rev. Frank O. Johnson, son of the Rev. W. F. Johnson, D.D., of our Furrukhabad Mission, and Mrs. Johnson, daughter of the Rev. Reese Thackwell, D.D., of Ambala, were added to the roll of the mission-aries, while Mrs. John Newton was transferred from Furrukhabad Mission to Lodiana Mission on account of health.

AMBALA STATION.

Ambala is the first in population of the thirty-two districts of the Province of the Punjab, although but nineteenth in its area. The district has a population of 1,200,000, 750,000 being Hindus, 350,000 Mohammedans, 80,000 Sikhs, and the remainder Christians, Jains and others.

CHURCHES.—The two churches at this station, located respectively in the city and cantonments, some four miles apart, are ministered to by native pastors, the salaries being paid in part by the churches and supplemented by the Presbytery. One Rajput (high-caste) man was baptized in the cantonments, who first heard the Gospel in the bazaar.

EVANGELISTIC.—A large amount of time and labor has been bestowed on work in the district by the missionary and native laborers, with good results, present and prospective. Sixtynine baptisms are reported for the year at the various centres from which the district work was prosecuted. One of the efficient agents writes:

Our converts have not yet attained to that high standard of Christian life and morality which the people of high culture might expect of them, but their Christianity is a power in them, and gives tone and character to their lives. They are daily making progress, though they have much to learn of our holy religion.

It is the purpose of Dr. Thackwell, the missionary in charge, to follow this work up with diligence, so that those who have been baptized may be systematically instructed and others brought under the power of the truth. Dr. Fisher, with native helpers, has preached regularly in the adjacent villages, and work has been inaugurated in the city by Christians who serve without pay.

WORK FOR WOMEN.—Mrs. Calderwood, Miss Pratt and Mrs. Braddock, with a number of native helpers, have devoted their time to various forms of zenana and village work. The work among the low-castes is a most self-sacrificing work, as the following from Mrs. Calderwood will show:

Visiting from house to house among the Chumars would have been a rather hard task. The curing of hides or skins, which is done in a most peculiar way in this country, fills the whole village with a most disagreeable odor, and the filth around the village during the rainy season is indescribable; but we always found among them quiet listeners, both of men and women. One man in particular, whose little son I nursed through an attack of bronchitis, always sees that I have a chair to sit on, which he bought for me. Therefore, although we have to sit between pieces of hides, some half-cured, some raw or steaming ones, or ready cured, the Bible truths are told with the hope that the Master in His own time will bless them to the hearts of these willing hearers.

Mrs. Braddock reports under her supervision 83 zenana pupils under instruction, a school for Mohammedan girls, three Sabbath-schools, a temperance society of 103 "juvenile and adults, native and foreign, Christian and heathen." Miss Pratt reports four Mohammedan schools for girls in her department. She also devoted much time to famine relief, which was extended to about 300 spinners. Frequently the low-caste women brought their wheels and worked together in the same court, where the missionary took advantage of their presence to break to them the Bread of Life. A Sabbath-school among the Chumars was also under Miss Pratt's direction.

SCHOOLS.—Two schools for boys have been in operation—a high school in Ambala City, and an Anglo-vernacular middle school at the cantonments. The latter receives no pecuniary aid from the Board, although it is identified with our Mission work, and is under the general supervision of Dr. Thackwell. The high school Dr. Fisher reports somewhat reduced in numbers, and therefore in income, because of a school organized by the Aryas, who are the most bitter and persistent opposers of Christainity. Good work, however, was done, meeting the commendation of the government inspector.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Fisher, in the small hospital in the city, has had a daily average of dispensary patients of from 35 to 90, according to the season of the year. Special pains are taken to make the work the means of communicating spiritual truth to the patients.

The work under Dr. Jessica R. Carleton, and Dr. Emily Marston in the dispensary for women, has been large, 11,140 separate treatments having been given—which, with inpatients and those visited in the zenanas, makes the total 11,500. The hospital, for which provision was generously made as a memento of the Silver Jubilee of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, with headquarters in Philadelphia, is now being built. Much precious time was lost in efforts to obtain another site within easier reach of the great multitudes in the cantonments. The building is now being erected on the site on which the dispensary stands, comprising four acres of land. On the whole, it is believed that the location will be more heathful than one in the crowded bazar, and will be found sufficiently near the centre of population to tax its capacity. Bible instruction has been regularly imparted both to the inpatients and those who have attended the dispensary.

DEHRA STATION.

The Hindustani Church at this Station continues to have its own pastor, who is partly supported by Mission funds. It reports a membership of 95, with an average attendance at the public services of 120, whose gifts for all purposes last year amounted to Rs. 753. An English-speaking congregation, including a number of natives, is ministered to for the most part by Mr. W. J. P. Morrison. It has a membership of 45, of whom two were received by confession last year. Some of its members render important service in various directions to the Mission. There are six Sabbath-schools connected with the station, with a membership of 326.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Christian Girls' Boarding-school has had difficulties to contend with which were neither few nor small. Famine prices for food, the reduction of the government grant, and the retrenchment ordered by the Board, brought a severe pressure to bear upon those in charge of the school. The roll numbered 100. The health of the pupils was good, and the work done was quite up to the high grade of other years. The Examining Committee make special mention of the thorough work in Bible instruction. The needle-work exhibited and other forms of handicraft showed that the industrial part of the education is not being overlooked. Grateful mention is made of the kindness of Dr. Emerson and Dr. Mulford in giving professional services to the school free of charge. An earnest plea is again made for a building to segregate patients in cases of epidemic disease to which India is so liable.

The Boys' High School was in session under the general supervision of Mr. Morrison, with an attendance of 300; but no details of the work have reached the Mission Rooms.

Five other schools are reported, with an attendance of 83 boys and 20 girls. One day-school was closed because of the opposition of the Aryas, the girls having been transferred by their parents to an Arya school.

WORK FOR WOMEN.—The Jane Cross Memorial Training Home.—This training-school has just completed its eighth year. That it has failed to realize fully the expectations of its founders is not to be laid to the charge of the school or to the fidelity The work done has been well done, alof the missionaries. though the volume is small. The output is necessarily limited because the ability of the Mission to employ the young women trained for zenana and village work is limited. It is deemed essential, by the Mission, that the young women trained in the Home should work under the supervision of American missionary ladies at the stations to which they are assigned. As the number of such is small, it follows that the graduates of the Home must be correspondingly limited. Arrangements have been made, however, by which those in the service of our own Mission may be employed by other Missions on the basis of an equitable financial return to the Board.

The Zenana Work connected with this Station has been crippled by the necessity for dismissing some of the workers, but effective service has been rendered by the members of the Training Home. The work among the women in the villages has been prosecuted with some encouragement, but the lack of ability to follow these up and to widen the scope of the work greatly limits the possibilities of satisfactory results.

The Converts' Home, which is intended to be a temporary refuge for Christian women whose confession of faith has driven them from their homes, and others who give evidence of a sincere desire to confess Christ, has been quietly doing its beneficent work during the year.

FEROZEPORE STATION.

The work in the city of Ferozepore has been substantially that of other years, including Church and Sabbath-school services, work among the women and in hospital and dispensary. Five persons were received on confession of faith, and the little church now numbers 38 communicants. The Hospital for men has been under the charge of Rev. F. J. Newton, M.D., and that for women under charge of his daughter, Helen R. Newton, M.D. They have also had three dispensaries in operation. The total number of inpatients was 171, and of outpatients 16,231. In addition to other forms of work, Dr. Newton, as a member of the committee appointed to revise the Punjabi New Testament, devoted two months to that work; the committee revising from I. Timothy to Jude inclusive.

DISTRICT WORK.—The report puts special emphasis upon this form of work, giving in detail what has been accomplished at the various outstations. Of these Quasure is one of the most important.

It is a place of some 10,000 or 12,000 inhabitants. It is a Mohammedan stronghold and a very ancient town, being in near proximity to extensive ruins, indicating that it had been a much larger city than at present. Twenty years ago the Gospel messengers were treated with great disrespect, one of them even being stoned. Within the past few years, however, the power of a Zenana Mission, conducted by English ladies, has been felt, and the native evangelist laboring in connection with our Mission has been well received. Some young men belonging to Mohammedan families of some prominence are deeply interested. most encouraging work in this district, however, is among the Churas, or low-caste people, many among them being regarded as hopefully converted. The Gospel is working a marked change in their lives, turning them from many of their filthy habits; such as that of eating carrion, and what is still more gratifying, from such common sins as lying and stealing. Of other points, Dr Newton writes:

At Muktsar and Fazilka, two towns of about 7,000 and 9,000 population, respectively, work has been carried on during the past year as usual. The former has been recognized for years as a substation of Ferozepore, and a licentiate of the Lahore Presbytery has been stationed here for seven years. He was originally a Hindu of the mendicant class—a Sadhoo. He was baptized by Mr. Chatterjee, of Hoshyarpore, about 25 years ago. He is one of the most valuable men in our Mission. We call him Bhagat, a title given to those who are counted saints, as saints go among the Hindus. He is unusually well versed in the sacred learning of the country, and having a wondrous memory he is able to repeat pages upon pages of quotations from the Hindu books of religion and philosophy. This is an incalculable help in both preaching and controversy. Nevertheless, he is not conceited, as such men usually are, but being of a very childlike disposition, is exceedingly popular among the people of all classes. He is enthusiastically attached to his work, too, and having some knowledge of medicine, he makes numerous friends by treating the sick gratis, who come to him from the town and surrounding villages. In addition to the main building in which the Bhagat and his family dwell, there are some rooms for the accommodation of visitors, and one room for a dispensary. He makes frequent tours also among the villages in the vicinity, preaching the Gospel wherever he goes, and healing the sick. There are a number of inquirers among the people, but hitherto very few have had the courage of their convictions.

Up to his serious illness, Mr. Hyde had devoted a good deal of time to the district work around Zira, some twenty miles east of Ferozepore. He reports very few baptisms, and only a few inquirers. It is proposed to undertake more frequent visits to the district from this centre, and with this in view a cheap building has been purchased and put into shape for occupancy. The Aryas, with characteristic zeal, sought to stir up bitter opposition, but the missionaries hold the property by a secure title. Two young men were sent by them from Lahore.

They assembled some of the leading citizens, and presented the dangers of the situation. They would live, they said, all of them to regret the day, when, owing to the apathy of Mohammedans as well as Hindus, the padres were allowed to obtain a foothold in their town. Enumerating the evils that would come in upon their town like a flood and subvert society, they warned them that these padres would begin their work by instituting slaughter-houses for the killing of cows and pigs! It was a time for Hindus and Mohammedans to make common cause against the common enemy. A subscription was accordingly started, and before long a sum sufficiently large to preempt the property was raised. But now another question, viz.: When it was bought and paid for, who among the subscribers was to claim the ownership? The thansdar, or inspector of police, a Mohammedan, and a true friend of ours, now came to our rescue. Seeing the divided state of opinion, he called a meeting and advised the subscribers to reclaim their money, reminding them that the fears started by the Aryas were baseless; that the padres, as a matter of fact, had not been known hitherto, anywhere they had settled, to have injured society, or even to have instituted slaughter-houses. They had indeed instituted schools and hospitals, and shown themselves the friends of the people; and it was likely, if they were not interfered with, they would act similarly in the present case. The Aryas were present at this meeting, and did their best to combat the arguments of the thanadar; but he had, it seems, the best of it.

HOSHYARPORE STATION.

The report of this Station presents a comprehensive and suggestive review of the work since its beginning, in 1867. During most of these thirty years it has been in the hands of the Rev. K. C. Chatterjee, who, through the Divine blessing, has both laid the foundations and built the superstructure, being ably seconded by his noble wife. The field covered by this Station is about 94 miles long and from 20 to 32 miles wide. It comprises 10 towns and 2,087 villages, with a population of 1,011,659, about two-thirds being Hindus and one-third Mohammedans.

Hoshyarpore is noted as the home of Sikhism. Mr. Chatterjee writes:

Guru Govind Singh, the founder of the Sikh religion, was born and brought up here, and administered his first baptism of the sword to his disciples in Anundpur Makhowal, a town in this district. His descendants still live in this place, and a religious fair attended by upwards of 70,000 people is held here every year in honor of this event. In the history of our Mission this place is noted for being the scene of the martyrdom of the Rev. L. Janvier, the father of the Rev. C. A. R. Janvier, who is laboring in Allahabad. He was killed by a fanatical Sikh while delivering the message of God's love to the people at one of their annual fairs.

Having been a student of Dr. Duff and converted in college, Mr. Chatterjee began his labors as "an enthusiastic admirer of missionary education." After consultation and most prayerful consideration, however, he determined to devote the most of his time "to simply preaching the Gospel, making an exception in the matter of female education, because of the degraded and ignorant condition of the women." On the street, in the chapel, in the villages, at religious fairs, in the inquiry class and through the distribution of Bibles and tracts, this work has been done. The results, so far as can be tabulated, are modestly summarized as follows:

We have succeeded in spreading a vast amount of knowledge of Christian truths throughout the length and breadth of this district. We have succeeded also, through the help of the Divine Spirit, in awakening many souls to be concerned for their spiritual interests. Great spiritual and moral changes have taken place since our first arrival here. When we first came and walked over the district, it looked to us like the valley of Ezekiel's vision, full of dry bones. But now there is "a noise and a shaking, and the bones are coming together, bone to his bone," and in some instances, "the sinews and the flesh have come upon them, and the skin has covered them above." Mere flesh and skin covered bones are the reformed sects of Hindus and Mohammedans. Not one of them existed thirty years ago. But now wherever we go, we meet with Arya somaj, Dharm Sabha, Sikh Sabha and Aujmani Islamya. These have sprung up everywhere in the district. They have the form of beauty and life, but not the life itself. Many causes have contributed to this change. One of them, and the greatest one, we humbly claim to be our continual prophesying over the dry bones for the last thirty years—our preaching of the quickening Word of God. The vivifying influence of the Holy Spirit is needed to make them alive. For this we have fervently prayed, and are still praying. Besides contributing our share to this general awakening, it has been our privilege to collect into the fold of Christ and baptize upwards of 800 souls. One-eighth of this number has been from the upper classes of Hindus and Mohammedans, and the rest from the low-caste Churas and Chamars. Some have died, others have left the station, and a few have fallen away. We have still on our roll 703, of whom 489 are communicants and 223 baptized men, women and children who have not yet been admitted into communion.

To this must be added a noble band of Christian workers raised up, ordained ministers, licentiates, catechists and village workers, who have rendered effective service at the outstations, and have also reinforced other stations.

CHURCH.—The Church in Hoshyarpore is still the only organized church in this district, and enrolls all who are baptized within its bounds. The additions last year on confession were 115.

SCHOOLS.—The Girls' Orphanage and Boarding-school reports a roll of 46 pupils, of whom 16 are orphans, and 11 half-orphans—the parents of the others being alive. The committee of the Mission appointed to examine the school reports:

In Bible, the girls were especially prompt and clear in all answers to questions. Everything about the establishment was beautifully clean and orderly—the dormitories, with their 40 or more beds, as close as could be placed; the schoolroom, where the girls' clothes were as clean as their faces were bright and happy; the kitchen, where the girls were helping to prepare the breakfast, and the compound were all equally tidy.

The two day-schools, one for Hindus and the other for Mohammedans, had respectively an attendance of 30 and 28. The three day-schools for village Christian boys were maintained, although, because of the cut the teachers had to be dismissed, and the Scripture-readers took charge of them in addition to their usual work.

OUTSTATIONS.—There are six of them at present, viz.: Ghorawaha, Dosnah, Garhrhankar, Tandar, Hurianah, Garhdiwala. The first of these was occupied in 1874, when five families of Rajput Mohammedans were converted. Two are under the care of faithful native brethren, of whose work Mr. Chatterjee makes a good report.

An earnest plea is again made for an additional dormitory for the Orphanage, for an industrial school for the Churah and Chamar Christians (low-castes), and for an Anglo-vernacular school for the non-Christian boys of the city and district. These additions to the equipment are greatly needed, and would be most helpful to the work.

JULLUNDUR STATION.

More than usual emphasis has been placed during the year on the direct preaching of the Gospel in city and village, especially within a radius of six miles from the centre. That has been possible largely because of the assistance of Mr. J. C. Newton, son of Dr. C. B. Newton, who labors at his own charges. The work has been mainly among the low-castes of Churahs and Chamars. There has not been wanting opposition here and there, especially in a village of Mohammedans; but opposition is coming to be the exception, as in most villages the preacher of the Gospel is courteously received, and sometimes even cordially welcomed. The visible fruits of the work in the entire field for the year are the reception of 88 adults by baptism, including two Mohammedans and one Brahmin. One of the Mohammedans lives in a village 20 miles from Jullundur, and for two years past had been visiting the missionary from time to time, repeatedly asking to be baptized. One of these visits is referred to as follows:

He said to the missionary: "You have come from your country in order to make the people of India Christians; you travel over the country, baptizing the people; how is it that when I come again and again, walking 20 miles from my village and ask you to baptize me, you refuse to do it?" He was baptized on the 17th of May. The Brahmin baptized, was a faquir lad 14 years of age, who visited us about a year ago, and stayed some days. In August last he came again in company with an old faquir named Prem Das, to whom he has attached himself as his disciple. Prem Das has been a Christian for several years. They stayed several weeks, and the lad asked to be baptized. His examination was unusually satisfactory, and he was baptized on the 11th of September.

Dr. Newton has acted as stated supply of the Church, which reports a membership of 51, of which two were added during the year.

One of the Sabbath-schools was closed, the others continuing in operation. Miss Downs and Miss Given, with their assistants, have continued their evangelistic work in the zenanas and villages. These assistants, in addition to their daily toil, have taken charge alternately of a class of spinners and embroiderers, which meets on the veranda of the Mission House. There are 12 in the class, and are all either widows or deserted wives, and wretchedly poor. Each woman receives one rupee per month when she does the amount of work required, the money being furnished by the Famine Relief Fund. The Christian helpers embraced every opportunity in connection with the class for instructing the women in the things of God.

SCHOOLS.—The Boys' High School is steadily recovering from the effects of the competition of the Aryas referred to last year. The total enrolment for the year was 437. The headmaster is a Christian, and, in the absence of Dr. Newton, conducts the religious exercises with which the school is daily opened. No appropriation is asked from the Board for this school for the next fiscal year, the hope being that it may be found to be self-supporting. Of the school under the care of Miss Downs and Miss Given, the ladies write:

The number of pupils in the girls' schools in the city are the same as last year, 199. There has been an increase in the number of zenanas visited from 40 to 44, with 89 pupils, as against 83 last year. There has not been a great deal of open opposition, but we always have more or less of it. The Hindus thought to inconvenience us greatly when they succeeded in turning us out of a building where we had three schools.

We persuaded the man from whom we rent the little place where we have our Sunday-school to make an improvement in the building, which enabled us to move the three schools to that place. A bigoted Hindu woman was very indignant when she heard some of our girls singing Christian hymns in their homes, and tried by threats and persuasions to induce the parents to withdraw their girls from our evil influence; but, in spite of the fact that she is one of their holy women, she did not succeed.

READING-ROOM.—The reading-room in the old chapel in the city has been open five evenings during the week, under the charge of a licentiate. Being quite close to the "hostel," or boarding-house of the Government High School, it is frequented by the students of that institution. There they have access to Christian books, tracts and papers, and also take part in the discussion of religious topics.

OUTSTATIONS.—The Rev. H. Goloknath and a licentiate have been stationed at Phillour, with a view to conducting evangelistic work from that as a centre, at such places as Bunga, Nawa, Shah and Rahon. Phillour is reported as an admirable strategic point from which a wide range of villages may be The work is among the low-castes, of whom several were baptized. Mr. Goloknath says:

Many people are ready for baptism, but I have intentionally withheld the ordinance, for it is no use baptizing them unless they are looked after. They are very ignorant, and need training. If a few are trained at first, our hope is that the more spiritual among them may eventually push on the work of their own accord among their fellow countrymen.

Bazar preaching has also been kept up in Phillour. Advantage was taken of the ferry train which crosses the river at this point to preach the Gospel to the passengers en route. As indicative of the courtesy extended to the preachers, they were allowed for several months to preach tended to the preachers, they were allowed for several months to preach from a prominent shop in the public market-place, and a native gentleman afforded them facilities for exhibiting the magic-lantern, illustrating Bible truth.

FAMINE RELIEF.—Jullundur was the most important centre for famine relief in the Lodiana Mission. Some 200 men, women and children have been employed, the expense being met by special funds sent through the Board's treasury from the "Christian Herald," and sources within our own Church. The workers at first were mainly Christians, but afterwards others were added, most of whom became Christians, by the blessing of God on the instruction which they received during their service.

LAHORE STATION.

The visit of the Rev. John H. Barrows, D.D., in connection with his course of lectures in India, is mentioned with grateful appreciation; his lectures and addresses in Lahore, as everywhere, giving no uncertain sound as to the unique position which Christianity holds among the religions of the world.

EDUCATIONAL. — The educational work at this Station continues to bulk larger than any other form of Mission work, because of the presence of the Forman Christian College. The report says:

This institution has now been in existence for nearly 12 years, and still supplies, we believe, a very great need in the capital of the Punjab. Its influence upon the people of Lahore, and to some extent upon the whole province, has already been great, and will increase from year to year. The objects for which the college was originally established were—(1) to bring the Gospel to bear on a class, the most influential class of the community, not easily reached in any other way; and (2), as a direct agency for the conversion of souls. These are the objects we have kept in view during the past year. There are those who suppose that a Mission College exists only for the purpose of giving to the people the benefits of a higher education in English; but we repudiate any other system than that which makes the conversion of sinners to God the chief end, and the other educational machinery subordinate to this.

With this in view, special emphasis is placed upon instruction in the Bible, so that a student taking the entire course comes to have at least a fair knowledge of the Scriptures. The roll for the year numbered 252, of whom 127 were Hindus, 77 Mohammedans, 31 Christians, 15 Sikhs and two unclassified. The educational results, as tested by University examinations, were not as satisfactory this year as usual. This, together with other untoward circumstances, greatly decreased the number of applications to the lower classes. Three Christian men were among those who took the B.A. degree last year. Some of the Christian students have done good work in conducting an evening service in the Forman Memorial Chapel in the city, and quite a number are also active in Y. M. C. A. work. Financially, the College has been a success, tuition fees and the government grant not only meeting all expenses save the missionaries' salaries, but yielding a surplus of Rs. 7,000, to be credited to the Board.

BOYS' SCHOOL.—The main School for Boys is the Rang Mahal, which reports an attendance of 526 students, and in its five branches 356, the total being an increase over last year of 106. The erection and occupancy of the new building for the main school is the most important feature connected with the work for the year, and cannot fail to add both to the healthfulness and efficiency of the school. In addition to the opening of religious services, the Bible is regularly taught every day as a part of the curriculum.

The Christian Girls' Boarding-school, under the care of an English Society, but co-operating with our Mission and receiving a small subsidy from the Board, reports a successful year, the 11 candidates for the University examinations passing creditably. A college class has been opened as an experiment, as the government declines to admit any young woman to the course of medical training until she has secured the degree of F.A.

Four Mohammedan girls' schools have been in operation, with an attendance of 120, and four Hindu girls' schools, with an average attendance of 150; the former under the superintendence of Mrs. G. S. Forman, and the latter of Mrs. A. Morrison. Good work has been done in all these schools, according to the testimony of the government inspectress.

WORK FOR WOMEN.—Twelve zenanas were regularly visited by Mrs. Datta, having a total of 18 pupils. Among these was the daughter of a Bengali gentleman, who seemed at one time to be at the very threshold of the kingdom, but was kept back by domestic difficulties. Of the work among the women, Mrs. Forman writes:

I have six zenanas in which I have pupils learning to read, but the work I enjoy most is among the poorer class of women, who sit in the courtyard spinning or embroidering leather. I always get a warm welcome from them, and they listen so attentively to the Gospel stories and hymns. I know you long to hear of some taking a decided stand for Christ (and how I long for it, too!); but though I cannot tell you of any, yet there is encouragement—even signs of awakening, I think.

Owing to the resignation of the pastor, the Hindustani Church was supplied by Mr. Griswold and a native minister. The usual services, including the Sabbath-school, with an attendance of 150, were maintained, and three persons united on confession of faith. It is earnestly hoped that the Church will secure another pastor in the near future. A most encouraging feature in this church is the increasing willingness of the people to engage in personal work for Christ, such as chapel-preaching and Sabbath-school work for heathen children.

EVANGELISTIC.—Preaching at the Delhi Gate Chapel, which is a room in the Dispensary, was maintained. It is situated where the great thoroughfare encircling the city is crossed by the Lunda Bazar. Many of the rougher elements of the As several of the down-town population congregate here. mosques are in the same vicinity, and the Mohammedan College is near by, it has been found no easy matter to preach the Gospel unmolested. Interruptions are quite frequent. These were borne patiently by the missionaries, until a professional agent employed by the Mohammedans made a persistent effort to disturb the services, when a quiet word to the police gave relief. Preaching in the Forman Memorial Chapel at the Lohari (blacksmith's) Gate, which has been continued for many years, is regarded as one of the best evangelistic agencies in the city. The better classes are reached here; such as clerks, students, lawyers and men of influence and wealth. Simple Gospel services are held almost every evening; but on the Sabbath, as that day is now a great national holiday in India, English service is held in the chapel for English-speaking natives, and is largely attended. Sabbath-schools for non-Christians are held in the Rang Mahal schoolhouse, and also in two of the branch schools, with an attendance of 150.

MEDICAL.—This work was seriously interrupted during the year by the fatal illness, first, of Dr. Isa Das, who died in May, 1897, and subsequently of his noble and competent wife, who died the following November. Both are spoken of as most earnest Christians and efficient colaborers in the discharge of their professional duties. A dispenser had been rendering temporary service until Dr. Emily Marston was transferred from Ambala City.

DISTRICT WORK.—By an arrangement of the Lahore Presbytery with the Mission and the Board, this work has now become the Home Mission work of the Presbytery, the Board giving towards the Home Mission Fund three rupees for one contributed by the churches. A force of 12 men, licentiates and catechists under the general superintendence of the Rev. Dharm Das, has opened work in eight villages, where there were small companies of Christians and inquirers residing. Seventy-four other villages were regularly visited by the workers, and 69 persons were baptized and 125 inquirers enrolled. The converts are all from the low-caste people. Village schools were also established, and care was taken to shepherd Christians who had been baptized from time to time by missionaries on itinerating tours, or in some of the centres of Christian work. The little Christian communities are being trained from the beginning in selfsupport, notwithstanding their great poverty, aggravated by famine conditions last year. By collecting handfuls of flour or grain, eggs, firewood, sugar-cane and such things, and in some cases money, they succeeded in raising Rs. 23, which was applied to congregational expenses.

LODIANA STATION.

CHURCH.—The Church at this station, which is self-supporting, gives evidence of life in the form of Christian activity. In addition to the usual lines of church work, it has founded the Victoria Home; being a house for widows, recent converts, the infirm and helpless, and those who may be temporarily out of employment. This was the method adopted by the church for celebrating the Queen's Diamond Jubilee. The Board granted a lot to the Presbytery of Lodiana to be held for the purpose, on which the church erected a suitable building, and became responsible for the support of the institution.

The Church Sabbath-school, which includes the boys attending the Boarding-school, numbered 244, and the non-Christian Sabbath-school, in which the teaching is done by the teachers in the boarding-school, numbered 110.

SCHOOLS.—The Christian Boys' Boarding-school reports an attendance of 78 boarders and 14 day-scholars. Tested by the government standard, the examination of work done in the school was most creditable. The religious atmosphere is good. "Character-building" is the grand aim of those in charge, and the results are encouraging. The industrial department is still in operation, training boys as tailors, shoemakers and carpenters—so many hours a day being spent at these several trades in connection with class-work in the school.

The City High School reports an average enrolment of 334, with 75 in attendance in three branch schools. This school is compelled to compete with three other high schools in the city, the outcome of the revival and reform going on among Hindus and Mohammedans. This school, with its branches, is supported largely by government aid and tuition fees, the Board giving but Rs. 1,450 ($483.00), while of this amount Rs. 840 are paid to a Bible teacher, whose sole business is to teach the Bible in the school. As a large number of the boys are from the villages, the school is regarded as an excellent evangelizing agency; the boys carrying with them to their homes the truth which they learn. Several day-schools for girls were also in operation during the year, with a fair attendance.

EVANGELISTIC.—Bazar-preaching in a large and comfortable building erected for the purpose, and where controversy is prohibited, has been continued with encouragement. An important evangelistic agency is the "Mu Af Shan," a religious newspaper published by the Mission. Four of our educated native brethren contribute regularly to its columns, while the editor keeps his eye on the "changing tactics of Hindu and Mohammedan controversialists," with a view to meeting them as far as may be deemed prudent.

Work among women has been prosecuted diligently by the ladies of the Station, not only in zenanas in Lodiana, but also in the surrounding villages and in more distant parts of the district. Miss Morris writes of difficulties encountered in itinerating, the Aryas circulating reports about medicines made from children's brains, heavy government fines to be levied on those who send their children to school, etc. On one tour, some twenty villages were visited, in some of which the missionaries were welcome; but from others they were driven by a crowd of men and boys, who mockingly besought the ladies to preach to them. There were those found, however, who gave respectful attention to the truth. After referring to treatment at the hands of a bigoted Mohammedan, the report adds: "We were smiled out, and sneered out, and frozen out, and cursed out; but still we want to go again." A number of women have been under instruction for baptism, one of whom was baptized.

OUTSTATIONS.—Khanna.—This Station is situated 20 miles southeast of Lodiana, and is under the care of the Rev. E. P. Newton and Mrs. Newton. It is a work largely among the Churas, of whom seven adults were baptized during the year. Mr. Newton writes:

During the cold season Mrs. Newton and I made a tour in the Samrata tahsil and in the territories of the Raja of Nabha, the Raja of Patiala and the Nawab of Maler Kolla. Our special aim in this tour was to visit the Satsangis (those of the true fellowship). By this term are to be understood the adherents of the sect which was founded, some 25 years ago, in Rampore by Bhai Hakim Singh. These persons profess to accept the main teachings of the Gospel, but are not prepared to receive baptism; professing, as they do, to have had the baptism of the Spirit, which they claim is sufficient. Their homes are widely scattered in villages lying within our district, and also far beyond its limits. We met almost invariably with a warm reception and a sympathetic hearing.

Frequent trips were also made among the villages within a radius of 10 or 15 miles from Khanna.

The Training-school for Village Preachers, established in 1894, is open during five months of the year, the object being to give a course of Bible instruction to men who are engaged in evangelistic or pastoral work during the other months of the year. Eleven students were in attendance.

Jagraon.—Next to Lodiana, this is the largest town in the district. It is situated in the finest grain-producing part of the Punjab, and the entire surounding country is dotted with large and prosperous villages. Of the 25,000 inhabitants, the majority are Hindus, although the Mohammedans are also strong. The work in the villages is reported to be encouraging, but the cut made it impossible to employ as many native evangelists as formerly. Preaching, however, was maintained at the city gate, and villages far and near were visited by the native agents, and also by Miss Wherry and Dr. Maud Allen. During the cold season the missionary ladies went from village to village, Dr. Allen's medical skill and tender ministries doing much towards opening the way for a patient hearing of the truth. Having failed until about the close of the year in securing a house in which to open a dispensary in Jagraon, Dr. Allen went from house to house with her little hand-case, and so opened the way for the Gospel message. Three schools were opened during the year, one of which, however, was soon broken up. Two ladies employed on the field have devoted their time to zenana and school work, with a varying number of pupils. There were four adult baptisms at this Station during the year.

Rupar, some 40 miles east of Lodiana, has been a centre of Mission work for many years; the efforts in behalf of the sweepers and other outcaste classes being more extensively carried on here and in the Morinda District than elsewhere in the Mission. A large number have from time to time been baptized by the evangelist, Rev. P. C. Uppal, and others, and now the Mission is face to face with the serious problem of how to train those who have become Christians, and how to instruct their children. Some 70 villages have been visited regularly during the year. Part of the time a class of six native workers was instructed by Mr. Uppal, so as the better to fit them for their work in the villages. Five candidates for baptism are reported from among the higher castes. Forty-three adults were baptized during the year.

Morinda.—In this district there were 11 adults baptized, all of the sweeper class, and many inquirers are reported. There are no less than four important centres of work within 12 or 14 miles of Morinda, where the Gospel ought to be more frequently preached. The entire number of baptized adults in connection with this Station, is 220.

SABATHU STATION.

The Leper Asylum continues to occupy a large share of the time and strength of the missionary in charge of this Station. The number of inmates reported is the largest in the history of the institution. It is gratifying to notice that 40 of them are professing Christians, of whom several were baptized during the year. The maintenance of the Asylum, aside from the provision made for medical attendance and religious instruction, is secured from sources outside of the Board of Foreign Missions, such as the Society for Lepers in India, with headquarters in Scotland, and gifts from private parties, native and foreign. Aside from the Asylum, the usual forms of Mission work are carried on, public services being held on the Sabbath at two places in Sabathu, and at a village outside. Twenty-eight persons were received on confession of faith. Daily religious services were maintained in the Leper Asylum. Work has been opened at Sain on the road to Simla, near which are many large villages. Preaching services and a school were also carried on at Solon. Two helpers with a magic-lantern made a tour of several weeks into some of the small native States in the Hill region. They reported having met with a cordial reception from both high and low. Dr. Carleton refers to a most desirable opening as follows:

There are two main roads from the interior which meet at Kalka at the foot of the hills; one of these roads passes through Sabathu, and the other about 10 miles distant. Along these two main roads thousands of pilgrims from distant regions, as Thibet and the surrounding Hill districts, come on their way to visit the holy places of India; and it is my desire that at two places on these roads a preacher and a helper be stationed, and if possible a small dispensary be located, in order that these pilgrims and travelers may be reached by the preacher with books and tracts.

Hospital and Dispensary work has been carried on at three centres, with attendances of about 15,000.

Work among the women in zenanas has been conducted by two Christian women at Sabathu, and another at Solon. A few girls also meet in the houses of the teachers for instruction.

SAHARANPUR STATION.

The closing of the Boys' School on account of the cut, after a continuous existence of 60 years, is the first thing which challenges attention at this station. It is regarded by the missionaries as a serious step backward, as they believe that their influence in the city has thereby been in a measure sacrificed to the detriment of Mission work in general. It is not without significance that the closing of the school was the signal for the opening of two others—one an Anglo-Vedic, by the Arya Somajh (a society noted for its hostility to Christianity), and the Sanatan Dharm School, or "School of Eternal Religion." In all other departments the work of the station has been prospered, notwithstanding enforced retrenchment.

CHURCH.—This church for the past six years has had its own pastor, and has increased its proportion of his salary from Rs. 14 to Rs. 20 per month, besides contributing for evangelistic and other forms of Mission work. The church numbers 117, 10 members of which were received last year. The Sabbath-school reports an attendance of 116, and there are three Sabbath-schools for heathen children, with an attendance of 284.

EDUCATIONAL.—Theological Seminary.—This institution is known as the Theological Seminary of the Synod of India, and is under the control of a Board of Directors representing the Lodiana and Furrukhabad Missions. Four men were graduated last year, one of whom in the high grade known as the Entrance grade. One of these has been called to the pastorate of the church at Sabathu. The examinations at the close of the sessions, oral and written, occupied 16 hours, and the Committee of the Board of Directors reported them as "very thorough and satisfactory." During the year the "Livingstone Taylor Memorial Hall," referred to in the last report, was completed and occupied, proving a great addition to the facilities of the institution.

The Boys' Orphanage and Boarding-school had an attendance of 92. The report says:

The year has been one of steady progress in industrial work and studies. The boys have cheerfully seconded our efforts to reduce expenses by doing more and more of the domestic work of the institution. In addition to what they have always done in this direction in the past, they now sweep and whitewash their quarters and do the whole of their own washing and cooking. A very considerable portion of the teaching has been done by the more advanced boys, and with excellent results. Two new industries are about to be added to those that have always been taught here. We are glad to say that three of our famine boys have been baptized since coming here. Others wished to be, but were advised to wait by the church session. Five of our old boys have also united with the Church during the year.

Girls' Schools.—There are seven of these; five being for Mohammedans, one for Hindus and one for low-caste children, having a total enrolment of 210. Some of the Mohammedan parents objected to their daughters studying the Bible, and finally withdrew them from the school, the study of the Scriptures being an essential part of the instruction given. One bright Mohammedan girl died, giving evidence before her departure of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, remarking on her deathbed, "I have no one to trust but Him."

Six native laborers have been working at the four outstations, at each of which there is the nucleus of a church, although no organization as yet. These agents reported between 30 and 40 villages visited in their neighborhood, with more or less frequency. They have not found a royal welcome among their countrymen, being very much ostracized because of their confession of faith; but, though sometimes cast down, they are not discouraged.

The Male and Female Leper Asylums, the former with 25 inmates and the latter with 11, are looked after by our missionaries, although the cost of maintainence is met by the "Mission for Lepers in the East," with headquarters in Scotland. All the women in the Asylum were baptized during the year. The Mission for Lepers is making provision to add to the number of houses for the women.

MEDICAL.—Since the closing of the High School, the building has been occupied for medical work. It affords excellent facilities for a hospital, were it deemed best to use them; but thus far only dispensary work has been undertaken, with from 40 to 50 patients each day, save in the more unhealthy season, when they averaged from 70 to 90. The dispensary work is preceded by three-quarters of an hour of Scripture-reading and instruction, and is followed by the distribution of tracts to all who can read. In this way much good seed is sown from day to day.

WOODSTOCK HIGH SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.—The changes in the principalship and the teaching staff in this school, because of the furlough and subsequent resignation of Miss Giddings; the resignation on account of ill health of Miss Davis; the marriage of Miss Hutchison and the withdrawal of some non-missionary teachers, made the school-year one of great difficulty. By appointment of the Mission, the Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Mc-Comb became joint principals, and entered upon their responsible position early in January, 1897, barely in time to get matters into shape for the new school-year. A glance at the catalogue shows the large variety of gifts required in the teaching force because of the Government standards, and the increasing demands for accomplishments by the patrons of the school. In meeting these requirements, however, it is not forgotten that the school is first and foremost a Mission institution, and that religious instruction must hold a prominent place. The report says:

The main object of a Mission school is to ground the pupils in the principles of the Word of God. This object has ever been before us. Prayers have been conducted regularly, morning and evening; on four days all the classes have a period of Bible instruction; on Sabbath, the pupils, except in stormy weather, attend the Sabbath-school and the preaching service held in the Union Church.

Other exercises, having the religious interest of the pupils in view, are conducted in the school.

One hundred and eight pupils were in attendance in all departments during the year. These departments, running from the F.A. grade down to that for small children, number no less than 11.

FURRUKHABAD MISSION.

ALLAHABAD: at the junction of the Ganges and the Jumna, 506 miles northwest of Calcutta; Station begun 1836; missionaries—Rev. W. F. Johnson, D.D., Rev. C. A. R. Janvier and Mrs. Janvier, Rev. J. J. Lucas and Mrs. Lucas, Rev. S. H. Kellogg, D.D., and Mrs. Kellogg, Rev. H. M. Andrews and Mrs. Andrews, Miss Mary E. Johnson, Miss Margaret J. Morrow, and Dr. Bertha T. Caldwell, Rev. John J. Caleb.

ETAWAH: on the Jumna, 30 miles southwest of Mainpurie; Station begun 1863; missionaries—Rev. John S. Woodside and Mrs. Woodside, Rev. A. G. McGaw and Mrs. McGaw, Rev. J. B. Ely and Mrs. Ely, Miss Christian Belz. Rev. Parm Sukh.

FATEHGARH-FURBUKHABAD: the former the civil station and the latter the native city, 733 miles northwest of Calcutta; Station begun 1844; missionaries—Rev. Henry Forman, Rev. John N. Forman and Mrs. Forman, Rev. C. H. Bandy and Mrs. Bandy, Miss Mary P. Forman and Miss Emily N. Forman. Rev. Isaac Fieldbrave, Rev. Mohan Lai.

FATEHPUR: 70 miles northwest of Allahabad, Station begun 1853; missionaries—Rev. J. M. Alexander and Mrs. Alexander.

JHANSI: 250 miles west of Allahabad; population, 52,000; Station begun 1886; missionaries—Rev. James F. Holcomb and Mrs. Holcomb, Miss Mary Fullerton and two lady assistants. Rev. Nabi Bakksh.

MAINPURIE: 40 miles west of Fatehgarh; Station begun 1843; missionaries—Rev. Thomas Tracy and Mrs. Tracy, Rev. Thomas Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell, and Miss Mary E. Bailey. Rev. Gulam Masth.

MORAR: capital of the native state of Gwalior; Station begun 1874; missionaries—Mrs. Joseph Warren. Rev. Sukh Pal.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Rev. J. J. Lucas and Mrs. Lucas, Mrs. J. M. Alexander.

MISSIONARY FORCE.—The changes in the force of this Mission have been few. The transfer of Mrs. Newton to Lodiana, because of health, has already been referred to. The Rev. J. J. Lucas arrived in the United States on furlough,—his family having preceded him,—and the Rev. J. M. Alexander returned to the Mission, leaving Mrs. Alexander in the United States for the present.

ALLAHABAD STATION.

CHURCHES.—The two churches at this station, located respectively at Katra and the Jumna, some three miles apart, report a year of average prosperity. They have a total membership of 145, of whom six were admitted on confession during the year. Growth in the grace of giving is noted as evidence of a developing spiritual life. It is to be regretted that both these churches are still dependent on missionaries largely for preaching. Each ought to have its own pastor without delay, supported by the people themselves in whole or in part. The Christian Endeavor Society of the church organized and sustained three heathen Sabbath-schools, one in the Katra school building and the others out from the centre.

SCHOOLS.—The Boys' High School at the Jumna had an attendance of 117, and the Middle School for Boys at Katra of 65. In the former decided progress has been made in strengthening the positive Christian influence by increasing the number of Christian teachers, who have taken the place of non-Christians. In the examination in the Scriptures for prizes, granted by the "Missionary Educational Union," three were taken by boys of the Jumna School—one of them, a Mohammedan student, the highest of all competitors in his department. The Katra School suffered to some extent by the resignation of the head-master, owing to threatened blindness.

The J. F. Seiler School for high-caste girls, under the superintendence of Miss Johnson, had an attendance of 24. Some of the brightest expect to be married shortly, and it is to be hoped that they may carry with them some of the precious truth which has been instilled into them during their school days.

The Christian Girls' Boarding-school at the Jumna, under the care of Mrs. John Newton and Miss Morrow, reports a roll of 79 pupils. The year has been uneventful, although one of satisfactory work both to teachers and pupils. Unhappily the health of Mrs. Newton has rendered her transfer to a more northern climate imperative; and, in view of the approaching furlough of Miss Morrison the school has been placed under the charge of Mrs. H. M. Andrews, whose long experience in India gives her great advantage in undertaking so heavy a responsibility.

EVANGELISTIC.—Regular preaching in the city chapel, located in the busiest part of the city, has been maintained, though somewhat irregularly, and a number of people of influence have attended frequently, some giving thoughtful attention to the truth. A month was spent by the Katra missionaries in itinerating among the villages, where they met with a friendly reception for the most part.

WORK FOR WOMEN.—Miss Johnson has continued her work among the zenanas, and took a prominent part in the itineration among the villages referred to above, meeting the women in their homes or under the shade of a tree. The reception was sometimes very cordial, at other times decidedly rude.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Caldwell, in charge of the Sara Seward Hospital and Dispensary, reports as follows:

The medical work has been full of rare and interesting experiences, and presented much subject-matter for study. Owing to the plague scare, our numbers in general attendance have not been up to those of last year, as the women were afraid to come lest they might be carried off to the segregation camp. The number of indoor patients has been nearly five times that of last year, owing to the famine, which brought us many different forms of disease, and owing also to the hospital being now more widely known. During the early part of the summer, I was much depressed by the number of deaths which occurred among the famine waifs, due mostly to scurvy, and to an almost fatal form of choleric diarrhoea. Sore mouths which baffled description and also medical skill, came to us in dozens from the Methodist orphanges; the disease being due to the terrible habit among the starved ones of eating animal and human excrement. We have noticed these children's rapid recovery with joy, only to be amazed at a sudden relapse and death, and not till we discovered that they were pounding old bricks into powder and eating it, or old bones into powder, and devouring it ravenously, were we able to check the relapses. Light foods, as sago, cornflour or soups made no impression on them, their stomachs craving the heavy, coarse foods. We have had many very interesting and some extremely rare operations this year, both major and minor, which would perhaps interest those only in medical work, and which could hardly find a fit place for description in a mission report. The Hospital has been closed only one day this year, and that was Christmas (Sundays, of course, excepted) for Dispensary patients. Our patients have come from Jhansi, Fatehgarh, Ghazapur, Buxar, Mirzapur, and other places, somewhat distant. As far as I have been able to find out, the Dispensary patients have come from 32 villages outside Allahabad and its outlying towns. Many have walked eight or ten kos twice a week for treatment. The statistics are as follows: general attendance, 12,079; new patients, 3,360; indoor patients, 256; visits to houses, 568; operations, 115 (major, 23; minor, 92).

Unusual encouragement is reported on the spiritual side. From among those who have come this year for physical relief, there are a few who have either found at the Hospital the remedy for sin-sickness, or who have been strengthened in their determination to stand up for Jesus. On the Sabbath after New Year, the Hindu girl of whom I spoke in last year's report was baptized and received into the Katra church.

Several instances are given of women who have either accepted the truth, or seemed to be standing on the threshold of the kingdom, but kept back by bitter persecution in their own homes, several being cruelly beaten by husband or mother-in-law. One poor woman was so beaten that she fled to the Hospital for refuge, her back being lacerated and swollen, all because she wished to confess Christ. The Hospital seems to be fulfilling its mission by ministering both to the bodies and souls of the perishing.

LITERARY.—Dr. Kellogg has devoted the entire year to his work of the revision of the Old Testament in Hindi; being unable, because of pressure in this direction, to deliver courses of lectures as in former years. The serious illness of one colleague, requiring his withdrawal from the Committee, and providential circumstances requiring the other to return to England within the next two years, have led the Committee to redouble its diligence so as to complete the revision within that time. Dr. Kellogg writes:

Since the last report rendered I have personally translated the following books, viz.: Judges, Ruth, 1 Kings, Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther and Job. According to my custom, each of these has been gone over three times; and I am glad to say that, by dint of working some extra time in Committee, all excepting 1 Kings have also been revised in Committee, and have been printed, with the exception of Job, which is at present passing through the press. Besides these, I have also revised Dr. Hooper's translations of Ecclesiastee, the Song of Songs and Daniel, all of which have also been put through the Committee and printed since my last report.

Dr. Johnson, in addition to the pastoral care of the Katra church, has completed and published his commentary on Jeremiah in Hindi—an octavo volume of 604 pages. Other books have been translated, and have been printed by the North India Tract Society; such as "Breaking His Fetters," a story of the spread of Christian truth in several Bengali families; "Landmarks of Ancient History," a Hindi translation of the late Mr. Ullman's parables, which were originally a series of magazine articles; "The Story of a Diamond," being a tale of life in Egypt and Mission work in that land; and a "Sanitary Primer" for village use, called "The Way to Health," translated at the request of the English Ladies' Society. Some books have also been published in the Roman Hindi character, among them "Some Words of Jesus." Nine tracts and booklets, varying from 25 to 127 pages, on such subjects as "Transmigration," "The Nature of Sinning," "The True Shaster," and "Stories of Many Races" have been translated and published.

Mr. Janvier has devoted a good deal of time to compiling a supplement to the Synod's Hindustani Hymn-book.

ETAWAH STATION.

Mr. Woodside, the missionary in charge of this Station till it was made over to Mr. McGaw, devoted a good deal of time to famine relief, aiding the government in its plan for providing for the starving, and using to the best of his abilities such opportunities for religious instruction as offered in connection with the work. The Church here is small, numbering but 38 communicants, of whom none were received during the year. Two small schools, numbering 20 pupils, have been in operation.

Preaching to the unevangelized in the city and in the district has been prosecuted with vigor. The annual "opium weighments," which brings a large number of people to the city, was taken advantage of by holding evangelistic services morning and evening for about a month. A number seemed impressed by the truth, but no immediate fruit was gathered. Work was also conducted in the city among the Chumars (leather-workers), the Korhis (weavers) and Mehtars (sweepers). In this work the Christian school-teachers were utilized, and, in order better to qualify them, a Bible-class was maintained during the Summer. This training had not only in view the immediate benefit of those instructed, but also the plan of sending these workers into the district to live as well as labor. Several native evangelists are laboring in the district, one having visited 34 villages, another with Mr. McGaw having visited a large number of villages within a radius of nine miles of Etawah. Grateful mention is made of the progress of the Etawah church in self-support, brought about in a measure by the severe retrenchment. An effort was made to call a pastor, but the people failed to agree. They made a small offering for the work of Home Missions in their own Presbytery during the year.

The Etawah district has a population of 700,000, and our small Mission force is the only evangelizing agency for these multitudes. What a summons to a forward movement!

WORK FOR WOMEN.—Miss Belz, with that fidelity which has marked her efforts for many years of uninterrupted service, has continued her self-denying labors among the women and children. Both high and low have heard the message from her lips during the hot season in Etawah, and during the cooler season in the villages. In the zenana schools under her care were 109 pupils, to whom the Gospel has been regularly taught. Miss Belz speaks of her work as largely that of seed-sowing, but she has not been without the joy of at least the first-fruits of harvest, as the following instance will show:

A Brahman woman in Hawali ka Nagra, in whose house I had taught some years ago, said to me, as soon as she saw me again: "The Word of Jesus Christ has entered into my heart; I trust in Him for salvation." She seemed to be very happy in the Lord Jesus; she could not find words enough to express her love to Him. Several other women of her family were present, and it seemed as if also the true Light was shining in their hearts.

FATEHGARH-FURRUKHABAD STATION.

These names represent respectively the civil station and the native city, some four miles apart. Each is a centre of important Mission work, both evangelistic and educational. Each has its own church, both of which have within the past year called pastors, promising to pay 12 and 13 rupees per month respectively towards the salaries, besides meeting all incidental expenses. This forward step was greatly helped by a series of special services held in both churches, where professing Christians were spiritually refreshed, and great stress was laid upon the duty of self-support.

EVANGELISTIC.—All the missionaries at the station have devoted a large amount of time to this form of work, Mr. John N. Forman especially having spent nearly three months in the district, which comprises no less than 4,000 villages. Some ten days were spent at the Makanpur mela in the Cawnpore district. The four outstations were also visited. These are found to be encouraging centres of district work, in one of them a daily market being held, and in the others a small weekly market, affording the opportunity of preaching to large numbers from the surrounding villages.

Not much bazar-preaching was undertaken; the efforts of the missionaries, especially Mr. Bandy, being directed towards the people in the Mohallas. On this point, the report states:

A mohalla is one of the subdivisions of a city or town, being either a street or a group of houses around an open plot of ground. In one mohalla you are apt to find people of one caste, though this is not necessarily the case. The special work has been in sweeper mohallas—these sweepers being of the lowest caste, or outcastes, in fact. They are scavengers, and make their living by cleaning the streets, cleaning private houses, and carrying manure to the field. They are not as poor as the lower castes of Hindus, and though much despised, they are not inferior to the Hindus in intelligence or character. Not being held by caste ties, they are far more easily influenced than the Hindus. The sweepers in this district are principally Lal Begis, and their religion resembles the Sikh religion. There have been 58 baptisms among these people in Furrukhabad, and about 18 in Fatehgarh. Efforts are being made to instruct the adults, and Mr. Bandy has a special boarding-school for boys, some of whom are decidely promising.

In conducting this low-caste work, great pains is taken to persuade the people to adhere to their usual vocations, and to impress upon them that confession of Christ is not to be understood as entitling them to pecuniary benefits.

Zenana Work has been conducted as formerly by Miss Forman, and efficient helpers employed by the Mission, including Miss Blunt, who has devoted many years to this difficult and somewhat discouraging form of Mission work.

Famine Relief Work, under the superintendence of Mr. Henry Forman, afforded unusual opportunities for preaching the Gospel to the poor and needy. The funds furnished from the United States were very carefully distributed—an average of 300 people being fed in the Mission Compound from day to day. Those who were able were required to do work, for which the small pittance necessary to keep them from starving was paid them. It would have been an easy matter to have baptized such people by the hundred, but the risk was too great. Later, however, quite a number of those who had been under instruction in connection with the famine relief were baptized, none of them being now in any measure dependent upon the Mission for support.

SCHOOLS.—The High School in Furrukhabad had an average attendance of 94, and the Government examinations showed commendable proficiency on the part of the pupils. instruction is given daily in each class, and on the Sabbath the school is almost transformed into a Sabbath-school, the large majority of both teachers and pupils being in attendance. Owing to the severe cut, four of the five vernacular boys' schools were closed, and one of the seven vernacular schools for girls. latter, 113 were in attendance. The Anglo-vernacular School for Christian Boys at Rakha—the part of Fatehgarh where our Mission work centres—was closed for a time on account of the cut. The attempt was made to continue it without a paid teacher, but it was found impossible. The Vernacular School for Christian Girls, at the same place, began with an attendance of 55, which increased to exactly 100. Most of these are from the Orphanage, and the increase is accounted for by the increase in the Orphanage from 45 to 103. A large number of orphans were sent from this district to the Punjab and elsewhere, where other Missions were glad to receive them.

The Training-school for Catechists, which is intended to fit young men from the district for taking up work among their own people, had an attendance of nine, five of them being men of considerable promise. During the year they were removed from the Mission premises to Furrukhabad City, so that they might engage in active work as well as in study.

Schools are also maintained at the outstations at Qamganj and Chhibraman, 100 being in attendance at the former and 35 at the latter.

FATEHPUR STATION.

There being no missionary in charge of this Station, the work was supervised by Mr. Henry Forman, who visited the Station regularly, directing the labors of the native helpers. There is a small Church of 14 members at the Station, and an earnest appeal is made for a missionary dwelling to take the place of one which is falling to pieces, so that the Station may be reoccupied, and the district comprising 750,000 people, and for which our Mission alone is responsible, may be more adequately looked after.

JHANSI STATION.

An important part of the work connected with this station during the year was that of famine relief, conducted mainly by Mr. Holcomb in the district, but in Jhansi participated in by the missionary ladies. Eighteen journeys were made into the surrounding country, 25 villages visited, and multitudes of the starving fed. The work extended from March to September, and covered, therefore, the hottest part of the year. It was conducted in such a way as to combine evangelistic with relief work, although the pressure upon time and strength to distribute relief judiciously and effectively limited the opportunities for preaching the Gospel more than could have been desired. Many, however, heard the truth for the first time, and, being in a frame of mind to appreciate the beneficent spirit of the Gospel, seed may have been sown which shall bring forth fruit.

In Jhansi, preaching was carried on in the bazar, although more in quieter places throughout the city and the suburbs. Services in the Church were conducted by the missionary, assisted by a native minister. One person united on confession of faith. The reading-room was open during the entire year, and the work of instruction and evangelization went quietly forward. Besides the Sabbath-school in the church, two were held in the city, one of them being in the poor-house, in which famine children collected to the number of about 60.

SCHOOLS.—The Girls' School on the Mission compound, under the superintendence of Mrs. Holcomb, comprises Bengalis, Hindus and Christians. This is believed to be not only an educational, but an evangelizing agency, as there is evidence that Gospel truth taught in the school abides and manifests itself in after-life. The Boys' Vernacular School, with 35 pupils, was in session during the year.

ZENANA WORK.—This has been conducted by Miss Fullerton, and also by Mrs. Seymour, the latter having been engaged in it for many years. Miss Fullerton has devoted most of her time to this form of work, spending from five to nine hours each day in it. No house is visited more frequently than once a week. Stress is laid on the evangelistic rather than the educational side of the work. Few forms of effort are more discouraging, so far as outward manifestation of success is concerned; and yet those who are engaged in it are always full of hope as to the ultimate outcome. Miss Fullerton says:

As to our success from a spiritual point of view, it is difficult to speak. We have some pupils of whom we are hopeful. They seem in many ways to give evidence of having experienced a change of heart; but we do not see our way clear toward urging them to leave their husbands and their children to come out and be baptized, especially since there is no provision made for their support if they do come out, and they are not able to earn their own livelihood.

In confirmation of this, Mrs. Holcomb writes:

Some of the women to whom instruction is given seem not far from the Kingdom of God. Of one such, Mrs. Seymour asked one day why, since she trusted in Jesus for salvation, she did not openly acknowledge her allegiance to Him. The woman sat silent a moment; then rising and crossing the room, she drew aside a screen which shielded from profane eyes the household gods. Pointing to them, she said: "These are the gods which my husband worships. A divided house in matters of religion would mean to me the loss of husband, of home and all of earth that I hold dear, and I feel that I have not strength for such a sacrifice!"

MAINPURIE STATION.

The absence of Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, during part of the year, because of the serious illness of the former, interrupted some departments of the work at this station. The same reason, doubtless, accounts for the lack of the usual annual report of these departments. Because of this lack, all that can be said of the High School for Boys, which has been in successful operation for many years, is that it has been conducted as usual during the year.

THE CHURCH.—Mr. Tracy reports that the church has made "a grand advance in comparison with the past." This seems to be largely in the line of fuller organization. A Christian Endeavor Society has been organized for young men and women who are members of the church. A helpful impulse was given by the presence of a native evangelist, the Rev. Ihsian Ullah, who conducted service for some days, greatly to the enjoyment and edification of the people. During these services, "much stress was laid upon the teaching of our Lord as to the marks of discipleship, and prominent among them was what He requires in relation to worldly possessions." The outcome thus far, in the direction of the consecration of substance, has been encouraging.

EVANGELISTIC.—Preaching on the streets of the city has not been as well attended as in former years. It is believed that the disheartened condition of the poor people because of the prevailing famine may have had something to do with it, as this form of service is attended mainly by the lower classes. and distress were everywhere manifest, and this constant thought for the body seemed to preclude thought for the soul." The chief work done in the evangelistic line during the year by Mr. Tracy was at the outstation of Shikohabad, some 30 miles from Mainpurie. The rest-house provided by the Board to enable the missionary to spend part of the hot season in superintending the district work has been completed, so that it is now possible to give closer supervision to that part of the work which seems to respond most readily to missionary effort. Shikohabad is a sweeper village, and the people worship in a small mud house with a thatch roof, native helpers ministering to their spiritual needs. It is here where the baptisms always take place, and in connection with a season of worship, to avoid what is believed to be an unwise and somewhat miscellaneous administration of the ordinance as practiced by others. The report says:

There have been no baptisms except from the sweeper casts. The number could have been considerably increased, but the greatest care is needed in receiving those who apply to us for this ordinance; for the people are very poor, and their hope for material benefit may have great influence in leading them to come to us.

WORK AMONG THE WOMEN.—We have no report from Mrs. Andrews or Miss Bailey, but Mrs. Tracy writes of her work as follows:

Here and there, as God opened the way, I have been feeding the starving and helping the discouraged; speaking words of cheer to the sick in the Hospital; visiting and teaching in the prison and, above all, through much Bible-study, seeking to lead our Christian women into deeper and more spiritual lives. Zenana-teaching has been kept up, and the number of pupils remains about the same; but, much more often than in former years, have we left these homes and wandered off into new places, that we might speak words of comfort to the weary ones. Were we ready to receive all who profess a desire to become Christians, we might have many baptisms; but, in these famine times, we need to be especially careful that a wish for support is not the moving power in the desire. In next year's report I hope to be able to tell of many who have stood the test and have been found worthy.

At this station, as elsewhere, much famine relief work was done by the missionaries—money forwarded from America for that purpose being disbursed by Mr. Andrews, treasurer of the Mission.

WESTERN INDIA MISSION.

KOLHAPUR: 200 miles southeast of Bombay; 45,000 inhabitants; Station work begun 1852; taken under care of the Board 1870; laborers—Rev. James M. Goheen and Mrs. Goheen, Rev. William H. Hannum and Mrs. Hannum, Rev. Galen W. Seiler and Mrs. Seiler, Mrs. George H. Ferris, Mrs. R. G. Wilder, Miss Grace E. Wilder, Miss Esther Patton, Rev. Shivaram Masoji.

RATNAGIRI: 80 miles northwest of Kolhapur; Station begun 1873; laborers—Rev. J. Morrison Irwin and Mrs. Irwin, Rev. Edgar M. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, Miss E. T. Minor, Miss Amanda Jefferson, and Miss Unsworth, Miss Annie T. Sharp, Miss Betteridge, and Miss Mary Ferguson, of the Zenana Bible and Medical Society.

PANHALA: 14 miles north of Kolhapur; Station begun 1877; laborers—Rev. L. B. Tedford and Mrs. Tedford, Miss Jennie Sherman, Miss A. Adelaide Brown, Miss Rachel Irwin, Rev. Satuba R. Ranabhise.

SANGLI: 30 miles east of Kolhapur; Station begun 1884; laborers—Rev. J. P. Graham and Mrs. Graham, Mr. John Jolly and Mrs. Jolly.

MIRAJ: 6 miles from Sangli; Station begun 1892; laborers—Dr. W. J. Wanless and Mrs. Wanless, Dr. Alexander S. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, Rev. G. H. Simonson, Miss E. A. Foster.

The Rev. R. P. Wilder and Mrs. Wilder, though not attached to any specific Mission, are under commission of the Board, Mr. Wilder being assigned to special work for young men in institutions of learning.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Rev. Robert P. Wilder and Mrs. Wilder, Rev. Wm. H. Hannum and Mrs. Hannum, Mrs. R. G. Wilder, Miss Grace E. Wilder, Miss Rachel Irwin, Mrs. J. P. Graham.

MISSIONARY FORCE.—This was augmented during the year by the reappointment of Mr. John Jolly and Mrs. Jolly for the industrial work at Sangli, the appointment of Miss Elizabeth A. Foster as trained nurse for Miraj Hospital, and of Mrs. E. M. Wilson, who had been connected with the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission. Rev. J. M. Goheen and Mrs. Goheen rejoined the Mission after furlough; and the Rev. Robert P. Wilder and Mrs. Wilder, Mrs. R. G. Wilder, Miss Grace E. Wilder and Miss Rachel Irwin returned to the United States on furlough. few exceptions the health of the missionaries has been good. Mrs. J. P. Graham, however, after bravely striving for a year or two to withstand the India climate, had to return home because of serious ill health. Mr. Hannum's family has been sorely afflicted in the death of their beloved child, Mary, while Mrs. Hannum has been ordered home by the medical adviser for treatment.

KOLHAPUR STATION.

CHURCH.—The church reports 116 communicants, of whom 18 were added during the past year. The average attendance was 250, and the adherents 235. Because of the distress occasioned by the famine, the year proved to be unfavorable for inaugurating the principles adopted the year before looking towards self-support. Steady progress has been made, however, in this direction. The Sabbath-school has had an attendance at times of 300, including teachers and scholars, and an average attendance of 219; the falling off in the hot months and during the festival seasons being marked. There are two other Sabbath-schools connected with this station, having but a small enrolment.

OUTSTATIONS.—At Wadgav and neighboring villages, there are 60 members and adherents, of whom seven adults and 11 children were baptized during the year. At Herale, about eight miles from Kolhapur, there are 69 members and adherents. The lay preachers connected with the outstations "have labored faithfully and efficiently through the year, each in a wide circle of villages around his outstation." These preachers not only preach the Gospel, but they administer medicines within a limited range to large numbers of patients, having rendered conspicuous service in this direction during the epidemic of cholera which swept over their fields.

EVANGELISTIC.—Open-air services in front of the Chapel in the city have been continued, and efforts have been made to reach men in the shops and elsewhere. Mr. Tedford and Mr. Seiler spent December in the northeastern part of the Kolhapur field, visiting 30 villages and preaching the Gospel by aid of the magic-lantern to many thousands. Mr. Hannum, with others, also visited 29 villages in the Kasari valley, southwest of Panhala, and made monthly visits to the outstations Vadagava and Mrs. Ferris refers to opportunities she enjoyed of Herale. speaking to many of the native chiefs and State officials at the Residency, who not only listened respectfully, but asked questions, as if to learn more about Christ. The sale of Bible portions in the city and the villages far and near has been continued, the colporteur going sometimes beyond the bounds of Kol-He reports earnest conversations with people in hapur State. the villages. The Bible-women, under the direction of Mrs. Seiler, have spent five hours daily in the city, going from house to house telling the story of God's love. They have added four or five new homes to their list of regular visiting places. Mr. Wilson taught a class of Brahman young men on Sabbath mornings in the Gospel by John.

SCHOOLS.—The Christian Girls' Boarding-school began with an atendance of 32 boarders and 12 day-pupils, and closed the year with 52 boarders and seven day-pupils, the average attendance being 47. The regular work was interrupted a little by moving into the Camp Hospital buildings while the dormitory of the school was being enlarged. This addition has added greatly to the comfort and convenience of the school. The cut on the Mission estimates necessitated severe retrenchment—which, however, was met in part by gifts from friends. Forty of the girls are supported by appropriations from the Board, and the remainder by the missionaries of our own Mission and the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission (English) of Ratnagiri. The average monthly expense of each girl in the boarding department last year was three rupees and 14 annas ($1.25). Mrs. Ferris and Miss Patton each devote part of their time to the school, being assisted by two native teachers and some of the older girls. The conduct of the girls is reported good, while there is a marked growth in grace in some. Several touching incidents are reported of girls from the famine districts, among which is that of two, Moena and Baiza:

Their mother died of cholera in the hot season, and they were brought to school in August, clothed in bits of her lugade. They said that even before the mother died, they did not have enough to eat, and she had only one lugade; so they took a piece of it to bury her in, and kept the rest to put on the little girls. Then a brother died, and they wrapped his body in the one blanket that they had; and after that there was nothing to eat and no clothing; the house was tumbling down and the father could get no work. When they came to Kolhapur, the father was employed on our Famine Relief work, and the children were put in school. Their care for and anxiety about their father was very touching.

VERNACULAR SCHOOLS.—The scarcity of food affected somewhat the attendance on the schools in Herale and Halundi, the children being required to do something towards securing the necessaries of life. Because of retrenchment, five of the schools in Kolhapur were closed, and two others were supported by Mr. Sciler About 80 boys attend the Shukravar Peth (ward) School, of whom 40 usually attend the Sabbath-school. The report laments that no conversions occurred in these schools during the year. On the other hand, there has not been wanting evidence of the value of these schools as evangelistic agencies. Mrs. Wilson, in speaking of the vernacular schools in Somvar Peth, says:

While in a house one day, a number of women gathered round. Among them was a girl about 16 or 17 years of age. After I had read a Bible story and explained it, I asked the people if they knew why Jesus Christ came into the world, and what he had done for us, and what he was to us. This young girl immediately answered: "Yes, He is our Saviour, and He shed His blood for us and died for us," and other things she told us that Jesus had done. She said that she had learned all she knew about Jesus in the Sombar Peth school some years ago.

A School for Outcastes has been held on the veranda of the best house in a little hamlet. The attendance was small part of the year, as the children had to go about the town sifting ashes and picking up broken food. The school for Mang girls, formerly under the care of Miss Wilder, was held on the veranda of the Mission bungalow, with an attendance of from three to At the outstation (Herale) there are four primary schools for boys. These were interrupted by the withdrawal of pupils to receive famine relief; but the teacher followed them to the relief works and continued the classes between the working hours. During part of the year, since the abandonment of the High School, Mr. Seiler taught English a few hours each week to a class of Brahman students. He also taught them the Gospel by Luke. Two months of the rainy season were devoted to giving instruction to a theological class by direction of the Presbytery. Seven students were in attendance from various parts of the field.

FAMINE RELIEF WORK.—When the pressure of famine began to be most keenly felt, the Kolhapur Station determined to make some provision for the Christians in the villages, who are very poor even in prosperous times. Under direction of Mr. Hannum, a hedge of aloes was planted around the greater part of the Mission Compound, some 30 people being employed about four months at an expense of Rs. 447 ($149.00), of which about Rs. 234 ($78.00) came from friends in Pennsylvania, the rest being contributions of the missionaries on the field.

It is expected that the hedge will not only be a protection against stray cattle and be somewhat ornamental, but also be the basis of a useful industry, the leaves of the plant being used by poor people for the manufacture of rope. It is estimated that the hedge will in time produce 200 rupees' worth of such material each year. Most of the persons employed were members or adherents of the church. Advantage was taken of the opportunity for giving them religious instruction. Mr. Hannum adds: "The close of the year has providentially brought the beginning of better times. There are some inquirers in the villages who, if they still persevere after the return of prosperity in seeking baptism, will probably soon be taken into the Church."

RATNAGIRI STATION.

It is still the day of small things with this station. The field is wide but difficult of cultivation, the people apparently being less easily impressed than those in some other parts of the Mission. It covers a large territory and includes a population of 1,500,000, in the midst of which our Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at work, except the Zenana Bible and Medical Mission is the only evangelistic agency at which we would be a second at the work at the work at the work at the work at the work at the work at the work at the work at the work at the work at the work at the work at the w sion, which co-operates with our force. As much of the territory is difficult of access by touring, an earnest plea is made for the establishment of two new stations, respectively at Chiplun, 50 miles north of Ratnagiri, and at Vengurle or Savant Vadi, 90 miles south, being large and important centres. It is suggested also that outstations be established at points 30 miles northwest, 30 miles south, inland, and about 75 miles south on the coast, and also at Goa, about 100 miles south on the coast. The report adds: "If we had this accomplished, we would but touch the fringe of our field of 1,500,000 of population."

The attendance at the Church was small most of the year, although, after the opening of famine relief, it was largely increased. The roll numbers 28, of whom eight, who were permanently located elsewhere, should be dismissed to other churches. Twelve inquirers are reported as under instruction, while still others profess themselves ready for baptism. In addition to doing something for self-support, the Church also helped the missionaries to meet the salaries of native helpers who would otherwise have been discharged on account of the cut. There are four Sabbath-shools connected with the station—one held in the church, and three branch schools. The attendance, though not large, is encouraging.

EVANGELISTIC.—A native evangelist has preached the Gospel in various parts of Ratnagiri and in adjacent villages morning and evening during part of the year, Mr. Irwin frequently taking his place while he was attending the theological class in Kolhapur. Another rendered faithful service in Vengurle outstation, a town of about 10,000 inhabitants, preaching both in the town and in the surrounding villages. Some of the ladies of the Mission, accompanied by native ministers, made quite extensive tours, of which Miss Minor writes:

Five different tours were made, which varied in length from five days to a month. In 127 different towns and villages the Gospel was preached, and several of these had more than one visit. Our aim was to visit the smaller villages rather than the larger towns, though the latter were by no means neglected. In order to visit these smaller places, much climbing over rough roads and steep hills was found necessary, as the Konkan villages are not very accessible. Many towns were visited which had never seen a missionary before, and in many places there was great fear of us.

In connection with this work a large number of books and tracts were sold and distributed, both in the town and in the district, during the year, tracts being furnished gratuitously by Mr. Price of the American Marathi Mission.

The Woman's Benevolent Society has been conducted by Miss Minor, the time of the meetings being occupied by Bible-study and sewing. House-to-house visitation and zenana work have also been maintained by Miss Minor and Miss Jefferson, and by the ladies of the Z. B. M. Mission, who most cordially co-operate with our missionaries.

SCHOOLS.—There are four day-schools in connection with this station, including a primary class for sweepers, maintained by one of the ruling elders of the church in his own house, the expense being borne by the church. Caste feeling and superstition have operated to some extent against the schools. Among other evidences of this is the fact that, among the girls in one of the schools, no weddings had taken place because of the position of the planet Jupiter, which makes it an unfavorable year.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Wilson spent but a few months at Ratnagiri, having been called to take charge of the hospital at Miraj, because the illness of Mrs. Wanless required Dr. Wanless to be absent. He, however, rendered some important service during his stay, which was supplemented by Mrs. Irwin, who had been sent out as a trained nurse, and who reports some 80 cases, for which she had prescribed, the majority being Hindus. The church has recently voted Rs. 50 as a voluntary offering towards the maintenance of Mrs. Irwin's medical work.

FAMINE RELIEF.—Miss Jefferson writes:

Seventy-two people have been engaged for a longer or shorter period on the relief work carried on on our compound during two months and a half of the rainy season. Whole families have come from surrounding villages and have camped out on our compound, cooking their meals in the open on a stove composed of three stones, and sleeping under a tree or on the veranda of the schoolhouse. The aged, weak and needy have been fed and to the poor the Gospel has been preached. One day, a woman with two children—twins, a boy and a girl—came for assistance. At a glance one could see the vast difference between the boy and the girl; the boy being well fed and healthy, the girl being neglected and reduced almost to a skeleton. I rebuked the mother for her partiality. She replied: "What could I do? After I had fed the boy there was nothing left for the girl."

PANHALA STATION.

Here, as elsewhere in this field, gaunt famine made itself felt, although not so severely as in some parts of India. For eleven months the destitute were helped by furnishing them work, which yielded a support of one pint of grain a day per individual, the grain being of the species of the sorghum found in our Southern States. The famine sufferers, who received but eight cents a day, quarried thousands of feet of stone, which was hauled to our Kodoli Mission premises, and hundreds of brick were molded and burned, the fuel being the Indian cactus, or prickly pear, which was dried with great labor. The people seemed touched by the tender sympathy and efficient help extended by the missionaries, saying again and again: "You have saved us; you have saved us!" A number who had been inquirers for some time have come out on the Lord's side. In relieving the famine-stricken, the Government built an excellent road from Kodoli towards the sea, and another towads Kolhapur, which makes communication with this outstation much more easy and comfortable.

CHURCHES.—These are nominally two, although that at Panhala has little more than a name to live, the Christians having removed elsewhere. The Ayattavadi-Kodoli church—one organization for two towns three or four miles apart—reports a roll of 95 adults, of whom 33 were received on confession of faith during the year. This is an encouraging record, being the most precious ingathering in the history of this station, and it is earnestly hoped that it is but the first fruits of a glorious harvest. The members live in eight different villages, within a radius of a few miles from Kodoli. The native membership contributed last year over 63 rupees for church support, and other steps in this direction were taken. There are three Sabbath-schools connected with the station—that at Kodoli being looked after by the missionaries, and those at other points by the native teachers.

EVANGELISTIC.—While at Panhala, Miss Irwin devoted most of her time to house-to-house visitation, especially in the villages below the fort. Although welcomed for the most part by the women, it seemed difficult to make an impression, the women responding sometimes. "No, no; there is no heaven for women: it is our fate!"

Misses Sherman and Brown, besides visiting several villages near Kodoli, devoted December and January to an extended tour, reaching 37 villages, the greater part of the time walking through fields, across rivers over dikes or dams, using the "horseless carriage"—men's hands—where there was no bridge. This was their method:

Pitch the tent, set up the baby-organ, open medicine-box—Miss Sherman is the amateur doctor of the firm. In the morning walk to a village, return to the tent for breakfast, talk and sing by the tent-door, or get a little rest at noon, if the villagers are not too curious; in the afternoon another village, ten miles a day, weary bodies, but very happy hearts; many careless hearers, but also thoughtful ones.

The native pastor reports that during the "rains" preaching services were held in the Mahar town-hall. There was also preaching in the potter's ward, in the highways, and in the tanners' ward. He says: "I go to the homes of Hindus who are inquirers to preach to them. I also go to the Christian homes. I have preached in 60 villages, going over and over in order to about 20 within six miles of Kodoli." He also preached in 24 villages in the Konkan, while the missionaries went far and near preaching the Gospel. In one village no cart could be obtained for the baggage of the evangelistic party. On being asked why they had no carts, the people replied: "We worship the goddess of carts, and she would be angry if we kept any." "What do you do when you yourselves need a cart?" "Oh, we hire from another village."

A good site for Mission work has been bought in Islampur, which the Mission is very anxious to occupy, and for the erection of a house on which funds are available, but with the present limited force, who is to occupy the new point?

SCHOOLS.—There are six schools connected with this station in four different villages. In Kodoli most of the older boys have been transferred to the Sangli Boarding-school, while the night-school there is attended by several young Marathis and others who have recently become Christians. There are two schools for girls in the same place, one for the Mahars with an enrolment of 34, and one for the Mangs with an enrolment of about 30, these being under the superintendence respectively of Miss Sherman and Miss Brown.

MIRAJ STATION.

The work connected with this station during the year centered largely in and around the medical department. Naturally the well-equipped hospital—the gift of a generous friend in the United States—was in turn the religious centre of this work, under the direction of Dr. Wanless, save during his absence, when Dr. Wilson took charge. Of no other medical work can it be more truly said that the missionary idea is ever to the front, the aim being to make every part of it tributary to the dissemination of the Gospel. Notwithstanding the quarantine regulations against the plague, which made access to Miraj during part of the year almost impossible, the record of work done is by no means small. The report says:

The total attendance of new and returning patients was 15,976. Of those treated 67 per cent. were males, 33 per cent. females, 17 per cent. were children under the age of 15 years. The following is the percentage of the different castes treated. Protestants and Roman Catholics, 6 per cent.; Mohammedans, 19 per cent.; Brahmans, 15 per cent.; Jains, ½ per cent.; other caste Hindus, 54 per cent.; low-caste Hindus, 5½ per cent. About 55 per cent. of those treated belong to Miraj city, and 45 per cent. were from outside villages. During the year 133 minor operations have been performed in the outdoor dispensary, and 365 major and minor operations in the Hospital, some 30 of which were cataract, making a total of 498.

Among these patients were a number of prominent men, including the native administrator of Jath, and men of high position from Sang Kolha and other towns. The Nursing Department, under the direction of Miss Sharp, of the Z. B. M. M., has had in training three or four native Christians, who give promise of efficiency. In addition to practical work they receive instruction in the elements of pharmacy, anatomy and physiology. A medical class has also been conducted by Dr. Wanless, Dr. Wilson sharing in the instruction for a time. It comprises five Christian students, four of them being Christian men of excellent character. The heavy demands of the government for native medical aid, with the inducements offered, made it impossible for the hospital to secure men trained elsewhere.

The report shows that the bearing of this medical work on the religious aspect of missionary service has been marked. It is worthy of note that, in the hospital, Brahmans and persons of other high castes have frequently occupied beds side by side with the lower classes; and it is mentioned as an indication of the disarming of caste prejudice that people do not object now so much as formerly to having their friends die in the Hospital. But the chief missionary element in the work is the opportunity afforded for the preaching of the Gospel in hospital and dispensary. Not only the physician in charge, but Mr. Simonson and Miss Sharp, together with native assistants, have taken great pains to publish the Gospel both to the dispensary patients from far and near and at the bedside of those in the hospital.

CHURCH.—The church is yet in its infancy, and has but 15 communicants, with about 20 adherents. The growth in spirituality on the part of the members, however, is noticed with gratitude. The Sabbath-school is really a Sabbath class, there being but 15 in attendance.

EVANGELISTIC.—In addition to the work done in hospital and dispensary, preaching has been conducted on the streets of the town, even the courtyard of a large mosque being used for this purpose without interference. Mr. Simonson, with Messrs. Graham and Seiler, visited towns and villages north of Sangli, returning among those to the east of Miraj and Sangli. Enemies were busy reporting that the object of the missionaries was to poison wells, so that people did not give them a cordial welcome. Elsewhere, however, they were willing to listen patiently to what was said. In most all villages there were Mussulmans stumbling at the divinity of Christ, Jains offended by Christians who are careless of animal life, and erring philosophers whose pantheistic theories leave them no place for sin or guilt.

SANGLI STATION.

The return of Mrs. Graham to the United States, because of a depleted nervous condition, threw the entire burden of the responsibility of this station on Mr. Graham, who, however, was greatly aided by his daughter, who has been employed by the Mission as an assistant. For one man to be principal of a boarding-school, stated supply of a church, treasurer of a mission, superintendent of vernacular day-schools, and itinerating preacher, is certainly approaching the impossible. Each department of the work, however, seems to have received a fair share of attention.

The Church is still but a feeble band, numbering but 27 communicants, with an average attendance at public services of 100. No conversions are reported for the past year. It is gratifying to learn that, with one exception, the members of this church who belong to Sangli are not at all dependent upon the Mission for their support, but earn their daily bread in the ordinary walks of life. The Sabbath-school, with a membership of 175, is greatly helped by the presence of the boys from the boarding-school, although the closing of one of the girls' day-schools because of the cut has affected seriously the attendance of girls.

EVANGELISTIC.—Three native ministers, one of whom is also a teacher, devoted a large amount of time to preaching in Sangli and the surrounding villages, and a faithful Bible-woman did much house-to-house visitation. Mr. Graham spent January with two native helpers itinerating in the district north of Sangli. The magic-lantern was used with good results, even on a moonlight night, by taking advantage of the shade of a banyan or other tree. Another tour was made through the towns lying west of Sangli.

SCHOOLS.—Boys' Boarding-school.—The year opened with 62 names on the roll and closed with 68, each of the Mission stations being represented in the number. A rigid examination showed very commendable progress on the part of the pupils, when estimated by the number who were passed from the lower to the higher standards. An earnest plea is again made for the enlargement both of the dormitory and the schoolhouse. The reasonableness of this plea will appear when it is stated that "the average space for a boy when all are lying on the floor (they have no beds) is less than five feet by two. The classes overflow from the scholhouse into the missionary dwelling, the veranda, and another building not at all suitable for school purposes." The reappointment of Mr. Jolly to the Industrial Department of the school will increase rather than diminish the demand for enlargement.

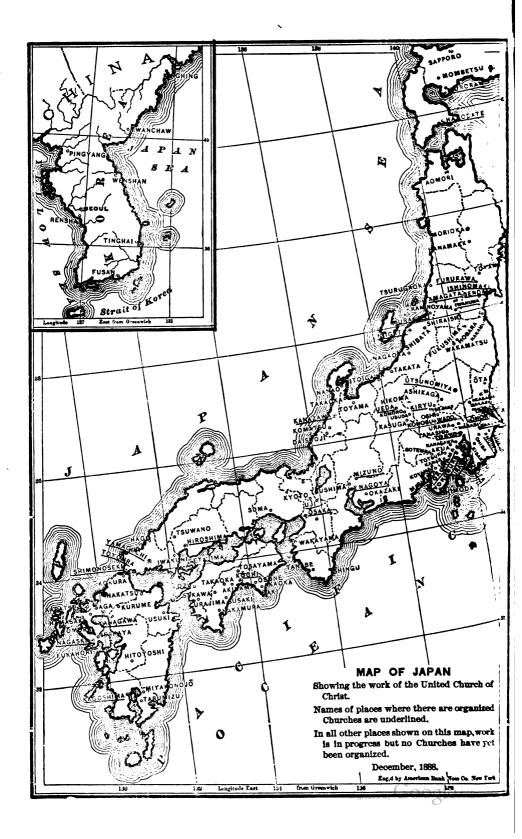

Owing to the severe cut, but two vernacular schools have been in operation instead of six reported a year ago. In the school for "good-caste Hindu and Mohammedan boys," the pupils are required to purchase their own books, except the readers and the books containing the prescribed course of religious instruction. The readers are supplied by the Missions, as they prefer the publications of the Christian Literature Society, but do not wish to compel non-Christians to purchase them. Were the books not given gratuitously, the boys and their parents would prefer the readers of the Government series. A small monthly fee for tuition is charged, but enough to give some financial aid, while at the same time maintaining the principle of self-support. The other vernacular school is in the Mang Wadi (ward). It holds its sessions on the veranda of a dwelling-house, and is attended exclusively by the children of Mangs, "who are a very low-caste people, and have the reputation of being thieves by profession and nature." Still the Mangs of Sangli probably know more Christian truth than any other class of people. When the day of awakening comes to India, we hope that many will come forth from these degraded and despised people.

MISSIONS IN JAPAN.

The year 1897 has shown substantial progress in the Mission work in Japan. In some particulars, the year 1896 fell behind the year 1895. There was a decrease in the number of conversions, and the total number of the Protestant Christians diminished from 38,710 for 1895, to 38,361 for 1896. During 1897, however, there were 3,062 adult conversions, as compared with 2,513 for 1896; and the membership of the Church increased to The organized churches, which had dropped from 426 40,578. in 1895 to 378 in 1896, rose to 384. The number of missionaries diminished from 680 to 652, while the number of Stations where missionaries are resident increased from 130 to to 146, and the outstations from 716 to 739. In spite of the increase in prices due to the adoption of the gold standard and of the temptations to secular employment, the number of native ministers increased from 281 to 302, though the native preachers and helpers fell off from 610 to 580. According to Mr. Loomis' table, from which these figures are taken, the contributions of the native Christians during the year rose from 60,504 yen to 81,551 yen. The largest gain in church-members was in the Nippon Sei Kokuway (the Episcopal Church) from 6,337 to 8,349. The Kumiai (the Congregational Church) advanced from 9,863 to 10,047. The American Methodist from 3,524 to 4,387. The Church of Christ from The largest number of conversions, however, 10,538 to 11,108. was in the latter—774.

Christianity has steadily strengthened itself in the Empire, and in the midst of the religious unrest and moral uncertainty of the nation, is sounding forth a clear and positive message. The liberal wave seems to be subsiding, and both preachers and people are exalting Christ and the truths of the Gospel. revision of the treaties and the approach of the date at which the revised stipulations were to go into effect abolishing the right of extra-territoriality, acknowledging Japan's tariff autonomy, and opening the whole country to foreign residence and trade, made the Buddhists especially over restive, and their leaders have tried to prepare the people for the influences which they fear will be fatal to the old, childlike superstitious life of the country folk. From the Shinto point of view also, Christianity has been antagonized as unpatriotic, and the Christian's belief that God is supreme has been denounced as inconsistent with proper loyalty to the Emperor as the Son of Heaven.

The chief foe of Christianity, however, has been the intense industrial spirit which has developed. "The predominant trait of the day is individualism, "said a leading Japanese in Tokyo, to one of the Secretaries of the Board, "the aristocracy of money. The trader used to be despised. He was below the artisan and the farmer. Now, in the estimation of the people, the great merchant is above officials." "The spirit of money-worship is our most formidable foe," said another. "The people are mad for money—to spend on food, drink and pleasure. We are becoming a grasping nation." "No," said others, "the nation sees that wealth is the secret of national power, and that manufacture and trade are the secret of wealth. We would be a great nation. To be a great nation, we must be rich." This materialistic spirit is dominant. It affects the question of self-support obviously, and it woos young men away from the humble service of Christ. It even makes it difficult for the government to recruit the police service. This spirit received such expression as this in a Japanese magazine last summer:

There is nothing that country (America) is unable to buy or undertake to do from the lack of funds. Their eyes are widely open to mone, making; to them money-making is the standard of everything. Carlyle's areasm on the English people, "whose hell is the want of money or the failure to make money," is very true of the American people, and here is a certain charm in that. They are eager to make money and enrich the country, hence there are magnificent educational and charitable institutions and industrial progress. Doubtless it is this money-making spirit that made America what it is now. The Japanese spirit of looking ahead and grasping the newest things in the world cannot be satisfied elsewhere as well as in America. To-day, whichever way we may turn, we can see the influence of American progress stamped in the Japanese material civilization. Then, remembering this fact, if Americans will concentrate their interest, time and money that they have to spare to Japan, in the industrial, commercial and agricultural lines, they will give a lasting and permanent influence to Japan, and one that will be more benefit to them than the missionaries' attempt to save sous and to give them the promise of bliss in heaven hereafter.

The following table will show the rapid growth of Japan's foreign trade:

In the Church of Christ and the Missions co-operating with it, the two great questions of the year have been: the problem of co-operation and the matter of self-support. At the meeting of the Synod in Tokyo last July, the following action was taken with reference to the first of these questions:

That whereas, a co-operating Mission is one that plans and executes all its evangelistic operations through a committee composed of equal numbers of the representatives of a Mission working within the bounds of a Presbytery of the Church of Christ in Japan, and of members of said Presbytery; be it

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed to consult carefully with each Mission having hitherto held co-operative relations; and, further, that if it appears necessary to the committee, it shall have power to call a special meeting of the Synod.

Regarding the second question, the Synod adopted a resolution proposing that the members of the Synod should agitate the matter of self-support with a view to putting all churches on an independent basis within two years. After the Synod adjourned, the missionaries belonging to the seven Missions co-operating with the Church of Christ met at Karuizawa, and took the following action with reference to the Synod's resolution on co-operation.

WHEREAS, the Synod at its late session in Tokyo adopted a minute in regard to the matter of co-operation between the Presbyteries and the Missions, stating what, in the opinion of the Synod, constitutes co-operation, and appointed a committee of seven to conier with a similar committee of the Co-operating Missions on the subject; be it

Resolved, That, in view of individual and widely differing responsibilities, co-operation is, in the opinion of the Council, best carried out where the Japanese Church organization in its sessions, Presbyteries and Synod, directs all ecclesiastical matters, availing itself of the counsels and assistance of the Missions or Missionaries as occasion arises; while the Missions direct their own educational, evangelistic and other missionary operations, availing themselves likewise of whatever counsel and assistance they may be able to obtain from their brethren in the Japanese Church; and that, under the circumstances, it does not seem best to enter into co-operation as defined by the Synod, but to recommend (to the several Missions) that a committee be appointed of one from each Mission to confer with the committee of the Synod in a spirit of fraternal good-will for the purpose of communicating the opinion of the Council, and endeavoring to promote a better understanding on the subject of co-operation.

At the same meeting of the Council, after a prolonged and thorough discussion of the question of self-support, the following resolutions were proposed and agreed upon:

(1). That all Missions co-operating in this Council make it a rule not to aid financially any Church organized hereafter; and that, in concurrence with the recent action of the Synod on this subject, we earnestly labor and pray for the entire self-support of all organized Churches now receiving financial aid from the Missions within the next two years.

(2). That, in aiding companies of believers, both such as are connected with organized Churches and such as are not, the Missions adopt a uniform rule of not paying rent or incidental expenses a uniform rule of not paying rent or incidental expenses.

(3). That all new work, and as far as practicable in already existing work, the Missions be urged to make a trial of Dr. Nevius' methods in the general work of evangelization—employing fewer workers, paying no rent or incidental expenses, and by grouping Christians into circuits to make the work entirely self-supporting from the very start.

(4). That in all cases churches and preaching-places receiving Mission aid shall be required to fill out a monthly blank, showing membership, attendance, amount and sources of all money received, and the manner in which the same has been expended and that this blank be a uniform property of the company of the same has been expended.

form one for all the Co-operating Missions.

(5). Finally, that the Council appoint a standing committee of three members, on self-support, to which any matter relating to the subject may be referred, and which shall report to the next meeting of the Council.

The work would now seem to be on a better basis than for years, although there is need of care and constant prayer for the Mission and the Church, that the Missions may be wise and that the Japanese Church may be obedient to the spirit of God, and accomplish the mighty mission which God has for it in Asia.

EASTERN JAPAN MISSION.

YOKOHAMA: on the bay, a few miles below Tokyo; mission begun 1859; missionaries—Miss Etta W. Case and Miss A. F. Ballagh.

Tokyo: the capital of Japan; station occupied 1869; missionaries—Rev. David Thompson, D.D., and Mrs. Thompson, Rev. T. T. Alexander, D.D., and Mrs. Alexander, Rev. William Imbrie, D.D., and Mrs. Imbrie, Mrs. J. M. McCauley, Rev. H. M. Landis and Mrs. Landis, Rev. Theodore M. MacNair and Mrs. MacNair, Dr. D. B. McCartee and Mrs. McCartee, Mr. J. C. Ballagh and Mrs. Ballagh, Miss Isabella A. Leete, Miss Kate C. Youngman, Miss Annie R. West, Miss Bessie T. Milliken and Miss Sarah Gardner.

HOKKAIDO: Sapporo—Sapporo is the capital of the Hokkaido (Yezzo), 550 miles north of Tokyo; station occupied, 1887; missionaries—Rev. George P. Pierson and Mrs. Pierson, Miss S. C. Smith and Miss C. H. Rose.

IN THIS COUNTRY: J. C. Hepburn, M.D., and Mrs. Hepburn, Mrs J. M. AleCauley and Mrs. T. T. Alexander.

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Mr. MacNair writes:

My work has continued to be that of preaching in Tokyo and vicinity, and the completing of an exposition of Genesis and the carrying of the same through the press. The book would have been finished by this time but for my recent illness, which interfered with proof-reading, and so with the work of the printer. It will be issued in February, and will consist of about 1,200 pages (9x6), together with a specially prepared map. In evangelistic work I have given the most of my time during the year to the Churches and preaching-places in the province of Chiba.

In Niigata several Normal School students have become interested in Christianity, but were forbidden to attend Church services on pain of expulsion. After Dr. McCauley's death, his evangelistic work was largely added to Dr. Thompson's, who has continued his supervision of native evangelists, and reports 13 baptisms at Stations under his care where there were no ordained native workers. Of course, all the evangelistic work of the Tokyo missionaries has been through the Church of Christ, which numbers, among its members in the Tokyo Presbytery, some of the strongest Christian men in Japan. Mr. Ballagh has conducted preaching during the year among the students of the Fukuzawa University.

EDUCATIONAL.—No report has been received from the Academical Department, which is under the care of the Board of Directors. Dr. Imbrie writes of the Theological Department:

At the commencement in the spring, twelve students were graduated. Nine of these are now engaged in evangelistic work. Of the remaining three, one is teaching, one is employed in a newspaper office, and one is a clerk in a bank. This was not a matter of choice, but of necessity. They were unable to optain work in connection with either the Church or the Mission.

The number of students now in the school is 15—three seniors, five middlers, three juniors and four specials. Five of these are new students. So far as can be ascertained, there are three reasons for the small number of students now in attendance: (1). The additions to the Churches during recent years have been few in comparison with formerly, and particularly is this true in the case of young men. (2). The openings for business of various kinds are many and attractive. (3). The uncertainty of employment in evangelistic work after graduation.

JOSHI GAKUIN.—One hundred and twenty-three girls were in attendance during the year, the school closing with 101, 69 of whom were boarders. Forty-seven of the girls were Christians, and there were seven baptisms during the year. The lower grades of the school were dropped in order to give more attention to the upper classes, which have been of greater interest and popularity. During the year, the Department of Mathematics, heretofore in the hands of a man, has been filled by one of the school graduates, with the best results. Miss Milliken's report adds:

The great typhoon in early September did us but little damage. Did the elements feel we had suffered too severely from the "cut" to endure farther violence?

There were four graduates in March, all of whom are now engaged in teaching. Letters from the "old girls," scattered through the length and breadth of the Empire, show that many of them are busy as teachers, while some are engaged in Christian home-making.

BIBLE-SCHOOL.—Miss West reports, for the school which has been under her care and Mrs. MacNair's:

We closed the year with 13 students, although there have been 21 in the Bible-school this year. In July a class of five graduated—one the wife of an evangelist.

As we reported last year, 13 candidates were refused, and only those admitted who seemed adapted for Bible-women's work, or promising enough to take on trial.

We have found—by long experience—that older women who have hard struggles with first efforts in regular school-life at advanced age, after a term of discipline which calls forth latent powers and develops new, make excellent workers.

We have never known a year of more harmony in the home-life, or more steady spiritual growth.

The school in Shinagawa under government license has been supervised, as before, by Mrs. MacNair. One hundred and forty boys and girls have been enrolled, all but three from heather homes. Mrs. MacNair writes that they have been taught the Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments, the Apostles' Creed, a number of Christian hymns, and are familiar with Bible stories from the days of Adam to those of Paul. The total expense of the work has been $170.00 from America, besides what is given by the families of the children, poor as they are; being road-diggers, jinriksha-drawers, cobblers, and very small shopkeepers.

Mrs. McCauley's School, Keimo No. 2, Mrs. Thompson has cared for. Two hundred and ten pupils have been enrolled when the school was fullest. In both these schools Bible sessions are held on Sunday, and Mrs. Thompson reports also a weekly meeting for women, a prayer-meeting, and house-to-house visitation, "all to extend and make permanent the work in the school."

GENERAL.—Miss Youngman reports that "the Lord has blessed the efforts of His servants in the conversion of some souls in every one of the departments" under her care. After Miss Davis' return to America, Miss Ballagh removed from Yokohama to assist Miss Milliken and Miss Gardner in the Joshi Gakuin, though continuing still the school for poor children, with a daily attendance of 30 in Yokohama, the parents of the children entreating her not to give the school up, and drop the children down into what they had been lifted out of. Miss West reports from the Shiba Sunday-school:

In October we had the great joy of seeing three of the pupils, fine young girls, just entering womanhood, received into the Church on confession of faith.

And of her interesting Hospital work, adds:

This visiting in the Hospital has been of constantly increasing interest. Some who had known many months or even years of weary suffering, found peace and rest in Jesus our Saviour, and spent their last days in quiet hope, at last passing away without that fear of death which is so strong in the heart that does not know our God. One of the oldest women, a woman of rare tact, deep sympathy and devoted spirit, has gone weekly "as a friend" to help confort and cheer the sick, and has followed into their homes many who have tasted enough to long for more of the Bread of Life.

There are other faithful native workers who need to be remembered in the midst of the distress that is somewhat felt by the native Christians. Miss Gardner writes of one of them:

It is joy when associated with one such worker as she to see, as in her case, how constantly the Holy Spirit can use one who is lovingly submissive to Him. Even, when, for a short time, laid aside by an illness so severe as would have caused others to think only of their own sufferings, she improved every opportunity for doing her Master's work; telling the attending physicians and nurses of the hospital of Jesus, and sending messages and leaflets to the patients in her own and neighboring wards.

Dr. McCartee has been working on the task assigned him by the Mission of reporting on the Chinese characters found in the Japanese version of the Bible, and suggests that this may be the last and crowning work of his life. "If I can do it well," he adds, "I shall be content."

YOKOHAMA STATION.

Miss Case writes:

We have been passing through a conflict with reference to the existence of our Mission School, and rejoice in the result. Our weapons have not been of a material nature, but by faith, hope and love we have prevailed and re-established our school, which has been for years dear to many hearts.

With a Board of seven qualified teachers for the 216 pupils, eight students were graduated from the Koto course, and 30 from the Jinjo department at the end of the school-year. During the past three months the tuition fees have exceeded the sum of $214.00, making the school, aside from rent, entirely self-supporting.

The Shiloh Church registers 250 communicants, to which were added during the year five by letter from other Churches, and five by profession of their faith.

Fourteen trips were made by the foreign teacher and a Bible-woman to the Naval Hospital at Tokosuka, where over 4,000 tracts and copies of the Gospels were distributed.

The day-school becomes a Sunday-school at two o'clock each Sunday.

THE HOKKAIDO.

The Hokkaido is the northern island of Japan, the least developed section of the country, corresponding to our great West. Mr. Pierson indicates the general character of the field in his report:

Three facts are always before us: (1). The interior of this island, one-sixth of the area of the Empire, and as large as Shikoku and Kyushu combined, is absolutely wild forest and prairie land. (2). The people are coming in from the south by the thousands every year. (3). Buddhism is active, and the new colonist communities find themselves facing the unique necessity of settling on a religion.

Connected with the Church of Christ in Japan is the work conducted in ten places on the Island. In seven of these places there are Church buildings, three of which are the homes of organized Churches.

In Otaru, more than half of the 1,000 yen used in constructing and furnishing the building, was raised by the 30 or 40 believers in that city. In Monovan the believers number less than twenty, yet they contributed 200 to 300 yen, with which an excellent site was purchased, graded and faced with stone.

Abroad, my work has been a monthly trip alternately to each of the two sections into which our field is geographically divided. Such visits, I have found, afford continuous opportunities for evangelizing people—on the cars and stages, on the sleighs and boats, on the mountain-roads and by the sea. Tracts have been used extensively.

There have been some trying experiences during the year: (1). The resignation of three of our evangelists, all, I believe, however, with the intention of always doing evangelistic work, only seeking self-support.

(2). The lax observance, on the part of some of our Christians, of the Sabbath—offset, however, by the consistent keeping of the day sacred on the part of others. (3). Because of the authority of un-Christian parents to compel the divorce and remarriage of a Christian son or daughter, the difficulty of maintaining the sacredness of the marriage tie. But against all this, is the present opportunity for winning men to Christ wherever one goes.

Mrs. Pierson reports women's meetings, house-to-house visits, a young women's sewing society working in connection with the Women's Charitable Society of Sapporo, which consists of members from five different Churches, Sunday-schools, a Bible-class meeting once a week, with ten pupils from the Agricultural College in Sapporo. In the Sapporo Girls' School Miss Smith reports a registration of 107 pupils, including some small children, who could not be admitted to the government schools for want of room. Six united with the Church during the year, and others are delayed until they are a little older.

At Otaru Miss Rose has enrolled 70 pupils—40 since the boarding department was disbanded. In connection with the Sumiyoshi Sunday-school, Miss Rose reports crowds of people as listening at the open door, ready to receive Christian tracts.

WESTERN JAPAN MISSION.

KANAZAWA: on the west coast of the main island, about 180 miles northwest of Tokyo; station occupied, 1879; missionaries—Rev. Thomas C. Winn and Mrs. Winn, Rev. W. Y. Jones, Rev. Harvey Brokaw and Mrs. Brokaw, Miss F. E. Porter, Mrs. L. M. Naylor, Miss Kate Shaw.

OSAKA: a seaport on the main island, about 20 miles from Hiogo; station occupied, 1881; missionaries—Rev. B. C. Haworth and Mrs. Haworth, Miss Ann E. Garvin, Miss Alice R. Haworth, Miss Emma A. Settlemyer.

HIROSHIMA: on the Inland Sea; station occupied 1887; missionaries—Rev. Arthur V. Bryan and Mrs. Bryan, and Rev. J. W. Doughty and Mrs. Doughty.

Kyoto: station occupied 1890; missionaries—Rev. J. B. Porter and Mrs.Porter, Miss Martha E. Kelly.

YAMAGUCHI: occupied 1891; missionaries—Rev. J. B. Ayres and Mrs. Ayres, Rev. S. F. Curtis and Mrs. Curtis, and Miss Gertrude L. Bigelow, Miss Mary M. Palmer.

KYOTO.

After the fearful accident which befell Mr. Porter two years ago, when, with his bicycle, he fell over a cliff on the Japanese coast, it was feared that he would be unable to resume his work. Instead of this, however, he has steadily recovered strength, and has been for some time carrying on his important work as efficiently as ever. The work in his district has been reorganized during the year; the number of evangelists being reduced, and a larger amount of itinerating work expected of them in line with the action taken by the Council of Missions. Mr. Porter regards the results as most satisfactory. The Kyoto Church has had four Evangelistic work has been carried on at three accessions. points in the city, with two kindergartens and a woman's meeting; and work has been carried on at the outstations Tsunga, Obama and Kumagawa, with prospects improved since the plan of localized evangelists has been abandoned. Mr. Porter writes:

At both Kuwaguwa and Obama, where there are meetings at all, they are held in private houses, without cost to the Mission; but we do not insist on having meetings, if we can get opportunities of teaching individuals.

Of the Kindergarten under her care, Miss Kelly reports that it has won the good will of the neighborhood:

The appearance and manners of many of these dainty little people indicate that they have not played in the streets, or been knocked about by ruder children; and one meek little face came from the home of a Buddhist priest. The daily Bible lesson seems as enjoyable to them as their games. I wish their seniors knew as much of Joseph, Abraham and of Jesus as these little ones know!

Work in the homes and for the mothers is, perhaps, the most difficult and discouraging branch of the work. We are in a weaving locality, and mothers as well as the fathers and every child able to work are at the looms; and one feels as though you were interfering with the earning of daily bread to stop their work for a call. After calling in the homes of many of our children, I find that many of them come from just such homes. Sometimes the call must be made at the door, but oftener we are cordially welcomed in. Our repeated invitations to meetings and preaching are of little avail with the older, busy people; but we get the older children to Sunday-school, and some of the older sisters, and occasionally a mother, to the meetings for women.

The married women attending are very few and irregular, but we are gradually getting a regular attendance of girls, from 15 to 20 years old. For them we have classes in whatever industry within our knowledge that may attract them, with singing and Bible instruction.

Miss Kelly is also carrying on a most interesting night-school:

My classes now number 31 pupils. During the year there has been a total enrollment of 121. Many of them are from the higher schools; also merchants, government official, and a Buddhist priest.

My Bible class on Sabbath afternoons has increased in proportion to the increase of the school. A number of these pupils are studying regularly and faithfully, with an evident desire to understand and believe. These classes, therefore, are not without encouragement. In July, three of the pupils of the school and Bible class were baptized, all of them testifying to having received their first influence towards Christianity from the school.

OSAKA STATION.

Mr. Haworth writes:

During the year I have administered the communion service fourteen times, assisted in ordaining and installing three pastors, an elder and a deacon, and in the licensure of one evangelistic helper, and in the organization of one Church, performed one marriage ceremony and baptized 37 persons. Of these baptisms, four were in the North Church (Osaka), 14 at the Fukushima Kogisho (Osaka), one at the Je Nan Kogisho (Osaka), one in Sakai, 16 in Yawatahama, and one in the Ozu Church. I have made four evangelistic tours.

Some of the incidents recorded on one of these tours through the field of Fukui Station are indicative of present conditions in Japan:

Now that the railroad has penetrated this benighted, this stronghold of Buddhism, we may hope for a great change. In other parts of the country, the railroad has proved a powerful path-opener for the Gospel. A few years ago, the great city of Nagoya was as much under control of the conservative, Christian-hating Buddhists as Daishoji now is, and missionaries used to have a hard time to get a hearing there. But the opening of the Tokaido Railway line has changed all that, and to-day the Christian religion is making rapid headway in that important city.

As an instance of the profound antagonism to Christianity in Daishoji, I may mention the treatment which the Evangelist's children meet at the hands of other children at school. They are persecuted in every conceivable way, the teachers taking no measures to prevent it. For example, they are often compelled to leave uneaten the lunch they carry to school, or to eat it stealthily in some filthy place, so relentless are their persecutors. To be known as a Christian boy or girl in Daishoji involves hardships and terrors not known to an American child. Sometimes other children have begun to come to the house of the evangelist, in a quiet way, to have a little Sunday-school. But no sooner is the fact known, than they are set upon with persecution by the juvenile rabble at school, and are made to suffer the same persecutions which the Nagoa children have so long endured. I sometimes wonder at the faithful loyalty of this little man of God in the midst of the social ostracism and persecution which he has met for so many years. But he seems cheerful and full of hope, and I am sure God will one day crown his labors with success.

If we were disposed to use money to purchase Christians, we might gather followers even in Daishoji and vicinity. Mr. Nagao told me of a man, chief of a village, who offered to bring his whole village of thirteen families over to Christianity if Mr. Nagao would pay 50 yen per family. For 650 yen (about $325.00 gold), a whole village could have been converted! But, on being told that we do not pay men for becoming Christians, this would-be convert became a bitter opponent of the faith. There are also a few renegade Christians in Daishoji—people who have been expelled from the Church for gross sins, who are now actively propagating falsehoods about our religion and deceiving many.

The work in Toyama is hopeful for the reason that the opposition is stirred up, and people want to hear what it is all about. The time will come, I believe, when we shall see splendid results for the long years of sowing in tears and waiting in that city, on the part of our missionaries and native helpers.

In various parts of the country, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the First Protestant Church in Japan was celebrated in October. Mr. Haworth writes of the celebration in Osaka, which took place at our Girls' School:

This was but one of the many similar meetings held in all parts of Japan on the 10th of October, in commemoration of the completion of the first quarter of a century of our Presbyterian Church history in Japan. The occasion has been seized by the native Church leaders for a series of evangelistic rallies for the purpose of quickening the interest of the members in their Church, and arousing them to special efforts for the conversion of the nation. In Osaka, the four Presbyterian Churches and the members of the various chapels (preaching-places not yet organized into churches) combined in celebrating the birth of Japanese Presbyterianism, holding the meeting in the chapel of our Mission School, and using the beautiful grounds for their games and social enjoyments after the formal service was ended.

Should the Church make the same rate of progress during the next twenty-five years, there will be a mighty host of Presbyterians in Dai Nippon when they come to celebrate their semi-centennial.

EDUCATIONAL.—At the Naniwa Girls' School there was an average attendance during the year of about 30. The school suffered severely from the resignation of Miss McGuire on her return to America, and the departure of Miss Thompson on account of ill health. Miss Settlemyer, however, was transferred from Kanazawa, and Miss Garvin gave the school the time which an accident prevented her giving to the evangelistic work. Miss Haworth, who has now assumed responsibility for this school, writes:

If the Christian influence of the school could be supplemented by direct personal work in their homes, this desirable result could be secured; but, for lack of a missionary worker to take advantage of such openings, there is loss at this point. It is a lamentable fact that, for want of sufficient force, this form of work has scarcely been attempted since the school was opened ten years ago. The school opens a fine field in this direction. Fifty homes at least will admit with great effect, if she is prepared for it, one in connection with the school, and hardly any pupils in actual attendance, with four teachers.

There were 11 graduates, or promotions, in March. In the two day-schools now operated by the Mission in this city, there are 150

There is a class of 13 or more young ladies, who meet daily at one of the schools to learn sewing and other accomplishments. These have been called upon to give the graceful Ceremonial Tea (a fine art in Japan), and by such means they are led from purely heathen influences into Christian surroundings, and not infrequently into the Church.

In Sakai, a suburb, a hopeful kindergarten has been established, and in many communities the people urgently desire the opening of such work.

WOMEN'S EVANGELISTIC WORK .-- Miss Garvin made a three weeks' tour in the Yamaguchi field after the last Annual Meeting, but met with an accident to her ankles, which has since prevented her walking. She has still encouraged and supervised the women's work in the two Osaka Churches. "It seems to me," she writes, "that we should, as a rule, discourage the employing of Bible-women in organized Churches, where there are even moderately capable women among the members, lest we defeat our own object and hinder rather than help their spiritual growth." All the interior furnishing of the new church building was bought from the women's fund." At Osaka, women who could not be reached otherwise, were brought in when the "mother" chord was touched.

I helped them start a women's meeting a year ago; but it was seldom we could get people out. Often we three had prayer, and went home with nothing further accomplished. But later, by changing the name and calling it a "Mother's Meeting," we got together once a month a roomful of some of the most intelligent women in the town.

HIROSHIMA STATION.

The local work of the Hiroshima Station is under Mr. Bryan's care, while Mr. Doughty has been responsible for the country work. Mr. Doughty reports, for the whole Station:

During the past year there has been no very marked change in our region, but we rejoice in an increased attendance upon chapel-preaching, a more respectful hearing, and a larger number of inquirers.

We lost several baptized members. The reason for this is that most of our inquirers are "transients,"—clerks or officials in the government service, railroad, telegraph or post-office,—and are often transferred. As has often been explained, such people are peculiarly susceptible to the Gospel from the fact that they are away from home or birthplaces, and where friends and surroundings are not a hindrance. But as they are a shifting material, it is a difficult matter to build up an organization with

As to the heavy "cut," the Station regards it as a real benefit:

(1). In bringing home to the consciousness of the native Church the fact that the present aid system is abnormal, not permanent, and indeed is likely to be cut off entirely in the near future. No amount of talk could ever have done this, but the painful effects of reduced aid could not be misunderstood. (2). As a consequence, the Church has been led to consider in earnest some plan whereby the Church can be maintained without foreign financial aid; I mean (3) the Mission has been brought to realize that it can get along on less money.

After the visit of Mr. and Mrs. Speer and Mr. Grant to the Station, Mr. Doughty reports:

The pastors and elders came to see me, and said they had decided to organize a Young Men's Christian Association, and requested me to take charge of an English department, and to teach the Bible to a class of these young men on Sunday. I gladly consented to help them, and took charge of the English department, but being absent so often on Sunday in the country renedered it difficult to comply with the second request. The Society was organized at my house immediately after the Summer vacation, with a membership of 30, and perhaps as many more have joined since. The pastor and elders make up the officers, as experience has proven to them, in a previous association, that the pride born of a little rank, which such a position confers, is entirely too much for the good of the young men themselves. The institution has not prospered to the extent that its increase in membership would seem to indicate, as the additions, as well as most of the original membership, was due to the desire to study English.

I have devoted a good deal of time and strength to this matter, and am now quite hopeful that some substantial members will be added to the Church as a result, for a number of the members of the association have become inquirers.

In the street-chapel preaching has been carried on, and large audiences have listened quietly and respectfully to the doctrines, such as teaching about the Cross of Christ, which formerly excited their rage or derision. In the Hiroshima field, as in the Kyoto, a smaller number of helpers has been used to cover a larger territory, with happy results. At Mihara, a typical country town of 10,000 people; at Takehara, 12 miles across the mountains, a very old town of 7,000 people; at Onomichi, an outstation of 17,000 people; at Fukuyama, a city of 16,000 people; and at Iwakuni, a quiet, unprogressive place of 9,000, the Gospel has been preached during the year. Much of this section of Japan is sleepy and comatose. Of one inquirer at Onomichi, the report says:

He is an old Chinese teacher, or rather I should say a teacher of Chinese, who I should judge is nearly if not quite sixty years of age, and it is an interesting study to watch his efforts to grasp Christian ideas. One of the saddest features of missionary work among a heathen people is this lack of power to see spiritual truth and to understand spiritual language. They are like a shipwrecked mariner on a desert island, who has forgotten the face of his father, and no longer remembers the language of his native land.

At Iwakuni there are three interesting inquirers, the eldest over eighty years of age, and the youngest fifty, and a leper.

YAMAGUCHI STATION.

During the year Mr. and Mrs. Curtis returned to the field from their furlough, and Miss Palmer came at the close of the year from Kanazawa to assist Miss Bigelow. During the absence of Mr. Curtis and Mr. Ayres, Dr. Alexander and Mr. Doughty looked after the evangelistic work and workers. The heavy "cut" forced the Yamaguchi Church to relinquish all Mission assist-The pastor is now living on a salary of one-half what he received heretofore, which he supplements by rice received from an estate of which he is an heir. There have been six additions to the Church during the year. The front of the church building has been arranged with sliding doors, so as to open directly to the street, and serve as a regular preaching-place and place for conversations about the Gospel. Among the attendants on the preaching services have been detachments of students from the Buddhist Middle School of the Yamaguchi prefecture. Many baptisms are reported in the large field included in the Yamaguchi Station, although in many places the people are slow and conservative. "Wherever the railroads go," Mr. Curtis writes, "they seem to be the means of the furtherance of the Gospel through awakening the people to break through the crust of indifference." Of the work for women and children, Miss Bigelow writes:

In Yamaguchi we find two quite encouraging facts: there is a revival of the desire for education among young women, and young mothers are becoming accessible through the kindergarten. There are openings such as were never known before.

The kindergarten has enrolled 19 pupils, many of good families, whose mothers often visit the kindergarten, while the teacher visits their homes.

The Kojo Jo Gakuin (Castle of Light) has enrolled the names of 33 pupils, 14 of whom were Christians. Twenty-six are in attendance now. of whom 18 are boarders. The dormitories and dining-room are more than full.

One pupil was graduated, but continued in the school, taking a post-graduate course, and assisting in teaching and housekeeping. The Commencement exercises were very successful, the leading men of the town being among our visitors.

This is the youngest school of the Mission, but we have now reached the point where we can see results, and we thank God and take courage. The blessed lights and shadows of this year have each been stronger than usual, but, on the whole, it has been the best year of the school's history.

KANAZAWA STATION.

In the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Winn, the work has fallen largely on new missionaries. There have been eight baptisms during the year in the two Churches, which have been put under the care of one preacher. An interesting tour was made over the field by Messrs. Honda and Uemara, the ablest men in the Methodist Church and the Church of Christ in Tokyo, under the auspices of the Evangelical Alliance. Kanazawa has about 1,500 students in its higher Government schools.

Among these there seems to be a deepening interest in the study of Christianity. In the highest Government School this year there are ten Christians, some of whom are zealous believers. There are a number of students who are showing considerable zeal in studying the Bible. Also this year, from English Bible classes, there have been gratifying results. The baptisms are chiefly from those who have been in our school. While there is no marked change, there seems to be more of a will-

While there is no marked change, there seems to be more of a willingness to investigate Christianity, and students are feeling that their education is incomplete unless they understand the teachings of the new religion.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Kanazawa Boys' School has been discontinued by the Mission, but has been taken up by the native brethren, the Board of Japanese Managers assuming responsibility for it, and the Bible being taught to every student and Japanese.

Girls' School.—The Kanazawa Girls' School closed the twelfth year of its history in March of the present year. Three young ladies were graduated in the Japanese department, but none this year in the English department. The enrolment for the year has been 40, but on account of sickness, removal and other causes, the number at present is only 30. The reaction against the higher education of women seems to have reached its limit, and the tide is again turning in its favor. A new impetus being given to the study of English in view of the new treaties, the schools seem gradually regaining their former popularity, and an increase in numbers may reasonably be expected from this on. A number of changes have occurred during the year in our corps of teachers. They are all now, with the exception of the writing and sewing teachers, professing Christians, and we sincerely hope it may be possible in the early future to employ only Christian teachers. Among the many blessings of the year for which we have to be thankful is the return, to the school as teachers, of two of our graduates. Having had the advantage of farther study in the Joshi Gakuin in Tokyo, and several years' experience in work in other places, they are especially fitted now to assume places of trust and responsibility in the school.

The societies connected with the school have contributed freely this year to various benevolent objects. A contribution of eight yen was sent to the famine sufferers in India, the girls greatly rejoicing in the thought that the amount, small as it seemed to them, would save the lives of four persons till the next harvest-time. They have made monthly contributions to the incidental expenses of the Church, in addition to the regular subscriptions of those who are members of the Church. They have given some aid to the poor, and have recently sent a little contribution to a new Church that is being built in the island of Yezo, the home of a former pupil.

The success of the industrial department in the school continues encouraging. Through the kindness of friends on both sides of the sea, we find a ready sale for all the embroidery the girls can do. We are very hopeful that in time we may make this department entirely self-supporting.

CHILDREN'S SCHOOL.—Fifty-three children have been enrolled, three of whom have received baptism during the year. Miss Porter writes of openings to homes secured through the school:

Through one little girl's love for this school I have gained an entrance and a warm welcome into a home, where until now, the truth was unknown. Even the old grandfather, who is about eighty years old, is willing to read the Bible when I go to visit them. The attendance has been confined in the Sunday-school to the children of our day-school most of the year, because we cannot have any regular attendance from the pupils of the Government schools since opposition to Christianity has been so strong in them. Even children from homes where one or both parents are Christians are greatly influenced by this opposition, and do not want to be known as attending our Sabbath-school.

Mrs. Winn's Orphanage.—During the Summer application was made by the officials of the Kanazawa Prison, asking that the orphans of convicts, and children having been imprisoned whose sentences had expired, be admitted to this home. As there was one vacancy, it was decided to allow one child to enter, so that we might be able to make a trial of such characters, and allow the prison officials to see the result.

On the strength of the kindness shown, the officials promise that soon we may hold Christian meetings in the prison. One thing seems apparent—that the Orphanage is a concrete example before the Japanese, showing what Christianity does, and that the impression is constantly deepening their interest in Christianity.

EVENGELISTIC WORK.—At Toyama, the report states:

The order at the meetings is worthy of remark. Mr. Toda gives, as the probable explanation, that the mounted police, from the highest to the lowest, ten men in all, are studying the Bible and English with him privately. In the Methodist preaching-place they are much disturbed by noise.

In the city of Toyama, and also Takaoka, there is a great deal of anti-Christian sentiment. At Daishogi Mr. Noyes and his family have suffered much persecution. First, he could find no one who would sell him provisions, and he was denied the privilege of getting water at the public well, unless he went at the dead of night. His children are still persecuted at school.

In the Women's work, some opposition has been encountered at Hashigejo Mura. At this place, Mrs. Naylor writes:

We spent the night with the only Christian family in the place. The wife, who had but recently been baptized, was already learning what it meant to suffer for Christ's sake. Returning to her father's home on a visit, she had been kept there by force, and every possible effort had been made to compel her to give up her faith. We were glad to learn afterwards that she had been allowed to return to her husband's home, and that she had not been persuaded to give up her faith.

FUKUI STATION.

Mr. Fulton sets forth the general popular attitude toward Christianity on the West Coast:

The mind of the people is much more concerned with other things than with religion. This fact has been specially noticeable during the past year. The enlargement of the business interests of the country, the political situation, internal and external, and the hard times, are among the causes which have, here as well as elsewhere, robbed the people of their intrest in religious things. The near approach of mixea residence also seems to be constantly in the minds of the people. They expect, without warrant, as it seems to us, that a great many foreigners will come into this region to engage in business and manufacturing, since this is one of the chief silk-producing districts in the country. Hence their minds are occupied in getting ready to meet this state of affairs. On the one hand, the craze for English has returned with all the fervency of ten or a dozen years ago. Were the missionary so disposed, he might append all his time, from morning to night and from night till morning almost, in teaching English.

Again the Buddhist priests have taken the alarm, and are exerting themselves considerably to warn the people against having anything to do with Christianity, when mixed residence takes place. Foreigners will come, they say, bringing their religion with them, building Churches everywhere, and there will be great temptations to neglect their old faith. This is the substance of a great deal of the preaching that the priests are doing now, we are told. They are also scattering broadcast a tract, written along this line by a prominent Buddhist father in Tokyo. Although the priests have succeeded in stirring up the people in some places, yet there has been no outbreak of opposition anywhere. A general spirit of indifference prevails, and it is difficult to get an audience of anything but the passers-by. The problem now is to break through this crust, and create an interest in things moral, spiritual and eternal.

This attitude has naturally affected the work. "A whole year has passed without a convert. There are at present no applicants for baptism, and no inquirers who evince any real desire to take up the Christian life. I do not htink we have had to make such a statement to the Mission before, since the opening of this Station. It is with regret and sorrow and searching of heart that we make it now. We might offer extenuating circumstances, but the fact remains."

At the street chapel the attendance is irregular, the audience being mostly of chance comers, depending upon circumstances and the weather. Very few can be persuaded to enter, the audience standing in the entrance, or sitting upon the benches placed there for their accommodation. At times not more than a dozen or so are present, and again as many as 50 or 60 are listening attentively.

"We also carry on blackboard preaching at this place. A blackboard is hung out in front, a text written on it, with additional comments, which a great many persons stop to read in passing."

Here and there there has been a brighter outlook. At Maruoka, "the chapel is situated on the main thoroughfare, and a notice placed out in front for a few hours is sufficient to collect quite an audience. Here, too, no one will come inside; but we have quite a large entrance with benches arranged, and besides the whole front of the house can be taken out, allowing us to face the assembly and preach to them the same as if they were to enter. We have a few friends like Nicodemus in this place, and some of the old inquirers before the persecution are beginning to come forth again. An old man, living about two miles distant, has been attending the services—walking in every time he knows of the meetings, although he is over seventy years old." Whatever the outlook, however, there is no discouragement. "To sum up the work of the year, we feel that although results in the number of converts are disappointing, yet the Gospel has been preached widely, and a great many people have heard it—some little, some more. We or others will reap the fruit of this sowing sometime, somewhere."

KOREA MISSION

MISSION IN KOREA.

SEOUL: the capital, near the western coast, on the Han River and 25 miles overland from the commercial port, Chemulpo; Mission begun in 1884; missionaries—Rev. H. G. Underwood, D.D., and Mrs. Underwood, Rev. D. L. Gifford and Mrs. Gifford, Rev. S. F. Moore and Mrs. Moore, Rev. F. S. Miller and Mrs. Miller, C. C. Vinton, M.D., and Mrs. Vinton, O. R. Avison, M.D., and Mrs. Avison, Misses S. A. Doty, C. C. Wambold, Ellen Strong, and Georgiana Whiting, M.D., E. L. Shields, E. H. Field, M.D., Miss Margaret Best.

FUSAN: on the southeast coast; occupied as a Mission station 1891; missionaries—Charles H. Irvin, M.D., and Mrs. Irvin, and Miss M. L. Chase, Rev. Cyril Ross and Mrs. Ross.

GENSAN: on the northeastern coast; occupied as a Mission station 1892; missionaries—Mr. J. S. Gale and Mrs. Gale, Rev. W. L. Swallen and Mrs. Swallen.

PYENG YANG: missionaries—Rev. S. A. Moffett, Rev. Graham Lee and Mrs. Lee, J. Hunter Wells, M.D., and Mrs. Wells, and Rev. Norman C. Whittemore, Rev. Wm. B. Hunt, Rev. W. M. Baird and Mrs. Baird, Miss Mary Alice Fish, M.D.

Tagoo: missionaries—Rev. J. E. Adams and Mrs. Adams, W. O. Johnson, M.D., and Mrs. Johnson.

In this Country: Rev. D. L. Gifford and Mrs. Gifford.

While foreign nations have been striving the past year, with doubtful advantage, for ascendency in the political affairs of Korea, the kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ, which makes for righteousness of character and nobler manhood, has made certain and significant progress among the Korean people. With humble gratitude to God does our Mission there recognize the fact that, though their number has been sorely diminished as against former years,—several of their most experienced members having been absent on furlough, while ill health has curtailed the efficiency of others,— yet the work of the Spirit of God has not been diminished in extent or power; on the other hand, His blessed energy has been the more abundantly manifest. The constant effectiveness of Gospel truth seen in the steady and rapid increase of believers in Christ, the indubitable marks of a radical change in the lives of many of these Korean confessors, and their very obvious growth along the best lines of Christian character, all bear most refreshing testimony to the abiding power of "the old, old story of Jesus and His love." The missionary record of previous years in Korea, as we know, has been remarkable, but the history of the past year has exceeded that of any former year in actual results, and this increase seems to have been limited only by the ability and time of the spiritual husbandmen in preparing the way for the operations of the Holy Spirit. In view of this rapid growth of the Church in Korea, it is a matter of rejoicing to the Board and the Mission that it became possible to send out this year an unusually strong reinforcement of missionaries. Not only have Mr. Moffett, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, and Miss Doty returned to their respective Stations reinvigorated in health by their furlough, but several new missionaries of much promise have received appointment and joined the Mission. Rev. Cyril Ross and Mrs. Ross have been assigned to Fusan, to take the place of Rev. J. E. Adams and Mrs. Adams, who have gone to open a new Station at Tagoo, an important city some 100 miles to the north of Fusan. Dr. W. O. Johnson and Mrs. Johnson are to be associated with Mr. and Mrs. Adams at Tagoo. Rev. W. B. Hunt and Miss Margaret Best have been appointed and assigned to Pyeng Yang. Miss Esther L. Shields and Dr. Eva H. Field have received appointment and assignment to Seoul. Miss E. I. Shields is to take Miss Jacobson's place as trained nurse in the Hospital. Dr. Mary Alice Fish has been appointed, but not as yet assigned. The appointment of so many new missionaries, at a time of so great stringency in the Board's finances, was only possible through the special contributions of quite a number of large-hearted men and women in the Church, who have thus devotedly marked their desire to hasten the triumph of our Redemer's kingdom in Korea. Verily, they shall not lose their reward!

Mr. and Mrs. Baird, who last year were at Seoul, have been transferred to the northern field, with Pyeng Yang as their Station.

Both the Board and the Mission have taken great satisfaction from the visit of Mr. Speer to Korea. He was able to devote the month of August last to this Mission, visiting the most of the Stations, and attending the annual meeting at Seoul a part of the time. The report made by him, of his observations on the field, has aided much to a more complete understanding of the actual conditions of this intensely interesting Mission. Mr. W. H. Grant, who has been again on a tour among the Missions of the far east, for personal study, joined Mr. Speer on his visit to Korea, and his companionship and assistance were highly appreciated, as was his presence and counsel by all the missionaries with whom he came in fellowship.

In reviewing the history of Korean evangelization, we note that, while in the previous year the northern part of the field about Pyeng Yang was the centre of the most remarkable development, during the past year a most notable growth has been witnessed in and around Seoul, the national capital. Of Dr. Underwood's report on this section of the work, which was read at the annual meeting in August, covering a period of ten months, a veteran missionary of another Board, who listened to it, remarked:

That in 20 year's experience in China, he had never heard such a thrilling and exhilarating report, and having been with Dr. Underwood on one long tour. he could vouch that it was well within the actual truth. Nothing short of a reading of the whole of this paper can give any adequate idea of the strong onward movement of the Gospel in almost every direction under the energizing of God's Spirit.

The Chong Dong Church in the city seems to have been the principal centre of this evangelistic activity. Organized most systematically for its own edification in spiritual knowledge and duty, its members steadfast to their Christian principles and stalwart in their views and practice of self-support, with a profound sense of the priceless boon which has come to them in the Gospel of Jesus Christ, they mean that their light shall not be hid under any bushel. All around the city, within a diameter of eighty miles, they are carrying on regular aggressive work. Offshoots of the Church are springing up in numerous towns and villages, and these too have caught the admirable spirit of the parent Church. They are organized into classes for the further acquisition of Christianity which these fresh converts from heathenism present wholly at their own expense, and are setting up Christian schools without even a suggestion from outside. The character of the Christianity which these fresh converts from heathenism present to the keen discerning judgment of their neighbors may be inferred from a single incident out of many which might be quoted:

A Korean from a wholly heathen village, passing through the village of Hai Ju, the first time since the Gospel has begun to bear fruit there, was astonished at the change in the people, and learning that it was due to the preaching of the "Jesus Doctrine," he came as an inquirer to Dr. Underwood, purchased books, and returned home in the hope that his own village might obtain the same benefits as Hai Ju. Later word came that 20 houses in that village had accepted the "Jesus doctrine."

The Chang Yun Church has been visited but infrequently by the missionary, yet it is emulating the Chong Dong Church in its remarkable activities. Its excellent leader, Elder Saw, with its deacons and stewards, form a board of direction as energetic as it is practical. "Christ and His cause seem uppermost in all their thoughts," and the Church behind them is actuated by the same principle. It picks out from time to time its best men, and sends them out as evangelists. It meets all its expenses without any foreign aid.

At harvest time the most of the members send their tenths to the authorities of the Church, not waiting to be called upon for them. At a special collection for the famine in India, these poor farmers and laborers, some of whom do not earn 20 cents a day, took up a collection of $56 (Mex.) and 8 rings, which the women had taken from their fingers. But the most remarkable incident in the history of this or any native church in Korea is their request to have a foreign missionary of their own, qualified to organize and direct their work, competent too to instruct them in practical farming, and supported by themselves, with such aid as might come from the farms which they would place at his disposal.

Dr. Underwood mentions the district of Chung Ju as presenting, perhaps, the most wonderful opening of any. In four of its villages nearly all the heathen idols have been destroyed, and the people have been organized into classes for the weekly study of the Bible and for prayer. A leading magistrate in the district is an applicant for admission into the Church. In the district of Whang Hai Do, the governor, though not a Christian, warmly applauds the beneficent results of Christian teaching, and is collecting the funds formerly set apart for Confucian schools to organize a Christian school under the exclusive management of the Christian Church. This is a field chiefly cultivated by the Chong Dong Church. In fact, so popular has the Jesus doctrine become that base-minded men have assumed the Christian name. pretended to have the authority of the missionaries, and counterfeiting Christian rites and practices have palmed themselves off on magistrates and people for the raising of funds for themselves.

During Dr. Underwood's iteneration in the ten months reported upon, he received into the Church 142 new communicants and enrolled 472 catechumens. Great care is practiced in the reception of members. The examination of less than 100 applicants for admission to the Chong Dong Church consumed almost daily afternoon meetings, lasting at least four hours each, for almost three weeks.

Very sweet and tender are the testimonies reported from these simple, ignorant mountain farmers to the power of Jesus' love in their lives, while their strong faith in God would often put to the blush the faith of many disciples with larger experience.

Leaving now this southern section of the field, and going up to Pyeng Yang in the north, we find no abatement there in the wonderful growth of the Christian faith which attracted such attention last year. During Mr. Moffett's absence, Mr. Lee has had the principal oversight of the field, though Mr. Whittemore is getting on well with the language, so as to be able to render effective assistance. Messrs. Miller and Baird have visited the district at times and helped meet the urgent demands on missionary time and strength. Mr. Baird has since been transferred permanently to Pyeng Yang.

From Mr. Lee's report we learn that the Church at Pyeng Yang has so outgrown its frequently enlarged building that it has been compelled to hold services for the women in a separate building. This is but a temporary arrangement until they are able to build a Church large enough to accommodate them all. There are five separate Sabbath-school centres in the city, but all gather together for general services on Sunday, which is considered eminently important for the solidifying of the Church into one and the promotion of unity and good fellowship. This church has paid all its own expenses in building, repairs and evangelistic and school-work, besides employing an evangelist for outside work and aiding other smaller churches in the country in church-building.

The country work, which year by year assumes larger and larger proportions, is divided for convenience into five large circuits. In one of these, where last year there was but one locality in which Christians met for worship, there are now seven. In the Whang Hai circuit, where last year there were six places of meeting, there are now thirty-one. Mr. Lee on his last tour aiming chiefly to visit the new centres of light, could not reach them all. He writes:

The needs of this portion of our field average very great. The people are very ignorant, but they are simply hungry for instruction in spiritual things. The seed-sowing which has yielded such a wonderful harvest has been done principally by two men, Han Chi Sun and Kim Paik Yung. These men receive no money from the Mission or the churches. They support themselves, and seem to preach from the very love of it.

Of another circuit, which Mr. Lee had been able to visit but once, he says:

This district has also received a rich blessing. There are now seven church buildings and ten other places where there are small groups of believers. These people gave, this year, 147 yen towards self-support.

Of the Eui Ju circuit, we condense the following facts from Mr. Baird's report of visits made by him and Mr. Whitemore. Though for three years previous not favored with a missionary visit, it has been visited almost every month by the native evangelist, Mr. Yang. He has much alpine-climbing in his circuit, but his zeal and self-denying labors have been richly blessed. Seventy-four candidates were examined, 20 were baptised, and 31 received as catechumens. Says Mr. Baird:

The throwing away of objects of idolatrous worship, and the joyful turning to the worksip of the One true God; the readiness with which they bought and read Christian books; frequent signs of experimental knowledge of Christ, of prayer, of brotherly love, made me rejoice in the evidence of the Holy Spirit's work. . . . Paik, the native Christian doctor, who by his self-sacrificing efforts in the cholera year, was the means of favorably disposing his neighbors to Christianity; the little thirteen-year old boy, suffering with a deformed spine, and not far from death, who had been the means of leading his whole family to Christ, erying to be brought for the first time to see the missionary, and seemingly never so happy as when listening to the Gospel, saying he was not afraid to die because his Saviour had died for him, and would receive him into heaven; Mrs. Ok, the white-haired old lady, leader in the group of believing women, telling us as clearly and as intelligently, and as feelingly of her belief in the Saviour as if she had been the daughter of generations of believing parents; the Kim family at Wi Wein in their poverty entertaining the missionaries and their whole party, and buying a small library of Christian books for circulation among their neighbors. . . . These are among the signs that the Eui Ju circuit is open and calling for the light, and that the Holy Spirit is working upon the people.

Mr. Baird is enthusiastic as to his observations on the Pyeng Yang field. He writes:

During all my stay in Korea, I have never heard from Koreans so much pure and simple talk about sin, salvation and Christ as the only Saviour as during my few weeks in the Pyeng Yang field.

To this we add the testimony of Mr. Speer:

In the north, the Church has spread and penetrated as we saw nothing to surpass anywhere else in the world. The churches are crowded. The opportunities are unlimited.

During the year 173 were baptized, many more were applicants, but Mr. Lee was simply unable to get the time to examine them. The total church membership now foots up 377, while the number of catechumens enrolled is 1,723, making a total of 2,100 in connection with the Church.

The work at Gensan has been maintained by Mr. and Mrs. Swallen during the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Gale on their furlough. Quite a little energy has been manifested by the Church in the way of contributions, defraying all the incidental expenses of church and school as well as the teachers' salary. There was necessity for considerable discipline among the church members, which seems to have brought a blessing to nearly the whole church. Twenty adults were baptized and 15 catechumens enrolled. Mr. Swallen reports two itinerating trips to Ham Hyung, a large city of 40,000 people. In the first instance he met little to encourage, but five months later he was visited by many inquirers, and saw many signs of promise that it might open up under proper culture like Pyeng Yang.

At Fusan, while Mr. Adams has been getting ready to occupy Tagoo, there has been more or less interruption in the cultivation of the church. There have been but two baptisms and but seven catechumens received, though a number of others are awaiting examination. The church members are only seven in number, but are commended for their active labors among their neighbors. But the population is a difficult class on which to make an im-

The new Station Tagoo gives much promise as a centre for evangelistic effort, and for a strong local Church.

There now are in the whole field 101 places where regular preaching services are conducted on the Sabbath. The total number of communicants is 932, of whom 347 were added the past ten months. The native contributions during this period amounted to $971 (Mex.), making an average of about one dollar silver per member.

WOMAN'S WORK.—Mrs. Underwood has accompanied Dr. Underwood on some of his itinerating trips, and she gives in her report some interesting glimpses into the way in which the Korean women are welcoming the Gospel. At Chung Yun from 20 to 30 were present every afternoon at the Bible-meeting, during our three weeks' stay, some coming through sleet and snow and mud.

More attentive, eager, earnest listeners I never met. Tears came to their eyes, and their faces brightened with delight as they grasped the clear sense of one precious passage and another. One exclaimed that she became a Christian for the sake of the hereafter, but she never knew Christianity was so good for this life too.

As to her stated meetings with the women of the Chong Dong Church, Mrs. Underwod relates that they, year by year, grow more and more in interest. The numbers in attendance, their intelligence in spiritual things, and the marks of their experimental knowledge of Christian truth steadily increase. These women are very active in winning their neighbors from their idols to faith in Christ. No woman in connection with the Chong Dong Church receives any pay for church-work in any of its branches. With or without a suggestion from the missionary, they are very ready to visit the sick or to pray with those so needing. This principle of not paying Christian women for work done in enlightening their neighbors and bringing them to Christ is likely to become the established policy of the whole Mission.

Miss Strong has found much satisfaction in her labors in Seoul with the Kong Tang Kol Church, and in frequent intineration into the country. The church is small in numbers and from widely separate parts of the city, and therefore not so thoroughly under the best influences. But some cases of strong character among the women recently baptized are mentioned. In the country she encountered a most cordial reception in many places, but in others opposition had chilled the interest of former friends, especially where spirit-worship prevailed. At Fusan Mrs. Irwin and Mrs. Adams, assisted by Miss Chase, have maintained regular services for the women, which have been fairly well attended, and besides have made great numbers of calls at the homes of the mothers who had children in school. But the women of Fusan, like the men, are as yet less susceptible to spiritual impressions than those of some other parts of Korea. At Gensan some of the women of the church have suffered persecution, but Mrs. Swallen has been encouraged by the simple, child-like faith of the stead-

Mrs. Lee is encouraged at Pyeng Yang by the increasing number of women who have learned to read, and the large attendance of women on the Sunday and Wednesday prayer-meetings, averaging from 75 to 100. The attendance at the women's church, mentioned on a former page, averages some 175. Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Wells, among their many visits to Korean homes, have on several occasions been present by invitation where women have formally abandoned their devil-worship.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—The Korean Mission is wrestling with the various educational problems incidental to the early stages of Mission work. In the uncertainty as to the real needs of the people, and the best methods for meeting their actual wants, they are proceeding cautiously, not committing themselves to a definite policy. This is made the more easy to them by reason of the urgent demands for the direct preaching of the Gospel. The Boys' School at Seoul was under the care of Messrs. Miller and Baird the past year. Thirty-five pupils were in attendance on the average, ten of whom united with the church. But the conditions at the capital are not the most favorable for such a school; neither is there yet a demand among the Korean Christians for a higher grade of education, so the school has been closed for the present. The Biblical training classes for leaders in the work, both at Seoul and Pyeng Yang, have been very encouraging, and their importance becomes more and more evident. They have been attended by men and women, and even children, eager to get instruction in the Bible truth. The expense of entertaining these classes has been partially met by the netive Christians. A training class for teachers, under Messrs. Baird and Miller, proved very useful.

The Girl's School at Seoul has been under the supervision of Miss Wambold during Mrs. Gifford's absence. Forty-two were enrolled, of whom 18 were from Christian families and six from families of adherents. Here too the Mission is applying its principles of self-suport in initial ways. There are girls' schools, small in numbers as yet, in Gensan and Fusan, their aim being the giving of simple Christian instruction. At Pyeng Yang there have been four boys' schools, with an aggregate attendance of 56, about half the teachers' salaries is provided by the scholars' parents. There is also a day-school for girls at Pyeng Yang, with an average attendance of 14. A boys' school at Fusan has largely been under the care of Mrs. Adams, as Mr. Adams has been so much of the time absent at Tugoo.

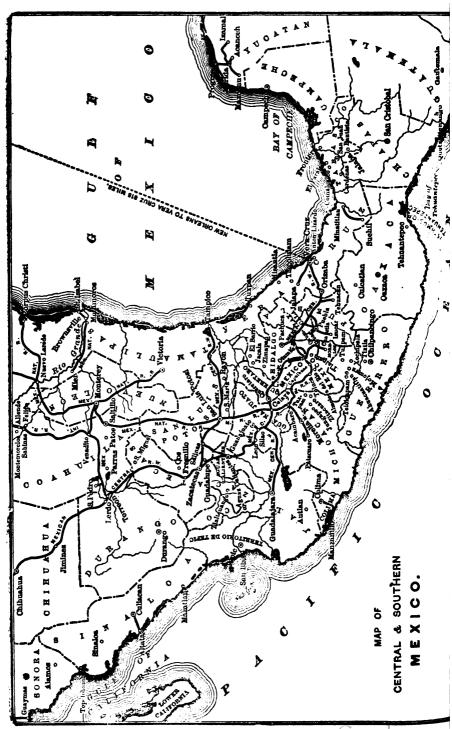

MEDICAL WORK.—There has been no abatement of the good work done at the several hospitals and dispensaries of our Mission, but rather a very large increase of patients has pressed on the attention of our physicians. Dr. Avison reports an increase of 75 per cent. in the attendance at the dispensary in Seoul, and 50 per cent. increase of in-patients over the preceding year. There has also been a much larger number in attendance at the Walder dispensary under Dr. Vinton's care. The hospital at Fusan, under Dr. Irwin's superintendence, and that at Pyeng Yang under Dr. Wells, send gratifying reports of the numbers who have received relief to their bodily ailments. All of these institutions are pushing their way to a position independent of Mission funds, as fast probably as can reasonably be expected. The most satisfactory of anything is the fact that so much direct evangelistic work is done in connection with the skillful ministering to the bodily wants of the patients. It is not all medical missionary institutions that report so emphatically of daily religious services morning and evening, weekly prayer-meetings beside Sunday services, and much private teaching of the way of life from both missionaries and native Christians. The evangelistic spirit which so eminently pervades the Korean Mission, stimulated as it must be by the eager desire for religious instruction, on the part of the natives, seems to govern the medical workers in all their aims and methods. In this light, this department promises to be an exceptionally strong one in the advancing of the Church of Christ in the land.

Considerable itineration has been done by the physicians of the several Stations, of decided advantage to the cause; and it is probable that this line of service will be pushed still more in the future. Dr. Georgiana Whiting became so much impressed with the openings for medical work among the country women, and was so touched by their craving for Christian instruction, that she has obtained the consent of the Mission to devote her principal energies to this form of work.

A medical class of seven has been under instruction at Seoul, with encouraging results so far. Part of the students bear their own expenses. Hereafter all new students in medicine will be expected to support themselves.

LITERARY AND PUBLICATION WORK.—Dr. Underwood has continued his labors in Bible translation as a member of the Board of translators appointed by the different Missions in Korea. The fourth edition of the Korean hymn-book, and the regular Sunday-school lesson papers have been issued from the press. Altogether 1,049,500 pages have been printed. A small weekly newspaper, with Dr. Underwood and Dr. Vinton as joint editors, called "The Christian News," was started during the year, which has proved very popular already. It is printed in the English and Korean languages. It enters the palace of the king, and the homes of a large number of non-Christians. The Korean government itself ordered 467 copies of the paper for its magistrates and others. As it gives much prominence to the truth of Christ and the aims of Christian Missions, it promises to exert a favorable influence for Christianity wherever it goes. Already conversions to faith in Christ are reported directly from reading of this paper.

ZITACUARO: occupied in 1893; missionaries—Rev. C. D. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, Rev. W. E. Vanderbilt and Mrs. Vanderbilt; 2 evangelists, 5 teachers.

CHILPANCINGO: occupied in 1894; missionaries—Rev. George Johnson and Mrs. Johnson; 2 native ministers; 5 licentiates 4 helpers and teachers.

JALAPA: occupied in 1897; missionaries—Rev. Isaac Boyce and Mrs. Boyce; 4 native ministers, 3 preachers.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Mrs. T. F. Wallace, Miss Edna Johnson, Rev. Wm. Wallace and Mrs. Wallace.

SAN LUIS POTOSI.

Large additions were reported for 1896. This year the number is much smaller, owing partly to the fact that less work has been done, but rather to the fact that in the former year many were quite ready to become Christians as soon as the Gospel was preached to them, while those who have been reached later still lack the necessary instruction and experience. In nearly all the congregations there are a number of inquirers, and a steady interest on the part of the members. Temporal prosperity is returning to the country, owing to an abundant harvest, and shows itself in a heartier support of the Churches on the part of the natives.

In the San Luis Church there is an average attendance on Sunday of 80, and on Wednesday evening of 60. The day-school, with 30 children, is carried on by a graduate of the Saltillo Girls' School, while Mrs. Williams' class for women has an average attendance of 30. The Church pays one-fifth of the pastor's salary, and part of the day-school teacher's salary and the running expenses.

A feast of thank offerings was held in October, the collection, amounting to $52.50; being sent to Monclova to help the brethren there in the building of a chapel. Eleven members of the Endeavor Society attended the Saltillo Convention, bringing back deepened interest and larger enthusiasm for the work. Eighteen members were received into the Church on profession of faith.

The country work in the two States of San Luis and Hidalgo is widely scattered. At Rayon many gather about the door of the church, who are afraid to enter, and many are willing to read tracts Crowds come to hear the Gospel preached by Mr. Williams and Mr. Semple by means of the magic-lantern on their itinerating tours.

TLALTENANGO

Tlaltenango is an agricultural town, the county-seat, with a small congregation of 25, which contributed during the year an average of six dollars per member. At Rancho de Dios, the people are building a chapel at their own expense. At Jesus Maria, Mr. Stewart reports the loss of a godly Mexican woman, who, in the absence of any minister or preacher, was accustomed to lead the congregation in its worship and to succor the poor with her wealth, and give them medicine in their need. As to the attempt to introduce self-support, Mr. Stewart writes:

I have noticed that the idea of paying a quota has discouraged a good number, who seem to look at the matter of self-support as a step back to Romanism; and it will need some time to get them to look at it in its true light, both on account of the reaction from Romanism as well as from being taught wrong on the subject from the beginning.

SALTILLO.

Mr. Wallace writes of the general conditions of the two States of Nuevo Leon and Coahuila:

The country is being steadily settled up by the people from the interior, and the census of 1895 shows a population of some 250,000, being an increase of 60,000 in the last ten years. Americans are coming in constantly. Of the 1,500 foreigners in Coahuila, two-thirds are Americans.

The public school system is being pushed vigorously. In Coahuila there are over 125 day-schools for both sexes, and out of 200,000 inhabitants over six years of age, 50,000 can read or write.

For the 250,000 inhabitants of Coahuila (census of 1895) there were only 49 ecclesiastics, and of these only 29 are priests. They have only 80 places of worship, counting parish churches and chapels, and reported only four parish schools.

only four parish schools.

The Baptist and Methodist Church societies co-operate with the Presbyterians in the evangelization of this field. Our numbers (a generous estimate of church membership is 5,000) are few, but we (Protestant) can report some 20 places of worship to the Roman Catholic 80. We have three schools for higher education, 12 ordained ministers and four day-schools.

Four graduates of the new State Normal School, two of whom are Presbyterians, have been sent to Bridgewater, Mass., and supported by the government, under the care of Mr. Osuna, a most talented hiexican minister of the Methodist Church. These four, on their return, are expected to make the Coahuila Normal School, the best of its kind.

Two aunts of Governor Cardenas are evangelical Christians, and the Governor last July put the Saltillo Theatre at the disposal of the Second National Convention of Mexico's Christian Endeavorers.

Under the plan of self-support, requiring churches calling a pastor to contribute 20 per cent. of the salary, five of our seven organized churches have extended calls.

Six graduates of our Presbyterian Normal School conduct day-schools at different points, and as Sunday-school teachers, Christian Endeavor organizers, etc., make able lieutenants for our pastors and evangelists.

At El Oro the native worker supports himself by assaying, and looks after the congregation.

GIRLS' BOARDING-SCHOOL.—Forty-nine boarders were enrolled during the year, and 32 day-pupils. On November 10th, 12 girls were graduated. The school now has 16 graduates employed as teachers—two by the Cumberland Presbyterian Mission in Aguascalientes, two by Congregational Boarding-school in Chihuahua, one by the Southern Presbyterian Mission in Laredo, and the rest by our own Mission. Of the 49 boarders, 43 are members of our Church.

The girls formed a sewing society early in the year, and by their work paid for delegates to the Christian Endeavor Convention $17.00, and music for the Convention $12.00; for the support of their pastor, $15.00, and for special collections, $3.00. The balance, $133.00, was expended in books for the school library.

In July the music class was invited to take part with the State Normal School in a concert for the benefit of one of the professors of that school, whose health had failed. This gave our school a recognition it had never before received from the public.

We have lately been asked to participate, with other schools, in the celebration of the Governor's inauguration.

ZITACUARO.

The District of Zitacuaro is the most easterly of the fifteen districts or counties into which the State of Michoacan is divided. Its population is about 65,000. Zitacuaro, the chief city, has about 8,000 inhabitants. In May of this year, the railroad which has been building for several years, reached the city, and was opened for traffic, thus bringing the place within a day's journey of the City of Mexico.

Mr. Vanderbilt, who has been in charge of the northern part of the field, writes:

In many respects the situation has been very discouraging. For, in addition to the lack of workers and to our unfamiliarity with the language, customs and characteristics of the people (having been in the country but eight and one-half months before being placed in charge), there has been an unceasing opposition to our work, directly and indirectly, which is one of the unfortunate results of the "change of policy."

The Zitacuaro Church is truly self-supporting, both religiously and financially. Five of the eight additions in this district are credited to this Church. In addition to paying all of its own bills, it has contributed $18.00 to the Mexican Board of Home Missions.

During the seven months, I have been away from home 69 days, have traveled 1,455 miles on horseback, attended 167 services and preached 78 sermons.

Mr. Campbell, who has had charge of the southern part of the field, reports that four of the six congregations regard themselves as independent, because the Mission does not give them a paid minister; but they receive the missionary cordially, and accept his suggestions and help.

La Huerta de Belen, "the garden of Bethlehem," is the newest of these congregations. It is composed entirely of Indians of the Aztec race. The Gospel first entered there by means of some leaves of the New Testament, which one of them found some nineteen years ago. Two years ago the Gospel was first preached there openly, and now they count 40 adherents, of whom but two are baptized. The leader was deserted by his wife and daughters as soon as he became a Christian.

In one of the Romish chapels near is an image of San Antonio, supposed to be able to bring back strayed and stolen cattle and horses and men. It is tied, hand and foot, with a lasso by the person interested, and this woman has had it tied this year, in order that her husband may be brought back to the true (?) Church and to her. The children and young people of this congregation have made great progress. They now sing a large number of hymns from memory, and a year ago they did not know one. The brethren are carrying on an active campaign in the neighboring village of Tlapehuala.

At Los Placeres del Oro, three years ago, they plotted to kill the native evangelist, and this year they invited him to deliver the oration on Independence Day. In March a most successful Bible convention was held. About thirty attended from other congregations, and all were greatly profited. The brethren are enthusiastically preparing to hold another in Ajuchitlan early in January.

From here to the coast, about six days' journey, the Gospel has been preached in all the villages along the road. Bibles have been sold and tracts distributed, and in nearly every village there are some who are accepting the Gospel. In the port of Sihuatanejo, a man would not let us hold religious service in his house, but said we might show the views of the life of Christ. This we did, and sold five Bibles as a result.

Mr. Campbell has traveled, during the year, about 19,000 miles on horseback and 700 on rail, having been away from home about 170 days.

MEXICO CITY AND STATE.

Mexico City has a population of about 350,000. The western and central part of the city, from Plaza down Plateros Street, past the Almeda, along the Paseo, and in certain "colonies" where the wealthy live, is largely modernized and finely built. Our Mission halls and schools are mainly in the eastern and northern wards of the city, made up largely of low, damp tenement houses, where the poor live.

When the Board's cut made it necessary for the Mission to discontinue the rent of two preaching-halls, the native Church met the new demand by securing a cheaper hall in one ward, paying all the rent in another, and nearly half of a third. In spite of reduced resources from loss of members through death or removal, and the financial difficulties of others, partly due to Sabbath observance and petty persecution, they have done nobly, raising in all, about $1,100. In 1898 it will, however, be necessary to close one nall and three of the day-schools for lack of funds. We hope this reduction will only be temporary. Mr. Morales has continued his labors as evangelist, visiting Saltillo at the time of the Christian Endeavor Convention, Laredo, Texas, and Guadalajara. Over 60,000 tracts have been distributed in the city.

THE PRESS.—Under Mr. Brown's direction, the Press has continued the publication of "El Faro." With an issue of 1,500 copies twice a month, the "El Faro" begins its fourteenth year in 1898. Four thousand three hundred monthly Sunday-school Lesson Helps have been issued, and 1,700 illustrated Sunday-school cards.

The "Supplement of Sermons" and "Life of Christ" was continued till the end of June, when an edition of 1,000 copies printed on better paper was bound and offered for sale in pamphlet form. We also printed, in book-form, Rev. H. B. Pratt's translation into Spanish of Torrey's "How to Bring Men to Christ," and "The Presbyterian System," by Dr. William H. Roberts, Mr. Arellano, translator. A number of tracts have been printed and put into circulation. Pages printed in 1897 were 2,294,447.

We desire to express our appreciation of the help given in securing engravings by the American Tract Society, and our Boards of Missions and Publication.

GIRLS' SCHOOL.—Until the graduating exercises on November 30th, the school was in charge of Mrs. Brown and Miss Fleming. Thereafter Miss Browning and Miss McDermid, having arrived, were made responsible for this work. Thirty boarders were enrolled during the year, and 19 day-pupils. The graduating class consisted of 19 girls, all members of the Church.

Eight of these girls are engaged in active Christian work, helping Mr. Morales in the Sabbath-schools and Christian Endeavor societies of the city. The Christian Endeavor Society of the school has grown in interest; all the graduates are members of it. The "Helping-hand" Society, by the sale of drawn work made by the members, raised about $63.00, of which sum $12.00 was given toward the salary of Mr. Morales, whose Church the scholars attended; $12.00 more to the Mexican Home Mission Board, and $17.00 toward a fund for a school library, which is very much needed.

Mrs. Brown reports an interesting "Banking System" in the school:

We followed the example of the Saltillo School for a banking system. Each boarder made for herself a little unbleached muslin-bag, and marked it in red cotton with her initials; a drawstring kept it closed. A small book was given to each, and she came to Miss Fleming for help to make out her account.

Miss Fleming kept, in a locked drawer, all of the bags and books. A girl received a sum from her home, the amount went into the proper page in the little book, and the money into the bag. Something was needed – a pair of shoes, a calico waist, a new hair ribbon. The girl, with Miss Fleming, would first estimate the cost and consult her bag, to see if it held enough for the purchase. If not, the girl would often have to wait to write home for more.

Work in the State of Mexico, outside of the city, has been under the superintendence of Mr. Brown.

In Tepecoculco, Mr. Jorge Toledano, formerly in charge of the Mission School, although now at the head of the village public school, still continues to hold services in our chapel and free of charge.

Tuloca is the capital of the State of Mexico, and is surrounded by a fertile, populous valley, in which are numerous Indian villages of considerable size. It is a stronghold of Roman Catholicism. Several Mexican preachers who have turned to secular callings reside there. In spite of all drawbacks, our Mission has been as successful as any other. The first converts were given the impression that a free Gospel meant freedom from all contributions. This influence still exists, and makes it hard to secure support for native workers. About $70.00 was raised in Toluca this year.

The magic-lantern, donated to the Mission by Mr. William Henry Grant, has drawn crowded houses to hear the story of the Life of Christ, many entering for the first time a Protestant house of worship.

MEXICAN HOME MISSION BOARD.—This Board was organized, in 1890, by the Presbytery of Mexico. All its expenses are met by the native churches. Its total expenses for 1897 were $821.70 (Mex.), and there was a balance at the end of the year of $346.97.

Funds are raised by stated collections and annual offering feasts. These latter are prepared for months beforehand, and the amounts given often represent great personal sacrifice and self-denial.

FEDERAL DISTRICT.—At Tizapan, a factory town, Tlalpan and Maxcanu, Mr. Millar superintends the work. At the last place the elders from the Church in Mexico City hold services, which were formerly in charge of the Episcopalians, whose missionary asked our own Mission to take charge of the field. Under Mr. Millar the Bible Training-school, which was closed in December, 1893, was re-opened in July, 1897.

Its object is to train young men for the work of the ministry in our own Church in Mexico. The Bible, Catechism and theological studies, together with secular branches, such as every minister should pursue, are taught. The school is located five miles from Mexico City, in Coyoacan.

YUCATAN.

At Merida Mr. Millar reports a church membership of 83, and good interest, and a large Sunday-school; thousands of tracts distributed and many Bibles sold; good pastoral work done by Rev. Alfonso Herrera; active Women's Society; Young Men's Society for Bible Study; Juvenile Y. P. S. C. E. A new church building is needed to accommodate the growing congregation. A collection for this object is taken every month, and already several hundred dollars are raised. The collections for Mexican home missions have been better this year than ever before. Twenty dollars a month has been paid by congregation on pastor's salary.

Mr. Herrera also has a Station at Maxcanu, 40 miles southwest of Merida, on the railroad.

TABASCO AND VERA CRUZ.

Mr. Boyce, who lives at Jalapa, reports six points of work in the State of Tabasco. Itineration among them is not without its trials.

In the interior the roads are impassable—for a Mexican—a good part of the year, and I confess it tries Anglo-Saxon grit and pluck to travel them at present. I have had an experience of it during the four weeks I have been in this State, and I have thought sometimes that it may be a mistake that we did not leave this State to the Baptists; for verily "there is much water" here. I have had to swim my horse times out of number, and often rode 300 yards with my heels on my horse's neck, clinging to the saddle horn to balance myself, as the water was within three inches of my saddle; while the mud between streams was awful to contemplate.

At Jalapa there has been a large influx of foreigners in connection with an electric-light plant in Jico, and large coffee developments in surrounding country. Northeast of Tlacolulan, a new territory is being opened up by some of our families moving out into the mountain districts. At Vera Cruz Mr. Boyce writes:

Our present membership is 90. Collections during the year were $277.00. Attendance was good, and the interest is growing. The people have a good lot for building a church, and about $400.00 in cash. This is, by all odds, the most aggressive congregation of the district.

Mr. Boyce has visited the entire work twice, with the exception of Pantano, traveling about 250 leagues on horseback, and crossing the Gulf four times, besides travel in river steamers and canoes. He has also preached a number of times in English in Vera Cruz, and has been able to arrange for a regular English service, conducted in his absence by Mr. Vandercoot of the English Consulate in that city.

GUERRERO.

Guerrero borders on the Pacific. Its chief port is Acapulco. Area, 22,863 square miles. Population, 439,000. The inhabitants distinguish three belts of country: The Tierra Caliente, low valleys and plains, intersected by many rivers; the Sierra Madre, ranging in height from 3,000 to 12,000 feet, covered by forests of pine, oak and cedar; the Costa, a plain varying in width from five to 40 miles, crossed by many rivers, and with a shore line of high cliffs and sandy beaches. The chief industries of the State are corn-planting, cattle-raising, sugar-making, mining of gold, silver and mercury, timber-cutting, tobacco and cotton growing, salt-digging, manufactures of cotton cloth and export of hard woods, hides and tropical wood. The population is predominantly of Indian blood, with a goodly sprinkling of Spanish, negro and other foreign races on the coast. Mr. Johnson reports 12 organized churches, and adds:

The Church at Zumpango, under the lead of Elder Lauro Adame, cannot make progress until the quarreling between the elders' families comes to an end. In Xochipala, an Indian village, the elders under the lead of Maximino Anaya, the cacique of the village, have taken complete charge of the work, and the year has proved a prosperous one. High up among the pines of the Sierra is La Reforma, a strong Church in a district peopled mostly by Protestants. Apolonio C. Vazquez is the licentiate in charge. Speaking both Aztec and Spanish, he has shown a most commendable activity in the work. Nicolas R. Guevara has charge of the churches in Ahuacatitlan, Yotoapa, Zapuapa and Hauch. He has done much in the way of educating workers, and his itineration has led him into many towns where the Gospel is a new thing. He uses a "Gospel picture peep-show," to attract attention.

Groups for Bible study have been formed in these places. The first Bible convention, with an attendance of 80, has been held. Eight of the organized churches own their own property. About 811 persons out of 439,000 are now under direct Protestant influence. About 100 out of the 1,329 cities, towns and villages in the State have as yet been reached.

Mr. Johnson concludes his report as follows:

I should say that the chief obstacles to our work are—(1) The conservative government, which favors the Romanists in every way. It violates, as far as it can, the laws of the Reform. There are signs, however, that a change is meditated, and that the Liberal party, the real life of the State, will once more get into power. This change will take place when the railroad reaches Iguala in April next. (2) The Roman Catholic opposition is exceedingly subtle. Most of the priests are Jesuits, and employ all the known artifices of that order. The opposition often comes, from unexpected quarters, in most unexpected ways. (3) The distance to be traveled is also formidable in its way. The mode of communication is by horseback entirely. True, the railway is advancing slowly, and by April communication will be opened with Mexico City from Iguala. It will take over a year to reach the Balsas river, and if it arrives at Chilpancingo by 1902, it will be doing the unexpected. Thus the horse remains our main reliance as a means of locomotion. There is no special hardship in this, especially if the animal is a good one and you are used to it. Time, however, is expended. To journey to Ometepec and back, the confines of the State with Oaxaca, means a ride of 700 miles. To reach San Luis and return to Chilpancingo means about 500 miles. To go to Tuxpan, taking in Anuacatitlan and Tasco, means 400 miles, traversed before returning to Chilpancingo. To visit every point in the field requires six weeks' steady traveling, stopping only one night in each place, and resting on Sunday, and 4,000 miles journeying on horseback. Hence, with one missionary, progress will be rather slow. The balance, between his health and strength, and the greatest amount of work must be struck. He must be content to do a large amount of his work by Bible conventions, training leaders at his headquarters, and working through the native men. But since it is a life-work, we may hope, with God's blessing, to bring the glad tidings into all the neglected towns, and unto every one of the 400,000 inhabitants of the State. "Behold, I come quickly! Even so come Lord Jesus!"

ZACATECAS.

There are eighteen congregations, ten preaching points, and four or five other places of work in the States of Zacatecas, Durango and Coahuila. In this field the distance from the extreme point south in Zacatecas to the extreme point north in Coahuila, where we have work, is about 400 miles. More than half the congregations can be reached by railroad. The others are greatly scattered, and a great deal of time and many miles of travel by private conveyance are required to reach them.

The members in Zacatecas churches are, with the exception of ten or more families, of the middle class—all of them very poor, day-laborers, miners, servants, water-carriers, etc.—and, owing to a severe drought during the last five or six years over a great part of the State, many have been unable to secure work, except for a portion of the time, and at the lowest wages. During one year 29 adult members were compelled on this account to leave the Zacatecas Church, 12 left Villa de Cos, and 10 left Fresnillo, and other places lost heavily in membership. Those who have been compelled to leave the State of Zacatecas have gone in about equal numbers to churches on Laguna field, and to those of Saltillo field.

The new plan of self-support presented to Presbytery was most enthusiastically adopted, and all our workers as well as elders, and many private members, have recognized as never before their duty and privilege to aid in supporting and extending the Gospel among their countrymen.

Six Christian Endeavor Societies were organized during the year, and there are four day-schools.

In two of them, at least one-half or more of the children were from Roman Catholic families. Two paid more than half the salaries of their teachers, and two a little less. In the Laguna district, where these schools are, two or three teachers for important places are asked for, and those asking are in great part Roman Catholics. There is a very good prospect that these schools would be self-supporting or nearly so from the first.

STATISTICS.—The following table will illustrate the general condition of the whole field. The number of church-members, as compared with five or ten years ago, shows a decrease apparently; but in feality the work has been solidified and extended, the apparent decrease being due to a purging of the rolls and the endeavor to retain on them only names of genuine living church-members:

MISSIONS IN PERSIA.

EASTERN PERSIA MISSION...

TEHERAN: capital of Persia; population 225,000; work begun in 1872; missionaries—Rev. J. L. Potter, D.D., and Mrs. Potter, Rev. Lewis F. Esselstyn and Mrs. Esselstyn, Dr. J. G. Wishard and Mrs. Wishard, Miss Cora C. Bartlett, Miss Annie Gray Dale, Miss L. H. McCampbell, Miss Mary A. Clarke, and Miss Mary J. Smith, M.D.; 3 outstations, 1 native pastor, 1 licentiate, and about 15 other native teachers and helpers.

HAMADAN: 200 miles southwest of Tehcran; population 40,000; occupied in 1880; missionaries—Rev. James W. Hawkes and Mrs. Hawkes, Rev. J. G. Watson and Mrs. Watson, Dr. G. W. Holmes and Mrs. Holmes, Miss Annie Montgomery, Miss Charlotte G. Montgomery, Miss Sue S. Lienbach and Miss Jessie C. Wilson, M.D.; 4 outstations, 2 ordained preachers, 3 native evangelists, and about 27 other native teachers and helpers.

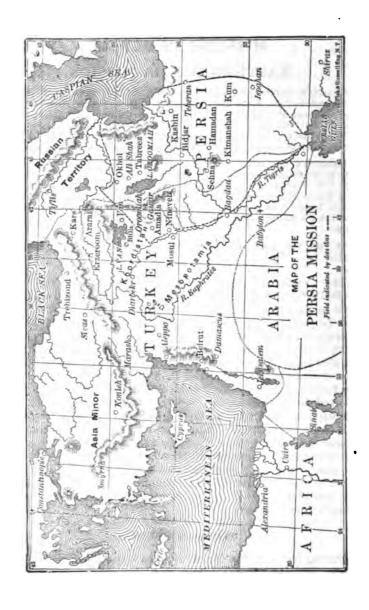

IN THIS COUNTRY: Rev. J. G. Watson and Mrs. Watson, Mrs. J. L. Potter.

The Persian government seems to grow worse and worse. From 1870 to 1890 the course of affairs, with a steady improvement in the way the Christians were treated, grew more tolerable, and the power of the Shah, who on the whole was a liberal and a tolerant man, increased at the expense of the ecclesiastics. Since 1890, however, there has been a steady degeneracy, and under the new Shah not only has civil authority been loosened so that official rapacity is less checked than ever, but also the ecclesiastics have strengthened their hold, and in many cases successfully asserted their authority as over against the civil power. Mr. Esselstyn, on returning to the field during the year, wrote back that the only change he could observe was in the direction of yet greater wreck and ruin; that the country was more sorrowful and decrepit even than it had been before. Meanwhile the door for missionary work seems as wide open as ever, and wherever the missionaries have gone itinerating they report a more cordial welcome and more kindly treatment on the part of the Moslems even than ever before.

TEHERAN STATION.

During the year Mr. Ward, after twenty-one years of faithful service at Tabriz and Teheran, has been obliged by the health of Mrs. Ward to withdraw from the work.

CHURCH.—The dreams of the Armenian nationalist movement have affected the spirit of the Armenians in Teheran, among whom is the only organized Church connected with the Station.

To the Armenians here it seems a burning shame that the long-continued outrages upon the people of their race and language in Turkey should have been suffered to go on so long by the Powers of Europe. And it is perhaps not unnatural that they should cherish a certain feeling of resentment and soreness toward the Christian nations on this account, which has had an appreciable effect upon their feelings toward the Mission also.

Though there has been no addition to the Church, the number of inquirers during the year has been unusually large; and while the Armenians have seemed quite generally indifferent to religious concerns, interest has been manifested both by Jews and Moslems. A number of the latter have applied for admission to the Church, but somehow it seems extremely difficult for the session to find credible evidence of their Christianity; and indeed, without an intimate knowledge of their conduct, it is exceedingly difficult, since it is so deeply inwrought in the Persian character that it is lawful to conceal one's views and profess another religion.

There has been likewise a considerable interest manifested by Jewish inquirers. Here also suspicion is aroused, and one fears that it may be a desire for protection from persecution (which has recently been and is still being practiced upon the Jews here to compel their acceptance of Islam), rather than any genuine conviction of the truth of Christianity. In fact, a paper signed by three of these inquirers and one churchmember, declaring themselves to be Christians, was prepared for this very purpose, in the hope that, through the friendly offices of the United States Legation, they might be relieved from molestation now visited upon the Jews in Teheran.

A few months ago, the project of organizing a separate Persian-speaking Church seemed decidedly hopeful as a considerable number of inquirers, both Jews and Moslems, some of them professing faith in Christ, were meeting together for religious service. Unfortunately dissension arose among them over the choice of a leader, and the ardor of some decidedly cooled; and one, who for several years has earnestly confessed his faith in Christ, at a meeting of the session renounced his faith in Christianity, and avowed his belief that all religions were alike, and that only good works amounted to anything. He afterwards came to the missionaries and repented of this action, saying that his conscience had given him no rest since.

The Armenian Church pays all the expenses of its own chapel, and has received only two-fifths of the salary of its pastor from the Mission. The English service has been more largely attended than ever before, on account chiefly of the example of Sir Mortimer Durand, the British Minister, who has taken his stand as an outspoken Christian.

OUTSTATIONS - EVANGELISTIC WORK. - As Station had no missionary to locate at Resht, on the Caspian Sea, and on account of the severe reduction in the appropriations, it was decided to move the native teacher from Resht to Karaghan, a district to the southwest of Teheran, containing several Armenian villages, where it was expected that the owner of one of the villages would provide a house for the school and the teacher. Difficulties, however, were placed in the way by the authorities of the Gregorian Church in Teheran.

A Christian convert from Islam, driven by persecution from Tabriz, has occupied the Mission-house at Kasvin most of the year past, and at times has had many friends and inquirers; but of late some have turned against him and stirred up persecution, so that he felt that he must leave Kasvin also (Matt. x: 23).

Miss Bartlett and Miss Dale have moved to Kasvin, where they have been living in a native house, and working among the people. Miss Dale writes of the work:

Now we are quite "arranged" for the winter; such repairs as we have had money to make are finished; such purchases as were necessary, of wood, thorns, charcoal, for winter fuel, have been made. When I say "quite arranged," I must make a little exception, which reminds me of something a Persian carpenter said when I criticised a table he had made for me. "Lady, it is quite finished; but, if you like, I will finish it more!" We are quite arranged, but some cracks and gaps in the woodwork of our doors and windows must be covered with strips of cloth; then, indeed, we may laugh at these fierce Kasvin winds, as they shriek out what they would do if they could reach us "unbelievers." . . .

But God, in a very wonderful and beautiful way, opened a "great and effectual door" for us to work among the Kurds, of whom there are very many, both in Kasvin and in the adjacent villages. Day by day the "Word of God" is held up as the Saviour of men to all who visit us—rich or poor, learned or ignorant, Kurd, Persian, Turk, Eliot. To them all, in Persian, 'turkish, or, through a translator, Christ is preached. There are some of God's "hidden ones" in Kasvin.

During the year Dr. Wishard visited Resht and Kasvin. Miss McCampbell made a long tour with Dr. Wilson of Hamadan, which is described under the Hamadan Station. Rabi Pera, a Nestorian evangelist, with a companion, made a long tour to Kasvin, Resht, Enzeli, Gez and Meshed, which last they found, as all others have, a most fanatical place—probably, as Curzon declares, "the wickedest city in Asia."

WORK FOR WOMEN.—As far as possible, this work has been done during the year through the Women's Christian Endeavor Society of the Church, by means of which the timid, faithful women have been helped in their own spiritual lives, and in their efforts to help others. Mrs. Potter has been untiring in her sympathy with them. In the Jewish quarter, Miss McCampbell and Mrs. Potter have gone alternately to hold meetings, even though required to pass through insults and much discomfort. Mrs. Potter writes:

It is, of course, understood that the effort to reach the women of Islam is unremitting. . . . Frequently they in turn urge us to accept their faith and be "saved." Some of the arguments to prove the superiority of their religion are not convincing to the Christian—e. g., "Your men are obliged to keep to one wife only, nowever ugly; but, in our religion, if a man finds his wife is not handsome, he may send her away and take another. Is not that much better? Besides, you cannot be defiled by contact with us; but if you come into our house, especially on a wet day, we are at once defiled.

Miss McCampbell has given much time to work for Moslems during the year, making many calls, and finding often groups of women waiting for her to read to them. We have also had a weekly meeting in the Ali Illahce quarter, which was very interesting and pretty well attended.

On the whole, I think we review the year with thankful nearts, feeling that we have advanced a little in almost every direction.

As to the feeling of the Jews toward Christianity, the present Agent of the London Society for the Propagation of the Gospel among the Jews says:

That he feels a great difference from the years before when he was here, in their attitude toward Christianity, and their reception of the Gospel.

EDUCATIONAL WORK-IRAN BETHEL.-The school reopened September 19, 1896, with 25 scholars, and had an average attendance of from 57 to 60. The school was continued until the latter part of April, reaching in its work Moslems, Armenians and Jews. In the matter of reaching Moslems, Teheran is in a very different position from Oroomiah and Tabriz, where the admission of so many Moslem girls into the school would lead to great trouble. The school had during the year the same thorough, painstaking work as always; teaching the girls spotless neatness, and keeping them constantly under the most appealing Christian influences. In May it was decided, on account of the heavy "cut," to close the school, and Miss Mc-Campbell went off on her itinerating tour in the Summer, while-Miss Bartlett and Miss Dale opened a Summer school in an Armenian village in the mountains, with 29 pupils, before removing to Kasvin.

BOYS' SCHOOL.—This school was opened in October, 1887. with 16 boys. In five years it had grown to 100, and this last vear enrolled 134. Mr. Ward writes:

We have had in attendance this year 70 Moslems, one of whom is an Afghan and one a negro; 50 Armenians, in spite of the fact that they have two schools of their own; 13 Jews, and one Fire-worshiper. Five were in the Scientific course, 68 in the Commercial, 40 in the Primary, and 20 are in the Kindergarten.

One small boy, who entered the Primary this year, did not know how to play, did not care to play, and when ordered to play seemed in great perplexity. He seems to be the perfected result of the Persian attempt to make old men of boys.

Perhaps no one thing better illustrates the influence that the school has had upon the character of the boys than the change in regard to things found in the playground. In Persia, public opinion would not expect that a man would return to its owner anything found; but daily almost in our school this is done.

The spiritual life of the school has not been of a very assertive type this year, but probably has been deeper than any previous year; and I hope that time may show that at least a half-dozen have made the great decision of their lives during the past year.

The work of the school has been improved by a pedagogical course for those engaged in teaching. No financial support of any kind is now offered to any of the boys, and the school is making some progress toward self-support. Mr. Ward writes:

In the regular school, there has been much more prompt payment of the dues than ever before. The sum of $2.00 per annum seems a very small sum to ask any one; but it must be taken into consideration that ours is the only school that charges any tuition, while the Shah's school furnishes dinner to all, and clothes to many of its students. We have lost several students who have gone to the Shah's school; but so far as we have learned, the cause was the pressure on the part of the parents because the religious influence of our school was too positively toward Christianity, or because the Shah's school was a better stepping-stone to advancement in official life.

In taking leave of the school after ten years of labor, I should not fail to express my thankfulness to God for this pleasant field of labor, and the mercies granted to the school and myself. To many of my fellow-workers I am grateful for kind words and kind deeds, and trust that my successor may have at least as full a measure of blessing as has descended upon me.

During the Summer, two of the teachers, an Armenian and a Moslem, conducted a small English school, to which they admitted a good many boys who were unable to pay.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Wishard reports:

During the year, 16,936 attendances have been given the sick in homes, dispensaries, hospital and villages, by the Medical Department of Teheran Station. There were admitted into the Hospital 208 patients, who remained for an average period of 18, 97-104 days each—equal to 3,938 days. Aside from a large number of minor surgical operations, of which no record was kept, we have a list of 201 operations, 98 of which have been upon the eye.

The medical work received a gift of $150.00 from the Grand Vizier. As to making the medical work in any degree self-supporting, Dr. Wishard reports:

The Persians pay, without question, their grocery bills and for other purchases in the bazaar; have money to make pilgrimages to Meshed, and even to far-away Mecca and Medina; support summer-houses in the cool retreats of the Shimran mountains, to which they go and come in beautiful victorias fresh from Moscow, drawn by a span of magnificent Russian horses; but they have no money for the physician who has faithfully cared for their families during severe and repeated illnesses. Indeed, should the doctor intimate that upon certain occasions he had found money not an incumbrance, he would probably be met by a look which would seem to say, "And you would charge a friend money for saving his life?" The presentation of a bill for medical service to a Persian gentleman would be regarded much in the same light as a minister in America should he send in a bill for conducting a funeral or baptism of the children of his parish.

On the other hand are the thousands—for there is no middle class in Persia—living in mud hovels, in villages and the crowded quarters of the great cities, of whom it can truthfully be said, "no man careth." The entire belongings of such a family could be bought with the sum a day-laborer would earn in a single week in America. Instead of asking a fee from them, we must often help them with money, food and clothing; for it is only in times of illness and great distress that we are called upon by them to render assistance.

The total amount received on the field during the year was a little over $1,000.00 (gold).

One of the most pleasant and profitable features of the year's work has been the Sunday service at the Hospital, conducted by Mr. Ward. This service was frequently attended by more than forty Moslems, and patients frequently after leaving the Hospital would return on the Sabbath for prayer.

Four medical students were graduated from the medical class—two young Armenians, who had received all their training in Teheran, and two Jews, who had received the most of their preparation under Dr. Holmes and Dr. Wilson. Their diplomas were signed by all the European physicians in Teheran connected with the Legation, by the Shah's physician, and by the ministers of pupilic instruction.

HAMADAN STATION.

CHURCHES.—Of St. Stephen's Church, whose membership is composed of Armenians, Mr. Hawkes writes:

The only progress of which we can speak here is of the contributions. By a special effort, the church-members doubled their subscription last year, and this year they kept up to the same high-water mark.

This is the first year since 1879 that there have been no additions,

This is the first year since 1879 that there have been no additions, Worldliness and the coldness of some members seems to be the cause, while at the same time the number from whom we expect to draw is growing smaller. Ministers at home often seek a new field under similar circumstances; but we have a larger field when the day for it comes, and till then we must continue to hold on. There are certainly brighter days ahead, when the seed sown, and being sown, shall give a rich harvest

The Sabbath-school numbers 138 members, with an average attendance of 94.

The Peniel Church is composed largely of converted Jews, and now numbers 15 members. Dr. Holmes has superintended the Sunday-school connected with it, with an average attendance of 27. The Church and Sunday-school together have given 157 tomans, part of which has been used for the education of a young man from Nahavand. Mr. Hawkes, who has charge of the Church in Mr. Watson's absence, writes:

We are still waiting for some young men who are entirely convinced of the truth of the Gospel, but have not yet mustered courage to come out before the world and confess Christ.

OUTSTATIONS. — Mirza Mushe Doomon, and his aged mother from Oroomiah, are working bravely at Kermanshah among Chaldeans, Jews and Moslems, far away from their own home, but rejoicing at the opportunity to endure hardship for Christ. They were visited during the year by Mr. Hawkes and

Mr. and Mrs. Speer on their way to Bagdad. Of this journey to the Turkish frontier, Mr. Hawkes writes in his report:

None of our station have previously gone over this much-traveled route. Miss Jewett and Pastor Nehabetiantz went down as far as Kerind, just after the Conference of 1894. The people are all Kurds, speaking what is called the Kermanshahee dialect, and live much more like the nomads than the villagers we have seen in Persia. In fact, these are only winter quarters to those living on the lowlands beyond Kerind. Along the road they all live off the pilgrims, who come in at one stage east of Kermanshah from the north, west, centre, east and south of Persia as far as Ispahan. It is a continual study of Moslem character, to see them in all stages, from the lord to the beggar. All grades are to be found in all states of prosperity and adversity. This pilgrim trade is very demoralizing to those who live along its line. They all become very grasping. They greatly need a stable and honest government, as does all the rest of Persia. But, most of all, they need the Gospel.

At Armenabad two native workers have conducted the school, while a young licentiate has worked at Manezan. Two native evangelists have traveled about together, working at important cities in the province of Irak Ajmi.

WOMEN'S WORK.—Writing of the Friday afternoon prayermeeting Miss Lienbach remarks:

We can understand why it was necessary for the Apostle Paul to make a special command that women keep silence in the Churches; for the women of Persia are not one whit better than the Corinthian women were, and they can cause considerable commotion with their talk, and especially when a dispute arises about some missing shoes.

And her report continues:

Dr. Wilson continued to open dispensary work with a little service, and, as the attendance was very large, many women heard of the love of the Great Physician. For most of the year, when in the city, she had a service on Sabbath afternoon, which was well attended by Moslems and Jewesses. The prayer-meeting in the Jewish quarter, on Tuesday afternoon, was kept up throughout the school-year by Mrs. Hawkes, who reports a good attendance of young married women who were at one time pupils in the school.

At Sheverine, five miles away, the two afternoon meetings have not been so well attended.

The present priest keeps a watch over certain of his flock, threatening to report them to a Higher Power should they be found attending Protestant services; and for that reason many were afraid to venture near; nevertheless, they gladly gather in the home of a sick neighbor, and seem to want to hear the Gospel.

Calling is, as has been said before, the best means for helping the women. It makes not only great demands on time, but taxes the strength. There are the feast-calls on Moslems, Jews and Armenians. There are calls on the sick, calls of condolence, calls to rejoice with those who have had a friend arrive, and calls to "bless" a new home—as, in fact, much of a missionary's time must be devoted to this sort of work.

Then there is another great demand made upon the missionary's time by the numerous weddings which occur among the people. These are attended more from a sense of duty than pleasure, for it is not altogether a pleasure to be kept waiting nearly all night for the cry, "The bridegroom cometh!" But as we are not here to please ourselves, we trust that in some way our very presence in these homes may be the means of bringing the inmates closer to our Lord.

EDUCATIONAL.—Seventy-six was the average attendance at the Boys' School, where, under Mr. Watson and Mr. Hawkes, the six teachers did faithful work—three of whom are, at the same time, pursuing their medical studies. Ninety-eight girls were enrolled in the Faith Hubbard School, of whom 35 were boarders. The girls have begun now to bake all their own bread, using every week about 280 pounds of flour for this purpose. Miss Charlotte Montgomery writes:

It seems a surprise to the people to find the girls trained here so capable as wives, mothers and housekeepers. One who had looked on this school as a doubtful experiment, and would not come here for a wife for her son, was heard to say, a short time ago: "It is wonderful how those school-girls, who are married, care for their chidren! We always thought no one in a family could take care of a child but the mother-in-law. Then they are so very polite, and do not wish to do anything contrary to our customs."

During the year a Kindergarten-room was got ready; and, best of all, Miss Annie Montgomery, who is like an army of reinforcements, came back from her busy furlough at home.

Of the Jewish Girls' School, Mrs. Hawkes writes:

Near the tenth of Moharrem, in June, threats of a Jewish massacre made them afraid to venture freely in the streets. School opened September 14th. During the Autumn, we had 51 names on the roll, for the Winter months 54, and after the Passover 63.

Were a fine register the object of our ambition, we should not attain it; for many things militate against that. But I may define our aim as twofold: that these girls, in the very few years allowed them before marriage, should learn something of cleanliness and of godliness.

As to the higher aims: Since meddling with books or making intellectual progress will largely cease when they enter their husband's homes, we try to have their memories filled with the truth, knowing that God's Spirit often works, as it were, by flash-lights of memory, and in years to come He may so make use of the Word stored up.

Mrs. Hawkes concludes her report with a little revelation of Persian character:

After a heavy snow-storm in the Spring, our teacher told our landlord that the roof was leaking badly, and should be shoveled. With a characteristic shrug ne replied, "What Shall I do? Shall I say, 'Don't leak?"

MEDICAL WORK.—After eight hard months of medical work in the Station, assisting Dr. Holmes in teaching the medical students, conducting clinics and Sunday afternoon meetings with the women, Dr. Wilson went off on a long itinerating trip with Miss McCampbell, regarding which she writes:

Four cities, Kasvin, Zenjan, Bijar and Senneh, and twenty-six villages were visited. There was a perfect tumult in some places when it was known a Doctor had arrived; and the news, spreading to surrounding villages, some would come long distances to see us.

The cases ranged in importance from the woman who asked me to feel her pulse and tell her whether she would find a husband, to the hopelessly blind woman, who listened for the opening of our door, and immediately took up her station inside, and whose sighs were heartrending to hear. Smallpox, measles, whooping-cough, were prevalent among the children; while a multitude of people with a multitude of chronic diseases thronged our yard and followed us into the streets. In Senneh the lepers sat day by day in rows along the pavement begging from the passers-by, their condition most pitiable to see. It was surprising how well we were received by all classes of people on this journey—rich and poor inviting us to their homes, and in some places we had so many social engagements that little time was left for medical work.

Senneh, the last city visited, was to be made our stopping-place for a short time only, as the heat was intenser there. But on account of the illness of the elder son of Mo-a-ta-med, a prominent man of Koordistan, we remained more than a month; but just as soon as the patient's condition would permit, we started for Hamadan, in spite of entreaties on their part for us to remain.

A medical tour is a most satisfactory way of reaching the people in many ways. It is impossible to take sufficient medicines along to supply all on such a long tour. However, it gives the people an excuse to visit us, and the attraction to our lodging-place was even more than was desired.

Dr. Holmes reports:

The Dispensary has been open continuously throughout the year. The attendance has been usually large, and many patients came arom long distances—five, ten or more days' journey for treatment. A number of surgical operations have been made, some of exceptional gravity. An important feature of the Dispensary service during the year has been the treatment of victims of the opium habit, who are almost as numerous in many parts of Persia as in China.

The two medical graduates came back from Teheran and opened Dispensaries in Hamadan, where they already have their hands full. Dr. Holmes continues:

The demand for educated physicians keeps more than pace with all that all our medical centres can do to qualify them. Mirza Saeed, the converted Koord who studied with my predecessor, Dr. Alexander, and who afterwards studied awhile in England and returned, has had his hands full of practice since, and has recently been invited to go with the family of Ain-e-Dowleh (whose wife is daughter of the present Shah) to Teheran, and since his arrival there he has been strongly urged by the prince and princess to remain permanently in their service. And this, although he had told them at the outset that he is a Christian, and though he unhesitatingly bears joyful testimony at every opportunity to Christ as the only and all-sufficient Saviour.

Of the many appeals for political assistance, Dr. Holmes writes:

It is a rule, with few exceptions in my experience, that we find local governors friendly and desirous of complying with reasonable demands. But the real power of even the strongest governors is very limited, and if an offender seeks refuge in the grounds of a mujtaheed, he can defy the governor with impunity. There can be no question that the present government is much weaker than the last one, and that the power of the priesthood has correspondingly become magnified. We try to keep on pleasant terms with these mujtaheeds, as it makes things work much smoother.

Part of the Summer Dr. Holmes spent with Mrs. Holmes in an itinerating tour, of which he reports:

We were beset by great multitudes at every point, all of them seeking the healing of the body, while but very few cared for the interest of their souls. To these few it was difficult, in the midst of the clamor for medical treatment, to find an opportunity to have any really profitable conversation; and it was always a relief to meet a few individuals by the wayside, or in a garden, to whom we could tell of Christ and their need of salvation without interruption. I could appreciate, as I had seldom done before, the purpose of our Saviour in so often enjoining on those whom He had healed, that they should tell no man.

At Dowlatabad, since the season of mourning of the month of Moharrem was at its height, we decided to stop only over night, and go on as soon as practicable in the morning. But the Governor, who was an old acquaintance, learning of our coming, sent an officer with a present, and an invitation for us to take breakfast with him in the morning, and saying that, as soon as the lamentation for the evening was concluded, he would himself call. This he did in company with one of the chief mujtaheeds, and the next morning a carriage with four horses was sent to convey us to his house in a pleasant park outside the city, near the mountain.

During the year there were 43 important surgical operations and 5,556 attendances at the Dispensary.

LITERARY WORK.—The first instalment of the Bible Dictionary in Persia, consisting of the first books translated by Mr. Hawkes, has been printed by the Memorial Press at Ispahan. Mr. Tisdall, of the C. M. S. Mission, has translated the gospel of John into Kurdish at Mr. Hawkes' instance. As to Bible sales Mr. Hawkes writes:

Of late the sales have fallen off very much, and the agent is constantly saked, "Are you never going to stop peddling these books in the bazaar?" A short time ago, a Sayed inquired into his books and work, and commanded him to stop, threatening to take him before a prominent mujtaheed. But when the agent showed great willingness to go along with him, he turned him off, and on the sly said: "Go on with your business, and I will not molest you."

The admirable and fine-spirited reports of the East Persia Mission may be concluded with the last paragraph of one of them:

In hard times many manufactories are obliged to dismiss their operators, and close up their establishments for want of funds. But those who can, continue their work, although they are losing money every day. They do it for two reasons: first, to give employment to their men and save their families from starvation; second, to be ready for business when better times come. While those who closed up their establishments are getting ready, collecting their men and getting their rusted machinery in running order, these have done much work, and largely made up their losses, because they get all the first and best orders. To some extent this is true of missionary and Bible Society work. We are seeing hard times. Those who are able to weather the storm will see the fruit of their labors and rich harvests. Moslem fanaticism affects the sale of the Scriptures, the proclamation of the truth and the schools; but no doubt good times will come in. The tide is against us now, but doubtless there are glorious times ahead, when our good Lord will answer the many prayers of His servants, and turn the wind and tide in their favor.

OROOMIAH STATION.

In the face of difficulties and discouragements greater than have been encountered for years, the work of the Oroomiah Station has still been marked by larger blessing and hopefulness than there had been courage to expect.

Beginning with the Week of Prayer, God's Spirit was poured out on the Churches, and the Winter of 1897 will long be remembered for the precious revivals that characterized it. For three months the missionaries and native evangelists were taxed to the utmost to meet the demands on their time, and as it was several pastors were unable to secure help.

How bright the outlook was, is indicated by the following extract from the report of the Committee on Evangelization for the quarter ending April 16, 1898:

To-day, after three months of untiring and unremitting work, the report of all the evangelists and helpers is that there is no Old Nestorian Church left, and that if earnest and continued work is kept up, that Church will soon be a thing of the past. The Anglican Mission view with surprise the great stampede to the Gospel services, and are greatly discouraged. One of their members asked one of our evangelists what he assigned as a reason for our great success, and when told that it was only the work of the Holy Spirit, lapsed into deep silence.

Several facts may be mentioned as of the greatest encouragement. Never before has there been as deep a thirst for the Word of God—such a desire to hear it preached in all its simplicity, and such a ready response to its claims. With the exception of one place, there has also been practically no opposition to the work.

A very different aspect was soon presented, as the final Evangelistic report of the year indicates:

As we entered the Spring everything was full of promise, when suddenly we were confronted with two calamities. One was the arrival of two Russian priests, claiming to establish a Mission; and the other was a "cut" of about 42 per cent. in the estimates. One blow came from a Church noted for its error, superstition and opposition to all evangelical truth; and the other came from the Church that has assumed the grave responsibility, and committed itself by the most solemn pledges, to maintain the work it has carried on here for the past century. Both came when it seemed as if the Church here was ready for a great forward movement—when we hoped to see the largest ingathering of souls in its history; when the Old Nestorian Church seemed all ready to fall to pieces, and accept the truth resisted for so many years. It is not necessary to say which blow hurt most and has caused the gravest anxiety.

The Russians were welcomed with most extravagant joy. The people, ground down by centuries of oppression and injustice, saw in them their

The Russians were welcomed with most extravagant joy. The people, ground down by centuries of oppression and injustice, saw in them their saviors. Thousands went to meet them with dancing and song, and woe be to the Moslem who presumed to come near the procession; he was rudely handled, and things were said that would be now gladly recalled.

Their propaganda, under the leadership of the unprincipled bishop and other characters as bad, was commenced on the Nazloo River. It should be borne in mind that this is the river where the Gospel has had its hardest struggle, and by far most unpromising field. The people are, most of them, complete slaves to as bad and unprincipled a bishop as ever disgraced that office; and his word with them is law. The Russians naturally had a walk over, and it is estimated that they secured about 10,000 names as adherents to the Greek Church. Our Church was all that stood the onslaught, and we lost about one-third our members. These were inveigled into giving their names by most extravagant promises, threats, force and family ties.

About two months ago the Russians left, no one knows why, and fortunately took with them the bishop and his assistants.

The heavy reduction in appropriations, rendered necessary by the decline of liberality in the home Church, forced the closing of the College and the Fiske Seminary and of the Hospital, although the last was saved by the personal contributions of the missionaries, which, together with their contributions toward the deficiency of the home Church, cut frightfully into their scanty salaries. Several gifts from America supplemented these sacrifices of the missionaries; or the Hospital, with all its magnificent work, would have been closed at the very time when, owing to the great influx of refugees from Turkey, there was a most piteous need for it.

The reduction in the appropriations was used by the missionaries, as far as possible, to encourage the native Church to take another step toward self-support. Great progress has been made during the year in this matter—in consolidating the work under a smaller number of workers, in laying greater emphasis on the native evangelistic opportunity, and in the assuming by the local Churches of all expense of repairs of church buildings and manses. Yet the difficulties are very great, as the Station's report points out:

The poverty of the people! The nation is passing through a financial crisis, in which many have become bankrupt. For three years the thousands of refugees have been a terrible burden to the people. With a generosity and openness of hand that might put to the blush the most liberal gifts of more fortunate and wealthy nations, they have absolutely divided their last crust with the starving. It is estimated that not less than $50,000 have been given out in bread and food. To-day hundreds are absolutely without a cent, or food of any kind. We have felt embarrassed in pressing our Church as much as we have, and have felt that we were cutting it to the quick.

But a second difficulty is in the increasing oppressions of the government. It is more exacting and abusive each year. In fact, whatever may be said as to the poverty of other nations, we doubt whether any existing government, unless it be Turkey, can equal in its tyranny this one.

And another difficulty is the attitude of Islam toward all who are Christians. Debarred from entering many trades and pursuits, their property is ever the lawful prey of unscrupulous officials; and there are continual lawsuits, where the Christian has, as a rule, to meet the costs.

In addition to these difficulties is the embarrassment arising from the presence of the Roman Catholic and Anglican Missions, each endeavoring to nullify the work of our own Mission, which is evangelical in its character, as it also came to the field prior to the others. It seemed possible for a while that this difficulty would be increased by the addition of another Mission from America. Earnest protest, however, was made, and it now seems probable that this calamity may be averted.

Although the Russian priests have withdrawn for a while, the difficulties they have introduced have not departed. Mr. Labaree reports:

The country has not quieted down with the departure of the Russian priests. Reports of the return of this Mission, with increased numbers and power, are keeping up the hopes of the people in a political savior. The political aspect of the country is also chaotic.

And Mr. Coan, writing on this same subject, states:

While, on the one side, there have been defections, there have also been conspicuous examples of what some are walling to endure for the faith. Women have, day after day, endured beating, because they would not follow their husbands into the Greek Church, and stood it out until they have won the day. Men have been threatened and fined, and young men cast out of their homes, and remained unmovable, finally bringing back with them those from whom they had suffered. The Russian priests have in many villages spoken with surprise and praise of our work, and have expressed tnemselves as greatly astonished at the hold evangelical truth had on the people.

The following table will illustrate the condition of the work this year, as compared with last:

It is remarkable that, in spite of all the defections of the year, such a gain in membership can be indicated; and that, despite the awful poverty and deprivations of the people, an average of 78 cents per member has been given, exclusive of what the people pay for pupils in the College and Fiske Seminary.

The Mountain Field.—It is a matter of deep regret that the disturbed condition of the country has left this important part of our field without visitation now for two years. We have in the mountains two pastors, six licentiates and one native physician. During the year we have lost two; one who left on account of the complete sacking of his village, and one has been dropped on account of the "cut." It is estimated that not more than one-third of the population of the once fertile Gawar Plain is now there. Most of the people are here as refugees, and their condition is most pitiable. Owing to the extreme difficulty of communication, full reports are not in; but we had last Winter twenty village schools, with an attendance of about 260. The two High Schools have been closed the past two years, on account of the cut.

LAKE CONVENTION.—As a spiritual help to the pastors, the Fourth Summer Bible Conference was held on the shores of Lake Oroomiah for eight days during the Summer.

Only one-third of the helpers were present, many being deterred by the small sum necessary to meet expenses; but there was a good attendance of outsiders, and the spiritual tone was good.

VISIT OF DR. MATHEWS.—The Rev. Dr. George Mathews, Secretary of the Presbyterian Alliance, visited the West Persia Mission during the Fall, was present at the meeting of the Knooshya (Synod), and brought great encouragement to the people and to the missionaries. The little Church that has grown up among the Nestorians stands in no subordinate relation to other Presbyterian Churches, and was greatly stimulated by Dr. Mathews' visit, and the recognition given to it as an integral part of the body of Presbyterian Churches.

ITINERATING WORK.— A great deal of work has been done among the villages during the year, not only by the men of the Station, but by Miss Mary Van Duzee and Miss Russell. A personal report of one of the missionaries will indicate the demands made and met in such work:

Number of villages visited	132
(Of these 68 were villages.) Time spent in villages (days or parts of days)	199
Number of services held	263
New sermons or discourses prepared	49
Personal interviews with spiritual bearing	700

MEDICAL WORK.—Dr Cochran reports:

The Hospital has been open during the past fifteen months, with the exception of the three Summer months, when it has always been our custom to close it. During those months also a few who had come from long distances had to be received. At one time it looked as though we must not open this hospital again this year; and, indeed, we could not have done so, had not the missionaries and others come to our rescue. The total number of patients for the time under consideration was 577.

Quite a number were from among the refugees from Turkey—Nestorians and Armenians. The sufferings endured by many of these people in making their way over here was something terrible. Unable to come away openly, a company would start out from their village in the night under escort of paid Kurds. Neither the Christians nor the Kurds dared be seen on the public roads in the valleys, and so steep and high valleys had to be crossed. At night they could not venture into villages, and so would pass the darkest hours in the best shelter they could find among the rocks, surrounded by banks of perpetual snow; or, those who came later in the season would make the whole journey in the snow. Some of them sick, owing to privations, to start with; most of them with bread enough for a day or two at best; and all of them thinly clad; and from four to eight days on the road, would reach Oroomiah in a sad condition.

There have been Kurdish chiefs and Kurdish subjects in the Hospital. Among the latter class we have now a young man who was sent here by his chief to steal another chief's mules. He and his two companions stole up to the place where the mules were feeding and secured three, and started off with them, but were surrounded by their owner, who recovered the animals, killed his companions, and shot him through the lower jaw, fracturing it and tearing open his mouth almost to the ear. Now that he has nearly recovered, his wild and belligerent nature is again asserting itself, and he is picking quarrels with his fellownish him if he does not behave.

Among the outside patients have been many leading people of the place, the Governors, the chief Moslem ecclesiastics, and many khans.

Besides her work in connection with the Hospital, Dr. Miller made a tour in company with Miss M. K. Van Duzee and Mr.

Coan to Sulduz, for about two weeks.

The relief work began by Mr. W. W. Howard in the Fall of 1896, and for which Mr. Howard raised in Great Britain and America, with generous and self-forgetful energy, large sums of money, has been carried on during the year by the Oroomiah missionaries, especially by Dr. Cochran.

Over 23,000 tomans have been distributed in food, clothing, bedding, oxen, plows, seed, and in the payment for labor done by the refugees.

POLITICAL DIFFICULTIES.—Renewed efforts have been made to keep political difficulties from coming before Moslem officials; and where difficulties have arisen between Nestorians and Moslems, and where it has been impossible to keep matters out of the hands of the latter, much work has been involved to secure justice and prevent oppression. Dr. Cochran writes:

The long sickness of Shamasha Eleya, the legal representative of our community, brought more of the detail of the diwan work upon me during that period. There have been many aggravated cases of oppression, plunder and murder among the people, aside from the common difficulties arising between the Christians themselves.

An especially perplexing case arose in the village of Geogtapa, where the accidental drowning of a Moslem after a quarrel, in which some of the young men of this Christian village were involved, brought down upon the village outrage and robbery and oppression, which was only stayed at last by money payments, aggregating one thousand tomans, and by the execution of one of the Nestorians. The general outlook of the country has been gloomier than for many years. Civil government has seemed to grow weaker and weaker, and oppression, disorder and outrage have increased.

THE PRESS.-

The output for the Oroomiah Press for the twelve months ending April 30, 1897, was larger than for two years past. The total number of pages printed was 725,716. Of these 279,000 were of Sunday-school Lesson leaves, 79,200 were of the "Rays of Light," 25,000 in completing the Sacred Geography, 192,000 on the Hymn-book, 100,000 were of the Primer, 29,200 were of tracts, and 21,316 of job work, most of the latter being a report of the National Committee Meeting of Nestorians.

During the year work was done in casting four complete fonts of Syriac type, one of them being without vowel-points.

The Guest Department.—Our city is, of course, the political and market-centre for the hundreds of villages surrounding it. In the Christian quarter of the city, there are no inns where the thousands of people who come to the city on business may lodge. To stay at the house of some Christian imposes a burden which even Oriental hospitality is unable to bear. For the villagers to return the same day is often impossible, because of the distance and the slow methods of transacting business. Then many come in on Mission business, and we must provide them a lodging. So gradually has sprung up what we call the "Guest Department." This consists of three lodging-rooms, a stable, a kitchen, a couple of store-rooms, and a man in charge of all. The rooms are furnished with carpets, and about a dozen quilts each—a very meagre outfit compared with the needs and use. One room is exclusively for our own preachers. To these alone do we give any food, and that only once a month to the fifteen members of the Evangelistic and Educational Boards, during their two days' sessions. The second room is for the commoner people of the plain, and the third room for the poorer and dirtier people of the mountains. All three rooms are lighted and warmed, and all Christians welcomed without reference to creed.

The present man in charge is an elder in the Geogtapa Church, and we pay him four tomans a month. He takes entire charge of the department, cooking and serving the meals for the members of the Boarda, keeping the bedding in order and the rooms clean, and in conducting himself, or securing a leader for the devotional exercises which are held regularly morning and evening. He does not hesitate to reprove even our preachers, if they fail to attend the services while they are here.

There is no preacher who has so large a parish as is found in our Guest Department.

It takes a man of rare force of character and spirit to heat the rooms economically, to assign the men to their proper places, acting firmly and with kindly spirit, and at the same time to perform the work of cook and earnest preacher.

WOMEN'S WORK.—Mrs. Labaree writes, of the women's meeting undertaken by her and Mrs. Shedd:

The sad ignorance and woeful habits of the mothers of this country, and the pitiful condition of the poor children, have lain heavily on my heart for a long time, and in going to the villages I have tried to talk along lines that might be especially helpful to mothers. In personal calls on women in the city, this thought has usually been uppermost. Last December, when calling on a mother who had just laid away her fifth little one in the grave we naturally fell to speaking of the care of children, and she said: "It must be that we do not know how to take proper care of our children." When I saw how eager she was to learn some better way, the opportunity for which I had been watching for over a year seemed to have presented itself, and as a result of that call a mothers' meeting has been formed.

Miss Russell has not been very strong for the whole of the year, but has made nine visits to villages apart from her personal work in Oroomiah.

Miss Mary Van Duzee writes:

The work for women this year has been in some respects very different from that of previous years. The thousands of mountain Nestorians who have poured down upon all our villages, filling every house, stable and shed to their utmost capacity, have brought to our doors a new element, sadly in need of instruction. Many of them were surprised to come into the light of our Churches and schools, and said they never before had realized how dark they had been in their mountain homes, and how far away from God. Very many of them profess to have been converted in the precious revivals of last Winter. For these multitudes of mountain women brought to our doors, we employed six extra Bible-women during the Winter, and their work seemed to be blessed.

Several of the mountain women have asked for admission to the Church, and much seed has been sown, which we hope will bear fruit some time. In Geograpa I went with the Bible-woman to see her flock, and many of the women, and even the men, repeated the Lord's Prayer and the Creed, with the pleasure of a little child who rejoices in some new attainment.

In November we had an Institute for Deaconnesses.

There has been less opportunity than ever to work for Moslem women, but the regular Sunday Bible Class for them has been continued throughout the year.

The villages in my care contained 150 of the poor refugees, who were here in the dead of Winter without food, and very many without bedding or clothing, except as supplied by the kindness of Christian friends. Nearly all these families I visited personally, and found several sleeping on the bare ground in the stables.

I have spent 78 days, or parts of days, in the villages, visiting 50 different ones, and several of them many times over. I have conducted 194 meetings, made 592 calls, and received 1,092 callers.

EDUCATIONAL.—The "cut" forced the closing of the Fiske Seminary and the College during part of the year, but all of the day-schools were practically continued on one-fourth the amount expended on them the year before, the people themselves providing what else was necessary. There were 46 boys in the College.

TABRIZ STATION.

The Tabriz missionaries have never taken up the work of their large field with greater energy and sacrifice than during the last year. As Mr. Brashear writes:

During the fourteen months since Annual Meeting in October, 1896, we have averaged two men in the field nearly all the time. In other words, one-sixth of the time of the force of Tabriz has been spent in reaching the widely scattered peoples of our region. In this account the married ladies are included, for they have borne just as much of the burden by remaining at home "with the stuff" as have the others.

burden by remaining at home "with the stuff" as have the others.

Miss Jewett has spent six months in Mianduab and vicinity. Dr.

Wright has passed eight months making three tours to Salmas, Khoi and the Armenian villages in that and Oroomiah fields. He also made a journey to Karadagh. Miss Holliday spent five months in Salmas, Khoi and vicinity. T. G. Brashear spent three and a half months in a tour to Moslem villages between Tabriz and Maragha, and then two months in Salmas. Mr. Wilson made a journey of one month's duration to Karadagh. Beside these, the native agency has done better than usual in visiting the places near the outstations, and we have made some trips to places near the city. In Tabriz corresponding efforts have been put forth to reach the people with the simple Gospel message, and not without results.

We have to note the death of a native brother, a convert from the sect of the Alli Illahees. He died with his Bible clasped in his hands, and trusting in Christ.

Both Dr. Wright and Mr. Brashear emphasize the conviction that now, that the field is open, every energy must be devoted to spreading the knowledge of the Gospel, lest the opportunity should pass with our work undone. Mr. Brashear says:

The general state of affairs in this part of the world has also led us to believe that it is our first duty to preach the Gospel as fast and to as many people as we can, not knowing how soon changes may occur which will either compel us to cease from this work or to carry it on under restrictions.

And Dr. Wright writes:

As to Mission policy, I find a growing tendency to put the great emphasis on the direct, and, as far as may be, public proclamation of the truth.

We must work while the day of opportunity lasts. Present indications are that this part of Persia may soon pass into other and less favorable conditions.

In Tabriz, evangelistic meetings have been held at different seasons of the year, and have made a deep impression upon the Armenians. Mr. Wilson writes of them:

One of these meetings is described by a traveling correspondent of an Armenian paper of Tiflis, the "Nor Dar" (New Century). He concludes his article as follows: "A thing which drew my attention was this: How did such a multitude honor this meeting with their presence, when they themselves were not pleased with it? If it had been any kind of a national meeting, they would not have come if you had invited them twenty times. But now, behold! they have come of their own accord to hear themselves rebuked.

I also meditated how the American dollar has reared up structures in Persia where at night, when most people are asleep, fishing for men is carried on rapidly, and yet so veiled and with such success, that quickly the Gregorian faith shall be changed to the Protestant. And with it all Etchmiadzin is asleep!"

Numbers have been added to the Church at each of the communion seasons. The report remarks also:

The "cut" has had a wholesome effect in teaching us to look more to the spiritual power necessary for success, and less to material means. I think all our missionaries and native brethren now see that perhaps a mistake was made in giving and expecting so much support from Christians at home.

It is to be regretted that Miss Holliday's report of her work in the Salmas plain and the report of Miss Jewett of her work at Mianduab cannot be reproduced in full. They constitute strong evidence of the heroic character of our missionary work. For eight months Miss Jewett lived alone in the Moslem village of Mianduab, four days' journey from Tabriz; seeing in all that time only Mr. Coan and Miss Lincoln, who stopped for a day or so on their return from Hamadan. Miss Jewett justly asks:

Is it not worthy of record that I was enabled to dwell in peace and safety, in a Moslem town for eight months, surrounded on all sides by Moslems, and uniformly treated with the greatest respect by all—men, women and children,—with unnumbered opportunities of teaching them the truth as revealed in our blessed Bible?

On the morning that I left Mianduab for Tabriz, my yard was full of my friends among the men—Armenian and Moslem—who had come to see me c.f. My room was full of my women friends and my boys and girls. While my horses were being loaded, I began to read to those in my room, and standing by the open window. As I read and talked to them and spoke of our coming separation, all hearts were touched, and the room was filled with weeping. When at last I was started, the crowd of men, women and children accompanied me on the way to the river bank, with kind and loving farewells. The reason I came away was that I had found the loneliness, the mental strain, the cramped quarters (my one little room serving as a sitting-room, dining-room, bedroom, reception-room, schoolroom and meeting-room), the lack of comforts and even necessities, and the foggy, damp atmosphere telling on my health. I was almost broken down when I reached Tabriz.

I find it more difficult to work in Tabriz than in Mianduab, because

I find it more difficult to work in Tabriz than in Mianduab, because in the great city there is more formality and less freedom than in the small town.

During the six months I was in the city, I received 144 calls, made 109 visits, attended 148 meetings, and helped to entertain guests at our table for 165 meals, averaging a little less than three efforts a day.

Although Miss Jewett has been for twenty-six years in Persia, had filled the preceding months with all this work, she made four other country tours to Sulduz, Oatch Tappa, Maragha and Mianduab, where she remained one month. Of this visit she writes:

"Another parable spake He unto them: "The Kingdom of Heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal till the whole was leavened." Once in a while we are permitted glimpses of how the leaven is working. I was rejoiced to see that it was not in vain that I had remained in Mianduab those eight months, living among the people, teaching them by precept and example. With great love and cordiality they received me. For many days and evenings my time was fully occupied in conversations with those who came to give me a welcome. One evening especially I note, when there was a company of 25 in my room, 12 of whom were women, the rest my boys and girls. After the reading of a portion of Scripture, with comments and a prayer, the remainder of the evening was spent in a pleasant social manner. What a change was manifest in the conversation and the words used! Where, a year previous, these same mouths were full of oaths and blasphemy, I now heard nothing of that sort. One woman said: "We have learned so that now we seldom swear, even in our own houses." While living among them I ever frowned on anything filthy in word or act, and it was encouraging to see the impression that had been made.

Miss Holliday's work in the Salmas plain was chiefly among the Armenians, and of the same faithful, energetic character as Miss Jewett's. To such work as this Miss Holliday brings her magnificent intellectual equipment, with a spirit of never-to-beruffled cheerfulness. From Oola, she wrote in December:

The Winter has set in about a month earlier than usual, and fleavy-snows have fallen, so the plain is thickly covered, and it is not yet cold enough to give solid roads; but, from January to March, it is said there will be good traveling, and by April all will be dry. Every one said Winter is the very best time to see village people, as they are at leisure from field-work.

During the Winter Miss Holliday traveled about from town to town, encouraging the native workers, teaching the people, and preaching the Gospel with her Armenian woman for a companion.

BOYS' SCHOOL.—Mr. Wilson writes:

The total attendance is 140, of whom 18 are in the kindergarten, 102 in the common-school course, and 20 in the night-school. All are Armenians, except six Nestorians, and ten are children of Protestants.

menians, except six Nestorians, and ten are children of Protestants.

In October the night-school for young men was started with lessons in Armenian, Arithmetic, Book-keeping, English and Singing. It began with fifty pupils, but the demand for a slight tuition, the opening of an opposition night-school by the Armenians with free instruction, together with other causes, reduced the attendance to 20. Even with this number it is a success, especially as most of the pupils are regular attendants at the evangelistic services

In the Autumn no high-school classes were received, partly because retrenchment was necessary, but largely because a change of policy seemed necessary. Neither the condition of Persia nor the demands of our Mission work can furnish employment to a great number of thoroughly trained young men. Those not needed as teachers or called as preachers find difficulty in earning a livelihood, and drift to foreign countries, and their influence for the advancement of Christianity in Persia is lost. On the other hand, boys who leave school at about the age of sixteen can become apprentices to merchants or artisans, or, if need be, return to their farms or gardens, and remain a part of the life of Persia; and if they have developed the proper character, can be efficient leaders of their people, who are for the most part far behind them in education.

GIRLS' SCHOOL.—Miss Wallace's return to America left the responsibilities of the Girls' School upon Miss Demuth, while Miss Holliday did a great deal of work, especially in Bible-teaching, before going to Salmas, and Miss Jewett moved into the building with Miss Demuth on her return from Mianduab. Scarlet fever, typhoid fever and smallpox were among the alleviations of the year's work; Miss Demuth having been laid aside herself for quite a while by typhoid.

MEDICAL WORK.—Dr. Vanneman reports a larger number of patients in the Dispensary than any previous year; a Mosul convert assisting greatly in speaking to those in the waiting-room of Jesus. Dr. Vanneman's report gives interesting incidents:

During the year I have visited medically most every person of prominence in the city. In this way I have been called to the Crown Prince of Persia, the Governor of this part of Persia, government officials of all grades, and many of the Persian nobility. I have treated the families of four of the five European consuls, nearly all of the European population, and a large number of the Armenians.

Every call that the poor have made has been answered, while the rich have often been declined for lack of time.

We try to keep the first place in our work for the poor.

Dr. Vanneman was also called to treat the chief Moslem ecclesiastic in Tabriz, who was at the time ill in his village, 12 or 15 miles away. Though the call came at about two o'clock in the morning, Dr. Vanneman went immediately, to the great delight of the Mushtiheed, and remained with him for two days, being treated by the whole family with the greatest respect and consideration.

There were 8,579 attendances at the Dispensary, and 1,153 outside visits.

The women's medical work, save to the extent that Dr. Vanneman had been able to carry it on, was resumed by Dr. Bradford on her return from America, July 3, 1897. The property given by Mr. and Mrs. Whipple on their return to America was put in order for the Hospital purposes by means of special gifts from Mrs. Reid, of Lake Forest, Ill., in memory of her daughter, Mrs. Lillie Reid Holt. The Memorial Fund given by the friends of Theodore Child, the artist, who died in Persia several years ago, was also used; and although it will be necessary to display great tact, there is every hope that Dr. Bradford will be able to develop a useful medical work in behalf of the Moslem women. In addition to 349 Dispensary patients during the two months preceding Dr. Bradford's report, she had made 119 visits, of one of which she writes:

At one house they cordially allowed Dr. Vanneman to help me; but another time when I wished to send for him, they asked me to postpone the operation, and then did not call me for two days. During that time every other possible means were resorted to, and I reached them only to find the patient beyond help; for the lot had decided against my return, and their holy men had said: "It is better for her to die than that a man should see her." At another place, after the patient had been made comfortable, the master of the house came in, and sitting down among the women, he said: "Hereafter I shall always call the lady doctor whenever we have need of her." Turning to the midwife, he spat on her, and exclaimed, in an angry voice: "What do you know? You have been deceiving me all this time. The fact is we will put all question of defilement to one side, and have her come whenever we wish." As it was the house of a Sayed, and my every motion had been guarded with the utmost care that not a drop of water should fall on the carpet, nor even my fingers come in contact with the faucet of the samavar, I thought it would be some time before "all question of defilement would be put away."

Dr. Bradford is striving to make her medical work wholly evangelistic:

Realizing that those who come to us are much more in need of spiritual than bodily healing, and recognizing that the medical work in the city is an important means of contact with the Moslem women, our aim is that every one we treat should hear something of Christ. This is done by taking time to speak with each one. Sometimes only a few words are said; sometimes a half hour is spent in reading and talking.

Every morning the workmen of the building gather for prayers, and on Sunday come for a preaching service.

MOSUL STATION.

The Board decided, with great reluctance, during the year to withdraw from the work at Mosul for the following reasons:

The remote and isolated position of Mosul; the impossibility of carrying on from Mosul the work among the mountain Nestorians, for which the Mission Station had originally been established; the inability of the missionaries to secure permission to build suitable residences; the opinion of the medical missionary that the climatic and sanitary conditions were such that missionaries "would be only able to live here during six months of the year." the depletion of the missionary force by resignation on account of health; the feeling of the remaining missionaries that it was not the wisest and most economical expenditure of life and money to keep up the attempt to carry on the work of the Station; and the great demands of other fields. In accordance with this action, Dr. and Mrs. Hansen were transferred to the Laos Mission, and Mr. and Mrs. Ainslie, whose work has been in Arabic, and Miss McLean, plan to return to the United States. as no other Arabic work is connected with the Persia Missions.

Regarding the evangelistic work, Mr. Ainslie writes:

There had been no special religious interest, yet there were reported 12 new members and 35 inquirers. One village had been abandoned on account of oppression, and the preacher was asking for a new field of labor. In another region our preacher and teacher had been arrested and imprisoned, breaking up the work there. Yet, when we looked at the field as a whole, there were signs of encouragement and hope. Just after the members of the Presbytery had gone home, we received the news that more than 56 per cent. of the appropriation for the year must be cut out. As a result of this, we wiped from our slate all the boarding-schools, in the field, all the day-schools in the mountains, and a large percentage of the preachers in all parts of the field.

Of the educational work, the Station report says:

Last Winter Mr. McDowell gathered a class of five members, and gave them a course of about four months in the most practical branches of theology. The Tiary Night School and twenty-one day-schools in the mountains gathered a fair number of scholars for a snort term of instruction. These schools need personal superintendence by a missionary, but circumstances did not allow of this the past year.

We will not try to describe the many forms of opposition from the Catholics and from Government officials. We thought these bad enough, but the hardest blow of all came from the American Churches in cutting down the work.

WOMEN'S WORK.—In spite of the hostility of the Turkish government and the inability of the missionaries to visit the mountain people, the work among the women has been kept up faithfully. Some of the difficulties of the work among the women in Mosul arise from the efforts of the Catholic missionaries. Miss McLean writes:

The Arab women are being deluded; one told us many of them prayed to the Virgin Mary, and they believed she would answer their prayers. When asked who she was, the reply was: "I don't know; some woman." And in a village called Nebby Jonas, quite a sacred Moslem retreat, we found many of the women were wearing medallions, such as are worn by every Catholic, and some wished to sell them as antiques from Nineveh.

In Mosul the Bible-women have a class of 40 scholars, three of whom are over 50 years of age, 12 are Catholics, and the rest Jacobites. Miss McLean's report continues:

All of these 40 scholars are taught the Testament, beginning with John's gospel. How earnestly do we pray that, as Christ revealed Himself to the woman of Samaria, so He would to these women!

Hundreds have visited our homes, many of them have been Moslem women; and although we cannot do much more than pray for them, yet they have said we were not like them; we were willing to help everybody. Earnestly do we hope and pray that, through us, Christ may be magnified and made known.

MEDICAL WORK.—Dr. Hansen has seen 2,500 patients, and did quite a little work on his way to and from Tabriz at the last Annual Meeting.

Sometimes, along the road, we were called on to descend from our horses and attend to the sick! Physicians rarely pass through those wild Kurdish mountains; so people are eager to avail themselves of the opportunity when one arrives, especially as they have learned on other occasions to value the service of the Missionary physician.

We have been enabled to overcome a good deal of the anti-Protestant prejudices which prevail in the city, and our services are sought for from homes which formerly have been adverse to seek aid of the Protestant physician. We are glad to note that this circle is gradually widening, both in Mohammedan and Christian communities.

MISSIONS IN SIAM.

SIAM MISSION.

BANGKOK: on the River Menam, 25 miles from its mouth; occupied as a Mission station, 1840 to 1844, and from 1847 to the present time; missionaries—Rev. E. P. Dunlap, D.D., and Mrs. Dunlap, Rev. J. A. Eakin, Rev. F. L. Snyder and Mrs. Snyder, Rev. J. B. Dunlap and Mrs. Dunlap, Walter B. Toy, M.D., and Mrs. Toy, Rev. Boon Boon-Itt and Mrs. Boon-Itt, Miss Edna S. Cole, Miss Elsie J. Bates and Miss L. J. Cooper, Miss E. A. Eakin.

PETCHABUREE: on the western side of the Gulf of Siam, 85 miles southwest of Bangkok; occupied as a Mission Station in 1861; missionaries—Rev. W. G. McClure and Mrs. McClure, Rev. Charles E. Eckels and Mrs. Eckels, Mrs. Thompson, Miss Annabel Galt, Miss E. Hitchcock, Mrs. F. I. Lyman.

RATABUREE: occupied as a Mission Station in 1889; missionaries—Rev. E. Wachter, M.D., and Mrs. Wachter, Rev. A. W. Cooper and Mrs. Cooper.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Mrs. Jas. B. Thompson, Rev. C. E. Eckels and Mrs. Eckels.

IN MEMORIAM.— The year has been remarkable for the number of promotions from our company of missionaries to the higher service in heaven. The Rev. Stephen Bush, D.D., was the first to go. He was a missionary in Bangkok, 1849 to 1852, when he was obliged to leave Siam on account of his health. He passed away at his home in Waterford, N. Y., near the close of last year. Mrs. J. A. Eakin, who was at home on furlough with her husband and two children, entered into rest in January. The Rev. S. G. McFarland, D.D., finished his course in April, at his home in Canonsburg, Pa. He came to Siam in 1860, and labored until 1896. The Rev. N. A. McDonald, D.D., was called to the presence chamber of the King in August. He and Dr. McFarland, with their wives, came to Siam on the same vessel. After twenty-five years of great usefulness, he finally gave up the work in 1885, and was living at his home in Shade Gap, Pa., when the summons came. All these were faithful unto death, and have received the crown of life. We extend to the dear friends who mourn their departure our sincere sympathy, as those who suffer and rejoice with them.

BANGKOK STATION.

CHURCHES.—The three Churches of the Station are in a flourishing condition. The first, at Sumray, has received during the year five persons on confession of their faith, and ten others have expressed their intention to unite at the next Communion. The second Church, at Wang Lang, though limited by its location mainly to the teachers and students of the Harriet M. House School, has maintained regular services except during the school vacations, and has received one new member. Two children have been baptized. The third Church, at Rajawong Chapel, has also been making substantial growth. Nine persons have been received on profession of their faith and baptized, and two children were baptized.

EVANGELISTIC.—In the broader sense of the term, all our work is evangelistic; and in the ordinary sense, all other departments are subordinate to the work of winning souls for Christ and building up His Church in this land. It is a pleasure to record that our people show an increasing desire to do more for the support of the Gospel. The first Church, in addition to supporting its own pastor and building a parsonage for him, has paid the salary of one of its elders, who is engaged in evangelistic work; and it is now proposed that all our native evangelists shall hereafter be under the care and control of the Home Mission Committee of the Presbytery of Siam, and be supported from its funds.

Outside of the organization Churches, regular preaching services have been carried on at Rajawong and Paknam by Mr. Snyder, and at one chapel in Bangkok by Mr. J. B. Dunlap. One preaching-place in the city was closed for lack of funds on account of the cut on our appropriations; but another is soon to be opened, supported by private subscription here on the field.

The attendance has been good at all these places. The work at Paknam seems especially encouraging. There are several believers among the attendants, though they are not yet ready to confess Christ openly. At Ayuthia systematic house-to-house visiting has been done, from which fruit will surely come in due time.

ITINERATING.—Mr. Boon-Itt, with several others, traversed a considerable part of the Paknampo region, preaching and teaching.

In this connection special mention is due to the work of Kru Huat, the evangelist of the First Church of Bangkok. He had formerly been all over that part of the country as an official in the Siamese government service, and was known everywhere as a man of strict integrity and unblemished reputation. Afterward, when he went among the people with the Gospel message, his character added weight to his words.

As usual, most of the touring has been done by Dr. Dunlap. He and Mrs. Dunlap spent 42 days in February and March on a tour down the east coast of the Gulf of Siam.

They visited six provinces and three islands, going by cance and on foot back some distance from the coast, and laboring in the villages in the interior. As a rule, they were well received. Three persons were baptized in the province of Chantaboon, and 2,456 copies of Scriptures and tracts were sold.

A tour of four months was also made to the province of Nakawn. While in the city of Nakawn, they held daily preaching services; traveled on elephants 15 days to distant places in the interior; dedicated a chapel built by the native Christians at the village of Haw Mok; made a journey of 20 days up the river Looang, and had the joy of baptizing 14 adults and placing 25 on probation. Discipline was necessary in the case of some members who had/gone astray, but nearly all the disciples showed manifest growth in grace and in willing service.

A sad event in connection with this tour was the death of the faithful

A sad event in connection with this tour was the death of the faithful elder of the Nakawn Church, Nai Mit; yet his death was a triumph to the cause of the Gospel. His last thoughts were for the interests of Christ's kingdom, giving money and materials for a chapel which was erected by the disciples after he was gone. After he had lost the power of speech he testified by signs that the Saviour was with him, and that he was at peace. The Bethlehem Church of Nakawn now numbers 65 members.

Recently Dr. Dunlap has made another tour alone, going 200 miles down the west coast of the Gulf to the province of Choompawn. He went into the interior of the province, preached the Gospel in the court-house at the capital, where he was well received by the government officials, visited in the homes of the people, and sold 646 portions of the Scriptures and other books and tracts.

MEDICAL.—The only medical missionary, Dr. Toy, has spent a large part of the year in the Paknampo region, traveling and living in a large boat which he had bought for the purpose. He was welcomed everywhere. At Pitsanuloke he had the privilege of saving the wife of the governor of the province from death by poison, taken by mistake; and this gave him much prestige in that community. Now that his boat is known to the people along the river, it is often hailed from the bank, and the doctor is urged to stop and see their sick ones. He performed some important operations, and others are awaiting his return. We are glad to state that this branch of our work has reached self-support.

Dr. Dunlap also had considerable medical practice, especially during the tour to Nakawn. He found that the people were eager for his services, and that the relief of suffering was an effective means of opening their hearts to religious truth.

EDUCATIONAL.—The day-school at Paknam has an enrolment of 45 pupils, 17 of whom are girls. Recently nine of the pupils, eight boys and one girl, came up to Bangkok for the examination before the Educational Committee of the Government. This was the first girl who had ever appeared before the Committee. The pupils attend the preaching services in the chapel.

Owing to the necessity of changing teachers, and the coming of the season when children are employed in the rice-fields, the attendance at the Ayuthia day-school has fallen off to 18; yet Mr. Snyder has succeeded not only in making the school self-supporting from the time of its opening last May, but it has also paid the current expenses of the Ayuthia floating chapel.

The H. M. House School for Girls has enjoyed the most prosperous year in its history. During most of the time the building has been full to overflowing, and now there are many applicants who must be refused for want of room. Some have waited for months to secure the coveted position. The enrolment for the year was 110. Miss Cole and Miss Bates find it a heavy strain on their strength and patience to train and care for all these girls; but they are ably assisted by Miss Lucy Dunlap and a corps of faithful native teachers, and bear their labors and responsibilities joyfully for the Master's sake.

The Bangkok Christian High School is in a flourishing condi-The enrolment is 100. When it is remembered that the school opened in May with an attendance of 62, it is plain that our hopes for the future are well founded. A large part of the present prosperity is due to the diligence and genial ways of Miss Cooper, who is deferring her furlough for several months, in order to provide for this growing work. Since the return of Mr. Eakin and his sister in June, the school has been under his charge. Miss Eakin has had the care of the sick and has drilled the school in calisthenics, besides teaching the Woman's Bible Class and the little children in the Sabbath-school. Already her influence is apparent in the deepening of religious interest among the women of the neighborhood, several of whom have decided for Christ.

The religious interest in the school is encouraging. Only one of the students has united with the Church during the year; but he is the best scholar in the Senior Class, and is now employed as a student teacher. Six others have made known their intention to make a confession of their faith in the near future, and many more are almost persuaded. It is a significant fact that the Christian students are deeply concerned for the conversion of their heathen parents; and some of them, before going home for the present vacation, came and asked the prayers of the Principal in behalf of their friends at home. Nearly all the students who are old enough to make an intelligent decision have declared before their companions that they are believers in the Christian faith.

THE PRESS.—Owing to the necessity of retrenchment this year, it was decided to place the Press on a self-supporting basis. This involved extra work, which in addition to preaching at the chapel up in the city, and supplying the pulpit of the Second Church, has been too much for Mr. J. B. Dunlap, the manager, who broke down and had to be sent to Hongkong. A foreman has now been employed to assist him.

During the year the Press has printed 3,700,000 pages, and has bound and covered 45,000 volumes.

PETCHABUREE STATION.

To a degree quite exceptional, the members of this Station have had good health. They have gladly welcomed Mrs. Lyman, who, notwithstanding her sore bereavement, has courageously continued the study of the Siamese language, and has made satisfactory progress.

CHURCHES.—Mr. McClure has maintained the regular Church services throughout the year. Dr. Thompson has been superintendent of the Sabbath-school, whose enrolment is 110—a gratifying increase. The little ones flock in from all directions. They are a motely crowd of dress and undress,—little tots in silks and jewels, and bronzed waifs in simple nature's garb,—but the missionaries speedily learn to love them.

The Wednesday evening prayer-services have been fairly well attended, and several men and women have freely taken part. Mrs. McClure's prayer-meeting for the women has been kept up without intermission, the women selecting their own leader during her brief absence. The Church Session has found it necessary to cut off a number by regular process, hence the roll has been somewhat reduced. There have been two accessions. The contributions have covered all the expenses. The congregation has also paid the wages of two Bible-women, and contributed ticals 320 toward the work of the Home Mission Committee of Presbytery.

EVANGELISTIC.—Licentiate Boon and the two Biblewomen have done faithful work in the rest-places by the way-side, where they meet many people from the outlying villages and distant parts of the province. The number of Scriptures and tracts sold during the year is about 275.

The outlying churches, four in number, were visited by Mr. and Mrs. Eckels. The attendance has been small. Mrs. Eckels made a special effort to interest the children, and they have shown an encouraging degree of interest. Mr. McClure, accompanied by Mr. Cooper, made a recent tour among the churches. Numerous services were held, many of the heathen homes were visited, and a considerable number of tracts and Scriptures sold. But two of the village churches now have elders, and but two have chapel-buildings, and they are in poor repair.

ITINERATING.—The departure of Mr. Eckels and the transfer of Mr. Cooper to Ratburee have greatly hindered this part of the Station work. Two tours were the chief feature. The annual trip up the Petchaburee river in January was made by Mr. McClure, accompanied by Mr. Grossman and Kru Boon. Equipped with baby-organ, Bible pictures, Scriptures and stereoptican they taught and preached as opportunity offered. The other tour was made to the provinces of Ptran and Gooie by Dr.

Thompson in April. He was accompanied by Kru Boon and Nai Beang. The trip was full of interesting and profitable experiences, among which were a Chinese with his 30 or 40 neighbors professing interest in Christianity, and the meeting with a suspended church-member who had again found the way of righteousness.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Girls' Boarding-school in charge of Miss Galt is at present our higher school, as compared with the other schools, which are really primary. The present enrolment is 16, 10 of whom are boarders. The total for the year was 28. The expenses have been ticals 445, and the receipts, ticals 179.36. Heretofore children living at a distance were received into the boarding department gratuitously upon their promising to stay a stated length of time; but next year we shall make an attempt at independence by charging three ticals per month.

The Boys' Boarding-school is for the present a day-school, the boarding department having been closed by the cut. It is not expected to reopen except on a better self-supporting basis. With the present excellent native teacher, there is prospect of the school increasing in reputation and numbers.

Outside Schools.—The present enrolment of the four schools is 27. These schools have been faithfully superintended throughout the year. The pupils, though considerably less than last year, are of more stable character, and fair progress has been made by the pupils. Miss Hitchcock has found more encouragement than formerly in visiting among the patrons of the schools, and they have finally been made to understand that more tuition must be paid. The expenses have been: ticals 266.59, and the income ticals 63.63.

MEDICAL.—The medical work has been in charge of Dr. Thompson. The total number of patients treated was 1,262, of whom 32 were in-patients. Injuries from fights have made decidedly less work than in former years, due partly to the improved local government of the province and partly to the fact that the physician charges more for treating such cases than formerly. The total receipts from the medical work were ticals 860—an increase over last year, but still requiring ticals 474 from the Board's treasury to cover expenses outside of the medical missionary's salary. At the beginning of the fiscal year it was planned to make the work self-supporting, and the new schedule is being gradually but firmly enforced. Patients receiving treatment in the Hospital are required to pay from eight to 24 atts per day, according to the gravity of the case, exclusive of boarding, and the results are most gratifying.

Evening prayers have been maintained in the Hospital throughout the year, and this has frequently been made a semi-preaching service. Many of the patients have shown a good degree of interest in the teaching and in the tracts and Scriptures distributed.

The medical assistant, Nai Dtoy, has shown enthusiasm for the work, and marked devotion to the welfare of the patients.

As we close this reference to Dr. Thompson's special work for the year, we are shocked and grieved by a cable announcing his sudden death from cholera. A faithful, consecrated missionary and physician, we keenly feel his loss, while his sudden death at his post of duty far from his wife and little ones, who were in the United States, appears tragic from a human view-point. It was the death of a soldier, but of an eminently Christian soldier.

RAJABUREE STATION.

At the beginning of the year, Rajaburee was still a one-man Station—and that man, Dr. Wachter, slowly convalescing from a dangerous illness, which detained him for some time in Bangkok. The Rev. and Mrs. Lyman, who had just been appointed to reinforce the Station, were still on their way across the Pacific, arriving in Bangkok the last day of the old year, and at Rajaburee a fortnight later.

The Rev. Boon Itt accompanied them and remained for six weeks, rendering much needed assistance in the evangelistic and school work, until duties elsewhere called him away.

The new missionaries gladly relieved Dr. and Mrs. Wachter of so much of the work as it was possible for beginners to undertake, and also applied themselves to the study of the language and people with an energy and enthusiasm that gave promise of great and increasing usefulness.

But, alas! the month of July found Mr. and Mrs. Lyman, Mrs. Wachter and the children all prostrated at once by sickness, culminating in the death of Mr. Lyman, only six months after his arrival at the Station—for him a joyous and triumphant entrance into rest and glory, but a sad blow to those who had expected so much from his companionship and co-operation. To fill the vacancy Mr. and Mrs. Cooper were transferred from Bangkok, Mrs. Lyman going to Petchaburee, where she heroically continues the study of the language. The exceptional amount of sickness and frequent changes of management have necessarily involved a considerable interruption of the work. But we are now thankful to report all the members "able for duty."

EVANGELISTIC.—There is no Church organization here as yet, but Dr. Wachter has kept up the Sabbath-morning preaching service in the chapel, superintended the Sabbath-school and also taught a class.

Mr. Cooper has preached in various private houses across the river, and at the neighboring villages of Bahn Pah and Koong Ka Teen. Many neighbors have attended these services who would not have been reached by the preaching on the Mission Compound.

ITINERATING.—Itinerating in the Rajaburee territory has been limited to four days by Mr. Cooper among the villages and farmhouses below Rajaburee, and a fortnight's tour by Dr. Wachter and Mr. Lyman as far up the river as Kanburee. Three hundred Christian tracts and 200 portions of Scripture have been sold.

With never more than two men at this Station, commonly not more than one, it has not been possible to give due attention to itinerant work. There is a large territory beyond Kanburee which has never received so much as a flying visit from any missionary, while even the nearer towns and villages have been visited only at long and uncertain intervals. We are hoping and planning, however, for more of aggressive work next year in the regions beyond.

EDUCATIONAL.—Mrs. Wachter was in charge of the Suriwong (boys') School until the beginning of August, when that department was transferred to Mr. Cooper, and she has continued in charge of the Girls' School throughout the year. Both are day-schools only. Mrs. Wachter's long illness necessitated the closing of the Girls' School in July and August. With this exception, the schools have taken vacation only during the hot season, which in Siam begins in March and continues till the May rains. There are no free pupils in either school. The enrolment of the Girls' School has been 24, which is about the same as last year; but there has been a gain in regularity of attendance. The enrolment of the Suriwong Boys' School has been 65.

Since May the boys' tuition fees have been doubled, but without any appreciable withdrawal of patronage in consequence.

Nearly all the actual teaching in both schools is done by native teachers, under missionary supervision. Two of these three teachers are Christians, and the third seems "not far from the kingdom."

One of the boys promoted to the Christian High School this year has recently avowed his faith in Christ.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Wachter has charge of the medical work, with such assistance only as Kroo Lue can render outside of school hours. There being no hospital building, this work is of course chiefly limited to dispensary practice, though 16 in-patients have been treated during the year. There have been 52 visits made to patients outside, and 1,372 prescriptions or sales of medicine.

Dr. Wachter seeks to combine with his dispensary practice as much as practicable of Christian teaching and the sale of Christian books.

LAOS MISSION.

CHIUNG-MAI: on the Maah-Ping River, 500 miles north of Bangkok; occupied as a mission station, 1867; laborers—Rev. Daniel McGilvary, D.D., and Mrs. McGilvary, Rev. D. G. Collins and Mrs. Collins, Dr. James W. McKean and Mrs. McKean, Rev. Howard Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, Rev. Wm. Harris, Jr., and Mrs. Harris, Rev. J. H. Freeman, Miss I. A. Griffin, Miss Margaret A. McGilvary, and Miss Hattie E. Ghormley, Rev. Nan-Tah.

LAKAWN: on the Maah-Wung River, 75 miles southeast from Chieng-Mai; occupied as a mission station in 1885; laborers—Rev. Jonathan Wilson, Rev. Hugh Taylor and Mrs. Taylor, Rev. L. W. Curtis and Mrs. Curtis, Rev. C. R. Callender and Mrs. Callender, Rev. W. A. Briggs, M.D., and Mrs. Briggs, Miss Mary A. Bowman, M.D.

MUANG PRAA: on the Maa-Yome River, 125 miles southeast from Chieng-Mai; occupied as a mission station in 1893; laborers—Rev. W. F. Shields and Mrs. Shields, Rev. J. S. Thomas, M.D., and Mrs. Thomas, Miss Julia Hatch.

NAN: on the Maa-Nan River, 150 miles east of Chieng-Mai; occupied as a mission station in 1894; laborers—Rev. S. C. Peoples, M.D., and Mrs. Peoples, Rev. Robert Irwin, Miss Kate N. Fleeson.

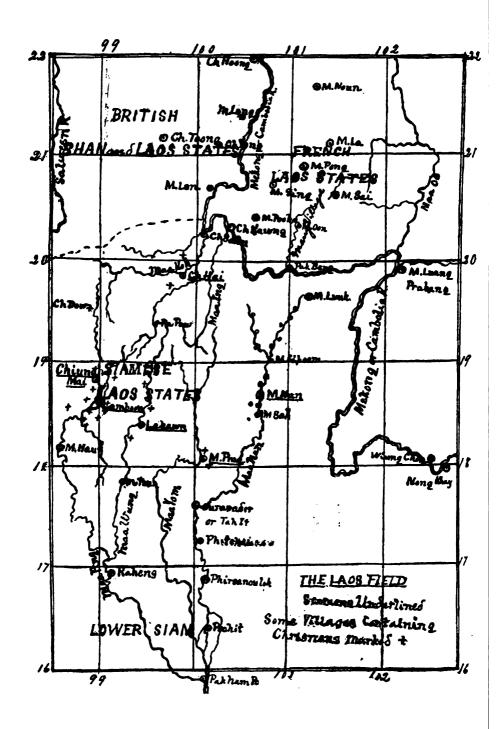

CHIUNG-HAI: occupied experimentally as a mission station in 1897; laborers—Rev. W. C. Dodd and Mrs. Dodd, Rev. C. H. Denman, M.D., and Mrs. Denman.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Rev. Jonathan Wilson, Miss Kate N. Fleeson.

The Laos Mission has been making an earnest and prayerful effort to bring its work into closer harmony with approved principles of Mission policy, particularly in the self-support of the native Church, Few outside the Mission-field can understand the trial of faith and patience which this involves to both the missionary and the native Christian. It really means a critical transition period. If therefore the work appears to proceed more slowly, it should be borne in mind that it is now moving on distinctly better and on more healthful lines, and with far better promise of stability and value. With this change, so prayerfully undertaken, is very naturally coming a spiritual blessing, which is already gladdening the hearts of the devoted workers. Let the home Church not forget to pray that they may specially be guided by God in their effort to build up a vigorous, self-supporting, self-propagating native Church in Laos.

CHIUNG-MAI STATION.

MISSIONARY FORCE.—This has been weakened by the transfer to Chiung-Hai of Mr. and Mrs. Dodd and Dr. and Mrs. Denman, the absence on much needed furlough of the Misses Griffin and McGilvary, and the prolonged illness of Miss Ghormley. A happy event was the marriage of Mr. Harris and Miss C. H. McGilvary in Canton, November 3d, while the Station has been reinforced by the transfer of Mr. Freeman from Nan. He has taken charge of the important work of the Mission Treasury.

EDUCATIONAL.—Boys' School.—Two terms have been taught under the superintendence of Mr. Collins, assisted by five native teachers—three of whom, however, were but last year's advance pupils, who had to be pressed into service.

Though the school is now ten years old, it is not yet able to supply many competent helpers and personal teachers. Most of the boys receive but little encouragement from their parents, and remain on an average only about two and one-half years. Still some of the boys have already become helpers in three of the other Stations, while nine are employed all the time, and four others a part of the time at Chiung-Mai.

During the first term there were 143 boys in attendance, which was the largest enrolment since the founding of the school. The last term there were but 96. This decrease was due partly to the opening of a school by one of the leading princes, who has made a special effort to draw in our boys, partly to the fact that it was the busy season of the year, when many of the boys are obliged to assist in raising the rice crop, and partly to the pressure toward self-support. Of the 155 boys connected with the school during the year, 130 came from Christian homes, and eight united with the Church.

When word was received that the estimates had been so heavily cut, a committee was appointed to lay the facts before the people. To the surprise and gratification of all, they subscribed rupees 500—equal to 1,500 days' wages of an ordinary workingman. This was enough to pay more than one-half of the expenses of the two schools for the last term, exclusive of course of missionaries' salaries.

Girls' School.—Miss Allie McGilvary and Mrs. Campbell were assisted by three native teachers (all former pupils). During the first of the two terms the enrolment was the largest the school has ever had, there being 102 pupils—21 day-scholars and 81 boarders, the latter completely filling the dormitory. The attendance the second term is never so large as the first; and last year, owing to partial self-support being insisted upon, it was only 54. But the missionaries had feared even a greater falling off, as the appropriation for the school had to be cut one-half. On the whole, the year's work is quite encouraging. The girls have shown deep interest and, as a rule, have been faithful. Among the 81 boarders there were only 12 who were not members of the Church, and all of these were very small. In both schools, the total enrolment for the year has been larger than in any previous year, except last, and falls short of that by only 16. Almost every Christian family, whether having children in school or not, has contributed something to the support of the school. The native contributions for this one term have been seven times as great as for both terms of any previous year.

Theological Training-School.—Two sessions were held of a month each, the first with an enrolment of 7, the second with 21. Only two were students for the ministry, the faint prospect of salaries from the Board's treasury diminishing the number of candidates. The instructors were Dr. McGilvary, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Kroo Punnya, and Dr. McKean.

During the second term, evangelistic work was done by most of the students on each Sabbath without compensation, and some students spent an hour or two in this work every day. So long as it has a fair attendance, the school is able to instruct the Christians of many villages through their minister, elder or other Christian leader, and thus to exert a wide influence for good.

MEDICAL.—The seven small wards have been full most of the year, and many sick have been turned away for lack of room. More than 30 capital surgical operations were performed. Payment is urged wherever practicable; and the receipts, as usual, have exceeded the expenditures. Of course, however, a large number receive gratuitous treatment. The hospital nurse, Ai Keo, who came as a patient four years ago, is an admirable evangelist.

He lives the Gospel daily amongst the sick, and is constant in the study of the Bible, and constant also in teaching all who come into the wards. By day and by night he watches the sick, and cares for them as though they were of his own family. Seldom is practical Christianity so well illustrated.

A religious service is held three nights of the week in the Medical Residence and four nights on the Hospital veranda, the latter in charge of native Christians. They have also organized a Christian Endeavor Society, at whose meetings all have freely taken part. An offering is made at every meeting, and the proceeds expended for the lepers and prisoners.

The work continues to enjoy the favor of both prince and people. The chief of Chiung-Mai, who has so long been friendly to our Mission work in general, and to the medical work in particular, has passed away, but before his death, he sent a gift of 1,000 rupees to aid the medical department. Dr. McKean writes:

God has made the medical work a blessing to the bodies of many persons during the past year. We trust that many souls have also been truly blessed. Two patients have professed conversion and have united with the Church. Many have heard the Gospel, and we hope and believe that there will yet accrue a harvest from the sowing of the past year.

THE PRESS.—The two new presses which arrived a year ago have given good satisfaction. Seven men have been employed most of the time. More books have been sent out than in any previous year; 2,339 portions of Scripture have been issued, and 5,580 copies of other publications, making a total of 7,919 portions—more by 1,150 than last year. Most of these have been sold, not given away. The receipts of the Press, including jobwork, have exceeded the expenditures by about 800 rupees. The most important new publications are "Old Testament History," "Life of Christ," the "Shorter Catechism" and a "Fourth Reader."

EVANGELISTIC WORK.—The First Church has been under the special oversight of Mr. Campbell and Kroo Nantah. There are ten places at which the Christians have met for worship in considerable numbers every Sabbath. Seven of these have Sabbath-schools and Societies of Christian Endeavor, and Chieng-Mai has two Senior C. E. Societies and one Junior C. E. throughout the year, and usually a second Junior during the school sessions. Six of the meeting-places are from 10 to 30 miles from the city. Sixty-four persons have been added to the church on examination, and four on certificate. Fifty children have been baptized. A vigorous pruning of the roll was found necessary, and has been made.

The Chieng-Mai Sabbath-school has been under the superintendency of Mr. Harris, and has had a maximum attendance of 377 and an average attendance of 212. The Women's Mission Society, under the direction of Mrs. McKean, has shown much faithfulness. The contributions, amounting to 30 rupees (equal to 90 days' wages of an ordinary laboring man), are for the employment of evangelists in heathen districts.

A new chapel has been built at South Orange, a village south of the city. The entire cost was about 95 rupees, besides 50 days' work and some material. All this was contributed by the native Christians, except 40 rupees in cash. In addition, the children gave their labor in carrying the timbers and leveling the ground. The chapel was dedicated September 13th, at the close of a month of daily prayer-meetings held from house to house.

The Mao Daw Deng Church has received two on examination, the Bethlehem Church six, the Maa Pookah Church four, and the San Sai Church four. Nineteen children were baptizedt in the last two churches.

Lampoon, by vote of the Mission, has now become an outstation of Chieng-Mai. The Church, under the care of Mr. Harris with licentiate Chilunka as stated supply, enjoyed an increase of 15 members on examination, and three on certificate. Ten.

children have been baptized. In addition to the preaching, Sabbath-school and C. E. services, a daily prayer-meeting has been maintained. The Bethel and Wang Moon Churches received eight and thirteen respectively on examination. The latter also baptized seven children.

In August Mr. Freeman removed to Lampoon, and since that time has given the churches of Lampoon, Bethel and Wang Moon more careful oversight than was practicable for any one living in Chieng-Mai. He has visited almost every family in the Lampoon and Wang Moon churches.

OVERSIGHT OF CHURCHES.—At annual meeting last year a Committee on Presbyterial Oversight was appointed, with Dr. McGilvary as chairman. Visits have been made by representatives of this Committee, never less than two in number, to each of the eight churches within the bounds of the Station. The missionaries have thus obtained a clearer insight into the condition of the churches and the work of the native ministry, and have promoted a better understanding with the people.

NORTHERN TOUR.—An extended tour was made by Drs. McGilvary and Peoples into the territory under French and Chinese rule beyond the Cambodia river. The objects were exploration, distribution of Scriptures, and the preaching of the Gospel. It was one of the most important tours ever taken under the auspices of this Mission. A wide and interesting field was found, and there were many ready listeners. In fact, at Muang Sai, the most northern point reached, it seemed that a church could be organized almost immediately.

In addition to this tour, Dr. McGilvary has prosecuted his evangelistic work in the city and surrounding villages with his customary diligence and success. Everywhere he has found a ready welcome from both old friends and new, and almost always an attentive ear for the Gospel story.

PRAA STATION.

Dr. and Mrs. Briggs, the first resident members of the Station, removed to Lampoon in October, and Dr. Mary Bowman from Nan took the medical work. In December Dr. and Mrs. Thomas and Miss Hatch were transferred to Praa from Lakawn. Upon their arrival they were glad to find that, while the missionaries and the only elder were absent, the little band of Christians had held regular meetings of Church and Sabbath-school.

THE CHURCH.—The Church has a membership of 63, of whom 19 have been added during the year. Three new elders have been ordained, making a session of four. The church has contributed toward the support of an evangelist for work throughout the province, and has kept the chapel and grounds in repair. The prayer-meetings of the C. E. Society have been held in adjacent villages, thus giving practical training in Christian work. Semi-weekly classes were held in several places by Mr. and Mrs. Shields. Many learned to read, and several members of these classes united with the church.

MEDICAL.—The 60 Hospital in-patients do not represent the number brought under Christian teaching. A patient is always accompanied by from two to five relatives. By the physician and the helpers, these have had the Gospel daily presented to them; while many have carried it to their homes in literature supplied by Mrs. Thomas. Of the 2,050 treated at the Dispensary, nearly all have heard the Word of God.

EDUCATIONAL.—The day-school is still in the stage of small things. Elementary and Christian teaching was given to 30 girls and boys for five months, but the attendance was somewhat irregular.

EVANGELISTIC.—The work of Church, Hospital and School is largely evangelistic; but special efforts have been made in this line by many tours to villages far and near, and by calls in palace, temples and homes. Hundreds of people have visited the homes of the missionaries, where much teaching has been done. Mr. and Mrs. Shields have conducted the services each Sabbath, while Dr. and Mrs. Thomas and Miss Hatch, with a company of eight or ten helpers, have held preaching services in many places. Miss Hatch writes:

The field looking to this Station for the Light of Life contains not less than 100,000 souls. In the face of this fact, our efforts seem puny. But the Word of the Lord is not bound; and so, thanking Him for the many blessings of the year, we will endeavor to press on.

LAKAWN STATION.

The year closes with the Station in a sound condition and with a bright outlook, though at the beginning only two of the members had a command of the language, and many of the native workers were taken to other stations.

The Church, under Dr. Briggs, has had a good congregation—not so large as on some occasions in the past, and yet regular. To the session came the painful duty of suspending several members. This they did in a quiet, prayerful spirit, having first exhausted all their resources to bring back the erring ones. Six new members have been received. Thus, while the number of names upon the roll is not so large as a year ago, the church is purer and healthier. It has caused many to realize that, to be called a Christian they must live the Christian's life. The contributions have increased from 80 to 142 rupees. The Sabbath-school, under Mr. Callender, has been studying the life of Christ chronologically. The Christian Endeavor Society has completed the study of the Epistle of James under the direction of Mrs. Crutis, the Epistle being translated as needed by Dr. Briggs. This study has resulted in the deepening of character and a wider comprehension of spiritual things. In the preaching Kroo (Rev.) Chi Ma has been faithful, and the people love and respect him. His support was assumed and met by the Church.

EVANGELISTIC.—

Owing to the change in the policy of paying men to go out to do evangelistic work, to not paying for such work, there has not been so much done along this line as heretofore. However, we have nothing whatever to regret in our new policy, but feel rather the more sure of our position, as by so doing we have worked the church up, and are now free from any of the Board's money for such work. This also means more voluntary work on the part of the eldership and church-members.

One of the elders sent on a tour to the northern part of the province reported that everywhere he met with a hearty reception, and in places left portions of Scripture and the Catechism with those who were desirous of knowing more of what he had told them. Chee Home, the place suffering the most because of the new policy of self-support, sent in cheering reports of the manifested interest on the part of the Christians. The one elder living there, while unable to read, yet wisely guides the people, and sees that they are faithful to their church vows, and that they worship with their substance.

At Lampang Kang, one of the elders who had been accustomed to receive pay for evangelistic work in other places, enthusiastically tells of the large number of friends who attend his family evening worship and listen to him expound the Scripture. A most encouraging work is done by the native Christians in the Station. About 25 go out every Sabbath afternoon, in companies or individually, to hold a song service in some heathen home. This is followed with a Scripture talk, if the way be open.

One Sabbath, while Dr. and Mrs. Briggs were at their evening meal, a young woman came in and sat down on the floor near the table. After a time, Dr. Briggs addressed her: "Well, Ea Pang" (Miss Expensive), "what is the matter?" Her face fairly glowed with pleasure as she told how three houses had been visited by the company of which she was one, and how the neighbors flocked in to hear the reading of God's word, the explanations regarding the advent of the Only true God, and the singing of praise to Him. "O father Nourisher!" said Miss Expensive, "I am so happy." This poor girl, once a slave,—ignorant, unhappy, down-trodden, and in the bondage of sin and darkness,—has been called into liberty, and has learned the happiness of the liberty that by love serves one another.

The outstations are all encouraging. Even where there are instances that for the moment would discourage, comfort is found in the consistent life of some lowly follower. Mr. Curtis writes:

At one place the most quiet and seemingly inactive man in the little band of Christians had, on a journey to a distant village, so impressively taught a stranger who happened to be traveling in the same direction that in a short time the stranger came the distance of a day and a half's journey, in order to learn more and to buy books. Such instances as these are not infrequent, by any means.

MEDICAL.—The many duties of the physician, with only untrained native assistants, have hampered this work. However, advence has been made. Often the in-patients were so numerous that the woman's ward and servants' houses had to be utilized. Nor were the outside calls few. The statistics are:

Dispensary cases	 135
Total	 . 4.335

The receipts were 2,567 rupees. This does not include the record of a three months' tour to the north, during which Dr. Briggs traveled nearly 1,000 miles, and helped over 1,000 sick people in 34 different places.

Self-support has been pushed, and a warm response met with. Dr. Briggs speaks of it as follows:

A circular letter was addressed to the different rulers, higher classes, and trades-people, respectfully notifying them in regard to a schedule of hours and fees. It was, without exception, pleasantly received, and has done much to set ourselves right on these matters. The only trouble, practically, in regard to self-support has been with some of the Christian people (not to be wondered at), but we were firm and not without success; for as a rule now, when a Christian comes for medicine, he does so like a man with his money and self-respect, laying down the former and keeping the latter.

This policy is, of course, insisted on only with those who are able to pay. Many of the poor are freely treated.

A typical case was a poor slave, who, because of the ravages of fever, had become perfectly helpless, and had been cast out by his master to die. The open door of the hospital received him, and he now bids fair to recover. He has been happy to acknowledge Christ as his Saviour, and from a skeleton in sores and filth, he has become a clean and almost well man and a firm believer in the Gospel of the God of love.

In October, Dr. Bowman arrived from Nan to relieve Dr. Briggs for his long tour to the far north. In a short time she has opened up a much-needed work among the women, who have come to her, as they will not come to a male physician. By her skill and kindness, she has brought light and help into many lives.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Boys' School, while not so large as the previous year, had a more regular attendance, and the pupils took a deep interest in their work. There was an increase in the number of boarders, although only those who lived too far away to walk in daily were furnished room and food. That was all they received, however, no clothing or bedding being furnished; though, to the poorer ones, a ten-cent coat was loaned, as was done in the Girls' School.

The Girls' School had an increase in the number of pupils over last year, and their progress was of a most gratifying character. The Industrial work in weaving, sewing, etc., which was inaugurated by Miss Fleeson, was further developed with continued success, and there is now the beginning of a self-sustaining Industrial Department in the school, the receipts about covering the expense.

Mr. Curtis enumerates the substantial grounds for thanksgiving, as follows:

That the Church has paid the full salary of its native minister, and has assumed the entire expense of its native evangelist;

That, through the Christian Endeavor Society, we have procured the Epistle of James in Laos;

That, through the Sabbath-school, we have a complete series of helps and questions on the chronological life of Christ;

That we have self-support in the schools, save only furnishing food to those from the out-villages;

That self-support in the medical work has made that department a source of revenue to the Board, and has given the people to clearly understand that we are not here to make merit, as has been charged in the

That the native Christians have been taught and trained in active Christian work, several companies going out every Sabbath afternoon to tell to the lost the Gospel Story.

CHIUNG-HAI.

The work at this new Station, nine days' journey northeast of Chiung-Mai, and reaching a population of 60,000 souls, has begun most hopefully. The missionaries arrived in February, 1897. The two families are living in one house, which has a temporary thatch roof and matting walls, but good teak frame and flooring, and cost only 2,000 rupees, or less than $700. A Hospital ward, accommodating 10 inmates, has been erected at a cost of about 175 rupees, and a dispensary building and an adjoining rest-house will shortly be added, at an expense of about 300 rupees.

THE CHURCH.—There is encouragement in the growth of the native Christians both in numbers and grace. Last year the membership of the Chiung-Hai Church was reported as 139, but a careful pruning of the roll reduced the number to 99; 18 adults have been added since, making a total of 117. Five others have been received as catechumens. Seventeen children have been baptized.

OUTSTATIONS.—Most of the members of the Cheung Saan Church live across the Cambodia river, in French territory. Mr. and Mrs. Dodd have visited it, and four adults have been received and four children baptized. There are at least 18 others who have definitely accepted Christ, and who are now studying for admission to the Church under the lead of two elders in the village.

The Pa Pow Church, distant about four days' to the southwest has lost several of its members, including one elder. The cause, in every case, was sickness in the family and the employment of spirit-doctors. With this exception, the three Churches under charge of this Station have grown in numbers.

CHRISTIAN CHARACTER.—There is a decided change for the better since the arrival of the missionaries. In the city is an active Christian Endeavor Society, of about 30 members. Each Sabbath afternoon several companies go out to preach and teach. Mr. Dodd writes:

This voluntary, unpaid, evangelistic work, by two or three bands of Christian Endeavorers under the direction of Dr. Denman, is one of the finest things I have ever seen in this or any other land.

Across the Cambodia, the elders and many of the Christians seem earnest and active. Last year 14 inquirers were reported from the village of Meh Kawn. Of this number, however, only four have been admitted.

One of the elders has said that, if the missionaries would obtain for the Christian exemption from government work, the whole neighborhood would enter the religion. That, however, is not the kind of Christianity we teach. The activity of the Christians has also been shown in the matter of systematic giving. We have endeavored to teach this duty, having as the end the support of all native agents by native funds. That portion of the Chiung Saan Church across the Cambodia has erected a heat chapel, valued at about 50 rupees, and the whole Church has contributed twelve rupees, and in addition 45 buckets of rice and some tobacco.

At the beginning of the year, the Pa Pow Christians agreed to contribute to the support of the native minister 180 baskets of rice, valued at about 30 rupees. One of the Chiung Saan elders has given one-tenth of his rice crop.

OPPORTUNITY.—Another sign of promise is the accessibility of the people. Mr. Dodd, who has been nine years on the field and in several different provinces, says he has never seen such readiness to listen and to open heathen homes to services of song and exhortation.

In May, the cremation of a deceased prince was the occasion of the assembling of several thousand people. We seized the opportunity, and asking permission to erect a tent, were invited by the authorities to do so on a spot near the funeral-pyre. Here, for three days, services were held, attended usually by crowds. The Siamese Commissioner and many of the princes were present, and some of them told the people not to fear to receive our books or to enter the religion, if they so saw fit. Nearly all our tracts were given out, and several thousand heard the Gospel for the first time. Now few refuse books when offered, and the Sabbath evangelistic bands usually find willing listeners.

MEDICAL.—The medical work has increased from the first. Two thousand one hundred and eighty-five prescriptions have been made, and 575 different persons have received a dispensary ticket, with the words of John iii: 16 printed on the back. Many have also received tracts or parts of the Scriptures. Each person is requested to give something in payment for his medicine. In this way 351 rupees have been received. Twelve in-patients have been treated and six major operations performed. The physician has made over 500 calls at the houses of the people, and wherever opportunity offered has told of the Great Physician. Some of the patients have come 10 days' journey for treatment, and received more than they sought. Wherever the foreign medicine goes, the Gospel more readily follows.

OFFICIAL FAVOR.—The princes and officials of the province have cordially subscribed toward a Hospital and Dispensary about 175 rupees, besides a quantity of timber and roofing-tile. Some of them have also attended Sabbath-services from time to time, especially the Siamese Commissioner. This gentleman has been unceasing in the courtesy and assistance he has extended.

LITERARY WORK.—In addition to all his other work, Mr. Dodd has completed his revision of Mr. Wilson's translation of the Book of Genesis. He writes:

This is my first Scripture translation, and you can sympathize with me in the growing joy and enthusiasm with which it has been pursued. Genesis is now a new book to me.

NAN STATION.

During Dr. People's absence on his northern tour, Miss Fleeson, with the assistance of an elder from Lakawn, took charge of the Church and evangelistic work of the Station. For the last three months of the year Dr. Bowman was recalled to Lakawn to relieve Dr. Briggs for a tour through the British territory. But in spite of these changes, the regular church services were maintained and the attendance was uniformly good, the meetings being held in a private residence. Six adults and two children were baptized and seven adults were received by letter—making the church consist of 34 adults and nine children.

The Sabbath-school was reorganized and officered wholly by native Christians. The number of scholars was 36. A teachers' meeting was maintained, and the majority of the adult members of the school were in attendance. The contributions of the School were 39 rupees, and those of the church 134 rupees.

The Christian Endeavor Society was profitably conducted during the year by the native membership. The growing familiarity of its members with the Scriptures and their understanding and appreciation of its teachings are very gratifying. Fifteen new members have been received into the Society, making the present number 31.

The evening worship at the residence of the missionary was attended by almost the whole adult membership of the church. For a portion of the year, two evenings of the week at this hour were given to the systematic study of music. It was surprising and gratifying to see with what zeal the people took hold of this study, and what commendable progress was made.

EVANGELISTIC.—A tour of three weeks was made by one of the elders of this Church and a native helper from Lakawn to the southwestern portion of the province. The teachers were kindly entertained by the people, and had interested listeners among all classes. They were allowed, and in several instances were requested, to hold services in private houses. One of the large villages sent the elders an invitation to visit it, and the whole population formed the very attentive congregation. Books were left at every town. Another tour of ten days was made by Dr. Bowman and Miss Fleeson to two important villages in the southern portion of the province.

They had their tent set up in what was supposed to be a very infectious spirit locality. After the terror caused by this mad invasion had somewhat worked off the people, they came freely to visit the missionaries, and they in turn had freer access to all the homes of the villagers. While the ladies were still in possession of this stronghold of Satan, the monstrous spirit confessed to the people, through a medium, that they need never be afraid of him any more; he would do them no more evil; he could not withstand the spirit of the religion of Jesus, and he was going away to another region. The expressions of the gratitude of the people to the missionaries were truly pathetic. Within the last few weeks one of our elders accompanied the governor of the province as far as Lalt on his journey to Bangkok, and the boatmen who were citizens of those towns would come almost every night to the elders about our camp-fire, for the reading of the Scriptures and to listen to conversation about this new Faith.

At the beginning of the year, no provision had been made for any educational work in the Station. But in February, Miss Fleeson started a class for boys and girls, which soon numbered 15 pupils, and was continued till November. The cost to the Mission was only six rupees. Miss Fleeson also conducted a night class for adults, and a weekly afternoon class of women who wished to learn to read. This class soon became a woman's prayer-meeting.

MEDICAL.—For the first four months of the year, Dr. Bowman had entire charge of the incipient medical work. She began with a vigorous application of the pay system in dispensing drugs. It was a severe test of the natives' appreciation of foreign medicines, and a sore trial to the doctor's nerves; but it was successful. The receipts increased from 10 rupees a month at the beginning of the year to 80 rupees at the close. There have been comparatively few hospital cases, because there were no accommodations for receiving them. Those who did come had to bring their own bamboo and grass, and build their own shanties. Such applicants as could not undertake this task the doctor was obliged to reject. In such circumstances, of course, only a few surgical operations were performed.

Dr. Peoples writes:

The fruits of our year's labor seem to be meagre in their tangible results; but our Mission establishment consists of an indifferent native house for a residence, and the missionary workers are those whose energies are distinctly lagging because of prolonged residence in this debilitating climate.

But though few names were added to the church-roll, we are not discouraged. There are indications of influences abroad which may not be designated by figures. The more conspicuous among these are: the growing kindly attitude of the people, both high and low, toward the missionaries, and the decided conquest of the Christian cause over the world of spirits who rule the land with a rod of iron. Wherever the missionary goes, the perfect unconcern with which he is able to invade these regions of terror is a revelation to the people—so much so that they distinctly look to the missionary, to the Christians for release from their hard masters. The governor himself, announced at a public dinner that the spirits are not so fierce as they were a few days ago; and that the country is much better in this regard than it used to be.

After the above words were written, Miss Fleeson's health became so seriously impaired that the Mission found it necessary to send her to the United States. She is a faithful and efficient missionary, and many prayers will be offered for her recovery.

MISSIONS IN SOUTH AMERICA.

CENTRAL BRAZIL MISSION.

Bahla: 735 miles northeast of Rio de Janeiro; missionaries—Rev. J. M. Kolb and Mrs. Kolb, Sr. Cyrillo.

LARANGEIRAS: north of Bahia in the State of Sergipe; missionaries—Rev. Woodward E. Finley and Mrs. Finley, Rev. C. E. Bixler and Miss Clara E. Hough.

FEIRA St. Anna: occupied as mission station 1896; missionaries—Rev. G. W. Chamberlain and Mrs. Chamberlain, Miss M. C. Chamberlain.

In this Country: Rev. W. E. Finley and Mrs. Finley.

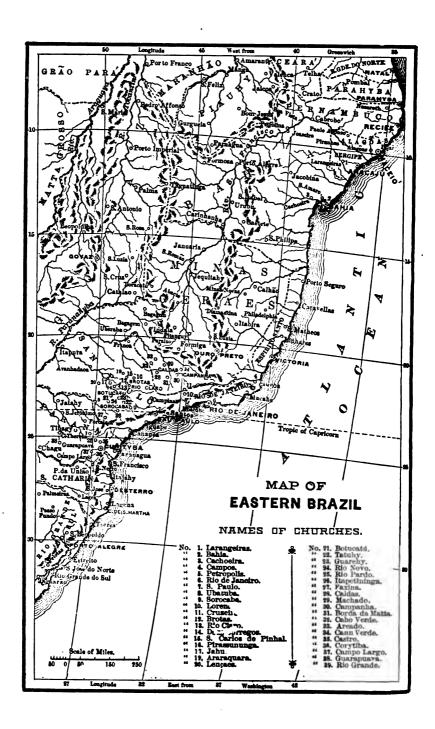

BAHIA.

Rev. J. B. Kolb has confined his work to the congregation in Bahia and the local community, having more or less oversight over the Protestant day-school. He has been permitted to receive four persons to the communion of the Church, and four children have been baptized. Some neighborhood meetings have been held.

The schools, according to Mr. Kolb's report, have numbered 65 pupils. Four persons are named as having shared in the work as teachers most of the time. The schools at the Bra Viagene Factory have been prosperous. In November a kindergarten with 25 children was opened. These schools are under the liberal patronage of a citizen warmly interested in Protestant education. The chief, if not the entire expense, is borne by him.

LARANGEIRAS.

At Larangeiras missionary work has been carried on by Rev. C. E. Bixler, who has been but little over a year in the field, for which reason his chief attention has been necessarily devoted to language study. He has also superintended the local school work since February, 1897, in the place of Rev. W. E. Finley, who has since returned home on furlough. Since July Mr. Bixler has conducted religious services, for the first two months reading printed sermons. Since September he has prepared his own discourses. He has made two journeys into the interior of the State, preaching at five different points. He has visited Larangeiras once in every two weeks, as a rule, occasionally returning to Larangeiras to conduct services in the evening. The capital, Aracaju, has received a visit once in two months.

far he has conducted services at eight different points. This is a good record. During the six months since he began his aggressive work he has baptized six children. Though none have made profession of their faith, several have expressed their desire to do so, but have been advised to wait until a better knowledge of the language shall enable Mr. Bixler to instruct them more fully.

In some of the Stations and outstations he finds discouragements, but in the principal places a goodly number besides the families of the believers attend the services.

The Boys' School in Larangeirs has enrolled about 50 pupils, some of whom came from families who were a little while ago bitter opponents, but now are among the most loyal friends and supporters. During the last year four of the pupils professed their faith, one of whom same from a strong Roman Catholic family, but had the consent of her parents. Another pupil from a Catholic family wishes to profess her faith in Christ, having obtained the consent of her parents. Still others have been very sensibly affected by the Gospel, and give promise of conversion in the not distant future. The coming year promises to be the best in the history of the school.

Miss Hough's report of her school work is, on the whole, equally encouraging with that of Mr. Bixler. She says:

In February I took charge of the boarding departments for boys and girls, in addition to the regular school work, to await the arrival of a matron or the return of Mr. and Mrs. Finley.

Very nobly Miss Hough has continued on past the time for her furlough, in order to keep the school in progress until Mr. and Mrs. Finley shall return. But she speaks of great fatigue and the need of her well-deserved rest.

On Thanksgiving Day public examinations were held in the school, and the marked approval of the public was shown in the articles published in the State papers. Five or sx hundred people attended the entertainment.

In closing, Miss Hough says:

Former persecutors of the cause have sent their children to our school the past year, and show themselves won over. So may all the enemies of Christ be conquered!

FEIRA DE SANTA ANNA.

At Feira de Santa Anna, Rev. G. W. Chamberlain, D.D., veteran of the missionary force in Brazil, has maintained religious services twice on Sabbath and once mid-week. The attendance has been such as to indicate considerable interest, though no Church organization has as yet been formed. The Station work is as yet in its infancy. A Sunday-school has been organized and is well maintained.

Dr. Chamberlain has made two extensive tours to distant parts of the State. On one of these he was permitted to receive two persons to the membership of the Church. He has been actively engaged in a discussion in one of the papers with the local Catholic priests—a kind of work in which, at different times, in his missionary history he has accomplished good. Fortunately, one of the local newspapers opens its columns to him freely for the dissemination of Gospel truth as seen from the Protestant standpoint.

Arrangements have been made for the opening of a school in July, 1898, under the direction of Miss Christine Chamberlain, who was appointed during the year, and is busily engaged in perfecting herself in the Portuguese language. Much interest is shown by residents, some in high social position, in the prospective opening of this school.

SOUTHERN BRAZIL MISSION.

RIO DE JANEIRO: capital of the republic; population, 500,000; occupied as mission station 1860; missionaries—Rev. J. B. Rodgers and Mrs. Rodgers; Rev. M. A. Menezes, Rev. Franklin de Eascimento, Sr. Josi A. Granja.

EAST RIO STATION, NOVO FRIBURGO: 60 miles east of Rio; occupied as a mission station in 1891; missionaries—Rev. J. M. Kyle and Mrs. Kyle.

CASTRO: opened as a mission station 1895; missionaries—Rev. G. L. Bickerstaph and Mrs. Bickerstaph.

SAO PAULO: 300 miles west southwest of Rio; capital of the State of the same name; population, 125,000; occupied as a mission station in 1863; missionaries—H. M. Lane, M.D., Rev. W. A. Waddell and Mrs. Waddell, Miss M. K. Scott, Rev. M. P. B. Carvalhosa.

CURITYBA: about 300 miles southwest of Sao Paulo, the capital of the State of Parana; missionaries—Rev. G. A. Landes and Mrs. Landes, Miss Ella Kuhl, Miss Mary P. Dascomb, Miss Elizabeth R. Williamson.

GUARAPUAVA: missionaries—Rev. T. F. Lenington and Mrs. Lenington.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Rev. J. B. Rodgers and Mrs. Rodgers, Misses Mary P. Dascomb and Elizabeth R. Williamson.

The field reports from the Mission Churches in the Southern Brazil Mission furnish but little material for that of the Board to the General Assembly.

The four American missionaries on the ground (Rev. J. B. Rodgers being at home on furlough) have maintained Sabbath services and a week-day prayer-meeting in their respective and widely scattered fields. The fruitfulness of these fields seems to be in the ratio of distance from seaboards or the great commercial centres, and the report thus serves to emphasize the importance of evangelistic work in the more destitute portions of the country. In those districts where our Missions have been longest prosecuted, and where an excellent work has been done in the past, the Brazilian Churches are now for the most part self-supporting as well as self-governing, under the direction of their own Presbyteries and the Synod of Brazil. The work which seems the most hopeful for the future is that of frontier evangelization. The Brazilian Churches need help in the prosecution of this aggressive work, which they themselves with laudable zeal are striving to promote as a Home Mission work. The opportunities for evangelization throughout the wide extent of country in which Protestant preaching is unknown is almost without limit, and no form of effort seems more promising of results. The Brazilian Church is making great efforts to train up well-qualified evangelists to enter the opening field. The American pastors of churches have done more or less preaching at outstations. oversight of the various work scattered over wide districts of country would seem to be the work most clearly demanding the attention of missionaries.

Dr. Kyle reports as follows:

Preaching services have been maintained three times each week at Novo Friburgo. San Jos de Riheirao has been visited once a month. Itaocara, Cantagallo, Lunicar and Barra Alegere have been visited.

There is no Mission Church at Friburgo. Many of Dr. Kyle's hearers belong to a local German church. He has spent ten days in Eastern Minas preaching almost daily. He reports two persons received on profession and one by letter during the year. He has also attended to the duties of mission treasurer.

Mr. Landes writes:

Besides my work in Curityba, I visited the village of San Jose three-times; also the Church at Itaqui three times during the year. Two new members united with the Itaqui Church, and contributions were given by the people amounting to about $150. The Church at Curityba has shown a good deal of strength and a laudable aggressive spirit. Within the last three or four years it has erected an attractive and substantial church building, with only partial aid from the Board. It now contemplates calling a native pastor, whom it will support. Three elders and three deacons were installed during the year. A Mission Band under the direction of the women of the Church holds monthly meetings and evinces considerable spirit.

Mr. Landes has received ten persons to the Curityba Church and eight others at outstations. Meanwhile, he speaks of the redoubled zeal of the Roman Catholics in and around Curityba, where they are holding an increased number of religious services, for the benefit of the young as well as the old, and are greatly increasing their work of education.

One of the encouragements attending Protestant missions in the Spanish and Portuguese American States is the fact that, over and above the number of converts actually gathered in the Protestant Churches, a quickening and elevating influence is exerted upon the Roman Catholic priesthod and Church membership.

Rev. G. L. Bickerstaph, at Castro, has been more or less occupied during the year in the erection of a new church edifice—a work in which his people are showing a laudable interest. He reports having endeavored to visit three outstations once in three months, and has made one visit to a fourth Station. He has received 12 persons to the Castro Church on profession, and baptized 26 children.

Rex. T. F. Lenington, at Guarapuava, has been permitted to baptize 18 converts, and 40 members having had connection elsewhere have been set over to his Church by the Presbytery, making a total membership of 130.

These, he says, are scattered over an area some seventy miles square, rendering pastoral instruction a little difficult.

An encouraging feature of his work is the holding of religious services conducted by church-members in various small places, while at the same time requests are made to visit other centres in which no church membership has as yet been enrolled. In one small community lumber has been purchased and work begun upon a chapel. Mr. Landes says: "During the year I have preached 160 sermons."

No report has been received from Rev. Sr. Menezes in Southern Minas, but in other years he has been specially successful.

Rev. M. T. B. de Carvalhosa gives the following report of his work at Sao Paulo:

The Second Presbyterian Church of Sao Paulo has been under my pastoral care during the year. Divine worship has been conducted three times a week. The Lord's Supper was celebrated five times. Twelve persons were received on profession of their faith, and seven by letter. Five children were baptized and six members dismissed to other congregations. In average of Sunday-school pupils was 60. The collections amount to about 2,400 mil reis. The actual number of communicants is 51, of whom 8 are absent. The spiritual condition of the Church is encouraging.

I have been also teaching in the American school and MacKenzie College 12 hours a week, and have conducted the devotional closing exercises of the American school.

EDUCATION.—Although the educational work at Sao Paulo is not under the direction of the Board, it is a very important factor in the total of missionary influence in Brazil. The Board has contributed the salaries of the President, two professors, and two lady teachers, the institution in all its departments being under the immediate and independent direction of a Board of Trustees residing in the United States. Though no formal report has been received by the Board, yet various communications from the members of the faculty show a greater efficiency and a more successful work than have ever been attained before. The attendance is full to overflowing, and some of the letters indicate no little religious interest among the pupils. The Board has reason to believe that larger attention is given to religious instruction and influence than the average in recent years.

The American Girls' School at Curityba has suffered from two causes—first, the absence of Miss Ella Kuhl on furlough; and. second, the very severe retrenchments in the Board's appropria-Faithful work, however, has been done by Miss Dascomb, assisted by Miss Effic Lenington. The curtailment of funds has necessitated severe restriction in the admission of pupils. it seems likely that for the present the plans of the institution must be somewhat restricted, fewer pupils admitted, and possibly fewer grades of instruction maintained, until a more generous support can be given. During the year, as always, a large measure of Scriptural instruction has been given, and a most positive and uncompromising Protestant religious influence has been exerted.

In reporting the work of the Brazil Missions to the General Assembly, reference may properly be made to the triennial meeting of the Synod of Brazil, which was held in September, 1897, at which discussion arose concerning the educational work of the Sao Paulo Presbyterian College, and its relation to the Board of Foreign Missions.

No English report of the action of the Synod has come to the Board, but, from communications made to some of the American weekly religious papers, it appears that the following action was addressed by Synod to the Presbyterian General Assemblies, Northern and Southern, in the United States:

WHEREAS, There is urgent need for evangelization in the whole territory of our Synod, and many fields are open which we cannot supply with the means of grace;

WHEREAS, Immense sums have been spent on large schools of various kinds as a means of spreading the Gospel;

Whereas, There has been an almost complete failure on the part of these institutions in Brazil, both for propagating the faith and preparing

Gospel ministry;
WHEREAS, They have been a cause of continued strife and bitterness, and at times have deprived us of the full support and sympathy of our brethren in North America,-

Be it resolved, That we, the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Brazil, respectfully recommend and beg the General Assemblies of our mother-churches, that any help they wish to give us be in the direction of aiding us in the great work of evangelization by the most direct methods, including the education and preparation of a ministry, in accordance with the plans of the Synod; and in the support of parochial schools for the children of believers.

This action was participated in by nearly all the representatives of the Brazilian Church, and by a majority of the missionaries of the Southern Board, but was indorsed by only one representative of this Board. On the other hand, a protest was presented, signed by all the present members of the Mission of the Northern Board with one exception, by two members of the Mission of the Southern Church, and by two or three representatives of the Brazilian Church. The protest was as follows:

While agreeing heartily with the resolution of the Synod respecting the absolute need of parochial schools wherever there is a church, and of the urgent and imperative need of promoting the education and preparation of a ministry to supply the means of Grace to the numerous fields opened in all the territory of the Synod, we are nevertheless obliged to protest energetically and categorically against the second and third and fourth preambles, which contemplate the withdrawal of the support of the parent-churches from the large boarding and day schools, colleges, etc. We cannot accept the view that such institutions do not directly and powerfully contribute to the spread of the faith and the preparation of an evangelical ministry. On the contrary, we are convinced that if the parent-church had not established such institutions in the past, or if she fail to recognize them in the future (and support them), the native Church will be obliged to fill the fatal gap between the parochial school and the seminary, by creating just such institutions, with grave loss to the funds of Home Missions, and consequent embarrassment of the Direct Method spoken of in the resolutions.

The action of the Synod, with the protest, will be presented to the General Assembly. So far as secular education has been introduced, it has been in accordance with the prolicy of this Board not only, but of all or nearly all, the great missionary organizations of the world. And such education has been conducted and maintained with the belief that, while the conversion of men is the great end to be sought, and that the evangelistic work must now, as in the Apostolic days, hold a most important part, yet in the broad estimate of the total of missionary influence to be brought to bear upon any people, and especially those already possessed of a high civilization, there must be an educational training which shall be thoroughly abreast with the times. This is all-important, if Protestantism would present and maintain the prestige which can give it efficacy and power. Where such education is thoroughly imbued with the Spirit of the Gospel, schools of whatever grade may prove to be the most fruitful fields for direct spiritual harvests.

CHILI MISSION.

VALPARAISO: the chief seaport of Chili; population 120,000; mission-aries—Rev. James F. Garvin and Mrs. Garvin, Rev. Alberto Moran, pastor, Victoriano Castro, principal of Escuela Popular and helper; 7 other helpers.

SANTIAGO: the capital of Chili, 120 miles southeast of Valparaiso, with which it has railroad connection; population 200,000; missionari:s—Rev. J. M. Allis, D.D., and Mrs. Allis, Rev. J. C. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, Rev. W. E. Browning, Ph.D., and Mrs. Browning, Mr. John Frey, Mr. Karl Kuom, Rev. Francisco Diez; 5 teachers and helpers.

COPIAPO: about 400 miles north of Valparaiso; population 15,000; missionaries—Rev. E. A. Lowe and Mrs. Lowe; 2 preachers, 2 teachers.

CHILLAN: missionaries—Rev. W. B. Boomer and Mrs. Boomer, Rev. C. M. Spining and Mrs. Spining; 2 preachers, 2 teachers.

CONCEPCION: near the coast, about 300 miles south of Valparaiso, connected with Santiago by railroad; population 45,000; missionaries—Rev. W. L. Schmalhorst and Mrs. Schmalhorst; Rev. Tulio Moran.

TOCOPILLA: Roberto Elphick.

TALTAL: Jos V. Quiroga.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Rev. W. B. Boomer and Mrs. Boomer.

SANTIAGO STATION.

The Rev. Francisco Diez has been installed as pastor of the Spanish Church. He thinks there has been an improvement in spiritual life. A good deal of his attention has been given to the temperance work, and he reports that the Temperance Society has received more than 60 members, the larger part of whom have become members of the Church or congregation. In regard to the country at large, he reports:

This land is being more and more convinced of the errors of the Papacy and of the superiority of the Gospel over the instructions of the Church. But conviction of sin and conversion are yet hard to acomplish.

Dr. Allis has made long itinerating trips to the south and to the north, and was well received everywhere, although there was some opposition in San Fernando and Curico. He writes:

There is a special reason why such trips should be repeated. There are in various towns in the south many Spiritists, and the Sabatistas have also gone to some of these places. The first group are counted as evangelicals, by the general public, and the second group are received well till they begin to preach "Sabatismo," or the observance of Saturday for the rest-day, and teach the necessity of ecclesiastical feet-washing, and also affirm the doctrine of soul-sleeping.

Many who hear the Gospel they preach at first are drawn to the truth, but are soon discouraged by the erroneous elements in their preaching. To make the matter worse, many suppose that not only the Spiritists are evangelical, but suppose that these Sabatistas are sent out by our Mission. Hence the importance of more frequent visits. Besides all this the absence of sufficient workers makes it important that these places be visited as frequently as possible, till groups can be formed, and layworkers resident can be put in charge.

A magic-lantern has been of great value on these trips.

INSTITUTO INGLES.—During the year the Instituto has been reorganized, Mr. Christen withdrawing after many years of earnest service and removing to Europe, and the Mission placing the institution under the charge of Dr. Browning. New plans were made and the school was renamed "Instituto Ingles," and reopened March, 1898. The object of the Board is to make the school thoroughly missionary and evangelistic, and to have regard for quality rather than quantity in the educational work carried on.

During the year one student has been engaged in theological studies.

THE ENGLISH CHURCH, of which the Rev. J. C. Wilson is pastor, has steadily diminished the amount of assistance asked from the Mission. There is an attendance of about 100 at the Sunday morning service, and 70 at the Sunday-school. Mr. Wilson names four great difficulties in the work: The Anglican spirit, the sectarian view of some, the temporary sojourn of many of the people, and lastly, sheer sin and worldliness in many professed believers. The Church now has a membership of 45.

VALPARAISO STATION.

THE SHELTERING HOME has had a larger number of inmates than ever, reaching 35. The lady directors continue to take a most active interest in the welfare of the children. These are well cared for by the same matron as last year, who has shown herself the most capable woman we have ever had in this institution.

Albert Moran, the pastor of the Church, has preached alternately with Mr. Garvin, and reports an average attendance of about 170, and the Christian Endeavor Society with an attendance of from 50 to 70 at the Monday night prayer-meetings. Sixteen new members have been added to the church. In Los Andes, Senor Moran reports:

There is much ignorance and superstition among the poorer classes, who are the ones who for the most part attend our meetings. Some of these poor creatures kneel in the street and bow their heads to the ground when the parish priest passes carrying the host. The opposition of this priest, publicly manifested to the people, caused some to leave off coming to our gatherings. Still, in the last meeting, held in December, there were 45 in attendance, who listened with reverent attention. There are three converted men there, one of whom, a carpenter, rose in the meeting and spoke earnestly of regeneration by faith in Christ.

"The Escuela Popula" has continued its work during the year, with an attendance of 200 pupils.

"The El Heraldo Evangelico," the religious paper of the Mission, has appeared with a weekly issue of from 2,200 to 2,300.

COPIAPO STATION.

Of the work of the city of Copiapo, Mr. Lowe reports:

The weekly preaching service has averaged 49; the Sabbatu-school has averaged 38, one-third being adults; the weekly prayer-meeting has had an average of 34. The first half of this meeting has sometimes been led by one of the three members, who seem competent. We have maintained a day-school, the report of which is to be found on a separate sheet. We have had a ladies' benevolent society, called the "Sociedad Protectora de la Infancia." They have helped the poor, especially those who are the household of faith. The poverty of Copiapo is extreme; times are hard, wages low, work scarce. The people live by miracles, as the Rev. Francisco Diex would say. There are two views current as regards benevolence; first, the Copiapinos being liars, thieves, deceivers, hypocrites, imposters, cheats and pretenders, no one but a green foreigner would give them anything. This is the commonly accepted doctrine.

gards benevolence; first, the Copiapinos being liars, thieves, deceivers, hypocrites, imposters, cheats and pretenders, no one but a green foreigner would give them anything. This is the commonly accepted doctrine. The second view is very rare, and commonly ridiculed—that a Christian should have something to give to the needy. The Sociedad Pretectors de la Infancia received contributions from about twenty subscribers. These women are well informed (so says Mrs. Lowe) upon the genealogical tables of Copiapo, and the innermost thoughts, motives and character of every one who applies for help; and when an appropriation bill passes their parliament, it is done in a glare of information and wisdom. Mrs. Lowe thinks that the society does perhaps more good as an educational measure for its own members than as a means of charity.

The spiritual condition of the Church has been one of quiet growth. Nine have been admitted to membership. It is far from being what it should be, and we think more pastoral attention is needed. The resident missionary will please take note. So much for the Spanish work in the church. We have done a little work looking toward the great world outside, distributing tracts on the street, seeking subscribers for the "Heraldo," selling some few books, and helping Dr. Allis in a series of lantern-meetings; the attendance at these meetings being, by actual count, from 150 the first night to 500 the last night.

Mr. Lowe has endeavored, as have all the missionaries in Chili, to discharge their responsibilities toward the foreign population living near them, greatly needing a little spiritual stimulus and assistance.

The Church was formally organized in Taltal, the second port to the north of Copiapo, by Dr. Allis and Mr. Lowe in June. Two elders and three deacons were ordained, ten were received by profession, and ten by certificate, the elders having charge of the meeting.

At Chanaral, Mr. Lowe reports:

This is the first port to the north, with a population of about 2,000. This group is a year and a half old. It organized as a Christian Endeavor Society last June. It has been under the care of two women, who were truly converted, and who know the secret of the Lord. At present, the brother of one of these young women conducts the services and reads sermons. About fitteen have asked that they be organized by the Presbytery into a church.

In many other mines and ports to the north there are little groups which Mr. Lowe and Dr. Allis have visited.

Of the school, the report says:

We have held a day-school throughout the year. Fifty-eight have matriculated during the year. It has been a battle field; fanaticism, poverty and laziness have preved upon the flock. We closed with 28 scholars. They have sifted out, into the nucleus of a good school. The parents are more or less evangelized. The school is held in the chapel, the benches being removed to make room for the services—an inconvenience, but the pupils quickly do the work.

Of the work at Tocopilla, one of the licentiates, Robert Elphick, reports:

The school has an attendance or 20. To the night classes, which take place three times a week, about 15 have attended. The school is kept up by the voluntary donations of the parents. Twenty dollars a month are paid by the teacher.

This year many persons have decided to accept the Gospel, though only 11 have persevered to this date.

The Hospital has been visited regularly, and flowers and books have been lent to the sick. It has been spoken to them of the great salvation of Jesus Christ.

At the Nitrate Works at Santa Fe, Buena Esperanza, Santa Ysabel, and Pegrina many men gather to hear the Gospel. the last place there is now no work going on. held in the large workmen's dining-room have had an attendance of 40, 60 and 80 persons.

CHILLAN.

Mr. Spining, while learning the language, has also thrown himself earnestly into the work of this Station, for which he and Mrs. Spining have been made responsible. Mr. Spining writes:

Notwithstanding the written sermons and the bad pronunciation of a foreigner, which many-especially the writer-feared would be their ruin, the average attendance for the year has been a little less than 60a gain of 25 per cent. Many of the new ones who attend regularly belong to a higher class of people than we have been reaching. Twentytwo members were received, two by letter. Of those received on profession, five were members of the advanced class in the day-school, and four belonged to the congregation of Parral. The total membership is 66, including those living in Parral. Not more than half the members are now residents of Chillan. There were 18 baptisms. Two members were excommunicated for leading immoral lives.

The outstations reached have been Parral, San Carlos, a town of 5,000 people, six leagues north of Chillan; Linares, a town of 13,000, and Talca, a city of 30,000, and Bulnes, seven leagues south of Chillan, a town of 4,000 people. At San Carlos Meetings have been held all the year. For four months in the house of a German family, who helped much in breaking the ice, and securing us an entrance. Upon the removal of this family, a room was rented on the opposite side of the street from the house of the parish priest, from whose precincts an occasional stone or stale egg has found its way to the door of our preaching place also. The priest himself has been untiring in hurling his anathemas against us, and as a result we have generally had our room well filled with very little advertising on our part. We consider two persons there converted as the result of this work, and the attendance and interest shown give promise of larger results in the near future.

Mr. Spining adds, in the close of his report:

Our itinerating work has cost a great deal of time, a great deal of strength, and a good sum of money; but the year's experience has taught us that this feature of the Nevius plan, already adopted by many of the Stations, of reaching all the points of a given region, by radiating from some central point within it, is admirably adapted to Chili, and the only speedy and economical way to accomplish her evangelization. So, whatever other branches may be curtailed, let the appropriation for itinerary work for each Station be as large as the working force can wisely expend.

Of the Women's Work, Mrs. Spining writes:

During the year, the meetings were held on Thursday—a time most convenient for the women. The first part was a prayer-meeting, and the second part was a discussion of the subject for the week. Such topics were taken up as "Gossip," "The Duty of Wives to Husbands," "Spiritual Care of Our Children," "Our Duties to One Another as Christians," "Our Duties to those who are not Christians," "Cheerfulness in the Home," "Cleanliness in the Home," etc. The attendance was from 20 to 35, and the women seemed really interested. One meeting, which pleased them very much, was a practical lesson in how to make home attractive with little expense. There was collected into one room all the cheap home-made furniture that was available; covered boxes to serve as dressing-tables, bureaus, etc. The women were permitted to examine them, and to take patterns at will. One remarked afterward, "Such simple things, and yet we had never thought of them!" I know that this lesson has come to a practical effect.

I feel sure that the work has not been without fruit. One woman

I feel sure that the work has not been without fruit. One woman said: "I see that we do many things wrong, but how could we know a better way? Our mothers knew no better way, and who else would teach us?" Many acknowledged that the meetings had helped them; and one man, an elder in the Church, said: "I hope that nothing will put a stop to these meetings. I know that they do my wife good, for our home has been better already because of them."

When the Station was reorganized, Mr. Kuom, one of the German teachers, removed to Chillan to engage in evangelistic work, of which he writes:

God be thanked that I have found everywhere, in the preaching-places, in the railroads and hotels, not only attentive ears, but also sore hearts hungering for salvation. And if formerly I at times asked myself, "Is this evangelistic work necessary in Chili?" I can now say with firm conviction, in view of the multitude of superstitions, immoralities and miseries which exist for the lack of the pure Gospel, "Yes, it is more than necessary."

A Girls' School was begun with 12 pupils, and closed with 46, under the charge of Mrs. Meyer and Mr. Kuom.

CONCEPCION.

Mr. Schmalhorst had charge of the Concepcion Station, living in a Chilian family, until transferred to Santiago to assist in the Instituto. Mr. Schmalhorst, in December, 1897, was married to Miss Nora Allis, the eldest daughter of Dr. Allis.

The attendance on the services nearly doubled during the year. Of a visit to Penco, Mr. Schmalhorst writes:

At least 250 people were in attendance each night. Bibles were sold, tracts were distributed to the number of about 1,500. There were private conferences after each meeting. The teacher of the public school came to the hotel for two conferences, and brought his catechisms and histories; he desired to know "the true religion." There is a family of five members, Protestants, in which there has not been a Bible since 1870. The factories and elevators give employment to hundreds of men.

COLOMBIA MISSION.

BOGOTA: the capital of the country; situated on an elevated plain; 4 degrees north latitude; climate temperate; population 120,000; elevation nearly 9,000 feet; occupied as a mission Station in 1856; missionaries—Rev. T. H. Candor and Mrs. Candor, Rev. A. R. Miles and Mrs. Miles, Rev. M. W. Graham and Mrs. Graham, Miss Celia J. Riley, and Miss Jessie Scott.

Barranquilla (Bar-ran-keel-ya): near the northern seacoast at the mouth of the Magdalena River; 12 degrees N.; population 30,000; occupied as a Station in May, 1888; missionaries—Mrs. E. H. Ladd, Miss Martha B. Hunter, and Miss Florence E. Smith.

MEDELLIN: population 50,000; occupied October, 1889; situated on table-land at an elevation of 5,000 feet, between the two great rivers Magdalena and Cauca, ten days north of Bogota; missionaries—Rev. J. G. Touzeau and Mrs. Touzeau.

CARACAS, VENEZUELA: population 72,000; occupied tentatively, 1897; missionaries—Rev. T. S. Pond and Mrs. Pond.

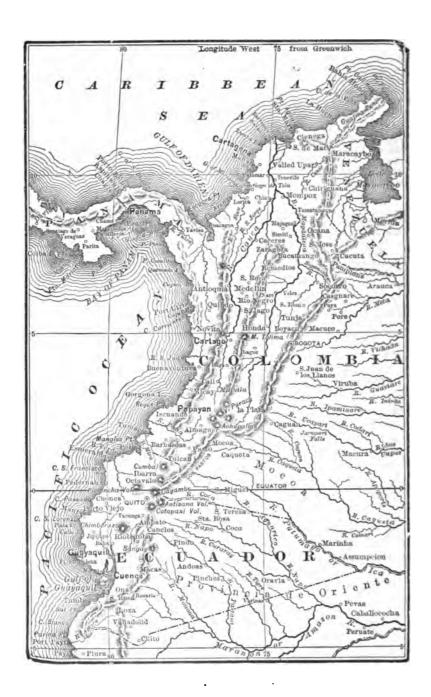

IN THIS COUNTRY: Miss F. E. Smith.

COLOMBIA MISSION.

The four Stations of this Mission are at strategic points. cities are important, and in some respects even pleasant. But they vary widely. Barranquilla, the leading port, is at sea-level and hot. Bogota and Medellin in the mountains are cold, and at an altitude which over-stimulates the nervous system, while Caracas is the more liberal capital city of Venezuela. The Mission has never had an adequate number of missionaries; and those who are there have to contend with the trying form of opposition which characterizes Romish priests, Seventh-day Adventists, the baptized paganism of the multitude and the active infidelity of many of the higher classes. Great wisdom, patience and love are therefore needed on the part of the workers, lest they unduly exalt the polemic aspects of Evangelical Christianity. But they have been careful and faithful, and they earnestly seek to preach and exemplify a peaceful and winning rather than a belligerent Gospel.

BOGOTA STATION.

CHURCH AND EVANGELISTIC WORK.—The Church services have been continued without interruption, and the attendance has been encouraging. Twelve have been received into membership and several others have applied for admission. The two Sabbath-schools have been maintained, though with somewhat irregular attendance. The women have irregularly met for prayer, and the influence of their meeting has been marked. Some of them so instructed their servants that two were led to Christ. The questions of self-support and of systematic and proportionate giving have been urged in the pulpit and in private conferences. The people have not reached clear convictions on these questions, but the church-offerings reached the sum of 391.60 pesos. Ambition for material prosperity has taken hold of many of the leading men of the country, and they urge it as the remedy for acknowledged evils. The resultant condition of mind is a great hinderance to the progress of the truth. It is not the only false philosophy that has a large following, but it is the form that the missionaries have to meet most frequently. There has also been some open and more secret oposition on the part of persons who profess to be Christians, and yet who attack some of the fundamental Gospel truths. Tracts and newspapers have been circulated even among our church-members, assailing all forms of evangelical doctrine, and seeking to discredit our work and form of worship.

EDUCATIONAL.—Boys' School.—The Boys' School has safely passed a year of difficulties. The establishment of an intermediate department was an experiment which has proved successful. The advanced courses were reduced, and the college department was closed on account of the small number of students. It will not be reopened. In spite of these changes, however, the enrolment reached 69—a falling off of only 11. Twenty-eight were from Protestant families, 30 paid tuition in full and 19 in part. The work has been thorough, and the progress made by the students very gratifying.

Mrs. Graham taught two classes in English, and rendered aid at intervals in other classes.

A new departure was made this year by holding monthly public examinations. Printed invitations were sent to parents and friends. It had hitherto been difficult to induce them to visit the school, but in this way about 25 were brought to each examination. The closing exercises included the recitation of several of the parables and incidents in the life of Jesus, and the giving of the 53d chapter of Isaiah and the 13th of 1 Corinthians. The new American minister, Mr. Hart, was present, and several of the Bogota papers spoke highly of the exhibition.

Mr. Graham writes:

I took some of the older pupils in the "Shorter Catechism" with careful explanations. We feel unusual satisfaction with the thoroughness and zeal with which the religious teaching was carried on this year, especially as it was conducted almost entirely by the native teachers, who are all members of our Church.

Four of the pupils have given evidence of conversion.

The tuition has been increased in the Superior department to four pesos per month and in the Primary to three pesos per month. A boarding department will be opened and all boarders will pay five pesos per month tuition, in addition to the cost of board.

Girls' School.—The enrolment for the year was 55. these 12 were the children of foreigners, and 26 were from Protestant families.

The receipts from tuitions and matriculations were 471.95 Miss Scott writes:

We can report no conversions among the pupils during the year; but the pupils in the Bible class were interested and awake, and we know the the pupils in the blube class were interested and awaze, and we show the teaching was earnest and faithful, special effort being made to make the truths taught personal. An hour was set apart each day from the lesson-hour, when any girl might go alone to Mrs. Candor for conversation and instruction in the "way of life."

The school closed with public exercises by the members of the school, and the room was crowded

We hope and believe that the work done during the year will not be barren of good results.

Primary School and Kindergarten.—The Primary School, under the direction of Miss Riley, opened the 1st of February.

The pupils of the Bible class studied the life of Christ, and in the closing exercises they gave a short sketch of a part of the life of Christ; the principal events being located by maps and illustrated by magic-lantern pictures. In addition, most of the children attended a school prayer-meeting, which was held every week by the pupils of the College department.

The enrolment for the year was 37, of whom 23 belonged to the kindergarten department. All were day-pupils except three. Eighteen came from Protestant families, and only 11 received tuition free.

Miss Riley has conducted some classes for Bible-study in friendly homes, and she has also held classes in the school building for religious instruction.

Free Day-school.—This school for poor children was hampered by lack of funds, as the cut left it only one-third the amount it asked for. The women of the Church helped all they could, giving 25 pesos. The school was opened February 18, 1897, under the care of a native Christian lady. A few rough benches, a very unsatisfactory blackboard and a half-dozen books comprised the schoolroom furniture.

There were 23 pupils enrolled during the year. They are required to attend the Sabbath-school in the same building, and they have appeared to really enjoy the exercises. The children have committed to memory the Child's Catechism, and a number mastered the Shorter Catechism, receiving as prizes a New Testament and a hymn-book. They also learned much Bible history, telling the stories in their own words. They committed to memory about 20 hymns, and sang them with great energy. Two of the pupils showed signs of spiritual interest. On several occasions the children were induced to attend the Church services, and some brought their parents. The missionaries were cordially received when they visited the homes represented.

BARRANQUILLA STATION.

MISSIONARY FORCE.—Miss Florence E. Smith was obliged to return to the United States in Mayon account of serious illness. Her health has, however, so far improved that she will doubtless be able to rejoin the Station in the early Fall. Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Montgomery resigned in August, so that only two missionaries were left—Miss Hunter and Mrs. Ladd. They have naturally labored under many difficulties in endeavoring to maintain the work, but they have toiled faithfully and heroically. The Station will be reinforced in the Fall by an ordained missionary.

The preaching services have been conducted by the native helpers and Mr. Joseph Norwood and his assistants of the American Bible Society, Mr. Norwood in particular being exceedingly kind and helpful.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Girls' Boarding-school, under Mrs. Ladd, opened in February with the largest attendance in its history. It has also this year attained entire self-support. Two native Christians, one from Bogota and one from Caracas, have been added to the corps of teachers. Four of the girls have confessed their faith in Christ during the year. There is much reason for gratification over the success which this school is achieving.

The "Escuela Popular," under Miss Hunter, has had a largely increased attendance. The boys and girls are usually quite young, and most of them are from the poorer homes. Such a school is not an easy one to manage; but Miss Hunter, assisted by two native helpers, has shown tact and ability in this trying position. The closing examinations showed that many of the children had made a very marked improvement.

Among a people who are vain, superficial and satisfied with showy attainments, it is an uphill task to do simple, enduring and thorough work from our educational view-point. The ground has to be gained inch by inch. Miss Hunter writes:

I have tried this year, as never before, not to lose sight of the fact that all our school-work is only justified so far as it serves as an evangelizing agency in the end. In this we have had more encouragement than in other years.

MEDELLIN STATION.

The school has been maintained as before, despite the cut. The missionaries have made personal sacrifices, and older girls from the school have been employed at small salaries. But this has thrown more burdens on the already overloaded shoulders of Mrs. Touzeau, who greatly needs some one to share the responsibility which is so wearing in that climate, where even those who have little care are nervous from debility.

The little paper, "El Evangelista Colombiano," has gone to all parts of the country, and has brought orders for Bibles and other religious books, as well as many requests to have it continued or sent to new readers. The Gospel through this medium reaches thousands who would not otherwise hear it.

There is a wide field for itineration in the surrounding region, but little of it can be done with only one family at the Station. The usual religious services, however, have been regularly held, and one new member has been received, making eight since the Station was opened eight years ago. Results come slowly in an ignorant and bigoted Roman Catholic South American city, especially when a solitary missionary and his wife must contend, single-handed, against the indifference of the multitude and the bitter opposition of priestly foes. But God is with the workers, and they labor steadily on. While the converts have been few, they have been carefully received and trained, and thus far every one has been faithful. In proportion to their ability they give more than Christians in the United States. Though they are very poor, the annual income of the head of a family being only 450 pesos ($189), and the cost of living is high, they contributed last year an average of five pesos each.

CARACAS STATION.

Early in 1897 Mr. and Mrs. Pond were transferred from Barranquilla to open a tentative work in Caracas, a city of 72,000 people. The field was unoccupied by any regular Mission, though evangelical services were more or less regularly held by the agent of the American Bible Society, while for two months Sr. M. Ferrando, formerly a Capuchin monk, had held Bible classes in his own house. The scattered members of a Church organization, once under the care of the Methodist Board (South), but for two years disbanded, warmly welcomed the new missionaries.

Four weekly services were at once begun, including Sabbathschool and prayer-meeting. The attendance at the preaching services has ranged from 25 to 75 within the rented hall, and from 20 to 50 within hearing distance at the windows and door. In the congregation are to be seen not a few negroes, mostly from Jamaica—servants, clerks, workmen, etc., who can read

English and Spanish.

Sr. Ferrando has, in many ways, given sympathetic co-operation. His two prolonged illnesses somewhat hindered his work as editor of evangelistic literature, but he has now recovered, and has put forth five numbers each of his Reviews—"La Verdad" and "La Discusion."

Tracts are freely distributed. In them many receive the only spiritual food of their lives. They practically have no religion, and are too poor or too indifferent to buy a newspaper, but they eagerly welcome the freely given printed message.

Considerable house-to-house visiting has been done by both Mr. and Mrs. Pond, and wherever practicable Testaments and "portions" have been distributed. Mrs. Pond is also responsible for a prayer-circle for women.

There are the usual difficulties incident to ungodliness and Romanism; yet the moral atmosphere is no worse than that of most South American cities, while constant communication with North America and Europe has brought some degree of enlightenment and liberality. The rights of free speech, free assembly and free press make the work of preaching and publishing more encouraging than in Colombia, Ecuador, Peru and Bolivia. Moreover, the Protestant labors under no civil disability, as in those States. The great obstacle of ecclesiastical marriage is wholly absent, civil marriage being possible and on a par with ecclesiastical. There is no separate or consecrated cemetery, all having the rights of burial in the same plot. Hence the native Christian is not hindered at every step, as in Colombia.

There are a few Protestants, whom we esteem very highly. Mr. Delima is ever ready to help in any way—to visit the people, or do anything for the Master's service. Apparently the thought of pecuniary gain never enters his mind. Another poor man has taken upon himself the duties of sexton. He lives two miles away, but always comes to Church. When we spoke of the distance, he said: "I should come if it were twice as far." A young girl gives her services as organist. Young people come half an hour before services to practice the hymns, and evening classes are held for young men.

The shadows of the year in Syria have been illness and death in missionary families, and the increasingly unscrupulous competition of Russian and French priests in the school-work. The former especially are lavish in the use of money, erecting buildings in the immediate neighborhood of our schools, thoroughly equipping them, and giving all their privileges to the native children free of charge. The American Churches do not give us enough money to enable us to financially compete with such a policy, and we would not if we could, for we believe in inculcating a spirit of self-help. We therefore insist that parents shall contribute according to their ability, even though the amount be small. It is not an easy lesson for an Oriental people, whose inherited tendencies are all toward dependence.

But it is just at this point that the lights of the year are strongest. It appeared to be a peculiarly unpropitious time to reduce our appropriations; but inexorable necessity was upon us, and the cut had to be applied at the very moment when the Russian and French priests were tempting the natives with their most liberal offers. But to our joy, while some fell away, the native Christians as a whole manifested a spirit of loyalty and self-sacrifice beyond all praise. So, in the providence of God, the cut proved to be a real blessing; and the Church in Syria today, though with a smaller number of adherents, is in a healthier and stronger condition than ever before in its history.

BEIRUT STATION.

MISSIONARY FORCE.—In October, Miss Law left for the United States, on account of ill-health, and Miss Anna H. Jessup has temporarily taken her place in the Beirut Seminary. Mr.

and Mrs. E. G. Freyer have been appointed missionaries.

During the protracted illness of Mr. Wm. Jessup in Zahleh, Dr. H. H. Jessup spent a considerable part of the summer in Zahleh, aiding in the completion of the manse, and the general work of the Station. These labors, in addition to his regular duties in Beirut and his preaching in the outlying villages, made the year a heavy one for him.

Dr. W. W. Eddy has maintained the preaching service in the Museitebeh for nine months of the year His commentary on the New Testament has reached the first chapter of 1 Timothy, or the 200th page of the fifth volume. Dr. Post, of the Syrian Protestant College, has completed Vol. II of the Bible Dictionary, and it is now being copied for transmission to the Imperial Bureau of Publication in Constantinople.

CHURCHES.—Mr. Yusef Ahtiyeh has continued as preacher in the First Church in Beirut, to the great satisfaction of the congregation; but the Church has made no visible progress toward self-support. The Second Church is without a regular preacher, the former pastor being still absent in the United States. Fourteen members were received into the First Church during the year, of whom six are students of the college.

A Society of Andrews and Philip was organized in February, and its members hold Sabbath-meetings in different parts of the city. The Sabbath-school has flourished under the superintendence of Mr. Khirullah. There is now a movement in both the native Churches towards reunion.

There has been no theological class during the year, yet we still continue to supply native preachers for other Missions, one from the Tripoli field having gone to the Irish Presbyterian Mission in Damascus, and another from the last theological class to the new English Presbyterian Mission in Aleppo. On his way to Aleppo, the Turkish censor at Alexandretta seized all his letters, books and sermons—promising, after perusal, to forward them to Aleppo. These Turkish censors ought to be well instructed in the faith, considering the immense amount of orthodox theology they are obliged to read every year.

EMIGRATION.—The emigration from Syria continues unabated. Whole families have gone from the Beirut Church the past year, and more are planning to go.

The bretheren and sisters ask for certificates of church membership, but we have adopted the plan of giving certificates only when our members have a settled residence in some definite locality, and send us the name of the church with which they desire to unite. We then send the certificate to the pastor, and thus the letter is not available as a circular letter of recommendation for business purposes, as many pastors in America have complained of in years past. This course affords all needed spiritual protection to our members going to Christian communities in distant lands.

On June 22d, Mr. Michael Mosully died in Beirut. He had been in the service of the American Missions for fifty-eight years. During all this time, he was distinguished for fidelity and integrity—a noble example to his countrymen.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Mary Pierson Eddy removed her headquarters to Sidon for the winter. As usual, she has been indefatigable in her medical work, making extensive itinerating tours, in which she has endured many hardships, but in which also she has brought physical healing and the Gospel message to many sufferers. Her report for forty-two weeks shows 5,874 patients treated, 279 surgical operations performed, and 64 villages visited. She writes:

The Holy Spirit has enabled me to plead mightily with God this year for the souls of some of those for whom we have labored, and to prevail.

WOMAN'S WORK.—The women's meetings in the eastern quarter at Ras Beirut and the Mezraa have been maintained, as in former years, by Mrs. W. W. Eddy, Mrs. Porter and Miss Jessup. The Syrian Helping-hand Society of young women has been superintended by Mrs. H. H. Jessup. At a concert the members, aided by Syrian young men, sang the solos and choruses of a Christmas oratorio composed by a native member of the Beirut Church, now a student in the National Conservatory of Paris. The number of members of the Helping-hand is 24; persons aided, 111; number of garments made, 151.

MISSION PRESS.—The work of the Press has prospered, and the results obtained are even better than those of a year ago. Owing to a change in the date of the Mission meeting, the report covers six weeks less than a year's work. According to that document 19,611,303 pages have come from the presses, 13,286,000 of which were printed (at cost) for the American Bible Society, the remaining 6,325,300 consisting of religious and educational books and tracts. The number of volumes sold, transferred to Egypt, and granted to the poor has exceeded last year's total by 6,597, while the number of volumes bound has amounted to 28,-672. A hopeful event is the introduction of the Arabic Scriptures printed at the Press into the many Russian schools lately opened in Palestine and Syria. The field of distribution for Arabic literature, especially that of religious character, is constantly widening. This is chiefly to be attributed to the large settlements of Syrians in various parts of the world. It is good to know that, by means of the Press publications, they are kept in touch with their native land and with things pertaining to their spiritual welfare.

The government censor at Constantinople has given but little trouble during the year. But owing to the unscrupulous character of subordinate officials, the clearing of goods at the Custom-house is becoming more and more difficult, and it calls for the exercise of much grace and patience. In view of important questions regarding the work of publication, Mr. Freyer visited Constantinople in April, and it is hoped that the result of his visit will be an improvement in our hitherto somewhat trying relations with the Imperial Ottoman Bureau of Censorship. But no reply has yet been received to the petition presented to the government last April for an extension of the privileges of the weekly "Neshra."

The employes of the Press cheerfully subscribed 4,000 piasters toward the debt, thus showing that they too take an interest in the efforts of the Board to carry on its work.

EDUCATIONAL.—Beirut Seminary.—

The graduating class numbered three—one of whom, just before leaving school, declared herself to be on the Lord's side. Her principles were put to a severe test during the Summer; for the Catholics offered to take her and her sister into their school as boarders, and give them both French lessons on condition that she would teach only two branches. She felt that she could not conscientiously enter one of their institutions, and remained firm in spite of her father's anger at her opposition.

The pupils' foreign missionary offering of nine dollars was sent to the Board for the debt. During Miss Law's absence, the teachers have voluntarily undertaken to keep up the society which she organized last year, and offerings have been given for a fund to start work.

and offerings have been given for a fund to start work.

The boarding department has been smaller than usual, its maximum number having been 39. On the other hand, the day-scholars have been more numerous than before. There are now 31 who pay full charges. The department for little children is well attended. The pupils represent the following sects: Armenians, 3; Maronites, 4; Moslems, 4; Greek Catholics, 7; Orthodox Greeks, 16; Protestants, 27.

Owing to the cut in the appropriations, the Girls' Day-school at Ras Beirut was dropped, and it has been taken up by our generous friends of the British Syrian Mission, who also assumed, for the year at least, the support of fourteen other schools in different parts of the Abeih, Zahleh and Sidon stations. They also offered to receive, without charge, twelve daughters of discharged and needy native helpers. Miss Caroline Thompson, directress of the Mission and the London Committee of the British Syrian Mission, deserves our hearty thanks for this fraternal and timely action. Prof. Nicely and other members of the faculty of the Syrian Protestant College, have taken up the Boys' Day-school in Ras Beirut.

ABEIH STATION.

Abeih's missionary force is located in three places, separated by deep valleys and approachable only by stormy mountainpaths, or a tortuous carriage-road. In these cirucmstances, the necessary absence of Mr. Hardin for a part of the year, and the assistance to Zahleh called for by Mr. Jessup's illness, occupied considerable of Mr. Baird's and Mr. Doolittle's time. Yet they managed to find opportunity for no little preaching, touring, and school inspection. Mr. Hardin's return, after a furlough of only six months, accompanied by Mrs. Hardin and their daughters, was appreciatively welcomed, and again made Abeih a home-centre.

EVANGELISTIC.—The Deir field may be pictured as half a wheel, with the Deir as the hub, and Ain Zehalteh, Baruk, Mukhtareh Ammatur, Ghareefy, Metulleh and Dibbeyeh as points on the tire, each distant two or three hours from the centre. While no one place is capable of sustaining a separate Church organization, yet the community of congregations contains ample material. Accordingly, these various groups have ben united in one church, with a good session and 83 members. It is hoped that this new arrangement may dispose of some of the vexing problems which have menaced spiritual life and church growth in this region.

CHURCH.—In Abeih itself, the people have displayed unusual liberality. When the reductions were ordered, Mr. Bird appointed a meeting of the church to discuss ways and means, and as a result a most encouraging amount was cheerfully raised.

A young man who supports his father's whole family, and, who is educating his sisters in Beirut, contributed half a Napoleon. A notably stingy man, without solicitation, presented an English pound, and was apparently the happier for so doing. Even the school-girls agreed to devote half of their time at needle-work for the benefit of the school.

Priestly opposition has been strenuous, and some women who were enrolled in the Sabbath-school have transferred their allegiance. But the missionaries have been indefatigable, and much good has been accomplished.

Funerals often afford opportunity to reach people, and particularly Druzes, who would not otherwise hear the Gospel. A young man of Protestant family in Aiu ir Rummany died, and his funeral was attended by 300 people, among them the two priests of the village. Most thoughtful attention was given by all present as the missionary preached.

WOMAN'S WORK.—The Woman's Benevolent Society is now sixteen years old, having been organized in 1882. It was started to develop the spirit of benevolence among the Protestant women who were more than willing to give time and effort, but who had little money at their command, and it has been happily successful. It has drawn in women of other sects also. The usual attendance has been from 15 to 20, and its deeds of charity and helpfulness have been many. The Society now plans to assume the expense of the primary school in Abeih, aided by the tuition-fees of the pupils, who number from 40 to 60, according to the season of the year—the Board thus being relieved of its support.

SABBATH SCHOOL.—The annual Sabbath festival in Abeih was more than usually successful, and the large Church was filled with pupils and friends, among them the Greek priest and the mudir (mayor) of the village. Children's day was observed in the Deir in a way to delight both the children and their parents. Many women were present, and some were afterward heard to remark that they saw no reason why they should be forbidden to attend such services. In order to interest them in benevolent work, a sewing society was organized in the Summer. Thus far 25 garments have been made and 185 piasters collected.

Special attention has been given to Bible-study, the mid-week meeting being turned into a Bible class. The success attending these studies has led to a promised repetition of the course in Ain Zehalteh, where 15 have pledged themselves to weekly preparation.

INTERESTING EXAMPLES.—The trite remark, that statistics do not tell the whole story of spiritual influence, is illustrated by the fact that the light of Abeih has reached far beyond the limits of the Protestant sect. Some of the most interesting characters are nominally Maronites, Catholics or Druzes.

One, a Maronite, is among the most effective evangelical helpers in the Deir. Another thorough Protestant is the trustee of the Catholic Church in his village. But he has become a true preacher of righteousness. Many an evening do the young men gather at his house to hear and study the Word. Another instance is that of a Druze—a quiet, thoughtful man, who enjoys the reading of books and tracts; and on one occasion, when outlines on a certain text had been called for, he presented the most acceptable of all. Such cases as these impress us with the truth of the Word. "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts."

EDUCATIONAL.—School-work has been embarrassed by the sweeping reductions, but it eventuated in a certain measure of self-government in some places. As a rule, the teachers deserve mention for their faithfulness in this testing time. In four villages, schools were discontinued. In three others the teaching force was reduced, and in half a dozen other places the work has been transferred to the British Syrian Schools or the Friends' Society.

SUQ EL GHARB ACADEMY.—The Suqel Gharb Boys' Academy was superintended, during Mr. Hardin's absence, by Mr. Bird. It began the year with reduced numbers, owing chiefly to the lack of funds for aiding those who are unable to pay the full tuition. But the school has fared well, having 49 boarders and 12 daypupils. These pupils came from 23 different towns and villages; 16 are Protestants, 16 Maronites, 10 Greek Orthodox, 8 Catholic, 10 Druzes and 1 Moslem. Seven of last year's number entered the college. The examinations last July were excellent. The teaching force has been diminished by two, leaving four teachers and one preacher, who also teaches. But this number is inadequate to the work.

A book-store, library and reading-room combined has been opened in the busiest part of the town. That the new departure is appreciated is evident from the number of books in circulation, and the frequent use made of the reading-room. The man in charge is a Christian, and more than once has been found reading the Bible to some one who did not know how to read. Efforts have been made to establish friendly relations by means of a series of lectures—a sort of University Extension Course. The audiences manifested great satisfaction.

But the priests viewed with unwilling eyes the evening gatherings of the choicest of their flocks; the bishop fulminated in an Easter sermon; and the patriarch thought to strike at the root of the matter by ordering all good Maronites to remove their children from our schools. But, with few exceptions, his order met with firm refusal, and many parents have remained unconfessed to this day.

THE CUT.—

When word came of the great reduction, it fairly staggered us, and we feared for the results. After reducing to the lowest point, figures relating to itineracy, rents and repairs, there still remained a reduction of over one-third on the actual salary list of our 49 helpers. This we effected by dismissing 11 teachers, transferring eight to other societies, and diminishing the salaries of the remaining preachers and teachers. And yet, we are not prepared to say that the year's experience has been wholly disastrous. We have seen growth in the spirit of self-denial, of liberality and in the expression of sympathy and co-operation from those who were accustomed merely to receive. Christianity has acquired a stronger significance as distinct from worldly advantage. And appreciable progress has been made toward the goal of self-support.

SUMMARY.—In the Abeih field there are five church buildings, four chapels, and 25 school-rooms. The congregations aggregate 825. The Sabbath-school children number 950. In the day-schools there is an enrolment of 1,650, about equally divided between Christians and Druzes. During the year there were seven additions to the churches, and ten infant baptisms.

For the future we should be gratified if we might at least reopen the work closed, and answer with more than an unattractive negative the persistent and ofttimes pathetic appeals of teachers and people. And beyond the first necessities of restored work, there open before us vistas of possibilities in new work, petitions from villages which would be desirable preaching points. But the fulfillment of our desire depends upon the liberality of the Home Church.

SIDON STATION.

CHURCH.—During the year 46 persons have been added to the Church, a most encouraging record. The frequent visits of Mr. Eddy to all parts of the field and the strong influence exerted by Academy, Seminary and Church have, without any apparently unusual interest, brought this number into the communion. The two Christian Endeavor Societies, one of young men and the other of young women, are also doing excellent work. Even better things are anticipated because of the large number of applicants for admission to the Church still on probation. It is interesting to notice in this connection that in 1867 the number received into the Church by the whole Mission was 18, while in 1897 this Station alone has received 46. Effective aid is given by Mrs. Ford and Mr. Stuart D. Jessup, who, while not officially connected with the Mission, are fully identified with its work.

MEDICAL.—Dr. Mary P. Eddy has visited a large part of the Station field during the year, spending much time at important outstations. She has now taken a house in Sidon, whither her patients are flocking from all quarters.

PRESBYTERY.—The meeting of the Presbytery last summer was anxiously anticipated on account of the heavy reduction in appropriations. The whole field was canvassed beforehand, so that every church and preacher and teacher could be prepared to share the burden. The result was a pleasant surprise. The fact that the missionaries had let the stroke fall on themselves first produced a good effect. With most gratifying zeal, pledges were given by all the 13 Churches. These, together with the heavy cut on teachers and preachers and the pledges of parents of pupils, made it clear that but few places would have to be abandoned. There was general thanksgiving that the blow was no worse. At the same time it was manifest that the unusual effort of the people and preachers was a temporary one to tide over a crisis, and that a repetition of it another year can hardly be expected. Nevertheless, a remarkable stride has been taken towards self-support, and there will be no return to the former measure of dependence on the Board.

Six places which had to be given up on account of the cut were occupied by the workers of the B. S. S. Mission through the kindness of Miss Caroline Thompson, Directress.

OUTSTATIONS.—The Sidon field includes 28 outstations; and, besides these, there are Protestants in a dozen more villages, six or eight of which are very near Sidon. There are, moreover, outposts not on the lists, because they are supplied by the volunteers from the Academy and the Church and by the missionaries themselves when free from regular duties elsewhere. The ladies of the Station have been very active in this branch of the work. In this way all the surrounding towns are becoming familiar with Gospel truth.

Tyre has been growing in importance, and the little Church is exerting its influence in many directions. In Alma and Bursa, the year has been a checkered one. The influence of the school, the preacher and the house-to-house visitation of Miss M. J. M. Ford was such as to awaken the combined opposition of the Turkish police captain, the Papal Greek bishop, and the district governor. They sealed up the school, imprisoned some of the Protestants, one of whom was the preacher, and banished one. By energetic action on the part of Mr. Eddy, the banished man was restored and the prisoners released, but the school is still closed.

Dibble is the new centre of work in Belad Beshara. The people have been tempted and tried at all points by priests, Jesuits and nuns, but they still stand firm.

In Hasbeiyeh, the active work of the native pastor, and the seed sown by his lamented predecessor, are bearing fruit in more active life in the church and greater endeavors towards self-support.

Poverty and emigration have dealt harshly with El Khiyam and Rasheiyeh, but it is hoped that new life may be awakened in these places that will prove the vitality of the Gospel seed so long ago sown there. Excellent teachers have been working and teaching in both of them. In 1840 the Rev. Isaac Bird opened a school in Jedeideh, but it was quickly closed by the bishop, with the declaration that never again should a Protestant enter that field. But in 1870 Dr. W. W. Eddy at the request of the people began a work which has never been relinquished. The villages in the vicinity were at one time occupied, but owing to the rigid retrenchment of the past few years have been abandoned. A better feeling pervades the Church at Judeideh. The preacher who has been there for 28 years, though tried by the reduction of his salary to one-half the amount he has been receiving for years, has shown a spirit of resignation not usually seen. The Boys' and Girls' Schools are flourishing greatly, containing more than 400 pupils, and paying more than 2,000 piasters in fees (about $90.00).

In Mejdel and Ain Kuneyeh, the smoke and grime, the blackened walls and ruined houses, tell of the besom of destruction that swept over them when the Druzes were in rebellion two years ago. The owners of these plundered houses, out of their poverty, are more than doubling their previous gifts as a church, and promising as much more for a teacher. In the retrenchment the old preacher's salary was cut down 20 per cent. He then relinquished one month's income after the cut, and then 10 per cent. more on what was left, and so the work goes on in Mejdel.

There are 11 preachers and 15 teachers at work in the field outside of Sidon. But little more than half the expense is met by the Board, and two places are entirely self-supporting. In Sidon city there are 13 native workers, two of whom are preachers.

THE SEMINARY.—The seminary has 100 pupils, of whom 44 are boarders. The girls represent 24 villages. In religious affiliation, 41 are Protestant, 23 Greek Orthodox, 15 Greek Catholic, 2 Maronite, 5 Jewish, 13 Moslem and 1 Mitawaly.

The main part of the housework is done by the pupils themselves, not only for the sake of economy, but also to train them to be neat house-keepers and to keep them from being educated away from the simple life of their village homes. We are trying to insist upon the payment of a small tuition fee, but the poverty of the country and public sentiment as regards the education of girls, render the task a hard one. Great strides have been made, however, since the early days when beds, books and most of their clothes had to be supplied to the majority of the girls. In many parts of the country girls are never treated as if they possessed minds of their own, and their reasoning faculties are very deficient. For instance, a class of large girls was asked the use of sails on ships, and several were of the opinion that they were to give shade to the sailors.

When it became known that the Seminary was in debt, it was touching to see the teachers come forward with donations from their slender salaries, to help the school they love so well. And since then, whenever there has been extra work to be done, a special plea has been made by the head teacher that no outside help be hired. A Christian Endeavor Society has been started with the special object of reaching the city girls. At one of the communion seasons, twenty-two from the Seminary partock of the Lord's Supper. A class of seven received diplomas last year, three of whom are teaching, two are at home, and two are studying in Beirut. Forty villages have been visited, some of them several times, by those connected with the Seminary. Though nominally for women, the meetings are often largely attended by men and some children are always present.

THE ACADEMY.—Seven young men were graduated in the regular course, of whom two have been placed in charge of missionary outstations. Four have finished the partial or English course. During the vacation, the self-help and orphan pupils did considerable work in the industrial section, while the year has been characterized by exceptional fidelity and zeal on the part of the teaching corps. The admission of ten of the boys to church membership, and Mrs. George Wood's generous gift of $1,000 for the running expenses of the Industrial Section, made the year a happy one.

By the completion of the tailor-shop, the two-story building formerly used for that purpose became available for a dormitory, while by moving the primary department back to its old quarters, a large room is saved, as well as the overcrowding of the playground, and the maintenance of neatness and order has been facilitated. Dr. Ford was thus able to receive an increased number of pupils, although many applicants had still to be refused for lack of room. So far 119 boarding pupils have matriculated, and 86 day-pupils of all grades—a total of 205, and a gain over last year of 40.

A pleasant surprise has been the growing popularity of the Self-help Section, in which the boys work all day and study and recite in the evening. The number has risen from 15 last year to 25 this year, and more applicants were refused here than in the Academic Section. Its night-classes are being conducted with increased system and thoroughness, to correspond as far as possible with the Academic course.

All the Industrial Departments are taxed to keep up with the orders to be filled.

Our order books show the names of 4 governors, 2 judges, 10 counselors, 14 military officers, 3 emirs or princes so-called, 16 beks and titular sheikhs, 3 mullahs or muslim sheikhs, 10 foreigners and 10 Americans.

In the Agricultural Department, quite an extensive vineyard has been planted, besides many olive and mulberry trees.

We were glad to announce two years ago the receipt of a gift of $3,400 from a generous friend, to secure for it, if possible, the blessings of one or more artesian wells. The Oil Well Supply Co. of Pittsburg, kindly furnished the apparatus at cost price, and Mr. Chauncey B. Harding of Jamestown, N. Y., was chosen to superintend the work. The well has now reached a depth of 430 feet, and Mr. Harding is confident of success.

The public interest in this enterprise is universal and intense, water being a great blessing in that semi-arid land, and this method of getting it quite unique.

The Carpenter Department has five or six salaried carpenters and 16 boys, 10 of them self-help boys, who work all day. The corresponding numbers in the other departments are tailors 14, shoemakers 11, masons 9, house-servants 3, well-boring 2. Thus, during all the working-hours of the day, there is a continuous body of over 60 workers in the trades. The carpenter, tailor and shoemaker departments are now self-supporting.

We do not forget the dangers attending this so-called secular arm of our work; but it is our constant prayer and aim to so shape this enlargement that its effects shall be distinctly spiritual and evangelistic; and, to this end, we have great need of help in prayer and counsel.

TRIPOLI STATION.

At the beginning of the year, every outstation was well manned, the schools were in excellent condition, the teachers were more earnest than ever in bringing the Truth to the minds of scholars and parents, and the effort to make the schools not merely educators of children, but entrances to communities, was more promising.

We had intimations of reduced appropriations, and were preparing for them; but when the letter came it almost overwhelmed us, for it looked as if all the building up of years would be swept away. It was difficult to know where to begin the pruning, for there was scarcely a preacher or teacher who could be spared.

PRESBYTERY.—

Presbytery met at Hums and we were very anxious, for we did not know how the churches would take the retrenchment. Our fears were not realized, for the preachers and elders showed a most excellent spiriting what was to them a new sense of responsibility. They were proud of the chance to show that they realized the difficulty under which the Board was laboring, and were more than willing to do all they could to keep the work going. We were delighted to note the interest in the schools, for it was unexpected. The sum given them being half that of last year, if the schools were to be maintained, they must be supported by the people, or the preacher must act as teachers. It was the unanimous vote of the Presbytery that all the schools under its jurisdiction should remain open. They said it would be a disgrace to close a school, and this sentiment was echoed by all the people. We feel grateful to God for this sevidence of the spirit of self-support, and we feel strongly that this is in answer to prayer, as well as the fruit of systematic education of the churches by urging and encouraging them to assume responsibilities.

Notwithstanding this self-denial, however, nine schools had to be closed; and, as we reduce our school work, the Russian Society for the Evangelization of the Holy Land takes it up. In some instances it opens schools where we still have them, and tries to win over our teachers and pupils. The new Russian school at the Meena has five Russian ladies, seven native teachers and 400 pupils. All the girls from our Meena School, now closed, are of the number. They have also opened a free school for boys in the city, which has a large attendance. Our Boys' High School feels the influence of this liberality, the attendance being reduced to 30.

EVANGELISTIC.—Of the region south of Tripoli, one has said:

Just as soon as you enter Lebanon, you find the people spiritually dead. The Greeks care very little for religion, and the Maronites, who are in the great majority, walk the path marked out for them by their clergy. We see very little fruit for all the years of earnest effort, but at no time have we felt like giving up.

In the region about Ghurzuz, a great change has taken place in the attitude of the Greek Church. Indifference has developed into opposition, but this has spurred the preachers and church-members to greater activity, and people are beginning to wonder what there is in Protestantism to cause the priests to change their policy. Large audiences gather, and the teacher of the Greek school at Munsif, who is not permitted to hold a Sabbath-school, and two other Protestants from Batrun, walk every Sabbath to attend the services, and people ask, "What kind of a religion is this, that will cause men to walk hours to attend church?"

The difficulty of reaching the Maronites was manifest during a tour in May by Mr. Nelson and Dr. Harris. In some instances the priests would drive the people away from the tent, or ring the bell for mass before the time, or sit near to see that no books or tracts were received, or engage the missionaries in conversation and endeavor to keep them from talking upon religion. An old man told Mr. Nelson that he could, in one hour, convince him that he was wrong. He agreed to hear Mr. Nelson's argument first, but so logically did Mr. Nelson present his part that the poor old man seemed absorbed in interest. After a time he sighed and said, "Oh my Lord, I have been the assistant of this village priest for over forty years! I know the Maronite religion from the beginning to the end. Is it possible that I have been mistaken!"

Mr. March was talking to a Maronite, when the man cried out in alarm: "Oh! stop talking to me. I am a simple fellow; you may make me a Protestant." A priest told his people not to take medicine from Dr. Harris: "For the very moment a drop of his medicine touches your tongue, you are a Protestant, and your soul is lost." The Jesuit monks, the nuns and the Maronite priests threaten converts with everlasting punishment, and cut off from the rites of the Church. If this fails, they threaten punishment in the courts, on a false charge. The latter seldom fails to dampen the ardor of the inquirer into the merits of the Protestant faith.

ALEPPO.—In September our work in Aleppo was, in the interest of both economy and comity, formally transferred to the English Presbyterian Mission, which maintains a missionary there.

In Maharadeh the influence of the Christians is increasing, especially among the people of the neighboring villages, who speak of them as good men, because they do not lie. The school is wholly supported by the Church. The Hums Christians are still interested in carrying the Gospel to the Syriac district, and they say that they will not be satisfied until all the villages to the east and north have become enlightened.

In Im Dulab, the people are tenants of a rich Moslem bey. They work the land on shares, and the bey is very fond of them because he can trust them. In the Amar field, the Roman Catholic abbot said to our native preacher: "I wish the Greeks would pay their dues, and be as honest as the Protestants." A story is told of a boy who, having left our school and gone to the Greek school, afterwards met his former companions with a shout, saying: "I go to the Greek school; I swear—! There! Did you hear that?"

A man from Yazdiyeh was, three years ago, given a Bible. He gathers his neighbors every evening to read it, and now four are candidates for church membership. At Rahbeh we had a large school, but in November the Russians opened a school, and all our pupils left but four. The teacher is not dismayed, and he devotes his entire energies to these boys. If our school has received a check, there is greater interest in the evangelistic part of the work. A little company meets every evening with the teacher for Bible-study, and the Sabbath services are well attended.

Minyara is one of the bright spots in the Tripoli field, with a church ten years old. It is now in charge of Hanna Kabaz, a member of the last theological class. The people are poor, but he has introduced a scheme of systematic giving, which is working admirably. All over the field fees are now generally paid, even where it was formerly thought impossible for the people to raise anything.

The Tripoli Church has received 21 new members during the year.

Our senior elder is employed by the Tram and Diligence Company. Last Summer, the president, a Moslem bey, discovered that some of the men were selling leather, and in a rage he discharged all hands. Some days after, one of the Moslems who had been discharged told the bey: "You did not do right to discharge Abu Gurguis el Kuri; he is a good man, and I know he did not steal your leather." After inquiry, the bey sent for Abu Gurguis, and told him to go to work as overseer of all the stock of his department, saying: "I do not employ you because you are an old man or poor, but because you are honest. These Moslems go to Mecca to the mosque and say, 'Allah, Allah!' Then they steal my leather. You Protestants are better than Moslems; you are truthful and honest." "Of course they are," said another Moslem Effendi; "if they are not, they are turned out."

MEDICAL.—Dr. Harris superintends a great work in this department, and emphasis is given to religious instruction; Shukri Fakhuri preaches every day before clinics; and also on Thursday evenings, in the Dispensary Chapel, he assists in dressings and surgical operations. Zimmd Faris, a graduate of the Girls' School, does the Bible-work among the women in connection with the Dispensary. Dr. Harris spent 20 days in Hums, and 22 in Hamath, where many sick and injured were helped. The number treated during the year cannot be given, as unfortunately the record was lost, but it was fully up to the average. There were 288 surgical operations, of which 107 were on in-patients.

GIRLS' SCHOOL.—The first trial of the year was the enforced resignation of a teacher, because of her attempt to unite with the church. She has resisted more than one attempt to weaken her purpose, but she has not yet been able to attend the service. There was evidence, too, that some of the pupils had been put on their guard against "pernicious doctrine" by home friends. However, four girls and one of the servants expressed a desire to confess Christ, and a few of the Greek girls have also shown a genuine interest in Bible-study.

The teachers, too, have grown in grace. In our weekly teachers' prayer-meetings, we study subjects calculated to deepen our own spiritual life, and we talk freely about the spiritual needs of individual girls, and pray for them by name. A year ago one of the girls was discovered in an act of dishonesty, which she persistently denied. We prayed for her much that she might be made willing to confess her guilt. We waited a long time, but at last the hour came when she voluntarily confessed to Miss La Grange, and after a little persuasion also acknowledged her sin before a group of her school-mates gathered for prayer, and asked them to pray for her.

Altogether there have been 35 graduates of the School, of whom 16 have been or are now teachers. Seven are married, and three have died. Ten are members of the Church. The missionary meetings were sustained during the year, and 341 piasters were raised. At present there are 46 boarders, the same number as last year. There are also 126 day-pupils in all departments, making the entire enrolment 172.

A Christian Endeavor Society has been organized, with 13 active and two associate members. The Evangelistic Work Committee proposes to undertake some aggressive work among the Moslem women who have become accessible through the dispensary and the work of Dr. Harris' assistant, and also among the parents of the school children. The spirit of the school is excellent. The teachers have been particularly faithful.

We are not satisfied simply to teach our girls English and Arithmetic and Geography; we want, most of all, to teach them the beauty of a life "hid with Christ in God." We feel that we and our teachers and our Christian girls must have the baptism of the Holy Spirit, that we may become powerful witnesses to the need and the power of our Saviour.

ZAHLEH STATION.

The year at this Station has been a broken one. Of the two families regularly stationed there, one—Mr. Hoskins'—was in the United States the greater part of the year on furlough. Such an absence is ostensibly for rest; but Mr. Hoskins delivered 150 addresses and traveled 3,200 miles, while Mrs. Hoskins added to the care of three children the strain of scores of public addresses.

On the field, the erection of the new Missionary Residence, so long needed, required much of the time and labor of the only remaining missionary, Mr. Jessup. Before the house was completed, however, he was attacked by typhoid fever. For a time his life was despaired of. During the days of greatest danger, one of his children suddenly died. Mrs. Jessup did not dare tell her husband, lest, in his weakened condition, the shock might be too great. So a friendly native carpenter hastily constructed a small coffin; the mother herself, assisted by her sister, who was providentially with her, lined it, and then the little body was placed in it and sent off by night to Beirut for burial. Only parents can appreciate the anguish of that mother, as she went back to the sick-room of her husband, trying to keep a brave face and to hide from observation the awful sorrow that was wrenching her heart.

Mr. Jessup's condition gradually improved, but before he was fairly convalescent the house took fire and was seriously damaged. It is not surprising that, by the time he was well out of danger, Mrs. Jessup was herself prostrated by typhoid fever, while the illness of another child still further increased the already heavy burden.

The close of the year, however, saw more pleasant days. Mr. and Mrs. Hoskins returned to their work with renewed vigor. The new residence was nearly completed, while the health of Mr. and Mrs. Jessup and their little one was almost restored, though it will be some time before they will recover from the strain of those terrible months.

In such circumstances, the work of the Station of course suffered. Very little touring could be done, and consequently few examinations of candidates were made; so there were but three additions to the Church during the year. In maintaining the most necessary forms of work, great kindness was shown by the members of the British Syria Mission, and also by the missionaries of our other Stations, notably the Rev. Dr. H. H. Jessup of Beirut.

The heavy cut in the appropriations naturally intensified the difficulties of the year. Nevertheless, preaching and teaching were regularly sustained in two centres and eleven outstations, though other outstations and several schools had to be entirely closed. While some of the native workers felt aggrieved, others showed a most excellent spirit, and bravely and uncomplainingly bore the retrenchment. Quite a number of the preachers and teachers gave a month's salary to meet part of the losses.

THE CHURCH.—The Zahleh Church had unusual demands upon its sympathy and charity for help to the poor.

Nevertheless, it assumed the support of a teacher for three months, so as to give him a chance to look out for other employment. He had just been married, and his case was a particularly appealing one. In a number of places the teachers with fear and trembling demanded fees for the first time from the school children, and many children were driven away to the Catholic, Greek and Jesuit schools. One teacher thought that all we wished was a certain sum of money from his school, and rather than see the boys go to the Catholics he said he would pay the amount from his own pocket. We informed him that we desired him now not only to educate his boys in book-learning, but also in the principle of paying for their education. He now has all the pupils he can accommodate, and is getting fees from them too.

OUTSTATIONS.—

We decided to close Schlifa as an outstation, but the people pleaded so hard and offered so willingly for the work that we had not the heart to refuse them. They carried the heavy end of the support of the teacher for several months, and are now paying fees for their pupils; but the Jesuits have spoiled the unity of the effort by sending the people a teacher who has taken away a large number of the pupils.

In Ras Baalbec, as usual, the year has not passed without some act of blind fanaticism.

A traveling monk, after holding special services for the confessional and for the instruction of the ignorant, suddenly turned to anathematizing the Protestants. He raised the excitement to such a pitch that the people rushed out of the church to hunt the Protestant Bible and all its associates out of the place. They ransacked the houses of the whole town searching for books and Bibles, which they brought to the churchyard, where another bonfire witnessed to the wrath of man which we hope ere long will praise God.

The people of Kefr Zebat have done their best to keep their school. The teacher, was informed that it would have to be closed, whereupon the people rallied to his aid and assured him of the greater part of his salary, asking the Station to pay him but one pound per month. Inasmuch as they were already furnishing the rent for the school and for the teacher's house, the offer was accepted as a token of better times in self-support. Then the harvest was poor, and a plague carried off so many cattle that the farmers had no oxen to plough with and very few were able to sow their fields for new crops. Naturally they are not able to give as they intended, yet they are courageously doing the best they can. There is no priest in this town, and the Protestant service is the only one maintained.

To sum up the results of the cut, 11 of the native helpers lost their positions. Two others were transferred to another Mission, and two were temporarily retained by special arrangements for their support. Three outstations remain closed, and other branches of the work have been cut down. But what remains is substantial and in a healthy condition.

MISSION TO THE CHINESE AND JAPANESE IN THE UNITED STATES.

SAN FRANCISCO: Mission begun 1852; laborers—Rev. I. M. Condit and Mrs. Condit, and Miss J. E. Wisner.

AMONG THE JAPANESE: laborers—E. A. Sturge, M.D., and Mrs. Sturge; native superintendent.

OAKLAND: Mission begun 1877;

PORTLAND, Oregon: laborers—Rev. W. S. Holt and Mrs. Holt, and Mrs. Ciarkson.

NEW YORK: laborers-Rev. Huie Kin and Mrs. Huie.

After careful consideration of the questions involved, the Board has felt constrained to recommend the transfer to other Presbyterian agencies of a large part of its work among the Chinese and Japanese in the United States. We thoroughly believe in the value of that work, but it is within the limit of home Presbyteries, and therefore where it can be under their watch and care. It is believed that, so far as practicable, the various forms of Christian activity in this country should be vested in the duly constituted agencies for the supervision of home-work. On the foreign field the Mission has the responsibility for this local supervision, but with the exception of those in San Francisco the widely scattered workers among the Chinese and Japanese in the United States have neither the benefit nor the check of Presbyterial relation and oversight. creasing demands from the foreign field and the inadequacy of the gifts of the home Churches powerfully reinforce these con-A Christian statesmanship dictates a forward siderations. movement among the vast and accessible populations of Asia and Africa. We cannot continue to close schools, cripple hospitals, dismiss native preachers and teachers, and leave unfilled vacancies caused by death and resignation, while at the same time we are expending nearly $25,000 a year among a comparatively small number of Chinese and Japanese, who are in the immediate neighborhood of scores of churches, some of them strong in numbers and wealth. It is fair to presume, moreover, that the Presbyteries and local churches would take a deeper interest in the work among the Chinese and Japanese, if it were immediately directed by them, so that the discontinuance of the relation with the Foreign Board will be to the advantage of all concerned.

Accordingly, the Board has arranged to leave to local agencies the support of all its work among the Chinese and Japanese in this country, save only in the city of San Francisco, where the interests are of such exceptional magnitude and of such peculiar relations to our work as to justify us in maintaining them as a part of our regular foreign missionary operations.

NEW YORK.

The average attendance of the Sabbath-school has been 78, at the Sabbath afternoon service 30, and at the Sabbath-evening Bible class 25. The Y. M. C. A. meeting conducted by the members themselves is growing in interest, and a Christian Endeavor Society has just been organized.

The Rev. Huie Kin has statedly preached during the year.

The contributions have amounted to $661.69.

Fourteen young men are avowed Christians, six having recently united with the University Place Church on examination, and two on certificate. Two of our former scholars have united with the Baptist Church. The Missionary Society supports two schools in China, from which encouraging reports are received.

CHINESE IN CALIFORNIA.

Wu Ting Fang, Minister from China to the United States, arrived April 12, with a retinue of 62 people. The different missions united in giving him a reception in the Chinese Presbyterian Church, Dr. Condit presiding. A handsome Bible was presented to him, and another to his wife. An interesting response was made by his Excellency, in which he spoke words deeply appreciative of the good work done by the missionaries for his people. A thousand Chinese were present.

THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION.—The Christian Endeavor Convention greatly stirred Chinatown. Thousands of the young people thronged the quarters. Our Chinese Endeavorers received great praise for their Christian helpfulness along all lines where they could serve. They acted as free guides through the Chinese quarters. They contributed good music before the convention when they were called upon; and the Rev. Soo Hoo Nam Art conducted one of its devotional hours with great acceptance. Curiosity to see Christian Chinese might have been obtrusive at times, but everywhere and always our boys were courteous Christian gentlemen. There are three Chinese Christian Endeavor Societies in San Francisco—two Senior and one Junior.

CHURCHES AND SCHOOLS—Church services have been largely attended; prayer-meetings have been interesting, and the day and night schools have been satisfactory. Six hundred an thirty-nine pupils have been enrolled during the year in the evening-schools, and 504 in the Sabbath-schools. The teachers have been faithful in giving the Gospel with secular instruction. Upon the whole, in numbers, in loyalty, in the additions to the Church by baptisms and in contributions, this year has been the best year ever known in the Mission to the Chinese in California.

CONVERSIONS.—Forty-four have been baptized, and 38 received on confession of their faith in Christ. Dr. Condit writes:

I had the pleasure of receiving one on profession of faith, who was baptized in infancy. I have laid my hands in baptism upon the heads of probably 300 Chinese during my service of 28 years in California; but this is the first instance where I have received one who had been baptized in infancy. He is the son of Elder Low Toy, and a bright, useful young man.

Another, Ah Yung, had a remarkable conversion. She lived in Fish Alley, one of the most malodorous spots in Chinatown; but, through the faithful visiting of the missionaries, was led to attend Church and hear the Gospel. She was one of three wives of an old husband, who has lived far beyond his three score years and ten, without a knowledge of Christ. Ah Yung was naturally a sweet-spirited woman, so that when the Gospel was brought to her, she opened her heart in loving faith. It was a weird scene when the missionary, his wife and the Bible-reader knelt in the wretched little room after she had been baptized. Her poor, sad face was illuminated by the light from within, so that her heathen husband said to Mrs. Vrooman, afterward: "There seemed to be a light behind her face that shines through. I think it is her new religion." Her last whispered words were to Mrs. Vrooman: "Oh, do not cease to come when I am gone. Keep coming and try to save the rest. Don't forget these chil-Tell them of Christ. Don't give them up." Her forgiven and saved soul went to her Saviour, even though her earthly home was in Fish Alley.

BIBLE CLASSES.—Pastor Nam Art conducts a large Bible class every evening in the school, and on Wednesday evening follows it with a service for the unconverted at the same time that the Christians meet for prayer in the Y. M. C. A. Rooms below. Mrs. Condit's Bible class has an enrolment of 34. Visitors, at the invitation of the regular members, show that there is a missionary spirit in the class. The Bible is taught faithfully by all the helpers and teachers in all the schools.

REFLEX INFLUENCE ON CHINA.—The Christian young men converted in the Presbyterian Chinese Missions of California had no suitable place where they could worship the true God in their native village of Sung Ning, China. This was a great grief to them, and so they decided to "arise and build" a church. Subscription-books were sent to their California brethren, and a sufficient sum was cordially given. There was fierce opposition on the part of the populace and magistrates in China, but it was overcome; and now the Kong-Tuk Lai-Pai Tong, or Condit Church, stands not alone as a monument to the faithful instruction given to these young men in the Mission of California, but to the consecrated effort of these Christians in their own land. The Church cost $3,000. A native pastor and teacher are also supported by our Christians in California. Some time ago Lay Guey, of Oakland, returned to China to visit his family. Through his faithful life and teaching his wife has become a Christian. She is so in earnest that she goes from place to place, among the families of her acquaintance, preaching in her quiet way the Gospel of her newly found Saviour.

JUNIOR CLASSES.—In the Primary class, 40 little ones gather every Sabbath to be taught. Many of these are found at the Junior Endeavor, before the evening service. Four or five of the members of the Senior society have charge of the Juniors. They have a wonderful "Look-out" Committee. They go out and bring the little ones from heathen homes to the meeting, and return them safely after the meeting is over.

The Whatsoever Circle of King's Daughters is under the leadership of Mrs. Condit, and works in a quiet but effective way among the heathen families.

The Loomis Memorial School enrolls 71 scholars, who are almost all from heathen families. The pushing of the Gospel light into the heart of Chinatown is a hopeful feature of this school. The resignation of Miss Wisner, to enter a course of study in the Cooper Medical College, was a great loss to the school. Her eight years' experience and her knowledge of the Chinese language made it difficult to supply her place. Miss Brewer, of lovely consecrated spirit, succeeds to the care of these little ones.

CONTRIBUTIONS.—This year has been one of the most. liberal years in the history of the Mission. For local purposes the Chinese have given $264.00, and for benevolent purposes $624.00.

OUTSTATIONS.—Alameda has an evening-school of 45 and a Sabbath-school of 26 scholars. Forty dollars have been given for local purposes, and $62.00 for Missions. There are six Christians, one of whom was baptized during the year. Miss Garrette and Miss Fraser are the teachers.

Los Angeles has two teachers, Miss Boone and Mrs. Noble. Fifty have been taught in the evening-school and 39 in the Sabbath-school. Six have been received by baptism, making 37 members of the Church. Pastor Cheu conducts a very interesting Bible class. The "Morrison Band," composed of the church-members, was the leading band (out of 98 others in the Presbytery of Los Angeles) in giving in proportion to its membership, and in faithful attendance at the monthly meetings. This Church has given for local purposes $186.00 and $208.00 for Missions.

Oakland enrolls 55 in the evening-school and 50 in the Sabbath-school. Miss Lucy Vrooman and Miss Knight are the teachers. The church membership is 32. Two were baptized during the year. One hundred dollars were contributed for local expenses, and $268.00 for Missions.

San Diego enrolls 40 scholars in the evening-school and 35 in the Sabbath-school. Mrs. G. W. Tyler is the teacher. Two have been baptized, making nine Christians at this Station.

San Jose Station has two Christians. The evening school has an enrolment of 41, and the Sabbath-school 35. Thirty-seven dollars were contributed for local expenses and $10.05 for missions. Miss Burlingame is the teacher.

San Rafael enrolls 51 scholars in night-school and 24 in Sabbath-school, with the Misses Shaver as teachers. There are nine Christians, one baptized during the year. Two hundred and fourteen dollars given for local expenses and $38.00 for Missions.

Santa Barbara gave $135.00 for local expenses and $90 to Missions; 34 scholars have been in the Sabbath-school, and 50 enrolled in the evening-school. Mrs. L. H. Terry and Miss Gerham are the teachers. There are 16 Christians at this Station.

Santa Rosa has an enrolment of 16 in the evening-school, and 15 in the Sabbath-school. Eighty dollars given for local purposes, $10.50 for Missions. Mrs. J. Ross has charge.

Stockton enrolls 41 pupils in the evening-school and 30 in the Sabbath-school. There are four Christians, one having been baptized this year. Eighty-one dollars and seventy cents given for local expenses, and $24.50 for Missions.

JAPANESE WORK.

There are about 7,000 Japanese on the Pacific coast, and onehalf of this number make their home in San Francisco. They are principally young men, and may be divided into three classes; merchants, students and laborers. They are nearly all unmarried, and remain in this country but a few years. Lack of funds has prevented us from doing much for the Japanese outside of San Francisco, though we have church-members residing in several places.

THE CHURCH.—The first Japanese Presbyterian Church in Calfornia was organized May 20, 1885. Since that time 236 have been added to its membership. During the past year 20 young men have been received, and since its close 14 more have been added—the largest accession at any one time in the history of the Mission. A greater effort too has been made to build up character, and the Church is now in better condition than ever before. Last April four new elders were elected, and their influence over the little flock has been very helpful. The free-will offerings amounted to $415, and were used entirely for evangelistic and benevolent purposes. Two preaching services and two Sabbath-schools have been conducted each Sabbath. These and the mid-week meetings for prayer have been well attended.

SCHOOLS.—The public school and higher institutions of learning are all open to the Japanese, and they are not slow to take advantage of this privilege. Our two Japanese schools are therefore for new-comers, who begin with us the study of English and continue about two years. It is during this period that they usually become interested in Christianity. About ninety students have been enrolled, the average attendance being about fifty. All students who are not members of the Mission Homes are charged a small tuition fee.

THE MISSION HOMES.—One hundred and forty-six young men have been accommodated in our two Mission-homes. All expenses, save the salary of the missionary and that of his assistants, have been met by the Japanese themselves; the amount thus given aggregating $2,531. They have also contributed $120 towards the support of their teachers. Thus more has been accomplished than ever before in the way of self-help. The Y. M. C. A. connected with the Haight-street home has 96 members, all but three or four being church-members. The other home, on Sacramento Street, has 70 members, all of whom contribute regularly to the support of the institution.

OCCIDENTAL BOARD.

For the first time in many years, we must report an entire change in the personnel of the Mission. In July, after an illness of nearly four years, the gifted and beloved Miss Margaret Culbertson, "One of God's noblest gentlewomen," passed to her reward. Words cannot describe our sense of loss, but God has not suffered the cause to languish. Other efficient workers have been raised up. Mrs. Field has come into the work with the wisdom and piety so necessary to the superintendent of a Rescue Home. Miss Cameron, associate superintendent, is a competent co-worker. Miss Brown, a teacher in the Home-school, Miss Carruthers in the Occidental school, and Mrs. Vrooman, the house-to-house visitor, are admirably fitted for their special duties. So that never has the Occidental Board had a more prosperous year.

During the year the Mission Home has sheltered 67 women and girls. There are at present 40 inmates, classified thus: Babies, 3; children, 10; young girls, 15; women and older girls, 12. The church-members number 19, of whom 9 united with the Church during the year. There were 10 marriages and two births in the Home. Seven girls have been helped to return to China. They pay their own expenses, rarely forgetting to leave a gift for the work. Since the founding of the Home, over 700 girls have been rescued. There are two flourishing Christian Endeavor Societies. The secretary of the Junior Society is only seven years old, but her wisdom would sometimes set a theologian to thinking.

EDUCATIONAL.—Home School.—The enrolment was 31, not including three remarkable babies, and their not very remarkable mothers. A three-years' course of Bible-study has been inaugurated, and is proving quite successful. The progress of the girls is most gratifying, considering their former surroundings.

Occidental School.—Forty were enrolled. Much religious instruction is given, and strict public school methods and discipline are enforced. There is a Missionary Society, and many poor families in the Chinese quarter have rejoiced over the Thanksgiving gifts of rice and fruits from the children of this Society.

Los Angeles and San Diego Schools.—The Los Angeles enrolment is 18, with an average attendance of 12. A Sabbath-school has grown out of the day-school. The San Diego School has only seven pupils, but they are carefully taught.

EVANGELISTIC.—Three hundred and fifty women and 375 children were visited in their homes. Three were baptized. The number to be visited increases from year to year, as families are constantly arriving. Some who have returned to China have written back to the teacher: "We remember to say our verses, and go to Church."

Mrs. Vrooman, the visitor in Chinatown, speaks the Chinese language, and is faithful in her house-to-house work, often staying far into the night with the sick and dying.

During the year there has been much to encourage—an increased desire to attend church, many questions asked about what the preacher said, and open doors to all houses, instead of many closed ones as formerly.

PORTLAND.

All departments of the work have been maintained with the usual regularity. The night-school has had a fair but regular attendance.

The Christians have maintained their character among their own countrymen. As usual, numbers have returned to China, but we have yet to hear of one who has forsaken his Christianity. A recent arrival bears this testimony:

I met one of your Presbyterian members and his wife in China. They built a comfortable home, and invited their neighbors in to see it.

After a time he addressed the company, thanking them for their congratulations, and saying, "It is true that I made money in the Golden Hills (the name for the United States), and we have a comfortable home; but we found something better. We found Jesus Christ." He then proceeded to speak the Gospel.

There have been three conversions during the year—one in Portland, one in Salem and one in Pendleton.

The Dispensary has continued its beneficent work, treating 300 patients. The members of the Homeopathic Association have very kindly and freely given their services, and the incidental expenses have been paid by Chinese friends. One of the converts is the result of this medical work.

The Rescue Home for Women and Girls is as useful as ever. The first girl was taken from a brothel by Mrs. Holt. She has grown up to be a fine young woman, and is in the Nurses' Training-school at the Portland Hospital. A prominent business man recently said: "If nothing had been done here except to save this one girl, it is worth all the Mission has cost."

House-to-house visitation is regularly carried on by Mrs. Holt. In addition, she conducts a Woman's Prayer-meeting and teaches the Woman's Bible class.

In Salem and Pendleton, faithful ladies have continued their work. Sabbath-schools, night-schools, where possible, and such preaching services as the missionary could give, have been conducted. One young man, in addition to the three already received, confesses himself a Christian. He will be publicly baptized before long. Another man has almost decided to come.

All the expenses for work outside of Portland is provided for locally, mainly by the Chinese themselves.

REPORT OF THE TREASURER.

The accompanying Financial Statement has been prepared with great care, and it is hoped it will convey to the Church a clear idea of the operations of its Board of Foreign Missions.

The Board, recognizing the importance of utilizing the most approved methods of accounting, as well as the wisdom Audit. of an independent Audit, engaged the services of the well-known firm of Certified Public Accountants, Messrs Patterson & Corwin, as its Auditors and Advisers, and their certificate herewith attached covers the financial operations of the Board for the fiscal year which closed April 30, 1898.

It may with justice be stated that the former Treasurer strongly advocated an Audit similar to this.

Much time has been spent in evolving a system embracing simplicity and economy, and it is felt that a decided gain has been made which will show good results in the future.

In the examination, covering a long period of years, it has been found that the amount heretofore stated as Permanent Funds. Funds, given in total only, represented several Funds. The revision of this, as well as of the other Funds of the Board, is shown in Schedule 1. Hereafter the Permanent Funds will be reported in two classes:

- (1) The Permanent Endowment Fund which represents funds, the income of which only is available for the work of the Board.
- (2) The Special Endowment Funds which represent funds, the income of which is designated for special forms of work.

The General Reserve · Fund represents securities and cash needed to maintain the credit of the Board for outstanding bills of exchange, which at times aggregate over a quarter of a million dollars.

The embarrassment of receiving more than one-third of the annual contributions during the last eight Contributions. weeks of the fiscal year will be apparent to all.

If these gifts were made more generally through the year it would result in a saving of interest charges, of economy in the office force, and would enable the department to prepare the final statements of the year without overtaxing the officers and the clerical force.

Digitized by Google

The contributions of the year vary materially; in some quarters there being a decided increase, and in others no gain. Until April 1st, the aggregate increase was most encouraging, showing in addition to gifts for the debt, a gain of $36,000.00 for the current work. But during the month of April, the last month of the fiscal year, this handsome gain was almost entirely wiped out. To what extent the Spanish-American war was the cause of this disappointing shrinkage cannot be stated.

The Debt of the Board as reported from time to time has uniformly represented the excess of appropriations and expenditures over the actual annual receipts. The debt thus reported May 1, 1897, was $97,454.47, and not the least pleasing feature of the work of the year has been the complete removal of this burden, which, in varying amount, has existed since 1893. An effective agency in this happy result was the loyalty and generosity displayed by the missionaries under commission of the Board. Their example of devotion and self-sacrifice gave a strong impetus to the movement, and this lesson from the field should not soon be forgotten.

In rejoicing over this success it must not be forgotten that gratitude can best be expressed by the display of New Duties. increased consecration and enthusiasm in meeting the responsibilities of the new year. If a debt is not again to cast its blighting shadow upon the work, the Church and the people must contribute in increasing measure even to keep the work up to its present curtailed volume.

It is the fixed principle of the Board to institute wise economies wherever possible, and during the year past, no Economy. small gain has been made in this direction. It is confidently hoped, however, that the coming year will show further reductions in the Administrative expenses of the Board.

There are also in contemplation changes affecting Mission accounting tending to minimize the labor of Field Treasurers, and also give the Board a more complete knowledge of the financial transactions abroad.

Whatever contributes to a closer fellowship between the Board and its Missionaries, even in matters of business or finance, adds to the effectiveness to the work.

The investments of the Board are in the main most satisfactory. Many of the securities have been gifts to investments. the Board, and while practically all of them yield a good income they do not in all cases represent the class of security in which the Board would feel at liberty to invest the permanent funds under other circumstances.

The Operating Account of the Presbyterian Building has shown a decided and encouraging gain, and the prospect is hopeful that the building will ere long yield an income upon the equity in the property, aside from giving the Board free rental. The schedule given in the financial statement will show quite fully the basis for this expectation. By compressing the work into briefer compass, the Board has been able to rent the Board of Church Erection three rooms on the Foreign Mission floor, thereby materially increasing its revenue, although not showing this year, as the rental of but one and one-half months could be included.

Hon. Darwin R. James, Chairman of Finance Committee.
The Board of Foreign Missions, New York.

DEAR SIR:-

We have completed, as far as practicable at the present time, an audit of the Treasurer's accounts for the year just closed.

On account of the methods in use during the past, we have not been able to verify the receipts in a manner entirely satisfactory to us; but we have, however, verified the receipts for eleven months with the published detailed monthly statements in "The Church at Home and Abroad," and find them to agree with exception of some typographical errors in the published statements. The receipts for April could not be verified in this manner, as they have not yet been published. The receipts were also checked and verified into the various bank accounts, and were found correct. We have counted the cash and find it as stated.

We have checked the accounts of the Treasurer for various expenditures made in New York and the amount paid by him to the different Field Treasurers.

We have not been able to verify the disbursements made by the Field Treasurers or the remaining unexpended balances in their hands, as their statements for the fiscal year ended April 30, 1898, will not be received in New York for several months. The surplus ($3,549.70) shown on the Balance Sheet herewith presented is, therefore, subject to change should the Field Treasurers prove to have saved on or exceeded their appropriations for the past year.

The surplus is also subject to certain unadjusted balances with the various missions for the years previous to the one just ended, and which cannot be closed until further information is obtained from the field.

We have made an examination of the different funds held by the Board, our investigation extending, in some instances, as far back as 1870; the result appearing in the Balance Sheet Schedule 1.

We have counted the securities shown on the Balance Sheet, and find them to be correct.

Respectfully submitted,
PATTERSON & CORWIN,
Certified Public Accountants.

An Act to incorporate the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

Passed April 10, 1862.—Chapter 187.

The People of the State of New York represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:

Section 1.—Walter Lowrie, Gardner Spring, William W. Phillips, George Potts, William Bannard, John D. Wells, Nathan L. Rice, Robert L. Stuart, Lebbeus B. Ward, Robert Carter, John C. Lowrie, citizens of the State of New York, and such others as they may associate with themselves, are hereby constituted a body corporate and politic forever, by the name of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for the purpose of establishing and conducting Christian Missions among the unevangelized or Pagan nations, and the general diffusion of Christianity; and by that name they and their successors and associates shall be capable of taking by purchase, grant, devise, or otherwise, holding, conveying, or otherwise disposing of any real or personal estate for the purposes of the said corporation, but which estate within this State shall not an any time exceed the annual income of twenty thousand dollars.

SECTION 2.—The said corporation shall possess the general powers, rights, and privileges, and be subject to liabilities and provisions contained in the eighteenth chapter of the first part of the Revised Statutes, so far as the same is applicable, and also subject to the provisions of chapter three hundred and sixty of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty.

SECTION 3.—This act shall take effect immediately.

LAWS OF 1894, CHAPTER 326.

An Act to amend Chapter one hundred and eightyseven of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-two, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America," and to regulate the number of Trustees.

BECAME A LAW, APRIL 19, 1894, WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE GOVERNOR; PASSED, THREE-FIFTHS BEING PRESENT.

The People of the State of New York represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:

SECTION I.—Section three of chapter one hundred and eightyseven of the laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-two, entitled 'An Act to incorporate the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America," is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3.—" The management and disposition of the affairs and "property of the said Board of Foreign Missions of the Presby-"terian Church in the United States of America, shall be vested "in twenty-one Trustees, who shall be appointed from time to "time by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in "the United States of America for such terms as the Assembly "may determine. But the number of such Trustees may be in-"creased or decreased at any time by the said General Assembly, "and in case of an increase the additional Trustees shall be "appointed by such General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church "in the United States of America; provided, however, that the "members of the Board, as at present constituted, shall continue "to hold office until their successors have been appointed by the "General Assembly. Not less than eleven members of the Board "shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing officers, "making by-laws, or for holding any special meeting; but for all "other purposes and at stated meetings five shall be a quorum."

Section 2.—This Act shall take effect immediately.

SEVENTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Education, in presenting to the General Assembly its 79th annual report, is called upon to make sorrowful allusion to the death of the Rev. D. W. Poor, D. D., which occurred in the city of Newark, on the 11th of October, 1897, in the 80th year of his age. He had devoted 17 years of his long and busy life to the cause of Ministerial Education as Corresponding Secretary of this Board, from 1876 to 1893, when failing health compelled him to lay aside the burden of official duty. Due record has been made in the minutes of the appreciation felt by the Board for the high character, scholarly attainments, genial disposition, and eminent usefulness of this beloved servant of Christ and of the Church. A Commemorative Service was held on the first convenient occasion in the Walnut Street Church, Philadelphia, where he was an attendant. A tablet to his memory has been set up by loving hands in the High Street Presbyterian Church, Newark, N. J., of which he was the organizer and which he served for twenty years as pastor.

The Board has also sustained a severe loss by the death of Mr. Andrew Blair, who, from 1886, to the close of his life, gave most faithful, intelligent, and zealous attention to the interests of the Board. He entered into rest on the 16th of April.

The term of service of the following members expires at this time:—John S. MacIntosh, D. D., Irwin P. McCurdy, D. D., Hughes O. Gibbons, D. D., Geo. H. Stuart, Jr., Rudolph S. Walton, and A. A. Shumway.

Geo. Peirce, Esq., after 11 years of valuable service, has felt it necessary to resign to the deep regret of the Board.

At the annual election, on the fourth of June last, Geo. D. Baker, D. D., was chosen President, Jas. M. Crowell, D. D., Vice-President, Edward B. Hodge, D. D., Corresponding Secretary, and Jacob Wilson, Recording Secretary and Treasurer.

CANDIDATES.

The condition of the treasury, as well as the inability of the Church to press new work either in this country or in foreign lands on account of the state of the treasuries of the mission Boards, has led to the adoption of an extremely conservative policy with respect to the encouragement and assistance of new candidates. We have not dared to go beyond what seemed to be the present willingness of the Church to make use of their services when educated, and to give them aid during the progress of their training. We cannot but look upon the situation as most unnatural and unhealthy. The greatness of the task committed to the Church never seemed so impressive, nor the opportunities for vigorous prosecution of the work so abundant, and the youth of the Church probably never showed a greater readiness to go to the front with the message of the gospel, and yet retrenchment in expenditures, and the curtailment, and even abandonment of work, have been, to a certain extent, characteristic of the times instead of progress.

Those who have an apprehension that this Board has been instrumental in unduly swelling the numbers of the ministry ought to be satisfied that their fears are groundless. The danger may lie in the opposite direction. The total number of new candidates accepted by the Board during the last year was 153, while the annual loss to the Church by death and dismission is 174. A certain number of new men must be furnished each year simply to maintain the Church in active existence, and the question is a somewhat pressing one whether we shall provide the men from our own households, trained in our own doctrines and in our own ways, or depend for our supply upon sources outside of our own communion. Already we are receiving ministers from outside at the rate of 91 per annum. Two years ago the Board enrolled 1037 men; last year 911; and this year only 814; of whom 661 were renewals and 153 new men.

The reduction in numbers has made possible a slight increase in the amount of aid given to the individual students, and it is the full intention of the Board, if the way be clear, to make the rate for the coming season eighty dollars, as it was two years ago. This will make necessary an increase of revenue to the amount of at least eight thousand dollars, or a still further reduction in numbers.

A hopeful sign is found in the disposition manifested by some individuals, churches, and Sabbath-schools, to provide scholarships for individual candidates. The advantages are that a more generous provision is thus commonly made for the candidate, contributions are largely increased, and more intelligently given; while a personal interest is excited in the welfare and progress of the young student by means of frequent reports of his standing furnished by his instructors, and by the record of his successful work when he enters upon his ministry. During the past year eighteen scholarships of one hundred dollars each were thus given, besides one of one hundred and fifty dollars, and the Newberry scholarship yielding about five hundred, and a number of smaller special contributions. These scholarships are given to candidates selected by the contributors for various reasons, sometimes as coming from their own church or presbytery; except in the case of the Newberry scholarship, which is given after a competitive examination.

It is an interesting fact that the two last Newberry scholars have been sons of home missionaries, and that they have both, at the conclusion of their special studies, devoted themselves to mission work, one on the home field and one on the foreign. The next Newberry scholar will be chosen from Princeton Seminary.

The total number of recommendations received from the presbyteries for the current year was 846; so that 32 were refused. It is pleasant to be able to report that the Board found itself able to accept every candidate whose recommendation was received seasonably and in order, and a limited number in addition whose cases, while exceptional, commended themselves to its judgment.

Every effort has been used to maintain that high standard for conduct, scholarship, and promise of usefulness, which the Board was established to promote. Thanks are due for the cordial co-operation of professors in the several institutions, without whose fidelity and frankness in keeping the Board confidentially informed due watch and care would have been practically impossible. One death has occurred among our candidates; eight have been dropped from the roll upon information received of their having married, and a number of others because of persistently unsatisfactory reports as to character, ability, or scholarship.

REVISION OF THE RULES.

The action of the last General Assembly made necessary a revision of the rules. The sections relating to colored candidates, while designed to make special provision for their benefit, were, nevertheless, sometimes interpreted as expressing distrust of the race to which they belong. The rules, as re-written, by direction of the General Assembly, have no longer even the semblance of any invidious distinctions.

It is hoped that the new section setting forth a missionary spirit as a prime qualification for the ministry, and suggesting to the mind of each candidate the eminent propriety of his making an offer of his services, at the conclusion of his course of study, for work in mission fields, will prove of great good. The Corresponding Secretary has used what diligence he could, by means of a circular letter addressed to all candidates under the care of the Board, and about to be graduated from theological seminaries, to turn their thoughtful attention to work of this description. He has also diligently corresponded with chairmen of home missionary committees, and synodical superintendents, in order that he might collect helpful information with regard to needy fields where young graduates might most suitably and helpfully begin their work in the ministry. of this correspondence is to show that the fields are evidently white unto the harvest, but that the means are largely wanting in the treasuries of the missionary Boards to employ the laborers who are eager to volunteer. Nevertheless the reports from the seminaries, so far as received, indicate that the graduating classes will, in general, promptly finds fields of labor.

MEDICAL MISSIONARY WORK.

A conference has been held, in obedience to the direction of the last General Assembly, with the corresponding secretaries of the Board of Foreign Missions in order that some conclusion might be reached with regard to the degree of encouragement, pecuniary or otherwise, which should be given to young men who may be disposed to volunteer their services as medical missionaries. The need of such a conference has sprung from the fact that quite a number of candidates for the ministry have had their attention and their desires turned toward medical missions, and have made earnest inquiries with regard to the means of procuring the expensive and protracted training needed for that work in case they turned from the study of theology to take up that of medicine.

In the conference the extent of the demand under existing circumstances was considered. It appears that in seven years the Foreign Board sent out 23 physicians to 96 ordained men; that is to say 19 per cent. of the men sent out were medical missionaries. Our proportion of medical men is regarded by other missionary societies as very large. At the present time the medical missionaries at our stations constitute 12 per cent. of the force. If the Board should send out 20 men in a year it is not likely that more than two would be physicians. This may be taken as a fair estimate of the annual demand under existing circumstances.

The source of supply has not been in the past altogether satisfactory; the proportion of failures among medical missionaries having been greater than among ordained missionaries. This was natural in view of the fact that the latter had been educated under the close supervision of the Church, and their motives and qualifications rigidly looked into at every stage. The offers from medical men came sometimes from persons in whom was found a lack of college training, want of knowledge of the Bible, and of experience in practical religious work, and sometimes of due appreciation of the sacred character of the task set before them. The prospect is better for the future in view of the increased care taken to present to students during their collegiate and medical courses the spiritual aspects of medical work in mission lands and the privilege of a self-denying consecration of one's talents for life to giving healing to the destitute in the name of Christ.

The qualifications which experience shows to be important in a candidate for medical missionary work are, first of all, unquestionable piety, all the more to be trusted if hereditary, a full college course, and this followed by the best medical training that the schools and hospitals of our land can afford; while, in addition, there should be a thorough knowledge of the Bible, practical efficiency, and an ability to deal with men concerning spiritual matters.

The supervision of the candidates' education is a question which has not hitherto attracted attention, largely from the fact that more than enough men have offered themselves for the medical work than could be engaged, and a selection seemed possible by which physicians of the type required could be procured. It is thought that the mistakes which have sometimes been made in the past are not likely to be repeated.

The result of the conference may be summed up by saying that the demand seems to be limited at present to an annual average of about two men, and that this number can be easily and satisfactorily secured by selection from the comparatively large number of applicants without the necessity of making provision for aiding candidates during their course of study.

It seems important therefore to warn candidates for the ministry that they should not give up theology for medicine without the clearest indications of talent for, and a call to, the work of medical missions. At the same time we are of the opinion that, when these indications are present, no better material for this work is likely to be found, and that pecuniary assistance given to such candidates under careful regulations would be money well spent.

INSTITUTIONS VISITED

In accordance with his prescribed duty the Corresponding Secretary has visited many institutions, including Omaha Seminary, Boulder High School, the University of Colorado, Emporia College and the Normal School, Highland Park, Parsons, Coe, and Washington Colleges. He has made public addresses to the students, held conferences with candidates for the ministry, both singly and in groups, and used constant influence to stimulate them to put forth their best exertions, and to set before their minds the highest standard of character and scholarship. He has also visited and addressed five of the synods, a number of the presbyteries, and numerous churches.

FINANCIAL CONDITION

The income from all sources during the year is $66,361.21, being $876.52 more than during the previous year. The income from churches, Sabbath-schools, and young peoples' societies shows a decrease of $1,312.73. The number of churches contributing is 3523 as compared with 3424 during the previous year. The total indebtedness at the beginning of the fiscal year was $9,220.75. This has been reduced to $7,720.75.

NEW QUARTERS

On the tenth day of January the Board met for the first time in their new and most suitable and convenient rooms on the fifth floor of the Witherspoon Building, provided for them by the courtesy of the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, to whom due acknowledgments were made for the consideration displayed by them in all the arrangements. The old quarters have been associated with many scenes of interesting discussion and earnest prayer, and with the presence and labors of men whose services have made them dear to the Church, and they were left after a season of special petition that the favor of God, experienced so constantly there, might be still the portion of the Board in its new home.

All of which is respectfully submitted by order of the Board.

Edward B. Hodge, Corresponding Secretary.

Form of a Devise or Bequest.

All that the Board deems it important to furnish is its CORPORATE NAME, viz.: The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The State laws differ so much that no one form will answer in all the States.

The following form may be used in most of the States:

[&]quot;I give and devise to The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the sum of——dollars to and for the uses of the said Board of Education and under its direction, to be applied to assist candidates for the Presbyterian ministry." (If real estate or other property be given, let it be particularly described.)

BISHOP H. SCHREIBER,
WILLIAM A. BAKER,
S. C. BROOKS,
W. H. COYE,
B. W. DIEHL,
HENRY J. MAXWELL,
EMERSON G. POLK.

The Standing Committee on Education presented its report, which was accepted, and, after an address by Rev. E. B. Hodge, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of the Board, and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Education desires first of all to commend, as a whole, the brief and admirable report of the Board of Education; being its Seventy-ninth Annual Report to the General Assembly.

Fitting allusion is made in the Report to the death of the Rev. Dr. D. W. Poor, for so many years the devoted friend of Ministerial Education, and the efficient Corresponding Secretary of the Board up to 1893. An appropriate minute also occurs in the Records of the Board, expressing its high appreciation of his character and services.

Your Committee also notes with sorrow the loss sustained by the Board in the death of one of its oldest members, Mr. Andrew Blair, of whose long and valuable services the Board in its record makes loving recognition.

In a careful review of this Annual Report your committee finds, and marks several tokens of improved conditions, for which it desires to make grateful acknowldgement to Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church.

1st. A slight increase in the income of the Board from all sources, in spite of the continued prevailing financial depression.

- 2d. A gain of 99 over the preceding year in the number of churches contributing to this Board, showing a total aggregate increase in the past four years of 378 churches.
- 3d. A slight increase also in the amount given to the individual students, and the prospect that for the coming year this aid will be increased to $80.00 for each student as against $70.00 last year, and $60.00 the year before.
- 4th. The disposition manifested by some individuals, churches and Sabbath Schools to provide scholarships for individual candidates, tending to a more generous provision to increased contributions and to a deeper personal interest in the candidates.
- 5th. That the indebtedness of the Board has been reduced during the year by the sum of $1500, leaving the debt April 1, 1898, $7,720.75.
- 6th. That at the beginning of the year the Board entered their new and beautiful rooms in the Witherspoon Building, provided by the courtesy of the Board of Publication, and with no expense to the Board of Education, which they gratefully acknowledge.

There are on the other hand a few things which your Committee notes with regret:

- 1st. The continual decrease in the number of new candidates that the Board is able to take under its care, so that only 153 new students were accepted during the past year, making with "renewals" a total of 814 granted aid as against 911 the year before.
- 2d. The meagreness of the amount of aid which the Board finds it possible to give to each candidate making application.
- 3d. That which is chiefly the cause of these two matters of regret, namely, the large number of churches which have made no offering whatever during the past year; for, while there has been a gradual gain during the past four years, in the number of contributing churches, for which we are profoundly grateful, there are still 4108 churches which made no offering during the past year, or more than half of the 7631 churches reported on the roll of the General Assembly's Minutes.

This ought not to be, and for this your Committee believes that the pastors and ruling elders are largely responsible. Your Committee hopes that the annual gain above noted in the number of contributing churches will go steadily on, until every church shall make an annual offering, when the urgent needs of the Board will be abundantly met.

We desire also to call the attention of the General Assembly to the Conference had during the year between this Board, and the Corresponding Secretaries of the Foreign Board, touching the degree of encouragement to be given young men offering their services as medical missionaries.

The result of this Conference, as summed up on page 7 of the Annual Report, is to the mind of your Committee wholly satisfactory, as the demand for medical missionaries seems to be limited at present to an average of about two men each year, and can be easily supplied from the large number of applicants without the necessity of making provision for aiding such candidates during their course of study.

Your Committee also desires to call the attention of the Assembly to the Treasurer's Report, that it may answer a criticism and offer a suggestion. The criticism has been made and urged that the expense of administration of this Board is too great in proportion to the amount of contributions received. It is said that business men in some quarters decline to contribute, and oppose church contributions on this account. It should be borne in mind:

- rst. That the expense of administration decreases proportionately as the contributions increase; that the paid officers and clerk of this Board, as to quality and force, are absolutely necessary, but they could equally well take care of the interests of this work if the contributions were doubled, and the work thus enlarged, and we suggest that the easiest way to reduce the ratio of expense to contributions would be to double the latter.
- 2d. It must be remembered and emphasized that the administration expense of such a work as this, covers and includes much besides the mere handling of money, and the keeping of accounts. It includes besides, that which is of supreme importance, the personal care and thought to be given by the Corresponding Secretary to each individual case of nearly one thousand candidates, scattered throughout the land, in 13 academies, 67 colleges and 15 theological institutions, and representing about 170 Presbyteries. Few of us fully appreciate the wisdom, tact and patience required, carefully and efficiently to carry on this work; and your Committee gratefully recognizes the devotion and large-hearted service of our honored Corresponding Secretary, Edward B. Hodge, D. D.

Your Committee is of the opinion that this work is really economically administered, and that the absolute expense of administration is exceedingly small, and that an analysis and separation of the Treasurer's accounts, would show practically a large percentage of decrease in the expense of administration, properly so called. We suggest, therefore, that the Treasurer might properly take this matter under consideration, and might suggest to the Board such a readjustment of accounts.

Your Committee would offer, besides, the following recommendations:

- rst. That the Minutes of the Board and the Report of the Treasurer be approved.
- 2d. That the following members of the Board whose terms of service expire with this Assembly, be re-elected: John S. Mac-Intosh, D. D., Hughes O. Gibbons, D. D., George H. Stuart, Jr., Rudolph S. Walton and A. A. Shumway; that John Sparhawk Jones, D. D., be elected to fill the place of Irwin P. McCurdy, D. D., removed to Kansas City; that the election of Wm. H. Burnett, Esq., to fill the place of George Peirce, Esq., resigned, in the class whose term of service expires in 1900 be confirmed, and also the election of Chasles P. Turner, M. D., to fill the place of Andrew Blair, deceased, in the class whose term expires in 1899.
- 3d. That the Treasurer of the Board be requested to include in his report of next year, and each year thereafter, a table showing the total receipts from all sources for ten years preceding and including the year in which the report is made; that the annual reports may thus always furnish a comparative history of receipts for convenient reference.
- 4th. That this Assembly also renews and emphasizes the recommendations of previous Assemblies, that there should be more earnest care on the part of pastors in seeking out desirable candidates and encouraging them to undertake the necessary preparation for the Gospel Ministry; more systematic and sympathetic Presbyterial care over candidates during their course of study, and more intimate and painstaking watchfulness on the part of our professors in Theological Institutions, as to the character, scholarship and conduct of the candidates.

On behalf of the Committee,

T. D. WALLACE, Chairman.

MAY 23, 1898.

RULES OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION RELATING TO

CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

- I.—Dependence of the Board of Education upon the Presbyteries of the Church.
- 1. The Board of Education shall receive and aid candidates for the ministry of the Gospel only upon the recommendation of a Presbytery of the Church; and the Presbytery is responsible for their examination, subsequent care, and the designation of the annual amount of aid to be granted to them, within the limits set by the General Assembly.
- 2. The Board will in each case look especially to the Education Committee of the Presbytery for filling out and forwarding the form of recommendation required for the reception of a candidate, and also for the pastoral care of the same, until his entrance upon his official duties.
- 3. As a general rule, the Board will receive any young man of whose examination and recommendation in conformity with its requirements proper notification has been given; but it shall be at liberty to refuse new candidates beyond its ability to support them; and it will not give aid to students from the foreign missionary field unless they have been recommended by our foreign missionaries abroad, or have come to study in this country by a special invitation given from this Board upon the request of other duly recognized church authorities, or of missionaries resident on the fields from which they come.

II.—RECEPTION OF CANDIDATES.

- I. The encouragement of a young man to enter the Gospel ministry is a matter of serious concern both to himself and to the Church; and it should be given only by those who have proper knowledge of his mental and moral character, accompanied with much counsel and prayer, and directly by a single desire for the glory of God. Every candidate should join that Presbytery to which he would most naturally belong; and he should be introduced to it either by his pastor or by some member of the Education Committee after such acquaintaince as will warrant his taking the responsibility of so doing.
- 2. The Presbytery, in examining students with a view to their recommendation for aid, must embrace such points as are indicated by the following questions, to which definite answers, by the direction of the Assembly will invariably be required by the Board: Give name of candidate in full. Age? Residence? Has Presbytery (or the Education Committee in the interim be tween the meetings of Presbytery) examined him on the following points, and were his answers satisfactory;—Piety? Motives for seeking the ministry? Talents? Health? Promise of Practical efficiency? Is he free from expensive and injurious habits? How long has he been a communicant in a Presbyterian church? Give the name of the church. If in an academy, give name of academy and class. If in College, or ready to enter, give name of College and class. If in Seminary, or ready to enter, give name of Seminary and class. If in a Theological Seminary, has he pursued a full collegiate course? If so, give the name of the College of which he is a graduate. If not a college graduate, has he had the equivalent of a college course? If so, send a detailed statement of his previous studies and career. Has he been recommended to Presbytery by his Church Session? Can he recite the Westminster Shorter Catechism? What is the smallest amount required to meet his really necessary expenses to the end of the fiscal year, viz., April 1st? Has he read a copy of the rules? Does he accept the requirements contained in them? At a meeting of the Presbytery of . . . (or of the Education Committee) held at . . . on the day of

. 189 , the candidate for the ministry named above, having been satisfactorily examined as to the points indicated by the foregoing questions, was recommended to the Board of Education for aid to the amount specified.

Signed by . . . Chairman Educational Committee.

3. No candidate shall be received by the Board who has not been a member of the Presbyterian Church, or of some closely related body, for at least one year; who has not been recommended to the Presbytery by the Session of the Church of which he is a member; and who is not sufficiently advanced in study to enter college, except in extraordinary cases.

III.—SCHOLARSHIPS.

 The annual scholarships to candidates shall be the same in amount for theological and collegiate students, and not exceed $150; for those in the preparatory course the amount shall not exceed $100.

2. These Scholarships shall be paid to a student only on the reception of particular and satisfactory reports from his professors, embracing the following points: Christian Character? Scholarship? Rhetorical Ability? Puncuality? Economy?

3. The Board may increase or diminish in a general ratio, the Scholarships in case of unusual surplus or deficiency in funds.

4. No payment shall be made in advance. Each payment shall be acknowledged by a receipt signed by the candidate, or by the person authorized by him to receive it. And this receipt shall contain a pledge to return the amount given, with interest, in case he of his own accord turn aside from his ministerial calling.

5. In order to suit the period when the students most need assistance, and when the reports from professors can be most satisfactorily made, the reports shall ordinarily be made on the first days of October, January and April. The payments of a student whose recommendation is made at any time between those days may be expected to commence at the date of it.

6. The Board will in no case be responsible for the debts of students; but it is expected of them that the scholarship shall be first applied to the payment of tuition and boarding.

7. The payments to the candidates shall cease regularly at the close of the collegiate year; or earlier, when the time for which they were recommended by the Presbytery has expired; and also as soon as it is determined that they are suffering from prolonged ill-health which may unfit them for the work of the ministry; or as soon as their private circumstances enable them to dispense with assistance: and if they have been manifestly improvident, or have contracted debts without reasonable prospect of payment, or if they have married since the last payment, or if they have received assistance from any other educational board or society, the entire three months' appropriation shall

8. The sums of money appropriated by the Board shall be refunded to it, with interest, in case a student fails to enter on, or continue in, the work of the ministry (unless it appears that he is providentially prevented); or if he ceases to adhere to the standards of the Presbyterian Church; or if he changes his place of study contrary to the directions of the Presbytery, or continue to prosecute his studies at an institution not approved by it or by the Board; or if he withdraws his connection from the Church of which this Board is the organ, without furnishing a satisfactory reason.

9. A scholarship afforded by the Presbyterian Church, through the Board of Education, is not to be given or regarded as a loan, to be refunded by those who comply with these rules and regularly enter the ministry, but as her cheerful contribution to facilitate and expedite their preparation for it; and they are only obliged by it to a warmer interest in her efforts for the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom, and especially to the use of the means necessary to instruct and stimulate her members in the duty of multiplying and sending forth preachers of the Gospel of salvation to all the world.

10. While the Church in providing scholarships for her candidates, makes no specific conditions as to the particular kind of service in the ministry, which they will be expected to render upon the completion of their theological training, nor as to the character or situation of the place where they shall labor nevertheless her judgment is that they ought to cultivate a missionary spirit as Christlike, apostolic, and timely, and that it would be highly becoming in them, under all ordinary circumstances, to offer their services, at the conclusion of their education, for work in missionary fiields; ever remembering the abounding destitution in our own country, as well as in foreign lands; the peculiar fitness of young men for such work; the honor privilege, and advantage pertaining to it; the natural expectations of the Church which has trained them in the hope that they would endure hardness as good soldiers; and, above all, the spirit of the last command of our ascended Lord.

IV.—CARE OF CANDIDATES.

I. Candidates are required, except in extraordinary cases, and then only with the explicit permission of their Presbyteries, to pursue a thorough course of study, preparatory to that of theology, in institutions that sympathize with the doctrinal teachings of the Presbyterian Church; and, when prepared, to pursue a three years' course of theological studies in some seminary connected with the same Church, and no work of preaching is allowed to interfere with the diligent and faithful prosecution of their prescribed studies until the close.

2. The Board can rely only upon the Education Committee of each Presbytery for the regular care of its own Candidates, which should include the

2. The Board can rely only upon the Education Committee of each Presbytery for the regular care of its own Candidates, which should include the constant exercise of a parental oversight over them in spiritual things, and the bestowment of the counsel they need as to their mode of preparation, their place of study, their trials, and the occupation of their time, while not engaged in study, in employments which will tend to qualify them for effective usefulness as pastors or evangelists.

3. The Board shall assist the Presbytery in its care of candidates, by furnishing annually to the Education Committee, a summary of information from the professors' reports as to the standing of each student; and the Corresponding Secretary shall exercise a general supervisory care over them, also visit and address them, when practicable, at the institution where they are, in regard to their duties and the claims of the office which they have in view.

4. The recommendation of each candidate must be annually renewed by his Presbytery, if possible, at the spring meeting, in connection with one from the Session of the Church of which he is a member, and a specification must be made of the amount needed by him; and until the notification of these points has been received, a student will not be considered as upon the roll for the year.

5. Recommendations, or renewals of them, made by an Education Committee in the interim of the Sessions of a Presbytery, shall be received as sufficient, provided its action is reported to the Presbytery at the next session, and not countermanded to the Board.

6. If, at any time, there be discovered in a student such defect in capacity, diligence, and especially in piety, as would render his introduction into the ministry a doubtful measure, it shall be the sacred duty of the Board to communicate without delay the information received to the Education Committee of his Presbytery; and if, on careful inquiry on the part of the Presbytery, no satisfactory explanation of the defect can be obtained, or if no response be received by the Board from the Presbytery or from its Committee on Education within the current quarter, it shall be the duty of the Board to withdraw its aid altogether.

7. Special care should be exercised by the Presbytery in the examination of students who are about to enter upon the theological course, according to the instructions of the Form of Government (Chap. XIV., Sec. 3): and this examination should be conducted by the Presbytery, and be entirely satisfactory as to the "real piety" of the students, "and the motives which have influenced them to desire the sacred office," before they are allowed to take the final step towards assuming its great responsibilities.

8. The annual report, occasional publications of this Board, and a copy of the Confession of Faith, shall be sent gratis to all students under its care who request them.

V.-PARTICULAR DUTIES OF CANDIDATES.

I. Inasmuch as the great aim of the Church, in the establishment of the Board of Education, is the increase of holy and faithful preachers of the Gospel, the young brethren who look to this work are earnestly and affectionately reminded that all intellectual acquisitions are of little value without the cultivation of piety, and that they are expected and required to pay special attention to the practical duties of religion, such as reading the Scriptures; secret prayer and meditation; occasional acts of special consecration of themselves to Christ and to His service, as their Redeemer and as the Lord of all; attendance at regular meetings on the Sabbath and during the week; endeavors to promote the salvation of others; and the exhibition at all times of a pious and consistent example.

• 2. Inasmuch as the scholarships granted by the Board will necessarily fall short of a full support of the students, it will be expected that they and their friends will make all proper exertions to supply whatever may be wanting.

3. When a student shall find it necessary to relinquish study for a time, in order to increase his means for support, by teaching or otherwise, he shall first obtain the consent of the Education Committee of the Presbytery, or of the Board; and if, when given, he shall not be absent from study more than three months, his scholarship will be continued; but if longer, it will be discontinued, or continued in part according to circumstances.

4. It shall be the duty of each candidate connected with the Board to report himself, soon after the meeting of the General Assembly, to the Education Committee of his Presbytery, as to his progress, wants and prospects; and when any of the requisitions of the Board which affect him may not be carried out by teachers or others, it becomes his duty to see that they are attended to, that delays and losses to himself may be prevented.

5. The reception of a scholarship by a student shall be considered as expressing a promise to comply with all the rules and regulations of the Board

VI.-EXCEPTIONAL CASES.

I. The Board will not ordinarily take under its care as candidates for the ministry any who have not completed a course preparatory to college. If exceptional cases are recommended by presbyteries the Board should be certified that there has been a season of thorough trial and approval under competent teachers, through two or three years.

2. Such students are not to expect the benefit of scholarships for more than two years before entering college.

HINTS to the Chairmen of Education Committees of Presbyteries as to the Recommendation of Candidates to the Board of Education for Ald.

AKE SURE before any other action is taken, that the candidate has been recommended to Presbytery by the Session of his Church, as this is the fundamental requirement.

Always use the recommendation blanks provided by the Board.

Never put renewals on blanks intended for first recommendation; never put first recommendations on renewal blanks. You will thus prevent serious confusion at the office of the Board.

Write the recommendations plainly in ink; never use pencil.

Recommendations and renewals should be made, if possible, at the Spring Meetings of the Presbyteries, and forwarded immediately to the office of the Board.

Do not write anything on the recommendation blanks other than is required by the answers. Additional notes of explanation which may seem necessary should be sent in an accompanying letter.

Let every question be fully answered when the recommendation is first forwarded; otherwise additional correspondence will be necessary, and much delay and inconvenience may arise.

In stating the place and stage of study of the candidate name the class and institution in which he will be under instruction for the year which the recommendation is intended to cover; e. g., if the recommendation is made out in the Spring, name the institution and class which the candidate is to enter in the fall.

If a candidate, who has at any time previously been under the care of the Board, comes to you from another Presbytery, send to us your recommendation in the form of a renewal; and give us the name of the Presbytery from which you receive him.

If the candidate does not propose to pursue his studies, preparatory to theology, in an institution which sympathizes with the doctrinal teachings of the Presbyterian Church [as our rules require, except in extraordinary cases], send us the assurance that he has the explicit permission of his Presbytery, and the reason for the permission.

If the candidate is from a foreign country, the assurance must be sent to us that he intends to exercise his ministry in the United States.

In corresponding about a candidate, always mention the Presbytery to which he belongs. This will help us greatly in looking up his case.

Do not mutilate the recommendation blanks, but mail them, properly olded, in a large envelope. This will aid us in filing and indexing.

Take no action without careful study of the printed rules prescribed for our mutual guidance by the General Assembly.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION AND SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK.

(APPROVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.)

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school work would respectfully report as follows:

Your Committee have examined, with great care, the work of this Board, as presented in its Editorial, Business, and Missionary Departments, and desire to bear testimony to the faithfulness, wisdom, and good sense with which it has discharged the important trust committed to its care by our Church.

I. EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

During the past year the Editorial Department has issued 31 new publications, among which we find an American edition of the HISTORY AND STANDARDS OF THE WESTMINSTER ASSEMBLY, by the Rev. Alexander Mitchell, D. D., a MANUAL FOR RULING ELDERS, by Rev. Wm. Henry Roberts, D. D., LL. D.; and since the close of the fiscal year the CHAPEL HYMNAL and the new DIGEST have been published, while among the important books to be printed this fall will be a BIBLE DICTIONARY for the use of Sabbath-school teachers, by Prof. John D. Davis, Ph. D., of Princeton Theological Seminary.

The success of the new Hymnal deserves special mention. Already it is used by more than 600 of our congregations. Its future is assured, and we owe a great debt of gratitude to the men who for years gave so unselfishly their time and energies for the production of this manual of praise which is so largely a blessed bond of union in our Presbyterian worship.

Nine (9) lesson leaves and four (4) illustrated papers represent the periodicals published, and while all of these stand among the first and best of the Sabbath-school literature of our land, we would especially mention the Westminster Teacher and the Forward, as representing in scholarly ability, in devotional spirit elements worthy of the highest commendation, and when we think of the fact that 43,000,000 copies of such literature are published annually, and scattered broadcast over the land, we are reminded most forcibly of the Tree of Life whose leaves are for the healing of the nations.

II. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

It is very gratifying, and confirms confidence in the fidelity and ability of those to whom this work is entrusted, to find that as a strictly business enterprise it has realized a net profit of about 10 per cent. on the amount of business done, or nearly 16 per cent. on the very ample capital invested, thus giving a net profit for the year of $31,047.04, giving two-thirds of this amount, or $20,698.03, to the benevolent work of the Board, and one-third, or $10,349.01, remaining, as an addition to the working capital of the business.

The efficiency of the Board in the transaction of its business is illustrated in the promptness with which the interruption caused by the loss of the Chicago depository by fire was met. The entire issue of periodicals for the month of April, and for that quarter, for distribution in the district of which Chicago is the centre, were burned in this fire, having been received only a day or two previous. The subscription list being saved intact, was forwarded at once to Philadelphia, and this entire loss was made good by reprinting the various editions required, so as to reach, almost without exception, the entire circle of subscribers, for their use on the first Sunday of the month.

Your Committee desires to emphasize the fact which it would seem is not always clearly understood, or fully appreciated, that under no circumstances are the contributions received by the Board from the churches, Sabbath-schools, and individuals for the benevolent work, used for the publishing business. Not a dollar in any case of the funds contributed for the Sabbath-school Missionary work of the Board, is put into the business department. On the contrary, two-thirds of the profits accruing from the publishing business are each year transferred as an addition to the funds for prosecuting the missionary work of the Board.

Your Committee recognizes, with great satisfaction, the completion of the Witherspoon Building in Philadelphia, as a Presbyterian home for the accommodation of the Boards of the Church and other Presbyterian agencies centered at Philadelphia. It should be noticed that, in the erection of this building not one dollar of the funds donated to the Board for missionary purposes has been used. These funds remain in their former investments. There is good reason to expect that the earnings of this building from rents, after providing for the various demands for the accommodation of the denominational boards, will ultimately enable the Trustees to meet all the bonded indebtedness accruing in the completion of the building. This result is looked forward to with great satisfaction, and when that event shall be accomplished, the income will furnish the Board a large additional revenue for the enlargement of its legitimate missionary work. Your Committee also expresses its appreciation of the efficient service rendered by those who have had in charge the new building, and who with such fidelity and sacrifice of time and labor have brought it to a successful completion, and in the name of the Church tenders sincere thanks.

III. SABBATH-SCHOOL MISSIONARY DEPART-MENT.

The work of this Department is conducted along two distinct lines, Educational and Missionary, the first seeking to increase the efficiency of existing schools; and the other organizing schools as evangelizing agencies in new and unoccupied fields, and the development of this seed of the Kingdom in the Presbyterian churches.

I. EDUCATIONAL WORK.—In reviewing the educational work of the Board your Committee is indebted to the exact, systematic methods of the Board, which enables us to see at a glance the methods employed for the accomplishment of its aims.

In this connection the Twentieth Century Movement is deserving of special mention, and we hope the General Assembly will do all in its power to commend this work, which desires to signalize the entrance of the Presbyterian Church upon the new century by bringing at least half a million of scholars into our Sabbath-schools. In the further development of its educational work, the Board stands ready to aid and encourage the various forms of Synodical and Presbyterial Associations and Institutes, to help every Sabbath-school to make the most of its Children's Day and Rallying Day. to reach through the Home Department to the "shut-in classes," and especially to stimulate the memorizing of Scripture and the study of the Shorter Catechism, and we note with pleasure that during the year there has been an increase of nearly 50 per cent. in the number of those who have been awarded Bibles for reciting the Catechism.

2. Missionary Work.—During the year 76 missionaries have labored in 24 States and Territories, within the bounds of 23 Synods and 63 Presbyteries.

Since the last Assembly we have been called upon to mourn the death of the Rev. G. G. Mattherson, the faithful and peculiarly successful missionary of the Board in the Red River Presbytery, Minn., who during his four and a half years of service organized 80 mission schools, with a membership of 2,864.

The Board reports a total of 1,028 new Sabbath-schools organized during the year, with a membership of 4,896 teachers and 46,518 scholars. Thus the labors of our Sabbathschool missionaries are producing enough churches annually to form a good Presbytery, and the 472 churches which have grown out of the schools organized by the missionaries of the Board during the last seven years would constitute two Synods of the average size. These schools are cared for by placing them under the direction of churches, where there are any near enough; and, if this be not possible, then the missionary is required to care for them till they be strong enough to be organized into churches. The efficiency of this oversight is shown by the fact that of the 938 organized between April, 1896, and April, 1897, 709 of these are reported this year as active, and from these 56 churches have already been organized. For this important work the General Assembly asked last year $200,000, and received of this amount less than 50 per cent., so that for the upbuilding of the Church in the spiritual waste places of our land through Sabbath-school missions our Church contributed a little over nine cents a member.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Your Committee beg leave to make the following recommendations:

First. That the appointment of the Rev. Alexander Henry in the place of the Rev. Chas. Wadsworth, D. D., resigned, and of the Rev. Mervin J. Eckels, D. D., in the place of the Rev. Robt. H. Fulton, D. D., long one of the Board's most faithful and valued members, who departed this life on the 12th of July, 1897, be confirmed; and also that the following gentlemen, whose term of office expires June, 1898, be reelected, viz.:

Ministers.

REV. CHARLES A. DICKEY, D. D.,

REV. ROBT. M. PATTERSON, D. D., LL. D.,

Rev. Louis F. Benson, D. D.,

REV. ALEXANDER HENRY,

Elders.

ROBERT H. HINCKLEY, JOHN H. WATT, WILLIAM H. SCOTT, CHARLES H. BILES. Second. That Synods and Presbyteries be urged to form and sustain organizations for the more thorough development of the Presbyterian Sabbath-school system; and, wherever feasible, to hold Synodical and Presbyterial institutes and schools of methods for the development of efficiency in this department of our work.

Third. That in view of the 250th Anniversary of the Westminster Standards, we would take opportunity to urge church sessions, Sabbath-school Superintendents, and parents to a more diligent teaching of the Shorter Catechism to the children of the Church, and recommend the continuance of contributions for the fund which provides a copy of the Bible as a reward for memorizing that invaluable standard of our Church.

Fourth. That in recognition of the inestimable value to our children of a familiarity with the Word of God, we urge the adoption of the Board's plan of memorizing the Scriptures for Sabbath-schools.

Fifth. That we again urge the observance of Children's Day and Rallying Day in all our Sabbath-schools, and that in connection therewith a special effort be made to secure generous offerings to the missionary work of the Board.

- Sixth. That the attention of the churches be called to the financial needs of this department of missionary work. The Board will continue to be sadly handicapped if it must look to the Sabbath-schools as its chief source of financial support.

Seventh. That this Assembly, which has sought and enjoyed so large a share of the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, urges upon the Sessions and Sabbath-school workers to make it their chief aim that the schools shall be centres of spiritual power for the conversion of scholars, and the enthronement of Christ in their lives.

Eighth. That we heartily indorse the Twentieth Century Movement, which the Board has recently inaugurated. This Movement furnishes a distinct and worthy object for the efforts of our Sabbath-school hosts. The magnitude of the undertaking is recognized. The possibility of its accomplishment depends upon unity of effort in the power of the Holy Spirit. We recommend that pastors and superintendents make both Children's Day and Rallying Day an occasion for the explanation of this Movement, and that every Sabbath-school be urged to heartily co-operate in it.

In behalf of the Committee,

John R. Davies, Chairman.

SIXTIETH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF PUBLICATION AND SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK.

With devout gratitude to God for the manifold blessings vouchsafed during the past year, the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work presents to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America this its Sixtieth Annual Report, covering the year beginning April 1, 1897, and closing March 31, 1898

The Board has been called to mourn the death of the Rev. Robert H. Fulton, D. D., one of its most faithful and valued members, who departed this life on the 12th of July last. The term of office for which he was elected will expire in June, 1900. The Board respectfully requests the confirmation of the appointment of the Rev. Mervin J. Eckels, D. D., in his place.

The Board also requests the confirmation of the appointment of the Rev. Alexander Henry in the place of the Rev. Charles Wadsworth, Jr., D. D., whose election in the place of the Rev. Benjamin L. Agnew, D. D., was confirmed by the last Assembly. Dr. Wadsworth declined the appointment because he was already a member of the Board of Education. The term of office for which confirmation of the appointment of the Rev. Mr. Henry is requested will expire in June next.

The term of office of the following gentlemen will expire next month.

Ministers.
REV. CHARLES A. DICKEY, D. D.,
REV. ROBT. M. PATTERSON, D. D., LL. D.,
REV. LOUIS F. BENSON, D. D.,
REV. ALEXANDER HENRY.

Elders.

ROBERT H. HINCKLEY,
JOHN H. WATT,
WILLIAM H. SCOTT,
CHARLES H. BILES.

WORK OF THE BOARD.

At the beginning of the fiscal year covered by this Report, and, indeed, throughout the entire period, it was feared, as was the case throughout the preceding year, that, in consequence of the depressed condition of the business of the country and the incubus of debt still resting on the other Boards of the Church, the operations of this Board would be seriously embarrassed. These fears have not been realized to the extent anticipated. While there was a slight decrease in the contributions to the Missionary Fund, the Business Department reports net profits in advance of those of last year.

THE SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT, while it is privileged to report receipts by the Missionary Fund of $1,034.12 in advance of those of last year, must again report a falling off in contributions from churches, Sabbath-schools, and individuals. The total decrease was $2.801.00, distributed as follows: Churches, $1,348.77; Sabbath-schools, $655.64; individuals, $886.68. There was, however, an increase of $805.08 in the total of the following items-interest on invested funds and bank balances, and on profits of sales by missionaries—thus diminishing the reduction in receipts from sources current throughout the year to $2,086.01. On the last day of the fiscal year there was received the annual contribution from the Business Department of two-thirds of its profits, amounting to $20,698.03. This contribution was $3,120.13 in excess of that acknowledged in the last Report, and brought the receipts for the year from all sources up to $114,845.62.

In order to a thorough understanding of the acounts of this Department it should be remembered that the contribution of the Business Department, received on the last day of the year, is not used, ordinarily, in defraying any portion of the expenses of the year. It forms the balance, or the greater portion of the balance, with which the operations of the new year are carried on. In the beginning of the fiscal year covered by this Report there was a balance in the Missionary Fund of $22,345.73 and the receipts from all sources (exclusive of the contribution of the Business Department) amounted to $94,147.59; the said balance and the receipts made a total of $116,493.32. According to the balance sheet of the Department (see Treasurer's Report, pp. 59, 60), the "Cash expended" was $109,304.19, and this apparently indicates a saving over expenses of $7,189.13. The Treasurer's statement, however, respects only cash received and expendedit gives no statement of unpaid expenses. At the close of the fiscal year there were liabilities for office and missionary salaries and expenses amounting to $8,063.59 which were to be paid on the 15th of the following month, the regular payday of the Board. Instead of there being a surplus of $7,189.13, there was a deficit of $874.46 to be paid out of the contribution of the Business Department. The balance therefore, over liabilities, with which the Department begins the operations of the new year is $19,823.57.

The number of missionaries actively engaged on the field was about the same as that of last year. The number now in commission is 76.* Our missionaries have labored in 23 Synods, located in 29 States and Territories. The whole number of schools organized was 1,028; reorganized, 312 = 1,340. The organizations were 90 more than those of last year, the reorganizations were 77 less, an increase in total of organizations and reorganizations of 13. The number of teachers and scholars gathered into these schools was 51,414, being 911 more than last year.

It is the purpose of the Department to place as many new laborers in the field as its funds will justify. The demand, however, is beyond its present ability fully to meet. There are no Sabbath-school missionaries within the bounds of the Synods of New Mexico and Texas, and the Synods of California, Oregon, Indian Territory, Colorado (for Wyoming), and Missouri (for Arkansas) are making urgent calls for men. The need is pressing. There should be at the present time at least one hundred laborers in the field, or twenty-four more than are now in commission. The Department may to a very limited extent answer the demand; in order, however, to the appointment of an adequate force there must be increased contributions on the part of the Church.

Full information concerning the work of the Department may be found on pages 14-38, 59, 60.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT issued during the year 31 new publications, including A Manual for Ruling Elders, by the Rev. William Henry Roberts, D. D., LL. D.; THE VALIDITY OF NON-PRELATICAL ORDINATION, by the Rev. George Park Fisher, D. D., LL. D.; THE ANGLICAN VIEW OF THE CHURCH, by the Rev. J. Oswald Dykes, D. D.; and an American Edition of The Westminster Assembly: Its History and Standards, by the Rev. Alexander Mitchell, D. D., LL. D.

Reprints of one hundred and eight (108) former publications of the Board—27 bound volumes and 81 tracts and paper covered books—have also been issued.

The number of Periodicals published was that indicated in the last Report, namely, 9 Lesson Helps and 4 Illustrated Papers. For reasons mentioned in the full Report of the Department, The German Lesson Leaf will be discontinued.

Forward, which after the first of July last was doubled in size has taken high rank amongst periodicals for youth, and has achieved greater immediate success than was anticipated.

In order to meet the growing interest in the Home Department of the Sabbath-school, it has been arranged to begin October 1, 1898, the issue of a Home Department Quarterly. This Quarterly will be made as attractive as possible, and will be issued at the same price of the other Quarterlies.

Full information concerning all the publications of the year may be found on pages 39-51.

The new DIGEST and the CHAPEL HYMNAL will be published before the meeting of the General Assembly.

The Department has also in press and will publish in the fall the following new and important books:

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHER'S BIBLE MANUAL, with maps and illustrations, a Bible Dictionary, prepared by Prof. John D. Davis, Ph. D. of Princeton Theological Seminary. This work, which has been in hand for several years, is one of the most important and useful ever undertaken by the Board. It will be an invaluable help to Sabbath-school teachers and also to older scholars and all who are interested in thorough and intelligent Bible study.

THE FUNDAMENTAL IDEAS OF THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH. By Rev. Frank Hugh Foster, Professor of Theology in the Pacific Theological Seminary.

At the Evening Hour. Simple Talks on Spiritual Subjects. By Ethelbert D. Warfield, LL. D., President of Lafayette College.

THE BUSINESS DEPARTMENT closed the year with net profits amounting to $31,047.04, of which two-thirds, or $20,698.03, were passed over to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department, in accordance with the order of the General Assembly. There has been an increase in net profits, from those of last year, of $4,680.19, which, in view of the pecuniary condition of the country during the last year, is exceedingly gratifying.

An interesting feature of the work of this Department was the distribution of 135 Free Libraries, containing 9,513 volumes.

Special attention is called to the statement concerning THE HYMNAL on pages 8, 54.

Full information concerning the work of this Department may be found on pages 52-59.

THE CHAPEL HYMNAL.

This new book, as before stated, will be published before the meeting of the General Assembly. The following extract from the Preface will set forth its purpose and character:

This book is the second in a series of three hymnals intended to cover the needs of the Church through the whole range of its public worship. The first, The Hymnal, was prepared as a complete manual of praise, covering especially the Sunday services, but including also every side of Church worship and work; the second, The Chapel Hymnal, is prepared for those who prefer a smaller book for use in prayer-meetings, young people's societies, and other social services; and the last of the series is to cover the services of the Sabbath-school.

The Chapel Hymnal consists principally of those hymns in The Hymnal which are best adapted for use in devotional meetings and of such tunes as can be used to good advantage on such occasions; and ordinarily the association of hymn and tune has been retained. In addition there have been included in this book some standard hymns and tunes reserved for this use when The Hymnal was prepared, together with some fresh selections of a popular character and a number of the more desirable. "Gospel Hymns."

THE WITHERSPOON BUILDING.

The Board is gratified to report the practical completion of the enterprise reported to the last three General Assemblies, of the erection of their new building for the various Boards of the Church located in the city of Philadelphia, and which, as heretofore reported, has been designated the WITHERSPOON BUILDING.

The materials and construction of the building are in every respect of the highest class. The building rests upon a natural foundation of hard gravel, each post being placed upon the substructure of steel beams laid in a strong concrete. The steel frame carries the floors only. The walls rest upon their own foundation, and are not hung upon the steel frame, which was a common practice until a better way was found. A stronger, safer, and more durable building, nor one more nearly fire-proof, does not exist.

The building is eleven stories in height, and is provided also with a basement and sub-basement, making thirteen floors in all. The basement is occupied by the Business Department of the Board of Publication for storage and packing. The sub-basement contains one of the most complete mechanical plants anywhere to be found, all of the apparatus being of the latest design and of the finest quality. A boiler plant of four hundred and fifty horse power, with room for an additional boiler of one hundred and fifty horse power, three dynamos capable of supplying forty-five hundred incandescent lights, elevator machinery for five passenger elevators, a filtering apparatus capable of thoroughly purifying three thousand gallons of water per hour (all the water supplied to the building passing through these filters), fire pumps connecting with stand pipes and hose on every floor, and a complete refrigerating plant, with the necessary pumping apparatus to furnish ice-water to every room in the building, are comprehended under this head.

The store and business offices of the Board of Publication occupy the first floor, and there is also upon the Walnut Street front a store which has been rented for $4,000.00 per annum. Upon the Walnut Street front the second and third floors are occupied by the large auditorium known as Witherspoon Hall, which comfortably seats one thousand and thirtysix persons. The acoustic properties of this hall have now been thoroughly tested, and are found to be perfect. The decoration and lighting of the hall are such as to render it a most attractive auditorium, and there is every reason to believe that it will yield in rentals from four to five thousand dollars per annum. The Women's Home Missionary Society and the Secretary of the Presbytery's Committee on Church Extension have rooms upon the second floor; and on the Sansom Street front a smaller auditorium has been provided upon this second floor for such meetings as are ordinarily held in the building by the various organizations of our Church. The third floor contains eleven offices for rent.

The general offices of the Board of Publication (including those of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department) occupy the fourth floor, together with the offices of the Editorial Department, while the Mailing Department of the Board occupies a large room at the north end. The fifth floor is occupied by the Boards of Education, Ministerial Relief, Women's Foreign Missionary Society, Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, and the Presbyterian Historical Society. The floors above the fifth are divided into one hundred and forty-one offices for rent. These offices are unequaled by those of any other building in Philadelphia Every office opens upon the outer air, there being no dark rooms, and each room is provided with an independent system of ventilation.

The exterior of the building, in order that the ecclesiastical ownership of the building might readily appear, has been adorned with medallions and statuary modeled in terra-cotta, grouped in such a way as to be at the same time effective from an architectural point of view, and suggestive of the history of the Church. The scheme of decoration embraces three heads—emblems suggestive of Biblical history, those suggestive of ecclesiastical history (especially such as pertain to the American Church), and general historical emblems. In carrying out the plan of exterior ornamentation the Board received valuable aid from the Rev. Henry C. McCook, D. D., who is probably the leading authority in the Presbyterian Church in matters of this kind, and it is believed that the ornamentation of the WITHERSPOON BUILDING will possess instructive significance. While all who see it know that it is a building devoted to business uses, no one can look upon it without realizing that its ownership and management rest in the hands of the Presbyterian Church.

The fiscal year of the Board ends March 31st, and the actual cost of the WITHERSPOON BUILDING at that date was as follows:

Ground,	$375,000	00
Paid on building contracts,	549,983	41
Taxes paid during erection,		23
Interest paid during erection,	51,278	77
Commissions on purchase of property,	3,000
Insurance on $500,000 for five years,	4,527	55
Total,	$995,962	96

The expenditures for fixtures and furnishings necessary to the occupancy of the building of the various Departments of the Board, and for the fitting up of the large auditorium, have amounted to $25,264.67.

Final settlement of all building contracts has not yet been made, but the additional amount payable on construction account is estimated at $47,200.00.

The cash in the hands of the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees on March 31st available for this payment and for the reduction of the mortgage upon the property was $158,455.35. There is at present upon the building a mortgage for $500,000, held by the Pennsylvania Company for Insurances on Lives and Granting Annuities, which has been procured upon terms which will enable the Board to extinguish it by instalments; the provision thereof being that upon the first day of May and the first day of November of each year the Board shall have the privilege of reducing the principal sum of said mortgage by the payment of any sum desired by the Board in multiples of $5,000.

It is the intention of the Board, so soon as the building shall have been fully rented (after setting aside from the funds in the hands of the Board of Trustees an amount sufficient to afford ample reserve for any possible contingencies), to avail itself of the provision of the mortgage hereinbefore set forth by reducing the principal sum as rapidly as circumstances will permit. If the building were rented throughout its whole extent it would have a rental value of $123,000 per annum. About one-third of the space, however, is occupied by the various organizations and Boards of the Church, including the Board of Publication. The rental value of the remaining portion of the building, including Witherspoon Hall, is estimated at about $80,000 per annum.

Owing to the fact that the building was not sufficiently advanced towards completion to afford comfortable accommodation to tenants until the latter part of February, 1898, the Board was placed at some disadvantage in securing tenants during the early part of this year, as many persons who had been expecting to rent offices in this building, but whose leases elsewhere expired on the first of January, were obliged to renew those leases for another year. Notwithstanding this fact, sixty-five offices have been rented at the date of making up this report, and the aggregate rental thus far obtained is about $24,000 per annum, an amount more than sufficient to pay the expenses of maintenance of the building; and there is every reason to believe that within the next six months a sufficient additional number of tenants will be secured to meet all charges of whatever kind against the building; and it is hoped that the Board will be able to report to the next General Assembly a substantial reduction in the amount of the mortgage debt. The Board has never regarded this mortgage as a permanent incumbrance. Upon the contrary, it has every reason to expect the entire extinguishment of the debt in from ten to fifteen years. The property is so admirably constructed that it cannot perceptibly deteriorate within that time; and before any considerable amount of repairs is likely to be necessary upon the property, the Board expects that this splendid building will be entirely free from incumbrance of any kind whatever, and its advantage thereafter for the proper transaction of the great business of the Board of Publication will materially increase the usefulness of the Board upon the business side, while all the net revenue received from the building will be expended in missionary work.

The location of the property is such that it cannot fail to increase in value with passing years, and it is not unlikely that the experience of the Board with reference to the enhancement of value of the site of this building will measurably repeat the experience through which it has passed with respect to the site formerly occupied on Chestnut Street. The original cost of the Chestnut Street property was $151,626.42. The amount realized from its sale was $448,000, an increase in value during the twenty-six years of its occupancy by the Board of $296,373.58, considerably more than $10,000 per annum for every year during which it was used by the Board of Publication.

BURNING OF THE CHICAGO DEPOSITORY.

On the 16th of March the building 215 Wabash Avenue, on the fifth floor of which our Chicago Depository was located, took fire in the middle of the day, and was consumed in a few minutes. More than twenty of the inmates of the building lost their lives, among them two of the employees of the Board-Mr. William A. Marvin, who had been for several years in our employ, and a young man, William Boss. The rest of our force escaped without serious injury. tire stock of books and periodicals and other property of the Board was destroyed, with the exception of the contents of one safe and the funds that happened to be on hand at the time. The amount of insurance was $20,000-$28,000 on stock and $1,000 on fixtures. It is the practice of the Board to keep fully insured, and there would have been no loss at all in this case had it not been that the shipments from the Depository of periodicals for the second quarter were delayed, owing to the late arrival of some of the papers. loss, however, is small, and we have great reason to be thankful that we escaped a much more serious catastrophe, both as to loss of life and loss of property.

The new quarters of the Depository will be found on the second story of the Atlas Block, situated at the northwest corner of Randolph Street and Wabash Avenue.

SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

The Educational and Missionary branches of Sabbath-school Work which, since the reorganization of the Board in 1887, have been united in this Department, constitute, together with the Sabbath-school publications of the Editorial and Business Departments, a complete System, which may, with propriety, be termed The Presbyterian Sabbath-school System.

It has been thought best in this Report to present, in the first place, a general Conspectus of the System as a whole, and to follow this with particular statements concerning the work of this Department.

From this general Conspectus it will be seen that the Sabbath-school System of our Church covers a very wide range. It provides through the Editorial Department of this Board a full line of Lesson Helps and Sabbath-school periodicals. Through the Business Department it furnishes libraries and school appliances. Through the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department it widens the range and elevates the standard of teaching, and fosters the growth of Sabbath-schools and their extension into destitute places of our country.

EDUCATIONAL WORK OF THE SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

The Educational Work of this Department, as will be seen from the foregoing Conspectus, is important and comprehensive.

- I. Under the head MEMBERSHIP it prompts and stimulates the activity of the schools in such matters as canvassing for scholars, the formation of Adult Classes and Bible Unions, the Home Department Movement, and the Twentieth Century Movement for adding 50 per cent. to the membership of Presbyterian Sabbath-schools between 1897 and 1901.
- 2. Under the head Organization it specially deals with such questions as Sessional and Presbyterial Oversight, Synodical Sabbath-school Committees, Presbyterial Sabbath-school Associations, and Associations of Superintendents and Teachers.
- 3. Under the head TEACHERS it fosters Normal Classes, Institutes and Conventions, and provides Text-books on these and kindred subjects.
- 4 and 5. Under the heads Gradation and Course of Instruction it furnishes a system of class grading and graded supplemental lessons, and develops the study of the Shorter Catechism and the Memorizing of the Scriptures.

- 6. Under the head Anniversaries it brings the Sabbath-schools into line in the observance of Children's Day and Rallying Day, providing forms and orders of exercises and developing a plan of benevolence for the promotion of Sabbath-school Missionary Work.
- 7. Under the head REPORTS it collects and publishes all the available statistical information relating to Presbyterian Sabbath-schools.

THE TWENTIETH CENTURY MOVEMENT.

The object of this Movement is to signalize the entrance of the Presbyterian Church into the new century by bringing in at least half a million of scholars into her Sabbath-schools; in other words, by increasing the Sabbath-school membership from about a million—where it stood at the beginning of 1897—to a million and a half on or before April 1, 1901, the beginning of the first ecclesiastical year of our Church in the twentieth century.

The TWENTIETH CENTURY MOVEMENT was started in the fall of last year, and the intervening time has been largely occupied in various forms of preliminary work essential to the launching of an enterprise designed to reach and benefit the Sabbath-school interests of the entire Church. The Superintendent of the Department in the first instance addressed a circular letter to a number of representative brethren closely identified with Sabbath-school work, giving them an outline of the plans proposed, and inviting criticism and counsel. The replies were, without a single exception, favor-The opinion of all concerned seemed to be that the time was well chosen for such an aggressive work throughout our Church. Thus encouraged, the Superintendent laid the matter before the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee, and, with their sanction and that of the Board, proceeded to elaborate the plan in detail and to circulate it throughout the Church. The responses thus far have been singularly unanimous, indicating the existence throughout our Church of a strong desire and yearning for spiritual increase, and particularly for the spiritual welfare of the children and youth of our land. The subject was not brought generally before the Synods last fall, but five of them took spontaneous action and passed resolutions of the strongest character in its favor. These Synods were Baltimore. California, Indian Territory, Iowa, and New Jersey. The Sabbath-school Associations of the Presbyteries of Pittsburg and Allegheny and the Sabbath-school Superintendents' Association of Philadelphia warmly indorsed and adopted the Movement. The Sabbath-school Committees of eightynine Presbyteries have thus far been heard from, all in approval, and the Department is daily receiving responses from Sabbath-schools promising their earnest and active cooperation.

With the cordial approval of this Assembly, followed, as is hoped will be the case, by Synodical and Presbyterial indorsement and action throughout the Church, there is every reason to hope that this Movement will become general, and result not only in a striking addition to the membership of our Sabbath-schools, but also in a widespread revival of religion.

The Department is fully alive to the magnitude of the effort to add fifty per cent. to the Sabbath-school membership of our Church within four years. The increase during the quadrennium immediately prior to April, 1897, was 115,400, or about 12.7 per cent. over the membership of 1893. To multiply this rate by four for the quadrennium ending April, 1901, means the calling out of immense latent spiritual forces from within the Church, and this cannot be done by any human agency. The presence and influence of the Holy Spirit are necessary in order to bring about such a glorious result. This will move the hearts of our people as the heart of one man, and the work will be done.

ASSOCIATIONAL WORK IN SYNODS AND PRESBYTERIES.

This feature of Sabbath-school work deserves far more attention than it has heretofore received in our Church. The number of these Associations at present is small, but whereever they have been established they have proved to be of striking utility in promoting the interests and the efficiency of Presbyterian Sabbath-schools. The example of the Synod of Ohio and of the Presbyteries (amongst others) of Allegheny, Baltimore, Cincinnati, Pittsburg, and Philadelphia-in all of which flourishing Sabbath-school and Superintendents' Associations exist-should be followed in this respect by every Synod and Presbytery in our Church. Without questioning the usefulness of interdenominational associations, or undervaluing the opportunities they present for fraternal fellowship among Sabbath-school workers of different churches, it may be said with confidence that they cannot take the place of the Synodical and Presbyterial Association for Presbyterian schools. Topics of a denominational character cannot be even mooted in the interdenominational association. Our superintendents and teachers need the strength and stimulus afforded by the fellowship and counsel of their brethren, as well as the opportunity of discussing and taking action upon purely denominational questions.

The Department encourages the formation of these Synodical and Presbyterial Associations by every means in its power.

CHILDREN'S DAY AND RALLYING DAY.

The observance of these special anniversaries is on the increase among our Sabbath-schools, Children's Day falling by direction of the Assembly on the second Sabbath in June. and Rallying Dayon the last Sabbath in September. The Department prepares special programmes of exercises for each anniversary, and furnishes them, together with mite boxes and envelopes for collecting the offerings, to the Sabbath-schools of our Church, without charge.

The number of Sabbath-schools using these programmes last year on Children's Day was 4,515, and on Rallying Day 1,509. The amount contributed by Sabbath-schools during the year to the Missionary Fund of this Board was $51,976.70.

SABBATH-SCHOOL REPORTS.

The attention of Pastors, Sessions, and Sabbath-school Superintendents is earnestly called to the importance of promptly and accurately filling in the statistical blanks furnished to them by the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries, and forwarding them to the person designated thereon for compilation in the Annual Sabbath-school Reports. Chairmen of Presbyterial Sabbath-school Committees are also urged to promptness in preparing and forwarding their Reports to this Department in the month of April or May, so that they may be in time for incorporation in the statistical tables prepared by this Department for the Annual Minutes of the current year.

THE HOME DEPARTMENT.

This important feature of Sabbath-school Work is fully explained in the leaflets and circulars issued by this Department. The membership reported in 1897 was 18,858—a number which should be very largely increased. The Department promptly sends samples of Visitors' Books and of other appropriate supplies, with prices, upon application.

WESTMINSTER CATECHISM STUDY.

The general interest felt throughout the Presbyterian Church in the 250th Anniversary of the completion of the Shorter Catechism naturally points towards the revival of Catechism study. It is not, therefore, surprising that there has been an increase this year of nearly 50 per cent. over the previous year in the number of Oxford Bibles awarded to scholars in our Sabbath-schools for reciting the Catechism. The number of these awards during the past year was 2,177. There was also an increase in 1897 over 1896 (the figures for 1898 are not yet prepared) of 337 Sabbath-schools giving an affirmative answer to the question on the statistical blanks, "Is the Shorter Catechism taught?" There is still room for improvement, however, in this respect, since out of 7,757 schools reporting in 1897, 2,426 gave a negative answer and 1,277 left the column blank.

The Department has issued during the year a tractate entitled The Shorter Catechism: Shall it be Taught in Our Sabbath-schools? and will forward the same to any Pastor, Superintendent or teacher in our Sabbath-schools making application.

This is the eleventh year in which the prize of an Oxford Bible has been offered for the memorizing of the Shorter Catechism, and the total number of Bibles awarded has been 16,683.

MEMORIZING OF SCRIPTURE.

Deeply convinced of the unspeakably good results flowing from a thorough acquaintance with Holy Scripture, and in order to encourage the practice among our youth of committing passages of Scripture to memory, the Department has prepared a tractate entitled Plan of Memorizing the Scriptures for Sabbath-schools, and also a smaller Manual entitled Scholars' Handbook for Memorizing Selected Passages of Scripture. Certificates have also been prepared as awards to those scholars who comply with the conditions specified in the Handbook and Plan. The course extends over four years, and certificates are given in three grades for each year's separate course, and also for the full course of four years.

MISSIONARY WORK OF THE SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

SUMMARY OF WORK.

The missionary work of this Department has been vigorously prosecuted during the past year in 29 States and Territories, comprising 23 Synods and 63 Presbyteries.

Of the Sabbath-school Missionaries in commission on April 1, 1897, one has been removed by death, six have left the service, and nine have been added to the roll, making the number of missionaries in commission on April 1st of this year 76.

The Department places on record its high estimate of the Christian character and missionary zeal of the late Rev. G. G. Matheson, its missionary in the Presbytery of Red River, Minnesota, who died October 6, 1897.

Mr. Matheson had been in the employ of this Board four years and six months, during which period he organized or reorganized eighty mission schools with a membership at starting of 2,864. For a part of this period he held a joint commission from this Board and the Board of Home Missions. He was greatly beloved by his brethren of the Presbytery, and by all who knew him.

Of the 76 Sabbath-school Missionaries now in commission 13 are Synodical and 63 Presbyterial missionaries. The former labor and have the oversight of the work within Synodical bounds; the latter labor only within the limits of Presbyteries. No missionary is commissioned without the request or express concurrence of the Synod or Presbytery within whose bounds he is appointed to labor.

A statistical table, giving a numerical summary of Sabbathschool Missionary work performed by our missionaries during the past year, will be found on page 38 of this Report.

ORGANIZATION OF SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

During the past year our missionaries organized 1,028 Sabbath-schools, with a membership at starting of 4,896 teachers and 46,518 scholars. This is an advance of 90 over the number of schools organized last year.

THE UPBUILDING OF MISSION SCHOOLS.

This subdivision of our work is followed up by our missionaries with great assiduity. Whenever practicable a mission school is placed under the care of the nearest Presbyterian church. When there is no church near enough to assume this responsibility, the Sabbath-school missionary gives to the individual school as much of his personal attention as possible, corresponding with its superintendent and visiting it as often as his other duties will allow. The Department strongly impresses upon all its missionaries the importance of securing permanency in results, and to that end of carefully supervising their work. The "upbuilding" of the schools means, however, a great deal more than keeping them alive. It means raising them to a higher plane of efficiency and spirituality, leading on to such visible results as the institution of prayer-meetings and preaching services, the organization of Home Departments, and Young People's Societies, and in due time their development into churches. Thus built up, these schools become centers of Christian activity, from which spiritual and temporal blessings flow forth in every direction.

REORGANIZATION OF LAPSED SCHOOLS.

Naturally following this careful oversight comes the work of reorganization. This is distinct from the work of simply resuscitating a school which has been only a short time suspended. Many schools are suspended during the winter and reopened in the spring. Reorganization, however, as understood in this Department, means that a previous organization has been entirely broken up, without any immediate prospects of resuming. In such cases it is sometimes more difficult to induce the people to start the work anew than it was to begin it in the first instance. And yet experience proves that repeated reorganizations are often followed by results of a permanent and highly satisfactory nature.

The number of schools reorganized during the past year was 312.

DISTRIBUTION OF LITERATURE.

Under this head are comprised (1) grants of Lesson Helps and Periodicals made to our mission schools on the requisition of our missionaries; (2) the gratuitous distribution of Periodicals and Tracts by our missionaries in their house-to-house visitations; (3) the gift or sale by our missionaries of Bibles, Testaments, and volumes of Christian literature; (4) grants of Bibles, Testaments, Volumes, Tracts, Periodicals, and Lesson Helps made by the Department to Sabbath-schools, churches, and individuals outside of our missionary work.

During the past year our missionaries distributed 4,174 Bibles and Testaments, 10,946 volumes of literature, and 2,354,038 pages of tracts and periodicals. The Committee made grants outside of the missionary work of 5,318 volumes and 3,991,094 pages of tracts and periodicals. The value of this literature, at wholesale prices, was $4,958.22, including the deficiency on the German Lesson Leaf, which is a grant to German schools. The cost of Bibles awarded for reciting the Shorter Catechism was $1,840.25. The cost of the programmes and supplies for Children's Day was $4,582.98. The total cost of all the aforesaid grants was $11,381.45.

Every day in the year the Board gave away other than Bibles 45 volumes and 17,387 pages of tracts and periodicals.

VISITATION OF FAMILIES AND INDIVIDUALS.

This subdivision of Sabbath-school Missionary work, though standing No. 5 in our list of objects, is often the first of the methods employed in planting Sabbath-schools. A thorough house-to-house canvass of a community by one of our missionaries is the usual preliminary of a public meeting at which the question of organizing a Sabbath-school is discussed and decided. There are instances, however, in which the canvass is done independently of this particular aim, in the course of travel, or with the view of holding evangelistic services.

The number of house-to-house visitations made by our missionaries was 81,239.

In connection with these visits our missionaries are privileged at times, especially in the winter, to be the almoners of generous donors who forward to them through this Department boxes or barrels of clothing for distribution among the needy, and especially to needy children. Every autumn the Department makes an appeal by circular, and also through the religious press, for contributions of this character, furnishing its correspondents with the names and addresses of Sabbath-school missionaries to whom these articles may be sent, and who can be relied upon to distribute them with discretion and impartiality. In this way many a child is enabled to attend Sabbath-school during the winter who would otherwise have to remain at home for want of necessary clothing. The value of the clothing thus distributed last year, upon a very reasonable estimate, was about $2,500.

OTHER FORMS OF WORK.

In this subdivision are included various forms of labor incidental to the organization of mission schools and not referred to under the foregoing heads. Such are the holding of evangelistic or revival services, and of Bible or Sabbath-school Institutes; organizing Home Departments, Young People's Societies, and churches; establishing prayer-meetings and regular preaching services; and encouraging and aiding chapel and church building. While this work has not been tabulated during the past year, it has formed a large and important part of the general missionary work, and has been followed by results which prove its importance and value.

THE ANNUAL CENSUS.

At the close of every fiscal year the Department takes a census of the schools organized during the year preceding. From the census taken in March, 1898, of the schools organized between April, 1896, and April, 1897, it appears that the number organized in that year was 938, and that at the time of the census 709 of these schools were reported as living—437 being permanent throughout the year and 272 were summer schools only; 211 had lapsed; and 18 had not been heard from. From the schools of that year 56 churches had been organized.

REPORTS FROM THE FIELD,

SYNODS OF ATLANTIC AND CATAWBA.

Rev. G. T. Dillard, D. D., Synodical Missionary.

Since last July a Sabbath-school missionary has been at work in the State of Georgia. Hence a long-felt want has been supplied, and our missionary force has been increased by one man.

The year has witnessed a very large number of Teachers' Institutes and Presbyterian Sabbath-school Conventions, and one Synodical Convention. These bodies are not in every instance the result of the efforts of the missionaries, for many of them are the creation of Presbyteries and Synods. Yet the missionaries attend such assemblies and help to direct their work, and in that way they become useful auxiliaries to Sab-bath-school Missions.

In no way have the missionaries relaxed their endeavors in seeking to save the young people, and they have been able to report 150 conversions among them.

During the year six of our Sabbath-schools have become churches, with a membership of 127.

Our missionary in North Carolina writes that twice the number of schools could have been organized but for the fact that he could not get houses for the purpose.

The number of schools organized or reorganized in these Synods during the year was 137, which exceeds the number in any one year in this field.

These figures carry their own comment, but how can I refrain from saying that in the light of these facts the work of the Sabbath-school missionary is here to stay, and that the people more than ever appreciate its value.

SYNOD OF CALIFORNIA.

We have two Presbyterian missionaries laboring in this Synod, Mr. H. C. McBurney in the Presbytery of Los Angeles, and the Rev. M. S. Riddle, recently appointed in Sacramento Presbytery.

Mr. McBurney writes: "I think there is more active interest and encouragement all along the line than ever before. In a young, growing city like Los Angeles there is always work for the Sabbath-school missionary, and if only enough workers could be found we could occupy much more territory. In Cervitas district the school is well sustained. I visited the Rincorn and Chino districts, and was frequently encouraged by words of grateful acknowledgment from those who have received spiritual blessings from our mission schools. During last summer and fall I spent much time in Ventura and Santa Barbara counties, reviewing former work and establishing new schools wherever practicable. The people are used to hunting and fishing on Sunday, and even trading. In Guadalupe, one of the hardest places I ever entered, where one can count almost as many saloons as houses, one of our schools has been maintained intermittently for five years, and has been well attended during the past winter. Number of mission schools organized and reorganized in this Synod during the past year, 17, with an aggregate membership at starting of 495.

SYNODS OF COLORADO AND ILLINOIS.

Rev. C. K. Powell, Synodical Missionary.

COLORADO.—In no Synod of all in our Assembly is there more cause for joy and gratitude than in this great one of over 200,000 square miles. During the year two missionaries were added to the force, and we now have three men giving all their time, with hope that one will soon be laboring in Wyoming.

The increase in number of schools organized, families visited, and in all other field statistics is so marked and great that we invite your attention to this in the summary.

A. W. Griffith, Denver Presbytery; James Russell, Pueblo Presbytery: and C. W. Higgins, Gunnison Presbytery; have each wrought well in the fields assigned to them. The difficulties are exceptional, the physical privations of the most trying kind, and the indifference to be overcome because of preoccupation in worldly pursuits a most marked feature in every phase of Christian work.

We find personal work and family visitation of exceptional value, and all our men are adepts in these practical lines.

No method of spreading the good news has ever proven its adaptation more fully than has this one on the plains, mountains, and mesas of the Rocky Mountain States.

For the coming year the plans have been carefully and prayerfully made, and an advance assured along the extension, in evangelistic and educational lines.

ILLINOIS.—We have everything for which to be grateful and praise God. During the past year we have been able to make greater progress than ever before. This has been evident not alone in the number of schools organized, but fruit gathered in new-born souls, additions to the church, and missions and churches organized.

Rev. M. A. Stone, Centralia, in Cairo and Alton Presbyteries, has been wonderfully blessed in evangelistic work. Many otherwise unsought and practically untouched river-bottom communities have been swept by the Holy Spirit's presence, individual lives and families transformed and by contrast transfigured. For the coming year we have planned carefully in detail in Cairo Presbytery a thorough campaign of evangelization for this field, with special reference to aiding a number of weak country churches.

Mr. G. V. Albertson, in Peoria Presbytery, with a much smaller and more accessible territory, has been incessantly at work. There is here more possibility of assistance from established pastors, and this has uniformly been accorded with most beneficial results. We instance one point near Peoria, organized last June. Summer Institutes were held here by our own workers, a series of meetings in September, and now twenty are enrolled as a mission of Bethel Church, Peoria; have a weekly prayer-meeting, a neighborhood cottage prayer service, a growing Sabbath-school, and with the prospect of an increase in the size of the little coal mining settlement it will ultimate in a vigorous church.

Both missionaries have musical ability, and with their "baby organs" conduct services of attractiveness as well as spiritual power.

The Synodical missionary has given much of his time to this work. and is personally in touch with most of the points visited. He has used his stereopticon and Bible views to good advantage in out-of-the-way places, and by all means every effort has been used to gather souls to the Word and the Saviour.

We are vigorously pushing the Twentieth Century Movement, Decision Days, and better Teaching Work.

One of the most marked features of the work in Illinois is the thorough committee organization, and the interest manifested by Presbyteries in the work in their bounds.

SYNOD OF IOWA.

Rev. S. R. Ferguson, Synodical Missionary.

This has been another very prosperous year in our work in this Synod. Our six missionaries, including your Synodical Sabbath-school missionary, have organized 63 new schools and reorganized twelve, having an aggregate of 2,383 scholars, who are taught the Word of God by 295 teachers. Five Young People's Societies have been formed and over 100 family altars erected; also several neighborhood prayer-meetings established.

Visits have been made to 5,607 homes, and over 147,000 pages of tracts and religious periodicals, besides 1,047 volumes of good books and 484 Bibles, have been distributed. A missionary, writing about the work in one neighborhood, said, "I sold 38 Oxford Teachers' Bibles and 47 Testaments, and 11 family altars were erected."

Five churches have grown out of the work this year, three of them being Presbyterian. Where one of our men organized a school less than a year ago in a very godless village they have now a Presbyterian Church of 93 members, a Young People's Society of 55 active members, a weekly prayer-meeting, and sometimes they hold as many as four cottage prayer-meetings each week in addition to the above services. They now worship in a handsome church home, beautifully furnished, which cost over $1,600, and was recently dedicated free of debt, and without any aid from the Board of Church Erection.

In the evangelistic services held by the missionaries there have been nearly 600 professed conversions, and over 400 of them have united with the Presbyterian Church. For these gracious results we praise God, and say in the language of the Psalmist, "Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory."

SYNODS OF KANSAS AND INDIAN TERRITORY.

The last year has seen many changes in these Synods. The bountiful harvest and the good prices for farm products have greatly improved the condition of the people. Immigrants have taken the place of emigrants.

In Kansas three churches have been organized, which have grown out of schools organized by our missionaries. One of these churches has arrangements made to secure a house of worship.

The Indian Territory proper is in a transition state. Everything is unsettled. The whites far exceed the Indians in number, and yet the white man has no right there. In the rural districts the whites have very few privileges except those furnished by the Church. Not less than 30,000 white children of school age are growing up in utter ignorance, not having even the advantages of a secular education. Soon everything will be changed. The Church ought to be on the ground to seize the opportunity. The Sabbath-school missionary can do effective pioneer work. There ought to be at least three more men in this Territory.

Oklahoma is a most promising field. This year will in all probability see not less than two hundred miles of new railroad completed and in operation, This means many new towns and an increase of population. Our missionaries are doing effective work, following the lines of these new roads and seeking out new settlers as they arrive in the Territory. The number of schools organized by our missionaries during the year was 37; reorganized, 6, with a total of 1,460 scholars and 150 teachers. In Kansas the schools organized number 48; reorganized, 12, with a total of 2,173 scholars and 254 teachers.

SYNOD OF MICHIGAN.

Rev. J. V. N. Hartness, Synodical Missionary.

Presbyterian Sabbath-school missionary work in Michigan has shown itself more than ever this year to be the power of God unto salvation.

In the organization of new schools, in the fostering of feeble ones, in the work of evangelization and the building of churches, and in contributing to their organization the good work has gone steadily on.

The schools and workers everywhere are taking up the Twentieth Century Movement with enthusiasm. One writes: "We are now pushing 'The Twentieth Century Movement' in our community. A committee divided the city into eight districts, with an average population of 800 in each district, and the canvassers, two in each committee, are using the cards of invitation issued by the Board.

"Even if we should not, as we hope to do, add very largely to our Sabbath-school attendance, we shall at least show the community that the Presbyterian Church is an aggressive church, and is reaching out after the non-church going population."

Especially active have been our missionaries in extending the organization of "The Home Department" and "Young People's Societies."

Our force of five men has added 70 new schools and 26 reorganized schools to the Sabbath-school map.

SYNOD OF MINNESOTA.

Mr. R. F. Sulzer, Synodical Missionary.

This year, like those preceding it, has been a busy year for our missionaries, and while, possibly, not quite so many schools have been organized as in some of the years before, much time has been given to fostering and caring for the older schools and the precious sheaves garnered in the evangelistic services. The stimulus given to teachers and workers by the Institutes conducted; the number of churches developed from so many of the schools; the occupying of new ground in schools organized in many dreary spiritual wastes; these are glorious victories gained, and are more than enough to cause us to "thank God and take courage," and so we do. It will be seen that the Presbyterian Sabbath-school Work in the Synod of Minnesota, if it cannot stretch itself beyond the borders of the State, is becoming solidified, and like the recruiting of a great army, is filling up the ranks and occupying important posts all along the line.

When we think of the many Home Mission fields assisted in the direction of self-support by the development of the more than one hundred churches since our Board began its work in this Synod, the training and indoctrinating of them in the truths of God's word and the principles of Presbyterianism, and the development of gifts and offerings to the Lord, we are impelled to inquire, not, "Does it pay?" but, "How could we afford to do without this efficient arm of service?" The adaptability of the work to any community is well illustrated by the following incident:

A town of about 500 people, mostly Germans, with no American church, was visited by our missionaries; a dance hall over a saloon was rented (no other could be had), chairs and an organ hired, and meetings held. A Sabbath-school was organized, meetings were continued, and a church was developed with an enrollment of twenty-seven members, not one of whom had been brought up in the Presbyterian Church, or had ever been a member of it. All these united on profession of faith under the doctrines and form of government of the Presbyterian Church.

What, with our continued efforts thus put forth, may we not realize in the twentieth century, toward which our eyes are turned with longing expectations? Let us press on, ever remembering that "This is the victory that overcometh the world, even your faith."

SYNOD OF MISSOURI.

This Synod comprises the States of Missouri and Arkansas. In the Presbytery of St. Louis Mr. W. H. Herrick continues his labors in the suburbs of the city with gratifying results. Mr. S. A. Meredith, from Palmyra Presbytery, reports 47 mission schools and 21 church schools under his care, and of the former writes: "Quite a number of these schools are new and have been waiting for a church organization, but owing to the stringency of the times and the condition of the Home Board, Presbytery has been holding off, hoping for better times and a more favorable outlook for Home Mission Work. With seasonable weather and financial conditions I look for an advance movement this summer. Rev. E. L. Renick reports from Ozark Presbytery no fewer than 64 schools under his care, and Rev. W. F. Grundy, from Arkansas, 60 schools. The number of organizations and reorganizations during the past year throughout the Synod was 83, with an aggregate membership of 3,956.

SYNOD OF MONTANA.

Rev. E. M. Ellis, Synodical Missionary.

The great need in Montana, aside from the Holy Spirit, is that of more home missionaries to follow up the work of the Sabbath-school missionaries, developing the schools into churches.

Our hearts were recently touched by the earnest, almost pitiful, calls for a minister in the Bear Paw Mountains, where several consecrated Presbyterians from the North of Ireland have recently settled. On their arrival they found saloons, gambling, and all of the other forms of evil, but no church, no Sabbath-school, no prayer-meeting, and no Sabbath. Having left great privileges at their former home, they thought they had got about as far from the kingdom as was possible in this world. Two Sabbath-schools, however, were soon organized, much to their relief and joy; but they still want a church and a pastor.

The little school at Basin, after years of struggles and many disappointments, has at last succeeded in completing and dedicating a neat chapel, free of all debt, amid great rejoicing.

Although nearly seven years of our Sabbath-school missionary life have passed, the great areas of Montana have not yet been covered. Several entirely new sections were explored last year, however, and a number of schools were organized in them, over which many rejoiced, and were very thankful to the Presbyterian Church for the pains it had taken to look them up and to aid them so materially.

Forty-three schools were organized and 26 reorganized during the year, with a total of 2,167 scholars and 200 teachers. Thirty-nine Home Departments were also organized, with a membership of 109 students and 30 teachers.

SYNOD OF NEBRASKA.

Rev. J. B. Currens, Synodical Missionary.

The year in Nebraska has been one of encouragement. The crops have been fine, and our six missionaries have done a good work. We have suffered the loss of one of our most active and useful men, Mr. C. W. Higgins, who was transferred in June to Gunnison Presbytery, Colorado. Although we could not consistently object, owing to the existing financial situation, to the Board's making a more equal distribution of the men—Nebraska having seven while Colorado had only two—yet we feel his loss greatly, for he occupied a wide and needy field, covering over one hundred neighborhoods, in which he had organized Sabbath-schools, many of which have already fallen into the hands of other denominations or have lapsed, and the neighborhoods will now be without the gospel for the lack of a man to cover his territory.

While we have in the western part of the State endeavored to plant as many Sabbath-schools as possible, knowing that on the frontier the Sabbath-school is in most places the only means of reaching the people with the gospel, it has been the effort in the eastern part of the State, so far as practicable, to plant our Sabbath-schools within reach of our town and village churches, in order (1) that we may better use our own people as workers; (2) that we may awaken in the local churches a deeper interest in the surrounding farming population; and (3) that we may better harvest the results into our own denomination.

With this thought in view, two years ago I visited a pastor who was greatly discouraged. He had called upon every family in his town who did not belong to the flock of a neighboring church. His audiences and the town were small, and he saw little prospect for growth. I had noticed on Sabbath morning that but one horse and buggy was hitched in front of his church. I suggested to him that his responsibility was larger than the corporate limits of his town; that there was room enough in the country, and that the people there needed him badly, for nobody was caring for them.

We visited twenty-two families, only two of which went to town to church with any degree of regularity. We organized one school, which soon grew to sixty members, and three others around his town which ran during the summer. He preached to these people on Sabbath afternoons. The result was that on every Communion he received some members from these Sabbath-schools, which greatly strengthened and encouraged the village church; and the result of a revival meeting in one of these schools during the winter was that thirty or more persons were converted, and another good Presbyterian Church was organized.

During the year our missionaries have organized 132 Sabbath-schools and reorganized 35, with 679 teachers and 6,463 scholars; 194 conversions have taken place in these mission schools, 42 Conventions have been attended, 21 Home Classes have been started, 4 Young People's Societies and 3 Presbyterian Churches have been organized, and 57 barrels of clothing have been distributed to the poor.

SYNOD OF NORTH DAKOTA.

Rev. A. C. Manson, Synodical Missionary.

Sabbath-school work has made steady progress in North Dakota during the past year. Many dear children have been brought into contact with the Word of God, and not a few brought into the light of life as the result of much effort and simple faith in God's almighty power.

The cold, stormy winter hindered our onward march for a time, closing too many of our schools, although we are able to report a larger number open than ever before; but the beautiful summer and delightful fall months gave us ample opportunity to work, and as the following statistics show, our labors have not been in vain in the Lord:

Special meetings were held during the year by your missionary at fifteen different points with encouraging results. Twenty-three new schools have been organized, with 126 teachers and 1,124 scholars. Seven schools were reorganized.

Your missionary organized seven new churches. largely as the result of Sabbath-school work, ordaining Elders and administering the Communion; also baptizing over a hundred infants and adults in needy districts, far away from organized churches. Seven hundred visits have been made, 286 addresses delivered, 14,000 miles have been traveled by rail, buggy and bicycle, 7,279 pages have been distributed, and many Bibles given away.

Looking back we can see through all the year traces of God's guiding hand, and we give to him all the glory. Looking out into the future, and over our vast State, we see a rich harvest ready for the reaper. We look up for help, and to our Church for additional workers to help us lay foundations in righteousness for the coming millions.

SYNOD OF OREGON.

Our work in this Synod presents features of striking interest, owing to the rapid development of parts of the State and the geographical peculiarities and thoroughly missionary aspects of the remaining portions. The Sabbath-school missionary has to travel vast distances in search of little settlements shut out in their mountain homes from the means of grace. Here he sows the seed of gospel civilization, to the joy and refreshment of many of God's children and the spiritual benefit of many others who are ignorant and careless. We have three missionaries laboring in this State in three of its four Presbyteries—East Oregon, Portland and Willamette. These missionaries have under their immediate care about sixty-five mission schools which have survived the trials of infancy and are standing witnesses for Christ. Last year the missionaries organized 20 schools and reorganized 13, bringing into the membership of these schools 1,217 scholars and 131 teachers.

SYNODS OF PENNSYLVANIA, KENTUCKY AND TENNESSEE.

(Comprising West Virginia and the Mountain Region.)

Rev. C. Humble, M. D., Synodical Missionary.

WEST VIRGINIA.—Our Sabbath-school mission work in West Virginia grows more thorough and permanent. We could, I think, double our record if the work we make ready for Home Missions and Sustentation were promptly taken off our hands.

However, as we have the hearty sympathy of the Synod's Committee on Sustentation, we work on hopefully until the churches of one of our greatest Synods awake to the fact that in West Virginia they have a field of their own as fruitful as any Western State.

Mr. W. W. Hunter retires from our service to take charge of two missions with chapels which he established while with us. Rev. R. H. Rundall has taken charge of the self-sustaining work at Smithfield, which Mr. Hunter had prepared for him, and Mr. A. O. Loosley takes Mr. Hunter's place on our force.

Mr. R. H. Rogers says: "In looking back over my now seven years in this field I can thank God for being used by him in the building up of his kingdom and the enlargement of our Church. Four churches have been organized and seven buildings erected (four churches and three chapels); 219 have united with the Presbyterian Church in meetings, of which 53 have been held by me during the last year."

By the favor of God two Bible teachers were, January, 1898, added to the Home Missionary force, making five in all. One chapel has been built and two Teachers' Homes are being erected. Here we have evergreen Presbyterian Sabbath-schools under most unfavorable physical conditions. But at every point souls are converted, homes are purified, Christians are kept growing, workers are trained, and the young people are given noble aspirations.

SYNOD OF KENTUCKY.—Our Kentucky work also has in it much of good cheer.

Mrs. H. C. Rainey, nee Miss Carrie F. Searles, one month after her marriage, eager to return to that rough mountain village where she would fain give her life for the people, was called to her heavenly home. Her finished work remains to her honor.

Our far-away work in Knott County will show to better advantage when the church long desired by the people is organized.

In Owsley County we report 134 conversions and 112 additions to the church. In addition to preaching monthly to two churches, our missionary, Mr. W. W. Baxter, in eight months organized 19 schools and kept alive 13 out of the 14 started last year.

Bible teacher Miss M. J. Cort has two evergreen Presbyterian schools in rough mountain districts where whisky and guns abound and also a flourishing Loyal Temperance Legion. Fifty-five members have been brought into the church, almost all from the world, severely thinning the ranks of drunkards.

SYNOD OF TENNESSEE.—Tennessee this year gives us two good Presbyterian churches—one at Burnsville. N. C., and the other at Clover Bottom. Tenn.

At the latter place Rev. D. N. Good is pushing to completion a church building. The organization and building here are the crowning and closing work of Missionary Good, who now leaves our service, having in his eight years in Tennessee organized or reorganized 110 schools, with 4,064 scholars and 430 teachers.

Missionary Enright's work has been laborious and faithful, and he received the praise of his Presbytery.

Two Bible teachers have been located at Vardy, Hancock County, Tenn., and have been most cordially received. Already more than twenty-five persons have professed conversion, and the growth of the young converts who delight to feed on the Word is surprising.

Rev. E. H. Grant, Synodical Missionary.

I review the work of the past year with great pleasure. God has wonderfully blessed our efforts, and set his seal of approval upon the work of Presbyterian Sabbath-school missions in the Synod of South Dakota; he has enabled us to come in very close touch with the people. Never have we so thoroughly enjoyed their confidence and co-operation.

Our Sabbath-school missionary force has proven a most gratifying means of bringing the Presbyterian Church to the favorable notice of the otherwise unreached multitudes among whom we labor.

Most blessed results have followed our efforts in evangelistic meetings. Eight such meetings have been held, continuing from one to three weeks, and resulting in scores of professed conversions.

As in former years, Sabbath-school Institutes have been a special feature of the work. With the help of the nearest resident minister and the Synodical Missionary six such institutes have been conducted. Representatives of schools far and near have been gathered for interchange of views and to discuss new methods of work. These institutes have caused many schools to take on new life, helped discouraged superintendents and teachers, and infused new zeal into the work.

Children's Day has, perhaps, never been more generally nor profitably observed than this year. It was a glad day in all our mission schools. One of these small schools contributed $17 to Sabbath-school mission work.

As the direct result of this pioneer work nine preaching stations have been established, three Christian Endeavor Societies organized and one new church added to the roll of Synod.

The record also shows 24 schools organized, 14 reorganized, and the gospel message carried into 2,333 homes.

SYNOD OF UTAH.

Rev. J. H. Barton, Synodical Missionary.

This Synod includes all of Utah, two-thirds of Idaho, and one-third of Wyoming. It is a very needy and important field. I began work August I, 1897. This report, therefore, covers nearly eight months. My labors so far have been confined to Idaho and Wyoming. Over a large area in these States the settlements are widely scattered. There are scores of mining camps in the mountains and farming communities in small valleys. Many of them are without religious influences of any kind. Many of the children and young people have never seen a Sabbath-school and rarely heard a sermon.

It is important from the standpoint of patriotism, as well as of religion, that these people be brought under the power of the gospel.

Wherever I have gone I have been received very cordially. The gospel has been listened to with evident interest. Many of the people are anxious to have Sabbath-school and preaching.

During the eight months covered by this report I have traveled 3,581 miles, made 366 family visits, delivered 156 addresses, distributed 10,565 pages of literature, and given away 36. Bibles and Testaments.

I have organized nine schools, all but one of which are alive and doing well. I have visited and strengthened twenty-one schools. In connection with my work six persons have professed conversion and a considerable number of Christians in isolated communities have had their spiritual life revived.

The expense, aside from salary, of doing this work has been $134.25: collections from the field have amounted to $80.50, so that the actual expense to the Board has been $53.75.

SYNOD OF WASHINGTON.

Our missionaries in this Synod, which includes a portion of Idaho, labor in the Presbyteries of Olympia, Puget Sound, Spokane and Walla Walla. The Rev. M. G. Mann writes from Idaho: "The country is fast settling up, and little towns and hamlets are everywhere springing up. Two railroads are heading this way—a branch of the Northern Pacific and one of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company. The people need churches and the children Sunday-schools, and Presbyterian churches could be organized at many points if we had missionaries. The town of Elk City and vicinity supports a population of 1,000, comprising only twenty families, the rest being unmarried men. I was the first minister who ever preached there, and the Sabbath-school organized by me is the only one within fifty miles. A grand work could be done among these people by a resident missionary. Other calls as loud as the one from Elk City await my visits. The number of Sabbath-schools organized and reorganized throughout this Synod during last year was 50, with an aggregate membership of 1,505."

SYNOD OF WISCONSIN.

Rev. Joseph Brown, Synodical Missionary.

The past year has been one of blessed success. Ninety-one Sabbath-schools have been organized, with 4,041 teachers and scholars. Ten Presbyterian churches have also been organized as a direct result of the Sabbath-school work.

Many interesting incidents illustrative of the good that has been done have come under my attention during the year. A few months ago I visited the mission field of Rib Hill, in Marathon County. This Sabbath-school is superintended by a prominent business man in Wausau. who drives twelve miles each Sabbath to take his part in this good work. In order to test the progress made by the children in their knowledge of the Bible, I offered a dime to the first scholar who could repeat correctly the Ten Commandments. Immediately a little girl rose to her feet and repeated the desired portion of Scripture without a single error. I then promised a nickel to one of the primary class who could repeat the Lord's Prayer. Almost a score of the little ones did this perfectly. At the close of the school I shook hands with five young men, who told me they were on the eve of starting for their winter's work in the woods, "But," they said, "we are better equipped for work than ever before; we carry for the first time the Word of God with us." Every Wednesday night these people have a prayer-meeting, where the average attendance is usually about sixty. Such is the blessed condition of this settlement, where a few years ago the gospel message was unknown. This is simply one example of the many districts in this State that hitherto have lain in darkness, but now are flooded with the glorious light of the gospel of Christ.

PERIODICALS.

A few descriptive words will explain their character and purpose.

LESSON HELPS.

The Westminster Teacher is issued monthly. It is prepared specifically for the teachers and officers of Sabbath-schools, and is used also by many Bible-class scholars. It contains full expositions of the International Bible Lessons. This magazine is published in octavo form, each number containing from 40 to 48 pages, with cover. Price, single copy by mail, per annum, 60 cents; school subscriptions to one address, 50 cents per copy.

The Westminster Question Book, though included in the list of "Bound Volumes," belongs also among Lesson Helps. With the increasing excellence of the Quarterlies, however, the demand for this annual volume has been diminishing for some time, and it has been decided after the present year to discontinue it.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is adapted to older scholars, and is used also in advanced and Bible classes. It is issued quarterly, and each number contains full lesson work for the three months, with Order of Service, Map. Bible Dictionary, Hymns, and Music, and other valuable matter. Each number contains forty-two pages. Its increasing circulation attests its growing popularity. Though so large and full the price is so small as to bring the Quarterly within the reach of all. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly is designed for scholars of intermediate grade. It contains full lesson text. with notes, questions, and practical teachings. In it are found also Map, Order of Service, Hymns with Music, and Bible Dictionary, the same as in the Senior. It is the same size as the Senior Quarterly, containing 42 pages, and is furnished at the same rate—school subscriptions to one address. 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Junior Quarterly is prepared for the little people in primary classes. In its new and attractive form it has greatly grown in favor. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf is prepared with special reference to intermediate and younger scholars. It is issued monthly, but is so arranged that, if desired, the leaves can be separated and distributed to scholars weekly. Each leaf contains one lesson complete with Scripture, Golden Text, Catechism, Lesson Story, Questions, and Practical Teachings. School subscriptions to one address, 5 cents a year.

The Westminster Junior Lessons is a neat leaf adapted to the young people. Illustrated. It is issued weekly in the same form and at the same price as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

The Westminster Lesson Card has reached a great circulation. It contains a brightly colored lithographic picture, illustrating the lesson of the day, with Lesson Title, Golden Text, Lesson Hymn, Lesson Story, and Questions. It is adapted in grade to the younger children and to primary classes. The price for school subscriptions to one address is 12 cents a year, or 3 cents a quarter. Single sets, 20 cents a year.

The German Lesson Leaf was intended specifically for the Sabbath-schools of our German congregations, and has been greatly appreciated by them. It is published monthly. The price is the same as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

As arrangements have been made by the German Presbyterian Publishing Company, of Dubuque, Iowa, for preparing and issuing a full series of Lesson Helps in German, it has been decided by our Board to transfer to this Company the German Lesson Leaf from and after July I of this year. We believe that this arrangement will prove entirely satisfactory to our German Sabbath-schools.

ILLUSTRATED PAPERS.

Forward is designed especially for young people in Intermediate and Senior grades, and is adapted for reading in the home and by young people in general. The name of the paper is suggestive of its general character, and fitly embodies its aim. It was announced in our Report of last year that, beginning with July 1, 1897, the paper would be doubled in size, without any addition to the subscription The paper in its enlarged form has been well received throughout the country, and the subscription list has greatly increased. Every effort has been made to produce a paper of the highest class, filled every week with the best things for young people. It is our intention to make Forward better and better, in the belief that such a paper will receive the hearty support of our people, and that it will find its way into the hands of every young person in the Church. mere Sabbath-school paper, but is adapted for home reading. Many older men and women have testified to their own personal enjoyment of it. We have already many thousand single subscriptions. The surprising cheapness of Forward brings it within the reach of all. In clubs it costs less than one cent a number. School subscriptions, 50 cents a year; single subscriptions, 75 cents.

The Sabbath-school Visitor is the oldest of the periodicals of the Board. It is adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward. It is an illustrated four-page paper, each number containing attractive and interesting matter adapted to children. It is published weekly. It may, however, be taken once or twice a month, if preferred. Single subscriptions, per year, 50 cents; fortnightly, 30 cents; monthly, 20 cents. School subscriptions to one address, per year, weekly, 30 cents; fortnightly, 16 cents; monthly, 8 cents.

The Morning Star is issued to meet the demand in many schools for a paper at small cost. It is of the same quality, grade, and style as The Visitor; but it is only half the size.

It is issued every week, but it may be taken once or twice a month, as desired. Single subscriptions, per year, weekly, 25 cents; fortnightly, 15 cents; monthly, 10 cents. School subscriptions, to one address, per year, weekly, 15 cents; fortnightly, 8 cents; monthly, 4 cents.

Sunbeam is a four-page weekly paper for very little people, finely illustrated. It has been greatly enlarged and improved. No subscriptions are taken for less than a month. Single subscriptions, 30 cents. School subscriptions, to one address, 20 cents a year for each scholar.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

This Department conducts all the business operations of the Board. Of these the most important are, first, the manufacture of books, tracts, and periodicals; and, secondly, the placing of the publications on the market.

PUBLICATIONS.

According to the statement on page 58, there have been published during the year 1,900,875 copies of books and tracts, and 43,139,816 copies of periodicals, which, together with 9,000 copies of the Annual Report,* make an aggregate of 45,049,691 publications for the year.

PLACING ON THE MARKET.

This work continues to be performed, as was reported last year, by advertising in the leading papers of our own and affiliated denominations throughout the country, and through the agency of the main store in Philadelphia, the depositories in Chicago and St. Louis, and seventeen branch houses, twelve of which are in our own land, four in British America, and one in England. These agencies, at the present time are as follows:

DEPOSITORIES AND BRANCH HOUSES.

Albany, N. Y., The Leonard Publishing Co., The De Graaf Building, corner South Pearl and Beaver Streets.

Baltimore, Md., S. W. Harman, 320 North Charles Street.

Boston, Mass., H. D. Noyes & Co., 131/2 Bromfield Street.

Buffalo, N. Y., Otto Ulbrich, 386 Main Street.

Chicago, Ill., Chicago Depository, H. S. Elliott, Manager, N. W. corner Randolph Street and Wabash Avenue.

Cincinnati, O., Western Tract Society, 420 Elm Street.

Cleveland, O., The Burrows Bros. Co., 133-137 Euclid Avenue.

^{*} This refers to the number of copies of the Report for the year ending March 31, 1897.

Los Angeles, Cal., C. C. Parker, 246 South Broadway.

Montreal, Quebec, The William Drysdale Company, 232 St. James Street
New York, N. Y., Ward & Drummond, 164 Fifth Avenue.

Pittsburg, Pa., Board of Colportage, 706 Penn Avenue.

Portland, Oregon, J. R. Ewing, 267 Morrison Street.

San Francisco, Cal., American Tract Society, 637 Market Street.

St. Louis, Mo., St. Louis Depository, Rev. J. W. Allen, D. D., Manager, 1516 Locust Street.

Syracuse, N. Y., W. A. Duncan & Co., 112 East Fayette Street.

Truro, N. S., D. H. Smith & Co.

Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell & Co., 504 Main Street.

London, England, 14 Paternoster Square.

These houses, with the exception of the one in London, furnish all our publications at the Board's catalogue prices.

Our periodicals are still further brought to the attention of churches and Sabbath-schools by circulars addressed to pastors and Sabbath-school superintendents. Our missionaries also bring all classes of our publications to the notice of those who dwell in missionary districts.

SALES.

The sales for the year in books and tracts were $121,755.92. This amount, as it includes credit sales, does not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received. The Treasurer's account includes cash received for the sales of the current year, and also cash received for the credit sales of preceding years.

The amount received during the year for the sale of periodicals was $207,258.04.

The aggregate of the preceding sales includes not only the ordinary sales of the main house, and of the depositories and branch houses, but all sales made to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department for grants, and all sales by Sabbath-school missionaries.*

^{*}The above statement relates only to amounts received and credited by the Business Department. In addition to the amount received by this Department from Sales by Missionaries, the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department received $32.89 from those sales (see p. 60). The

THE HYMNAL.

The HYMNAL continues to meet with gratifying success. It has already been adopted by about six hundred Presbyterian churches throughout the country. The sales have reached nearly one hundred thousand copies, and orders for the book are coming in with great frequency.

FREE LIBRARIES.

The General Assembly of 1891 made the following recommendation to this Board:

That such of the stock of books, bound or unbound, the sales of which have been superseded by more recent issues, be made up into "cheap libraries," as far as possible, and, so far as proper, also donated to Sunday-schools and home mission stations, or any appropriate benevolent work.

In accordance with this recommendation, the Board, during the year ending March 31, 1898, distributed Free Libraries to needy ministers, churches and Sabbath-schools, and also to other deserving objects, in thirty States and Territories, as follows:

States.	No. of Libraries,	No. of Volumes.	Catalogue Price.
California,	. 3	275	$168 12

Business Department sells all its publications to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department at "the highest rate of discount allowed on the same classes of publications to the most favored branch houses in this country;" the missionaries are required to sell, for cash only, at catalogue prices; the excess inures to the benefit of the latter Department.

The value of these books, at their former catalogue prices, was $6,689.42. They are no longer valued on the inventory.

Gratifying acknowledgments have been received from many of the recipients of these libraries, and it is confidently believed that much good has been accomplished through their instrumentality.

During the six years that have elapsed since the commencement of this distribution, a grand total of 1,056 libraries, containing 89,220 volumes, and valued at (catalogue price) $47,190.80, have been donated by the Board.

It is contemplated to continue these donations throughout the coming year. In view, however, of the fact that the old stock is now greatly reduced, libraries of not more than 75 volumes can be made up for Sabbath-schools. Particular attention is called to the following notice, the substance of which has appeared in the last six Annual Reports. Failure on the part of applicants to observe the requirements mentioned therein will almost certainly result in delay in the making of grants:

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS FOR FREE LIBRARIES.

Application for such libraries should be made directly to the Secretary, Rev. E. R. Craven, D. D. When an application is made in the interest of a church or Sabbath-school it should ordinarily be accompanied by a certificate from the Chairman of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee of the Presbytery with which the church or school is connected, setting forth its condition and needs. In cases where, on account of distance, it is difficult to obtain a certificate, one should be given by the Pastor or Session of the church, or of some neighboring church. Applications from the Chaplains of United States ships or military posts will always receive favorable consideration.

NET PROFITS.

The net profits of the year were $31,047.04. Of this sum two-thirds, or $20,698.03, has been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly. The remaining third, or $10,349.01, has been added to the capital.

CAPITAL.

The capital at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last Report, was $341,623.02. This amount included the real estate formerly occupied by the Board, Nos. 1334-1336 Chestnut Street, which stood upon the books at the original cost price, $151,626.42, and also included the value of the perpetual policies of insurance thereon, amounting to $4,720.00—a total of $156,346.42.

When this real estate was sold, these amounts were charged off from the books of the Business Department, thereby reducing the amount that previously had appeared as the capital of the Business Department to the sum of $185,275.60. To this sum is now added one-third of the net profits of the year, thus making the active capital now employed in the business, as reported in the balance sheet, $195,624.61.

The proceeds of the sale of the real estate were $448,000.00; and this sum, together with the value of the policies of perpetual insurance mentioned above, $4,720.00, was turned over to the Trustees of the Board for the new building. These amounts will be found properly debited to the account of the Trustees in the report of their Treasurer, page 63.

THE CHURCH AT HOME AND ABROAD.

At the request of the Committee appointed by the General Assembly, the Board continues to be the publisher of "The Church at Home and Abroad." The relations of the Board to this magazine are different, however, from those which it sustains to the other periodicals which it publishes.

The editor of the magazine is selected by the Assembly's Committee, and he works under its general direction, as does also the Board itself in this particular. The Board is an agent, rather than the principal, in its publication, and assumes no pecuniary responsibility in reference thereto.

No charge has been made by the Board for anything except actual expenditures directly on account of the magazine, and every effort has been adopted, through the machinery of the Board, to further the success of the enterprise.

The amount of receipts* on account of the magazine for the year was $14,463.54. The number of copies published was 180,000.

A balance of $3,048.67 now stands against this magazine in the books of the Treasurer.

^{*} This includes the amounts received from the subscribers and from the several Boards.

TWENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF THE CHURCH ERECTION FUND.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

With gratitude for the tokens of Divine blessing upon its work, the Board of the Church Erection Fund respectfully presents to the General Assembly its twenty-eighth annual report.*

The year, which commenced with a fair promise of relief from the depressing influences that marked the preceding one, has not entirely fulfilled the expectations that were cherished in its opening months.

Various causes, which are too well known to call for special mention, have served to continue the business and financial depression under which the country has now suffered for several years. There have been indeed alleviations and at times marked progress but confidence in the permanence of business prosperity has not been as yet thoroughly restored. As always, the condition of things in the business and political worlds has been reflected in the support of the benevolent operations of the Church.

It is gratifying under these circumstances to be able to report that the portion of the Board's income derived from the contributions of the churches has not fallen off, but on the contrary shows a slight increase over that of last year. The aggregate received from this source is still noticeably less than in the prosperous days of former years but the tide has at least ceased to ebb and there is hope that it may continue to rise until again high water mark is reached.

It should be said that during these years of depression the loss has not been because fewer congregations have given—on the contrary, the number has steadily increased from year to year; but the average contribution has just as steadily decreased.

But a result of the financial depression even more significant, and for many reasons disquieting is seen in the decreasing number of churches that have applied for aid from the General Fund. It would of course be a matter for congratulation did this result from the fact that of the same number organized and building edifices, a larger proportion were able to act independently of aid from the Church at large; but this is obviously not the case. The simple fact is that when business is depressed or crippled; when large numbers of people are thrown out of employment, new enterprises in religious no less than in business circles must be postponed until brighter days dawn. Fewer new churches are organized and fewer buildings erected. This depression will doubtless continue until the general outlook in the financial and business world is more favorable and the country ceases to be agitated with wars and rumors of wars.

APPLICATIONS.

Although nearly as many enquiries and informal requests as in past years reached the Board, the number of formal applications was only 196 or 20 less than last year. Of these, 138 were to the General Fund, 127 being for grants, 9 for loans without interest and 2 for both grants and loans and the aggregate amount asked for was $69,983. To the Manse Fund there were 39 applications, two of which were for grants, the total amount applied for being $16,380. To the Loan Fund there were 19 applications asking loans to the amount of $50,350. To these, however, must be added the applications to the General Fund that, although reaching the Board during the previous year, were postponed on account of lack of funds. These numbered 25 and aggregated $13,475.

Thus the total demand was actually for $151,788 and from 221 churches, as against $147,292 from 216 churches last year.

THE INCOME OF THE BOARD.

Such being the facts in regard to the demand, it is a matter for thanksgiving that the receipts of the Board have begun as we have already said to show an advance, thus enabling the Board not only to cover the arrears of the previous year but to meet the demands of the present.

In speaking in detail of sources of income it should be remembered that the Loan Fund and the Manse Fund are practically entirely dependent upon the return of the installments due upon loans made by them respectively for church buildings or manses. Only as such returns come in regularly and promptly can they be maintained in their proper efficiency. Upon the other hand to the General Fund, which represents what was originally the sole work of the Board, go all contributions not otherwise designated and also all sums derived from the return of grants, the sales of disused church edifices, as well as so much of the interest of the permanent funds as is not needed to keep the latter intact.

Of these the most important source is that of the contributions of the churches, the very source that most quickly reflects the conditions financially of the country and consequently of the churches. This fact, it is to be feared, will be emphasized if the conflict upon which the nation has entered be long continued.

From all sources the total income of the Board for the year was as follows:

		16,771.97
Receipts from insurance	400.00
Special Contributions to Manse Fund	56.00
Interest of Manse Fund	1,812.04

that from which all grants are made for the building of church edifices, and to which all contributions not otherwise designated are paid. It represents the original scope of the Church Extension Board of the old school branch of the Church and also that of the Church Erection Board of the new school branch after its plan was modified in 1866. Its aid is properly extended to the younger and feebler churches, especially upon the fields distinctly home missionary. When appropriations are made to the stronger of these churches, they are, in accordance with the repeated suggestions of the General Assembly, frequently made in the form of loans without interest, to be returned in annual contributions of a certain specified amount.

From this fund there have been during the year 127 grants aggregating $58,609, and 20 loans, without interest, aggregating $10,400. As in three instances both grant and loan were made, the number of churches represented is 144.

The grants exceed those of the previous year by 33, and in amount by $14,339, but the loans are fewer by 10, and less in amount by $5,653. Taking grants and loans together the number is 147, as against 126 the previous year, and in amount $69,009, as against $60,323, an advance of 17 per cent. in number and of nearly 15 per cent. in amount. The average amount of the grants was $470.61, and of the loans $500.

In addition 18 churches received through this fund special gifts to the amount of $1,607.88, making a total in this department of 162 churches and $70,616.88.

These appropriations and gifts have reached 30 synods, 107 Presbyteries, and 36 States or Territories. Minnesota has received the largest number, 12; California, 11; Pennsylvania, Kansas, and Nebraska, 9 each; Michigan, 8; and North Carolina, Missouri, and Colorado, 7 each.

The Board is gratified that it is able to add that the year closes in this department under much more favorable circumstances than a year ago. Then it was obliged to report that action upon 25 applications, aggregating $13,475, had been postponed from want of funds. This year, although commencing burdened with the arrears of the preceding, closes with a small balance in the treasury.

2. The Loan Fund.—This Fund has now been in operation for seven years, and the number of applications made for loans in accordance with its provisions proves that it answers the purpose for which it was designed. From it, loans may be made to churches which need only temporary assistance, being able themselves to complete their edifices if the expense can be extended over the years represented in the terms of the loan. Such loans are therefore properly made for the erection of buildings more expensive than such as are usually aided from the General Fund. As, however, the Fund is a Trust Fund, it is obvious that it can be loaned only in such cases as give satisfactory evidence that the money will be promptly returned as promised. This requirement must necessarily in some cases cause disappointment, but the Board feels that its first duty is to act strictly in accordance with the provisions made for it by the Assembly, by which only can it protect these trust funds from depletion.

From this fund there have been made 16 loans, aggregating $41,600, an advance upon the previous year of 6 in number and of $7.850 in amount.

They were widely distributed, viz: in the East, Massachusetts two, Pennsylvania two, and Maryland one; in the Central States, Ohio, Wisconsin, and Michigan each, one; in the West, Missouri, Nebraska, and Colorado each, two, and Iowa and Montana each, one.

3. The Manse Fund.—No department of the Board has more abundantly vindicated its beneficent character than this fund, inaugurated in 1886 by gifts from consecrated women who appreciated how indispensable to the highest usefulness of a pastor was an adequate home for his wife and children.

During the twelve years of its existence it has provided such Christian homes, by securing the erection of 438 manses, and distributing to this end $164,322, a sum many times exceeding the amount which, during the most of these years, the fund represented.

The appropriations during the present year from this fund were 35, amounting to $14,150. Omitting one grant of $100, the average amount loaned to each church was $413.23. The loans slightly exceeded those of last year, but the amount granted was $610 less. There was one "special" gift of $55.

SUMMARY.

Looking at the work as a whole and uniting the results in the three departments specified, the number of churches reached in one form or another was 213, and the full amount appropriated $126,421.88.

The accompanying map gives a bird's eye view of the wide distribution of these appropriations, and the alphabetical and synodical tables give their destination in detail.

The aggregate receipts in all departments were $137,349.73. and the disbursements, including grants, loans and expenses, were $129,040.13.

During the year there were also reported to the Board as completed through its aid 177 churches and manses, representing an aggregate value of $423,827.

REVERSIONARY INTERESTS.

These last figures suggest the substantial increase that the year's work entails in the reversionary interests and the insurance security held by the Board.

As is well understood, the Board, by direction of the Assembly, secures upon all property benefited by its grants or loans, a mortgage to the amount of the appropriation, and also an insurance policy to the same amount. In the case of loans either from the Manse or Loan Funds, these mortgages are of course discharged and the insurance policies cancelled when the loan is returned in full by the church, but, as many of them run for ten years, the attending reversionary interest is still very large. In the case of actual grants the mortgage is practically, in a majority of cases, a permanent lien upon the property, which, although drawing no interest, and therefore no burden upon the church, needs to be protected uninterruptedly by the insurance policy.

It is manifest that as a consequence of this wise requirement the number of mortgages and the total reversionary interest of the Board, as well as the amount of insurance it provides, is annually increasing.

This interest at the present time amounts to more than $2,000,000, and the insurance held by the Board to not less than $1,750,000.

Inasmuch as every year a certain percentage of these mortgages become due and the money must be collected upon the sale of the church property, and as all the policies of insurance must be renewed upon expiry, and the premiums thereon collected from the churches, it is manifest that a heavy responsibility, involving much care and time, is connected with this branch of the Board's work. In fact at the present time the details of this branch of the work, together with the administration of the two permanent loan funds constitute so large a proportion of the work of the Board that were all contributions from the churches to cease, the duties still remaining in the care of the constantly increasing vested interests of the Board would necessitate an expense of at least half of the present cost of administration, an expense however abundantly justified by the value to the Church of these large investments.

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGNS.

Another interesting department in the work of the Board is the securing from good architects appropriate designs for church buildings. That this provision is appreciated and serves an excellent purpose is evident from the fact that every week several requests for designs and suggestions as to buildings reach the office. Indeed such applications have come not only from all of our own States, but from Scotland, England, the continent of Europe, and South America.

In this matter the Board has lately adopted a new plan which it believes will make the aid thus given still more practical. The editions of its book of designs being exhausted, instead of issuing a new and somewhat expensive pamphlet, it has had the designs that seem most available printed upon separate sheets.

By this expedient, instead of sending the same book, representing buildings varying in cost from $800 to $20,000 to every applicant, a selection can be sent of such plans as approximate in size and expense to the proposed building. By this method much waste and considerable expense is obviated. The Board therefore would request that when application is made for such plans, it be specified what is expected to be the size, cost, seating capacity and material of the proposed building.

It may be added that while the Board has sketches of buildings of quite expensive character, and which may serve a good purpose in giving suggestions, it yet strongly advises that in all cases where a building is to cost more than $5,000 a competent architect be selected and the work entrusted to his hands.

In this way a building is secured that meets the special needs of the congregation in question, and in the end, in the case of such buildings, there will be usually a saving in other respects that will counterbalance the fees of the architect.

For this reason the Board cannot in the case of more expensive buildings, although it send the designs, supply the working drawings and specifications, but will refer the church to the architect who made the sketch.

TITLE TO CHURCH PROPERTY.

It seems proper in this connection to call attention to another matter to which too little consideration at times is given. The necessity of securing mortgages makes it imperative for the Board in every instance to be certified that the title by which the church holds its property is a good one. In its enquiry to this end the Board finds many cases where it appears that the church, owing to restrictive and reversionary clauses in the deed, does not hold a title in "fee-simple" and therefore cannot execute a mortgage that will be of legal value. Frequently this discovery is made at so late an hour as to cause much delay and disappointment in obtaining the money that the Board had appropriated.

The Board would therefore venture to suggest that when forms for the charters of churches or for deeds by which property is to be held are drawn or recommended by the Synods or Presbyteries, care should be taken that they are not so worded as to preclude the freedom of the congregation to execute, if need be, the mortgages required by the General Assembly in connection with grants and loans from this Board.

It would also urge the propriety of churches when making application to the Board for aid, sending with such application a copy of the deed by which title is held.

REMOVAL OF OFFICE.

The Board is happy to be able to report that by an arrangement with the Board of Foreign Missions it has removed its office to rooms under the control of the latter Board, securing thus adequate accommodations with a reduction in expense of rent of twenty per cent.

RETROSPECT.

In compliance with the request of the General Assembly's Entertainment Committee that this Board should contribute to the "exhibit" to be made at the Assembly of the scope and progress of the Presbyterian Church, the Board has prepared a large chart which displays the progress of its work since its first inception in 1844. This, together with a large map prepared in 1893 for the proposed exhibit at Chicago in connection with the World's Fair, but for well known reasons never displayed, will give a picture of what has been done under the direction of the Assembly in aid of Church Erection during the last fifty-five years. If possible to prepare it in time a small reproduction of the chart will be bound up with the report.

An examination of this chart will show that at one time or another the work has been carried into every state and territory of the Union; that there have been 7,675 appropriations to 6,305 churches; that the aggregate of the appropriations has been $3,814,139 and of the actual payments $3,492,320.60 that the value of the property thus secured is not less than $14,000,000 and that while there have been fluctuations in the advance, yet upon the whole there has been a steady progress onward. It is interesting to notice a reflection of the history of our country in the constant lengthening of the lines of the chart from left to right as the years advance and also in the gap in the years from 1861 to 1867 in the columns representing the Southern States of the Union from which we were then divided

THE FUTURE.

Such having been the history of the work and such the manifest blessing of God upon its progress, can we doubt that it is the Divine will that the church shall still carry it forward as an accepted agency in the upbuilding of the kingdom of its Lord and Master.

So long as the population of this land continues to grow, so long there will be need of new churches, and of new edifices in which they may find homes, and so long as the condition of society and limitations of supply and demand remain as now, so long will there be need also that infant churches be aided by their older and stronger sisters in establishing themselves in safety and in permanence.

The amount needed to ensure in this way the continuance and well being of our infant missionary churches is not large as compared with the wealth and liberality of the whole church, but small as it is comparatively, it cannot be secured unless there be a general recognition of the sacred tie that binds all of our congregations together and a glad hearkening to the Divine voice that commands the strong to bear the burdens of the weak.

If in response to such obligation, each congregation would remember to do its part in replenishing the central treasury from which the needed supplies are again distributed, there would be enough to meet every legitimate demand.

There has been, as we are all too well aware, during the last five years a period of depression in the missionary work of the Church, but there are encouraging signs, to which reference has been already made, that the tide has turned and that better days await the Church in the coming years.

It is the prayer of this Board that these anticipations may not be disappointed and that in the onward movement it may be enabled by the sympathy, the counsel, and the generous gifts of the congregations to bear its full share to the honor and glory of the Divine Master.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD.

It only remains to add that the term of office of the following members of the Board expires at this time:

Ministers.	Elders.
REV. NATHANIEL W. CONKLING, D.D.	FREDERICK G. BURNHAM.
REV. JOHN HALL, D.D.	Daniel J. Holden,
REV. WILLIAM HOLLIDAY, D.D.	E. FRANCIS HYDE.
·	JOHN SINCLAIR.

It will devolve upon this Assembly to fill these vacancies and also a vacancy in the class whose term ends in 1899, occasioned by the resignation of the Rev. Henry T. McEwen, D.D., who has removed to a distance from New York.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ERSKINE N. WHITE, DAVID MAGIE,

Corresponding Secretary. President.

Report of the Standing Committee upon Church Erection.

Your Committee has had several meetings, and has carefully considered the work of the Board of Church Erection. The honored secretary met with the Committee, and rendered valuable assistance and service. As a Committee, we are impressed with the business character of the Board. While the members are second to no one in sentiment and philanthropy, the work of the Board of Church Erection is, and must be according to sound business principles. An examination of the accounts of the Board shows careful, systematic and painstaking But more, the Board of Church Erection never contracts a debt. No, the debts of this Board remain where they rightly belong. That is to say, if the churches do not remember the Board when making up their missionary offerings, applications must remain unmet, and the responsibility rests upon the Church at large. At the beginning of the ecclesiastical year under review, the Board inherited such applications carrying some $13,000, but we are happy to say that the Church has paid its debts, and presents to the Board, for this new year, an inheritance of good health and prosperity.

The number of formal applications reaching the Board during the year was 196, or twenty less than last year. Of these, 138 were to the General Fund, 127 being for grants, nine for loans without interest, and two for both grants and loans, and the aggregate amount asked for was $69,983. To the Manse Fund there were thirty-nine applications, two of which were for grants, the total amount applied for being $16,380. To the Loan Fund there were nineteen applications asking loans to the amount of $50,350. To these, however, must be added the applications to the General Fund that, although reaching the Board during the previous year, were postponed on account of lack of funds. These numbered twenty-five, and aggregated $13,475. Thus the total demand was actually for $151,788, and from 221 churches, as against $147,292 from 216 churches last year.

Such being the facts in regard to the demand, it is a matter for thanksgiving that the receipts of the Board have begun to show an advance, thus enabling the Board not only to cover the arrears of the previous year, but to meet the demands of the present.

In speaking in detail of sources of income it should be remembered that the Loan Fund and the Manse Fund are practically entirely dependent upon the return of the installments due upon loans made by them respectively for church building or manses. Only as such returns come in regularly and promptly can they be maintained in their proper efficiency. Upon the other hand to the General Fund, which represents what was originally the sole work of the Board, go all contributions not otherwise designated, and also all sums derived from the return of grants, the sale of disused church edifices, as well as so much of the interest of the permanent funds as is not needed to keep the latter intact.

Of these the most important source is that of the contributions of the churches, the very source that most quickly reflects the condition financially of the country, and consequently of the churches. This fact, it is to be feared, will be emphasized if the conflict upon which the nation has entered be long continued.

The work of the Board is divided into three departments. From the General Fund all grants are made for the building of church edifices. From this fund there have been during the year 127 grants, aggregating $58,609, and twenty loans without interest, aggregating $10,400. As in three instances both grant and loan were made, the number of churches represented is 144.

The grants exceed those of the previous year by thirty-three, and in amount by $14,339, but the loans are fewer by ten, and less in amount by $5,653. Taking grants and loans together the number is 147 as against 126 the previous year, and in amount $69,009, as against $60,323, an advance of seventeen per cent. in number, and of nearly fifteen per cent. in amount. The average amount of the grants was $470.61, and of the loans $500.

In addition, eighteen churches received through this fund special gifts to the amount of $1,607.88, making a total in this department of 162 churches and $70,616.88.

It will be noticed that of the appropriations made during the year, twenty are referred to as loans without interest. This is in accordance with the wise suggestion of the Assembly of 1893, which recommended that whenever possible a church receiving an appropriation should agree in the terms of its mortgage to return an annual contribution of a specific sum to the treasury of the Board, which contribution should also be accounted as a payment upon the mortgage, the mortgage to be satisfied when the full amount was thus paid.

While your Committee is gratified to find that the number of churches contributing to this Board is continually increasing, it regrets to be obliged to add that even now but little more than half of the churches upon our roll are in this respect mindful of their obligations, and among those failing to sustain the work are not a few who in their early days received aid from the Board, and pledged themselves in return therefor, to make such annual contribution.

The Loan Fund has now been in operation for seven years, and the number of applications made for loans, in accordance with its provisions, proves that it answers the purpose for which it was designed. As the fund is a trust, it can be loaned only in such cases as give satisfactory evidence that the money will be properly returned, as promised.

The Manse Fund.—No department of the Board has more abundantly vindicated its beneficent character than this fund. Inaugurated in 1886 by gifts from consecrated women who appreciated how indispensible to the highest usefulness of a pastor was an adequate home for his wife and children, during the twelve years of its existence it has provided such Christian homes, by securing the erection of 438 manses, and distributing to this end $164,322, a sum many times exceeding the amount which, during the most of these years, the fund represented.

The appropriations during the present year from this fund were thirty-five, amounting to $14,150. Omitting one grant of $100, the average amount loaned to each church was $413,23. The loans slightly exceeded those of last year, but the amount granted was $610 less. There was one "special" gift of $55.

The Board, by direction of the General Assembly, secures upon all property benefited by its grants or loans, a mortgage to the amount of the appropriation, and also an insurance policy to the same amount. In the case of actual grants the mortgage is practically a permanent lien upon the property, and no interest or payments of any kind, save the promised annual collection, are expected, but this wise requirement often saves the local church from a ruinous debt, and safe-guards the property. This interest of the Board, at the present time, in the churches of the Assembly is more than $2,000,000, and the insurance not less than $1,750,000. Hence, it is plain that the Board would have a large amount of labor to perform even if no new work was attempted.

The Presbytery of East Florida presented an overture asking that the mortgage against the First Presbyterian Church of Jacksonville, Fla., be cancelled of record. During the civil war the church edifice was occupied as a hospital. The church became divided, and those who remained were obliged to mortgage the property. Many methods of many General Assemblies have been adopted to pay this mortgage. For some years the Stated Clerk, Wm. H. Roberts, D. D., was working at the problem, and at last succeeded in raising the debt for the church. But more than $2,000 of that amount was given on condition that the mortgage should be placed in the keeping of the Board of Church Erection The answer proposed by your Committee will be found among the recommendations.

In view of the fact that in our growing work of evangelization, it is at times expedient that a congregation be gathered, and a Sunday School organized in advance of the regular organization of a church, it would seem proper that in exceptional cases aid should be given in the erection of a chapel while there is, as yet, no organized church corporation, and your Committee think it would be well for the Assembly to approve of such grants, provided the presbytery has a proper control both of the work and the property.

An examination of the exhibit prepared by the Board at the request of the Assembly's committee, will give a vivid impression of the work accomplished during the half century of the Board's existence.

In conclusion your Committee recommends the following action:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly heartily approves of the work, management, and administration of the Board of Church Erection.

- 2. That in view of the pressing necessities of our mission work, the Assembly urges each church to make an annual offering for the important work of this Board.
- 3. That the Assembly would especially remind such churches as have in the past received aid from the Board, that they are pledged to make each year, according to their ability, such contributions; and the Assembly would further urge upon churches in the future receiving appropriations, that, in accordance with the recommendation of the Assembly of 1893, they agree whenever practicable to return the sums in definite specified annual contributions, the same to be also accounted as payment upon the mortgage given to the Board.

- 4. That in the case of missions established under the care of the presbyteries with view to the organization of a church, the Board, upon application from the presbytery, or its proper committee, may at its discretion make a grant for a suitable building, provided the presbytery as a corporation, holds title in fee-simple to the property, and in other respects the usual conditions are met.
- 5. That the overture from the Presbytery of East Florida with reference to the re-adjustment of the mortgage held by the Board upon the First Church of Jacksonville be referred to the Board, with power to act.
- 6. That the records of the Board be approved so far as written.
- 7. That the following members of the Board, whose term of office now expires, be re-elected, viz:

and that in the place of the Rev. Henry T. McEwen, D. D., of the class whose term ends in 1899, who has resigned on account of removal to a distance, the Rev. L. Mason Clarke of the Presbytery of Brooklyn be elected.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

MERCER STREET CHURCH, NEW YORK. 1834-1898.

The cut upon the title page of this report represents the old Mercer Street Church building in the City of New York, which for many years, first as a Presbyterian church and later as the "Church of the Strangers," has been one of the best known and most notable edifices in that city. As it is now, after standing sixty-four years, being removed, a word in regard to it will be of interest.

During the time of its Presbyterian occupancy its prominence was such that the late Dr. Deems, the well-known pastor of the Church of the Strangers, at a reception given him in 1880 ventured to refer to it as having been at the time of its erection "the calkedral of Presbyterianism in America."

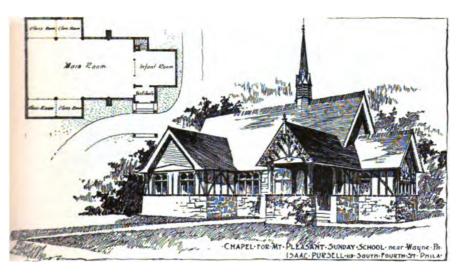

It was built in 1834 as the home of the newly organized church of which the elder Dr. Thomas II. Skinner was the pastor. It was situated upon Mercer Street, between Waverly Place and Eighth Street, one block west of Broadway, a locality then far uptown. In fact there was then no church of the denomination further north, and the city itself at that time was practically bounded upon the north by Fourteenth Street. Its congregation took immediately a conspicious position and thenceforth numbered among its officers and members many of the most active and liberal Presbyterians of the city.

Under Dr. Skinner and his distinguished successors, Dr. Joseph C. Stiles, Dr. George L. Prentiss, Dr. Walter Clarke, and Dr. Robert Russell Booth, it maintained its position as one of the most prosperous and useful churches in the city until the reunion of 1870 when it was united with the neighboring church upon University Place. Dr. Booth, who had been its pastor since 1861, became the pastor of the united church and so continued until temporary ill health caused his resignation in 1884.

Through the liberality of the late Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt the then historic building became the home of the Church of the Strangers, whose unique and notable history under the direction of the late Dr. Charles F. Deems is so well known. Dr. Deems died in 1893, and the organization which still continues has during the last year removed uptown.

The destruction of this old and beautiful edifice, so long a land mark in the city and for sixty-three years the centre of the most farreaching and beneficent social, moral, and religious influences, is, although inevitable, greatly regretted by all old residents of the city.

This is a Chapel of a proposed future larger building. It is designed to be set upon the rear of a corner lot so that it may open, if need be, upon the cross street. It is planned to answer the double purpose of Sunday School Room and Church Auditorium until the larger building is erected. The finished structure is indicated by dotted lines, and planned so that when completed both buildings can be thrown into one.

The Chapel, as shown, is of brick, 40 ft. x 70 ft., designed for a lot 70 x 100, leaving room for larger building. There are class rooms in the gallery and a cellar underneath.

The cost will be from $3,000 to $4,000.

The design upon the preceding page is by Messrs. L. B. Valk & Sons, of Los Angeles, California. It is a picturesque and pleasing design for a wayside Chapel in a place of summer resort or for a small Church in a country district. It is planned especially for a site upon a slight elevation above the roadway and as the walls are low it would lose its proper effect if erected in a hollow or even upon a perfectly level plain.

The building is 30 ft. x 50 ft., seats 210, and costs from $2,000 to $2,500.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

AT WINONA LAKE, IND., MAY 21ST, 1898.

The Report of the Board of Ministerial Relief, and the manuscript volume of its minutes for the year ending April 1st, 1898, were presented to the General Assembly at Winona Lake, Ind., May, 1898. These were referred to the Assembly's Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief, consisting of the following Commissioners:

Ministers:—Henry C. McCook, D. D., Theodore F. Burnham, Frederick J. Sauber, Arthur E. Chase, Samuel Callen, James H. Robinson, D. D., Dormer L. Hickok, Ashbel G. Lane, Edward H. Curtis, D. D., John L. Landis, Hector E. McLean.

Elders:—Henry Parsons, Samuel Lyons, John P. Hooke, William S. Pitts, James Fulton, David Moncrieff, John L. Hunter, J. C. Hall, James Tait, S. M. McConnell.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief begs leave to present the following resolutions and recommendations:

- of Ministerial Relief has entered its convenient and beautiful quarters in the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia; and while congratulating this Board upon the change, acknowledges its obligation to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work, and to the friends who have contributed the office furnishings, thus enabling the Board of Ministerial Relief to enter its new home without drawing upon its funds.
- 2d. The Assembly notes with great satisfaction the increase in the number of contributing churches during the past year, there having been 594 more than any previous year; also the increase in contributions which has enabled the Board to close this fiscal year without debt, and at the same time pay to its annuitants the amount of the 25 per cent. reduction which it had been necessary to announce a year ago. The collections have been greater during the past year by $9,073.42 from churches and Sabbath-schools, and by $1,820.50 from individuals, an aggregate increase of $10,893.92 over last year. There have also been received unrestricted legacies amounting to $27,893.74. The last named source of income is an inconstant quantity, and cannot be relied upon. The only certain source, outside of the Permanent Fund, is the healthy and regular increase in the gifts of the living Church to meet the increasing demands of the work.

- 3d. The churches are reminded that the Permanent Fund of over one and one-half million of dollars, large as it seems, furnishes less than one-half the required income for the aid of annuitants, viz., $69,123.00, leaving $109,847 to be raised by the churches. While the income from invested funds is subject to decrease, following the general tendency of investments, the advancing yearly increase in the payments of the Board has been nearly $6,000 ($5,856). It is therefore manifest that the possession of an endowment cannot absolve the churches from the continued urgency for increased liberality.
- 4th. The Assembly is constrained to call serious attention to the startling fact that during the decade between 1888 and 1897, the number of annuitants increased from 564 to 835, 67.7 per cent. The amount contributed by the churches on the contrary decreased from $98,922 per year, to $74,091, or about 25 per cent. It is plain that unless this great disproportion between the two factors of demand and supply shall be overcome by increasing gifts, either the number of annuitants or the amount appropriated to them must be diminished. Even the increase of the current fiscal year does not break the force of this alarming statement, for the number of annuitants has grown from 835 in 1897, to 875 in 1898, involving an expenditure nearly equal to the increase in church contributions.
- In view of these facts the Assembly most earnestly and affectionately asks the Synods, Presbyteries, Sessions, and especially the pastors of churches to consider the facts printed in the annual report of the Board, and to give a full presentation of them in the judicatories of the Church and before the people. It is believed that if the congregations were informed of the exact condition of things, and of the imperative need for increasingly larger collections, the Board of Ministerial Relief would be able to care adequately for the aged and honored ministers and missionaries, and their dependent households. No cause could appeal more tenderly to the hearts and consciences of the people. Assembly urges pastors to preach upon this subject, and to enforce the claims of our Church's venerable and helpless wards; and it is believed that the facts will appeal potently to the generosity of hearers.

6th. The Assembly also urges pastors to call attention to the fact that the work of the Board of Ministerial Relief is not confined exclusively to ministering men. Among the annuitants the ministering women, missionaries both Home and Foreign, and the widows of clergymen, considerably outnumber the men. Here is a field wherein "Woman's work for women" may have abundant exercise. While money is the chief requirement, boxes of clothing and household supplies will go far to piece out the scanty income of many families.

7th. The Assembly commends the course of the Board in securing a thorough audit of its books, by expert professional accountants, and is gratified that the report of the experts extending over two fiscal years, ending March 31, 1898, shows that the accounts of the Treasurer have been carefully, correctly and creditably kept. This gives assurance of the security of the permanent fund, and that the Church's current contributions will be cared for with fidelity.

The Assembly notes with regret that the sad event foreshadowed by the sickness of the Emeritus Secretary, Dr. Wm. C. Cattell, has befallen, and that this eminent father of the Church, and faithful Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief, and devoted friend of its helpless. venerable dependents, has fallen on sleep. Attention is called to the commemorative Resolutions adopted by the Board, and printed in this year's report (page 13), and the Assembly expresses cordial sympathy with the members thereof, in the great loss sustained by it and by the Church, in the removal from earth of this beloved servant of God and helper of his fellowmen. To Dr. Cattell, the Board of Ministerial Relief is indebted, in large degree, for the present healthful state of its finances, and the deep and tender interest felt in its work. The movement to promote especial interest among elders in the Board's work was one of his happy thoughts, and went far to deepen sympathy throughout the Church and a sense of responsibility towards its superannuated ministers and their families. Although the Assembly of last year fully expressed its appreciation of this man greatly beloved, this Assembly is prompted to render this tribute to one who has done such worthy service to the Church, and to its most dependent wards. much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me."

9th. The Committee would call the Assembly's attention to the following By-laws, printed on page 10 of the Report, which relate simply to the routine work of the various Committees of the Board, and would respectfully recommend approval of the same.

10th. The Committee having carefully examined the Minutes of the Board, finds them correct and kept with unusual care, and recommends their approval by the General Assembly.

11th. It is recommended that the following Directors, whose term expires at this meeting of the Assembly, be reelected, viz.: -Rev. Henry E. Niles, D. D., Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D. D., George Junkin, Esq., LL.D., A. Chas. Barclay, Esq.; also, that the following new members be elected, viz.:—Francis Olcott Allen, Esq., of Philadelphia, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Robert C. Ogden; and Robert H. Smith, Esq., of Baltimore, Md., to fill the place of Mr. Joseph M. Collingwood, resigned on account of the condition of his health.

I hereby certify that the above is a correct copy of the action of the General Assembly.

WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

ANNUAL REPORT

TO THE

MAY, 1898.

THE PRESEYTERIAN BOARD OF RELIEF FOR DISABLED MINISTERS, AND THE WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECRASED MINISTERS, respectfully presents to THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY its Annual Report for the year from April 1st, 1897, to April 1st, 1898—being the Forty-ninth year since the organization of Relief Work by the General Assembly of 1849, the Forty-third year since the First Annual Report was made to the General Assembly in 1855 by the Trustees of the Assembly, and the Twenty-second year of the work of the organized Board. The Book of Minutes, containing the proceedings of the Board for the year 1897-98 is also herewith presented.

NEW QUARTERS.

We are greatly delighted to report to the General Assembly, that in the month of December the Board moved into the new rooms provided for it on the fifth floor of the Witherspoon Building, 1319 Walnut Street. Here we have ample accommodations, furnished to the Board free of rent by the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work. These rooms are bright and cheerful and supplied with all the facilities for carrying on the work of the Board, and for storing systematically its rapidly accumulating records, of present value in the conduct of our work, and of prospective historic value in the preparation of individual biographies.

These rooms have been neatly and comfortably furnished by friends of the Board without drawing upon its treasury for a single dollar.

ROLL.

We have upon our roll for the year ending March 31st, 1898, 875 names; 342 ministers, 472 widows, 29 orphan families, 1 widow of a medical missionary, 7 female missionaries and 24 guests in the Ministers' House at Perth Amboy, N. J., 45 Annuitants died during the year. We have 103 Honorably Retired Ministers on the roll, whose average age is 78.2, and whose average service has been 45.9 years. The average amount paid all Annuitants was $205.69.

I.—THE SITUATION ONE YEAR AGO.

Two years ago the Board reported an indebtedness of $9,673, and last year a debt of $20,911, and we feared from the way the roll was increasing and the collections from the churches were decreasing, that, if the same conditions prevailed for another year, we would be compelled to report a deficiency on the payments of the year just closed of $30,000, which, with the indebtedness of last year, would make a total deficit of over $50,000. This calculation rested upon the following facts and figures.

Receipts and Expenditures.

During twenty-one years the roll of Annuitants, and the annual receipts from all sources and the annual expenditures, have been as follows:

THE AVERAGE YEARLY INCREASE IN OUR PAYMENTS FOR TWENTY-ONE YEARS HAD BEEN $5,856.00, and the church collections for nine years had been decreasing! For several years the Board kept warning the churches of these conditions and declared that a serious cut in the grants to our Annuitants would necessarily have to be made.

In 1875 the interest of the churches in this sacred cause seemed to slacken and every appropriation was reduced just one-half; 69 families applied for aid which could not be received upon the roll, and at that time there were but 384 families receiving aid.

In 1876 one-fourth of all appropriations was withheld. In 1885 the Board again found it necessary to withhold one-fourth until in funds to pay appropriations in full.

The distress occasioned by these several reductions was so unspeakably severe that the Board hesitated long about making another such blood-letting cut; but the condition of things a year ago made it absolutely imperative to resort to this intensely severe action again, hoping that the churches might be aroused to a sense of their responsibility to this sacred cause and furnish means before the end of the year to pay all appropriations in full. In view of the indebtedness of the Board of $20,911, and in view of the continuance of hard times the Board unanimously, but with profoundest sorrow, took the following action:

"Whereas, The funds of the Board of Relief for the past year were not sufficient to pay the current expenses of the Board, and as the debt on April 1st, 1897, was $20,911.45, Resolved, First, that on all appropriations recommended by the Presbyteries and accepted by this Board, a reduction of twenty-five per cent. shall be made, beginning with this fiscal year."

The Board came to this conclusion unanimously, but at the same meeting passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Board trusts that the above reduction of twenty-five per cent. will only be a deferred payment, and that the Church, when informed of the needs of the Board, will place sufficient funds in its treasury to pay in full the amounts recommended by the Presbyteries."

Use of Unrestricted Legacies.

Prior to the last meeting of the General Assembly the Board of Relief by the direction of former Assemblies had placed all the legacies it received in the Permanent Fund, and used only the interest thereof in the payment of the current expenses; but as all the other Boards of the Church were permitted to use unrestricted legacies in payment of current expenses, the Board of Relief last year asked for the same privilege, and it was unanimously granted by the Assembly.

II.—THE PRESENT CONDITION OF THE BOARD.

As the churches and individuals throughout the Church began to realize the intense suffering inflicted by withholding one-fourth of the appropriations made to our Annuitants, they began to contribute more generously to this hallowed cause. Whilst 3,198 churches gave no contribution to the Board last year, it is gratifying to know that 4,126 churches remembered the suffering ones and sent in their contributions. This is 594 more churches than ever contributed to the Board in any previous year. As the fiscal year was drawing to a close the contributions came in more rapidly, and we also received a considerable number of unrestricted legacies; and when we closed our books for the fiscal year, ending March 31, 1898, the showing was as follows:

Comparative Receipts for the Years '96-'97 and '97-'98.

Contributions from Churches and Sabbath Schools	. 18,922 91 . 70,965 62 . 831 56	1897-8 $ 83,164 62 15,743 41 69,134 04 869 20
held by the Synod of Ohio and other Trustees Unrestricted Legacies	. 1,024 79	331 52 27,898 74
	$160,856 07	$197,136 53

This showed a gain over the previous year in church collections of $9,073.42 and also a gain in individual contributions of $1,820,50; and the receipts for the current fund, from all sources, as shown in the Treasurer's account, $197,136.53.

This amount of receipts enabled the Board with glad hearts to pass the following resolution repealing the painful Withholding Act:

"With sincere gratitude to the Giver of all good, the Board would record the fact that by His favor it finds itself at the close of the year, (by the use of unrestricted legacies, as authorized by the General Assembly of 1897, and the funds for current use received from other sources,) with sufficient funds not only to meet the claims of its beneficiaries, but also to pay to those of them whose allowances the Board was obliged to reduce, the amount of the reduction.

It is therefore, Resolved, That relying with great confidence upon the liberality of the Church in supplying the needs of the Board, and believing the Head of the Church has placed anew his seal upon its work, the Treasurer be directed at once to remit, as an act of justice, to the persons from whose annual allowance a reduction of 25 per cent. was made, the amount so deducted, and enter it in his accounts as of March 31st, $898."

We are exceedingly glad to report that the Board has paid all appropriations in full for the year ending March 31, 1898, and that it closed its books absolutely free of all debt, and had a small working balance of $6,526 with which to start the New Year. This amount is what is left of the unrestricted legacies received during the year.

III.-THE OUTLOOK.

Whilst the Permanent Fund of the Board now amounts to $1,532,449.62, it can readily be perceived that the interest on that sum will not pay one-half of our annuities. The interest on this Fund last year amounted to $69,134, but the demands on the Treasury amounted to $190,609.91, leaving $121,475.87, to be raised from other sources. Whilst the Assembly has given the Board the right to use unrestricted legacies to pay our Annuitants, these legacies are a very uncertain quantity and we cannot make calculations on having any definite amount to use in any one year. Our individual contributions are also a very uncertain quantity. They have varied in the last thirteen years from $10,771, to $21,048 a year. We are, therefore, largely shut up to the collections in our churches as our main dependence.

As before stated the average yearly increase in our payments for the last twenty-one years has been $5,856. We must have, therefore, a constant increase in our church collections, or we must proportionately decrease the yearly appropriations to our Annuitants, and that is an extremely undesirable and painful thing to do.

Good Work that Can be Done.

1. Let our Synods at their Annual Meetings take up this Sacred Cause with new interest.

Look at the contributions from the various Synods to the Board, as shown in our Annual Report, and see, in most instances, the large sums drawn out from the Board in proportion to the amounts contributed, and it is selfevident that the Synods in general should make much larger contributions to the Board than they have been in the habit of making.

Business closely crowds the hours of the various Synods we all know full well, but we know just as well that want and distress crowd the hours, the days, the months, the whole year through, of the honored men who have given all their energies to the upbuilding of our beloved Church, and their rights and necessities demand most serious consideration.

2. The Presbyteries can aid wonderfully in stirring up the churches to take collections for this hallowed cause by observing the directions of the last General Assembly, which require that every church session appoint a special committee on the Board of Relief, consisting of representatives of every organization in each church: the Women's Societies, the Young People's Associations, the Sabbath Schools, &c. Let the Presbyteries take special charge of this matter and see to it that a collection is taken for this cause every year in every church.

The Presbytery can induce many more Sessions to have collections taken in their churches for this holy work by insisting that the directions of the last General Assembly be carried out, and by calling upon all the Sessions to report to Presbytery why they have not taken collections wherever there has been a failure to do so, and by giving them to understand that their reasons for neglect or failure to take a collection will not be sustained unless the reasons are special, providential, and satisfactory.

- 3. Presbyterial committees can do a work that is well worth doing by correspondence with the churches in each Presbytery, and using their influence to have every church in every Presbytery take a collection every year. It may be troublesome to the committee but the cause is Christ's. We are all working for Him, and what we do for Him will have its sweet reward.
- 4. Church Sessions are mainly responsible for the large number of churches that fail every year to remember this blessed beneficence.

The appointment of committees last year in individual churches in many cases was attended with gratifying results. One committeeman wrote to us that in addition to the regular church collection, by personal solicitation he collected for the Board $145, from individuals. Ladies' Societies sent boxes of clothing to needy families last year valued at $3,649; Young People's Societies and Sabbath-schools have taken collections when the church itself failed to take a collection.

The Board was organized October 21, 1876. Let Sessions ask their people to make the 21st of October in each year Self-denial Day, and give the savings of that day to this Board. This is not asking too much of our people when the 875 families on the roll of the Board, in many instances, are compelled to deny themselves 365 days in the year!

5. Let pastors cease to take it for granted that the people generally are well posted on the work this Board is trying to do, and fully inform the people each year of the imperative necessity of increasingly larger collections in order that our great Church may do what is honorable and magnanimous to our aged and honored ministers and their needy households. The old men who have expended all their working forces for the Church have earned a support from the Church as long as they live, and it ought not to be given to them sparingly and grudgingly.

6. Individuals all over the Church can be induced to contribute generously to this Board if the matter is fairly presented to them. The sacred cause appeals to every sense of compassion, and honor, and justice, and many of our wealthy people are glad to contribute freely to it whenever its wants are clearly and personally laid before their minds and hearts by our faithful pastors.

THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE BOARD.

The members of the Board can truthfully say that they administer the affairs of the Board faithfully, conscientiously and fairly, and out of sincere love for the delightful work.

As it is the custom of many business corporations, having trust funds to handle, to employ experts periodically to audit their books and accounts, the Board thought it was justified in pursuing a similar course, and it secured the services of Messrs. John Heins & Co., professional experts of high standing, for this purpose, and it is very gratifying to the Board that the report of these experts is just what the members of the Board expected it would be, namely:

We hereby certify that we have audited the cash account and bank account of your Treasurer, Rev. W. W. Heberton, for the two fiscal years ended March 31, 1898, inclusive, and found the same to have been carefully, correctly and very creditably kept.

JOHN HEINS & CO.

We are sure the report of these experts will be most gratifying to our whole Church.

THE MINISTERS HOUSE.

The Ministers' House at Perth Amboy, N. J., is beautifully located in the centre of eleven acres of wooded land and has accommodations for twice as many guests as we have ever had there at any one time.

A minister and his wife may be admitted there in lieu of a money appropriation; the widow of a minister; a female missionary from the Home or Foreign field; a medical missionary, or any one entitled to receive aid from the Board who is without means of support, and who can be accommodated there with the facilities at our command.

It is not a hospital and we do not have the means to make it such, but it is a delightful home for aged people.

To gain admission to the House it is necessary to apply to the Presbyterial Committee on the Board of Relief, and have that Committee recommend the applicant to Presbytery as a suitable person to be granted a residence in the House. This recommendation must be approved by Presbytery and forwarded to the Board. Then, if the Board approves the application, the person is granted a free residence there from year to year upon the annual renewal of the Presbytery and the approval of the Board.

BY-LAWS.

We have added to Art. III. of the By-Laws two new sections: 3 and 4, which we respectfully ask the General Assembly to approve.

SEC. III. (1). The Committee on Applications shall consist of five members. It shall be the duty of this Committee to examine all new applications for aid, and to report whether they have been made in conformity with the regulations of the Board, and whether the amount of aid recommended by Presbyteries may be granted, having proper regard for the ability of the Board and the need of the applicant comparatively with other cases of need aided by the Board.

(2.) The Committee shall also watch over renewal of applications for aid, and report if there be cases where the amount of aid originally granted and still applied for should be reduced, or discontinued.

SEC. IV. The Ministers' House Committee shall consist of five members, and shall have general supervision of the House and grounds and the household administration; they shall determine and report to the Board upon the applications for admission to the House and on removals therefrom; they shall confer and advise with the matron and the guests of the House on matters touching the order and comfort of the family; they shall authorize necessary expenditures for the maintenance, repairs, alterations and improvement of the House and grounds, provided the cost thereof in any given case does not exceed three hundred dollars; they shall procure and keep in order all needed furniture, and buy food and all other supplies of proper quality and quantity; and shall audit the accounts of expenditures by subordinate officers, not directly authorized by the Committee.

RULES OF THE BOARD.

The various deliverances of the Assembly, and regulations adopted by the Board under the privileges granted to it by the Assembly, have recently been codified, and are embraced in the following Rules:

APPROPRIATIONS.

 Only members of Presbyteries in connection with the General Assembly of our Church, and the families of those who were at their death in such connection, and lay missionaries and their families are entitled to aid; and no adults shall be entitled to aid, who are not members of, and who do not acknowledge the jurisdiction, nor submit to the discipline of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, unless such extraordinary circumstances should exist, as to make it, in the judgment of the Board, wise and right to admit their claim.

2. The General Assembly of 1890 directed that in ordinary cases no appropriations can be made to ministers, simply because they are poor. In order to receive aid they must be disabled by disease, or the infirmities of age, so as to be unable to sustain themselves by some suitable employment. (Minutes of General Assembly 1880, p. 21, and 1889, p. 32.)

3. The General Assembly of 1880 directed "That, in case of a minister who voluntarily, and in health, leaves the work of the ministry for some secular employment, and follows that for a series of years, and then, by failure of business, has come to want, such a course should ordinarily be regarded as a voluntary relinquishment of all claim upon the funds of the Board." (Minutes of General Assembly

1880, p. 21.)
4. All appropriations are made for one year, unless otherwise ordered; and the renewals for appropriations must be made from year to year, except in cases of ministers honorably retired according to the provisions of Rule 7.

All the appropriations are paid in advance, provided the funds of the Board will allow this to be done. If the appropriation is not more than one hundred and fifty dollars it is paid in advance in one payment. When an appropriation is more than one hundred and fifty dollars per annum, it is paid in two equal installments, semi-annually in advance.

While the responsibility of recommending applicants rests with the Presbyteries, and these recommendations largely govern the action of the Board, yet there is reserved to the Board the right to appropriate according to the merits of the case, and the state of the treasury.

HONORABLY RETIRED MINISTERS,

Who have been in active service in the Presbylerian Church thirty years in the aggregate as Missionary, Pastor or Stated Supply.

Every honorably retired minister over seventy years of age, who is in need, and who has served our Church as a missionary of the Home or Foreign Board, or of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, or as a pastor, or stated supply, for a period in the aggregate not less than thirty years, shall be entitled by such service to draw from the Board of Ministerial Relief an annual sum for his support, without the necessity of being annually recommended therefor by the Presbytery. When such a minister shall certify to the Presbytery the fact and amount of his need, not exceeding $300.00 per annum, it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to forward the application to the Board, with his endorsement thereon as to the years of service such minister has rendered, his field or fields of labor, with the term of service in each, and also to certify that the same has been reported to the Presbytery and is recorded upon its minutes. It shall then be the duty of the Board to pay such annual amount so long as the applicant shall live, unless otherwise directed by the Presbylery or the applicant himself, in view of a change in his circumstances that may make the appropriation in whole or in part no longer necessary. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32; 1891, p. 33 and p. 44; 1894, p. 35.)

DISABLED MINISTERS,

Who have not been in the aggregate thirty years in active service in the Presbyterian Church as Missionaries, Pastors or Stated Supplies.

8. An annuity to a minister who has not been in the aggregate thirty years in active service in the Presbyterian Church as a missionary of the Home or Foreign Board, or of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, or as pastor or stated supply, is made on the recommendation of that Presbytery, or of a Standing Committee of that Presbytery, to which the applicant belongs; and the recommendation in each case must be annually renewed. An application for aid, in case of such minister, should state his age, his circumstances and the number of years he has been in the ministry; and the sex and age of the children who are dependent on him for support.

LAY MISSIONARIES.

9. The Assembly of 1889 directed as the best method for the present for supplying a felt need, that the names of regularly appointed Lay Missionaries of the Foreign Board and their families shall also be placed upon the roll of the Board the same as ministers. In their applications for aid, Lay Missionaries shall be governed by the rules that apply to ministers. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32, and Report of Board in Minutes of Assembly of the same year, p. 240.)

WOMEN.

10. Women who have given themselves to missionary work, and have labored five years under the Home or Foreign Board, or under the Board of Missions for Freedmen, may receive aid from this Board, upon the same conditions as ministers. They may be recommended by the Presbytery in the bounds of which they reside, or by the Presbytery having jurisdiction of the church of which such missionaries may be members, and their applications should have the endorsement of the Board under which they have held commissions. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1885, p. 592; 1888, p. 33; 1894, p. 35.)

11. If the applicant for aid be for a widow of a minister, it may be made by the Presbytery within whose bounds the family resides, or preferably by the Presbytery with which her husband was connected at the time of his death. (Minutes of General Assembly of

Unless the applicant is well known, the Committee of Ministerial Relief should always secure the endorsement of the session of the church of which the applicant is a member, to the effect that she needs, and is deserving of the aid for which application is made.

12. When a woman contracts marriage with a retired minister who is receiving aid from the Board, she shall not be entitled at his death to become a beneficiary of the Board.

13. The widow of a minister who remarries outside of the ministry, thereby relinquishes all claims upon the Board, and should she again become a widow she would not be entitled to aid.

14. Except in extraordinary cases, no appropriation will be made to the widow of a minister who has children able to give her support. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1880, p. 21.)

ORPHANS

15. Aid may be given to orphans of ministers and lay missionaries, as the General Assembly says, who are "under the age at which they are able to earn their own living," and in exceptional cases, to orphans who have been from early years "chronic invalids." The same rule applies in case of orphans asking for aid, as in the case of other beneficiaries of the Board in regard to recommendations and annual renewals. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32.)

GUESTS AT PERTH AMBOY.

16. Applications for admission to the Presbyterian Ministers' House, at Perth Amboy, N. J., are to be made by the Presbyterial Committee in accordance with the foregoing rules. Guests are admitted to the Ministers' House in lieu of an appropriation of money. Any guest of the House, who, in the judgment of the Superintendent, may be a hindrance to its usefulness and to the comfort of the other guests, shall be reported by her to the Committee in charge, who shall have power, after an investigation of all the circumstances, to recommend to the Board an appropriation in money for the support of such guest, in lieu of a residence at the House. Guests at the Ministers' House must be annually recommended for free residence there by the Presbyteries.

DEATH OF DR. CATTELL.

The Presbyterian Board of Relief, at its monthly meeting, held February 17th, 1898, unanimously adopted the following minute with reference to the Rev. William C. Cattell, D. D., LL.D., who departed this life on the 11th day of this month, at his home in Philadelphia.

"Since the last meeting of the Board, it has pleased Almighty God to call to his reward, its honored and beloved Secretary Emeritus, the Rev. Dr. W. C. Cattell, who died on the 11th and was buried in the cemetery at Easton, Pa., on the 14th day of the present month.

in the cemetery at Easton, Pa., on the 14th day of the present month.

In view of this event, the Board is called upon to record its sense of the great loss sustained by it and the Church in the removal from earth of this eminent and beloved servant of the Lord.

Dr. Cattell was in many respects a most unusual man. He had peculiar gifts of mind and temperament which made him almost singular in his personal attractiveness, and when these with his fine educational attainments were, as in his case they were so fully, informed by the indwelling of the Holy Spirit of God, and devoted to the divine praise in the service of men, he became a power well nigh irresistible in the accomplishment of the purposes of his life. Hence his great success as a teacher, pastor, college professor and President, and as Secretary of this Board, in all which departments of service he was pre-eminent.

Of this last duty to the Church the Board would speak particularly in this final minute concerning the friend who has now been called to rest from his labors. Dr. Cattell was a model Secretary of this Board. He would have distinguished himself in any one of the Boards of the Church which might have secured his services; but for no one of them had he so intrinsic fitness as for the executive of this Board of Ministerial Relief. Its work he approved as right and most scriptural, the neglect of which was alike most dishonoring to God and disgraceful to the Church, but it also appealed to, and enlisted to the full, his tenderly sympathetic nature, and so made him, whether by pen or tongue, a most persuasive and effective advocate of the sacred cause. So for nearly twelve years he wrought in season and out of season with unwearying and most successful effort, occupying till the summons came to him to rest a while before he should go up higher. It was but a brief while, a few short months only, and the man whom we all loved so much, having served his generation by the will of God, fell on sleep.

The members of this Board, associated with him, will thank God for every remembrance of him, till they meet him again. Meanwhile they seek grace for themselves that they may be like him in devotion to the blessed cause in their hands, even as he like his Master regarded it his meat to do the will of him who sent him into the world and to finish his work.

So friend and brother, we bid thee farewell, till the morning cometh."

ELECTIONS.

The term of service of the following Directors expires at this meeting of the Assembly: Rev. Henry E. Niles, D. D., Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D. D., who was elected to fill the unexpired term of Rev. William M. Paden, D. D., who resigned from membership in the Board on account of his removal to Salt Lake City, George Junkin, Esq., LL. D.,

and A. Charles Barclay, Esq.

Robert C. Ogden, Esq., of the class whose term expires May, 1899, resigned from membership in the Board on account of his removal to New York City, and Joseph M.
Collingwood, Esq., of the class whose term expires in May,
1900, resigned on account of the condition of his health.
The Board elected the following gentlemen to fill, until this meeting of the General Assembly, the vacancies caused by the acceptance of these resignations: Francis Olcott Allen, Esq., of Philadelphia, to fill the place of Mr. Ogden and Robert H. Smith, Esq., of Baltimore, Md., to fill the place of Mr. Collingwood. These vacancies are to be filled by this Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Board,

B. L. AGNEW,

May 5, 1898

Corresponding Secretary.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

The laws of the different States vary so much as to testamentary bequests that in making a will it is always desirable to secure the services of a competent lawyer. In all cases, however, where bequests are made to this Board, the corporate name should be used as follows:

"THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF RELIEF FOR DISABLED MINISTERS, AND THE WIDOWS AND OPPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS."

The Inexcusable Sin of Forsaking the Levite

BY REV. B. L. AGNEW, D. D.

Mr. Moderator, Fathers and Brethren:—After a year of intense anxiety we come to the General Assembly to-day with joy-filled hearts.

Two years ago the Board came to the Assembly with a debt of $9,673. Last year we came to the Assembly with a debt of $20,011, and we foresaw that, if the contributions kept falling off as they had been doing for nine years, and the list of Annuitants kept on increasing as we had reason to believe it would, we would incur a debt of probably $30,000 for the year closing March 31st, 1898, in addition to the debt of the year previous, compelling us to report a debt this year of at least $50,000.

Accordingly, last year we asked the General Assembly to permit us to use unrestricted legacies, if we should receive any, to meet current expenses, as all the other Boards have been in the habit of doing. That permission was unanimously granted by the Assembly.

We also reported to the Assembly that we would be compelled to withhold one-fourth of all appropriations (except those of men on the Honorably Retired roll), until the Board would be in funds to pay appropriations in full.

Our payments kept increasing during the year, for our roll of families increased from 835 last year to 875 for the year just closed, making our annuities amount to $178,981, or $5,771 more than they had ever been in the history of the Board.

We have done all we could to awaken an interest in this Sacred Cause, and by increased collections in the churches, by larger contributions from individuals and by the use of unrestricted legacies, together with the interest on our Permanent Fund, we have been able to pay our old debt, and to pay all appropriations in full, amd to come to this Assembly free of all indebtedness.

I said a few weeks ago, if we could pay all our appropriations in full, and to that extent, at least, relieve the unspeakable distress of hundreds of families on our roll, that I would be the happiest man in the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; and I feel like saying what a dear old brother wrote to me when he received his withheld fourth: "Hallelujah! Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

The tide has turned in favor of this hallowed cause, and, by your warm-hearted co-operation, I am sure we can induce the churches to do better in the years to come, but we must remove from the minds and hearts of our people every possible excuse for not contributing to this holy work.

Too many church members are like a man who was once asked for a subscription to Foreign Missions, and he said he did not believe in giving money to Foreign Missions because we have too many heathen at home. After a while he was asked for a contribution to Home Missions and he said he did not believe in giving money to Home Missions when they had so much to do in their own church. Then they thought when they wanted to put a fence around the church graveyard that they would receive a handsome subscription, but when they asked him for money for that good object, he said, "No, I won't give any money for such a purpose, because the people who are in the graveyard can't get out, and the people who are out don't want to go in!"

But it is a beautifully blessed thing that our people are not all constituted that way, and that there are plenty of benevolent souls who find a real luxury in exercising the grace of giving to every good cause of our Church when these causes are fairly presented to them and their necessities are clearly seen, and 594 more churches contributed to the Board last year than in any previous year. The churches during the past year gave $9,073 more to this cause than they did a year ago.

Yet, fathers and brethren, this is far from doing what our great and wealthy Church should do for her honored and disabled servants and for the families of our brethren who have fallen on the field of battle. Where does the money come from to pay our annuitants? During the past year $69,134 from interest on Permanent Funds; $83,164 from church collections; $15,743 from individual contributions, and the rest from unrestricted legacies. The church collections do not pay one-half of our annuities.

Your collections for this cause must steadily increase from year to year if the Board is to make as large appropriations as it has been doing. The average increase in our payments for the last twenty years has been $5,856 a year. Now, to keep up the increase in contributions of the year just closed, will require persistent effort and unflagging zeal.

When I was a young man, my cousin, Dr. D. Hayes Agnew, was just beginning to make his reputation as a surgeon, and we were talking one day about the elements of success in life and what constituted genius, and he said. "The only genius I know is hang on—everlasting hang on."

Now, my good warm-hearted supporters, who have made such a good beginning to turn the tide which has been going against this hallowed cause for nine long years, and which has by your efforts begun to roll the other way, let us join our efforts and pray that we may all be endued with this blessed kind of genius—"Hang on—everlasting hang on"—in arousing our churches to better work, to more generous giving, to a more magnanimous support of the noble veterans of the old blue banner who linger with us on the battle field, and make a better provision for the households of those who now lie in honored graves.

Mr. Moderator and Fathers and Brethren, let me this morning call the attention of this Assembly, and through the members of this body, the attention of our whole Church. to

The Inexcusable Sin of Forsaking the Levite.

I. The Sin of Forsaking the Levite is inexcusable because it is a deliberate violation of a positive law of God.

Turn over the pages of the law and see how it reads. In the Book of Deuteronomy, 12th chapter and 19th verse, it reads: "TAKE HEED TO THYSELF THAT THOU FORSAKE NOT THE LEVITE as long as thou livest upon the earth."

Deut. 14:27. "And the Levite that is within thy gates; THOU SHALT NOT FORSAKE HIM; for he hath no part nor inheritance with thee," i. e. he has given up all other forms of making a living for himself and family, and you must keep him free from worldly cares and avocations.

2 Chron. 31:4. "Moreover he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the Lord."

The King of the Kingdom of God laid down the law to his disciples in the New Testament times, Matt. 10:9-10. "Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses, nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat."

The inspired Apostle, Paul, declared the law of the Lord in most emphatic words, first asking these extremely significant questions of the Corinthians (1 Cor., 9:7, 13-14), "Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? Who planteth a vineyard and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock and eateth not of the milk of the flock?" "Do we not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? And they which wait on the altar are partakers with the altar?" "Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel;" and at another time Paul said to the Galatians, "Let him that is taught COMMUNICATE UNTO HIM," (or SHARE WITH HIM,) "that teacheth in all good things." When the Church neglects to do this the startling question comes ringing down from the eternal throne, "Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me." But ye say, "Wherein have we robbed thee?" And the answer is, "In tithes and offerings."

II. Another element entering into this Inexcusable Sin of Forsaking the Levite is an absolute want of fair play—the utter absence of all high sense of honor. It is a grievous violation of the royal law, "all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them," to work a man as long as there is any work in him, allowing him only his clothes and daily bread, and then when he can work no more to turn him out to starve, and yet this is largely what many of our Churches are doing with the ministers of the everlasting gospel!

These men could, of course, make more money at secular employments, but it is the glory of our ministry that we have so many well-educated College and Seminary graduates, who are willing to go to the frontier and preach the ever-blessed gospel on almost starving salaries; and when they give the fire of their youth, the strength of their early manhood, and the wisdom of their maturer years to the service of the Church, I submit that it is not fair-play to turn them out of their places and their homes and absolutely cut off all their income in their old days, and say to them practically, we have no use for you now and you must go and get your daily food where the cattle upon a thousand hills get theirs!

As one of our beloved fathers says, who does not expect to be aided by it in his old days, the Board of Relief, is emphatically, "OUR CAUSE." We do all we can to induce young men, often at great sacrifices, to prepare for the holy ministry. They nobly and faithfully serve the Church often on pitifully small salaries, and in their old days they are compelled to step aside and let younger and more active men take their places. Now, who are to provide for their actual wants?

Look at the Heraldic Seal of the Board of Relief. There you see the illimitable field of wheat, which is white already for the harvest. The old reaper has worked, and toiled, and borne the burden and heat of the day until he is able to work no more, and the young man full of hope and vigor takes him by the hand and earnestly and lovingly bids him retire from his arduous work, and go to the little cottage near at hand and enjoy his needed rest. The old man takes the loving counsel and lays down his sickle and takes up his home in the place of rest. Now, does it show a high sense of honor to leave him there with cupboard and coal-bin empty and bare, with the corroding and crushing thought upon his heart that the great Church he has served to the best of his ability all his active life is ungrateful to him after his hard, hard service has been faithfully rendered?

Is he not our brother? Does he not belong to our very kith and kin in the household of faith? Have we not the power to secure him his daily bread? Have we lost all sense of honor that we will not use the power in our hands to supply his wants, and to carry some sunshine into his little home, and make him feel that he still belongs to our fraternity? And have we so far lost our high sense of honor that we can see the widows of these faithful men who have labored by their side and cheered them on through many a secret trial which none but God and the faithful wives of these ministers have ever known, that we can see them suffer in their widowhood when they preeminently belong to our Sacred Circle of chosen friends?

Your own time may come to call upon the Board for help. Perhaps, you say, "O, no, I'll never need the aid of the Board, for I have provided for myself and my family, too." Yes, brother, that all sounds well and hopeful. But listen! A minister, blessed with great means, died and left the Board of Relief $50,000, to be handed over to us at the death of his aged wife. Where are the $50,000, and where is the aged wife? The money has disappeared and the aged widow, ninety years old, is receiving aid from our Board of Relief! No man can read the future! We have upon our roll some of the very brightest and best of our brotherhood, and I beg you, by all the considerations of fair play, by all that is manly in man, by all that is honorable in Christianity, that you will ever keep it in mind that this is preeminently "our cause"—our sacred, hallowed cause.

A dear old brother wrote to me the other day when he received a remittance from the Board, "It is a comfort to me now that I have never omitted to take a collection for the cause of Relief since I was ordained to the ministry," and when your time comes to ask relief it will be a comfort to you that you have always remembered in your active life this our Sacred Cause.

The marvellous thing to me is that only one in ten of our ministers fails to make provision for himself in his old days, or for his family in case of his death.

For this tenth we are bound by every consideration of fair play and by all the demands of a high sense of honor to make comfortable provision. The other Boards may retrench in their work, but the Board of Relief dare not in honor retrench. We have worked these men almost to death—until they can work no more, and when they are shut out from all fields of labor, to give them insufficient clothing and food, I have no hesitation in saying is wanton, wicked, Weylerite, and (if I may coin a word) concentradoan cruelty!

Do not say, my brethren in the ministry, that you cannot present this cause because it seems too much like pleading for one's self. Why, you cannot plead for yourself in presenting this sacred cause, because you cannot receive a dollar of the money raised while you are able to work, but you can present your brethren's cause to God's people and they will delight to bring a glad relief to the aged, honored, disabled ministers of our glorious old Church and to their suffering households. When, therefore, abundant help is within your reach, in the name of the King of kings, how can so many of our churches stand idly by and see our noble men of God and the households of our departed brethren suffer, and want, and pine, and die under a crushing sense of the ingratitude of God's professed people to whose welfare they sacrificed their youth and manhood and all their working powers?

III. Another element in the Inexcusable Sin of Forsaking the Levite is the absence of genuine philanthropy. The Socialistic, Altruistic, philanthropic idea, which is moving society to its profoundest depths to-day is that there must be a revival of the royal law, but the masses do not seem to realize that the royal law, "Do to others as you would have others do to you," is the divinely inspired teaching of the glorious old gospel of the Son of God.

Common humanity says that when a man has given all his strength and energy for the welfare of others and can work no more, he deserves warm-hearted, open-handed generosity and not soul-chilling, cold-hearted indifference!

Look at that touching scene in Washington at the Grand Encampment, when the old soldiers of the war were gathered there, and that magnificent procession of brave men was marching along Pennsylvania Avenue. An elegant carriage was provided for a heroic standard bearer of Lookout Mountain, who was no longer able to march with the Boys in Blue—dear "Old Jim."

While the battle of Lookout Mountain was raging in its fury, Jim was shot through the leg, but he still held up the old flag! Then he was shot through the side, but he still held up the dear old flag pierced by many a ball; and then, poor, brave boy, he was shot through both eyes and made entirely blind; but his brave heart bore him through all his sufferings and he recovered and gathered with the boys at the Grand Encampment, his heart full of joy and pride, but his old body unable to walk, and when he was about to get in to the elegant carriage provided for him to join the procession with the prancing horses to draw him through the streets, his loving old comrades would not have it that way, and they said "we are going to stick to Old Jim till he dies, and we have a wagon for him and he must get into that and we will haul him in the procession ourselves:" and Old Iim got into the wagon and his old comrades of the war, with tottering limbs and creaking bones hauled him along the avenue and gloried in his comradeship, and although Old Jim's eyes could see Old Glory no more, he proudly held up the old tattered flag as he had done in many a hard fought battle, and his comrades were glad to stick to him in his helpless days, and were the proudest men in all that long procession determined to honor Old Jim and make him as comfortable as it was possible to do.

Oh! Men of God! Shall we not stick to the Old Guard of the King's Army, the grand old men, who have given up all worldly glory and worldly avocations to fight our moral battles for us, and who are now disabled from all active service—some of whom are lame, and blind and in actual want? True, genuine philanthropy answers, emphatically, Yes, we will.

IV. Christianity says it is an Inexcusable Sin to Forsake the Levite because this forsaking is violation of all the principles of the religion of the Son of God.

See how Christianity presents the matter of Ministerial Support in addition to the positive ordination of God our Saviour, the King and Head of the Church.

When Paul was an old man in prison and received aid from the Philippians, he said in joyful thankfulness, "I have all, and abound: I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odor of a sweet smell, a sacrifice, acceptable well pleasing to God," (Phil. 4: 18.), and then in beautiful return for what he received, he said, "But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus." There is reward enough! What you give is regarded by the recipients as "an odour," a beautiful bouquet with the delightful fragrance of a sweet smell! Oh, then are you not willing to be an Epaphroditus to these grand old men who have served our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ with all their mind, and soul, and strength, and are now disabled from work?

Here are some specimens of gratitude—letters received when we paid the withheld fourth:

Here is a letter from a father 80 years old. "Your great favor in the shape of a $75 check reached me to-day for which I am very thankful to you, and still more so to Zion's Holy King, who only knows how unworthy I am of his favor! Oh! If I might talk again, or speak of the glory of his Kingdom!"

Another aged minister wrote: "May the best and the constant blessings of God abound to all his messengers who thus remember and help us: thus not only bestowing material help, but greatly cheering us by giving the evident assurance that though no longer able to work, we are cherished in the hearts of these members of God's great household as fellow members with them."

Another wrote, "I tell you it made me feel happy. I can't tell what a load this grant of the Board has taken from my mind. Surely God is good, and his people kind thus to care for those who, having borne the burden and the heat, find themselves in staitened circumstances in their declining years."

Another aged minister wrote: "I wish you and the dear brethren of the Board of Relief could look right into my heart this morning and see what a ray of sunshine and comfort that check has produced. God bless you and the Board, is the prayer of my heart."

When we sent a check for the withheld fourth to another blessed old brother, he wrote this letter: "It was a great but most agreeable surprise. I hope it gave you one-half the pleasure to send it that it caused us joy and gratitude in receiving it. To the Lord be the praise for all his goodness and loving kindness to us in our old age. May the Lord abundantly bless you and lay more largely yet the means in your hands to lift the dark clouds from the homes of God's veterans."

The letters from the widows of our departed brethren are just as full of gratitude.

One says, "On opening your letter this morning, Apr. 12th, containing a draft for fifty dollars I could but fall upon my knees and thank God for this timely assistance."

Another lady wrote: "This morning I was almost in despair, having just received a bill for six months rent and not a cent to pay it, and when I opened the letter and found your check, I could not help it, but the tears rushed to my eyes and I could not but bless God for his goodness and my heart went up in gratitude to you for this timely help."

Our Annuitants most thoroughly appreciate your benefactions and receive them in acknowledgment of the Christian spirit in which they are bestowed.

In a grateful letter I received the other day, a dear old brother expressed his thanks to the Board for what he had received, and then added, "Thank the Lord the ravens are not all dead yet." No, there are in the hearts of God's people still many living and willing ravens of mercy ready to carry God's supplies to his needy prophets; but good Dr. Cattell used to playfully say, "The ravens have gone out of business."

Dear Doctor Cattell! How we miss the sunny smiles of his benevolent face! But we shall meet him again in the sweet By-and-by with a face more radiant than ever! As his sunny face comes up to mind continually I think of a touching little story I recently heard of a scene down in Maryland. An engineer on a railroad there who was a Godless man, lived in a cottage that stood back from the road, and he had a dear little golden-haired girl, with a sunny face, five years old. When he went to work she would always go with him to the gate and say, "Good-by!" day a paling or picket of the gate was broken out and when he bade her good-by she put her little golden head and bright little face through the hole in the gate where the picket was broken and the father looked back and laughed at the sunny-faced child, and went on his way to his daily work with that beautiful vision before his mind all day long.

That same good-by was heard and that same bright picture was seen at the gate day after day for a long time, and when he returned home in the evening he always looked for the sweet little face to greet him at the gate. One day the child was taken sick, and when he went to work in the morning she did not follow him to the gate. Twenty-four hours passed away most wearily to the anxious father, who was longing for the hour to come when he would reach When his run was made, he was ordered out on a special for twenty-four hours more! His heart was aching all day long and all night through, and he thought the run would never be made! When at length he reached his home, there was no golden head at the gate, but there was white ribbon on the door! When he entered the house neither he nor his wife spoke a word, and when he was just ready to break down under his heart-crushing sorrow, his loving wife threw her arms around his neck and said, "Stop! Don't cry until I tell you what little Bessie said. I asked her what message she had to leave for papa, and she sweetly said, 'Tell papa that when I go to heaven I will ask Jesus to take a picket out of the gate and let me look through and watch for papa to come!""

The soul of that hard-hearted man was melted like metal in a furnace, and he kneeled down by the little coffin and then and there gave his heart to Christ and solemnly consecrated himself to God forever, and his influence for good has been felt all these months, since Bessie went home to watch for papa to come to the golden gate.

"Sweet little darling, light of the home, Looking for some one, beckoning come; Bright as a sunbeam, pure as the dew, Anxiously looking," dear one, "for you."

And there, too, I think I see the sunny face of the beloved Cattell, waiting and watching for the friends he has left on earth, and for the long line of those whose names are familiar to him, whose sorrows have often been relieved by his faithful and loving ministrations.

And now as God has taken him home, let us all consecrate ourselves to the great work in which he was so long engaged, and let his radiant face in glory be an inspiration to us all as we try to serve his and our Master.

When I stand between the 875 families dependent on the Board of Relief for daily bread, and one million communicants blessed with abundant means, I wish I had the persuasive power of dear Dr. Cattell, and, as a venerable brother prayed I might have, the eloquence of Demosthenes or Cicero, by God's help, to induce the grandest and most benevolent Church in the world to do one of the grandest things in the world that can be done, that is, to make as comfortable as possible the grand old disabled servants of this Church, who have done so much in the years that are past and gone to make this Church what she is to-day.

Picture in your imagination a walled town of over 3,000 people, long besieged by a powerful and resistless foe and all supplies cut off and their rations almost exhausted! These people have always been loyal to the government and have sent more brave, self-sacrificing officers to the wars of the government than all the other towns in the country. What would you think of a government that would let them remain in peril of starvation and death when the government was strong, and rich, and able at once to send relief and abundant supplies of daily bread? You would brand that government and all the people of the land who approved their cold indifference as lost to all honor, as guilty of base and black ingratitude, as utterly inhuman, and as not only unworthy of the respect of other nations, but as deserving of the severest condemnation of all mankind.

But stop! You may condemn yourselves! Here in our own enlightened America is a beleagured village of between three and four thousand people, composed of 342 old officers of the army of the Lord, of the Presbyterian Corps of the Sacramental Host, crippled, wounded, disabled soldiers and their households, nearly 100 of whom, all old officers, are over 80 years of age. In that town are 472 widows of officers in this army who have yielded their lives in the holy cause for which they fought. There, too, are 29 orphan families of the brave men who have died in the service at home, and there, too, are men and women who have done noble service in foreign lands.

They have been imprisoned in the walls of that village by an irresistible army of unrelenting forces of disease, and infirmities of old age, and the dreadful and harrassing powers of poverty: and they have exhausted all their commissary stores, and they are daily oppressed with care and anxiety and want, and an awful feeling that crushes a noble soul that arises from a sense of the ingratitude of those to whom they have given all the energies of their bodies and their minds as long as they were fit for active service; and Alas! Alas! One-half of the great Presbyterian Church stands almost idly by reading of their soul-piercing sorrows and do not deny themselves of a single comfort to send relief to the beleaguered town! What say you, fellow men, is it fair, is it honorable, is it right, is it christian? Or is it unkind, unfair, unjust, unrighteous, and unchristian?

When the English garrison at Lucknow of 1,600 was besieged by 60,000 Sepoys, and surrender to be butchered, or starvation within the fort, stared the besieged in the face, how they longed for the coming of the British army to bring relief! And what dreadful inhumanity it would have been for the British government not to have sent relief when they had it in their power to do so!

Day after day passed over their heads as they waited in in dread anxiety, and no relief came! Strong men's hearts sank within them and women died of starvation and excessive grief. Death threatened 1,600 within the fort from want of food. And without the raging, murderous 60,000 Sepoys roared and thirsted for their blood!

One day a poor, starving Scotch girl, acute of hearing, thought she heard away off, over the roar of the savage, howling Sepoys, a familiar sound that seemed to her like the sound of the pibroch, a highland air played on the bagpipes, a battle tune of her native land, the music so loved by the highlanders of Scotland; and the poor girl was so wrought up with the intensity of her excitement that she ran through the camp with her long disheveled hair, and her eyes as staring wild as a maniac's, shrieking as she ran: "Dinna ye hear it? Dinna ye hear it? 'Tis the pibroch of the Heelanders!" "Dinna ye hear it? Dinna ye hear it? 'Tis the pibroch of the Heelanders!" But the poor disheartened souls could only hear the mad, shrieking yells of the bloodthirsty savages without the walls, and they were distressed with the wild incessant cries of the excited girl within the garrison: the order went forth to silence the voice of the Scottish maiden, but they could not keep her quiet, and soon again the garrison rang with the loud cry: "Dinna ye hear it? Dinna ye hear it? 'Tis the pibroch of the Heelanders! 'Tis the pibroch of the Heelanders!"

And sure enough there was soon borne upon the air above the mad cry of the heartless, savage Sepoys, the old familiar strains that never fail to quicken the heart-beats of Old Scotland's Sons, and the sad despairing, beleaguered garrison heard the sweetest sounds that, perhaps, ever fell upon their ears, for the bagpipes were playing in royal earnestness, "The Campbells are coming!" Then strong men bowed down and wept in thankfulness to God, and women fell prostrate on the ground and cried aloud in gratitude to the living Lord for his goodness and mercy for Havelock was at the gates and deliverance had come!

Men of God, as you see your brethren and their dear ones besieged with sickness, the infirmities of age and the crushing pressure of poverty, vow solemnly before Jehovah that as far as your influence goes with the churches of our Presbyterian Zion you will see to it that this sacred cause of Ministerial Relief shall have a fair chance for a good collection, and that you will not stand idly by and see your brethren, whose honored heads are silvered for the grave, and the dependent ones in the homes from which has gone out the light of the leader and the help of his hands, suffer from neglect when our great Church has it abundantly in her power to send them glad relief, that their hearts may be made joyful with praises to the living God!

33d ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN

Of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

TO THE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

From March 31st, 1897, to April 1st, 1898.

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN respectfully presents to the GENERAL ASSEMBLY its THIRTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

The first paragraph of our last Annual Report told of the generous gift of the Barber Memorial Seminary to our work by Mrs. Phineas M. Barber, of Philadelphia, in memory of her husband.

Scarcely had the report been submitted to your Standing Committee on Freedmen, when a message flashed over the wires bringing the news that the main building of the institution, which had only been open for work about six months, had been totally destroyed by fire. Great as was the loss, there were some things to be thankful for. There was no sacrifice of life, although the fire had been burning for hours during the night while the inmates of the building lay asleep and unconscious of their danger. The alarm was given in time and the escape of teachers and pupils made possible; but not without the loss of some valuable personal effects.

The fire occurred very near the close of the term, thus causing through the intervening vacation period less interruption than if it had occurred at any other time of the year. The building also was amply insured and could be replaced with no serious additional outlay.

Rev. Geo. A. Marr, a brother of Mrs. Barber, who had superintended the erection of the former structure, began immediately the task of rebuilding, and without additional cost to the Board, save the small item of re-insurance, placed the new building at the service of the Board, January 1st, and the interrupted work was resumed under the new appointments, which are thought to be considerably better in some respects than the old ones. Representations of both these buildings accompany this report as a matter of interest as well as information.

While the work at Anniston, Ala., was delayed by the fire, the Mary Holmes Seminary, at West Point, Miss., and the Mary Allen Seminary, at Crockett, Texas, were both prevented from opening school at the usual time because of the prevalence of the yellow fever in that general section of the country, and the consequent arrest of travel within these states by the vigorous enforcement of quarantine laws. Mary Allen Seminary opened November 1st, and Mary Holmes Seminary December 1st, with no reported loss or inconvenience from the epidemic, other than the delay mentioned.

Beside these hindrances from fire and fever at the points named, our work at Biddle University suffered a distinct loss in the unexpected death of Prof. Wm. H. Brooks, D.D., the efficient and valuable Principal of the Preparatory Department of the University, who died of pneumonia, December 15th, 1897. His place has not yet been filled—the work of his chair for the remainder of the term being divided up among the other Professors, partly for economy's sake.

Aside from these interruptions and losses, the work both in its Church and its School departments has progressed during the year as well as could be hoped for, under the limitations imposed upon us by a narrowing up of the sum total of our yearly resources.

With a debt last year of $56,275, the Board did not feel like taking the responsibility of going on with the work without counsel from the Assembly.

A careful estimate for the year led us to think we could, with an income equal to the previous year of $132,128, bring our work down, by the strictest economy, to an expenditure of about nine thousand dollars less than that amount. Then, if the friends of the cause could be induced to increase their gifts to the amount of eleven thousand dollars more than the year before, we could reduce our embarrassing debt some twenty thousand dollars.

It was our earnest wish that this should be accomplished. The counsel of the Assembly was against cutting down the work, and the recommendation was that special effort be made among the churches to place this additional amount in the treasury of our Board. In all this our fond hopes were disappointed.

We did not get the eleven thousand dollars additional, but, on the contary, our income from all sources declined $3,228 as compared with the previous year. The estimates of the cost of the work for the year came reasonably near the figures we had fixed upon; but not only did the amount we had counted on receiving fall below our anticipations, but a considerable part of our reduced receipts came in a form not immediately applicable to the work, such as was for permanent funds, or as designated for some expenditure not anticipated by the Board, but of such a character as hardly to admit of objection to by the Board. this way the narrow margin between our proposed expenditure and our lessened receipts disappeared, and in spite of all we could do, our total indebtedness, instead of being diminished, was increased $1.787. Our debt now consists in loans from Bank and from individuals, amounting to $55,062.50, and a mortgage on one of our buildings for $3,000, making a total of $58,062.50.

Beginning the year with this debt, we will be obliged at once to secure additional loans to the maximum amount of not less than $85,000 before the receipts of the Board, which fall off during the Summer, will allow any reduction in the debt. Should there be any serious disturbance in financial circles, we would be unable to secure the accommodations needed, and would be under the painful necessity of suspending the payment of all salaries.

There are certain credits to special funds which we have carried on our books from year to year, which we have not been accustomed to include in our statement of debt, but which as they are called for in our work must be met from time to time out of the funds at our command. In 1894 these credits amounted to $21,300.97; in 1895, $12,232.55; in 1896, $23,638.80; in 1897, $23,803; in 1898, $22,760.33.

Disappointed as we have been in adding even the small amount of $1,784 to our already burdensome debt, we do not reproach ourselves for any reckless expenditure of funds placed at our command. We have reduced our work to a point where it would seem that a further reduction would, in many places, destroy it entirely. We have cut down salaries to where we can cut no more. To give our teachers less, or to further shorten the time of the schools, which is the same thing, is to lose good workers who can get more elsewhere, and substitute inferior ones, who are obtainable because they are inferior.

The supplementary aid we give to the ministers who preach the Word, is almost a reproach to the church at large, when we consider how small the sum total of the salary is on which we expect these ministers to live, and maintain the standing, influence and self-respect which the Presbyterian Church is accustomed to look for and expect in her ministry.

There has been no one year in the last nine years in which we received less, and it is also true that there has been no one-year in the last nine years in which we have spent less.

We have pushed economy to the verge of parsimony. This year we have spent less in Scholarships and general work; less in real estate; less in field salaries; less in office salaries; less in rent and stationary; less in printing.

We have taken up no new church work during the year, although men ready for the work have been crying, "Here am I, send me;" and groups of pious people, organized for service, have repeatedly said, "Come over and help us."

We have held our schools to the shortened terms mentioned last year, and in addition have further reduced their number from 67 to 53. We have passed by most tempting opportunities for doing good—too poor to seize them. Enterprises on which considerable money has been expended, driven to the wall by their pecuniary straits, have offered us what the world would call splendid bargains; but warned by the fear of the slight additional expense the acceptance of these offers would entail, we have reluctantly declined them all.

We have done more than this. We have, as will be seen by reference to the list that accompanies this report, a large amount of property scattered over the South, worth hundreds of thousands of dollars. This property needs constant care. The natural wear and tear calls yearly for an expenditure of repair money, as a matter of sound economy and good management. But our very poverty has made us wasteful.

In many cases the property has been greatly injured from the lack of timely expenditure of a moderate sum of money—all in order that we might save a few dollars with which to pay the small monthly salaries of ministers and teachers, on which they were depending for their living. We have been forced to this unbusiness-like course for several years, so that we must now at some early date spend thousands of dollars to preserve our property, where hundreds before would have sufficed. We have exemplified the proverb of Solomon: "The destruction of the poor is their poverty."

Notwithstanding all this depression and repression, there have been some rays of light along our pathway. The ingatherings to the churches have been encouraging. The growth of the work—so far as we would let it grow—has been healthy.

The workers in both school and church have given satisfaction, and we doubt not the kingdom of God, as represented by our church among the colored people of the South, has during the past year had its foundations deepened and broadened, and better fitted every way for the future structure which it is yet to sustain.

We have reason to feel that very many earnest souls throughout the church are deeply interested in this work, and that, through their prayers and their efforts, God will yet bring us out of our straits.

The first year of returning prosperity shows a turn in the tide of missionary offerings to our cause, and a fuller flow of the stream of benevolence that, like the River of Life, makes glad the City of our God.

The Churches, the Woman's Societies, the Young People's Societies and the Sabbath Schools, all gave more this year than last, and altogether have increased the sum total of their contributions $6,138.70. The loss has come from a decrease in legacies—lower than it has been for ten years—and a decline in miscellaneous and individual contributions.

The Freedman's Department of the Woman's Board exceeded their offerings of last year by over $3,600—sending us the generous sum of $45,108 this year, as compared with $41,491 last year. The various Woman's Societies of the Church deserve the special thanks of the Board for the way in which they have come to our relief and helped us to bear our heavy burdens.

Especial attention is called to the report of Mrs. Coulter, General Secretary of Freedman's Department of Woman's Board, which will be found, as usual, printed as an appendix to this Report.

Miss Mary E. Holmes, Ph. D., of Rockford, Ill., continues to act as Freedman's Secretary of the Northwest, giving freely of her time and energies, expecting the Board in turn only to meet the light expenses of correspondence and travel. Her labors, which have been abundant during the year, have been attended with gratifying results.

The employment of Rev. Dr. Weaver as a special agent for Biddle University, which met with the approval of the Assembly, is a venture which will need another year in which to determine its practical wisdom. Dr. Weaver has, during the year, rendered most diligent services, and from very many sources we have received expressions of the highest appreciation of his work, but the results so far have not added materially to our receipts.

Soon after his engagement by the Board an unusually excellent collection of lantern-slides, setting forth the character and extent of our work, was prepared by Rev. David R. Breed, D. D., a member of the Board, and placed under the charge of Dr. Weaver as an accessory to his work. Pittsburgh churches were first visited by Dr. Weaver with the lantern-slide exhibition, with gratifying results as to collections toward meeting expenses, as to the most favorable impressions made by the pictures themselves, and as to Dr. Weaver's every way satisfactory presentation of the same. In subsequent presentations of the work in this form elsewhere the results have not been so good, and while the Board clearly feels that Dr. Weaver should continue another year in this work, the question of future methods of procedure will have to be considered later by the Board.

The number of churches contributing to our cause this year, directly or through one or more of their organized agencies, was 4,490. A gain of 232 over last year.

The amount contributed for self-support, none of which goes through the Board's treasury, or enters into our accounts, was $65,975.01.

The Freedmen gave to the support of their own ministers and churches $34,562.57.

To the support of their own schools $31,412.44.

With our income as it is, we can barely maintain the work as at present established. We cannot do this and pay our debt, nor can we spare from our salary fund the money that should be spent in keeping our property in good repair.

The only part of the work we can well reduce, without reducing our own resources, is the church work. Much of the money which maintains the schools comes from the Woman's Societies, Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies, already pledged for some particular school; often for a particular teacher or scholar. To close the schools is, in many cases, to close up work with money practically in hand with which to do that work—money that otherwise would not likely come to us at all.

The other alternative is to close up some of the churches and say to the ministers, whom we have trained in our own schools and sent out under the commission of the Presbyterian Church to preach the gospel to their own people, We cannot maintain you. Close up the Churches of Jesus Christ! Say to these men whom we have trained to believe our creed and love our Church: Go, seek other fields—reconstruct your theology and find homes in other denominations!

We do not believe the Church is ready to give this word of command.

Our own best judgment is—if the Assembly assents—to carry the debt for the present as best we can; maintain the work in its present proportions; continue to lay the claims of the work on the conscience of the Church, and go carefully, prayerfully on, hoping and trusting that God, in his own good time, may open up the way through special gifts from special friends, directly or by bequest, by which the load may be removed.

The term of service of the following named members of the Board expires with this Assembly: Rev. Solon Cobb, D.D., Rev. David R. Breed, D. D., Mr. George Logan, Mr. S. P. Harbison.

We ask that they be re-elected.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen, appointed by the General Assembly in session at Winona Lake, Ind., this year, in its report, among other things made the following statements:

"The Board deserves commendation for its earnest attempt to realize the hope expressed a year ago, that the debt resting upon it might be diminished. Economy has been exercised to the extreme limit in every department of the work."

"During the past year the Board has received from all sources $128,900, a part of which was to be invested in the permanent fund, or was designated for some work not expected by the Board and yet of such a nature that it could not be objected to.''

"It had cash on hand April 1st, 1897, $1,413.47, making total money in its treasury for the year, $130,313.47. the same time it has expended for all purposes, including the payment of annuities and investment of gifts for the permanent fund, $131,515.96, and on April 1st, 1898, had cash on hand, $585.01. It reports a present debt of $58,062.50."

"This situation is a great disappointment, but cannot be charged as a reproach against the Board. The Presbyterian Church is the party at fault. It has not supplied the funds and must not attempt to shift the responsibility from its shoulders."

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

- 1st. That the minutes of the Board for 1897-98 be approved by the General Assembly.
- and. That Rev. Solon Cobb, D.D., Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., Mr. George Logan and Mr. S. P. Harbison, members of the Board whose terms expire with this Assembly, be re-elected as their own successors.
- 3rd. That the Board of Missions for Freedmen be instructed to conduct its' work during the present year within the limit of lastayear's expenditures.
- 4th. That the Board, acting through the Presbyterial Committees, make enthusiastic and persistent effort to secure an offering from every congregation in the Church, equalling at least an average of 20 cents for each communicant.

FREEDMEN'S DEPARTMENT

OF THE

Woman's Board of Home Missions.

The Freedmen's Department of the Woman's Board of Home Missions would respectfully submit its Fourteenth Annual Report.

While we have deeply felt the necessity which led the Board of Missions to close fourteen additional schools this year, we are thankful so many have been left, and have endeavored, as far as possible, to relieve the Board by securing teachers salaries and scholarships.

The Treasurer of the Board has received, through the Woman's Board of Home Missions, $45,108.73 This is an increase of $3,617.14 over the receipts of last year. Excluding legacies received this year and last, the actual increase from societies is $5,417.14.

Of the money received, $14,230.49 was for salaries; $13,319.-59 for scholarships; $2,098.56 for general work of the schools; $949.26 for building, and $14,510.83 for the General Fund of the Board. A few societies sent direct to the Treasurer of the Board. He received in this way $263.80, making the total through Women's Societies $45,372.53.

Contributions have been received from 2,124 societies, 319 more than last year. The interest thus shown and by the increased gifts is certainly greater than ever before, and the growth is a healthy one. It arises from a clearer knowledge of the work and is due very largely to the faithful efforts of Synodical and Presbyterial Secretaries for Freedmen.

There has been also a little advance in Box Work. About 400 boxes and barrels have been reported. The value of these, as far as given, is $12,492.58. We have reason to believe that more were sent than reported.

Miss Mary E. Holmes, Ph. D., Freedmen's Secretary for the North West, has been indefatigable in her efforts and has accomplished much in securing a working interest in the societies of that region. There has been an equal increase of interest in our Eastern Synods, notably in that of New Jersey. We have been temporarily deprived of Mrs. Swift's valuable services during the year, but feel that much of the increased interest is due to her faithful work last year. Miss Jackson, of Haines School, Augusta, Ga., addressed several Synodical and Presbyterial Societies last fall and this spring. Her visits were very helpful in awakening and increasing interest. Mrs. Dr. Satterfield, of Scotia, has also this Spring visited Societies in Michigan, Pennsylvania and New York, and as usual a deeper interest is felt wherever she has spoken. Dr. Weaver also has addressed several societies with great acceptance. We would gratefully acknowledge that the principal work has been done by our earnest Synodical and Presbyterical Secretaries, some of whom, by invitation, have addressed Presbyteries not their own.

The work upon the field continues to be of great interest. The character of our schools is sometimes misunderstood and consequently their great importance to the work committed to the Board of Missions for Freedmen, underrated. They do more than give intellectual training. In all our boarding schools, and, as far as possible, in our parochial schools, such industrial training is given as will enable a pupil to earn a livelihood, if necessary, by manual labor. In our girls' schools, laundry work, cooking, chamber work, plain sewing, dress making, and in some of the schools nurse training is added to the curriculum, and they are graded for this work just as in the class room. boys and young men are taught carpentry, cabinet making, masonry, plastering, painting, shoe-making, tailoring, printing and farming. Some of the buildings belonging to the Board are the work of the young men connected with our schools. of our parochial schools, boys, as well as girls, learn to sew.

But our schools go beyond the mere industrial and intellectual training. They are distinctly religious in their character. Joseph Parker well said: "You cannot train men by the intellect alone. You must take hold of manhood by the heart if you would train it into strength and dignity and usefulness." This is what is attempted in our schools. It is this that justifies their existence and lends force to our pleas for them. How well they are accomplishing this will be seen from the answers to questions sent to the Principals, asking what plan, if any, had been adopted for Bible study in their schools. The replies have been most satisfactory and it has been a surprise to find how thorough the instruction has been in almost every case.

In Biddle University, beside the weekly Bible lesson and the lessons in Sabbath school, which all the students are required to attend, the Shorter Catechism is taught. The plan is to get through the entire Catechism during the school year. At Scotia the Bible story is studied in the Sabbath school under Dr. Satterfield's direction, he giving outlines on Thursday evening of each week, teachers and scholars taking it down in note books. A doctrinal course is given in morning chapel, of which they have printed subjects. There is also a devotional course for morning prayers in the dining room, consisting mainly of memorizing and reciting gems of Scripture. The Wednesday evening prayer-meeting is a genuine normal class. The school is divided by roll so each teacher has a division. They meet in the class room; and while the teacher guides, the older girls take turns in leading and all are free to take part. When these girls go out to work they conduct prayermeetings and Sabbath schools. such training we do not wonder that they enjoy the presence of the Holy Spirit and that 245 of the pupils are church members. At Mary Allen Seminary the plan of Bible study embraces the whole Bible, with a recitation every morning except Saturday. On Sabbath they follow the International lessons, and in the morning chapel exercises the International daily readings, in which the entire school takes part. All study the Shorter Catechism, finishing up with Scripture proofs which are memorized. Dr. Smith writes: "The great reason of the influence of the school on the lives of its students, even in those who do not become Christians here, is in the great amount of Bible truth brought to bear upon them from the Bible itself and our excellent Catechism.'' Here, too, we do not wonder that of more than 200 pupils but nine are not professing Christians. At Ingleside Seminary they have a regular Bible course extending through four years of the Seminary course and concluding with one year of Church history. The Shorter Catechism is studied during the entire course—the first year is devoted chiefly to memorizing it. During the fourth year the Scripture proofs are taken up, and the fifth year Mr. Campbell gives talks upon the Catechism, which really constitute a practical study of Theology. again, the seed sown has ripened into a harvest. Of 111 girls in the school, but four are not professing Christians. Mr. Campbell writes: "The marked improvement in manners and morals Ogle of our higher classes, the earnest Christian work and the sustained Christian lives of nearly all our graduates are the greatest encouragements that come to us in a work that is beset with difficulties and trials." Mary Holmes Seminary has a short term this year, as the yellow fever prevented its opening until December. They are studying with great interest and profit "The Gospel History of Jesus Christ." All study the Catechism. A new and strong impulse has been given to its study by seeing the beautiful copy of the Bible one of the pupils received for reciting it perfectly. Dr. Payne writes: "You will be interested to know that there is an increasing desire among both teachers and scholars for a deeper work of the Spirit in our midst. This was manifest in our teachers' prayer-meetings tonight. It is also seen in the students' prayer-meeting started and maintained by themselves every afternoon. It is manifesting itself in the expressed interest of Christians in the salvation of the unsaved and in the seriousness of some of those who have been thoughtless about their eternal interests. Of the 104 pupils in this school, 83 are professing Christians." It is too soon to look for large results at Barber Memor-The beautiful new building, after having been occupied six months, was burned May last, and the scholars dispersed. The ashes were not cold before Mrs. Barber and the friends were arranging for rebuilding. Work was pushed forward and a new building, with some improvements suggested by experience, was ready to be opened for students in January. The teachers are finding the difficulties always encountered when a number of untrained girls are first brought together. Yet, here, too, there is progress. The Bible is studied every day. Three classes are studying "The Life of Christ;" the fourth class is in "Old Testament History." The school can recite, perfectly, many passages of Scripture. Mr. Crawford writes: "Our encouragement is in the need of the work being done, and the belief that God will give the blessing in his own way. Two thirds of the scholars are professing Christians."

We find similar teaching and results in our mixed schools and where day pupils are also admitted. At Brainerd Institute the Bible is the first recitation. Prof. Marquis assigns the amount of work that must be done in each grade, and the Bible is carried to school with other books and regular work is done in it. Bible History is used as a text-book in the High school. All study the Catechism. Mrs. Marquis writes: "The religious interest was never greater than during this year and the spiritual life of the students was never on so high a plane." The same kind of religious training is carried on at Haines School, Augusta, Ga., and with the same results. A series of meetings were held during the week of prayer and the two following Miss Laney writes: "Those who were trying to follow the Master, but often were a great way off, came nearer to the Saviour." Throughout the school there have been 37 conversions. All the boarders are Christians except four. In Ferguson Academy the Bible is taught to four classes. All the school have learned a few Psalms, the Beatitudes and the Commandments. The boarding students have studied the Catechism and committed verses for recitation every evening. Mr. Amos says:. "I think it would be difficult to find the same number of students able anywhere to surpass these in reciting the Scriptures." Harbison Institute "Bible Outlines for Christian Workers" is used in connection with the Scriptures and Shorter Catechism. Mr. Elliott writes: "We do feel that the religious influence in Harbison is strong to induce all who attend to become Christians." Swift Memorial Institute has the Bible taught in the various departments by the teachers in charge, and it is read systematically at morning and evening devotions. All study the Catechism. Mr. Franklin says: "The spiritual condition of our school has improved greatly. The impovement has been so marked that it has been frequently mentioned." Our schools in Arkansas all give thorough instruction in Bible and Catechism. Richard Allen Institute has enjoyed an outpouring of the Spirit, and Mr. Johnston rejoices in numbers being brought into the fold. Mr. Potter, of Cotton Plant, reports the spiritual condition of the school much improved. Mr. Mebane, of Monticello, writes: "Our object is to increase the knowledge of the Bible. these homes are without Bibles and it is oftentimes distressing to see how little they know about God's Word." The pupils at Oak Hill, Ind. Ter., in addition to the regular plan for Bible study, commit verses every Sabbath afternoon and review each Sabbath what they had learned the previous one, this fixing it in their memory. Walling ford Academy, Goodwill School and Kendall Institute, in South Carolina, all report studies in Bible and Catechism. Mr. Davis, of Goodwill School, adds: "Some conversions have been attributed to the morning Bible lessons." Kendall Institute has been peculiarly blessed in the large number of conversions. Mary Potter School at Oxford, N. C., Holbrook Street School, at Danville, Va., and the school at Madison, Ga., pursue different plans, but all find the results encouraging. Google The Parochial Schools of Jetersville, Nottoway, Chula, Ridgeway and Stuart, Va., all have a regular plan for Bible study. Blacksburg, McConnellsville, Blackstock, Winnsboro and Ridgeway, S. C., and Newnan, Ga., study the Bible and Catechism regularly. In Lothian, Md., the Bible is read by the pupils and explained by the teacher and the Catechism is studied. Can we not look upon the more than 400 conversions reported in connection with these schools as the result under God of the faithful study of His Word?

It is when we look upon our closed schools and the mass of ignorance and superstition still untouched, and see the readiness of God to bless our efforts, that we realize the great opportunity for good and how little we are doing. Carlyle says: "That there should one man die ignorant who had capacity for knowledge, this I call tragedy." How many such tragedies occur in our own country every hour. We can rush to the relief of the Cubans, even though it costs the lives of many of our brave men and millions of money, but can calmly hear of those at our own doors starving for the "Bread of Life" and do nothing for them. The increase of numbers and crime would overwhelm us, did we not know that the work is the Lord's?

"Did we in our own strength confide, Our striving would be losing,"

But in God is our strength.

"A mighty fortress is our God, A bulwark never failing; Our helper he, amid the flood, Of mortal ills prevailing."

Respectfully submitted, MRS. C. E. COULTER, Gen'l. Sec'y.

THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF AID

FOR

COLLEGES AND ACADEMIES.

Fifteenth Annual Report to the General Assembly

THE COLLEGE BOARD begs leave to submit its Fifteenth

Annual Report.

It records a year of unparalleled calamity and gracious deliverance. The Board walked in the valley of the shadow of death, but goodness and mercy followed it and overtook it. We became a reproach to our neighbors, a scorn and derision to them that were round about us. Then cried we unto the Lord: Remember not our iniquities against us; let thy tender mercies prevent us, for we are brought very low; help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name, and deliver us. He is a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, and he helped us with a great deliverance.

THE UNPARALLELED CALAMITY.

The Board supposed on Tuesday, 6 July, 1897, that it held a large amount in cash and securities; the next day it learned that $45.12 constituted its entire assets, the Treasurer, Mr. Charles M. Charnley, having embezzled the remaining $61,239.06.

Mr. Charnley was appointed a member of the Board by the General Assembly of 1883, which organized it. He was chosen its first Treasurer, and served eight years without salary. After the wreck of his business, caused by his assuming the liabilities of an erring relative to shield him from criminal punishment, the Board paid him a small salary. He was the Board's nursing-mother, carrying it in his heart and his arms, acquainting himself with every detail of its work, advancing money freely in its seasons of low receipts, and though burdened with large business interests, giving it unstinted time and labor.

Thirty years of modest, faithful, kindly, generous and successful life in Chicago; three decades before the people as good husband, kind father, true friend, irreproachable and-active church member and officer, and the architect of a comfortable fortune, seemed to merit the confidence which he received, and led to his having, without seeking it, the handling of trust funds for several organizations and many relatives and friends. The present Secretary of the Treasury of the United States told the President of the Board, not long ago, that he had the most unbounded confidence in Mr. Charnley's business ability and integrity. Some men known the world over for their good judgment of men and affairs, as proved by their success, had similar confidence, and some of them paid very high for it.

It was suddenly discovered in July that Mr. Charnley had lost his property by a series of calamities, had been speculating on the Board of Trade through brokers, and had embezzled the funds and securities of the Board, funds of his church, other trust funds, an estate of which he was executor, and other funds and securities of relatives, friends and business associates. His deceptions of the Auditing Committee of this Board were found to have been amazingly skillful, including the forging of a certified check for $24,000. The officers of the Board forced Mr. Charnley's confession and resignation, declined to consider proposals to accept money to let him go, assured his not escaping, and called a meeting of the Board.

The Board placed the case in the hands of the surety company which was on Mr. Charnley's bond, and they took him in custody. While in their custody and while the case was in preparation for the Grand Jury he escaped. Every effort has been made to trace and arrest him, but not a clew has yet been discovered.

THE GRACIOUS DELIVERANCE.

When the calamity became known there was widespread desire to help. An honored friend loaned $10,000 for immediate necessities. Members of the Board, of Chicago Presbytery and of the synods of Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin and New Jersey made prompt and generous contributions or subscrip-Churches and individuals everywhere sent expressions of sympathy and confidence, and unsolicited aid. From home and foreign mission fields, from rich churches and from struggling ones, from many loyal and generous hearts came kind words and gifts. Chairmen of synodical and presbyterial committees rendered effective service. It is impossible to express the gratitude due to all these servants of God, and to the Lord whose Spirit moved them. They show convincingly the power of the grace of God in his Church. The Lord reward them.

FINANCES.

The goodness of God through his people has enabled the Board to close the year without a deficit, and, without using any of the ordinary income of the Board for the purpose, to replace nearly all the embezzled funds except a small remainder for which we hold good pledges.

Expenses.

Notwithstanding large and unexpected expenses caused by the defalcation, the Board reduced its expenses twenty per centum below those of the preceding year.

INSTITUTIONS.

The Board has aided twenty-eight institutions. This has been on the whole the most prosperous year in their history. The number of students was 2,733, being (for the same institutions) a gain of 16. There are gains over the preceding year of 28 College and 38 Academic students, of 141 in Systematic Bible Study, and of 105 in Church members. There were 69 less in Classical study, 15 fewer credibly converted, and one less meaning to be ministers.

Their Needs.

Growing children need larger clothes. The Church must provide for these struggling children of hers larger buildings and more teachers, apparatus and libraries. It is pathetic to see a few teachers whose splendid, work has attracted students, endeavoring to handle too many pupils in crowded rooms with insufficient apparatus. We should suppose that the Presbyterian Church, the friend of learning and of the Word of God, would be anxious to aid such institutions. Doubtless the Church would if it knew about them; but certainly not one-third of our ministers, probably not one-tenth, have told their people about this work. The General Fund income of the Board should be at least $150,000 to handle the institutions now on its list.

And they must be endowed, and that soon. Their tuition charges are necessarily slight, to enable them to compete with state institutions; children of ministers and students for the ministry and other special cases commonly pay no tuition; so that these institutions, with their good buildings, all but two or three free from debt, and having the confidence of the churches in their regions, must receive endowment to make their work permanent. Those who desire to invest money advantageously for the present and future good of the cause of Christ in our country, should supply the Board with means which will enable it to offer from $5,000 to $25,000 for permanent productive endowment, on condition that the institutions should raise certain amounts. Unless this shall be done, some schools and colleges which have done exceedingly fine work and have now good property free from debt, and a growing student clientage, will in a few years be forced by the competition of state schools to close their doors—an everlasting shame and disgrace to our great Church.

Assignment of Fields.

In accordance with the instructions of the General Assembly of 1896, fields for solicitation of Property Funds have been assigned to a number of institutions. The representative of one college has had fair success; three others have secured enough to warrant farther effort with hope of reasonable outcome; but the rest have not always secured funds sufficient to cover their salaries and expenses.

Will our Church leave these institutions, founded by its directions and encouraged by its promises, loyal to its rules and fully under its control, to struggle in vain? Or will stewards of their Lord's funds open their ears, their hearts and their purses to our solicitors? The future of our Church in the West depends greatly upon the practical reply made to these paramount questions.

PLAN FOR THE CLASSIFICATION OF INSTITUTIONS.

It has been found impracticable to carry out this plan fully this year; more time is necessary to make the plan clear to institutions, to give them an opportunity to work up its requirements and to ascertain exactly where they rank according to the plan. It is hoped that another year may see it carried out. The plan may be found at pages 20-23.

EDUCATION DAY.

More churches every year heed the recommendations of previous Assemblies, to use a Sunday near the Day of Prayer for Schools and Colleges as Education Day, instructing their people regarding the place of the divine Word in true education. The rapid and complete secularization of our state schools and universities throughout the West, banishing the Holy Bible and prayer from the precincts of learning, should arouse our people to the peril of western youth if our Christian institutions are not strongly reinforced. Our religious papers are doing admirable work in this behalf, and the situation is not without much promise. The general observation of Education Day would assure the instruction of our people on this subject.

MEMBERSHIP.

The Hon. Homer N. Hibbard, L.L. D., died 14 November, 1897. A minute adopted by the Board at its next meeting said: "The Board desires to express its high appreciation of "the fidelity that has marked his service to the Board through-"out its entire history. He has been from the first one of its "active members. He has been one of the most constant in "attendance upon all its meetings. He has ever shown a hearty "alacrity in undertaking the discharge of any trust committed "to him by the Board's action."

Mr. Thomas Kane resigned his membership in June, 1897, because of his inability to give attention to the business of the Board.

Mr. Charles M. Charnley resigned his membership in July, 1897.

The Hon. R. H. McClellan and Mr. Dexter A. Knowlton resigned their membership in February, 1898.

The term of service of the following members expires with this meeting of the General Assembly, namely: MINISTERS—Herrick Johnson, D. D., LL. D., Wm. O. Ruston, D. D., W. P. Kane, D. D., and John L. Withrow, D. D., LL. D.

LAYMAN-W. H. Swift, Esq.

CONCLUSION.

The Statistical Tables, Map, General Information, Treasurer's Report and Plan for Classification of Presbyterian Educational Institutions which accompany this, are parts of the Board's Annual Report to the General Assembly.

All of which is respectfully submitted by order of the Board.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS.

The following are the chief provisions under which this Board has been constituted, as determined by the Act of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in session at Saratoga, N. Y., May, 1883:

The name of this Board shall be the Presbyterian Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies, and the general work shall have the limitations indicated by its title.

The Board shall consist of twenty-four members, divided into three classes, composed equally of ministers and laymen, and one class shall be elected each year.

The province of the Board shall be to secure an annual offering from the churches for this cause; to coöperate with local agencies in determining sites for new institutions; to decide what institutions shall be aided; to assign to those institutions seeking endowment the special fields open to their appeals, that clashing between them may be avoided; and to discourage all independent appeals to the church at large.

The funds received by the Board shall be devoted either to current expenses of struggling institutions or to permanent endowments.

The funds shall be secured (a) by annual offerings from the churches, mainly for current expenses of the institutions; (b) by special applications for endowment under the approval and general direction of the Board.

Every institution hereafter established, as a condition of receiving aid, either shall be organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, or shall, by charter provision, perpetually have two-thirds of its Board of Control members of the Presbyterian Church.

In the case of institutions already established and not included under the above provisions, appropriations for endowment shall be so made as to revert to the Board whenever these institutions shall pass from Presbyterian control.

In all other respects the disbursement of funds by the Board shall be wholly discretionary with the Board, both as to amount and direction, subject always to the control of the General Assembly.

WANTED: GIFTS.

- 1. For the General Fund; derived from church annual offerings (to be made in February if convenient), and individual gifts; from which appropriations are made to the current expenses of institutions. Only institutions whose charters or articles of incorporation place them in the control of the Presbyterian Church are aided; and no institution may incur indebtedness while connected with the Board. Demands upon this fund increase more rapidly than the churches' gifts to it.
- 2. For the Property Fund; derived from individual gifts and bequests; used to aid institutions in (1) Paying off remaining indebtedness; (2) Adding needed buildings or other equipment; (3) Obtaining endowment.

The Board, offering part of the amount needed, stimulates local giving of the rest, bringing to the Church property worth from three to five times the amount of the gift. Requiring adequate insurance on buildings and their contents, and taking a mortgage on the institution's property, the Board secures to the Church forever not only its own gift, but the entire property. Gifts should be made through the Board in order to secure the Church's perpetual hold upon them. Personal gifts and bequests, either for designated institutions or to be distributed in the Board's discretion, are increasingly needed.

- (1.) DRBTS. A few institutions are embarrassed, their growth hindered, their income partly absorbed in interest payments, by indebtedness mostly small compared with the values of the properties.
- (2.) EQUIPMENT. Successful institutions with increasing patronage require additional buildings and enlarged equipment.
- (3.) ENDOWMENT. Most of our schools are unendowed. The Board's income is not sufficient to carry all these and to aid new schools. Schools of approved worth must be endowed.
- 3. Solicitation of Funds by representatives of aided institutions is forbidden, except in fields assigned to them or from personal friends; See pages 15-16.

APPLICATIONS FOR AID.

- 1. Ownership. Ownership and control of institutions expecting aid must be vested in an ecclesiastical corporation belonging to our denomination; or in a board of trustees annually elected or nominated by such an ecclesiastical corporation; or in a board of trustees, two-thirds of whose members shall always be, by stipulation in the charter or articles of incorporation, members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.
- 2. Determining Sites. The Act of General Assembly constituting the Board directs it "To coöperate with local agencies in determining sites for new institutions." It should be consulted before a projected institution expecting its aid is located.
- 3. Selecting Institutions. The Board is also "To decide what institutions shall be aided." The territory is vast; communities needing Christian schools are innumerable; local offers of land, buildings, cash for starting schools are multitudinous; the Board's resources are limited; the multiplication of small colleges and schools cannot easily outrun the need, but does outrun the Church's contributions for their aid; the Board must make selection.
- (1.) RELATIVE LOCATION. Remoteness from other Christian schools and from State institutions is a claim. Ordinarily but one Presbyterian college can be aided in a State until the Presbyterians of the State can support that and aid a new one beside. No academy in the vicinity of another Presbyterian school will be aided.
- (2.) POPULATION. To preëmpt for the Church strategic points which are to become influential centers is sound policy; yet neither may sanguine expectations of new settlers be always accepted as prophecies of future greatness, nor may places already populous and growing be neglected.
- (3.) PROPERTY FOUNDATION. A new institution should have a property foundation sufficient to assure, with moderate aid from the Board, the meeting of its annual expenses at the outset. No new institution having indebtedness may expect current aid; but the Board will try, in cases of exceptional merit, to aid in removing the debt.

- (4.) LOCAL INTEREST. Land and cash offered as real estate speculation, with no vital local interest in a Christian school, do not invite the Board's aid; for the Board cannot provide all or one-half what will be needed eventually, but stimulates by its offers that local giving which must be the main reliance. The Board has settled policy to help institutions which, by a local spirit of fostering generous aid, have promise of large future. The Lord's money must be invested by its steward, the Board, where the largest returns are probable.
- (5.) EDUCATIONAL WORK. The Board is set to aid colleges and academies, not low grade schools, and to foster classical study which high schools rarely provide. Yet where an academy can increase income and draw pupils to advanced studies by teaching lower or commercial branches, and where a college can increase income and lead students into its college courses by doing preparatory work, this is approved. But in all institutions a high and rising grade of educational work is expected.
- (6.) SPIRITUAL INFLUENCE. Our institutions are meant to convert the unconverted and to consecrate Christians. Schools with consecrated teachers doing their work in a missionary spirit; with daily worship, young people's societies, and a total life that influences pupils toward Christ, and young men toward the ministry, have large claim for aid. The highest educational work, lacking this element, has no claim upon the Church's funds.
- (7.) BIBLE TRACHING. The Word of the Lord, which converts the soul, makes wise the simple, rejoices the heart, and enlightens the eyes, must be a chief text-book in every school aided by the Board. Teaching the evidences of Christianity is not sufficient; Christianity must be taught. Schools doing superior Bible work have superior claims upon the Board's aid.
- (8.) CHANGE OF GRADE. An institution having aid from the Board as an academy may not change its grade to that of a college without the previous consent both of its synod and of the Board.

(9.) VISITATION. New institutions must not expect aid before they have been visited by the Secretary.

4. Applications for Current Aid.

- (1.) FORM. Application is to be made by the trustees, in formal meeting, filling out a blank which the Secretary will furnish on request, and will send to aided institutions May 1. Applications made for the first time should be accompanied by the fullest information regarding the history and prospects of the institution.
- (2.) Time. The annual Board meeting for voting on applications is held on the third Tuesday in June. Applications must be in the Secretary's hands by June 1. If the trustees cannot meet in time for this, the Executive Committee should send an application as nearly as possible like that which the trustees will probably adopt; and the formal application: adopted by the trustees, should reach the Secretary by June 15. Institutions withholding applications beyond the date of the meeting, and giving no satisfactory explanation of the delay, will be regarded as expecting no aid from the Board for the ensuing year.
- (3.) APPROVAL BY PRESBYTERY OR SYNOD. Applications of colleges must have the formal approval of their synods endorsed upon the applications; applications of academies, the approval of their Presbyteries. Failing this, no aid can be given but upon unanimous vote of the Board, sixteen members being present. Yet as there is often no meeting of the ecclesiastical body held between the making of the application by the trustees and the June Board meeting, unendorsed applications will be voted on at the June meeting; exact duplicate applications, approved and endorsed, to be sent to the Board before any payment of aid will be made.

The Board assumes that in approving an application the synod or presbytery has satisfied itself by careful investigation (by committee visitation and scrutiny of the institution, if possible), regarding the institution's Location, if it be well chosen; Financial Administration, if it be wise and economi-

- cal; Scholastic Work, if it be broad, symmetrical and thorough; and Spiritual influence, if it lead pupils to Christ, form noble manhood and womanhood, and bring young men to the ministry. The Board further assumes that, in approving an application, ministers and ruling elders purpose to follow their affirmative votes with cordial assistance in prayers, kind words and gifts.
- 5. Application for Property Funds. Applications for Property Funds for aid in paying indebtedness or in the production or increase of property should be made in writing, should state explicitly all facts in the case, should be certified as adopted by a formal vote of the trustees in regularly called meeting, and should have formal approval of synod (for a college) or of presbytery (for an academy).

APPROPRIATIONS FOR CURRENT AID.

- 1. Amount. The Board makes appropriations in deep sympathy with struggling institutions, mindful of exceptional cases, seeking the advantage of the Church's entire educational work, and with such wisdom as may be given to those who, knowing their lack, ask of God. It can give only what the Church contributes. Under no circumstances will its total amount of appropriations exceed its reasonably assured income.
- 2. Announcement. Appropriations voted at the June Board meeting will be at once announced to boards of trustees of institutions, that they may adjust their proposed outlay for the ensuing scholastic year to their probable income.
 - 3. Additional Sources of Income.
- (1.) FROM CHURCHES. Colleges aided by the Board may solicit from the churches of their respective synods their annual College Board offerings; and academies have similar privileges in their respective presbyteries. Church offerings sent to the Board, but designed for institutions which have a right under this rule to solicit them, will be forwarded to the institutions, in addition to any appropriation voted by the Board, if churches indicate the designation of such offerings at the time of remittance. Institutions asking aid of the Board will be considered as thereby pledging themselves not to solicit offerings from churches in fields not assigned to the institution by the Board.

(2.) From Individuals. Colleges aided by the Board may solicit personal gifts in their respective synods, academies in their presbyteries, or both from fields assigned them or from personal friends anywhere; but this does not mean that acquaintance with a pastor in another synod or presbytery authorizes solicitation from his church or people, or that solicitation may be made of persons because they have previously aided an institution. Institutions asking aid of the Board will be considered as thereby pledging themselves not to solicit individual gifts of persons in fields not assigned to the institution by the Board. Individual gifts designed for institutions which have a right under this rule to solicit them, and sent to this Board, will be forwarded to the institutions, in addition to any appropriations voted by the Board, if the giver indicates the designation of his gift at the time of remittance.

4. Conditions of Payment.

- (1.) No DEBT INCURRED. Institutions aided by the Board may not create debt of any kind without previous concurrence in writing by the Board.
- (2.) EXPENSES WITHIN INCOME. Institutions aided by the Board must keep current expenses within income, permitting no unsettled claims of teachers or of others.
- (3.) BIBLE STUDY. Systematic study of the Bible shall form an integral part of the prescribed course of study.
- (4.) Solicitation of Funds. Institutions aided by the Board must observe carefully the Rule on pages 15-16.
- (5.) INSURANCE. No appropriation voted by the Board is payable to any institution which shall not at the time of such payment have furnished to the Secretary evidence that the property is adequately insured. The amount of insurance should cover about 60 per centum of the estimated value of stone or brick buildings and about 70 per centum of the estimated value of wooden buildings.

- 5. First Half-Payment.
- (1.) TIME. It will be made, if the Board's treasury permit, in January and February.
- (2.) CONDITION. The December Certificate Blank, sent out by the Secretary, December 10, must be returned filled out in form, approved in session of the board of trustees or of the executive committee of the institution, before the payment will made.
 - 6. Second Half-Payment.
- (1.) TIME. It will be made as soon after the receipt of satisfactory June Certificates and Property Statements (mentioned below) as the Board's treasury will permit; usually at once, and probably in June.
 - (2.) CONDITIONS.

The Spring Report Blank, sent out by the Secretary, March 20, must be in the Secretary's hands, filled out in form, by April 7. Delayed Spring Reports will be telegraphed for at the expense of the institution.

The June Certificate Blank, sent out by the Secretary May 1, must be returned filled out in form, approved at the annual meeting of the board of trustees of the institution; and it must show that, with the exception of such outstanding bills as the Board's final payment will be sufficient to meet, all bills of the year have actually been paid, and accompanied with the trustees' pledge that the remaining bills shall be paid as soon as the expected remittance from the Board shall be received.

The Property Statement Blank, sent out by the Secretary May 1, must be returned filled out in form, approved at the annual meeting of the board of trustees.

Such Other Reports as the Board may require must be made.

APPROPRIATIONS FROM THE PROPERTY FUND.

- 1. Object. Appropriations from the property fund are made only to aid in extinguishing debton property, in completing enlargement or erection of buildings, and in securing endowment.
- 2. Amount. Only under exceptional circumstances should an institution ask of the Board more than one-fifth of the entire amount needed, in no case more than one-third. But the Board will gladly aid in securing a larger proportion, or the entire amount needed, for any especially deserving institution, should some individual donor propose to bestow it.

3. Conditions of Payment.

- (1.) COMPLETING THE EFFORT. The appropriation will be paid when it secures the complete extinguishment of indebt-edness, or makes the final payment on the completed building, or completes the amount of endowment contemplated.
- (2.) Solicitation of Funds. Such solicitation of funds as is discouraged by the rule (pages 15-16), will forfeit the appropriation.
- (3.) MORTGAGE. Payment of the appropriation will not be made until a mortgage covering the property of the institution, for the total amount of the appropriation, shall have been executed and placed in the Board's possession.
- (4.) PROPERTY TITLE. The property to be covered by mortgage to the Board must not be subject (by the terms of the deeds conveying it to the trustees of the institution, or otherwise) to any conditions, reservations or restrictions which would in any way prevent or interfere with the acquiring of a good title to the property by foreclosure of the mortgage to be given to the Board.

4. Necessary Steps.

(1.) PAPERS REQUIRED. The Board must have

A certified copy of the charter or articles of incorporation of the institution.

A certified copy of the by-laws.

A legal description of the property to be covered by the mortgage.

- (2.) TIME. As the preparation, execution and approval of the papers require time, the institution should notify the Board that it will be ready for the payment, and should forward the papers named above, three months before payment is expected to be made.
 - (3.) OTHER PAPERS. The mortgage and other necessary papers will be prepared by the Board and transmitted to the board of trustees of the institution for execution. Such papers sent by the Board must be executed by special vote of the board of trustees at a meeting regularly called, and a quorum being present; and a certificate to this effect will be required. Mortgages must be recorded.

- (4.) EXACTNESS. Delay will be avoided if trustees of institutions follow explicitly the directions which will accompany the papers prepared and transmitted to them by the Board. The Board will require entire exactness.
- 5. Special Conditions. Such special conditions as the Board may make in each case will be notified to the trustees of the institution, and compliance with them will be required by the Board.

Plan for the Classification of Presbyterian Educational Institutions.

This plan was approved as to "the purpose and main features," and was recommitted to the Board with instructions, by the General Assembly of 1896, ("Minutes." 1896, page 57), and was approved by the General Assembly of 1897.

A. REASONS FOR IT.

- 1. The College Board should report for and to the Church the work of Presbyterian educational institutions: names of institutions sometimes express ambition rather than attainment. Institutions will be classified in the Annual Report of the College Board according to the subjoined "c. Standard Requirements for Academies" and "D. Standard Requirements for Colleges."
- 2. The College Board should also set before institutions the generally accepted, high grade course of study which they should endeavor to follow. This will be found in the tabulated "Courses of Study Recommended for Academies" (c. 5) and "R. Recommendations."

B. WORKING OF THE PLAN.

- 1. Institutions will receive blanks, upon which reports of work done will be made to the College Board, and will be classified by these reports.
- 2. Lists of institutions thus classified will be published in the Annual Report.

C. STANDARD REQUIREMENTS FOR ACADEMIES.

1. Students entering upon academic courses must be familiar with Arithmetic, Geography, Elementary Grammar, and United States History.

- 2. The Academic Three Years Course, which is designed to prepare for many colleges, includes at least 45 units; and the Four Years Course, which is designed to prepare for any college, includes at least 60 units.
- 3. The Unit is one recitation per week for one year; two per week give 2 units; five per week for one-half year, 2½ units; or for two of three terms, 3½ units, etc.
- 4. The Minimum of fifteen recitations per week is based upon a recitation period of not less than 45 minutes. Should the recitation period be less than 45 minutes, a proportionate increase of the number of units would be required. A school whose recitation period is less than 30 minutes cannot be classified as an Academy.
- 5. The units offered, and required for graduation, must in every case be at least the following:

· I	N THE CL	ASSICAL	IN THE SC	IENTIFIC
Required Studies.	3 Years Course.	4 Years Course.	3 Years Course.	4 Years Course.
	UNITS.	UNITS.	UNITS.	UNITS

6. Courses of studies recommended for Academies. The following table furnishes a list of studies from which the curriculum should be principally made up, at least 45 units being selected from it, in the proportions indicated in the previous paragraph 5, for three-year courses, and at least 60 units for four-year courses.

STANDARD REQUIREMENTS FOR COLLEGES.

Requirements for Entrance.

Institutions granting the degrees of A. B., B. S., Ph. B., or Litt. B. must require for admission at least the preparation described in the Three Years Course of the Standard Requirements for Academies; except that no Bible study need be required of those prepared for college in other institutions.

Requirements in the College Courses.

Institutions granting the degrees of A. B., B. S., Ph. B., or Litt. B. must require at least 60 units, the equivalent of a course pursued through four years of 30 weeks per year and 15 recitations per week.

- 2. The recitation period must not be less than 45 minutes. In laboratory practice two hours shall be the minimum equivalent of one recitation period.
- 3. Four units must be required in systematic Bible study, including, if desired, one unit in Christian Evidences.
- 4. Technical work in Music and Art, and in Professional work not offered in the curriculum, shall have no credit.
- 5. The remaining units shall be so distributed among the required and elective courses leading to the several degrees as to offer the equivalent of the same course in standard colleges.

E. RECOMMENDATIONS.

Institutions will note the following recommendations; although, for the present, these points will not be taken into account in the classifying of institutions:

- 1. For pedagogical reasons (the increased value of consecutive work over intermittent) it is recommended that in Bible Study, instead of offering one recitation period each week through the course, the subject be so assigned as to require two or more periods per week for a portion of the year.
- 2. The Board will favor institutions that promote classical study.
- 3. The necessity of training students to read Latin and Greek at sight, and to do independent work in mathematics, is now generally recognized; and such training is recommended.
- 4. Laboratory methods of study are recommended in every case where circumstances will permit.
- 5. Every Academy should as soon as possible adopt a four years course of preparation for college.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

AT WINONA, INDIANA, 24 MAY, 1898.

THE FOLLOWING REPORT WAS UNANIMOUSLY ADOPTED:

Fifteen Years' Work.—The Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies is the youngest child of our sisterhood of co-operative service. While our Home Mission Board will soon celebrate its centennial, and our Foreign Board is passing on to its three score and ten, this agency of the Church has only just completed a decade and a half of service. Considering its years and its opportunities, it has done much. During this period almost a million and a half dollars have passed through its hands for the upbuilding of Christian education. It has occupied nearly one-half our states and territories, it has aided almost three score institutions, it has controlled for the Church property of educational agencies amounting to a million dollars, and it has afforded educational advantages to an aggregate enrollment of nearly fifty thousand students.

One Years' Trial and Triumph .- It is extremely gratifying to be able to report that the past year, in spite of its great trial to this Board, has been one of advance, in fact its most prosperous year. During the past twelve months it has aided 28 institutions containing an increased number of students, aggregating nearly 3,000. It has been aided by 190 more churches than during the previous year, and by 41 more church organizations. The great cloud which settled down upon the character of one who has been fittingly styled "The Board's Nursing Mother," has not settled upon the Board or its work. Your Committee knows that it is only voicing the positive conviction of all who have examined into the situation when it says that the embezzlement of Mr. Charnley, with its peculiarly distressing character, is no cause whatever for lack of confidence in the Board. Your Committee would congratulate the Board and the Church that this has been already said in the most thorough-going, effective and unquestionable manner by churches and individuals in the magnificent way in which these have rallied to the support of the Board with their hearty and large gifts. It has been demonstrated, we believe, during the past year, that the value placed by churches and individual givers upon the work of the Board is not only greater, but has become greater because of its very loss and peril. The increased number of givers and the increased total of gifts, the fact that the Board has done its work, kept its pledges, without using any of its ordinary income, has practically replaced its embezzled funds, and closed the year without a deficit,—these things in themselves are endorsement enough. Why should your Commiftee add words?

Surprising Expenses.—The Church has a right to expect and find economical business administration in the conduct of her affairs. Your Committee have been surprised at the showing of your Board in this regard. It goes without saying that no single year can be taken as a basis of comparison without emphasizing the fact that unexpected expenses may arise and peculiar difficulties present themselves in the administration of any Board, but when it is discovered that the salaries of your Board of Aid during the past year were but 4 % of total income, only one other Board coming very slightly below this, while its total expenses were but 6 % of total income, only one Board standing with it on this economical level, while the year has been for it one of peculiar trial and expense, we feel confident that the Board of Aid should be marked with the words, "Close economy." We desire to add that its methods of business statement, as disclosed in reports of secretary-treasurer, and the records of its proceedings, are clear, concise, satisfactory, economical of time, yet not lacking in information.

Why the Church Requires the Board.—Your Committee desire to call especial attention to the evident reasons why the Church requires the service of its Board of Aid, as these are disclosed in what it is actually doing. It were unnecessarily sary to dwell upon the relation of the cause of education to the progress of any Church, not to mention the peculiar history of the Presbyterian Church in this regard. This Church has always laid hold of the upbuilding forces of education in the progress of her history. To-day as truly as in the past she needs an educated ministry, and an educated laity. She believes in thinking in being able judiciously, fairly and truly to weigh thought as thought in all departments of life, and not least in church activity and church procedure. It is in connection with the fostering of this educational advance in a Christian atmosphere that the peculiar wisdom of this Board in its workings is disclosed. The Board is a check upon mere promiscuous solicitation of benevolence on the part of merely enthusiastic sentiment. It is an agent of organized educational charity. The Board gives expression to the prudence and good judgment of the Church in avoiding unwise location of educational agencies so apt to be the outcome of local pride or provincial measurements of magnitude. The Board acts for the Church in laying down the ethics of comity within the denomination, and among the denominations. It acts for the Church in endeavoring to bring into wise relation to each other the benevolence of the State in the realm of education and that of the private Christian individual so that together these may pre-empt, in wise and proper relations to each other, the territory which belongs in common in our land to Church and State. Your Board avoids waste and loss of gifts because these may not be properly guarded. The insurance policy and the mortgage become Christian business securities for the perpetuity of educational forces. Your Board not only teaches to avoid debt, that destroyer of religious harmony, and that enemy of all success, but it compels its avoidance. Your Board sets itself against low grade culture and the decoration of ignorance with conceit. Your Board stimulates to local effort for the best things in the community where local effort is wise; it stimulates along lines of economical prudence and self-denying common sense the increase of educational benevolence. This is the faith of your Board not only stated in its resolutions and requirements, but seen in its works.

It is but fitting to call attention to the loss with which this Board has met during the past year in the death of Homer N. Hibbard, LL. D., from the first of its life an active, wise and sympathetic promoter of its endeavors after good things for education and the Church.

In conclusion your Committee present the following recommendations for your action:

- 1. Enforcing Regulations.—We recommend that this Assembly endorse the Board of Aid for its faithful enforcement of its judicious regulations regarding colleges and academies under its care touching economy, financial security, comity, efficiency and high standards of work, and enjoin upon it to continue to enforce these with impartial good judgment.
- 2. Plan for Classification.—We recommend that the Board of Aid put into working order at the earliest feasible moment, its admirable plan for classification of the institutions under its care.
- 3. Education Day.—We recommend that the Assembly urge upon the churches a continued and increased observance of Education Day as calculated to bring about large results peculiarly suited to the genius of the Presbyterian Church.
- 4. $150,000.—Following the custom of standing committees of preceding years, we recommend that the General Assembly advise the raising of $150,000 during the current year in gifts from its churches, as separate from the contributions of private benevolence, and that to this end a largely increased number of churches make a stated offering to this cause.
- 5. The Records Approved. We recommend that the Assembly approve the Records of the Board of Aid since the last Assembly as examined by this Committee.

- 6. Membership.—We recommend that the Assembly accept the resignation of S. J. Nicolls, D. D., from the membership of the Board of Aid, said resignation being necessary because of the rule prohibiting service upon two Boards of the Church, Dr. Nicolls' duty being plainly indicated as service on the Home Mission Board.
- 7. We recommend that the Assembly elect to membership on the Board of College Aid the following ministers: Herrick Johnson, D. D., LL. D., Wm. O. Ruston, D. D., W. P. Kane, D. D., and John L. Withrow, D. D., LL. D., to succeed themselves for three years. In place of S. J. Nicolls, D. D., we recommend Francis L. Ferguson, D. D., for two years. As lay members we recommend W. H. Swift, Esq., to succeed himself, and Hon. Henry V. Freeman, L. W. Yaggy, and Lafayette McWilliams for three years, Alexander McDonald for two years, and James S. Hubbard for one year.

Respectfully submitted,

G. S. Burroughs, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE

ON-

SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENCE

APPOINTED BY THE

OF

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

1898.

General Assembly's Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence respectfully presents herewith its Nineteenth Annual Report.

Your committee would call the attention of the General Assembly, to the actual condition of our missionary and benevolent work as indicated by the gifts to our various Boards during the past ten years. This can best be done by a series of tables of statistics such as here follows:

Table I shows the gifts from the churches to the Boards as compared with the amounts received by them from other sources of income (such as Sunday-schools, young people's societies, women's missionary societies, legacies, and the gifts of individuals); and as compared with the total aggregate of income. This table indicates that at present thirty-nine per cent. of the income for sustaining the missionary and benevolent work of our Church is the result of Sabbath offerings in the churches.

Table III gives the average amount, per member per year, given in Sabbath offerings to the Boards respectively; and also the average amount per member per year for all the Boards combined. This table indicates a steady tendency to lessen the aggregate amount contributed through the Sabbath offerings for the Boards of the Church.

GIFTS TO THE BOARDS.

We have gathered together in an appendix subjoined to this report, a detailed statement of the average gifts to the Boards through church offerings tabulated by Presbyteries for the six years from '91 to '96; also the statement of the gifts to the Boards for the years 1897 and 1898. A study of this table will show that the gifts of the church through Sabbath offerings are not keeping pace with the growth of the church. It also will indicate that the weakest point today in our whole benevolent system, is precisely the neglect of system in obtaining benevolent gifts in connection with Sabbath worship.

CONTRIBUTING AND NON CONTRIBUTING CHURCHES.

That the present plans for raising money for the missionary and benevolent work of the Presbyterian Church do not commend themselves to all of our pastors and church sessions, is clearly evident from an examination of the statement of the number of contributing and non-contributing churches, as indicated by tables VI, VII and VIII-VI—Number of Churches Contributing to the Boards of the [†] Report for 1897.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE BOARDS BY MONTHS.

The number of churches which do not contribute regularly to all the Boards of the Church is alarmingly large and indicates that there is a lack of system throughout the Church as to its plans and methods for obtaining the offerings of the people for the missionary and benevolent work of the Church. An examination of the time even when the offerings are received by the Boards of the Church indicate the same unsystematic condition of things. The standing recommendation of General Assembly as to annual contributions is as follows:

"For the churches that have not yet adopted the scheme of weekly offerings, set forth in the Directory for Worship, Chap. VI, it is recommended that the first Lord's Days of the following months be set apart for contributions to the Boards:

I.	Foreign Missions,	January.
2.	Aid for Colleges,	February.
3⋅	Sunday School Work,	May.
4.	Church Erection,	July.
5.	Ministerial Relief,	September
	Education,	October.
7.	Freedmen,	December.
8.	Home Missions,	Whenever deemed advisable.

When we compare this recommendation with the actual time that the various Boards receive the offerings from the churches, we find that in nearly every case the Boards receive larger offerings some other month than the one especially indicated as the special month for the Board. And it will also usually be found that the most popular month to send offerings to the Boards is the last month of the ecclesiastical year. The following table of offerings to the Boards of the Church by months would indicate the irregular and unsystematic character of the giving of the churches.

DETAILED EXAMINATION OF THE GIFTS THROUGH CHURCH OFFERINGS.

Your committee has made a detailed examination of the gifts through church offerings to the eight Boards of the Church for the year '96-'97. The full report of all the Boards of the Church for the current year will not probably be in the hands of your committee until the beginning of the month of July. A detailed examination, however, of the year previous will serve the purpose of showing the custom of the churches in reference to their support or lack of support of our missionary and benevolent work.

^{*}Children's Day.

Allowances must be made, of course, for offerings which reached the Boards after the closing of the books for the year, but it is probable that a like number, or very nearly, reached the Boards at the beginning of the year which were intended to be included in the year previous.

Further allowance must be made for churches which have practically turned over the work of collecting funds for home and foreign missions to the women's missionary societies; also for churches that take their offering for Sabbath school work, in connection with their own Sabbath school on Children's Sunday, the offering going through the Sabbath school treasury.

Further allowance must be made for churches which have omitted to take offerings for certain Boards because of large contributions going from the church membership directly to the Boards without passing through the church treasury.

But after all allowances have been made, it nevertheless remains true that an average of only four collections each year are taken by our churches, instead of eight. Averages are, however, misleading in that they cover up the fact of the number of churches that do nothing.

The same difficulty occurs in all averages of contributions per member from the local church, in that the large gifts of the ten in any church are divided up among the hundreds of the membership who do little or nothing.

During the year under review 1,392 churches sent no offerings to any of the Boards; 1,098 made one offering during the year; 626 churches two offerings; 485 three; 475 four; 541 five; 663 six; 903 seven; 1,064 eight.

The fact that 3,272 offerings reported by the Boards as church offerings were for one dollar or less, and that nine-tenths of all the offerings made by churches making only one offering were for ten dollars or less, indicate that in many cases the taking of the offering was characterized by lack of method and enthusiasm.

1064 CHURCHES REPORT A CHURCH OFFERING TO ALL THE BOARDS.

1,064 churches with a membership of 253,063 contributed to all the Boards of the Church. For convenience of comparison we have divided this group of churches into three smaller groups tabulated in the first three columns of the following table. The remaining columns give, first, the statistics for the 1,064 churches as a group, then for the other main group 6,567 churches, and finally for the entire church.

Over one-half of the income from church offerings came from the 1,064 churches, that contributed to the eight Boards of the Church.

In many of our churches which are represented as contributing to all the Boards of the Church there is a very large portion of the membership who practically do nothing and the reputation of the church for liberality to the Boards is sustained by the gifts of the few.

Rev. Milton Merle Smith, D. D., pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church of New York, in The Evangelist says:

"The following statistics were recently gathered regarding an offering made by a strong and wealthy church, in the latitude of New York, for Home Missions. There were 683 present, and the amount contributed was $1,800. There was one gift of $200, two gifts of $150, two gifts of $125, five gifts of $100. The significant fact in this array of figures is that $1,250 of the $1,800 was given by ten people; 196 gave nothing at all; 156 gave under ten cents; 119 gave ten to twenty-five cents; 471 gave $39.52, an average of eight cents to a giver."

It is a safe estimate that the total membership of a church will be one-third larger than the number of people present at any one service, and taking it for granted that this church taking a Sabbath offering of $1,800 with 683 persons present, will be the average liberality of the 1,064 churches that contributed to the eight Boards of the Church, we get the following results as the contributions of the 253,063 members which contributed to all the Boards during the year under review, $414,660, an average of 85,300 were absent from the service when the offerings were taken; 48,766 were present and gave nothing; 38,802 gave less than ten cents; 30,368 gave between ten and twenty-five cents; 50,773 gave $118,354 and 2,460 gave $301,465.

For members of the Presbyterian Church in comfortable circumstances to respond with five cent offerings to the annual earnest appeal for the cause of Home Missions, has a deadening effect upon the spiritual life of the individuals so contributing.

How Many of the 1064 Churches Took Separate Offerings for the Eight Boards.

618 churches report the same offering for several Boards, which indicates a sum divided among the several Boards rather than a special, definite, annual offering for each of the Boards.

145 churches report offerings of even dollars to several of the Boards, ich indicates that these sums were not obtained by regular, special erings for these Boards.

Accordingly 763 churches of the 1,064 credited with eight offerings the eight Boards, indicate by the amounts given, that the money was t raised by separate offerings.

75 churches contributed in even dollars from one to twenty five llars to some one Board. In many cases the difference between the lallest offering and the largest was several hundred dollars, which ould seem to indicate that the small amount was sent to the Board by stor or church session, rather than to have a blank reported.

As to the remaining 200 and more churches, your committee could not etermine whether the contributions reported were the result of an parate offering taken for each of the Boards, or the result of a division funds taken for all the Boards. Wherever there was the slightest pubt in reference to the matter the following letter was sent:

"In making a detailed examination of the gifts of our Churches to the trious Boards through Church offerings we find that the Church of which ou are Pastor gave to all the Boards of the Church through Church offerings. will greatly aid us in our work if you will briefly inform us by what ethod you secured this result. Was it by taking an annual offering for ach of the Boards in their turn, or by some other means?

It will greatly aid in preparing our report to General Assembly if you ould kindly give an answer by return mail."

Your committee received prompt replies from nearly every pastor o whom the letter was addressed. Reports indicate that the prevailng system among the churches was the use of the envelope system vith frequent offerings for all the Boards of the Church and division of the money collected by the session. That many more churches use he annual offering for the Boards by the ordinary plate system there s no question, but many of these churches neglected to take even the plate collection for some one or more of the Boards, and therefore a consideration of their offerings do not come under special review in this connection, but simply the churches that succeeded in sending through church offerings a contribution to each of the eight Boards. Only about seventy-five of them gave by the anonymous plate collection system. It is the judgment of your committee that a system that from seven thousand and more churches can only succeed in getting eight offerings for the Boards of the Church from seventy-five churches during the year, might be abandoned and the church unite on the subscription blank and envelope system, with frequent offerings for all the Boards together and the sum divided on some approved ratio and the money sent at frequent intervals.

A STUDY OF THE TABLES INDICATE.

- 1. That less than one-half the number of church offerings are reported that should be taken if the recommendations of General Assembly were carried out.
- 2. That only one-sixth of the total number of church offerings that should be taken for the Boards of the church are for sums of more than ten dollars.

That two-thirds of all the church offerings which are reported for our eight Boards are for ten dollars or less.

- 4. That 1064 churches report church offerings to each of the eight Boards.
- 5. That over one-half of the offerings of these churches were for ten dollars or less, as appears by the following table:

^{*}Forty-five churches of Indiana and Illinois which contributed to the other seven Boards made L. report to the Home Board.

- 6. That most of the churches that are reported as making a church offering to each of the Boards, secured this result by taking general offerings for missions and dividing the aggregate among the Boards of the Church.
- 7. That not more than seventy-five churches take distinct annual offerings for each of the eight Boards.
- 8. That nearly a third of the gifts to the eight Boards through church offerings is received during the month of March.

Your committee are convinced that the annual anonymous plate collections for obtaining money to carry on the missionary and benevolent work of the Presbyterian church does not have a tendency to develop a liberal and missionary church. That it encourges the membership of the church to offer unto the Lord the halt, the lame and blind, to make the well-to-do content with the widow's mite offering. It does have the tendency to foster the spirit of giving unto God that which costs us nothing.

SHALL THE NUMBER OF BOARDS BE LESSENED.

Your committee are convinced that if the number of Boards could be lessened it would be in the interest of more liberal giving on the part of the membership of our churches.

By the recommended ratios of contributions to the several Boards which the General Assembly has adopted, the church has already practically recognized the fact that the aggregate work of the six smaller Boards is about equivalent in magnitude and importance to the work of either of the two remaining larger Boards. The practice, therefore, of taking up distinct annual collections for all of the eight Boards, has a tendency to reduce all the collections to the level of the six smaller collections. If the system of distinct annual offerings is to be continued, it would seem to be wise to so combine the Boards that when the annual missionary offerings are taken, they shall all be for causes of equal importance.

Your committee have therefore considered at two meetings the question whether or not the number of Boards could not be lessened without injury to the causes represented by these Boards, and in order to bring this matter before the attention of the General Assembly, voted:

"In view of the fact that the various agencies now in existence for the collection of funds, and the carrying out of the work of the church, have not distinct and well defined fields and duties, so that different agencies are doing the same work and entering into rivalry one with another, to the lessening of the efficiency of the church and the increasing beyond a proper proportion the cost of administration, and proving by experience detrimental to the success of all systematic beneficence on the part of the whole church, it is recommended that the Assembly consider the advisability at this time of reducing the number of boards, and so combining and co-ordinating the boards as to remove all causes of weakness and loss of efficiency. Such changes must conserve the integrity and nature of all trusts and legacies held by any boards, and the work now done by these agencies must be done under the agencies with which they have been merged."

WEEKLY OFFERING AS ACT OF WORSHIP.

Your committee are convinced that many of the serious problems with which we are confronted in raising funds necessary to carry on our missionary work would be solved by the more general adoption of the envelope system in taking the offerings for the Boards, in the spirit of the sixth article of the Directory of Worship. If it is deemed wise therefore by the Assembly to give up the taking of what is known as distinctive annual offerings for each of the eight Boards, and place emphasis on giving as an act of worship for the entire congregation, then it will be necessary that certain adjustments should be made, in order to carry out more effectively the provisions of the Directory of Worship.

"In order that every member of the congregation may be trained to give of his substance systematically, and as the Lord hath prospered him, to promote the preaching of the Gospel in all the world and to every creature, according to the command of the Lord Jesus Christ, it is proper and very desirable that an opportunity may be given for offerings by the congregation in this behalf every Lord's Day, and that, in accordance with the Scriptures the bringing of such offerings be performed as a solemn act of worship to the Almighty God."

"The offerings may be apportioned among the Boards of the Church and among other benevolent and Christian objects, under the supervision of the Church session, in such proportion and upon such general plan as may from time to time be determined; but specific designation by the giver of an offering to any given cause or causes, shall always be respected, and the will of the donor carefully carried out."

Your committee are convinced that by the action taken by General Assembly in the year 1877 in adopting the report of the Committee on Home Missions a plan was recommended which, if carried out, would greatly aid in making systematic and proportionate giving as an act of worship more universal in the Presbyterian Church and in magnifying the unity and importance of the local church:

"Your committee would emphasize the importance of every organization for benevolent work in every church being tributary to and in harmony with the work of the Session of the church and finding its connection with the Board, not in some outside auxiliary, but in the scriptural and sufficient links which inhere in the system of our church—the Session, the Presbytery, the Synod and the General Assembly."—General Assembly Minutes, 1877, p. 512.

Your committee, after careful consideration of this whole question, would respectfully ask, "That the General Assembly recommend to the churches under its care, that all their beneficent gifts however gathered, should pass through the hands of the treasurer of the session or other treasurer regularly appointed for such purpose, and that the Committee on Systematic Beneficence be authorized to send a circular letter to the pastors of the churches urging them to earnest effort in securing the co-operation of all their agencies in their churches in the adoption of this plan."

SUGGESTED PLAN FOR PROMPT REPORTS.

We desire to suggest a plan by which it is believed your committee can co operate effectively toward securing the end so long held in view, of a contribution every year from every church for every Board. At present, as will be seen by one of the foregoing tables, out of 61,000 contributions that should be reported from the 7,631 churches, only 28,000 such church offerings are reported, an average of only four offerings, instead of eight per church.

We therefore suggest that your committee shall be authorized to collect, month by month, from the several Boards of the Church, a detailed statement on blanks provided for the purpose by your committee, of the church offerings received during the preceding month by such Boards or benevolent agencies. These monthly statements from each Board to be collected by the fifth of each month and by your committee to be then collated so as to show for the different Synods and Presbyteries all the church offerings for the different Boards made during the preceding month, to be furnished to the respective Synodical Committees on Systematic Beneficence on or before the tenth of each month, and by them in turn to be furnished to the corresponding committees of the Presbyteries within their bounds.

The work of the Systematic Beneficence Committee is now thoroughly organized with efficient Synodical and Presbyterial committees throughout the church, ready to co operate in any new plan which General Assembly may authorize for developing the systematic and proportionate beneficence more widely among the churches. Your committee believe that the systematic and prompt collection and distribution month by month of information as to what churches within the bounds of the different Synods and Presbyteries are doing in the way of benevolence will be a powerful aid in stimulating regularity and liberality in giving on the part of the churches.

SUMMER OFFERINGS.

We are convinced that the present failure of our churches to give more than half the whole number of offerings expected during the year, is due not so much to indifference to these benevolent causes on the part of pastors and sessions and people, as it is to the unfortunate tendency so widely prevalent to put off the taking collections to some more convenient season. The close of the year approaches, and pastor and church find it then too late to repair the omissions of the year, and in this way is explained the massing of contributions to the Boards in the month of March, and the rendering of apologies on the part of some, in the form of nominal contributions to the Boards that have been neglected. In the case of nearly 30,000 offerings that should be made, even this poor apology for non-contribution is not made. The plan of securing systematic detailed and prompt information, month by month, as to the gifts of the churches, and communicating the same to the Synods and Presbyteries, will, we believe, be largely effective in improving the present condition of the benevolences of our churches.

Inasmuch as the early months of the church year, (June, July August and September) are the months in which the Boards usually report the smallest receipts, while their expenses go on undiminished, your committee would once more and finally recommend that the churches which during the past year have made no contribution to the Boards shall be requested and urged to make their contributions to those Boards at once, thus doing something to relieve the monetary stringency of the Boards caused in part by their neglect of these causes during the past year. Adopting a figure from the strategies of war, it would seem that a time of emergency in the benevolent campaign of the church is a peculiarly fitting time for calling into service its reserve benevolent forces, which may now fairly be supposed to be ready for action.

SUBSCRIPTION BLANKS AND ENVELOPES.

Your committee would respectfully ask of General Assembly to authorize your Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence to continue to issue subscription blanks and envelopes for the taking of offer ings in accordance with the spirit of the sixth article of the Directory of Worship. That these envelopes be furnished free to all churches and congregations that will use them, the expense being borne pro rata according to the amounts received through church offerings by the Boards of the Church.

We would recommend that the wording of the subscription blank to be used during the current year should be as follows:

SUBSCRIPTION BLANK.

During the ecclesiastical year ending April 1, 1899, I will give at least the amount of......to the missionary and benevolent work of the Presbyterian Church, and will place the same in the envelopes provided for that purpose, all the offerings of this church, when not specially designated, to be divided by the session among the causes represented by the Assembly's Boards, according to the pro rata plan recommended by the General Assembly.

NOTICE.

- 1. This pledge is not meant to limit the amount of your gifts.
- 2. This pledge is meant to cover all your gifts to benevolence, through every agency in the church, including the regular church collections, the Women's Societies, the Sabbath Schools and the Young People's Societies. You will have opportunity to designate the channel through which your gifts reach the Treasurer by indicating the same on the envelopes provided.

OTHER WORK OF THE COMMITTEE.

Your committee has faithfully performed all the work committed to it by last General Assembly.

1. In regard to the Redstone Presbytery Plan. In the report of the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence to last General Assembly is the following reference to what is known as the "Redstone Presbytery Plan:" "Which in substance is the securing of pledges beforehand from all the members of our churches and congregations, as to the amounts which they are willing to contribute to each of the Boards during the ecclesiastical year. Two cards are to be distributed about the 1st of March, each year, upon which a column for each Board is provided. These cards when filled by the donors shall be returned, the one to the pastor, and the other to the session of the church, and by the session sent to the Presbytery, and by the Presbytery transmitted to the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, for tabulation and presentation to the General Assembly as the pledge of the Presbyteries and churches for our benevolent work.

Your committee has as carefully as possible, under the circumstances, considered this plan, and believes it to have some desirable and practical features, and has concluded to recommend to the General Assembly the submission of this plan to the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, to be put into operation by them as far as they regard it desirable and practical."

Your committee would report that quite a number of Presbyteries have considered the Redstone Presbytery Plan. Some have found difficulties in carrying out its provisions within their bounds, while others have voted to give it a fair trial, and have sent to your committee for subscription blanks to be used in canvassing the churches for pledges for the current year. All these requests for subscription blanks and pledges have been promptly supplied, but your committee have not as yet received any reports from the Presbyteries as to the amounts pledged to the Boards for the current year, and are unable, therefore, to make any tabulated presentation of what our Boards may expect from the Presbyteries for the coming year.

- 2. In reference to popular meetings in behalf of Systematic Beneficence, your committee duly held correspondence with the chairmen of committees of all Synods and Presbyteries looking to the holding of such popular meetings last fall. Most gratifying responses were received of promises of hearty co-operation in carrying out the plan recommended, many synods and Presbyteries holding such meetings, and in very many cases the theme of the moderator's sermon at the opening of the fall meeting of the Presbytery was on the subject of Systematic Beneficence.
- 3. In reference to subscription blanks and envelopes, your committee have furnished them free of expense, to all presbyteries applying for them for the purpose of securing large gifts for the work of the Church. About 80,000 subscription blanks and 100,000 envelopes have been sent out on request during the year.
- 4. In regard to leaflets. We have furnished a large number of leaflets for general distribution, viz; the address of Hon. Ralph E. Prime, on "Christian Benevolence," delivered before the Pan-Presbyterian Council at Glasgow; the English tract entitled "The Gift Bag," emphasizing the importance of every Christian setting apart regularly a fund from which the demands of Christian benevolence may be met; the address "Systematic Giving," by Rev. John R. Davies, D. D., and, "Consecration of Wealth," by Rev. Geo. F. Pentecost, D. D.

SYNODICAL MISSIONS AND SUSTENTATION.

We have received a communication from the Executive Committee of Synodical Missions in the Synod of Pennsylvania, asking that Synodical Missions should have a definite and due recognition in our work. Three points are specified at which Synodical Missions and Sustentation might with propriety have recognition.

- r. In the matter of ratios. Now one hundred per cent. of the benevolences of the church are divided among the Assembly's Boards. This leads to confusion in our churches relative to sustentation offerings and results either in their entire neglect of this important cause or giving it the meagre gleanings of a special collection. The committee ask for a definite recognition of and a due place assigned to the large and growing work of sustentation in ratios approved.
- 2. In the matter of the assignment of a month to be set apart for contributions to Synodical Missions. The committee suggest the month of November as being a convenient and acceptable month to the Synod of Pennsylvania.
- 3. In the matter of tabulated reports. In the tabulated reports made by our committee, that Synodical Missions and Sustentation should not be omitted.

Your committee would respectfully ask General Assembly, in view of the growing importance of the work of Synodical Missions and Sustentation, to give direction to your committee in reference to this whole subject.

THE SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDING MAY 1st, 1898.

Presented to the General Assembly at Winona Assembly Grounds, Winona Lake, Ind.

Your Committee respectfully submits its Annual Report together with the minutes of its meetings. Accompanying our Report will be found that of the Corresponding Secretary of the Executive Committee of the Presbyterian Woman's Temperance Association, auxiliary to the Permanent Committee.

THE WORK OF THE YEAR.

When this Committee was first called into existence, the able and faithful men who constituted its membership devised a plan of organization of our Church for Temperance work, which received the cordial approval of the Assembly, and our efforts have been directed towards its completion. It contemplated the appointment by every church court of a committee to promote the cause of temperance within its own bounds, and to act in conjunction with your Permanent Committee.

But unhappily the full measure of success hoped for has not been realized because of a missing link in the chain. We have now for years had, besides this Permanent Committee of the Assembly, a correspondent committee in almost every Synod and Presbytery and many of these rendering valuable service; but only a small proportion of our local churches are thus equipped for Temperance effort. We want the Sessional Temperance Committee or some such provision for the prosecution of this important work in the local field and subject to the local church court. Without this the conflict with intemperance which is conducted by the Assembly's, the Synod's and the Presbytery's Committee, will be a battle at long range and comparatively ineffective.

We have invoked the influence of the Presbyteries regarding this matter and a large number have recommended to the Sessions under their jurisdiction the appointment of such committee. The number of churches that have thus fallen into line is slowly increasing. To these committees are being sent supplies of our literature.

Of the Temperance literature printed and circulated during the year we herewith submit samples. The aggregate amount is estimated at 900,000 pages.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly our printed matter is furnished without expense to all applicants who give assurance of its judicious distribution. Had the necessary funds been supplied a vastly larger amount of literature could thus have been put in circulation.

The reiterated directions of the General Assembly regarding the dissemination of Temperance literature has been interpreted by your Committee, as implying a high estimate of the value of the press as an engine of war in this conflict with the powers of The Presbyterian Board and the American Tract Society have issued good temperance literature; the publications of the National Temperance Society, and of the Women's Christian Temperance Union are varied and valuable, and it is our endeavor to promote their circulation by directing intending purchasers to this source of supply. But this Committee is in hearty accord with the apparent conviction of the Assembly that if purchasers do not come fast enough the printed truth must nevertheless be scattered abroad. The exigency is pressing. The King's business requires haste. The battle cannot be delayed till volunteers can equip themselves. Thousands are ready to bear arms in this good cause. Let them be freely furnished from the public arsenal, and let the stores of the depleted arsenal be promptly replenished.

Rigid economy has been practiced by the Committee as to office expenses, and we may be permitted to say that the largest offerings made for the maintenance of this work do not appear on the books of our Treasurer, being the contributions of time and labor rendered by the officers and members of the Committee who are by no means men of leisure.

Correspondence, which constitutes a most important part of the work devolved on us has been steadily growing more extensive, until now it has become at least six-fold greater than ten years ago.

In a communication addressed to the Chairmen of Presby teial Temperance Committees we have asked the attention of the Presbyteries to a measure pending in Congress known as the Ellis Bill which aims at the suppression of liquor selling upon all government reservations, in the capitol, in immigrant stations, soldiers' homes, life-saving stations and military posts. The enactment of such a law would prove of much value to the Temperance cause. We have information from the author of this bill and from other reliable authority that there is ground to hope that the bill may be passed at the next session of Congress, if proper effort be made in the way of petition. Our Corresponding Secretary is writing, in the name of the Permanent Committee, to many of the senators and members of the House of Representatives bespeaking their influence and support for this measure, and in his correspondence suggesting to other friends of the cause similar effort.

While brave men are now gathering for their country's defense in war, can we forget how often defeat and destruction have come upon armies through drink? If railway trains may not be intrusted to tippling conductors, engineers or brakemen are the interests at stake in this war less precious that our government should establish or permit canteens and post exchanges for the supplying of beer and wine to the officers and men of its army and navy?

THE TEMPERANCE NARRATIVE

which the General Assembly expects each Presbytery to send to its Permanent Committee, and which should aid in supplying data for our report, frequently arrives late, and too often comes not at all. We have before us however the Temperance reports made to the Synods, and combining this material with that which comes from the churches through the Presbyterial Temperance Committees, we are in possession of some intelligence—albeit rather meagre in some instances—regarding the Temperance situation in every State where our church has an existence. The material for a complete Temperance narrative cannot readily be secured. Those whose deeds are evil "love darkness rather than light." It is not at the saloon door alone that the screen is set up but the whole evil business seeks to screen itself against public inspection. Conscious honesty, if ever the shadow of suspicion falls upon it, courts public inspection, which is sure to bring exoneration. But this traffic, against which lie charges of most atrocious crimes, resists with the energy of desperation every proposal of an official investigation.

A narrative sad and grewsome might indeed be gathered from the daily press and from the records of police courts and jails, of workhouses and the morgue.

A complete Temperance narrative should describe how the rum traffic, which is ever working such wretchedness and ruin, has with diabolical skill arranged and combined its forces for its own defense against the righteous indignation of outraged humanity, and the just punishment of its crimes. It should relate how by its lucrative patronage it subsidizes and quiets the press; how it fills with its own creatures city councils and State legislatures; how it often corrupts the administration of justice and wields an influence, all too potent, in the halls of national legislation. As to the character of this traffic, the testimony of the various departments of the Church of Christ is in perfect accord with our own, which pronounces it "an inexcusable curse to our country and age, and largely responsible for the bulk of the crime, pauperism and social miseries which afflict our land."

But within the limits of this brief report little can be attempted beyond securing a glimpse of the attitude maintained by our churches in the conflict with intemperance, the effort put forth and the successes or reverses experienced. And as to results achieved, statements cannot be very definite. Few figures have been furnished us and on some points precise statement would be impossible. Regarding the rise or decline of temperance sentiment no scientific tests can measure nor mathematical expression indicate its fluctuations.

Early in February a brief list of questions was sent out accompanied by a letter addressed to pastors and Sessions. Seven thousand copies were mailed. The Committee aims in this way to aid Presbyterial Temperance Committees in collecting data; also to remind the brethren everywhere of this Temperance agency of our church and to suggest and haply stimulate Temperance effort in the churches. The following are the questions sent forth.

- I. Have you organized for temperance work by appointment of temperance committee by the session, or in the young peoples' society, or by the formation of a temperance society in the church or Sabbath school, or among the women, or in any other way?
- II. Please state what means have been used in your congregation to foster temperance sentiment and combat the drink evil—as sermons and addresses, Sabbath school lessons, the pledge, temperance tracts or papers, temperance books in library, contribution of funds, petitions driving out saloons or keeping them out by remonstrances in the courts or votes at the polls, etc., etc.?
- III. Do temperance sentiment and the practice of total abstinence seem to be on the increase among your people and in your community?
- IV. Is the law requiring scientific temperance instruction in the public schools being faithfully observed?
 - V. Facts and suggestions on other points.

The reports which have been returned to us consist in the main of answers to these questions, but not exclusively so. The report for the Presbytery of Lansing gives prominence to the observance of Temperance Day, and earnestly pleads that the Assembly emphasize its importance—a suggestion which your Committee second with great heartiness. Ten of the Synods at their last meetings reiterated their recommendations on this subject.

In two or three Presbyterial reports the use of unfermented wine at the communion table is mentioned, and on this point also three of the Synods gave utterance. The Synod of Pennsylvania reaffirms the deliverance of the Assembly that the unfermented fruit of the vine fulfills every condition in the celebration of the sacrament, leaving the individual Sessions and churches freedom of action.

It is with gratification that we note that some reports emphasize the importance of Sabbath School Temperance work. The admirable adaptation of the Sabbath School for the work of inculcating the Temperance teachings of God's word upon the young is manifest, but not less patent is the fact that it comes sadly short of the desired results.

Most earnestly do we appeal to the great army of Presbyterian Sunday School teachers, 114,000 strong that they do their utmost to save our youth from the awful peril of intemperance.

Regarding Organisation for Temperance Work.—But two Presbyteries report that all or nearly all Sessions within their bounds have complied with the Assembly's recommendation by appointing Sessional Temperance Committees. In about one-fourth of the reporting Presbyteries no beginning has yet been made. In many of the others it is but the day of small things. As compared with last year however there is an encouraging increase in the number of Sessional Committees and Temperance societies in church or sabbath school.

One report says "The Session has resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole relative to the work." Nothing better than this could be desired. More than one make answer "The church is a Temperance society." And unquestionably so it is ideally. But so also is the ideal church a missionary society. Yet finding herself confronted by Paganism and Mohammedanism the Church has deemed it wise to gird herself for the conflict by special missionary organization. And does she encounter a less formidable foe in intemperance, the aggressive enemy which invades the home and the community and is to-day industriously sapping and mining that most valuable bulwark of Christianity—the Sabbath?

Due acknowledgment is made in these reports of the valuable service rendered to the cause by the women. The W. C. T. U. is mentioned by many and in two reports the work of the P. W. T. A. is commended. It is greatly to their honor that the women of the Church have responded so promptly to duty's call, yet it must be manifest to all that to devolve this department of the Lord's work exclusively on the women must prove detrimental to the spiritual development of the Church. It is therefore gratifying to hear of the extensive engagement in this work of Christian Endeavor Societies and Temperance societies whose membership includes both men and women.

Regarding Means Used.—In reply to our second inquiry some report the use of all the means and measures mentioned in the question. Almost every church has had temperance taught from the pulpit and in the S. S. In very many the Y. P. societies have given prominence to the subject. Some have the weekly prayer-meeting at regular intervals devoted to this object. One church in New York City maintains a rescue mission which is kept open every night in the year. Meetings of Church or S. S.

Temperance societies with addresses, distribution of literature and presentation of pledge, illustrated lectures, observance of Temperance Day, funds contributed, petitions and remonstrances, local option campaign work, enforcement of laws, Anti-saloon League efforts, votes at the primaries and polls—these and other means reported by large numbers indicate that there has been much activity during the past year. While reciting these various measures and describing the mechanism devised for the furtherance of this department of the Lord's work some reports mention, and doubtless all imply the use of prayer to God who alone can give the desired result. The wheels of elaborate mechanism may be in place but it is only when "the spirit of life is in the wheels" that they go. "Not by might nor by power but by my spirit saith the Lord of hosts."

Some tangible results seem to have crowned the efforts in behalf of the drunkard—a few brands plucked from the burning. But we cannot know what uplift of public sentiment has come from all this agitation and education or what results in the way of prevention—how many lives have been safe-guarded through God's blessing on prayerful effort which otherwise might have been wrecked.

Various Synods and Presbyteries heartily commend the Anti-saloon League which has rapidly extended its organization during the year. Though not as yet successful in any state-wide project, its local victories have been numerous, and good hope is entertained that by unifying hitherto divided Temperance elements valuable results in State and National legislation may ultimately be secured. We bid this omnipartisan and interdenominational organization a hearty God-speed.

One pastor replies to our question as to means used, etc. "I preach Christ." Some seem to think it enough that they "try to make men christians." Verily "there is none other name" but let us preach a whole Christ. "Is Christ divided?" Is he not a king as well as priest? Are there not duties as well as doctrines? And is not Christ a savior for society as well as the individual? We would seek to make men christians, but also labor to make them better christians. We would preach the word which abounds in ethical as well as doctrinal truth.

A century ago christians generally used intoxicants. Ministers, elders and people drank. Drunkenness was rife in the Church. Even ruling elders who on Sabbath handled the vessels of the Lord, on Monday stood behind the bar selling whiskey. Since then a great and happy change has come in the Church. But it did not come without specific Temperance effort. And now brethren we "have not yet attained neither are already perfect." Church membership, alas! does not yet necessarily imply the utter renunciation of the intoxicating cup. Nor does it yet go without saying that the professed christian will be found wielding his utmost influence for the banishment of the vile traffic.

The saloon can of course always rely for its defense upon the army of liquor makers and venders—250,000 strong. But the voters of our land number 5,000,000, and yet the saloon has not been driven out! There is surely occasion still even within the Church for specific Temperance effort.

Regarding Increase of Temperance Sentiment and Practice.— While laboring diligently for legal prohibition of the traffic, it is imperatively necessary that we shall prepare a foundation of public sentiment, on which such legislation may rest. In fact law is but crystalized sentiment, and public sentiment even prior to such crystalization may effectually dominate the community.

The consensus of opinion as represented in these reports is very clearly to the effect that within the church there is a rise in Temperance sentiment and practice. Regarding the community outside many seem to be in doubt. Some say "in the country— Yes. In the towns-No." In districts where there is a large foreign element Temperance principles find little favor.

From the South the reports are most cheering—notably from Texas, E. Tennessee and Georgia. From Knox Presbytery the report is made that "Temperance sentiment has grown greatly in our State of Georgia. More than 3/9 of our 137 counties are under local prohibition." And similar conditions prevail in Arkansas.

In South Carolina and Arkansas the labors of the two able and faithful men whose services your Committee had engaged for Temperance work among the colored people gave promise of excellent results, but with an empty treasury we could not go on, and this work during the past year, we are grieved to report, has been almost suspended.

From no section of the country do we receive more encouraging reports than from the new State of N. Dakota where the public sentiment strongly supports the prohibitory law and it is well enforced. But there is mourning among the friends of the cause over the retrogression in S. Dakota and Iowa.

In the last named State a sad change is reported since in 1894 the people were tricked out of their prohibitory law, and the so-called Mulct law was substituted, on the ever-recurring plea that prohibition could not be enforced. We are told that now the open saloon and the joint are on every side.

Gov. Larrabee in 1889, after four years of faithful enforcement of the prohibitory law, was able to report more than half the jails empty, convicts in the penitentiary reduced by 100, court expenses greatly curtailed, taxes much reduced and the State out of debt. But now after three years of license, the prisons are overflowing, taxes increased, the State under a heavy debt and the treasury is empty.

Nor has the concession made to the liquor power secured an abatement of its demands. "The daughters of the horse-leech cry give! give!" In the past year the clamors of this rapacious traffic have constrained the opening of the State to the distillery and the brewery.

There seems to be a like conspiracy in Kansas and the same tactics are pursued. First, efforts are made to prevent enforcement in the larger cities and then the cry is raised—"Away with prohibition, give us something practicable—a law that can be be enforced." But the good people of that State seem to be on the alert. They perceive that in its essential character the liquor business is a law-breaker and change of law will not effect its regeneration. A violator of the whole law of God, what guarantee could be given of its subjection to any human law? The alcoholic liquor trade is piracy. It is the trade of the wrecker who not only thrives by the ruin of others but by his decoy lights lures ships to their ruin that he may grow rich upon their flotsam.

And not with any lack of charity towards liquor sellers do we thus speak. Reared in less favored lands than ours as most of them have been: lacking the benign influences of evangelical christianity, lured by the sure prospect of great gains, the State saying to them by its license law "The business is legitimate" and by the voice of its court, "You may pursue it," is it to be expected that such men, even though certified as "of good moral character" should upon conscientious grounds turn their backs upon this temptation.

Verily the license system is an anomaly. It is a surrender by a christian State to the importunate demands of the powers of Like that other cowardly surrender when hate incarnate clamored at the gates of the Roman governor's palace until "that just person" in whom no fault could be found was given up to the fury of his enemies and the magistrate who ought to have unsheathed his sword "for the terror of evil doers" did no more than "wash his hands" in token of dissent—so now it is greed incarnate which with threats and promises importunes the State. Our rulers make response "your business is evil, it spreads vice and crime." But in such utterance they are merely washing their hands in dissent. They shortly yield to the clamor. The evil business is licensed and so to the will of this insatiate enemy is delivered over the young manhood of the land—soul, body and estate.

Yes, truly the license policy of our government is the Pontius Pilate policy. But who in this case is Pilate?

Let every citizen remember that he is a constituent of the government of the Commonwealth, and not by any mere verbal expression of dissent can he wash his hands of complicity in this great crime. When his voice, his influence and his ballot shall have been used against this iniquity, in the manner which he believes before God to be most effective, then and not till then should a christian citizen presume to say "I am innocent of this blood."

"This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation," that any member of our beloved Church should have been an aidor and abettor of the iniquitous traffic. In more than one Presbytery, as these reports tell us, such offenses have come. Our faces mantle with shame at the fact, that several ruling elders and one minister of the gospel, have been implicated; and, by one Presbyterial Temperance Chairman, the fact is deplored that the effort at administration of discipline was met and obstructed by the contention that the utterance of the General Assembly on this point, though as explicit as possible, has not the force of law. "When shall we have Presbyterian law on this subject?" is his anxious inquiry, which we respectfully refer to the General Assembly.

Most earnestly do we make our appeal to the thousands of worthy people who have heretofore implicitly accepted the license system, that they give the subject thorough investigation. Limited space precludes the presentation in detail here, of the proofs that license is wrong in principle and futile in practice, but the evidence is accessible to all. From such a study we shall expect to see the candid investigator return in the regretful spirit of the poet:—"It never was in my soul

To act so ill a part, But evil is wrought by want of thought As well as want of heart."

Regarding observance of Scientific Temperance instruction laws. As compared with reports of preceding years, the answers on this point are encouraging. While some still continue to reply "Don't know," there is a greatly increased number who have given this matter attention, and seem to realize that the imparting of this instruction may prove the means of fortifying these little ones against the allurements of the intoxicating cup and the pernicious cigarette.

In New Jersey, where this law is of recent enactment, the Presbyterial reports generally represent it as faithfully observed; also in New York, where a valuable mandatory provision was lately added. In ninety districts of that State failure to obey the law has lately been punished by forfeiture of State appropriation. Two California Presbyteries speak rather doubtfully and one large Presbytery in Pennsylvania reports the teaching as perfunctory, but a Michigan report says "well enforced and whole-The influence of this instruction is already bearing most excellent fruit in the thought and habits of the rising generation." The new law in Illinois is working admirably. Millions of school children come out of homes still dominated by the exploded popular fallacy regarding the nutritious, strengthening and wholesome virtues of beer and whisky. These children are now in the plastic hands of the teacher. In nearly every State there is a law requiring that every grade of pupils shall be taught from text books, which exhibit the conclusions of science regarding the poisonous character of alcohol and narcotics, and the injury which results to man's entire system from their use.

What a golden opportunity, now before appetite has yet been developed, to correct the pernicious traditional errors which these children imbibe in their homes. How incalculably important that they shall be fore-warned and fore-armed.

Shall this be done? Shall the law be enforced? Manifestly that depends. Ordinarily, when the constraining and stimulating pressure of public sentiment is felt by the teachers, the law will be faithfully observed. But if outside the school-room, nobody knows and nobody cares, its fate is a foregone conclusion. And especially will such be the result in our rum-ruled cities, in one of which, not long ago, 411 petitions for license was signed by school directors, while seven wards of the city had each, from one to four saloon-keepers seated as members in its school-board!

Whose influence, in most communities, is so potent in moulding public sentiment, as that of Presbyterian pastors and elders, and people. It has been well said that "Opportunity is God's command."

Your committee has dwelt with insistency on this matter in the reports of years past, and in special circulars and leaflets, and it has often been with surprise and painful regret, that we have witnessed so little indication of interest or effort along this line of Temperance education work for the young.

But now, after the recent action taken by so many Synods and Presbyteries, regarding the relation of college education to Temperance, we can no longer doubt that there is, throughout the Church, a substratum of deep conviction on this whole subject. Those fathers and brethren have given us evidence that they are as thoroughly awake as we can be, to the unspeakable importance of this whole question of the Temperance education and environments of the young. With the deep solicitude expressed regarding our young men in college, it is needless to say that we are in most hearty sympathy, but it is our present contention and plea, that all solicitude must not be expended on them, but that those in earlier life shall be permitted to share in it. Save the children!

If the flowing brook, just ready to debouch into the broad river, is to be vigilantly guarded against the influences which threaten to foul its purity, or deflect its course, is such jealous care needless near the fountain head, where the tiny streamlets' susceptibility is greater to influences either friendly or adverse. May we be permitted to plead that, with no abatement of interest and of effort, for the removal of unfavorable moral influences from the environments of college life, equal zeal shall be exercised regarding the little ones.

The going out of a youth from the encircling influence of a christian home, cannot but be to parents and friends, an occasion of deep and anxious interest and there are special perils in college life as there have ever been, which ought to engage attention and inspire prayerful solicitude. Regarding those special sources and occasions of evil influence complained of by so many of our Synods and Presbyteries it is ground for gratulation that some offences have been removed, and some unfavorable conditions in college life are being corrected, and it will now be the desire of all to strengthen the hands of that element in the management which aims at such a consummation.

The attention of the last Assembly was cited and expression solicited as to the pernicious custom of college wine-banquets. While it was not alleged that in any institution amenable to the Assembly's authority such custom prevailed, yet your Committee conceived it to be fit, and important to the cause that our Church should by explicit utterance contribute her quota towards the establishment of a just and regnant public sentiment on this subject.

With extremely rare exceptions our large Universities are located in towns or cities set thickly with those man-traps of satan—the saloons. Certainly, therefore, parents about to place a son in college should do so only with prayerful circumspection. If, to the shame of our nineteenth century civilization, our boys as they leave the shelter of the home, whether for college or for business, are obliged to "run the gauntlet" of the saloons, the more carefully should we prepare and fortify them in the home circle and sabbath school for the perilous experience which awaits them. Surely the college which seeks the patronage of christian parents if it has not yet been freed from such evil environment ought to make unmistakably manifest its attitude of protest and antagonism thereto. And will the conscientious parent choose to place his boy under the tutelage of dram-drinking instructors?

Investigation should be made regarding the spiritual atmosphere of the institution and as to what diligence is shown in keeping at work counteracting influences to save the student from the peril of temptation. It is with gratitude to God that your Committee has received assurance of the earnest work of this character that is being done in some of our largest Universities. Of one of these the Chairman of a Presbyterial Temperance Committee writes that "the institution was never more penetrated with a positive healthy religious sentiment than at present."

Parents should beware lest the moral and spiritual interests be subordinated to the intellectual. The existence of demoralizing agencies in and around an institution or the absence of elevating spiritual influences cannot be atoned for by any ample wealth of facilities for literary and scientific culture. "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

But even if any parent were inclined, in this investigation, only to ask which college will best promote his son's success in his professional or business career, he should reflect that whatever else a college does for its student, if it sends him out addicted, even moderately, to the use of intoxicants, that student has thus been heavily handicapped for the race he must run. In the fierce competition now prevalent in trade, in manufactures, and in the professions, the sound health, clear intellect, cool brain and steady nerves of the total-abstainer will steadily forge to the front.

Possibly on such a subject the testimony of your Committee, and of these Presbyterial narratives, and of the General Assembly will be taken at a discount even by some who do not question the veracious character of the witnesses. They regard the utterances of the advocates of Temperance as somewhat colored by their prejudices. We therefore greatly desire that such doubters shall be confronted with the

TESTIMONY OF EXPERIENCE AND SCIENCE.

The railway companies and insurance companies will be acquitted of the charge of fanatical bias. And the medical profession speak on the use of intoxicants not from the standpoint of moral but of natural law.

Railway Companies and the Drink Habit.—After correspondence with the general managers or other officials of 26 railway companies including the largest on the continent and employing hundreds of thousands of men, we are able to report that we have discovered no railroad company whose employees are not forbidden the use of intoxicating drinks while on duty. Almost uniformly they tell us that in employing men preference is given to total-abstainers. Many companies forbid the frequenting of saloons and declare such practice sufficient ground for discharge, while fully one-half of the whole number heard from demand that their employees shall utterly abstain from all intoxicants whether on duty or off. From the uniformly courteous replies of these gentlemen we present one here. It is from the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., is dated Winnipeg, Manitoba, 13th April, 1898, addressed to the Corresponding Secretary of this Committee.

DEAR SIR—I have pleasure in replying to your letter of the 8th instregarding the rules that this Company has adopted for the government of their employees regarding the use of intoxicating liquor. The rule that we have laid down is very brief, merely a statement that in the interests of safety and efficiency the use of intoxicants is absolutely prohibited: that an instance of intoxication will not be overlooked, but will be followed by immediate dismissal, and that preference will be given in every case to those who abstain from its use. We have also inserted in our book of rules the following advice to the men employed:

"The continued or the excessive periodical use of malt or alcoholic liquors should be abstained from by everyone engaged in operating the road, not only on account of the great risks to life and property incurred by entrusting them to the oversight of those whose intellects may be dulled, at times when most care is needed, but also, and especially, because habitual drinking has a very bad effect upon the constitution, which is a serious matter for men so liable to injury as railway employees always are. It so lessens the recuperative powers of the body that simple wounds are followed by the most serious and dangerous complications. Fractures unite slowly, if at all, and wounds of of a grave nature, such as those requiring the loss of a limb, are almost sure to end fatally. No Employee Can Afford to Take Such Risks, and the Railway Company Cannot Assume Such Responsibility.

Regarding the number of men employed on this division of the C. P. Ry. under my supervision, I may say that it varies from 6,700 men in winter to 10,000 men when we are making improvements and managing the ordinary summer work.

I trust that you will find this information satisfactory, and remain, Yours very truly,

W. WHYTE, Manager.

Life Insurance Companies and the drink habit. The position of these companies relative to drinking is not the result of any consensus of opinion but of the collection of facts actually occurring as shown in the figures of their mortuary lists. Dr. Henry Tuck, Medical Director of the New York Life Insurance Company wrote: "We are very confident that total abstainers stand a better chance of attaining a good longevity than what are known as moderate drinkers."

James W. Alexander, Vice President of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, declares: "Other things being equal I think we should always give preference to total abstainers." Extra rates are charged for persons engaged in manufacture and sale of beer and spirits, even though at present abstemious, from the "fear that persons so engaged cannot keep so near the fire without being burned."

Jacob L. Greene, President of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, says: "The death rate is more profoundly affected by the use of intoxicating drinks than from any other cause, apart from heredity." The prevalent notion that beer is a harmless and healthful substitute for more concentrated liquors is declared to be utterly disproven by the experience of this Company. "Beer-drinking is peculiarly deceptive at first; it is thoroughly destructive at last."—(Cyclopedia of T. and P.)

What the Doctors say about drink may be read in the following resolutions adopted almost unanimously by the American Medical Association, a national body representing that profession in this country.

"RESOLVED FIRST, That in view of the alarming prevalence and ill effects of intemperance, with which none are so familiar as the members of the medical profession, and which have called forth from eminent English physicians the voice of warning to the people of Great Britain, concerning the use of alcoholic beverages, we, members of the medical profession of the United States, unite with the declaration that we believe alcohol should be classed with powerful drugs, that when prescribed medically it should be done with conscientious caution and a sense of great responsibility.

RESOLVED SECOND, That we are of the opinion that the use of alcoholic liquors as a beverage is productive of a large amount of physical and mental disease; that it entails diseased appetites and enfeebled constitutions upon offspring, and that it is the cause of a large percentage of the crime and pauperism of our cities and country.

RESOLVED THIRD, That we would welcome any change in public sentiment that would confine the uses of liquors to the uses of science, art and medicine."

Substitutes for the Saloon.—In a former report your Committee bespoke the favorable consideration by the General Assemby and by the churches of proposed schemes for counteracting the influence of the saloon by the establishment of places of resort that should be pleasant but not perilous. The saloon skillfully caters to men's social impulses, offering itself as "the poor man's club house." Many who have as yet contracted no appetite for its baneful beverages are strongly drawn by its social attractions.

Why should not "the children of light" be equally wise?

The experiment has been tried with a good measure of success, of furnishing means by which the social impulses and longings could be gratified without the accompaniments of vice and impurity connected with the saloon.

The Temperance report recently adopted by the Presbytery of New York earnestly commends this line of work to the several churches of that city. Arguing that "it is certainly a legitimate sphere for churches whose declared mission it is to seek and save the lost, and thus make manifest the truth that Christianity is the redeeming force of human society. At the same time it would furnish a useful and specific field for the training of church-members, and doubtless bring into the church many who could be influenced by no other agency. It would directly help to solve the vexed question of reaching the masses. It would be going to them in a manner they can understand. It would show that the Church means something besides sermons and singing. It would be Christian love taking a practical form."

May this truly Christ-like philanthropy commend itself to the favor our people not only in the metropolis but in other cities, so that the scheme may be realized in the near future in many places.

WHAT OF THE NIGHT?

As we close this report we are grateful to God that we can say to our brethren that from the watch tower where you have placed us, there are visibly, glad "signs of promise." And even were it not so, that were no cause for disquietude, but the Lord's people should claim for the cause of Temperance what the sainted Judson claimed for missions—"the prospect is as bright as the promise of God."

The term of the following members of the Permanent Committee expires at this time: Ministers, R. D. Wilson, D. D. and C. W. Wycoff; Ruling Elders, George Irwin, Wm. C. Lilley.

Some months since Rev. C. W. Wycoff having desired to be relieved on account of difficulty of attending the meetings of the Committee, Rev. Chas. S. McClelland D. D. was requested to act in his place. We now suggest that the name of Rev. Dr. McClelland, by act of the General Assembly, be substituted for that of Rev. C. W. Wycoff.

Herewith is presented the annual statement of our Treasurer,

all of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Permanent Committee.

J. F. HILL, Corresponding Secretary.

ames Allison, Treasurer, in Account with Permanent Committee on Temperance of the Presbyterian Church.

ACTION ON TEMPERANCE

BY THE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

ΑT

WINONA LAKE, IND., MAY 27, 1898.

Resolved, First. That this Assembly reiterates the deliverance of other Assemblies in declaring that the word of God enjoins temperance, and that its priciples of love and sacrifice command total abstinence. "If meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth."

Resolved, Second. That our ministers and elders be urged to bear frequent, pronounced and public testimony against intemperance as a menace to all social institutions and a regnant influence arrayed against the achievement of every Christian ideal.

Resolved, Third. That this Assembly calls the attention of all Sessions and Presbyteries to the failure of so many of these judicatories to maintain proper correspondence with the Permanent Committee on Temperance.

Resolved, Fourth. That this Assembly urges the passage of the Ellis bill now pending in Congress, and directs the Permanent Committee on Temperance to communicate this action to the proper Congressional committee.

Resolved, Fifth. That we recommend the observance of Temperance Day on the third Sunday of November.

Resolved, Sixth. That the minutes of the Permanent Committee be approved Resolved, Seventh. That the following members of the Assembly's Permanent Committee be re-elected: Rev. R. D. Wilson, D. D., ruling elders, William C. Lilley and George Irwin, and that the election be confirmed of Rev. Chas S. McClelland, D. D., chosen by the Committee to fill the place of Rev. W. C. Wycoff, resigned.

Resolved, Eighth. This General Assembly calls upon all who are connected with our beloved Church to exercise increased diligence and watchfulness over themselves and those committed to their care in respect to intemperance, whether as parents or teachers in our schools and colleges, in order that our homes and schools may be purged of the evil of intemperance and the saloon traffic be driven from our land; and this without reflection upon the authorities of collegiate institutions.
